CAP. LXXXIV.

An Act to provide for the Performance of certain Duties of the Speaker during his temporary Absence from the House of Commons. [14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS the House of Commons have provided by their Standing Orders for the temporary 'Performance of certain Duties of the Speaker, during his unavoidable Absence, by a Deputy 'Speaker: And whereas Her Majesty had previously signified Her Consent that the House might do 'therein as they should think fit: And whereas certain Matters concerning the Office of Speaker are 'regulated by Statute, and the Validity of Acts done or Proceedings taken during the Absence of the 'Speaker may hereafter be questioned:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Acts done, &c. by Deputy Speaker during Absence of Speaker valid.

I. If at any Time during a Session of Parliament the Speaker shall be temporarily absent from the House, and a Deputy Speaker shall thereupon perform the Duties and exercise the Authority of Speaker, pursuant to the Standing Orders or other Order or Resolution of that House, every Act done and Proceeding taken in or by the House, pursuant to any Statute, shall be as valid and effectual as if the Speaker himself were in the Chair; and every Act done, and Warrant, Order, Certificate, Notice, or other Document issued, signed, or published, in relation to any Proceedings of the House of Commons, by such Deputy Speaker, shall have the same Effect and Validity as if the same had been done, issued, signed, or published by the Speaker for the Time being.

Not to appoint to any Office.

II. Provided, That such Deputy Speaker shall not have Power to appoint to any Office, except for such Time as he shall continue to be Deputy Speaker.

Nothing to affect Election of Speaker, &c.

III. Provided also, That nothing herein contained shall affect the Election of a Speaker, or the Forms thereof, or any Prerogative of Her Majesty concerned therein, or otherwise relating to the Office of Speaker.

CAP. LXXXV.

An Act for carrying into effect the Engagements between Her Majesty and certain Chiefs of the Sherbro Country near Sierra Leone in Africa, for the more effectual Suppression of the Slave Trade. [14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS on the Thirty-first March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three an Engagement 'was concluded between Arthur Edward Kennedy Esquire, Governor of the Colony of Sierra 'Leone, on behalf of Her Majesty, and certain Chiefs of the Sherbro Country, namely, Careybah Caulker, 'Chief of Bombey, and Thomas Stephen Caulker, Chief of the Plantain Islands, Pierre Charley, King of 'Sherbro, Harry Tucker, Chief of Shebar, and William Tucker, Chief of Bullom, and Boom Rivers: 'And whereas on the Ninth, Nineteenth, and Twenty-first May One thousand eight hundred and fifty-'three certain other Engagements were concluded between the said Arthur Edward Kennedy, Governor 'of the said Colony, on behalf of Her Majesty, and certain other Chiefs of the Sherbro Country, namely, 'Ibiboo Salifoo, Chief of "Jong," Mahamadoo Calipha, Chief of Barmah, Cabouka, Chief of Bagroo, 'Pah Rakey, Chief of Baly, Somaaker, Chief of Tassamankar, Soloko, Chief of Robannah: And whereas 'on the Seventeenth Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four another Engagement was 'concluded between the said Arthur Edward Kennedy, Governor of the said Colony, on behalf of Her 'Majesty, and a certain other Chief, namely, John Fortune; by which said several Engagements it was 'amongst other things agreed as follows: "The Cruizers of the British Government, or any Officer '"deputed by his Excellency the Governor of Sierra Leone, whenever they fall in with any Vessels '"or Boats belonging to the People of Sherbro, suspected of being engaged in the Slave Trade, may '"detain and search them, and in case of their finding that any of the Vessels or Boats aforesaid belonging '"to the People of Sherbro have violated this Engagement, by the Exportation of Slaves from the Coasts '"of Africa or elsewhere, they (the Government Cruizers, or Officers deputed by his Excellency the '"Governor of Sierra Leone,) may seize and confiscate the same, and the Vessels and Boats so seized '"shall be taken to Sierra Leone, to be tried by English Law, and when condemned shall be sold, and '"the Produce of the Sale shall be divided equally between the Queen of England and the Chief or '"Chiefs of Sherbro, and the Slaves who were found on board shall be made free:" And whereas it is

' expedient that effectual Provision should be made for carrying into execution the herein-before recited ' Provisions of the said several Agreements :' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Power for Commanders of Ships of War, &c. to visit and inspect, &c. Vessels belonging to the Sherbro Chiefs.

I. It shall be lawful for the Commanders and other Officers of Her Majesty's Ships of War, or for any Officer deputed by the Governor of Sierra Leone, to detain and search in any Seas any Vessel or Boat belonging to Careybah Caulker, Chief of Bombey, and Thomas Stephen Caulker, Chief of the Plantain Islands, Pierre Charley, King of Sherbro, Harry Tucker, Chief of Shebar, William Tucker, Chief of Bullom and Boom Rivers, Ibiboo Salifoo, Chief of "Jong," Mahamadoo Calipha, Chief of Barmah, Cabouka, Chief of Bagroo, Pah Rakey, Chief of Baly, Somanker, Chief of Tassermanker, Soloko, Chief of Robannah, and John Fortune, or to any of their Subjects, which shall upon reasonable Grounds be suspected of being engaged in the Slave Trade, and to send or carry away such Vessel or Boat, together with its Master, Sailors, Passengers, Slaves, and Cargo, for the Purpose of such Vessel being brought to Adjudication as herein-after mentioned.

As to the Trial and Condemnation of Vessels engaged in the Slave Trade.

II. It shall be lawful for the High Court of Admiralty of England, and for all Courts of Vice-Admiralty in any Dominions of Her Majesty beyond the Seas, to take cognizance of and try any such Vessel or Boat, which shall be detained or captured for the Violation of the said Engagements, and to condemn any such Vessel or Boat to Her Majesty, and adjudge as to the Slaves found therein, in like Manner and under such and the like Rules and Regulations as are contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament in force in relation to the Suppression of the Slave Trade by British-owned Ships, as fully as if all the Powers and Provisions contained in such Acts were re-enacted in this Act as to such High Court of Admiralty or Courts of Vice-Admiralty.

Persons giving false Evidence deemed guilty of Perjury.

III. Every Person who shall wilfully and corruptly give false Evidence in any Examination or Deposition had or Affidavit taken in any Proceeding under the said Engagement or this Act shall be deemed guilty of Perjury, and being thereof convicted shall be subject and liable to all the Punishments, Pains, and Penalties to which Persons convicted of wilful and corrupt Perjury are liable; and every such Person may be tried for any such Perjury, either in the Place where the Offence was committed, or in any Colony or Settlement of Her Majesty near thereto in which there is a Court of competent Jurisdiction to try any such Offence, or in Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench in England; and that in case of any Prosecution for such Offence in Her Majesty's said Court of Queen's Bench the Venue may be laid in the County of Middlesex.

In case of Prosecution in England, Venue may be laid in Middlesex.

Pendency of Suits to be a Bar to any Proceedings instituted for the Recovery of the Vessels detained.

IV. The Pendency of any Suit or Proceeding instituted for the Condemnation or Restitution of any Vessel, Boat, or Cargo, or Slaves taken, seized, or detained by virtue of the said Agreement, or the final Adjudication, Condemnation, or Judgment or Determination thereupon, may be pleaded in Bar or given in Evidence under the General Issue, and shall be deemed in any Court whatever to be a complete Bar in any Action, Suit, or Proceeding, whether instituted by any Person or Persons for the Recovery of any such Vessel, Boat, or Cargo, or of any Damage or for any Injury sustained thereby or by the Persons on board the same, in consequence of any Capture, Seizure, or Detention, or anything done under or in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Agreement.

Vessels condemned to be sold for Her Majesty's Service or broken up.

V. Any Vessel or Boat which shall be condemned as aforesaid may be taken into Her Majesty's Service, upon Payment of such Sum as the Lord High Admiral or the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty shall deem a proper Price for the same, or if not so taken shall be broken up and demolished, and the Materials thereof shall be publicly sold in separate Parts, and the Proceeds thereof shall be paid to such Person or Persons as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may appoint to receive the same.

Captors entitled to the Proceeds belonging to Her Majesty.

VI. Where any Ship or Vessel employed or engaged in such illicit Traffic in Slaves, in violation of the said Engagements, shall be seized by any Ship or Vessel belonging to Her Majesty, and afterwards condemned, there shall be paid to the Captors the net Proceeds to which Her Majesty is entitled, the same to be distributed in the Manner herein-after directed for the Distribution of Bounties on Slaves taken on board the said Vessels.

Payment of Bounty for Slaves captured.

VII. There shall be paid to the Commanders, Officers, and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships a Bounty of Five Pounds for every Man, Woman, and Child Slave seized and found on board any Vessel or Boat taken and condemned in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Agreement and of this Act, such Bounty to be issued and paid by Order from the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and to be distributed to and amongst the Captors aforesaid in such Manner and Proportions as Her Majesty shall think fit to order, by any Order in Council, made or to be made, or by any Proclamation for that Purpose.

Additional Bounty on Tonnage of Slave Ships captured and demolished.

VIII. Where any Vessel or Boat which shall have been seized and condemned under the Provisions of the said Engagements shall have been or shall be demolished, and the Materials thereof publicly sold in separate Parts, as well as her Cargo, there shall be paid to the Commanders, Officers, and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships, in addition to the Amount of the Proceeds of such Sale, as herein-before mentioned, a further Bounty on the Tonnage of such Vessel or Boat at the Rate of Thirty Shillings for every Ton of such Tonnage.

IX. Where

IX. Where any Vessel or Boat, having no Slaves on board, shall have been seized and condemned under the Provisions of the said Engagements, there shall be paid to the Commanders, Officers, and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships an additional Bounty upon the Tonnage of such Ship or Vessel at the Rate of Four Pounds for every Ton; and the Tonnage of all such Vessels shall be ascertained according to the Mode of ascertaining the Admeasurement of British Vessels, either by the Principal Officer of the Customs at the Port where the Vessel may be at the Time of Condemnation, or in default thereof by the best Evidence which can be obtained: Provided always, that in every Case in which any Vessel or Boat shall be seized with Slaves on board in which the Bounty calculated upon the Number of Slaves shall be less than the Bounty calculated upon the Tonnage, the Commanders of Her Majesty's Ships making the Seizure may elect to take the Bounty calculated according to Tonnage, instead of the Bounty which would be payable upon the Number of Slaves on board.

Where no Slaves are on board a Ship seized and condemned, an additional Bounty on Tonnage to be paid.

X. All Bounties payable under this Act shall be paid out of such Monies as may be provided by Parliament to the Commanders, Officers, and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships, and such Bounties shall be issued and paid by Order from the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Money for Bounties to be provided by Parliament.

XI. In order to entitle the Captors to receive the said Bounty Money, the Tonnage of the Vessel or Boat so seized and condemned shall be proved to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by producing a Copy duly certified of the Sentence or Decree of Condemnation, or by such documentary or other Evidence as they may deem satisfactory.

Proof of Tonnage.

XII. In order to entitle the Captors to receive the said Bounty Money on Slaves, the Number of Men, Women, and Children so taken, delivered over, and condemned shall be proved to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by producing a Copy, duly certified, of the Sentence or Decree of Condemnation, and also a Certificate under the Hand of the proper Officer or Officers, Military or Civil, who may be appointed to receive such Slaves.

Copy of Sentence of Condemnation to be produced to the Treasury.

XIII. Where any Slaves or Persons treated as Slaves shall be seized on board any Vessel or Boat taken and condemned in pursuance of the said Agreement and of this Act, but who shall not have been delivered over in consequence of Death, Sickness, or other inevitable Circumstance, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, if to their Discretion it shall seem meet, to direct Payment of One Moiety of the Bounty which would have been due in each Case respectively if the said Slaves had been delivered over.

One Moiety of the Bounty only to be paid in certain Cases.

XIV. Any Party or Parties claiming any Benefit by way of Bounty under the Provisions of this Act, or of any Share of the Proceeds of any Vessel confiscated in pursuance of the Provisions of the aforesaid Agreement, may resort to the High Court of Admiralty for the Purpose of obtaining the Judgment of the said Court in that Behalf, and that it shall be lawful for the Judge of the said High Court of Admiralty to determine thereon, and also to hear and determine any Question of joint Capture which may arise upon any Seizure made in pursuance of this Act, and also to enforce any Decrees or Sentences of the said Vice-Admiralty Courts relating to any such Seizure.

Parties claiming Benefit under this Act may resort to Court of Admiralty.

XV. All the Provisions, Rules, Regulations, Forfeitures, and Penalties respecting the Delivery by Prize Agents of Accounts for Examination, and the Distribution of Prize Money, and the accounting for and paying over the Proceeds of Prize, and the Per-centage due thereon to Greenwich Hospital, shall be extended to all Bounties and Proceeds to be distributed under the Provisions of this Act to the Officers and Crews of any of Her Majesty's Ships and Vessels of War.

Regulations, &c. respecting Agents Accounts extended to Bounties, &c. under this Act.

XVI. Where any Vessel or Boat belonging in whole or in part to either of the before-mentioned Chiefs, or his Subjects or Dependants, shall have been detained and brought to Adjudication under the Provisions of this Act, and the said Ship shall be restored by Sentence of the Court, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant, to direct Payment to be made out of such Monies as may be provided by Parliament of any Costs or Damages which may be duly awarded: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall exempt such Officer from his Liability to make good the Payment so made, when lawfully called upon, either by the Parties interested therein or by Order of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

Power to order Payment of Costs awarded for Vessels detained but not condemned.

XVII. When any Seizure shall be made by any of the Commanders, Officers, and Crews of Her Majesty's Ships, and Judgment shall be given against the Seizor, or when such Seizure shall be relinquished by him, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, if to their Discretion it shall seem meet, by Warrant to direct Payment to be made out of such Monies as may be provided by Parliament of such Costs and Expenses as the Seizor may have incurred in respect of such Seizure, or any proportional Part thereof.

Treasury may repay to Seizor of any Vessel not condemned the Expenses incurred by him.

CAP. LXXXVI.

An Act for securing the Liberty of Religious Worship. [14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that the Laws affecting Assemblies for Religious Worship should be amended: And whereas by an Act passed in the First Year of King William and Queen Mary, intituled An Act for exempting Their Majesties Protestant Subjects dissenting from the Church of England from the Penalties of certain Laws, it is enacted that no Congregation or Assembly for Religious Worship shall be permitted or allowed until the Place of such Meeting shall be certified and registered

52 G. 3. c. 155.

'registered or recorded as described in such Act: And whereas by an Act passed in the Fifty-second 'Year of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and fifty-five, intituled An Act to repeal certain 'Acts, and to amend other Acts, relating to Religious Worship and Assemblies, and Persons teaching or 'preaching therein, it is enacted that no Congregation or Assembly for Religious Worship of Protestants '(at which there shall be present more than Twenty Persons, besides the immediate Family and Servants 'of the Person in whose House or upon whose Premises such Meeting, Congregation, or Assembly shall 'be had,) shall be permitted or allowed unless the Place of such Meeting is certified as described in such 'Act, and that every Person who shall knowingly permit or suffer any such Congregation or Assembly 'as aforesaid to meet in any Place occupied by him, until the same shall have been so certified, shall 'forfeit for every Time any such Congregation or Assembly shall meet a Sum not exceeding Twenty 'Pounds nor less than Twenty Shillings, at the Discretion of the Justices who shall convict for such 'Offence:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

No Prosecution to be maintainable for assembling for Religious Worship in a Place of Meeting not certified.

I. From and after the passing of this Act, nothing contained in the above-mentioned Acts, or in an Act passed in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-six, shall apply to the Congregations or Assemblies herein-after mentioned, or any of them; that is to say,

(1.) To any Congregation or Assembly for Religious Worship held in any Parish or any Ecclesiastical District, and conducted by the Incumbent, or in case the Incumbent is not resident, by the Curate of such Parish or District, or by any Person authorized by them respectively:

(2.) To any Congregation or Assembly for Religious Worship meeting in a private Dwelling House or on the Premises belonging thereto:

(3.) To any Congregation or Assembly for Religious Worship meeting occasionally in any Building or Buildings not usually appropriated to Purposes of Religious Worship:

And no Person permitting any such Congregation to meet as herein mentioned in any Place occupied by him shall be liable to any Penalty for so doing.

Construction of certain Parts of 2 & 3 W. 4. c. 115. and 9 & 10 Vict. c. 59. as to Places of Worship of Roman Catholics and Jews.

II. So much of an Act passed in the Second and Third Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter One hundred and fifteen, as enacts that Her Majesty's Subjects professing the Roman Catholic Religion, in respect to their Places for Religious Worship, shall be subject to the same Laws as the Protestant Dissenters are subject to, and so much of an Act passed in the Ninth and Tenth Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter Fifty-nine, as enacts that Her Majesty's Subjects professing the Jewish Religion, in respect to their Places for Religious Worship, shall be subject to the same Laws as Protestant Dissenters are subject to, shall be respectively read as applicable to the Laws to which Protestant Dissenters in England are subject for the Time being after the passing of this Act.

CAP. LXXXVII.

An Act to amend the Act for the better Care and Reformation of Youthful Offenders, and the Act to render Reformatory and Industrial Schools in Scotland more available for the Benefit of Vagrant Children. [14th August 1855.]

17 & 18 Vict. c. 86.

'WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Act of the last Session of Parliament, Chapter Eighty-six, "for the better Care and Reformation of Youthful Offenders in Great Britain," so far as respects 'the Provision thereby made for charging the Parent or Step-Parent of an Offender in certain Cases 'with Payments towards his Maintenance or Support:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

ss. 5. & 6. repealed.

I. Sections Five and Six of the said Act shall be repealed.

Provision for enforcing Contribution by Parents to the Maintenance of Juvenile Offenders in Reformatory Schools.

II. In every Case in which any Juvenile Offender shall be detained in a Reformatory School under the said Act, the Parent or Step-Parent, if of sufficient Ability, shall be liable to contribute to his Support and Maintenance a Sum not exceeding Five Shillings a Week; and it shall be lawful in England and Wales for any Two Justices of the Peace, upon the Complaint of any Person authorized by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to take Proceedings in that Behalf, to summon the Parent or Step-Parent, as the Case may be, and examine into his or her Ability, and (if on Consideration of all the Circumstances of the Case they think fit) to make an Order upon him or her for such weekly Payment, not exceeding Five Shillings per Week, as they shall think reasonable, during the whole or any Part of the Detention of such Juvenile Offender in such Reformatory School, such Payment to be made at such Times as by such Order may be directed to the Person so authorized to take Proceedings as aforesaid, or to such Person as the Secretary of State may from Time to Time appoint to receive the same, and by him to be accounted for and paid as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may direct.

Recovery of Sums ordered to be paid.

III. In case Default be made for the Space of Fourteen Days in Payment of any Sum of Money which may have become payable by such Parent or Step-Parent under such Order, such Sum of Money shall in every such Case be levied upon the Goods and Chattels of the Defendant by Distress and Sale thereof; and if it shall appear to the said Justices on Confession of Defendants or otherwise, or if it shall be returned returned to the Warrant of Distress in any such Case that no sufficient Goods of the Party against whom such Warrant shall have been issued can be found, it shall be lawful for the Justice to whom such Return is made, or for any other Justice of the Peace for the same County, Riding, Division, Liberty, City, Borough, or Place, by his Warrant as aforesaid, to commit the Defendant to the House of Correction or Common Gaol for any Term not exceeding Ten Days, unless the Sum to be paid, and all Costs and Charges of the Distress, and of the Commitment and conveying of the Defendant to Prison, (the Amount thereof being ascertained and stated in such Commitment,) shall be sooner paid.

Contribution how to be enforced in Scotland.

IV. In Scotland an Action for Payment of Sums for the Support and Maintenance of a Juvenile Offender under the said Act shall and may be raised before the Sheriff or any Two Justices of the Peace within the County in which Sentence was passed on the Offender, or in which the Defender in such Action may happen to reside; and such Action shall and may be brought by the Procurator Fiscal of the Sheriff Court of such County, and by no one else; and it shall be lawful for the Sheriff or Justices before whom such Action is brought to inquire into the Circumstances of the Party sued, and to decern for Payment of such weekly Sum not exceeding Five Shillings per Week during the Period of Detention of such Offender as he or they shall think fit, or, in his or their Discretion, to dismiss the Action; and such Decree for Payment of a weekly Sum shall be held to be and have all the Effect of a Decree in each Week for Payment of the Sum ordered to be paid for such Week; and the Sums recovered shall be accounted for and paid as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may direct.

Payments may be remitted by Secretary of State or Lord Advocate.

V. It shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or in Scotland for the Lord Advocate, from Time to Time, where such Secretary of State or Lord Advocate shall in his Discretion think fit, to remit all or any Part of any weekly Payment which may have been made payable by any Order under this Act.

In Scotland Justices to have same Power with Sheriff.

VI. In Scotland any Two or more Justices of the Peace shall within the Bounds of their Jurisdiction have the same Powers as are by the said recited Act conferred on any Sheriff, Magistrate of a Burgh, or Police Magistrate.

Powers given to Sheriffs, &c. under 17 & 18 Vict. c. 74. may be exercised by Justices.

VII. 'And whereas by the Act of the last Session of Parliament, Chapter Seventy-four, intituled 'An Act to render Reformatory and Industrial Schools in Scotland more available for the Benefit of 'Vagrant Children, certain Powers are given to be exercised in Scotland by Sheriffs or Magistrates:' Be it enacted, That all such Powers may be exercised by any Justice of the Peace in Scotland within the Limits of his Jurisdiction; and the Word "Magistrate" as used in the said last-mentioned Act shall be deemed to include the Words "Justice of the Peace."

CAP. LXXXVIII.

An Act to facilitate the Erection of Dwelling Houses for the Working Classes in Scotland.

[14th August 1855.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Persons proposing to form Association for erecting or improving Dwelling Houses under Act to apply to Sheriff for his Sanction.

I. When any Four or more Persons associating for the Purpose of erecting new or improving already existing Dwelling Houses for the Working Classes in Scotland shall have subscribed the Amount of the whole Capital requisite for carrying out the contemplated Undertaking, and framed a Contract of Copartnery, containing Provisions for the Management of the Affairs of the Association, and Rules for the Upholding and Occupation of the Houses, and for letting and granting Tacks of the same, it shall be lawful for such Persons to present a Petition to the Sheriff, or if within any of the Burghs as to which it is provided in the Third and Fourth of William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-six, that the Dean of Guild elected in the Manner mentioned in the said Act should ex officio be a constituent Member of the Town Council, and enjoy the Powers and exercise the Functions theretofore enjoyed and exercised by Deans of Guild, then to such Dean of Guild, praying to have such Contract sanctioned by him and registered as after mentioned, provided that along with such Petition there shall be lodged the Plans and Specifications of the intended Erections or Improvements, and an Estimate of the Cost thereof, including the Cost of the Site and of the Buildings, if any, thereon.

Sheriff, if satisfied with Contract, Plans, &c. may interpone his Sanction and grant Warrant for recording the Contract and proceeding with the Undertaking.

II. The Sheriff or Dean of Guild, after such Inquiry as he may deem necessary, if satisfied that the Provisions of the Contract of Copartnery and the Rules therein contained, either as originally framed or as altered or modified at his Sight, are suitable and proper, and consistent herewith and with Law, and that they sufficiently and properly provide for the upholding, Management, and Disposal of the said Dwelling Houses, and also for the Occupation thereof, and securing against over-crowding; and that due and sufficient Means are provided in the said Plans and Specifications for the proper Ventilation, Drainage, and Sewerage of the intended Dwelling Houses and for the Supply of Water thereto, and that the Capital subscribed is sufficient for the Completion of the Undertaking, shall grant Warrant for the Erection or Improvement of the proposed Dwelling Houses, and for registering the said Contract in the Sheriff Court Books or Burgh Court Books respectively, and such Contract shall, on the Production to the Sheriff Clerk or Town Clerk of a Deposit Receipt or Certificate showing that One Half of the subscribed Capital has been paid up and lodged in Bank for the Purposes of the Undertaking, be registered therein accordingly.

III. On

On Registration, the Members of the Association and their Successors to subsist as an Association for the Purposes of the Act, subject to only a limited Liability for Debts, &c.

III. On the Registration of the Contract as aforesaid, the then Shareholders or Members in any such Undertaking, and all succeeding Shareholders or Members, whilst Shareholders or Members, shall subsist as an Association by the Name or Title set forth in the Contract, for the following Purposes, namely, for acquiring, holding, and managing the Property and Effects of the Association in the Name or Title thereof, and for erecting or improving and afterwards upholding the Dwelling Houses described in the Specification and Plans, and for letting or disponing in Tack such Dwelling Houses, and for sueing and being sued, and entering into Contracts in the Name or Title of the Association: Provided always, that the Shareholders or Members of the Association shall be liable for the Debts, Contracts, and Engagements thereof to the Extent only of their Shares in the Capital Stock of the Association, which Capital Stock, with the Dividends allocated to the Shareholders or Members which may be at the Time unpaid, shall be alone liable for the Debts and Engagements of the Association.

Association may acquire Property and Sheriff may grant Warrant for Erection of additional Dwelling Houses.

IV. Any such Association as aforesaid whose Contract may have been registered as herein-before provided, desirous of erecting or of acquiring and improving additional Dwelling Houses for the Purposes aforesaid, may at any Time, and from Time to Time, apply to the Sheriff or Dean of Guild, by Petition, accompanied by Plans, Specifications, and Estimates as herein-before provided in regard to the Dwelling Houses before mentioned, for his Sanction and Warrant for the Erection or Improvement of such additional Dwelling Houses, subject to the Rules and Provisions contained in such Contract; and the Sheriff or Dean of Guild, if satisfied that all the Conditions herein-before required in reference to Dwelling Houses to be erected or improved under the original Application by the Association have been fulfilled in reference to such additional Dwelling Houses, may interpone his Sanction to the Erection or Improvement of such additional Dwelling Houses, and grant his Warrant accordingly, and the aforesaid Provisions in reference to the first-mentioned Dwelling Houses shall be applicable to such additional Dwelling Houses.

When Work duly executed Sheriff to declare so, and till then not lawful to let or dispose of Houses nor transfer Shares.

V. When the Buildings or Improvements set forth in the Plan and Specifications, whether under the original or any subsequent Petition by the Association, shall have been executed, the Sheriff or Dean of Guild shall, on Application by the Association, appoint the Dwelling Houses so erected or improved to be inspected at the Expense of the Association, and if satisfied that these have been duly executed in Terms of the Plans and Specifications, and on Proof that the Property of the said Dwelling Houses has been duly vested in the Association, free from Heritable Debt or Burden other than Feu Duty or Ground Annual, and other Right competent to the Superior or Recipient of the Feu Duty or Ground Annual, he shall pronounce an Interlocutor to that Effect, and until such Interlocutor shall have been pronounced it shall not be lawful for the Association or its Members to dispone in Tack, as after mentioned, any of the Dwelling Houses erected or improved by them, nor to assign or transfer any Share or Shares in such Association.

No Engagement lawful except for Purposes of Association or beyond Stock or Rents.

VI. It shall not be lawful to nor in the Power of the Association to enter into any Engagement except for carrying into effect the Objects thereof, nor for that Purpose beyond the Capital subscribed, nor afterwards beyond the Rents derived from Tenants which may be realized at the Time: Provided always, that if the Expense actually incurred in the Erection or Improvement of the said Dwelling Houses shall exceed the estimated Cost, it shall be lawful for the Association, with the Sanction of the Sheriff or Dean of Guild, although not specially provided for in the Contract, to increase their Capital Stock by such Amount as such Sheriff or Dean of Guild shall authorize, and to issue new Shares to the Extent thereof.

Title of Association to be effectual in perpetuity, without Renewal of the Investiture.

VII. When the Association shall have made up their Title in common Form to the Lands, Houses, or other Subjects acquired by them, their Infeftment therein, duly recorded, shall constitute a valid and effectual Title to them and their Successors in all Time to come, without the Necessity of any Renewal of the Investiture: Provided always, that where no Agreement shall have been made with the Superior for a periodical or other Payment in lieu of the Casualty or Composition payable upon the Entry of Heirs and singular Successors, it shall be lawful for such Superior at the Death of the existing Vassal, and at the Expiration of every Twenty-five Years thereafter, so long as such Property shall be held for the Purposes of such Contract as aforesaid, to demand and take from the Association or their Successors a Sum equal to the yearly Feu Duty over and above the Feu Duty which may at the Time be due.

Rules in Contract to be Real Burdens on the Property.

VIII. The Rules anent the disponing in Tack, letting, and Occupation of the said Dwelling Houses contained in the Contract registered as aforesaid shall be Real Burdens on and affecting the said Houses and other Subjects of the Association, and shall be in all Time coming binding upon the Association, and all Parties in their Right, and upon every Owner and Occupant of the said Dwelling Houses, and it shall be competent to the Association, or the Procurator Fiscal, or the Owner or Occupant of any of the Lots or Portions of the Buildings, to enforce Observance of such Rules against any Party infringing or not implementing the same by summary Process before the Judge Ordinary of the Bounds; and the Sheriff and Dean of Guild shall have Power from Time to Time, on the Application of the Association, or of a Majority of the Owners, to alter, amend, and modify such Rules as to him shall seem just, but consistently always with the Provisions of this Act, and all Alterations so made shall be recorded in the Sheriff Court Books or Burgh Court Books, and the Rules so altered, amended, or modified shall thenceforward be binding and enforcible as aforesaid.

Shares deemed Moveable Estate.

IX. All Shares of the subscribed Capital Stock of such Association shall be held to be Moveable or Personal Estate.

X. All

As to Transfer of Shares.

X. All Transfers of such Shares shall be made and registered in the Manner prescribed by the Contract, provided that every such Transfer shall specify the full and true Purchase Money or Consideration for the same, and shall be duly stamped to denote the Duty chargeable thereon; and the Books in which the Names of the Shareholders, with their Designations and Places of Residence, and the Transfers of Shares are registered or entered, shall be open to Inspection to all Shareholders and others interested at such Times and on such Conditions as may be regulated by the Contract.

Contract may provide either that Houses may be held and let or that they may be disposed of in separate Lots.

XI. It shall be provided in such Contract as aforesaid, either that the Buildings erected or improved by the Association shall permanently be held and let by them without Grassums, and for Periods not exceeding Twenty-one Years, and that the Rents, after deducting necessary Expenses, shall always be divided among the Shareholders for the Time being, or that the Association shall have Power, after giving public Notice by Advertisement of its Intention in that Behalf, to dispone to Individuals, in Tack or Rental Rights as herein-after mentioned, separate Lots of the said Dwelling Houses for a Grassum or Price to be paid, together with a yearly Tack Duty which for each Lot shall be at least equal to a Proportion of the Feu Duty or Ground Annual, if any, payable for the Parcel of Ground whereon the Buildings of which such Lot forms a Part are erected, corresponding to the total Number of Lots into which the same may be divided, with Twenty-five per Cent. thereon in addition, and such Tack Duty in all Cases in which the Superior is entitled to a periodical Duplicand of the Feu Duty shall be subject also to Duplication for the Year in which such double Feu Duty is payable to the Superior.

Where Lots are provided to be disposed of, the Association to lodge with Sheriff Clerk a Plan and a Register Book for recording Transfers thereof.

XII. In all Cases in which it is provided by the Contract that Lots of the Buildings erected or improved may be so disposed, the Association shall, so soon as the Sheriff or Dean of Guild shall have pronounced an Interlocutor finding the Erection or Improvement of the Dwelling Houses as aforesaid to have been properly executed as herein-before provided, lodge with the Sheriff Clerk or Town Clerk an accurate Plan, on a Scale of not less than an Inch to each Twenty Feet, of such Dwelling Houses, exhibiting distinctly each separate Dwelling with its bounding Divisions, together with the Yard, Court, Garden, Green, or other Pertinents, if any, thereto belonging, and having each such separate Dwelling and Pertinents marked with a distinct Number legibly written or impressed on the said Plan, and also exhibiting any Yard, Court, Green, or other Pertinents which may be common to the Occupants of the Dwelling Houses; and the Sheriff or Dean of Guild, if satisfied of the accuracy of such Plan, and with its Distinctness as clearly exhibiting each separate Dwelling and the Pertinents aforesaid, shall, by a Docquet written thereon, or on each separate Sheet thereof when consisting of separate Sheets not joined together, and subscribed by him and bearing the Date at which the same is so subscribed, certify such Plan as the recorded Plan of the said Dwelling Houses; and the Association shall also lodge with the Sheriff Clerk or Town Clerk a Register or Rental Book having all the Pages duly and progressively numbered from Number One onwards, and having an equal Number of the whole Leaves thereof in proportion to the total Number of Dwellings appropriated for entering the Tack or Rental Right of each Dwelling respectively, and the Transfers thereof, and in the Order of the Numbers of such Dwellings as marked on the Plan, the Number of each Dwelling as so marked on the Plan being, in addition to the Number of the Page, legibly impressed or written on each Page of the several Leaves appropriated to each such Dwelling respectively, and this Book shall, of the same Date with that on which the Plan is docqueted, be certified by a Docquet subscribed by the Sheriff or Dean of Guild with the Date of his Subscription to be the Register or Rental Book for the Tacks or Rental Rights of the several Lots of the Buildings erected or improved by the Association under each separate Warrant as aforesaid, and the Transfers thereof; and the said Plan and Register Book shall permanently remain in the Custody of the said Sheriff Clerk or Town Clerk, and no Transfer of the Tack or Rental Rights of any such Lot or Dwelling House shall be valid or effectual unless entered as herein-after provided in the said Book.

Mode of disponing Lots by the Association.

XIII. Whensoever the Association shall grant to any Person a Tack or Rental Right of any of the Lots of their said Buildings, the same shall be so granted by an Entry at the Top of the First Page of the Leaves appropriated to the particular Lot or Dwelling to be so disponed in the Form of the Schedule (A.) hereunto annexed, subscribed, in Presence of the Sheriff Clerk or Town Clerk and Two Witnesses, by the Chairman or Clerk of the Association and by the Party accepting the Tack or Rental Right, or by some Person authorized by a written Mandate in the Form of the Schedule (B.) hereunto annexed to accept on his Behalf, and which Mandate shall be lodged with the Sheriff Clerk or Town Clerk, and recorded in the Sheriff Court or Burgh Court Books; and the said Sheriff Clerk or Town Clerk and the Two Witnesses shall attest the said Entry by their Subscriptions, and such Tack or Rental Right shall thereby be completed, and shall be valid and effectual notwithstanding of no Ish being stipulated thereto to the Party in whose Favour it shall have been granted, and to his Heirs and Assignees, who shall thenceforward be entitled to the perpetual Possession, Use, and Enjoyment of the Lot or Dwelling so disponed and the Pertinents thereof, if any, with the Share effeiring thereto of any common Privileges and Accommodations provided for or belonging thereto, subject always to the Rules and Conditions of the Contract, with Power to occupy, let, and transfer or assign the Right to such Lot or Dwelling, subject to such Rules and Conditions; and he and they shall not be liable for, nor shall the Lot or Dwelling itself, or the Furniture or Effects therein, be subject to any Charge, Debt, or Burden affecting the Buildings or Site thereof, or due by the Association, to any Extent beyond the Tack Duty payable for such Lot: Provided always, that this Provision shall not be construed as freeing such Owners from any public or parochial Rates or Taxes to which they may be liable by Law in respect of their Right to or Occupation of such Lot or Dwelling, nor from any Restrictions, Limitations, or Conditions contained in the feudal Investiture, and to which they would otherwise in Law be subject, in so far as not expressly modified by this Act.

Recovery of Feu Duty.

XIV. If when Tacks or Rental Rights have been granted as aforesaid the Association, or the Owners in their Place, shall in any Year fail to make due Payment to the Superior in One Sum of the yearly Feu Duty or Duplicand thereof when claimable, such Superior shall be entitled to recover from each Owner the Tack Duty or Duplicand thereof payable by him for such Year, and in consideration of his Trouble and Expense in separately collecting the same to appropriate the whole of the Tack Duties to his own Use, notwithstanding their exceeding by Twenty-five per Cent. the Amount of Feu Duty or Duplicand to which he may have Right; but he shall not in any event be entitled to exact from any such Owner a greater Sum than the Tack Duty stipulated in his Tack or Rental Right, or the Duplicand thereof, as the Case may be; and no Poinding of the Ground shall be competent for the Recovery of any Feu Duty or Duplicand thereof, or of any Casualty or Ground Annual, from any Owner, except to the Extent of such Tack Duty or Duplicand thereof, as the Case may be.

Powers of Owners in repairing and rebuilding.

XV. The Owner of each separate Tenement, and the several Owners of the Lots or Dwellings in each separate Tenement, shall have Power to uphold, repair, and when necessary rebuild such Tenement, subject to the Rules herein-before mentioned; and the Resolutions of the Majority of such several Owners in all Matters concerning such repairing, upholding, and rebuilding, in so far as not inconsistent with such Rules, shall bind the Minority, and the Majority shall be entitled to sue the Minority for the Enforcement of such Resolutions by summary Process before the Sheriff or Dean of Guild, who shall have Power to determine the Proportion of the Cost of such repairing, upholding, and rebuilding to be borne by each Owner when disputed; and if the Association shall at any Time be dissolved or cease to exist, the Owners for the Time being of the Lots of the Dwelling Houses erected on any Parcel of Ground held by One Title and under a single Superior shall be deemed their Successors, to the Effect of constituting as a Society or Corporate Body the Vassal in such Ground, but without being subject to any further Obligation or Liability than is herein-before provided in regard to such Owners.

As to subsequent Transfers.

XVI. All Transfers of Tacks or Rental Rights to such Lots or Dwellings shall be made by Entry in the said Register or Rental Book under the Number of the Lot or Dwelling to be transferred as marked on the Plan, and next after the immediately preceding Transfer, in the Form of the Schedule (C.) hereunto annexed, and the same shall be subscribed in Presence of the Sheriff Clerk or Town Clerk and Two Witnesses, by the Party making and by the Party accepting the Transfer, or their respective Mandatories duly authorized by written Mandate lodged and recorded as aforesaid, and also by the said Sheriff Clerk or Town Clerk and Witnesses; and thereupon the Party in whose Favour such Transfer is made shall be vested with the Right transferred, as the same subsisted in the Party to whom it was originally granted by the Association when so originally conveyed, and free from all Burdens, Debts, and Claims through or in right of the Granter of the Transfer or any previous Owner.

Mode of registering Right of the Representative of a Party deceased.

XVII. Where any Party in right of any such Lot or Dwelling as aforesaid shall have died without executing a Transfer thereof in manner above mentioned, the Person claiming Right thereto, whether by Succession, or in virtue of any Deed of Settlement or Conveyance by the Deceased, shall apply to the Sheriff or Dean of Guild for his Warrant to be entered in the Register or Rental Book, as now in right of such Lot or Dwelling; and the Sheriff or Dean of Guild if satisfied, after such Intimation of the Application as he may deem proper, and hearing such Parties duly interested as may appear to oppose the same, that the Applicant is justly entitled to such Lot or Dwelling, shall, without any Service or other Process at Law, cause an Entry to that Effect in the Form of the Schedule (D.) hereunto annexed to be made in the Register or Rental Book under the Number of the Lot or Dwelling held by the Deceased, and next after the Transfer in favour of the Deceased, which Entry shall be subscribed by the said Sheriff or Dean of Guild and by the Sheriff Clerk or Town Clerk, and thereupon the full Right to such Lot or Dwelling, with the Pertinents and Privileges thereto belonging, shall be vested in such Applicant.

Inhibitions and Adjudications.

XVIII. Where any Party shall have used Inhibition or obtained Decree of Adjudication against the Owner of any such Lot or Dwelling as aforesaid, the Sheriff Clerk or Town Clerk shall, on the Letters of Inhibition or an Extract of the Decree of Adjudication being presented to him, make an Entry of the same on the Margin of the Register or Rental Book, opposite the Entry of such Owner's Right, specifying the Name of the Inhibiter or Adjudger, with the Date of the Inhibition or Adjudication, the Registers in which they are recorded, and the Date of recording, together with the Date of such Entry; and if such Inhibiter or Adjudger fail to get such Entry made, the Inhibition or Adjudication shall not affect or burden such Lot or Dwelling, or the Owner thereof in reference thereto, or any Purchaser from such Owner; but while such Entry of an Inhibition or Adjudication remains not marked as recalled or discharged, and the Sheriff Clerk or Town Clerk is hereby required so to mark it on legal Proof of Recal or Discharge being presented to him, no Transfer shall be entered by such Sheriff Clerk or Town Clerk, or, if entered, it shall not be available as against such Inhibiter or Adjudger; and where an Adjudger shall have obtained Decree of Declarator of Expiry of the Legal, it shall be lawful for him to apply to the Sheriff or Dean of Guild to be registered as the Owner in right of the Tack or Rental Right of his Debtor, and in like Manner it shall be lawful for any Adjudger in Implement, or for the Trustee on the sequestrated sequestrated Estate of any Owner, to apply to the Sheriff or Dean of Guild to be registered as Owner in his Place, and the Sheriff or Dean of Guild shall, on Production to him of an Extract of the Decree of Declarator, or of Adjudication in Implement, or of a duly certified Copy of the Act and Warrant of Confirmation of such Trustee, cause an Entry in Form of the Schedule (E.) to this Act annexed to be inserted in the Register or Rental Book under the Number of the Lot or Dwelling belonging to the Debtor or Bankrupt, and next after the Transfer in his Favour, and thereupon the full Right to such Lot or Dwelling, with the Pertinents and Privileges thereto belonging, shall be vested in such Adjudger, Adjudger in Implement, or Trustee.

Each Dwelling shall constitute a distinct Lot not liable to Subdivision.

XIX. Each separate Dwelling shall constitute a distinct Lot, and shall consist of not less than Two nor more than Five Rooms with Fireplaces, and it shall not be competent or lawful to divide any of such Lots or Dwellings into Shares or separate Properties, but each Lot or Dwelling shall at all Times be transferred and pass whole and undivided.

Fees for recording Entries in Register Book.

XX. The several Entries aforesaid in the Register or Rental Book shall be written by the Sheriff Clerk or Town Clerk, or by a Clerk employed by him and under his Direction and Supervision, and such Sheriff Clerk or Town Clerk shall be entitled to charge and to receive for each First Grant of a Tack or Rental Right of any Lot or Dwelling, including the first Extract thereof, a Fee of Ten Shillings, and for each subsequent Transfer or Entry, including the first Extract thereof, a Fee of Five Shillings, and for the Entry of an Inhibition or Adjudication, or the marking of the Recal or Discharge thereof, a Fee of One Shilling respectively.

The Stamp Duties on Tacks and Transfers may be denoted by impressed or adhesive Stamps.

Adhesive Stamps to be adapted for certain Particulars.

XXI. The Stamp Duties by Law chargeable upon or in respect of the Tacks to be made in pursuance of this Act, and of the Transfers thereof, may be denoted either by Stamps impressed upon the Paper upon which the same are made or entered, or by adhesive Stamps to be provided by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and to be affixed thereto, and such adhesive Stamps shall be adapted for writing thereon the Name or Title of the Association, the Names of the Parties to the Instrument to which the same shall be affixed, and of the Sheriff Clerk or Town Clerk, and the Date of such Instrument or of the Entry thereof, and of the Number of the Lot or Dwelling to which the same relates as marked on the Plan; and every such Stamp at or before the Execution or signing of the Instrument to which the same shall be affixed shall be signed in the Places appropriated for the Purpose by the Persons who shall execute or sign such Instrument, and the Sheriff Clerk or Town Clerk, with their Names respectively (and shall be truly filled up with all such other Particulars relating to such Instrument for which the same shall be adapted); and in default the Instrument to which the same shall be affixed shall be deemed to be not duly stamped, and the Sheriff Clerk or Town Clerk who shall attest or sign any such Instrument upon or to which the full and proper Stamp Duty is not impressed or affixed according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Register Book open to Inspection, and Extract of Entries to be received in Evidence.

XXII. The Register or Rental Book shall be open to Inspection, under such Regulations as the Sheriff or Dean of Guild may appoint, by all Parties desirous to search the same; and for every Search a Fee of One Shilling shall be payable to the Sheriff Clerk or Town Clerk in respect of each separate Lot or Dwelling as to which such Search shall be made; and the Sheriff Clerk or Town Clerk shall be bound to give to any Person demanding the same a certified Extract of any Entry in the Register Book on receiving for the Extract of each such Entry a Fee of Two Shillings and Sixpence, and such Extract shall bear Faith and be admissible in Evidence in any Court of Law or Equity, and when accompanied by a Certificate under the Hand of the Sheriff Clerk or Town Clerk that no subsequent Transference of the Lot or Dwelling to which it applies appears on the Register Book, it shall be sufficient Proof that the Person therein set forth as the Party to whom such Lot or Dwelling has thereby been transferred is the Owner of such Lot or Dwelling.

Power to acquire dilapidated or noisome Buildings in Towns.

XXIII. Where there shall exist within a Town or Burgh any Building or Range or Block of Buildings which, by reason of Faults in their original Construction or of the State of Dilapidation into which they may wholly or partially have fallen, are unsuitable for Dwelling Houses, and the Occupation of which in their existing State and Condition is attended with Risk of Injury or Disease to the Inhabitants or the Neighbourhood, or which, by reason of the Abandonment of the whole or Part thereof by the Parties having the legal Title thereto, or of Uncertainty or Ignorance as to who such Parties may be, may have become a Receptacle or Place of Harbourage for Persons of dissolute and vicious Character, or in any way a Nuisance to the Neighbourhood, it shall be lawful for any such Association as aforesaid desirous of acquiring the same for the Purpose of improving and repairing such Buildings, or of erecting new Dwelling Houses on the Site thereof, for Dwellings for the Working Classes under this Act, to apply to the Magistrates and Town Council of the Town or Burgh for their Consent to the Application to the Court of Session herein-after mentioned; and the said Magistrates and Town Council, if satisfied, upon such Inquiry as they may think necessary, the Expense of which shall be borne by the said Association, that the State of such Building or Block of Buildings, from One or more of the Causes above mentioned, gives Occasion to the Risk of Injury or Disease to the Inhabitants or Neighbourhood, or that they afford Harbourage to Persons of a vicious or dissolute Character, or otherwise constitute a Nuisance to the Neighbourhood, may require the Proprietors or reputed Proprietors of such Buildings, or their Factors or Agents, so far as such Proprietors, reputed Proprietors, Factors, or Agents, may be known, within Three Months after Requisition made to them to grant Obligation to execute, within such reasonable

Time as the Magistrates and Town Council may fix such Operations in the way of rebuilding, altering, repairing, draining, or otherwise, as the said Magistrates and Town Council may deem necessary for the Avoidance of such Risk or Nuisance in Time to come, and also to find Security to their Satisfaction that such Buildings shall not thenceforward be allowed to afford such Harbourage as aforesaid; and if within the said Three Months no such Obligation be granted, or no such Security be found, or if within the Period fixed by the said Magistrates and Town Council such Obligation, if granted, shall not be implemented, it shall be lawful for them to give such Consent as aforesaid, and on such Consent being given it shall be lawful for such Association to apply by summary Petition to the Court of Session, in either of its Divisions, for Authority to acquire such Building, or Range or Block of Buildings, for the Purposes aforesaid or either of them, at a Price to be fixed in manner herein-after provided, and to have the same adjudged to them for such Purposes.

Court may remit to Sheriff to ascertain Value.

XXIV. On such Petition being presented the said Court shall order Service thereof upon the Proprietors or reputed Proprietors of the Property sought to be acquired, or their Factors and Agents, so far as such Proprietors, reputed Proprietors, or Factors may be known and such Intimation by public Advertisement as they shall deem proper; and after hearing any of such Proprietors as may make Compearance, and after such Inquiry by Report of skilled Men or otherwise as they may see fit, the Expense whereof shall be borne by the Association, if satisfied that the State of the Buildings sought to be so acquired gives Occasion to the Risk of Injury or Disease to the Inhabitants or Neighbourhood, or that they afford Harbourage to Persons of dissolute or vicious Character, or otherwise constitute a Nuisance to the Neighbourhood, and that it would be for the public Advantage that the said Buildings or any Portion thereof should be acquired for and appropriated to the Purposes aforesaid, they shall pronounce an Interlocutor containing their Finding to such Effect, and remitting to the Sheriff to take Steps for having a Price or Value put upon the same; and if the said Court shall refuse such Petition they shall have Power to award against the Association to any Parties appearing and opposing the same the whole or such Part of the Expenses incurred by them as to the said Court shall seem just.

Sheriff to ascertain Value according to Provisions of Land Clauses Act.

XXV. On the Remit so made being presented to the Sheriff, he shall forthwith proceed to have the Price or Value of the said Buildings and Site thereof determined according to the Provisions for determining the Value or Compensation to be paid for Lands and Heritages taken for public Undertakings contained in an Act passed in the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Nineteen, intituled An Act for consolidating in One Act certain Provisions usually inserted in Acts authorizing the taking of Lands for Undertakings of a public Nature in Scotland: Provided always, that a separate Price shall be ascertained for every Part or Portion of such Buildings known to belong to distinct Proprietors.

Value or Price, when ascertained, to be lodged in Bank in Name of Accountant of Court of Session, and Court thereupon to adjudge Property to Association.

XXVI. When such Price or Value shall thus have been fixed, the Association shall within Fourteen Days thereafter pay into any of the chartered Banks of Edinburgh the Amount so fixed, with an additional Sum on the Price of each separate Property, conform to the Rates set forth in the Schedule (F.) to this Act annexed, to provide for the Expenses herein-after mentioned, the Money so lodged being placed to the Credit of the Accountant for the Time being of the Court of Session; and the Association shall further lodge with the Accountant Certificates of a complete Search of Incumbrances in reference to each such Property; and on such Accountant reporting to the Court that the Money has been so lodged, and that a Receipt therefor in his Name has been delivered to him, and that Certificates of a complete Search of Incumbrances as aforesaid have also been lodged with him, the said Court shall adjudge and decern the Buildings aforesaid and Site thereof, or such Portion of the same as they may have found it for the public Advantage to be acquired as aforesaid, and the Price or Value of which has been duly lodged in the Bank as herein-before provided, to belong to the Association for the Purposes aforesaid, and on an Extract of their Decree being recorded in the General or Particular or Burgh Register of Sasines, which the Keeper of such Register is hereby required to record on Payment of the usual Fees when the same is presented to him, the absolute Right of Property in and to the said Buildings and the Ground whereon they stand, with the Pertinents and Appurtenances thereof, shall be vested in the said Association and their Successors without any other Title, and these shall thenceforward belong to and be held by the said Association and their Successors for the Purposes foresaid, free from all Right of Challenge on the Part of any Person claiming to have been the true Owner thereof, or to be in right of the true Owner, and free from all Heritable Securities or Burdens other than any Feu Duty or Casualty payable to the Superior, or any Right of Servitude belonging to the Proprietors of neighbouring Tenements: Provided always, that where no Agreement shall have been made with the Superior for a periodical or other Payment in lieu of the Casualty or Composition payable upon the Entry of Heirs and Singular Successors, it shall be lawful for such Superior, at the Death of the existing Vassal, and at the Expiration of every Twenty-five Years thereafter, so long as such Property shall be held for the Purposes aforesaid, to demand and take from the Association or their Successors a Sum equal to the yearly Feu Duty over and above the Feu Duty which may at the Time be due; and the Money lodged as aforesaid as the Price or Value of such Buildings, and the Site thereof, or of any Part of the same, shall be a Surrogate for the Buildings themselves, and Site thereof, or Portion thereof respectively, to the Proprietors and all Parties claiming any Heritable Right, Burden, or Security in or over the same; and such Money, till paid as herein-after mentioned, shall be subject to all Claims by such Proprietors or other Parties to which the Buildings, and Site or Portion thereof, if not acquired as aforesaid, would have been subject.

XXVII. So

Accountant to receive Claims on Money lodged;

XXVII. So soon as the Decree of Adjudication shall have been pronounced as aforesaid, the Accountant of the Court of Session shall, by such special Intimation and public Advertisements as he shall deem proper, the Expense of which Intimation and Advertisements shall be defrayed out of the Per-centage herein-before mentioned, call all Parties claiming to be Proprietors or to be entitled to any Annuity, Heritable Debt, or other Burden out of the Buildings aforesaid or Rents thereof, to compear before him by themselves or their Agents, and to lodge with him a written Statement of their Claim, together with the Titles or other Deeds or Writings establishing the same, and such Parties shall be entitled to apply, by Motion to the Division of the Court of Session in which the Petition for Adjudication shall have depended, for a Diligence to recover such Titles, Deeds, or Writings necessary to establish their Claim as may not be in their own Possession, and the said Court shall do thereon as shall seem to them to be just.

and to prepare a Scheme of Division.

XXVIII. On receiving the Claims which shall be so lodged, with the Titles, Deeds, and Writings produced, the said Accountant shall consider the same, and shall have Power to call for such Explanations or further Productions, and to take such Assistance by the Opinion of professional or skilled Persons as he may deem necessary, and to hear competing Parties, if any such appear before him; and thereupon he shall prepare a Scheme of Division and Payment of the said Price or annual Proceeds thereof, according to the respective Rights and Interests of the Parties, as to those Portions of the Price to which, or to the annual Proceeds whereof, he is satisfied that a valid Right has been instructed; and he shall append to such Scheme a Statement of those Portions of the Price to which, in his Opinion, no valid Right has been instructed, or in regard to which no Claim may have been made, or which may be required to satisfy or secure any Rights appearing from the Search of Incumbrances, and remaining undischarged, as to which no Claim has been entered or established, and he shall cause public Notice, by such Advertisement as he may deem proper, to be made, that the said Scheme has been prepared, and that it lies for Inspection at his Office, or at some other suitable Place appointed by him for that Purpose; and the said Scheme shall accordingly lie there, open for Inspection to all Parties interested for a Period of not less than Three Weeks from the Date of the First Advertisement.

Party dissatisfied with Scheme may appeal to Court of Session.

XXIX. It shall be competent for any Claimant or Party competing who shall be dissatisfied with the proposed Scheme of Division, to appeal against the same, so far as objected to by him, by Note to the Division of the Court of Session in which the Petition for Adjudication depended; and the said Court, after hearing Parties, shall dispose of the said Appeal and the Expenses thereof as to them shall seem just.

Accountant to divide Price, retaining the Amount unclaimed or to which no Right made good.

XXX. At the Expiry of the Period allowed for the Inspection of the Scheme of Division as aforesaid, the said Accountant shall grant Orders on the Amount lodged in Bank in his Name as aforesaid, for Payment of the Sums set forth in the said Scheme of Division, or the annual Proceeds thereof, as to which no Appeal has been taken, in favour of the Parties to whom those have been allotted in the said Scheme, and so soon as any Appeals that may have been taken shall have been disposed of by the said Court, he shall grant Orders for Payment of such Sums as may have been the Subjects of such Appeal in accordance with the Judgments of the Court pronounced thereupon; and in regard to any Portions of the Price as to which no Claim may have been made, or which he may have considered necessary to satisfy or secure Rights appearing from the Search of Incumbrances, or as to which he may have found that no valid Right has been instructed, and his Finding to this Effect may not have been appealed against, or, if appealed against, may have been adhered to by the Court, the said Portions of the Price shall be retained by him, subject to the Directions of the Court in regard to its Investment, till a valid Right shall have been instructed: Provided always, that it shall be competent for any Party conceiving himself to have Right thereto to lodge with the said Accountant at any Time thereafter his Claim, which, after being publicly intimated by such Party as the said Accountant may direct, shall be dealt with and disposed of in the Manner herein-before provided as to the Claims originally lodged as aforesaid.

Expenses of Procedure.

XXXI. The Expense of Advertisements and Intimations required as aforesaid to be made by the said Accountant, and of taking any Opinion of professional or skilled Men which he may deem necessary, and of framing and reporting to the Court the Scheme of Division, shall be defrayed by him out of the Sum beyond the Price to be deposited as herein-before mentioned, and any Balance thereof remaining after such Scheme has been framed shall be repaid by him to the Association, and any further Sum which may be required to meet such Expenses shall be paid by the Association; and as to all other Expenses of the respective Claimants and Objectors, the Court shall have Power to award Payment thereof by and to such Persons as to the said Court may seem just.

Accountant yearly to lay before Court a State of retained Monies.

XXXII. The said Accountant shall annually lay before the First Division of the Court of Session a State of the Monies lodged in his Name under this Act, and not paid away and distributed as aforesaid, and the said Court shall give such Directions as to the Investment thereof, and of the accruing Interests, and as to the Publication of such State as to them may seem proper, the Expense of such Publication being defrayed out of such accruing Interest.

Interest on Monies in Bank to be added to Capital yearly.

XXXIII. Every Bank with which any of the Monies aforesaid shall be deposited in Name of the said Accountant shall, once at least in every Year, accumulate the Interest with the Principal Sum, so that both shall thereafter bear Interest together as Principal; and any Bank failing so to do shall be liable to account as if such Money had been so accumulated.

XXXIV. It

Sheriff may in certain Cases sanction the Disposal of the Buildings for other Objects.

XXXIV. It shall be lawful for any such Association as aforesaid, at any Time after the Lapse of Ten Years from the Date of any Warrant authorizing the Erection or Improvement of any Dwelling Houses under this Act, to present to the Sheriff or Dean of Guild an Application praying for his Authority to sell and dispone the Dwelling Houses erected or improved under such Warrant free from the Rules of the Contract recorded as aforesaid, and from the Provisions of this Act: Provided always, that Votes to the Extent of Four Fifths of the Shareholders, or where the Dwelling Houses shall have been disponed in Tack as aforesaid that the Consent of Four Fifths of the Owners of the Dwelling Houses proposed to be sold, shall have been given in favour of the Resolution to make such Application, and the Sheriff or Dean of Guild, if after hearing any Shareholder or Owner who may appear to oppose the same he shall be satisfied that from Change of Circumstances or other Causes the Objects of the Association will no longer be attained in reference to such Dwelling Houses, may pronounce an Interlocutor authorizing the same, with the Pertinents thereof, to be sold and disponed; and on such Interlocutor being recorded in the Register of Sasines in which the Infeftment of the Association was recorded, the Keeper of which is hereby required to record the same on Payment of the usual Fees, it shall be lawful for such Association to sell and dispone such Dwelling Houses and Pertinents and to grant Dispositions to the Purchaser or Purchasers in common Form, and such Purchaser or Purchasers shall thereupon acquire Right to and shall hold the same free from the Provisions and Rules of the Contract of the Association, and from the Provisions of this Act, and from any Right or Claim on the Part of any of the Shareholders of such Association, or of the Owners, or of any one claiming through or in right of any such Shareholder or Owner, and the Price or Prices of such Dwelling Houses shall, after Deduction of the Expense of selling, be divided at the Sight of the Sheriff or Dean of Guild among the Shareholders or Owners according to their respective Rights and Interests.

CAP. LXXXIX.

An Act to amend the Provisions of the Huddersfield Burial Ground Act, 1852.

[14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS the Commissioners for the Time being acting in execution of the Huddersfield Improvement Act, 1848, and the Huddersfield Burial Ground Act, 1852, have, in pursuance of the Powers contained in the said last-mentioned Act, purchased, enclosed, planted, embellished, and laid out a certain Piece of Ground in the said last-mentioned Act particularly mentioned and described as and for a Burial Ground, and have caused to be erected therein (in addition to certain other Buildings) Two suitable Chapels, one for the Performance of the Burial Service according to the Rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, and the other on the unconsecrated Portion of such Burial Ground, for the Performance of Funeral Service therein: And whereas the said Commissioners have procured One Half of the said Burial Ground, with the Chapel thereon, to be consecrated by the Lord

'Bishop

'Bishop of Ripon, within whose Diocese such Chapel and Ground are situate: And whereas the Section 'of the said Huddersfield Burial Ground Act, 1852, numbered 16 in the Copies of that Act printed by 'Her Majesty's Printers, and which relates to the Depth to which Graves should be dug in the said 'Burial Ground, the Number and Manner of Interments in each Grave, and fixing the Period which 'should elapse before re-opening any such Grave for further Interments therein, is unnecessarily strin- 'gent, and would be prejudicial to the proper Management of the said Burial Ground, and entail 'a considerable Expense upon the said Township of Huddersfield, and it is desirable that the said 'Section of the said last-mentioned Act of Parliament should be repealed:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Sect. 16. of 15 & 16 Vict. c. 41. repealed.

I. The said Section of the said last-mentioned Act of Parliament shall be and the same is hereby repealed: Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend to relieve the said Commissioners from the Necessity of obtaining the Approval or Confirmation by the General Board of Health of any Regulations which by the said Huddersfield Burial Ground Act, 1852, may require such Approval or Confirmation.

Expenses of this Act how to be paid.

II. The Expenses of obtaining this Act, and all other Expenses incident thereto, shall be charged upon and defrayed out of the Fees and Sums of Money which shall be raised, charged, levied, or received under or by virtue of the said Huddersfield Burial Ground Act.

CAP. XC.

An Act for the Payment of Costs in Proceedings instituted on behalf of the Crown in Matters relating to the Revenue, and for the Amendment of the Procedure and Practice in Crown Suits in the Court of Exchequer. [14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS in divers Proceedings instituted by or on behalf of the Crown against the Queen's 'Subjects in respect of Matters relating to the Revenue no Costs are recovered by the Crown, 'except in certain Cases, and no Costs are paid by the Crown to the Subject: And whereas it is expedient 'to assimilate the Law as to the Recovery of Costs in such Proceedings by or on behalf of the Crown to 'that in force as to Proceedings between Subject and Subject:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

In all Crown Suits, &c. where the Crown is successful Costs to be recovered as between Subject and Subject.

I. In all Informations, Actions, Suits, and other legal Proceedings to be hereafter instituted before any Court or Tribunal whatever in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, by or on behalf of the Crown, against any Corporation, or Person or Persons, in respect of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or of any Goods or Chattels, belonging or accruing to the Crown, the Proceeds whereof, or the Rents or Profits of which said Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, by any Act now in force or hereafter to be passed are to be carried to the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain and Ireland, or in respect of any Sum or Sums of Money due and owing to Her Majesty by virtue of any Vote of Parliament for the Service of the Crown, or of any Act of Parliament relating to the Public Revenue, Her Majesty's Attorney General, or in Scotland the Lord Advocate, shall be entitled to recover Costs for and on behalf of Her Majesty, where Judgment shall be given for the Crown, in the same Manner, and under the same Rules, Regulations, and Provisions, as are or may be in force touching the Payment or Receipt of Costs in Proceedings between Subject and Subject, and such Costs shall be paid into the Exchequer, and shall become Part of the Consolidated Fund.

Defendent entitled to Costs, if successful against the Crown.

II. If in any such Information, Action, Suit, or other Proceeding Judgment shall be given against the Crown, the Defendant or Defendants shall be entitled to recover Costs, in like Manner, and subject to the same Rules and Provisions, as though such Proceeding had been had between Subject and Subject; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury and they are hereby required to pay such Costs out of any Monies which may be hereafter voted by Parliament for that Purpose.

Power to Judges to make Rules and Orders for Regulation of Pleading and Practice in Crown Suits.

III. 'And whereas the Procedure and Practice in Informations, Suits, and other Proceedings instituted 'by or on behalf of the Crown in Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer is dilatory, and requires Amendment, 'and it is desirable that the same should be assimilated as nearly as may be to the Course of Practice and 'Procedure now in force in Actions and Suits between Subject and Subject:' Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Barons of Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer in England, or any Three of them, and also for the Barons of Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer in Ireland, or any Three of them, in their respective Courts, to make all such General Rules and Orders for the Regulation of the Pleading and Practice in such Informations, Suits, and other Proceedings, and to frame such Writs and Forms of Proceedings, as to them may seem expedient for the Purpose aforesaid; and all such Rules, Orders, or Regulations shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament, if Parliament be then sitting, immediately upon the making of the same, or if Parliament be not sitting, then within Five Days after the next Meeting thereof; and no such Rule, Order, or Regulation shall have Effect until Three Months after the same shall have been so laid before both Houses of Parliament; and any Rule, Order, or Regulation so made shall, from and after such Time aforesaid, be binding and obligatory on the said Court, and on all Courts of Error into which any any Judgment of the said Court shall be carried by any Writ of Error, and be of the like Force and Effect, as if the Provisions contained therein had been expressly enacted by Parliament: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by any Proclamation inserted in the London Gazette, or for either of the Houses of Parliament, by any Resolution passed at any Time within Three Months next after such Rules, Orders, and Regulations shall have been laid before Parliament, to suspend the whole or any Part of such Rules, Orders, or Regulations, and in such Case the whole, or such Part thereof as shall be so suspended, shall not be binding and obligatory on the said Courts, or on any other Court of Common Law or Court of Error.

CAP. XCI.

An Act to facilitate the Erection and Maintenance of Colonial Lighthouses, and otherwise to amend the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854. [14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to make Provision for facilitating the Erection and Maintenance of 'Lighthouses in the British Possessions abroad, and otherwise to amend the Merchant Shipping 'Act, 1854:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Short Title.

I. This Act may be cited as "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1855," and shall be taken to be Part of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and shall be construed accordingly.

Colonial Lighthouses.

Her Majesty may by Order in Council fix Dues for Colonial Lighthouses.

II. In any Case in which any Lighthouse, Buoy, or Beacon has been or is hereafter erected or placed on or near the Coasts of any British Possession, by or with the Consent of the Legislative Authority of such Possession, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, fix such Dues in respect thereof, to be paid by the Owner or Master of every Ship which passes the same or derives Benefit therefrom, as Her Majesty may deem reasonable, and may in like Manner from Time to Time increase, diminish, or repeal such Dues, and from the Time specified in such Order for the Commencement of the Dues thereby fixed, increased, or diminished the same shall be leviable throughout Her Majesty's Dominions in manner herein-after mentioned.

No such Dues to be levied in any Colony without Consent of Colonial Legislature.

III. No such Dues as aforesaid shall be levied in any Colony unless and until the Legislative Authority in such Colony has, either by Address to the Crown, or by an Act or Ordinance duly passed, signified its Opinion that the same ought to be levied in such Colony.

Mode of collecting the said Dues.

IV. The said Dues shall in the United Kingdom be collected by the same Persons by whom, and by the same Means, in the same Manner, and subject to the same Conditions, so far as Circumstances permit, by, in, and subject to which the Light Dues leviable under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, are collected, and shall in each British Possession abroad be collected by such Persons as the Governor of such Possession abroad may appoint for the Purpose, and shall be collected by the same Means, in the same Manner, and subject to the same Conditions, so far as Circumstances permit, by, in, and subject to which the Light Dues leviable under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, are paid and collected, or by such other Means, in such other Manner, and subject to such other Conditions as the Legislative Authority in such Possession may direct.

Dues to be paid over to Her Majesty's Paymaster General.

V. All Dues levied under this Act shall be paid over to Her Majesty's Paymaster General at such Times and in such Manner as the Board of Trade may direct, and shall be applied, paid, and dealt with by him, for the Purposes herein-after mentioned, in such Manner as such Board may direct.

Dues to be applied to Expenses of Lighthouse, &c. for which they are levied.

VI. The Dues levied under the Authority of this Act in respect of any such Lighthouse, Buoy, or Beacon as aforesaid shall, after deducting any Expenses incurred in collecting the same, be applied for the Purpose of paying the Expenses incurred in erecting and maintaining such Lighthouse, Buoy, or Beacon, and for no other Purpose whatever.

Power to borrow Money on Security of Dues.

VII. For the Purpose of constructing or repairing any such Lighthouse, Buoy, or Beacon as aforesaid, the Board of Trade may raise, upon the Security of the Dues to be levied in respect thereof, such Sums of Money as they may deem fit; and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, out of any Monies which may be provided by Parliament, the Public Works Loan Commissioners, or any other Person or Body of Persons, may advance the same accordingly, such Advances to be made in the same Manner, with the same Powers, and subject to the same Provisions, so far as Circumstances permit, in, with, and subject to which, under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, Advances may be made upon the Security of the Mercantile Marine Fund for the Construction and Repair of Lighthouses in the United Kingdom.

Accounts for each Lighthouse, &c. to be kept, and laid before Parliament, and to be audited.

VIII. Accounts shall be kept of all Sums expended in the Construction, Repair, or Maintenance of every Lighthouse, Buoy, or Beacon in the British Possessions abroad for which Dues are levied under the Authority of this Act, and of the Dues received in respect thereof, in such Manner as the Board of Trade may direct, and shall be laid before Parliament annually; and the said Accounts shall be audited in such Manner as Her Majesty may by Order in Council direct.

Registry of Ships.

PART II. of Merchant Shipping Act, 1854.

Penalty on false Declarations un-

IX. Any Person who, in any Declaration made in the Presence of or produced to any Registrar of Shipping, in pursuance of the Second Part of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, or in any Documents or other Evidence produced to such Registrar, wilfully makes, or assists in making or procures to be made, any false Statement concerning the Title to or the Ownership of or the Interests existing in any Ship, der Part II. of Merchant Shipping Act.

Ship, or any Share or Shares in any Ship, or who utters, produces, or makes use of any Declaration or Document containing any such false Statement, knowing the same to be false, shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Shares in Shipping within the Trustee Act, 1850.

X. Shares in Ships registered under the said Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, shall be deemed to be included in the Word "Stock," as defined by the Trustee Act, 1850, and the Provisions of such last-mentioned Act shall be applicable to such Shares accordingly.

Forms of Instruments.

XI. In any Case in which any Bill of Sale, Mortgage, or other Instrument for the Disposal or Transfer of any Ship or any Share or Shares therein or of any Interest therein is made in any Form or contains any Particulars other than the Form and Particulars prescribed and approved for the Purpose by or in pursuance of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, no Registrar shall be required to record the same without the express Direction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs.

Delivery of Certificate upon Transfer of Registry.

XII. Upon the Transfer of the Registry of a Ship from One Port to another, the Certificate of Registry required by the Ninetieth Section of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, to be delivered up for that Purpose, may be delivered up to the Registrar of either of such Ports.

Exemption of certain Ships from having Name painted on Stern.

XIII. The Commissioners of Customs may, with the Consent of the Board of Trade, exempt any Pleasure Yacht from the Provision contained in the Thirty-fourth Section of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, which requires the Name of every Ship and the Port to which she belongs to be painted on her Stern.

Ships measured under Rule II. may be measured under Rule I.

XIV. The Owner of any Ship which is measured under Rule II. contained in the Twenty-second Section of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, may at any subsequent Period apply to the Commissioners of Customs to have the said Ship remeasured under Rule I. contained in the Twenty-first Section of the same Act, and the said Commissioners may thereupon, and upon Payment of such Fee not exceeding Seven Shillings and Sixpence for each Transverse Section as they may authorize, direct the said Ship to be remeasured accordingly, and the Number denoting the Register Tonnage shall be altered accordingly.

General Register Books in London.

XV. The Copy or Transcript of the Register of any British Ship which is kept by the Chief Registrar of Shipping at the Custom House in London, or by the Registrar General of Seamen, under the Direction of Her Majesty's Commissioners of Customs or of the Board of Trade, shall have the same Effect to all Intents and Purposes as the original Register of which the same is a Copy or Transcript.

Masters and Seamen.

PART III. of Merchant Shipping Act, 1854.

Extension of Provisions concerning the Relief of destitute Seamen.

XVI. The Board of Trade may issue Instructions concerning the Relief to be administered to distressed Seamen and Apprentices, in pursuance of the Two hundred and eleventh and Two hundred and twelfth Sections of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and may by such Instructions determine in what Cases and under what Circumstances and Conditions such Relief is to be administered; and all Powers of recovering Expenses incurred with respect to distressed Seamen and Apprentices, which by the Two hundred and thirteenth Section of the said Act are given to the Board of Trade, shall extend to all Expenses incurred by any Foreign Government for the Purposes aforesaid, and repaid to such Government by Her Majesty's Government, and shall likewise extend to any Expenses incurred by the conveying home such Seamen or Apprentices in Foreign as well as British Ships; and all Provisions concerning the Relief of distressed Seamen and Apprentices, being Subjects of Her Majesty, which are contained in the said Sections of the said Act, and in this Section, shall extend to such Seamen and Apprentices, not being Subjects of Her Majesty, as are reduced to Distress in Foreign Parts by reason of their having been shipwrecked, discharged, or left behind from any British Ship; subject nevertheless to such Modifications and Directions concerning the Cases in which Relief is to be given to such Foreigners, and the Country to which they are to be sent, as the Board of Trade may, under the Circumstances, think fit to make and issue.

Enactment concerning Savings Banks extended to Seamen in the Navy.

XVII. The Enactment of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, relating to Savings Banks shall apply to all Seamen, and to their Wives and Families, whether such Seamen belong to the Royal Navy or to the Merchant Service, or to any other Sea Service.

Additional Powers of Naval Courts.

XVIII. Any Naval Court summoned, under the Provisions of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, to hear any Complaint touching the Conduct of the Master or any of the Crew of any Ship, shall, in addition to the Powers given to it by the said Act, have Power to try the said Master or any of the said Crew for any Offences against the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, in respect of which Two Justices would, if the Case were tried in the United Kingdom, have Power to convict summarily, and by Order duly made to inflict the same Punishments for such Offences which Two Justices might in the Case aforesaid inflict upon summary Conviction; provided, that in Cases where an Offender is sentenced to Imprisonment the Sentence shall be confirmed in Writing by the Senior Naval or Consular Officer present at the Place where the Court is held, and the Place of Imprisonment, whether on Land or on board Ship, shall be approved by him as a proper Place for the Purpose, and Copies of all Sentences made by any Naval Court summoned to hear any such Complaint as aforesaid shall be sent to the Commander-in-Chief or Senior Naval Officer of the Station.

Wrecks, Casualties, and Salvage.

PART VIII. of Merchant Shipping Act, 1854.

In case of Wreck of Foreign Ships,

XIX. Whenever any Articles belonging to or forming Part of any Foreign Ship which has been wrecked on or near the Coasts of the United Kingdom, or belonging to or forming Part of the Cargo thereof, are found on or near such Coasts, or are brought into any Port in the United Kingdom, the Consul General of the Country to which such Ship, or, in the Case of Cargo, to which the Owners of such such Cargo, may have belonged, or any Consular Officer of such Country authorized in that Behalf by any Treaty or Agreement with such Country, shall, in the Absence of the Owner of such Ship or Articles, and of the Master or other Agent of the Owner, be deemed to be the Agent of the Owner, so far as relates to the Custody and Disposal of such Articles. Consul General to be deemed Agent of Owner.

XX. In Cases where Services are rendered by Officers or Men of the Coast Guard Service in watching or protecting shipwrecked Property, then, unless it can be shown that such Services have been declined by the Owner of such Property or his Agent at the Time they were tendered, or that Salvage has been claimed and awarded for such Services, the Owner of the shipwrecked Property shall pay in respect of the said Services Remuneration according to a Scale to be fixed by the Board of Trade, so, however, that such Scale shall not exceed any Scale by which Payment to Officers and Men of the Coast Guard for extra Duties in the ordinary Service of the Commissioners of Customs is for the Time being regulated; and such Remuneration shall be recoverable by the same Means and shall be paid to the same Persons and accounted for and applied in the same Manner as Fees received by Receivers appointed under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854. Remuneration for Services by Coast Guard.

XXI. If any Person, being a British Subject, charged with having committed any Crime or Offence on board any British Ship on the High Seas or in any Foreign Port or Harbour, or if any Person, not being a British Subject, charged with having committed any Crime or Offence on Board any British Ship on the High Seas, is found within the Jurisdiction of any Court of Justice in Her Majesty's Dominions which would have had Cognizance of such Crime or Offence if committed within the Limits of its ordinary Jurisdiction, such Court shall have Jurisdiction to hear and try the Case as if such Crime or Offence had been committed within such Limits: Provided, that nothing contained in this Section shall be construed to alter or interfere with the Act of the Thirteenth Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter Ninety-six. Legal Procedure. PART X. of Merchant Shipping Act, 1854. Jurisdiction in case of Offences on board Ship.

XXII. It shall be the Duty of the East India Company to take charge of and send home or otherwise provide for all Persons, being Lascars or other Natives of the Territories under the Government of the said Company, who are found destitute in the United Kingdom; and if any such Person is relieved and maintained by any Guardians, Overseers, or other Persons administering the Relief of the Poor, such Overseers, Guardians, or other Persons may, by Letter sent through the Post or otherwise, give Notice thereof in Writing to the Secretary of the Court of Directors of the East India Company, specifying, so far as is practicable, the following Particulars; viz.,— Miscellaneous. PART XI. of Merchant Shipping Act, 1854. Relief of destitute Lascars.

1. The Name of the Person so relieved or maintained:
2. The Presidency or District or Part of the Territories of the East India Company of which he professes to be a Native:
3. The Name of the Ship in which he was brought to the United Kingdom:
4. The Port or Place abroad from which such Ship sailed, and the Port or Place in the United Kingdom at which such Ship arrived, when he was so brought to the United Kingdom, and the Time of such Arrival:

And the said East India Company shall repay to the said Overseers, Guardians, or other Persons, out of the Revenues of the said Company, all Monies duly expended by them in relieving or maintaining such destitute Person, after the Time at which such Notice aforesaid is sent or otherwise given.

XXIII. It shall be lawful for any Master or Owner of a Ship or his Agent to enter into Agreements with Lascars or Natives of the Territories of the East India Company, binding them to proceed to any Port or Ports in the United Kingdom, either as Seamen or as Passengers, and there to enter into a further Agreement to serve as Seamen in any Ship which may happen to be there, and to be bound to any Port in the Territories of the East India Company; provided, that every such original Agreement shall be made in such Form, and shall contain such Provisions, and shall be executed in such Manner, and under such Conditions for securing the Return of such Lascars or Natives to their own Country, and for other Purposes, as the Governor General of India in Council, or the Governors of the respective Presidencies in which the original Agreement is made, in Council may direct; and if any Lascar or other Person who has bound himself by any such original Agreement is, on arriving in the United Kingdom, required to enter into a further Agreement to serve as a Seaman in any Ship bound to any Port in the Territories of the East India Company, and if it is certified by some Officer appointed for that Purpose by the East India Company that such further Agreement is a proper Agreement in all respects for such Lascar or other Person to enter into, and is in accordance with the original Agreement, and that the Ship to which such further Agreement relates is in all respects a proper Ship for such Lascar or other Person to serve in, and that there is not, in the Opinion of such Officer, any Objection to the full Performance of the said original Agreement, such Lascar or other Person shall be deemed to be engaged under such further Agreement, and to serve as a Seaman in the Ship to which it relates, and shall thereupon be deemed to be for all Purposes One of the Crew of the Ship; and for every Lascar or other Person in respect of whom such Certificate is applied for, the Person applying for the same shall pay to such Officer as aforesaid such Fee as the East India Company may appoint, not exceeding Ten Shillings. Contracts may be made with Natives in India, under certain Conditions, binding them to go to the United Kingdom, and then to serve in other Ships back to India or elsewhere.

Saving of former Enactments.

XXIV. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to repeal or affect any Provisions contained in the Twenty-fifth, Twenty-sixth, Twenty-seventh, Twenty-eighth, Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth, Thirty-first, or Thirty-fourth Sections of the Act of the Fourth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Eighty, or in the Sixteenth Section of the Act of the Eighteenth Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twenty.

CAP. XCII.

An Act for appropriating the Corps of the Prebend or Portion of Netherhall Ledbury in the Diocese and County of Hereford, and for constituting the Living of Ledbury a Rectory with Cure of Souls, and for augmenting the Endowments thereof. [14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS there are in the Diocese and County of Hereford Two Prebends or Portions of a Prebend respectively, called the Prebend of Overhall and the Prebend of Netherhall, Ledbury, 'founded in the Cathedral Church of Hereford, and in the Gift or Patronage of the Bishop of Hereford, 'the respective Prebendaries or Portionists whereof had the alternate Right of Patronage or Presentation of or to the Vicarage and Parish Church of Ledbury: And whereas the said Vicarage was 'formerly endowed with a certain Portion of Tithes, which was commuted in the Year One thousand 'eight hundred and thirty-nine, under the Acts of Parliament for the Commutation of Tithes in England 'and Wales, for a yearly Rentcharge of Four hundred and sixty Pounds Two Shillings, variable according to the Provisions of the said Acts, and payable to the Vicar for the Time being of the said Vicarage, 'and the sole Cure of Souls in the said Parish of Ledbury has been for many Years past and still is 'exercised by the said Vicar for the Time being: And whereas at the Time of the passing of the Act 'of the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, Chapter One hundred and thirteen, the Prebend 'or Portion of Overhall had by the Death of the Reverend Henry Stonhouse Vigor, late Prebendary or 'Portionist thereof, become and was then vacant, and by virtue of such Act all the Lands, Tithes, and 'other Hereditaments, and all other Emoluments and Endowments belonging thereto, (excepting Rights 'of Patronage,) became vested in the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, for the Purposes of 'the said Act, and the alternate Right of Presentation to the said Vicarage, theretofore belonging to the 'said last-mentioned Prebendary or Portionist, devolved upon the Bishop of Hereford: And whereas in 'the Year One thousand eight hundred and two the Reverend James Watts Clerk, was collated, or presented by the then Bishop of Hereford, to the Prebend of Netherhall, and was thereupon duly installed 'Prebendary thereof; and the Vicarage of the said Parish of Ledbury having in the Year One thousand eight hundred and ten become vacant, the said James Watts, in virtue of the alternate Right of 'Presentation which thereupon accrued in Turn to him as such Prebendary or Portionist of Netherhall, 'presented himself to and was duly instituted and inducted Vicar of the said Vicarage, and he thenceforth continued Prebendary or Portionist of the said last-mentioned Prebend or Portion, and also Vicar 'of the said Vicarage, and enjoyed the Profits and Emoluments thereof respectively, to the Time of his 'Death: And whereas the said James Watts died in the Year One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, and thereupon the alternate Right of Presentation to the said Vicarage, theretofore belonging 'to the Prebend of Netherhall, also devolved, by Force of the said Act, upon the Bishop of Hereford, 'and shortly afterwards the Reverend James George Watts, Son of the said James Watts, was collated 'by the Bishop of Hereford to the said Vicarage, and he was thereupon duly inducted to and is now the 'Vicar or Incumbent of the said Vicarage: And whereas upon the Decease of the said James Watts all 'the Estates and Endowments, excepting Rights of Patronage, belonging to the said Prebend or Portion 'of Netherhall (subject to the Term and Interest then unexpired therein under a certain Indenture of 'Lease dated the Fifteenth January One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, and made between 'the said James Watts, therein described as Portionist and Prebendary of the Portion or Prebend called 'Netherhall in the Parish Church of Ledbury in the County of Hereford, of the one Part, and Philip 'John Miles Esquire, of the other Part, for Three Lives,) were considered to have become vested in the 'said Ecclesiastical Commissioners by virtue of the said Act, as being the Estates of a Prebend not 'residentiary; but a Claim has since been set up to the said last-mentioned Prebend or Portion by the 'said James George Watts, as Vicar of the said Vicarage, on the Ground, as he contends, that the same 'Prebend or Portion was a Rectory without Cure of Souls, and having been held by the said James 'Watts deceased, together with the said Vicarage, for the Period of Twenty Years last past before the 'passing of the said Act, the same Rectory and Vicarage had under the Provisions of the said Act 'become permanently united, and do now constitute a Rectory with Cure of Souls; and the Rents which 'had become payable upon the Twenty-ninth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two in respect of the last-mentioned Prebend or Portion since the Death of the said James Watts, 'amounting to Eighty-four Pounds, have been paid into the Court of Queen's Bench, under a Judge's 'Order in an Action of Ejectment: And whereas, in order to avoid the Costs of Litigation in regard to 'the Claim of the said James George Watts, which is resisted on the Part of the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, a Proposal has been agreed upon by the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners and the said 'James George Watts, with the Consent of the Right Reverend Renn Dickson, Bishop of Hereford, that 'the

'the said Parish of Ledbury should be and be considered or be made a Rectory with Cure of Souls, in the 'Patronage of the Bishop of Hereford for the Time being, and that the said James George Watts should, 'without further Collation, Induction, or Institution thereto, become and be the Rector thereof, and that 'in addition to the Tithes Rentcharge and other Profits and Emoluments belonging to the said Vicarage 'to be annexed to the said Rectory, the said Rectory should be endowed in the Manner herein-after in 'this Act provided, and, subject thereto, that the whole of the Lands, Tithes, and other Hereditaments '(excepting Rights of Patronage), and all other Emoluments and Endowments belonging to the said 'Prebend or Portion of Netherhall, subject to the said Lease, should remain or become vested in the 'said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for the Purposes of the said Acts:' But inasmuch as the aforesaid Objects cannot be carried into effect without the Aid and Authority of Parliament, may it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Parish and Parish Church of Ledbury to become a Rectory with Cure of Souls.

I. The Parish and Parish Church of Ledbury in the Diocese and County of Hereford shall henceforth be and be deemed a Rectory with Cure of Souls in the Gift or Patronage of the Bishop of Hereford for the Time being, and the said James George Watts shall, without further Collation, Presentation, Institution, or Induction, be and be deemed the Rector of the said Rectory, and the Freehold of the Parish Church and Burial Ground of Ledbury aforesaid shall henceforth and for ever hereafter be vested in the said James George Watts as such Rector, and his Successors Rectors thereof for the Time being.

Rentcharge, &c. of Vicarage to remain vested in the Rector for the Time being;

II. The Rentcharge of Four hundred and sixty Pounds Two Shillings, awarded or agreed to be paid, under the Act for the Commutation of Tithes in England and Wales, to the Vicar of the said Vicarage, in lieu of the Tithes theretofore belonging to the said Vicarage, and also all Mortuaries, Easter Offerings, Surplice Fees, and all other Fees, Profits, and Emoluments heretofore payable to or enjoyed by the Vicar for the Time being of the said Vicarage, shall henceforth belong and be paid to the said James George Watts as Rector, and his Successors Rectors for the Time being of the said Rectory.

also Lands and Tithe Rentcharge specified in Schedule;

III. The several Closes or Parcels of Land and Tithes Rentscharge mentioned and specified in the Schedule to this Act (being Parcel of the late Prebend or Portion of Netherhall), freed and discharged from the yearly Pension of Sixteen Bushels of Wheat and Sixteen Bushels of Oats payable to the Vicar for the Time being of the said Parish Church of Ledbury, and from the Land Tax in respect of the said Land, which has been redeemed, and Tithe Rentcharge, shall, from and immediately after the Expiration or other sooner Determination of the Term, Estate, and Interest granted therein by the said Indenture of Lease of the Fifteenth of January One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, (but without conferring any Right to any Portion of the Rent reserved by the said Lease during the Continuance thereof,) belong to and be permanently annexed to the said Rectory, and be held and enjoyed by the Rector thereof for the Time being for ever hereafter, by way of Augmentation of the said Rectory; but subject, nevertheless, and charged to and with the keeping in due State of Repair the North Side of the Chancel of the Parish Church of Ledbury, and also to and with the Payment of the Yearly Sum of Thirty Pounds to the Minister or Curate for the Time being of the District of Wellington Heath in Ledbury, by half-yearly Payments to be made on the First Day of June and the First Day of December in each Year, the first of such half-yearly Payments or a proportionate Part thereof to be made on such One of the said Days as shall happen next after the Expiration or sooner Determination of the said Lease.

subject to Payment of 30*l.* per Annum to Minister of District of Wellington Heath in Ledbury.

Until Determination of Lease, Ecclesiastical Commissioners to pay annual Sum to the Rector;

IV. In the meantime, until the Expiration or sooner Determination of the said Lease, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall, out of their Common Fund, pay to the said James George Watts as Rector, and his Successors Rectors for the Time being of the said Rectory, an annual Sum of Two hundred and thirty Pounds, clear of all Deductions, other than on account of Property or Income Tax, by equal half-yearly Payments, to be made on the First Day of May and the First Day of November in each Year, such Payment to be considered to have commenced and taken effect from the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and also a proportionate Part of the said annual Sum in respect of the Number of Days which shall have elapsed of the current Half Year in which the said Lease shall expire or be determined, and such annual Sum and proportionate Part to be by way of Augmentation of the said Rectory, in lieu of the said Parcels of Land and Tithes Rentscharge mentioned in the said Schedule, until the same shall fall into the Possession and Receipt of the said Rector, and to be charged with the Payment of the like annual Sum of Thirty Pounds as from the said First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three to the Minister or Curate for the Time being of the said District of Wellington Heath, and on the like Days as are in this Act before mentioned in respect to the Payment of the said annual Sum of Two hundred and thirty Pounds.

charged with the annual Payment of 30*l.*

Residue of Lands and Profits of Prebend or Portion of Netherhall to vest in Ecclesiastical Com-

V. All other the Lands, Tithes, Tithes Rentscharge, and Hereditaments belonging to or constituting the Corps of the Prebend or Portion of Netherhall, whether the same be or be not a Sinecure Rectory, within the Intent and Meaning of the said recited Act of the Third and Fourth Years of Her said Majesty's Reign, (save and except Rights of Patronage, and also save and except the Right, from and after the Expiration or other sooner Determination of the said Lease, to the said Pieces or Parcels of Land missioners, and be held as Part of Common Fund, under 3 & 4 Vict. c. 113.

Land and Tithes Rentscharge, and the redeemed Land Tax in respect thereof, comprised in the Schedule to this Act, and intended to be hereby vested in expectancy in the Rector for the Time being of the said Rectory,) together with, and not by way of Exception, the whole of the Rents, and the Benefit of all the Covenants, Conditions, and Agreements reserved and contained by and in the said Indenture of Lease, and which on the Lessee's or Assignee's Part are or ought to be paid, observed, and performed, including the Right to all Sums paid into Court as aforesaid, and all other Sums now due on account of the said Rent, shall, freed and discharged from the said yearly Pension of Sixteen Bushels of Wheat and Sixteen Bushels of Oats, or any other Payments or Dues, to the Rector or Vicar of the Parish Church of Ledbury, from and after the passing of this Act, but subject and without Prejudice to the Term, Estate, and Interest granted by the said Lease, remain and be absolutely vested in the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, their Successors and Assigns, to be by them held, possessed, and administered for the Purposes and under and according to the Provisions of the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, or any other Act or Acts relating to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners with regard to the Estates of Non-residentiary Prebends.

Powers of Ecclesiastical Commissioners as Reversioners of Property in Lease.

VI. For the Purpose of enabling the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners and their Successors, as Reversioners of the Premises comprised in the said Indenture of Lease, to receive and recover the Rents due or to become due under the said Lease, and to exercise all Rights and Remedies in respect thereof, and of the Covenants, Conditions, and Agreements on the Part of the Lessee therein contained, and also of enabling the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, if they shall think fit, to accept a Surrender of the Term, Estate, and Interest of the Lessee in the said Lands and Tithes Rentscharge comprised in the said Schedule hereto, the Reversion of and in the whole of the Premises comprised in or held under the said Lease shall be or be considered to be vested in them the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners during the Remainder of and subject to the Term, Estate, and Interest granted by the said Lease; but so, nevertheless, that in case the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners should accept a Surrender of the said Term, Estate, and Interest in the said Lands and Tithes Rentscharge comprised in the said Schedule, the same shall operate as an Extinguishment of the said Term and Interest therein, for the Benefit of the Rector for the Time being of the said Rectory, so as to accelerate his Right to the Possession and Receipt of the said last-mentioned Lands and Rentscharge; and thereupon the said annual Sum of Two hundred and thirty Pounds herein-before directed to be paid to the Rector for the Time being by the said Commissioners, out of their Common Fund, shall cease, anything herein-before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Style of Act.

VII. For all Purposes of Recital or Reference it shall be sufficient in all Cases to mention this Act as "The Rectory of Ledbury Act, 1855."

Court of Judicature (Prince of Wales Island).

CAP. XCIII.

An Act to amend certain Acts relating to the Court of Judicature of Prince of Wales Island, Singapore, and Malacca, and to the Supreme Courts of Judicature in India.

'WHEREAS by Letters Patent of His late Majesty King George the Fourth His said late Majesty ordained that there should be within the Settlement of Prince of Wales Island, Singapore, and Malacca a Court of Judicature to be holden before the Governor and the Resident Councillor for the Time being of the Station where the Court should be held, as Two of the Judges of the said Court, and before One other Judge called the Recorder of Prince of Wales Island, Singapore, and Malacca: And whereas by Letters Patent of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, granted under the Powers of the Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of His Reign, Chapter Eighty-three, His said late Majesty granted to the said Court of Judicature the Powers of a Court of Admiralty: And whereas by Letters Patent of Her present Majesty, granted in the present Year of Her Reign, Her said Majesty has ordained that the said Court of Judicature should consist of Two Courts or Divisions, One of which shall be holden within the Stations of Singapore and Malacca before the Governor or President and the Resident Councillor for the Time being of the Station, where the same shall be held, and before One other Judge called the Recorder of Singapore, and the other of which Courts or Divisions shall be holden within the Station of Prince of Wales Island before the said Governor or President and the Resident Councillor for the Time being of the Station where the same shall be held, and before the other Judge, who shall be called the Recorder of Prince of Wales Island, and that all the Powers of the said Court of Judicature shall and may be exercised by each of the said Courts or Divisions, together with various other Provisions concerning the same: And whereas, in consequence of the Alteration made by the last-mentioned Letters Patent in the Constitution of the said Court of Judicature, it is desirable to amend the several Acts of Parliament herein-after mentioned:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Sections 5. 7. 13. 14. and 16. of 6 G. 4. c. 85. to apply to Recorders of Singapore and Prince of Wales Island.

I. The Provisions contained in the Statute of the Sixth Year of George the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-five, Sections Five, Seven, Thirteen, Fourteen, and Sixteen, respecting the Recorder of the Court of Judicature of Prince of Wales Island, and respecting the Grant of an Allowance to him on Retirement, and respecting the Computation of the Time of Residence in case he shall be appointed a Judge of One of the Supreme Courts in India, shall apply to the Recorder of Singapore and to the Recorder of Prince of Wales Island respectively, and Residence partly as one and partly as the other of such Recorders shall be reckoned as if such Residence had been wholly in the same Capacity: Provided always, that (save and except only in the Case of the present Recorder of Singapore, who was appointed to the Office of Recorder of Prince of Wales Island, Singapore, and Malacca prior to the lastly-recited Letters Patent), it shall not be lawful to grant to any Recorder of Singapore or Recorder of Prince of Wales Island any larger retiring Allowance than the Sum of Five hundred Pounds, unless he shall have resided as Recorder for Ten Years, nor if he shall have resided for that Period any larger Allowance than the Sum of Eight hundred Pounds.

Sum to be paid to Recorders for Equipment and Voyage.

II. In lieu of the Sum which by the Act of the Fifty-third Year of George the Third, Chapter One hundred and fifty-five, Section Eighty-nine, is directed to be paid to any Recorder of Prince of Wales Island for the Expenses of his Equipment and Voyage, the Court of Directors of the East India Company shall pay to the Person who by the said Letters Patent of Her Majesty has been appointed Recorder of Prince of Wales Island, and to every Person to be hereafter appointed Recorder of Singapore or Recorder of Prince of Wales Island who shall be resident in the United Kingdom at the Time of his Appointment, for the Purpose of defraying the Expenses of his Equipment and Voyage, the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors may be held by either of the Recorders.

III. The Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, which by the Statute of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Twenty-one, Section Eighty-eight, is directed to be held within the said Settlement, may henceforth be held by the Recorder of Singapore and by the Recorder of Prince of Wales Island respectively, each of whom is hereby empowered and required to hold such Court, and to appoint proper Officers, Assignees, and Examiners for enabling the Provisions of such Act to be carried into effect, and to establish Rules as to the Advocates and Attornies and Agents who may practise in the said Court before such Recorder; and the several other Powers given by the said Act to the Court of Judicature of Prince of Wales Island, Singapore, and Malacca shall and may be henceforth exercised by the Governor of the said Settlement and the said Recorders, or by any Two of them.

6 & 7 W. 4. c. 53. to apply to present Charter, which is confirmed.

IV. The Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Fifty-three, for enabling His late Majesty, by Letters Patent, to grant Admiralty Jurisdiction to the Court of Judicature of Prince of Wales Island, Singapore, and Malacca, shall be construed to apply to the said Letters Patent or Charter of Her present Majesty, and such Charter is hereby in all respects ratified and confirmed.

V. 'And

As to Allowances to Judges of the Supreme Courts in India on Retirement.

V. 'And whereas Doubts have been entertained whether the Provisions of the Act of the Sixth George 'the Fourth, Chapter Eighty-five, respecting the Grant of Allowances to the Judges of the Superior 'Courts in India on Retirement, apply to Cases where the required Period of Residence as a Judge has 'been partly as a Judge of one and partly as a Judge of another of the said Supreme Courts:' Be it enacted, That for the Purpose of the said last-mentioned Provisions Residence in India as a Judge of any of the said Supreme Courts (though such Residence shall have been partly as a Judge of one of the said Supreme Courts and partly as a Judge of another of such Courts) shall be computed and reckoned as Residence as a Judge of the Supreme Court to which the Judge shall belong at the Time of his Retirement: Provided always, that in the Case of any Judge retiring from the Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William whose Period of Residence in India as a Judge shall have been partly as a Judge of the Supreme Court at Madras or Bombay, it shall not be lawful to grant to such Judge any larger Allowance than might have been granted if he had been during his whole Period of Residence a Judge of the Supreme Court at Madras or Bombay, unless he shall have resided as a Judge of the Supreme Court at Fort William for Five Years at the least.

CAP. XCIV.

An Act to impose increased Rates of Duty of Excise on Spirits distilled in the United Kingdom; to allow Malt, Sugar, and Molasses to be used Duty-free in the distilling of Spirits, in lieu of Allowances and Drawbacks on such Spirits, Sugar, and Molasses respectively; and to amend the Laws relating to the Duties of Excise. [14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to impose increased Rates of Duty of Excise on Spirits distilled in the 'United Kingdom, and to allow Malt, Sugar, and Molasses to be used Duty-free in the distilling 'of Spirits, in lieu of Allowances and Drawbacks of Excise now payable on such Spirits and Sugar and 'Molasses respectively:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

On and after October 1, 1855, the following Duties of Excise to be paid on Spirits distilled in Great Britain and Ireland.

I. There shall be charged, collected, and paid, for the Use of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, for and upon every Gallon of Spirits of the Strength of Hydrometer Proof which, on or after the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, shall be distilled within the United Kingdom, or be in the Stock, Custody, or Possession of any Distiller, or of any Person in trust for him, or for his Use, Benefit, or Account, or which, having been distilled within the United Kingdom, shall on or after the said Day be in Warehouse, and be taken out of Warehouse for Consumption within the United Kingdom, the respective Rates and Duties following; that is to say, and so in proportion for any greater or less Degree of Strength, or any greater or less Quantity, in lieu of all other Duties of Excise on such Spirits chargeable under any Act in force.

In Ireland - - - - - - - -	0	6	2

Duties to be under Management of Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and to be collected under Acts in force relating to Excise.

II. The said Duties by this Act granted shall be under the Management of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and shall be charged, collected, and paid in like Manner and by the same Ways and Methods by which other Duties of Excise on Spirits are or may be charged, collected, and paid; and all Powers, Provisions, Clauses, Regulations, and Directions, Forfeitures, Pains, and Penalties, contained in or imposed or made by or under the Authority of any Act relating to Duties of Excise, and in force at the Time of the passing of this Act, shall respectively extend, so far as the same are applicable, to the said Duties by this Act granted, and shall be observed, applied, enforced, and put in execution for collecting and securing of the said last-mentioned Duties, and otherwise in relation thereto (except so far as the same are altered or superseded by the Provisions of this Act), as fully and effectually to all Intents and Purposes as if the same had been herein repeated and specially enacted, mutatis mutandis, with reference to the said Duties by this Act granted.

Allowances on Spirits in Distiller's Stock or in Warehouse.

III. And there shall be allowed and paid to the Distiller or Proprietor of all Spirits which, having been distilled within the United Kingdom from Wort or Wash made before the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, shall on or after the said last-mentioned Day be in the Stock of any Distiller or in Warehouse, the several Allowances and Drawbacks of Excise following; that is to say, for and upon every Gallon of such last-mentioned Spirits of the Strength of Hydrometer Proof, and so in proportion for any greater or less Quantity, or any greater or less Degree of Strength, if such Spirits shall have been distilled from Malt only, under the Provisions and Regulations entitling the Distiller to the Allowance in that Behalf, the Allowance of Eightpence per Gallon; and if such Spirits shall have been distilled from any other Materials than Malt only, or otherwise than in conformity with such Provisions and Regulations, the Allowance of Twopence per Gallon.

Former Allowances on Malt and Sugar used in distilling to cease.

IV. On and after the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five all Allowances and Drawbacks of Excise granted by any former Act for or upon Spirits distilled in any Part of the United Kingdom, in respect of the Malt or other Materials used in making such Spirits, and for or upon upon Sugar and Molasses used in the Distillation of Spirits, shall respectively cease and determine, save and except as to Spirits distilled from Wort or Wash made before the said First Day of October.

Malt may be made and used free from Duty in distilling Spirits.

V. And from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for any Distiller, or for any other Person who shall give such Security as herein-after required in that Behalf, such Distiller or other Person taking out a proper Licence as a Maltster, to make Malt, under the Provisions of this Act, in a Malthouse approved by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, for the sole Purpose of being consumed, on or after the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the distilling of Spirits; and all Malt which shall be so made by a Distiller and consumed in his Distillery, and all Malt which shall be made by such other Person, and delivered into the Storeroom of a Distiller at his Distillery, shall respectively be free from the Duties of Excise chargeable on Malt: Provided always, that the Provisions, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures contained in the several Acts of Parliament and now in force in relation to Maltsters, or the making of Malt, shall (except so far as the same are repealed, altered, or superseded by the express Provisions of this Act,) be observed, applied, and enforced with respect to Distillers or other Persons making Malt, and to the making of Malt, under the Provisions and Regulations of this Act.

Special Entry to be made of Malthouse.

VI. Every Malthouse to be used for the making of Malt under the Provisions of this Act shall be specially entered for that Purpose, and no such Entry shall be withdrawn whilst any Malt or any Corn or Grain making into Malt shall be in such Malthouse, or in any Storeroom belonging thereto.

Persons other than Distillers making Duty-free Malt to give Security against Frauds.

VII. Every Person, other than a Distiller, who shall intend to make Malt Duty-free, under the Provisions of this Act, shall enter into a Bond to Her Majesty, with Two or more sufficient Sureties, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and in such Sum as the said Commissioners shall think proper, conditioned to the Purport or Effect following; (that is to say,) that such Maltster shall duly make into Malt all Corn and Grain which shall be received into any such Malthouse as aforesaid belonging to him, and shall not sell any such Malt to any other Person than a Distiller, or take, send out, remove, or deliver from any such Malthouse as aforesaid any Malt, or Corn or Grain, except Malt duly removed to a Distillery under a Permit duly granted in that Behalf, and shall not convey away, hide, or conceal any Malt, or Corn or Grain, contrary to any of the Provisions of this Act or of any Act in force in relation to Maltsters or the making of Malt; and the Condition of such Bond shall also contain all such further Terms and Stipulations as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall deem to be necessary or proper for preventing Frauds in relation to the Malt to be made by such Maltster; and such Maltster shall give a fresh Bond, with such Sureties as aforesaid, when and as often as he shall be required so to do by the said Commissioners, and in default thereof he shall not be entitled to make Malt Duty-free, under the Provisions of this Act.

Malt may be removed for Exportation.

VIII. Provided always, That it shall be lawful for any Maltster to remove Malt from any such Malthouse for Exportation under such Regulations as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall make in that Behalf.

Distillers on giving Security to have Duty-free Sugar and Molasses delivered to them, to be used in the distilling of Spirits.

IX. And from and after the Fifteenth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five every Distiller who shall have given Security by Bond to Her Majesty, with Sureties, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Customs or Excise, in the Manner and for the Purpose herein-after mentioned, shall be entitled to remove, on such Terms and Conditions and in such Manner as the said last-mentioned Commissioners shall think fit, Sugar and Molasses, without previously paying the Duties of Customs or Excise thereon, from any Customs or Excise Warehouse in which the same may be deposited to the proper Storeroom at his Distillery provided for Sugar and Molasses, pursuant to the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, Chapter One hundred, for the sole Purpose of being consumed, on or after the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the distilling of Spirits in his Distillery; and all such Sugar and Molasses which shall be so consumed shall be free from the Duties of Customs or Excise: Provided always, that the Provisions, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures contained in the said last-mentioned Act in relation to Sugar and Molasses on which the Duties of Customs or Excise have been paid shall be observed, applied, and enforced respectively in relation to Sugar and Molasses to be removed as aforesaid, under the Provisions of this Act, without the previous Payment of the said Duties.

Distiller to give Bond, with Sureties, conditioned to secure the due Consumption of Duty-free Sugar and Molasses in the distilling of Spirits.

X. Every Distiller who shall intend to use Sugar or Molasses Duty-free in the distilling of Spirits, under the Provisions of this Act, shall enter into a Bond to Her Majesty, with Two or more sufficient Sureties to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Customs or Excise, and in such Sum as the said last-mentioned Commissioners shall think proper, conditioned to the Purport or Effect following; (that is to say,) that all Sugar and Molasses which shall be from Time to Time delivered to him from any Warehouse without Payment of the Duties of Customs or Excise thereon shall be forthwith duly conveyed to and deposited in a Storeroom for Sugar and Molasses provided at his Distillery, pursuant to the said Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, and that all such Sugar and Molasses shall from Time to Time, within the Space of One Calendar Month next after the Delivery thereof from any such Warehouse, be used and consumed by such Distiller solely in the distilling of Spirits in his Distillery; and the Condition of every such Bond shall also contain all such further Terms and Stipulations as the Commissioners of Customs or Excise shall deem to be necessary or proper for preventing preventing Frauds in relation to the Use or Disposal of Sugar or Molasses delivered Duty-free under the Provisions of this Act; and the Distiller shall give a fresh Bond, with such Sureties as aforesaid, when and as often as he shall be required so to do by the said last-mentioned Commissioners, and in default thereof he shall not be entitled to have Sugar or Molasses Duty-free under the Provisions of this Act.

Distiller and Maltster to make Entry of his Malthouse, and to provide a Kiln adapted for securing the Malt whilst drying.

XI. Every Distiller and Maltster respectively who shall make Malt to be consumed as aforesaid Duty-free shall make due Entry of every Malthouse in which he shall make such Malt as a Place to be used for that Purpose only, and shall provide therein a proper and secure Kiln, approved in Writing by the proper Collector and Supervisor of the District, and to be entered and used for the drying of such Malt, and for securing the same during the Process of drying, and until it shall be removed from such Kiln in the Manner herein directed; and such Kiln shall at all Times be kept locked up by the Officer, who shall not be required to unlock or open the same, except upon Notice in Writing to be given to him on behalf of the Distiller or Maltster, and for a reasonable and proper Object, to be specified in such Notice: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any such Distiller or Maltster to use such Kiln for the drying of Barley, under such Regulations and Restrictions as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue may make in that Behalf.

Distillers to make Entry of Kilns used for drying Barley, &c.

XII. Provided always, That every Distiller who shall have or make use of any Kiln for the drying of Barley or other Corn or Grain, wheresoever such Kiln may be situated, and although the same may not be used for the drying of Malt, shall make Entry of such Kiln with the proper Officer of Excise as a Building or Place used by such Distiller in carrying on his Trade or Business, under the Penalty imposed by Law in that Behalf for any Neglect or Omission to make such Entry.

If Malthouse more than a Mile from Market Town, Distiller or Maltster to provide Lodgings for Officer.

XIII. If any such Malthouse as aforesaid shall be situated at a greater Distance than One Mile by the nearest Highway from a Market Town, the Distiller or Maltster shall provide (if required so to do by the Commissioners of Inland Revenue) a House or Lodgings or Rooms fit and proper for the Residence of the Officer having the Survey of such Malthouse, the same to be situated within the Distance aforesaid from such Malthouse, and to be approved by the said Commissioners, and at a reasonable Cost or Rent, not exceeding Ten Pounds a Year, to be paid by such Officer for the same: Provided always, that such House, Lodgings, or Rooms shall not form any Part of the Dwelling House, Residence, Distillery, or Malthouse of such Distiller or Maltster.

Secure Rooms to be provided for the Purposes herein expressed; viz., a Storeroom at Malthouse for Deposit of Malt on Removal from Kiln;

a Storeroom at Distillery for Malt on Removal from Malthouse; also Millroom at Distillery for grinding Malt.

XIV. Every Distiller and every such Maltster as aforesaid shall also provide safe and secure Rooms, approved in Writing by the proper Collector and Supervisor of the District, and to be entered and used by such Distiller and Maltster respectively for the several Purposes herein-after expressed; (that is to say,) a Room at the Malthouse of such Distiller or Maltster to be entered and used as a Storeroom for depositing Malt therein immediately on the Removal thereof from the Kiln, and such Room shall be so situated with respect to such Kiln as that the Officer attending the Removal of Malt from the Kiln shall be enabled at One View to see the same taken from the Kiln and carried directly into such Storeroom, or if the Situation of such Storeroom will not admit of such View, then the Communication between the Kiln and the Storeroom shall be by an enclosed and covered Passage having no other Communication, or otherwise the Removal of all such Malt from the Kiln to the Storeroom shall be ensured to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue by such Ways and Means as they shall require or approve of, to be adopted by or at the Expense of the Distiller or Maltster; and if such Storeroom shall not be at the Distillery of the Person making such Malt, then the Distiller shall also provide a Room at his Distillery, to be entered and used by him as a Storeroom for depositing Malt therein, on the Removal thereof from the Malthouse to the Distillery, previously to the grinding of such Malt; and every Distiller shall also provide a Room at his Distillery, to be called the Millroom, and to be entered and used by him for the grinding of Malt therein; and all Malt to be used in the Distillery shall be ground by Metal Rollers only; and the Removal of such Malt to and from such Millroom, and the grinding thereof, and the depositing and securing of the same afterwards, shall be under and subject to such Rules and Regulations as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue may from Time to Time make in that Behalf; and all such Rooms so to be provided as aforesaid shall be properly secured to the Satisfaction of the said Collector and Supervisor, and shall be at all Times kept locked by the proper Officer of Excise, and neither the Distiller nor Maltster nor their respective Servants or Workmen shall be admitted therein, except upon due Notice in Writing given to such Officer, in the Manner and for the Purposes directed by this Act.

All such Rooms to be properly secured.

All Fastenings (except Locks) for Security of Kilns and other Rooms provided at Expense of the Distiller.

Penalty for refusing to defray such Expense, or for removing or damaging

XV. Wherever any Kiln, Room, or Place is by this Act directed to be kept locked or secured by the Officer of Excise, all fit and proper Fastenings (except Locks) for the Purpose of enabling such Officer to affix Locks thereto, or otherwise to secure such Kiln, Room, or Place, shall be provided and affixed, and renewed from Time to Time, by the Distiller or Maltster, to the Satisfaction of the proper Collector and Supervisor for the Time being, or otherwise such Collector or Supervisor shall provide and affix or renew such Fastenings, at the Expense of such Distiller or Maltster; and if any Distiller or Maltster shall neglect or refuse to pay to such Collector or Supervisor the Cost or Expense incurred by him in providing, affixing, or renewing any such Fastening, such Distiller or Maltster shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and if such Distiller or Maltster, or his Servant or Workman, shall wilfully destroy, damage, or injure any such Fastening as aforesaid, by whomsoever provided or affixed, or any Lock or Key belonging thereto, or shall by any Means open, take off, or remove any such Lock or Fastening, or make make any Way or Entrance or improperly gain Access or Admittance into any such Kiln, Room, or Place, such Distiller or Maltster shall for every such Offence, whether committed by himself or his Servant or Workman, forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds. Locks or Fastenings.

XVI. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue at any Time to revoke the Approval of any Malthouse, Kiln, Storeroom, or Millroom, or the Mode of Communication between any Kiln and Storeroom provided under this Act, which may have been approved of either by the said Commissioners or by the Collector and Supervisor of Excise, or either of them, and to require the Distiller or Maltster to provide another proper and secure Malthouse, Kiln, or Room in lieu thereof, or to make any Alteration therein, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners; and in case of the Refusal or Neglect of the Distiller or Maltster to comply with any Requisition of the said Commissioners in that Behalf, all Malt of such Distiller or Maltster then being at his Malthouse or Distillery, and all Malt thereafter made by him, until he shall so comply, shall be charged with the proper Duty of Excise on Malt, and the Amount of such Duty shall be paid to the proper Collector immediately after the Charge thereof shall have been made. Commissioners may revoke Approval of Malthouse, Kiln, or Storerooms, and require Alterations or additional Fastenings.

XVII. In respect of all Corn or Grain in process of making into Malt in any such Malthouse as aforesaid, the Allowance to be made upon the Gauges thereof during the Time that the same shall be in the Cistern, or in the Couch Frame, whilst directed by Law to be deemed and gauged as in Couch, shall be at the Rate of Seventeen Bushels only for every One hundred Bushels of the whole Quantity of the Corn or Grain so found by such Gauge. Allowance on Cistern or Couch Gauges to be 17 per Cent.

XVIII. Every Distiller and Maltster who shall make Malt under the Provisions of this Act shall give Six Hours Notice in Writing to the proper Officer of Excise of the Day and the particular Hour when he shall intend to place any Grain upon the Kiln, and shall specify in such Notice the Floor of Corn or Grain, and the particular Portion thereof, whether the whole or the First or Second Portion, intended to be placed on the Kiln, and for this Purpose no Floor shall be divided into more than Two Portions; and the Officer shall attend pursuant to such Notice, and unlock the Door of the Kiln, and permit the loading thereof with Grain, conformably with such Notice: Provided always, that the loading of the Kiln shall not take place at any other Time than between the Hours of Five o'Clock in the Morning and Seven o'Clock in the Evening, and that such loading shall be completed within the Space of Two Hours from the Time specified in such Notice; and in default thereof the Door of the Kiln shall be again locked by the Officer. Distiller, &c. to give Notice to Officer to attend, when it is intended to load the Kiln.

XIX. Immediately after the loading of the Kiln, the Officer shall again lock up and secure the same, but during the Time that any Grain shall be upon the Kiln the Officer shall attend and admit the Workmen into the Kiln, for the Purpose of turning or stirring such Grain, from Time to Time and at such Times as shall be specified in any Notice in Writing which may be given to him for that Purpose, on behalf of the Distiller or Maltster, Six Hours at the least before the Attendance of such Officer shall be required for the Purpose aforesaid: Provided always, that the Officer shall not be required to unlock the Kiln oftener than Four Times in any One Day, nor at any Time between the Hours of Nine o'Clock in the Evening and Five o'Clock in the Morning, or to allow the Kiln to remain open or unlocked, for the Purpose aforesaid, for a greater Length of Time than Half an Hour on any One Occasion. Officer to admit the Workmen into the Kiln to stir the Grain from Time to Time, pursuant to Notice.

XX. Every such Distiller and Maltster respectively shall give to the proper Officer Twelve Hours Notice in Writing of the Day, and particular Hour of the Day, not earlier than Five o'Clock in the Morning nor later than Seven o'Clock in the Evening, when such Distiller or Maltster shall intend to remove the Malt from the Kiln; and the Officer shall attend according to such Notice, and the Malt shall be forthwith measured in his Presence, and from the Quantity of Malt found according to such measuring a Deduction shall be made at the Rate of Five per Centum for Heat, Commings or Roots, and the unclean State of such Malt; and if the Quantity after such Deduction shall prove to be less than the Quantity which was given by the highest Gauge of the Grain whilst in the Process of making into Malt, deducting the proper Allowance in that Behalf, the Deficiency shall be charged with the Duty of Excise on Malt, and the Distiller or Maltster shall forthwith pay the Amount of such Duty to the proper Collector of Excise; and all the Malt upon the Kiln, after having been so measured, shall be removed therefrom, and carried, in the Presence of the Officer, directly into the Storeroom to be provided and entered by the Distiller or Maltster for that Purpose as aforesaid, and shall be locked up and secured therein by such Officer: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Distiller or Maltster, if he shall think fit, to screen such Malt on the Kiln before the same shall be measured, and if the same shall be so screened then no Deduction shall be made from the Quantity found by such measuring, and the Distiller or Maltster shall be charged with Duty in respect of so much only as the actual Quantity so found shall be deficient of the Quantity given by such highest Gauge as aforesaid. Notice to be given for Removal of Malt from the Kiln. Malt to be measured, and Deficiency charged with Duty.

XXI. When the Distiller or Maltster shall desire to remove any Malt from the Storeroom at his Malthouse to the Storeroom at a Distillery, he shall give Twelve Hours Notice in Writing to the proper Officer of Excise of the Time when and the Rooms and Places to and from which he intends to remove such Malt, and the Quantity thereof which he intends to remove; and such Officer shall attend pursuant to such Notice at the Storeroom from which such Malt is to be removed, to unlock the Door thereof, and see Removal of Malt from the Storeroom at the Malthouse to the Storeroom at the Distillery.

see measured or weighed out therefrom the Quantity of Malt expressed in such Notice; and such Officer may take Samples of the Malt to be removed, and shall grant a Permit for the Removal of such Malt from and to the several Storerooms expressed in such Notice; and there shall be expressed in such Permit the Time for which the same shall be in force, such Time being a reasonable and sufficient Time for such Removal, and also the Measure or Weight of such Malt; and if such Distiller or Maltster shall not duly remove all such Malt, and deposit the same, according to the Terms of such Permit, or shall remove the same or any Part thereof to any other Place than that expressed in such Permit as the Place to which such Malt is to be removed, or if the Weight of the Malt deposited in such last-mentioned Place shall differ by more than Two and a Half per Centum, or if the Measure thereof shall differ by more than Five per Centum, from the Weight or Measure of Malt expressed in such Permit, such Distiller or Maltster shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds, and all such Malt shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise; and if any such Malt shall be found removing or removed without being or having been accompanied by a Permit duly granted, or accompanied by a Permit expired or out of Force, or which shall not agree with the Time or Manner of the Removal of such Malt, or in which the Weight or Measure of Malt authorized to be removed shall differ more than after the respective Rates aforesaid from the Weight or Measure of the Malt removing or removed under Colour thereof, all such Malt shall also be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise.

How Malt to be removed from Malthouse to Distillery.

XXII. All Malt intended to be removed from a Storeroom at the Malthouse to a Storeroom at the Distillery shall be contained in Sacks, and each Sack shall contain the exact Quantity of Four Bushels of Malt by Measure, or One hundred and sixty-eight Pounds by Weight, secured therein in such Manner as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue may direct.

Twelve Hours Notice to be given for Removal of Malt from Storeroom to Millroom. Four Hours Notice for Removal of Malt to Mash Tun.

XXIII. And when the Distiller shall desire to remove any Malt from the Storeroom at his Distillery to the Millroom, for the Purpose of being ground, he shall give Twelve Hours Notice in Writing to the proper Officer of Excise, specifying in such Notice the Quantity of Malt intended to be so removed; and the Officer shall attend in pursuance of such Notice, and see measured or weighed the Quantity of Malt specified in such Notice, and such Malt shall be forthwith conveyed, in the Presence of the Officer, into the Millroom, and be there locked up and secured by the Officer; and before the Removal of any Malt, after the grinding thereof, to the Mash Tun, the Distiller shall give to the proper Officer Four Hours previous Notice in Writing, specifying the Quantity thereof to be mashed, and the Officer shall attend accordingly and deliver out such Malt, and the same shall be forthwith mashed in his Presence.

Distillers and Maltster to enter in Books Particulars of Malt received into and removed from their Storerooms.

XXIV. Books prepared with proper Columns for such Purposes as herein-after mentioned shall be delivered by the proper Officer of Excise to every Distiller and to every such Maltster, to be kept by them respectively at every such Storeroom as aforesaid, and whenever any Malt shall be received into or removed from any such Storeroom, the Distiller or Maltster shall enter in such Book as aforesaid, and in the proper Columns prepared for the Purpose, the Quantity of Malt, in Bushels, or in Pounds Weight, if the same shall be weighed, received into or removed from the Storeroom, and in the Case of Malt removed the Number of Sacks or the Weight of the Malt contained therein, if the same shall be weighed; and he shall also enter in such Book the particular Day and Hour of the Day when any such Malt was received into or removed from the Storeroom, and the particular Place from or to which the same was received or removed; and if any Distiller or any such Maltster as aforesaid shall not keep such Book as aforesaid, or shall not write and truly make therein all such Entries as aforesaid, or shall make any false Entry therein, or cancel, obliterate, or destroy or alter any Entry therein, or shall not deliver up any such Book to any Officer of Excise demanding the same, or shall refuse to permit such Officer to make any Minute therein, or to take any Extract therefrom, or shall conceal or convey away the same, or destroy or tear out any Leaf therefrom, such Distiller or Maltster shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Malt remaining in Storeroom to be measured, and a Balance to be struck of Account of Malt received and delivered; if a Deficiency, Duty to be charged on the Quantity;

XXV. From Time to Time, when and as often as the Officer of Excise shall deem it to be necessary or proper, and at least once in every Year, the Stock of Malt remaining in any such Storeroom as aforesaid shall be measured or weighed in the Presence of the Officer, and a Balance shall be struck of the Account of Malt received into and delivered out of such Storeroom; and if the Quantity of Malt then remaining in such Storeroom, according to such measuring or weighing, shall be deficient by more than Three per Centum by Measure, or One per Centum by Weight, (computed as herein-after mentioned,) of the Quantity which, according to the Balance of such Account, ought to be found therein, the Distiller or Maltster shall be charged with the Duty of Excise on Malt for the whole Quantity deficient; and if at any Time the whole of the Malt shall be removed from any such Storeroom, and upon striking such Balance there shall appear to be any such Deficiency exceeding the Rate aforesaid, the Distiller or Maltster shall also be charged with the said Duty on the whole of such Deficiency, and in every such Case as aforesaid the Distiller or Maltster shall forthwith pay the Amount of the Duty so charged upon him to the proper Collector of Excise; and if at any Time, upon striking such Balance as aforesaid, there shall be found in any such Storeroom a Quantity of Malt exceeding by more than Three per Centum the Quantity which, according to the Balance of such Account, ought to be found therein, the whole Quantity of such Excess shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise; and on the striking of such Balance as aforesaid the said respective Rates per Centum shall be computed and allowed on the whole Quantity of Malt if an Excess, the same to be forfeited.

received into the Storeroom since the First Entry and Use thereof as such Storeroom, if there shall have been no previous Stock-taking, or on the whole Quantity received since the last Stock-taking, and also on the Quantity then remaining in such Storeroom, as the Case may be; and for the Purpose of charging the Duty on any such Deficiency as aforesaid, where the Stock Account of Malt in any such Storeroom shall be kept by Weight, Forty Pounds Weight of Malt shall be deemed to be equal to a Bushel of Malt, and the Duty of Excise chargeable on a Bushel of Malt shall be charged accordingly on every Forty Pounds Weight of the Quantity of Malt deficient.

Malt to be either measured or weighed, or both, as the Commissioners may order.

XXVI. In all Cases where Malt in any Storeroom, or on the Removal thereof to or from any Storeroom, is by this Act directed to be measured or weighed, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, by any Order or Regulation from Time to Time by them in that Behalf made, to determine and direct that such Malt shall be either measured or weighed, or both measured and weighed, and that any Account thereof shall be taken and kept either by Measure or Weight, as the said last-mentioned Commissioners shall think fit.

Distiller and Maltster to provide a correct Bushel Measure and Scales and Weights; and assist Officer in measuring and weighing Malt.

XXVII. Every Distiller and every such Maltster as aforesaid shall provide and keep at his Malthouse and also at his Distillery, and in such proper and convenient Place therein respectively as the Supervisor of Excise shall approve, a correct Bushel Measure, and also just and true Sales and Weights, properly adapted for the weighing of Malt in Sacks, and shall permit any Officer of Excise to use such Measure and Scales and Weights for the Purpose of measuring, weighing, and taking an Account of all or any Malt in the Possession of such Distiller or Maltster; and every such Distiller and Maltster respectively, with his Servants and Workmen, shall, whenever thereto required by any Officer of Excise, measure and weigh, and aid and assist the Officer in measuring and weighing and taking Account of such Malt as aforesaid; and if any Distiller or any such Maltster as aforesaid shall refuse or neglect to provide and keep such Bushel Measure, or to provide and keep such Scales and Weights, in such Place as aforesaid, or shall refuse to permit any Officer of Excise to use the same, or refuse or neglect, whenever thereto required as aforesaid, with his Servants or Workmen, to measure or weigh any such Malt, or to aid and assist the Officer in measuring or weighing and taking Account of the same as aforesaid, such Distiller or Maltster shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and if any Measure which shall be provided or kept by such Distiller or Maltster at his Malthouse or Distillery as or for such Bushel Measure as aforesaid shall not be a true and correct Bushel Measure, or if any Scales or Weight which shall be so provided or kept as aforesaid shall be false or unjust, or if any Distiller or Maltster shall use or cause or permit or suffer to be used any false, unjust, or insufficient Measure, Scales, or Weight in the measuring or weighing of any Malt by or on the Requisition of any Officer of Excise, or shall practise any Art, Device, or Contrivance by which any Officer may be hindered or prevented from taking the just and true Quantity, Measure, or Weight of any Malt, such Distiller or Maltster shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds for every such Offence; and all false, unjust, or insufficient Measures, Scales, and Weights respectively shall be forfeited, and may be seized and taken away by any Officer of Excise.

Distiller to deliver an Account of the Malt, Sugar, and Molasses used in every distilling Period, verified by Declaration.

XXVIII. Every Distiller shall at the End of every distilling Period deliver to the proper Officer an Account in Writing of the Number of Bushels of Malt, and the true Quantity of Sugar and Molasses, (specifying the same and the Quantities thereof respectively,) actually used in making the Wort or Wash distilled during such Period; and the Officer shall transmit such Account, together with a Return in Writing signed by him, to the Collector of Excise, specifying the Number of Bushels of Malt, and the Quantities of Sugar and Molasses respectively so used, and the Quantity of Proof Spirits with which such Distiller shall have been charged in respect of such Wort or Wash; and the Distiller or the principal Manager of his Distillery shall make and subscribe a Declaration to the Truth of such Account in the Form or to the Effect following:

'I A.B., Distiller [or principal Manager, as the Case may be,] of the Distillery at
'do solemnly declare, That within the Brewing Period commencing on the Day of
'and ending on the Day of both inclusive, there were 'actually mashed and used in the said Distillery, and consumed in the distilling of Spirits therein, the 'several Quantities of Malt and of Sugar and Molasses respectively herein-after specified, and no more;
'(that is to say,) Bushels of Malt, Pounds of Sugar, and
'Pounds of Molasses [or as the Case may be]; and all this I declare to the best of my Knowledge and 'Belief, and according to the best Information in my Power to obtain.'

And in default of such Declaration being made, or if any such Declaration shall be untrue, the Distiller shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

Distillers, &c. to designate their Malthouses by painting certain Words on the principal Entrance.

XXIX. Every Distiller or other Person who shall make Malt under the Provisions of this Act shall paint or place and fix in Letters distinctly legible, Three Inches at the least in Height, and of a proper and proportionate Breadth, conspicuously upon the principal Gate, Door, or Entrance of his Malthouse, his Christian and Surname, together with the Words "Entered to make Malt to be used in distilling Spirits only," and shall preserve and keep the same so painted or placed and fixed, and shall repaint and renew the same as often as Occasion shall require, upon pain of forfeiting the Sum of Twenty Pounds for for any Refusal or Neglect to comply in any Particular with the several Directions aforesaid in this Clause contained.

Distillers prohibited from selling Malt, Sugar, or Molasses.

Penalty.

XXX. It shall not be lawful for any Distiller to sell any Malt, Sugar, or Molasses, or to send out or deliver any Malt, Sugar, or Molasses from any Malthouse, Distillery, or other Premises belonging to him; and every Person who shall knowingly buy any Malt, Sugar, or Molasses from a Distiller, or who shall take or receive any Malt, Sugar, or Molasses from a Distillery or any Malt from any Malthouse or Premises on the principal or outer Gate whereof the Words "Entered to make Malt to be used in distilling Spirits only" shall be painted, fixed, or placed, shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and if any Distiller shall sell any Malt, Sugar, or Molasses, or take or send out or remove any Malt from his Malthouse (except Malt duly removed therefrom to his Distillery under a Permit granted in that Behalf), or take or send out or remove any Malt, Sugar, or Molasses from his Distillery, or if any Distiller shall not use all Corn or Grain received at his Malthouse by making the same into Malt, and consume all such Malt in his Distillery, or shall convey away, hide, or conceal any Malt, or Corn, or Grain, or any Sugar or Molasses, such Distiller shall for every such Offence forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds; and all Malt, Sugar, and Molasses which shall be found in any Distillery or the Premises belonging thereto, otherwise than in the proper Storeroom or Millroom, or in the Mash Tun, or being duly removed to or from any such Places in the Manner directed or allowed by this Act, shall be deemed to be conveyed away, hidden, and concealed by the Distiller, and shall subject him to the said Penalty in that Behalf; and all Malt, Corn, and Grain, and all Sugar and Molasses, which shall be respectively sold, sent out, delivered, or received, or conveyed away, hidden, or concealed, contrary to any of the Provisions of this Act, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise.

Commissioners may revoke the Licence of a Distiller or Maltster on a Second Conviction of certain specified Offences.

XXXI. And if any Distiller shall be convicted of any of the several Offences specified in the last preceding Clause of this Act, and shall afterwards be again convicted either of the like Offence or of any other of the said several Offences specified as aforesaid, or if after Judgment shall be obtained against any Maltster upon the Bond entered into by him under the Provisions of this Act, by reason of any Breach of the Condition thereof, he shall do any Act which shall be a Breach of the Condition of any such Bond subsequently entered into by him, and by reason thereof Judgment shall be obtained against him upon such last-mentioned Bond, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and they are hereby empowered, to revoke and annul the Licence granted to such Distiller or Maltster, as the Case may be, and to refuse to grant to him any further Licence, either as a Distiller or a Maltster, at any Time thereafter, and also to refuse to grant during the Space of One Year any such Licence to any other Person to exercise the like Trade or Business at the same Premises where the Act or Offence which shall be the Ground of such Second Conviction or Judgment as aforesaid was done or committed.

Persons found unlawfully removing Malt from a Distiller's Malthouse or a Distillery may be arrested and taken before a Justice, and summarily dealt with.

XXXII. And if any Person shall be found taking or removing Malt, or any Corn or Grain making into Malt, from any Malthouse or Premises on the principal or outer Gate whereof the Words "Entered to make Malt to be used in distilling Spirits only" shall be painted, fixed, or placed, unless in the Case of Malt the same shall be removed under and accompanied by a Permit granted under the Provisions of this Act, or if any Person shall be found taking or removing any Malt, Sugar, or Molasses, or any Wort or Wash, from any Distillery or the Premises thereto belonging, it shall be lawful for any Officer of Excise to arrest and detain such Person, and to convey him before a Justice of the Peace residing near the Place where such Arrest shall be made; and such Justice is hereby authorized and required to hear and determine, as soon afterwards as practicable, the Charge against the Person so arrested, and on the Confession of such Person, or on due Proof upon Oath of such Offence, to convict such Offender in the Penalty of One hundred Pounds; and the Person so convicted shall forthwith pay the said Penalty into the Hands of the said Officer, for the Order and Direction of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, and in default thereof such Justice shall commit such Offender to any Gaol or Prison of the County, there to be kept to Hard Labour for any Period not exceeding Six Calendar Months nor less than Two Calendar Months, unless such Penalty shall be sooner paid.

No Abatement for Deficiencies on Spirits deposited in Warehouse less than Three Days.

XXXIII. 'And whereas by the Twenty-eighth Section of the Act passed in the Sixteenth and 'Seventeenth Years of Her Majesty's Reign, Chapter Thirty-seven, certain Rates of Allowance or 'Abatement are directed to be made in respect of the Deficiencies which may occur in British Spirits 'warehoused without Payment of Duty:' Be it enacted, That no such Allowance or Abatement shall be made on any Spirits which shall not be and remain deposited in a Warehouse for the Period of Three Days or more.

Rectifiers may send out compounded Spirits at certain additional Strengths.

XXXIV. 'And whereas it is expedient to allow compounded Spirits to be sent out at other Degrees 'of Strength than are now allowed by Law:' Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Rectifier or Compounder of Spirits to sell and send out compounded Spirits at any Degree of Strength at which British Spirits may be sold and sent out by any Distiller, as well as at the Strength at which such Rectifier or Compounder may now sell and send out compounded Spirits under any Act in force.

Malting Barley or other Corn how long to be kept in operation.

XXXV. And for amending the Laws relating to the Duties of Excise on Malt, be it enacted, That all Barley making into Malt in any Malthouse shall be kept in operation for the full Period of One hundred and sixty-eight Hours at the least from the Time of the same being removed from the Cistern into the Couch Frame before the same or any Portion of it shall be placed on the Kiln; and all other Corn or Grain Grain making into Malt shall be kept in operation for such Period of Time as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall order or direct in that Behalf; and if any Maltster shall place on the Kiln any Barley making into Malt which shall not have been kept in operation for the full Period directed by this Act, or any other Corn or Grain making into Malt which shall not have been kept in operation for such Period of Time as the said last-mentioned Commissioners shall order or direct in that Behalf, every such Maltster so offending shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

Brewer not to have raw or unmalted Grain in his Brewery or in Premises adjacent.

XXXVI. And for preventing Fraud and Evasion of the Duty of Excise on Malt by the Use of raw or unmalted Corn or Grain in the brewing of Beer for Sale, be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any Brewer of Beer for Sale to have in his Brewery, or in any Premises belonging or adjacent thereto, whether the same shall be entered by him or not, any raw or unmalted Corn or Grain whatsoever, either whole or unground, or ground or bruised, except Corn or Grain, not ground or bruised, being in Premises entered by such Brewer for the Purpose of making Malt; and all raw or unmalted Corn or Grain which shall be found in such Brewery or other Premises (except as aforesaid), and also all malted Corn or Grain, whether whole or unground, or ground or bruised, with which such raw or unmalted Corn or Grain may be mixed, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise, together with all Sacks, Casks, Vessels, or Packages in which such raw or unmalted Corn or Grain may be contained, and the Brewer for every such Offence shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds: Provided always, that no such Penalty or Forfeiture shall be incurred in respect of any Oats or Beans bonâ fide intended to be used and consumed as Food for Horses, such Oats or Beans being in Premises of which such Brewer shall specially make Entry as Places for the Deposit of Horse Corn, and which shall be so far distinct from his entered Brewery Premises as not to have any internal Communication to or with the same.

Malt used by Brewers to be ground by Metal Rollers only.

XXXVII. No Brewer of Beer for Sale shall have or use, for the Purpose of grinding, crushing, or bruising Malt, any Millstones, or any Mill constructed otherwise than with Metal Rollers only, such Rollers not being fluted but having plain and smooth Surfaces; and no Malt which shall be ground by any Means, or crushed or bruised otherwise than by means of such Metal Rollers as aforesaid, shall be used by or be received into the Possession of any such Brewer; and if any such Brewer shall commit any Offence contrary to any of the Prohibitions contained in this Clause he shall forfeit the Sum of Two hundred Pounds; and all Malt which shall be found in the Possession of any such Brewer ground, crushed, or bruised in any Manner contrary to any such Prohibition shall also be forfeited, and may be seized by any Officer of Excise.

3 & 4 Vict. c. 87.
14 & 15 Vict. c. 42.

'Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-seven, intituled An Act to enable Her Majesty's Commissioners of Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings to make additional Thoroughfares in the Metropolis, and of another Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Forty-two, intituled An Act to make better Provision for the Management of the Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues of the Crown, and for the Direction of Public Works and Buildings, certain Ground and Hereditaments situate and being in the Parishes of Saint Giles in the Fields and Saint George Bloomsbury in the County of Middlesex were purchased and acquired by the Commissioners named in the said first-mentioned Act, and by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, for the Purposes of such Act, and such Ground, with the Messuages and other Buildings lately erected and built thereon, are now vested in the said last-mentioned Commissioners, in trust for the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain and Ireland, and the said Ground, Messuages, and other Buildings are described and set forth in the First Schedule hereto: And whereas the Ground and Hereditaments belonging to Her Majesty, and forming Part of the Hereditary Land Revenues of the Crown, which will be required for the Purposes of such new Offices and Buildings for the Public Service, are described and set forth in the Second Schedule hereto, and are coloured Red and Blue on the before-mentioned Map or Plan: And whereas for the accomplishing the Purposes aforesaid it is intended that the Hereditaments described and set forth in the First Schedule hereto, and now vested in and belonging to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, in trust as aforesaid, should be vested in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, as Part of the Hereditary Land Revenues of the Crown, in exchange for the Hereditaments belonging to Her Majesty, and described and set forth in the Second Schedule hereto, to be vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, in trust for the Purposes of this Act: And whereas the Hereditaments described in the said First and Second Schedules respectively have been valued as herein-after mentioned, and it is intended that the Difference in Value shall be paid as herein-after is provided:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Commissioners incorporated for the Purposes of the Act.

I. The Persons who for the Time being, under the Provisions of the Act passed in the Session of Parliament Fourteenth and Fifteenth Victoria, Chapter Forty-two, shall be Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, shall for the Purposes of this Act be and are hereby constituted a Corporation by the Name and Style of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, and by that Name shall have perpetual Succession, and use a Common Seal, to be by them from Time to Time altered as they think fit.

Hereditaments in the Second Schedule (subject to Leases, &c.) vested in the Commissioners of Works.

II. From and after the passing of this Act, the said Hereditaments mentioned and comprised in the Second Schedule to this Act, with their and every of their Rights, Members, and Appurtenances, and the Freehold and Inheritance of the same in Fee Simple, shall (subject to the Leases or Agreements for Leases in the said Second Schedule to this Act mentioned or referred to) be and the same are by this Act vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings so hereby incorporated as aforesaid, their Successors and Assigns, for ever, who shall be deemed in Law to be in the actual Seisin and Possession thereof, subject to the Leases or Agreements for Leases mentioned in the said Second Schedule, and with the same Power of Recovery of the Rents and compelling the Performance of the Covenants in the said Leases or Agreements respectively reserved or contained, and on the Part of the Tenants to be paid and performed, as were possessed by Her Majesty immediately before the passing of this Act, but freed and discharged and absolutely exonerated of and from all former and other Estates, Rights, Titles, Uses, Trusts, Intents, and Purposes, Interests, Claims, and Demands heretofore created, limited, or declared of or affecting the same, in trust nevertheless for the Purposes of this Act: Provided always, that all Rents in arrear at the passing of this Act, or which shall accrue due in respect of the Hereditaments comprised in the said Second Schedule to this Act, up to the first quarterly or half-yearly Day of Payment of such Rents which shall first happen after the passing of this Act, shall be received by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, but shall be payable and paid by them to the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues.

Hereditaments in the First Schedule (subject to Leases, &c.) vested in the Crown.

III. From and after the passing of this Act, the Hereditaments mentioned and comprised in the First Schedule to this Act, with their and every of their Rights, Members, and Appurtenances, and the Freehold and Inheritance of the same in Fee Simple, shall (subject to the Leases or Agreements for Leases in the said First Schedule to this Act mentioned or referred to) be and the same are by this Act vested in the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors for ever, as Part and Parcel of the Hereditary Revenues of the Crown within the Order and Survey of the Court of Exchequer, who shall be deemed in Law to be in the actual Seisin and Possession thereof, subject to the Leases or Agreements for Leases mentioned in the said First Schedule, and with the same Power of Recovery of the Rents and compelling the Performance of the Covenants in the said Leases or Agreements respectively reserved or contained, and on the Part of the Tenants to be paid and performed, as were possessed by the said Commissioners missioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings immediately before the passing of this Act, but freed and discharged and absolutely exonerated from all other Estates, Rights, Titles, Uses, Trusts, Intents, and Purposes, Interests, Claims, and Demands heretofore created, limited, or declared of or affecting the same: Provided always, that all Rents in arrear at the passing of this Act, or which shall accrue due in respect of the Hereditaments comprised in the said First Schedule to this Act, up to the first quarterly or half-yearly Day of Payment of such Rents which shall first happen after the passing of this Act, shall be received by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues on behalf of Her Majesty, but shall be payable and paid by them to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, in trust for the Consolidated Fund.

Commissioners of Works to pay to Commissioners of Woods 2,600*l.*, being the Difference between Valuations of Property comprised in Schedules 1. and 2.

IV. 'And whereas it was referred to John Clutton of Number Eight, Whitehall Place, in the City of Westminster, Surveyor, on the Part of Her Majesty, and James Pennethorne of Whitehall Yard in the said City, Surveyor, on the Part of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, to value the Hereditaments respectively comprised in the First and Second Schedules to this Act; and the said John Clutton and James Pennethorne not having agreed touching the Value of such Hereditaments respectively, such Value has been ascertained and determined by Daniel Norton of Old Broad Street in the City of London, Surveyor, as the Umpire appointed by them; and in the Fourth Schedule to this Act is contained a Copy of the Award of the said Daniel Norton concerning the Premises aforesaid, whereby it appears that the Value of the Hereditaments comprised in the said First Schedule to this Act has been ascertained by the said Daniel Norton to be One hundred and twenty thousand six hundred Pounds, and that the Value of the Hereditaments comprised in the said Second Schedule to this Act has been ascertained to be One hundred and twenty-three thousand two hundred Pounds, and the said Sum of One hundred and twenty thousand six hundred Pounds being deducted from the said Sum of One hundred and twenty-three thousand two hundred Pounds, there remains a Balance of Two thousand six hundred Pounds:' Be it therefore enacted, That the said Sum of Two thousand six hundred Pounds shall, within Three Calendar Months after the passing of this Act, be paid by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings out of any Monies which may be put at their Disposal for the Purposes of this Act to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, to be by them applied to the same Purposes as Monies arising from the Sale of Estates belonging to the Crown are by an Act of the Tenth Year of George the Fourth, Chapter Fifty, directed to be applied.

Certain Ground, &c. to vest in Commissioners.

V. The Piece of Ground and Buildings in the said Plan coloured Yellow (being Hereditaments which were purchased out of Monies from the Consolidated Fund or otherwise for the Public Service) shall from and after the passing of this Act be vested in the said Commissioners so hereby incorporated as aforesaid, their Successors and Assigns, for the Purposes of this Act.

Commissioners of Works to carry this Act into execution.

VI. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, out of any Monies which may be appropriated by Parliament, and put at their Disposal for that Purpose, to purchase, as after provided or referred to, the Hereditaments in the Parish of Saint Margaret Westminster in the County of Middlesex mentioned and described in the Third Schedule to this Act, or such Part or Parts of the said Hereditaments not by this Act vested in the said Commissioners, and to pull down and remove the Buildings thereon when so purchased, and to appropriate the Sites of the said Buildings, and all the Ground and Buildings mentioned and described in the Second and Third Schedules to this Act, whether now used as Streets, Yards, or vacant Ground, or otherwise, as a Site for the Erection thereon of Offices and Buildings for the Public Service, and the necessary Accesses and Approaches to such Offices and Buildings, and to carry the Purposes of this Act into execution in manner herein mentioned.

The new Buildings and Offices to be erected out of Monies to be appropriated by Parliament.

VII. The Buildings and Offices so to be erected as aforesaid shall be erected out of such Monies as may from Time to Time be appropriated by Parliament, and placed at the Disposal of the said Commissioners for that Purpose, and as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall from Time to Time direct; and all Hereditaments so to be purchased, and the Hereditaments so by this Act vested in the said Commissioners, shall be vested in them for the Public Service, and shall be subject to the Provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifteenth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Twenty-eight, and in all respects as if the same had been acquired under the Provisions of that Act.

Plan to be deposited in the Office of Works, &c., and be open for Inspection.

VIII. The said Map or Plan, describing the Houses, Tenements, and Hereditaments on the Site or Sites of which the new Offices and Buildings for the Public Service are proposed to be erected and built, shall, when signed by the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Treasurer, be deposited at the Office of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, and the Map or Plan so deposited shall remain at the said Office, to the end that all Persons may at all seasonable Times have Liberty to inspect and peruse the same, at their Will and Pleasure, paying the Sum of One Shilling for every such Inspection.

Certain Sections of 3 & 4 Vict. c. 87.

IX. For the Purposes of this Act, the following Sections of the Eighty-seventh Chapter of the Statutes made in the Session of Parliament held in the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen incorporated with this Act.

Queen Victoria, being An Act to enable Her Majesty's Commissioners of Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings to make additional Thoroughfares in the Metropolis, namely, Sections Eleven to Twenty-six, both inclusive, Sections Twenty-eight to Fifty-seven, both inclusive, and Sections Sixty-six to Seventy-five, both inclusive, shall be deemed to be herein repeated, with the Alterations necessary to make the same applicable to the Purposes of this Act, and to the Commissioners hereby incorporated, instead of the Commissioners by that Act incorporated, and so as to enable the Commissioners hereby incorporated to carry into effect the Purposes of this Act; and all Provisions in the said Act referring to or affecting any particular Commissioners of Sewers, or Persons or Bodies having the Control of any Sewers, shall be held to apply to the Commissioners or Body or Person or Persons having the Control or Management of the Sewers to which such Provisions became applicable.

Period for Commissioners purchasing Houses, &c. limited.

X. If the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings shall not within the Space of Five Years, to be computed from the passing of this Act, purchase or take the Tenements, Ground, and Hereditaments, or Parts thereof respectively, which they are empowered by this Act to purchase, take, and use, in pursuance of the Provisions hereby referred to, then and from thenceforth the compulsory Powers hereby granted to them for such Purpose shall cease.

Application of Purchase Monies.

XI. With respect to any Purchase Monies payable into the Bank of England under the Provisions of this Act, the same shall be paid to the Account of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery pursuant to the Method prescribed by an Act of the Twelfth Year of King George the First, intituled An Act for better securing the Monies and Effects of the Suitors of the Court of Chancery, and to prevent the counterfeiting of East India Bonds and Indorsements thereon, and likewise Indorsements on South Sea Bonds, and pursuant to the General Rules and Orders of the said Court, and without Fee or Reward, according to the Act of the Twelfth Year of King George the Second, intituled An Act to empower the High Court of Chancery to lay out on proper Securities any Monies, not exceeding a Sum therein limited, out of the common and general Cash in the Bank of England belonging to the Suitors of the said Court, for the Use of the said Suitors, by applying the Interest arising therefrom for answering the Charges of the Office of the Accountant General of the said Court, in like Manner as Monies are by the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty directed to be paid to the Account of the Accountant General of the Court of Exchequer; and such Monies shall be applied under the Direction of the Court of Chancery in like Manner as Monies are by the said Act directed to be applied under the Directions of the Court of Exchequer, with such Powers to the Court of Chancery with regard to Costs as by the said Act of the Third and Fourth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-seven, were vested in the Court of Exchequer.

12 G. 1. c. 32.

12 G. 2. c. 24.

Monies payable to the Commissioners of Works, &c. to be paid over to the Paymaster General.

XII. All Monies payable to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, under the Provisions of this Act, from the Sale of any Materials or otherwise, shall be paid to Her Majesty's Paymaster General or the Deputy Paymaster General for the Time being, or other Officer acting for the Paymaster General, whose Receipt, unstamped, shall be a sufficient Discharge for the same to the Persons paying the same, and such Monies so paid as aforesaid shall from Time to Time be by such Paymaster General paid over and applied as the Commissioners shall by any Order direct, and in the meantime shall be applied or invested in the Purchase of Exchequer Bills, if the said Commissioners shall so direct.

Contracts made by First Commissioner of Works to be valid.

XIII. All Contracts in Writing made by the First Commissioner of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, in the Execution of any of the Powers by this Act given to the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, incorporated as aforesaid, shall be valid, and shall be binding on the said Commissioners as if the same had been under their Corporate Seal.

Deeds to be enrolled in the Court of Exchequer.

XIV. Every Conveyance, Assignment, or other Deed or Instrument whereby any of the Hereditaments by this Act authorized to be purchased shall be conveyed or assigned to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, for the Purposes of this Act, shall be enrolled amongst the Records of Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer, and entered in the Books of the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings; and every such Conveyance, Assignment, or other Deed or Instrument, when so enrolled, shall, without any other Enrolment or Acknowledgment thereof, and without any Registry thereof, be as good and available in Law, and of the like Force and Effect in all respects, and to all Intents and Purposes, as if the same or a Memorial thereof had been registered in the Office appointed for registering Deeds and other Conveyances of Lands and Tenements in the County of Middlesex, any Act of Parliament, Law, Practice, or Usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

Short Title.

XV. It shall be sufficient for all Purposes to cite this Act as "The Downing Street Public Offices Extension Act, 1855."

C A P. XCVI.

An Act to consolidate certain Acts, and otherwise amend the Laws of the Customs, and an Act to regulate the Office of the Receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster.

[14th August 1855.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Customs Duties, &c. payable to Exchequer Account of Bank of England to be received under

I. All Customs Duties and other Public Moneys payable to the Exchequer Account at the Bank of England shall be received to the Credit of such Account by the Governor and Company of the said Bank, under such Regulations and Directions as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall from Time to Time prescribe; and the Specifications or Statements of Particulars required by an Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to regulate the Office of the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer at Westminster, to be delivered to the Cashier or other Officer Officer of the Bank of England by the Person paying in any such Money, shall be required only in such Cases and shall be signed and issued by such Person as the said Commissioners shall from Time to Time direct; and the Acquittances for all Payments made to the Account of the Exchequer at the Bank of England shall be made out in such Form and under such Regulations as shall be prescribed by the said Commissioners; and such Acquittances shall have in all respects the same Force and Validity in Law as the Acquittances heretofore given by the Comptroller of the Exchequer by virtue of the Ninth Section of the said recited Act of the Fourth Year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, Chapter Fifteen; and the several Orders, Rules, and Regulations which may be issued under the Authority of this Act by the said Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, as relating to such Specifications and Acquittances as aforesaid, shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Six Weeks after the Issue of such Orders, Rules, and Regulations, if Parliament shall be sitting, or if not sitting, then within Six Weeks next immediately after the re-assembling of Parliament.

such Regulations as the Treasury shall prescribe. 4 & 5 W. 4. c. 15.

II. Tobacco, Cigars, and Snuff are hereby prohibited to be imported into the United Kingdom, unless in whole and complete Packages, each containing not less than Eighty Pounds net Weight of such Tobacco, Cigars, or Snuff, and unless in Ships of not less than One hundred and twenty Tons Burden, and unless into such Ports as are or may be approved by the Commissioners of Customs for the Importation and Warehousing of Tobacco; and any Tobacco, Cigars, or Snuff imported into the United Kingdom contrary hereto shall be subject to the Provisions contained in the Forty-fourth Section of "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," in the same Manner as if this Prohibition had been originally enacted in the Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions to the said Section, of which it is hereby declared to form a Part.

Importation of Tobacco in Packages less than 80 lbs. prohibited.

III. Goods not duly reported may be detained by any Officer or Officers of Customs until the same are so reported, and the Cause of the Omission explained to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Customs, who may thereupon restore the same on such Terms as they may deem proper; and such Goods may in the meantime, should the said Commissioners deem necessary, be removed to the Queen's Warehouse.

Goods not reported may be detained.

IV. The Time prescribed by the Sixty-fourth Section of "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," for perfecting Entries by Bill of Sight, may be extended at the Discretion of the Commissioners of Customs.

Time for perfecting Entries by Bills of Sight.

V. The Commissioners of Customs may permit the Entries of Goods in such Form and Manner and on such Conditions as they may direct to meet the Exigencies of any Case to which the general Laws and Regulations may not be strictly applicable.

Commissioners may permit special Entries.

VI. All Goods not being of a perishable Nature deposited in the Queen's Warehouse, and not cleared within Three Months, and all Goods of a perishable Nature so deposited and not cleared forthwith, may, in case the same cannot be sold for a Sum sufficient to pay the Duties and Charges if offered for Sale for Home Consumption, or the Charges if offered for Sale for Exportation, be destroyed by Direction of the Commissioners of Customs.

Certain Goods in Queen's Warehouse may be destroyed.

VII. No Goods of a combustible or inflammable Nature shall be brought into or deposited in the Queen's Warehouse, unless with the Sanction of the Commissioners of Customs; and if any such Goods shall be landed by the Officers of Customs under the Seventy-fourth Section of "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," the same may be deposited in any Place that such Officers may deem fit, and whilst so deposited the same shall be deemed to be in the Queen's Warehouse, and be liable to be dealt with, at the Expiration of Fourteen Days, in the same Manner as Goods of a perishable Nature actually deposited in the Queen's Warehouse, unless duly cleared or warehoused in some approved Warehouse in the meantime; and such Goods shall be chargeable with such Expenses for securing, watching, and guarding the same until sold, cleared, or warehoused as aforesaid, as the Commissioners shall see fit, and neither the said Commissioners nor their Officers shall be liable to make good any Damage which such Goods may sustain by reason or during the Time of their being so deposited and dealt with as aforesaid.

Combustibles not to be deposited in Queen's Warehouse.

VIII. On the re-warehousing in the Name of the Proprietor of Goods, either by himself or by the Warehouse-keeper, after the Expiration of Five Years from the last preceding warehousing or re-warehousing thereof under Sections One hundred and three and One hundred and four of "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," the Commissioners of Customs may (first being satisfied that the same are in the Warehouse, that the Packages are entire, and that there is no Ground to suspect that there is any undue Deficiency therein,) dispense with the re-weighing, re-gauging, or re-measuring, and strict Examination thereof, if they be such as are liable on Delivery to the Payment of Duty according to the landing Weight, Measure, or Quantity thereof, and also at the Request of the Warehouse-keeper or Proprietor of the Warehouse may (first being satisfied as aforesaid) dispense with the re-weighing, re-gauging, re-measuring, or strict Examination on such re-warehousing as aforesaid of Goods being Wines or other Goods the Duties whereon are payable at the Delivery, Weight, Measure, or Quantity, and which may be liable to Injury by such re-weighing, re-gauging, re-measuring, or strict Examination; but in either of these Cases the Warehouse-keeper or Proprietor of such Warehouse shall be liable at the Time of Delivery of such Goods to pay the Duties due on any Deficiency therein not allowed by Law which may then be found to exist, instead of being called upon to make good any Deficiencies which might might have been found to exist had such re-weighing, re-gauging, re-measuring, or Examination been resorted to at the Time of such re-warehousing.

Power to dispense with the re-weighing, &c. of Goods on quinquennial re-warehousing, in certain Cases.

Goods not to be shipped except on proper Days and Places, nor until Entry and Clearance.

IX. No Goods shall be shipped, put off, or water-borne to be shipped for Exportation from any Port or Place in the United Kingdom, except on Days not being Sundays or Holidays, nor from any Place except some Legal Quay, Wharf, or other Place duly appointed for such Purpose, nor without the Presence or Authority of the proper Officer of Customs, nor before due Entry Outwards of such Ship and due Entry of such Goods, nor before such Goods shall have been duly cleared for Shipment; and any Goods shipped, put off, or water-borne to be shipped contrary hereto shall be forfeited; and it shall be lawful for the Searcher to open or cause to be opened and to examine all Goods shipped or brought for Shipment at any Place in the United Kingdom, and the opening for that Purpose of Packages containing Goods upon which any Drawback of Customs or Inland Revenue is claimed, and the weighing, repacking, landing (when water-borne), and the shipping thereof shall be done by or at the Expense of the Exporter.

Searcher may open Packages and examine Goods.

Penalty on failing to deliver Shipping Bill.

X. Any Exporter of Goods who shall fail, either by himself or his Agent, to deliver to the Searcher a Shipping Bill, with Duplicates thereof, of the Goods exported by him, as prescribed by the One hundred and twenty-fifth Section of "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Penalty on departing without Clearance.

XI. If any Ship having Cargo on board shall depart from any Port without being duly cleared, the Master shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds.

Exportation of British and Irish Spirits to Isle of Man, &c.

XII. British or Irish Spirits may be exported from Great Britain or Ireland to Parts beyond the Seas or be removed to the Isle of Man in Casks of the Content of Ten Gallons each at the least, but no British or Irish Spirits shall be removed or exported from the Isle of Man to any other Part of the United Kingdom, under pain of Forfeiture thereof.

Foreign Ships in Coasting Trade to be subject to same Rules as British Ships.

XIII. Every Foreign Ship employed in carrying Goods or Passengers Coastwise from one Part of the United Kingdom to another, or from the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man to the United Kingdom, or from the United Kingdom to any of the said Islands, or from any of the said Islands to any other of them, or from any Part of any one of the said Islands to any other Part of the same, shall be subject, as to Stores for the Use of the Crew and in all other respects, to the same Laws, Rules, and Regulations to which British Ships when so employed are now subject.

Foreign Ships employed in Coasting Trade not to be subject to higher Rates than British Ships.

XIV. No Foreign Ship employed in the Coasting Trade as aforesaid, nor any Goods carried in any such Ship, shall, during the Time such Ship is so employed, be subject to any higher or other Rate of Dock, Pier, Harbour, Light, Pilotage, Tonnage, or other Dues, Duties, Tolls, Rates, or other Charges whatsoever, or to any other Rules as to the Employment of Pilots, or any other Rules or Restrictions whatsoever, than British Ships employed in like Manner or Goods carried in such Ships, any Law, Charter, special Privilege, or Grant to the contrary notwithstanding; nor shall any Body Corporate or Person having or claiming any Right or Title to any such higher or other Rates, Dues, Duties, Tolls, or other Charges as aforesaid be entitled to any Compensation in respect thereof under any Law or Statute relating thereto, or otherwise howsoever.

Her Majesty may exercise Powers as conferred by 16 & 17 Vict. c. 107. ss. 324, 325, 326.

XV. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty to exercise in respect of Foreign Ships employed in the Coasting Trade as aforesaid, and of Goods carried Coastwise in such Ships, such or the like Powers as are conferred on Her Majesty by the Three hundred and twenty-fourth, Three hundred and twenty-fifth, and Three hundred and twenty-sixth Sections of the said Customs Consolidation Act, 1853, in respect of Foreign Ships employed in the Over-sea Trade, and of Goods exported or imported in such Ships.

Powers of Commissioners of Customs as to Colonies extended to Governors, &c.

XVI. The Powers and Authorities now vested in the Commissioners of Customs with regard to any Act or Thing relating to the Customs or to Trade or Navigation in any of the British Possessions abroad shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be vested in the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or other Person administering the Government in any such Possession, and every Act required by any Law to be done by or with any particular Officer or at any particular Place, if done by or with any such Officer or at any Place appointed or nominated by such Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or other Person so administering such Government, shall be deemed to have been done by or with such particular Officer or at such particular Place, as the Case may be, and as required by Law; and all Commissions, Deputations, and Appointments granted to any Officers of Customs in force at the Commencement of this Act shall have the same Force and Effect to all Intents and Purposes as if the same had been granted or made in the first instance by such Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person so administering the Government of any such Possession; and all Bonds or other Securities which shall have been given by or for any such Officers and their respective Securities for good Conduct or otherwise shall remain in force, and shall and may be enforced and put in suit at the instance of or by Directions of any such Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person administering the Government of any such Possession.

Bay Islands placed on same Footing as the Bermudas.

XVII. The Islands in the Bay of Honduras called the Bay Islands shall be deemed and taken to be excepted or excluded from the Operation of the One hundred and fifty-ninth Section of the "Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," to the same Extent as the Bahamas or Bermuda Islands are thereby excepted or excluded.

XVIII. No

Provision as to Importation of Tobacco, &c. into Channel Islands.

XVIII. No Tobacco, Cigars, or Snuff shall be imported into the Channel Islands, nor be carried from any one of the said Islands to another of them, or from one Part of any of the said Islands to another Part of the same, unless in Ships of not less Burden than Fifty Tons, except from the United Kingdom in Ships of not less than Forty Tons Burden regularly trading from thence to those Islands, nor unless in Packages each containing not less than Eighty Pounds net Weight of such Tobacco, Cigars, or Snuff, nor unless the Provisions in and under which the like Sort of Goods may be legally imported into the United Kingdom are complied with; and all Tobacco, Cigars, or Snuff imported into the said Island or carried, shipped, or removed contrary hereto, or which shall be found or discovered to have been on board any Ship or Boat within One League of the Coasts thereof, shall be forfeited, together with the Ship or Boat.

As to importing and exporting Spirits from and to Channel Islands in Ships of 50 Tons and Casks of 20 Gallons.

Not to extend to Spirits in Bottles, or Stores; nor to certain warehoused Goods exported; nor to licensed Boats of Ten Tons supplying Island of Sark.

XIX. No Spirits (except Rum of the British Plantations) shall be imported into or exported from the Channel Islands or any of them, or be removed from any one to any other of the said Islands, or be carried Coastwise from any one Part to any other Part of any One of the said Islands, or shall be shipped in order to be so removed or carried in any Ship of less Burden than Fifty Tons, or in any Cask or other Vessel capable of containing Liquids not being of the Size or Content of Twenty Gallons at the least; and all Spirits imported, exported, removed, carried, shipped, or water-borne to be so shipped, removed, or carried contrary hereto shall be forfeited, together with the Ship and any Boat importing, exporting, removing, or carrying the same: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to any Spirits imported in any such Ship in Glass Bottles as Part of the Cargo, nor to any Spirits being really intended for the Consumption of the Seamen and Passengers of such Ship during their Voyage, and not being more in Quantity than is necessary for that Purpose; nor to any warehoused Goods exported from the United Kingdom in Ships of not less than Forty Tons Burden being regular Traders to those Islands; nor to any Boat of less Burden than Ten Tons, for having on board at any One Time any Foreign Spirits of the Quantity of Ten Gallons or under, such Boat having a Licence from the proper Officer of Customs at either of the Islands of Guernsey or Jersey for the Purpose of being employed in carrying Commodities for the Supply of the Island of Sark, which Licence such Officer of Customs is hereby required to grant without Fee or Reward; but if any such Boat shall have on board at any One Time any greater Quantity of Spirits than Ten Gallons, unless in Casks or Packages of the Size and Content of Twenty Gallons at the least, such Spirits and Boat shall be forfeited.

Prohibited Goods not to be shipped from the Channel Islands to the United Kingdom.

XX. If in the Channel Islands any Goods the Importation whereof into the United Kingdom is prohibited, or any Goods in any Packages or in any Manner in which the same cannot be legally imported into the United Kingdom, shall be shipped or brought to any Wharf, Quay, or other Place in or be water-borne to be shipped on board any Ship clearing or departing from those Islands to the United Kingdom, such Goods shall be forfeited, and any Person who shall so ship, bring, or water-bear to be shipped any such Goods, or be otherwise knowingly concerned therein, shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds or Treble the Value of the Goods, at the Election of the Commissioners of Customs.

Reward to Officers for Seizures in Channel Islands.

XXI. Where any Seizures of Tobacco or Spirits shall be made in any of the Channel Islands or within One League of the Coast thereof by any Officer of Customs or Person employed for the Prevention of Smuggling, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Customs to allow to such Officer or Person such Reward beyond the Sum directed by the One hundred and eighty-fourth Section of "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," as the said Commissioners may deem advisable, not exceeding in any Case the Sum of Five Pounds.

Terms "Governor," &c. in Channel Islands to include Jurats, &c.

XXII. The Terms "Governor, Deputy Governor, and Deemster," used in the Two hundred and sixty-third and Two hundred and seventy-seventh Sections of "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," shall be deemed to apply to and include Jurats of any of the Channel Islands, and each such Jurat shall have and exercise, in respect of any Offence against any Act relating to the Customs committed in or within One League of the Island in which he may be a Jurat, the same Powers as are vested in any Justice of the Peace in respect of any such Offences committed therein.

Goods the Growth or Manufacture of Isle of Man may be imported into Great Britain or Ireland on Certificate, &c.

XXIII. Any Goods the Growth of the Isle of Man, or there manufactured from Materials the Growth of the said Isle, or from Materials not subject to Duties in Great Britain or Ireland, or from Materials upon which the Duty has been paid in Great Britain or Ireland and upon which no Drawback has been subsequently granted, may be brought from the said Isle into Great Britain or Ireland without Payment of any Duty: Provided always, that such Goods may nevertheless be charged with such Proportion of such Duties as shall fairly countervail any Duties of Excise payable on the like Sort of Goods the Produce of that Part of the United Kingdom into which they shall be brought or payable upon any of the Materials from which such Goods are manufactured; and any Articles either wholly or in part manufactured in the said Isle from any Materials upon which a higher Duty is payable upon their Importation into the United Kingdom than on their Importation into the Isle of Man, may be brought from the said Isle into Great Britain or Ireland on Payment of the Duty payable on such Goods in that Part of the United Kingdom into which they shall be so brought.

Isle of Man to be Part of United Kingdom for Customs Purposes.

XXIV. The Isle of Man shall be deemed and taken to be Part of the United Kingdom for the Purposes of this or any other Act relating to the Customs; but nothing herein contained shall prejudice or affect, or be construed in any way, directly or indirectly, to prejudice or affect, any of the Rights or Privileges legally exercised or enjoyed by the said Isle at the Time of the passing of this Act.

XXV. If

Certain Vessels belonging to Her Majesty's Subjects, or whereof Half the Persons on board are Subjects of Her Majesty, and Foreign Vessels, found within certain Distances of Coast of United Kingdom or Channel Islands with certain Goods on board, forfeited, with Goods.

XXV. If any Ship or Boat belonging wholly or in part to Her Majesty's Subjects, or having Half the Persons on board Subjects of Her Majesty, shall be found or discovered to have been within Four Leagues of that Part of the Coast of the United Kingdom which is between the North Foreland on the Coast of Kent and Beachy Head on the Coast of Sussex, or within Eight Leagues of any other Part of the Coast of the United Kingdom, or if any Foreign Ship or Boat having One or more Subjects of Her Majesty on board shall be found or discovered to have been within Three Leagues of the Coast of the United Kingdom, or if any Foreign Ship or Boat shall be found or discovered to have been within One League of the Coast of the United Kingdom, or if any Ship or Boat shall be found or discovered to have been within One League of the Channel Islands, any such Ship or Boat so found or discovered, having on board or in any Manner attached thereto, or having had on board or in any Manner attached thereto, or conveying or having conveyed in any Manner, any Spirits, not being in a Cask or other Vessel capable of containing Liquids of the Size or Content of Twenty Gallons at the least, or any Tea exceeding Six Pounds Weight in the whole, or any Tobacco or Snuff not being in a Cask or a whole and complete Package containing Eighty Pounds Weight of Tobacco or Snuff at the least, or any Tobacco Stalks, Tobacco Stalk Flour, Snuff Work, or any Cordage or other Articles adapted and prepared for slinging or sinking small Casks, or any Casks or other Vessels whatsoever of less Size or Content than Twenty Gallons of the Description used for the smuggling of Spirits, then and in every such Case the said Spirits, Tea, Tobacco, Snuff, Tobacco Stalks, Tobacco Stalk Flour, and Snuff Work, together with the Casks or Packages containing the same, and the Cordage or other Articles, Casks, and other Vessels of the Description aforesaid, and also the Ship or Boat, shall be forfeited.

Any Vessel or Boat arriving within any Port of United Kingdom or Channel Islands having prohibited Goods on board, &c. forfeited.

Power to Commissioners to waive Forfeiture.

XXVI. If any Ship or Boat shall be found or discovered to have been within any Port, Bay, Harbour, River, or Creek of the United Kingdom or the Channel Islands, having on board or in any Manner attached thereto, or having had on board or in any Manner attached thereto, or conveying or having conveyed in any Manner, any Spirits, not being in a Cask or other Vessel capable of containing Liquids of the Size or Content of Twenty Gallons at the least, or any Tobacco or Snuff, imported contrary to the Prohibitions and Restrictions contained in this or any other Act relating to the Customs, or any Tobacco Stalks, Tobacco Stalk Flour, or Snuff Work, every such Ship or Boat, and such Spirits, Tobacco, Snuff, Tobacco Stalks, Tobacco Stalk Flour, and Snuff Work shall be forfeited; but if it shall be made to appear to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of Customs that such Spirits, Tobacco, Snuff, Tobacco Stalks, Tobacco Stalk Flour, or Snuff Work were on board without the Knowledge or Privity of the Owner or Master of such Ship or Boat, and without any wilful Neglect or Want of reasonable Care on their Parts, then and in such Case the said Commissioners shall deliver up the said Ship or Boat to the Owner or Master of the same.

Forfeiture not to extend to Ships and Goods in certain Cases.

XXVII. Nothing herein contained shall extend to render any Ship of One hundred and twenty Tons Burden or upwards liable to Forfeiture on account of any Tobacco, Cigars, or Snuff, if in whole and complete Packages, each containing not less than Eighty Pounds net Weight of such Tobacco, Cigars, or Snuff; nor to render any Ship of Fifty Tons Burden or upwards liable to Forfeiture on account of any Tea, or of any Spirits in Glass Bottles or Stone Bottles not exceeding the Size of Three Pints each, such Tea and Spirits being really Part of the Cargo of such Ship; nor to render any Ship liable to Forfeiture on account of any Spirits or Tea, or of any Tobacco really intended for the Consumption of the Seamen or Passengers on board during their Voyage, and not being more in Quantity than is necessary for that Purpose; nor to render any Ship liable to Forfeiture if really bound from one Foreign Port to another Foreign Port, and pursuing such Voyage, Wind and Weather permitting.

Persons on board Vessels within Ports of United Kingdom or Channel Islands, with contraband Articles, subject to Penalty of 100*l.* and Detention.

XXVIII. Every Person who shall be found or discovered to have been on board any Ship or Boat liable to Forfeiture under this or any other Act relating to the Customs for being found or discovered to have been within any Port, Bay, Harbour, River, or Creek of the United Kingdom or of the Channel Islands, having on board or in any Manner attached thereto, or having had on board or in any Manner attached thereto, or conveying or having conveyed in any Manner, such Goods or Things as subject such Ship or Boat to Forfeiture, or who shall be found or discovered to have been on board any of Her Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or on board any Ship or Vessel in Her Majesty's Employment or Service, or on board of any Foreign Post Office Packet, being a national Vessel, employed in carrying the Mails between any Foreign Country and the United Kingdom, such last-mentioned Ships, Vessels, or Packets being found or discovered to have been within any Port, Bay, Harbour, River, or Creek of the United Kingdom or the Channel Islands, having on board or in any Manner attached thereto, or having had on board or in any Manner attached thereto, or conveying or having conveyed in any Manner, any Spirits not being in a Cask or other Vessel capable of containing Liquids of the Size or Content of Twenty Gallons at the least, or any Tobacco or Snuff not being in a whole and complete Package containing Eighty Pounds Weight of such Tobacco or Snuff at least, shall forfeit the Sum of One hundred Pounds; and every such Person shall and may be detained, and taken before any Justice, to be dealt with as herein-after directed.

Notice of Seizure of Goods.

XXIX. The Notice in Writing now required by the Two hundred and twenty-sixth Section of "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," on the Seizure of Goods, shall not be required in Cases where the Seizure is made on the Person or in the Presence of the Offender; and where any such Notice is required, required, the same may be served either in the Manner prescribed by the said Section, or by Delivery at the Place of Abode of the Party to whom the same is addressed.

Where Persons are taken before a Justice for any Offence under any Act relating to Customs, or likely to abscond, such Justice may order them to be detained a reasonable Time, or admit to Bail.

XXX. When any Person shall have been detained for any Offence against this or any other Act relating to the Customs, and taken before any Justice, such Justice may, if he see reasonable Cause, order such Person to be detained in Gaol or in the Custody of the Police or Constabulary Force a reasonable Time, to obtain the Order of the Commissioners of Customs or Inland Revenue, and to prepare the necessary Informations, Convictions, and Warrants of Commitment, and at the Expiration of such Time to be brought before him, or any other Justice or Justices, who may then finally hear and determine the Matter; or when any Information shall have been preferred before any Justice against any Person for any such Offence, and it shall appear to such Justice, by Depositions on Oath, that such Person is likely to abscond before such Information can be heard, such Justice may, in lieu of issuing a Summons for the Appearance of the Offender, grant his Warrant to apprehend and bring such Offender before him or any other Justice, at a Time and Place to be named in such Warrant, for the Hearing of such Information; but any Person so detained or apprehended may be liberated, on giving, by Recognizance, Security to the Satisfaction of such Justice in the Sum of One hundred Pounds, or in the Amount of the Penalty sought to be recovered, to appear at such Time and Place as shall be appointed by such Justice for hearing the Case.

Penalty and Costs to be stated in Convictions, &c.

XXXI. When any Person is convicted before any Justice and adjudged to pay a pecuniary Penalty for any Offence against this or any Act relating to the Customs, such Justice shall state in the Conviction, and also in the Commitment of such Person, if committed in default of Payment, the Amount of Costs awarded to be paid by such Person, as well as the Penalty so adjudged, and shall commit such Person until Payment of such Penalty and Costs.

Execution may issue after Trial out of Term.

XXXII. In any Case where a Verdict is or shall have been obtained at the Suit of the Crown against any Defendant in any of the Superior Courts, in any Cause tried out of Term, Execution thereon may issue on or after the Expiration of Fourteen Days from the Date of such Verdict, in the same Manner as Execution may issue in any Case under the One hundred and twentieth Section of "The Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," unless the Judge who tried the Cause, or some other Judge, or the Court, shall order Execution to issue at any earlier or later Period with or without Terms.

Defendant's Option to remove Case, when to be exercised.

XXXIII. The Option given to a Defendant by Section Two hundred and sixty-four of "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," of removing any Proceedings against himself before any Justice to a Superior Court, shall not be exercised after the Commencement of the Trial or Hearing thereof before such Justice.

Count for harbouring, &c. smuggled Goods.

XXXIV. The Words "otherwise dealing with certain prohibited, restricted, or uncustomed Goods" in Count Sixteen of Schedule B. to "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," shall be deemed to apply to and include the harbouring or having Possession, as the Case may be, of any such Goods, and it shall not be necessary to prove that the Party charged was concerned in the unshipping thereof.

Evidence of Condemnation of Forfeiture.

XXXV. The Condemnation of Goods by any Justice as forfeited under the Laws relating to the Customs may be proved in any Court of Justice, or before any competent Tribunal, by the Production of such Condemnation purporting to be signed by such Justice, or an examined Copy of the Record of such Condemnation certified by the Clerk to such Justice.

Section 2. of 14 & 15 Vict. c. 99. not to extend to Revenue Cases.

XXXVI. The Second Section of the Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter Ninety-nine, shall not be deemed to apply to any Prosecution, Suit, or other Proceeding in respect of any Offence, or for the Recovery of any Penalty or Forfeiture, under any Law now in force or hereafter to be made relating to the Customs or Inland Revenue.

Defendants in Customs Cases to have choice of Attorney and Counsel in Scotland.

XXXVII. Any Writer to the Signet, Solicitor before the Supreme Courts in Scotland, or Solicitor at Law duly licensed to practise as an Agent in the Courts of Session and Justiciary in Scotland, who shall be retained by any Defendant at the Suit of the Crown for any Offence against the Laws relating to the Customs, shall be competent to undertake the Defence of such Defendant, and to instruct Counsel for that Purpose; and any such Defendant who may not have retained any such Agent shall be entitled to be heard by his Counsel on any Trial for such Offence, although such Defendant may have previously appeared to answer such Suit in Person instead of appearing by Agent.

Penalty on making false Declarations, signing false Documents and untruly answering Questions, and counterfeiting and using false Documents.

XXXVIII. If any Person shall in any Matter relating to the Customs make and subscribe any false Declaration, or make or sign any Declaration, Certificate, or other Instrument required to be verified by Signature only, the same being false in any Particular, or if any Person shall make or sign any Declaration made for the Consideration of the Commissioners of Customs, on any Application presented to them, the same being untrue in any Particular; or if any Person required by this or any other Act relating to the Customs to answer Questions put to him by the Officers of Customs shall not truly answer such Questions; or if any Person shall counterfeit, falsify, or wilfully use when counterfeited or falsified any Document required by this or any Act relating to the Customs or by or under the Directions of the Commissioners of Customs, or any Instrument used in the Transaction of any Business or Matter relating to the Customs, or shall fraudulently alter any Document or Instrument, or counterfeit the Seal, Signature, Initials, or other

Mark of or used by the Officers of the Customs for the Verification of any such Document or Instrument, or for the Security of Goods, or any other Purpose in the Conduct of Business relating to the Customs, or under the Control or Management of the Commissioners of Customs or their Officers; every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit the Penalty of One hundred Pounds.

Persons complaining of Prohibition of Books in Copyright Lists may appeal to a Judge in Chambers.

XXXIX. If any Person shall have cause to complain of the Insertion of any Book in the Lists required by the Forty-sixth and One hundred and sixtieth Sections of "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," to be published by the Commissioners of Customs, it shall be lawful for any Judge at Chambers, on the Application of the Person so complaining, to issue a Summons calling upon the Person upon whose Notice such Book shall have been so inserted to appear before such Judge, at a Time to be appointed in such Summons, to show Cause why such Book shall not be expunged from such Lists, and such Judge shall at the Time so appointed proceed to hear and determine upon the Matter of such Summons, and make his Order thereon in Writing, and upon Service of such Order, or a certified Copy thereof, upon the Commissioners of Customs or their Secretary for the Time being, the said Commissioners shall expunge such Book from the List, or retain the same therein, according to the Tenor of such Order; and in case such Book shall be expunged from such Lists, the same shall not be deemed to be prohibited under the Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions Inwards contained in the Forty-fourth Section of the said Act: If at the Time appointed in any such Summons the Person so summoned shall not appear before such Judge, then upon Proof by Affidavit that such Summons, or a true Copy thereof, has been personally served upon or left at the last known or usual Place of Abode of the Person so summoned, or in case the Person to whom such Summons was directed and his Place of Abode cannot be found, that due Diligence has been used to ascertain the same, such Judge shall be at liberty to proceed ex parte to hear and determine the Matter; but if either Party be dissatisfied with such Order he may apply to the Superior Court of which such Judge is a Member to review such Order, and make such further Order thereon as such Court may see fit.

Declaration of Truth of Notice of Copyright.

Nothing to prevent Persons aggrieved from proceeding at Law, &c.

XL. From and after the passing of this Act, no Book shall be inserted in any List published by the Commissioners of Customs, under the Forty-sixth and One hundred and sixtieth Sections of "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," until the Person giving the Notice thereby required shall have made and subscribed a Declaration before the Collector of the Customs or any Justice of the Peace, at some Port or Place in the United Kingdom, that the Contents of such Notice are true: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall prevent, prejudice, or affect any Proceeding at Law or in Equity which any Party, aggrieved by reason of the Insertion of any Book in any such List, in pursuance of any such Notice, or upon the Removal of any Book from such List pursuant to any such Order as aforesaid, or by reason of any Declaration to be made under the Authority of this Act being false, might or would otherwise have against any Party giving such Notice, or obtaining any such Order, or making such false Declaration as aforesaid.

As to billeting Soldiers, &c.

XLI. No Soldiers or Militia shall be billeted on Officers or Coast Guard Men in the Service of the Customs.

Declaratory Explanation of Term "Malt."

XLII. The Term "Malt" in the Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions Inwards relating to Goods absolutely prohibited to be imported, contained in the Forty-fourth Section of "The Customs Consolida- Act, 1853," shall be deemed to include all Malt, whether in Grain or in the Form of concentrated Extract or Essence, but shall not include any of the fermented Liquors made from Malt now specified in the Tariff.

Interpretation of Terms.

XLIII. When any of the Terms mentioned in the Three hundred and fifty-seventh Section of "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," are used in this or any other Act relating to the Customs, the Terms so used shall have the same Interpretation and Meaning as are given to them in the said Section.

Acts and Parts of Acts set forth in Schedule repealed.

XLIV. The several Acts and Parts of Acts set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed are hereby repealed, to the Extent to which such Acts or Parts of Acts are by such Schedule expressed to be repealed, except as to anything done before the Commencement of this Act, and except so far as relates to any Arrears of Duty or to any Drawback which shall have become due or payable, and except so far as may be necessary for the Purpose of supporting or continuing any Proceeding heretofore taken or to be taken after the Commencement of this Act, and except as to the Recovery or Application of any Penalty for any Offence which shall have been committed or any Forfeiture which shall have been incurred before the Commencement of this Act; and all Orders made by Her Majesty in Council, all Bonds taken or Licences granted, and all Things done under the Authority or in pursuance of any of the Acts or Parts of Acts hereby repealed, shall nevertheless be valid and effectual.

Orders, &c. under Acts repealed to be valid.

Sections of this Act set forth in Table incorporated in the Customs Consolidation Act, 1853.

XLV. Each of the several Sections of this Act set forth in Column No. 1. of the Table to this Act shall be deemed and taken to be incorporated in and form Part of "The Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," in the Order and Place assigned to each such Section in and by Column No. 2. of the said Table, and the said several Sections of this Act shall be read and construed with the said Customs Consolidation Act, 1853, and the Provisions of the latter Act shall be deemed to relate to and be applicable to said several Sections of this Act, in the same Manner and to the same Extent as if the said several Sections

Sections of this Act had been originally enacted therein, in the Order and Place so assigned to each such Section in and by the said Table; and the several Forms contained in Schedule B. to the said "Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," shall and may be used with reference to any Offences under this Act in the same Manner as they are made applicable to Offences against the said "Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," and, when necessary, the numerical Reference in such Forms to the Sections of this Act creating the Offence charged shall be made accordingly.

Act to be registered in Guernsey and Jersey.

XLVI. This Act shall be registered in the Royal Courts of the Islands of Guernsey and Jersey respectively, and the said Royal Courts respectively shall have full Power and Authority and are hereby required to register the same.

Commencement and Short Title of Act.

XLVII. This Act shall come into operation on the Day of the passing of this Act; and in citing it in other Acts of Parliament and in legal Instruments it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Supplemental Customs Consolidation Act, 1855."

CAP. XCVII.

An Act for the Amendment and Consolidation of the Customs Tariff Acts.

[14th August 1855.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Duties, &c. in Table (A.) to be paid instead of

I. From and after the passing of this Act, in lieu and instead of all other Duties and Drawbacks of Customs, there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, upon upon Goods imported into any Part of Great Britain or Ireland, the several Duties of Customs and there shall be allowed upon Goods exported the several Drawbacks as the same are respectively inserted, described, and set forth in Table (A.) to this Act annexed; and in lieu of all Duties of Customs now payable by Law upon the Importation of Goods into the Isle of Man there shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, the several Duties of Customs as the same are respectively set forth in Figures in Table (B.) to this Act annexed; and all the Goods described as free in the said Table (A.) shall be exempt from Duty on the Importation thereof into Great Britain or Ireland, and those described as free in the said Table (B.) shall be exempt from Duty on the Importation thereof into the Isle of Man.

present Duties, &c.

Duties in Table (B.) to be levied on Goods imported into Isle of Man.

As to Free Goods in Tables (A.) and (B.)

II. The Commissioners of the Treasury may from Time to Time, by any Order or Orders under their Hands, declare that all or any Articles legally importable into the Isle of Man, and not enumerated in the said Table, and upon which the Duty of Fifteen Pounds for every Hundred Pounds Value is hereby imposed, shall and may, from and after any Day or Days named in such Order or Orders, be imported from the Places and in the Manner therein mentioned into the Isle of Man Duty-free during such Time or Times as shall be therein named, or until such Order or Orders respectively, or any of them, shall be rescinded, and such Articles shall be imported Duty-free accordingly so long as any such Order or Orders, or any of them, shall continue unrescinded; and the said Commissioners may, at any Time, by any Order under their Hands, revoke the whole or any Part of any previous Order or Orders, or any of them, for such Time and in such Manner as they may see fit; and all Orders of the Commissioners of the Treasury made in pursuance of this Enactment shall be duly published in the London and Dublin Gazettes twice at least within Fourteen Days from the Date of such Orders respectively, and a Copy of every such Order shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within Six Weeks after the Date of such Order if Parliament be then sitting, and if not, then within Six Weeks after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament.

Power to the Treasury to remit and reimpose the Duties levied on unenumerated Articles imported into Isle of Man.

Orders to be published in the Gazette, and laid before Parliament.

III. The Drawbacks upon Sugar allowed under Table (A.) to this Act shall also be allowed and paid on the like Kinds of Sugar, upon the same being deposited in any approved Warehouse, upon such Terms and Conditions and subject to such Regulations as the Commissioners of Customs may direct, for Delivery therefrom as Ships Stores only, or for the Purpose of sweetening British Spirits in Bond.

Drawbacks on Sugar.

IV. For facilitating the due Assessment of Duties on White Clayed Sugar or Sugar rendered by any Process equal to White Clayed, and on Yellow Muscovado or Brown Clayed Sugar or Sugar rendered by any Process equal in Quality to Yellow Muscovado or Brown Clayed Sugar, with reference to Colour, Grain, and Saccharine Matter, considered collectively as they affect the general Quality of such Sugars, the Commissioners of Customs shall provide and renew from Time to Time Samples of White Clayed Sugar and of Sugar rendered equal in Quality to White Clayed Sugar, and of Yellow Muscovado or Brown Clayed Sugar, which shall be deemed to be Standard Samples for the Purpose of comparing therewith Sugars entered for Home Consumption; and no Sugar shall, as regards the Payment of Duty, be deemed to be White Clayed Sugar or Sugar rendered by any Process equal to White Clayed Sugar, unless equal to the Standard Samples of White Clayed Sugar or of Sugar rendered equal in Quality to White Clayed Sugar, or be deemed to be Yellow Muscovado or Brown Clayed Sugar or Sugar rendered by any Process equal to Yellow Muscovado or Brown Clayed Sugar, unless equal to the Standard Sample of Yellow Muscovado or Brown Clayed Sugar: It shall also be lawful for the Commissioners of Customs, if the Commissioners of the Treasury shall so direct, to furnish separate Samples for the Assessment of the Duties on Yellow Muscovado and on Brown Clayed Sugars, and also for the Assessment of the Duties upon Refined Sugar.

Commissioners of Customs to provide Standard Samples of White Clayed Sugar and Brown Clayed Sugar.

V. The Metage Dues now payable upon Fruit imported into the Port of London shall not be increased in consequence of the Duties upon such Fruit being levied by the Bushel.

As to Metage Dues on Fruit.

VI. On the Entry of Arms and Ammunition of War, whether for Home Use, Exportation, or in Transit, the Number and Quantity of Articles of each Description, as denominated in Table (A.) to this Act, shall be stated in the Import, Export, or Transit Entry, as the Case may be.

As to Entries of Arms, &c.

VII. All Manufactures of Gibraltar, Malta, and Heligoland, made of Materials of Foreign Produce liable to Duty upon Importation into the United Kingdom, upon which no such Duty has been paid, or upon which Drawback of such Duty has been allowed in the United Kingdom, shall, for the Purposes of Duty, be deemed and taken to be the Produce of and imported from a Foreign Country.

As to Manufactures of Gibraltar, &c. from Foreign Materials.

VIII. The following Acts, viz., "The Customs Tariff Act, 1853," the Acts of the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapters Twenty-eight and Twenty-nine, and the First and Fifth Sections of Chapter One hundred and twenty-two, and the Acts of the Eighteenth Year of Her said Majesty, Chapters Nine and Twenty-one, are hereby repealed, except as to anything done before the Commencement of this Act, and except so far as relates to any Arrears of Duty, or to any Drawback which shall have become due or payable, and except so far as may be necessary for the Purpose of supporting or continuing any Proceeding heretofore taken, or to be taken after the Commencement of this Act, and except as to the Recovery or Application of any Penalty for any Offence which shall have been committed or any Forfeiture which shall have been incurred before the Commencement of this Act; and the Duties imposed by the several Acts in force at the Time of the passing of the Act of the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twenty-two, are hereby declared declared not to have been affected or repealed by that Act, except as to the Articles enumerated therein; and the Duties collected since the passing of that Act according to the Tables contained in the said several Acts and in that Act are hereby declared to have been legally charged and collected; and all Orders made by Her Majesty in Council, all Bonds taken or Licences granted, and all Things done under the Authority or in pursuance of any of the Acts or Parts of Acts hereby repealed, shall nevertheless be valid and effectual.

Orders, &c. under Acts repealed to be valid.

When Contracts have been entered into, Amount of increased or decreased Duty to be added or deducted.

IX. In the event of any Increase or Decrease by Law in the Duties of Customs chargeable upon any Goods or Commodities after the making of any Contract or Agreement for the Sale or Delivery of such Goods Duty-paid, it shall be lawful for the Seller, in case such Increase shall accrue before the Clearance and Delivery from the Warehouse of such Goods at such increased Duty, and after Payment thereof, to add so much Money to the Contract Price as will be equivalent to such Increase of Duty, and he shall be entitled to be paid and to sue for and recover the same; and it shall be lawful for the Purchaser under any such Contract or Agreement, in case such Decrease shall take effect before the Clearance and Delivery from the Warehouse at such decreased Duty, to deduct so much Money from the Contract Price as will be equivalent to such Decrease of Duty, and he shall not be liable to pay or be sued for or in respect of such Deduction.

Short Title.

X. In citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament and in legal Instruments it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Customs Tariff Act, 1855."

CAP. XCVIII.

An Act to continue certain Turnpike Acts in Great Britain. [14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to continue for limited Times the Acts herein-after specified:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Certain Turnpike Acts continued to 1st Oct. 1856, &c. with certain Exceptions.

I. Every Act now in force for regulating, making, amending, or repairing any Turnpike Road in Great Britain which will expire on or before the End of the next Session of Parliament shall be continued until the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament, except an Act of the Ninth Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-eight, "for more effectually repairing the Road from Great Grimsby Haven to Wold Newton Church, and "from Nuns Farm to the Mill Field in the Parish of Irby in the County of Lincoln," and except as herein-after mentioned.

II. The Acts mentioned in the Schedule to this Act annexed shall continue in force until the First Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and no longer, unless Parliament shall in the meantime continue the same respectively.

Short Title.

III. In citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament and in legal Instruments it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Annual Turnpike Acts Continuance Act, 1855."

Extent of Act.

IV. This Act shall not apply to Ireland.

CAP. XCIX.

An Act to enable Her Majesty to carry into effect a Convention made between Her Majesty, His Majesty the Emperor of the French, and His Imperial Majesty the Sultan.

[14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS His Imperial Majesty the Sultan has addressed Himself to Her Majesty and to His Majesty the Emperor of the French to obtain Facilities for raising a Loan in order to enable Him to prosecute with Vigour the War against Russia in which He is at present engaged in conjunction with their said Majesties His Allies: And whereas a Convention has been signed between Her Majesty, His Majesty the Emperor of the French, and His Imperial Majesty the Sultan, in which it was agreed as follows:

"ARTICLE I.

"Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland undertakes to recommend to Her Parliament to enable Her to guarantee, jointly with His Majesty the Emperor of the French, and severally, and His Majesty the Emperor of the French engages, subject to the Ratification of the Legislative Body of France, to guarantee, conjointly with Her Britannic Majesty, the Interest of a Loan of Five Millions of Pounds Sterling to be raised by His Imperial Majesty the Sultan.

"ARTICLE II.

"The Interest payable on the said Loan of Five Millions Sterling shall be at the Rate of Four per Cent. per Annum.

"There shall moreover be paid by the Sublime Porte the further Rate of One per Cent. per Annum on the whole Capital of Five Millions Sterling, by way of Sinking Fund.

"ARTICLE III.

"The Interest and Sinking Fund of the said Loan shall form a Charge on the whole Revenues of the Ottoman Empire, and specially on the annual Amount of the Tribute of Egypt which remains over and above the Part thereof appropriated to the First Loan, and moreover on the Customs of Smyrna and Syria.

"His Imperial Majesty the Sultan engages that He will cause to be remitted to the Bank of England, on or before the Twenty-fifth of June and Twenty-fifth of December in each Year, the "full

‘ “ full Amount of One Half Year’s Interest and Sinking Fund on the whole Amount of the said ‘ “ Loan to be raised under the conjoint Guarantee of Her Britannic Majesty and of His Majesty
‘ “ the Emperor of the French, or on so much thereof as may be raised, until the whole Capital ‘ “ borrowed shall be repaid.

‘ “ ARTICLE IV.

‘ “ Their Majesties the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the ‘ “ Emperor of the French, being desirous to save the Sublime Porte the Expenses of Remittance, ‘ “ consent to undertake to transmit to the Ottoman Government the Proceeds of the above-‘ “ mentioned Loan of Five Millions Sterling to be raised under the conjoint Guarantee of Their ‘ “ Majesties. With this view it is agreed that the Contractors for the said Loan shall pay the ‘ “ Proceeds thereof into the Bank of England for the Account of the Turkish Government, to ‘ “ be transmitted to the Sublime Porte by the Agency of the Governments of England and of

‘ And whereas, in pursuance of Her Majesty’s gracious Recommendation in this Behalf, it is expedient ‘ that Her Majesty should be enabled to carry into effect the said Convention :’ Be it therefore enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Her Majesty empowered to guarantee Interest to be charged on Consolidated Fund.

I. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty and She is hereby authorized to guarantee, jointly with His Majesty the Emperor of the French, and severally, the Interest on the Loan to be raised by His Imperial Majesty the Sultan, not exceeding Interest at the Rate of Four Pounds per Centum per Annum on a Sum of Five Millions of Pounds Sterling, upon the Terms and Conditions set forth in the said Convention, and for that Purpose the Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury are hereby authorized to cause to be issued from Time to Time out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom, or out of the growing Produce thereof, such Sums of Money as may at any Time be required to be paid to fulfil the Guarantee of Her Majesty in respect of such Interest as and when the same Interest may from Time to Time become payable, conformably to the Tenor of Her Majesty’s Engagement as specified in the said Convention, together with the attending Charges of Management thereon; provided always, that such Charge for Management shall in no Case exceed the Rate of Three hundred Pounds per Million of Capital on which such Interest shall be so payable.

Sums repaid as Interest to be carried to Consolidated Fund.

II. The Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury shall cause such Sums as shall be from Time to Time paid in or towards the Repayment of any Money issued under this Act in respect of the said Guarantee of Interest to be carried to and form Part of the said Consolidated Fund.

Accounts to be laid before Parliament.

III. The Commissioners of Her Majesty’s Treasury shall cause to be prepared, and shall lay before both Houses of Parliament in the Month of February in every Year if Parliament be then sitting, and if Parliament be not sitting, then within Fourteen Days of the next Meeting of Parliament, an Account up to the Thirty-first December then next preceding of the total Sums (if any) which shall from Time to Time be issued and applied by virtue of this Act for paying and satisfying any Interest so agreed to be guaranteed by Her Majesty, and any Charge for Management of the said Loan, and also of the total Sums, if any, which may have been repaid in respect of any Advances for Payment of such Interest under the Act.

CAP. C.

An Act to amend the Law concerning the Qualification of Officers of the Militia.

[14th August 1855.]

‘ WHEREAS the Qualifications now required in the Case of Persons to be appointed Officers in the ‘ Militia are different in the different Parts of the United Kingdom, and it is expedient that the ‘ Law as to such Qualifications should be made uniform :’ Be it enacted by the Queen’s most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows :

Property Qualifications for Officers of certain Ranks in the Militia.

I. Every Person who has been or who shall hereafter be appointed an Officer of the Militia of any of the Ranks following shall be in possession of an Estate for his own Life, or for the Life of another, or for some greater Estate, in Land or Heritages in the United Kingdom of the yearly Value herein-after mentioned in connexion with such respective Rank, or shall be Heir Apparent of some Person who shall be in possession of a like Estate in like Property of the like yearly Value :

Rank.	Yearly Value required for the Qualification.
Colonel - - - - - - - -	£600 yearly Value.
Lieutenant-Colonel - - - - -	£400 yearly Value.
Major - - - - - - - -	£300 yearly Value.
Captain - - - - - - - -	£200 yearly Value.

Provided always, that as to Appointments to the Rank of Major and Captain respectively any Son of any Person who shall be in the Possession or who was at the Time of his Death in the Possession of such an Estate in Lands or Heritages of such yearly Value as would be a Qualification for such respective Rank shall be deemed qualified.

The Income of Personal Estate in possession of the Officer to be deemed equivalent to the yearly Value of Land.

II. Provided also, That for the Purposes of the Qualification aforesaid a clear yearly Income arising from any Personal Estate within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, of or to which Personal Estate or the clear yearly Income thereof any Person appointed an Officer of the Militia is possessed or entitled, at Law or in Equity, for his own Use and Benefit, in possession, for his own Life, or for the Life of another, or for some greater Estate or Interest, shall be deemed an Equivalent to an Estate in Land or Heritages of a yearly Value of the same Amount with such yearly Income, and such yearly Income from Personal Estate shall be admitted in whole or in part of any such Qualification accordingly; and no other Property Qualification than herein expressed shall be required in the Case of any Person appointed an Officer of the Militia.

Persons holding certain Military Ranks may be appointed to certain Ranks in the Militia without Property Qualifications.

III. Provided also, That any Person being a Commissioned Officer in any of Her Majesty's other Forces or in the Forces of the East India Company, who has served Five Years in such Forces, may, without any Property Qualification, be appointed a Captain of the Militia; and any Person holding or having held the Rank of Captain or any higher Rank in Her Majesty's other Forces, or in the Forces of the East India Company may, without any Property Qualification, be appointed a Captain or Major of the Militia; and any Person holding or having held the Rank of Major or any higher Rank in any of the said Forces may, without any such Qualification, be appointed a Lieutenant Colonel or Colonel of the Militia; and any Person who shall have been qualified to receive and shall have received a Commission of Major or Lieutenant Colonel in the Militia shall be qualified to receive and hold a Commission of higher Rank in the Militia.

Extent of existing Enactments under this Act.

IV. The Enactments concerning the Delivery of Descriptions of Property Qualifications, and other Provisions and Penalties having reference to the Qualifications now required by Law, shall be applicable with reference to the Qualifications required by this Act.

Militia of London and Edinburgh excepted.

V. Such of the Provisions of this Act as regulate the Amount and Nature of the Property Qualifications of Officers of the Militia shall not extend to the Militia of the City of London or the Militia of the City of Edinburgh and its Liberties.

Extent of the Act.

VI. Except as herein-before excepted, the Provisions of this Act shall extend and apply to the Militia raised in the several Parts of the United Kingdom, and to the Corps of Miners of Cornwall and Devon.

CAP. CI.

An Act for the more effectual Execution of the Convention between Her Majesty and the French Government concerning the Fisheries in the Seas between the British Islands and France. [14th August 1855.]

Convention between Her Majesty and the King of the French, dated 2d August 1839.

'WHEREAS a Convention was concluded between Her Majesty and the King of the French on the Second Day of August One thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, defining the Limits of the Oyster Fishery between the Island of Jersey and the neighbouring Coast of France, and also defining the Limits of the exclusive Rights of Fishery on all other Parts of the Coasts of the British Islands and France: And whereas, pursuant to the said Convention, certain Articles, being Regulations for the Guidance of the Fishermen of the Two Countries in the Seas lying between the Coasts of the United Kingdom and those of France, were agreed upon by Commissioners authorized in that Behalf, and were approved and confirmed on the Part of Her Majesty and of the French Government: And whereas by the said Articles it was provided that Oyster-fishing should open on the First of September and should close on the Thirtieth of April, and that from the First of May to the Thirty-first of August no Boat should have on board any Dredge or other Implement whatsoever for catching Oysters: And whereas an Act was passed in the Session holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of Her Majesty (Chapter Seventy-nine), to carry into effect the said Convention, and it was thereby enacted that the said Articles (which were set forth in the Schedule to the same Act) should be binding upon all Persons, and should have the Force of Law: And whereas it is expedient that more effectual Provision should be made for enforcing the Regulations established pursuant to the said Convention as aforesaid:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

6 & 7 Vict. c. 79.

Oysters and Dredges found on board Fishing Vessels from 1st May to 31st August may be seized.

I. It shall be lawful for any Officer or Petty Officer belonging to Her Majesty's Navy or Revenue Service, or such Officers and Men of the Coast-guard Stations as may be thereunto authorized by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, or such Persons as may be appointed, under the Provisions of the said Act, by the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council appointed for Trade and Foreign Plantations, when they go on board any British Vessel employed in fishing, to examine whether the Regulations of the said Act have been complied with, to seize, and throw overboard or destroy any Oysters found on board such Vessel, at any Time from the First Day of May to the Thirty-first Day of August in any Year, as well as to seize and dispose of in manner provided by the "Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," all Dredges and other Implements for catching Oysters found on board such Vessel; and it shall also be lawful for such Officers, Petty Officers, and Men, and such Persons as aforesaid respectively, to seize and dispose of in like Manner all Dredges and other Implements for catching Oysters found sunk in or floating upon the Seas at any such Time as aforesaid.

Oysters landed between 1st May and 31st August may be seized.

II. No Oysters taken in the Seas between the United Kingdom and France shall be imported into or landed in any Part of the United Kingdom at any Time between the First Day of May and the Thirty-first Day of August in any Year, and any Oysters imported in or landed between such Days from any Vessel employed in Fishing in the said Seas shall be deemed to be Oysters taken and imported contrary to the Provisions of the said Articles and of this Act, unless the contrary be proved; and it shall be lawful for any Officer of the Customs, or any Person who may be appointed under the Provisions of the said Act by the Lords of the said Committee of Council, to seize and destroy, or otherwise dispose of, as the said Commissioners of the Customs or the said Lords of the said Committee may direct, any Oysters imported into or landed in any Part of the United Kingdom contrary to the Provisions of this Act.

Penalties on Persons in charge of British Vessels for offending.

III. The Master or Person in charge of any British Vessel on board which any such Oysters or any such Dredge or other Implement for catching Oysters are found, at any such Time as aforesaid, or in or from which any such Oysters are landed at any such Time as aforesaid, contrary to the Provisions of this Act, shall be deemed guilty of an Offence against the said Articles, and shall on Conviction be liable to a Penalty of not less than Eight Shillings or more than Three Pounds, or to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Time not less than Two Days and not longer than Ten Days, and if convicted more than once then upon any Second or subsequent Conviction to a Penalty of not more than Six Pounds, or to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Time not longer than Twenty Days.

British Consuls may take Depositions on Oath concerning Offences against the Fishery Regulations.

IV. It shall be lawful for any British Consul exercising his Functions in any Port or Place in France where any Person, being a Subject of Her Majesty, is brought under the Provisions of the said Articles charged with any Offence against the said Articles, or against any Rule or Byelaw made under the said Act, to take any Statement on Oath (which Oath such Consul is hereby authorized to administer) of any Person who may be produced before the Consul for that Purpose, concerning the Facts or Circumstances of the Case, and to put the same into Writing; and every such Statement as aforesaid shall be taken and put into Writing in the Presence of the Person charged, and shall be read over to him, and, where not made in English, shall be interpreted to him; and the Person charged (by himself or by any legal Adviser acting on his Behalf) shall be entitled to put such Questions as he may think fit to the Witness making the Statement, and shall be told that he is so entitled by the Consul; and such Questions, with the Answers thereto, shall be put into Writing, and such Answers shall be read, and where necessary interpreted, to the Person charged as aforesaid; and all such Depositions shall be read over to and signed respectively by the Witnesses who shall have been so examined, and shall be signed also by the Consul, who shall certify that the same were taken on Oath in the Presence of and read over to the Person charged, and, where not taken in English, interpreted to him.

Depositions admissible in Evidence.

V. Every such Deposition shall be admissible in Evidence in any Proceeding against the Person charged as aforesaid with any Offence against the said Articles, or against any Rule or Byelaw made in pursuance of the said Act, unless it be shown that the Witness making such Deposition is within the United Kingdom; and it shall not be necessary in any Case to prove the Signature or official Character of the Consul appearing to have signed any such Deposition, or the Signature of the Witnesses signing the same; and in any such Proceeding such Certificate as aforesaid shall, unless the contrary be proved, be sufficient Evidence of the Matters thereby certified.

Penalties and Proceeds of Sales, &c. to be paid into Exchequer.

VI. All Penalties, Fines, and Forfeitures, and the Proceeds of any Sale of Dredges or other Implements under this Act, or under the said Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of Her Majesty, shall be paid into the Receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer, in such Manner as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may direct, and shall be carried to and form Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom.

As to Term "British Consul."

VII. The Term "British Consul" in this Act shall include any Consul General, Consul, Vice Consul, or other Consular Agent.

Recited Act and this Act to be read together.

VIII. The said Act of the Sixth and Seventh of Her Majesty and this Act shall be read and construed together as One Act.

CAP. CII.

An Act to confirm certain Provisional Orders made under an Act of the Fifteenth Year of Her present Majesty, to facilitate Arrangements for the Relief of Turnpike Trusts.

[14th August 1855.]

14 & 15 Vict. c. 38.

'WHEREAS, in pursuance of the Act of the Fifteenth Year of Her Majesty, "to facilitate Arrange' "ments for the Relief of Turnpike Trusts, and to make certain Provisions respecting Exemptions
' "from Tolls," certain Provisional Orders have been made by the Right Honourable Viscount Palmer-
' ston, then One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and by the Right Honourable Sir George
' Grey,

'Grey, now One of such Secretaries, for reducing the Rate of Interest, and for extinguishing in certain 'Cases the Arrears of Interest on the Mortgage Debts charged or secured on the Tolls or Revenues of 'certain Turnpike Roads, and such Orders have been published in the London Gazette, and in News-'papers circulating in the Neighbourhood of such Roads, and the Dates of such Provisional Orders, and the 'Acts under which the Tolls or Revenues on which such Debts are charged or secured are levied or 'raised, together with the Amount to which the Rate of Interest on such Debts is to be reduced, and the 'Day up to which the Interest and Arrears of Interest on such Debts are to be extinguished by such 'Orders, are mentioned in the Schedule to this Act: And whereas it is expedient that the said Pro-'visional Orders should be confirmed and made absolute:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows;

CAP. CIII.

An Act to amend an Act of the last Session of Parliament relating to the Sale of Spirits by unlicensed Persons and illicit Distillation in Ireland; and also to repeal so much of an Act of the Third and Fourth Years of His late Majesty as requires Persons applying for Licences for the Sale of Beer, Cider, or Spirits by Retail in Ireland to enter into a Bond with Sureties.

[14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament, Chapter Eighty-nine, to amend the Laws for the better Prevention of the Sale of Spirits by unlicensed Persons and for the Suppression of illicit Distillation in Ireland, and it is expedient to amend the said Act as herein-after mentioned:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows: 17 & 18 Vict. c. 89.

Ss. 2. and 4. of recited Act as to Seizures repealed.

I. So much of the Second and Fourth Sections of the said Act as directs that any Goods seized under the Provisions of the said Sections respectively shall be delivered to some Revenue Officer shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Disposal of Seizures made under the said Sections.

II. On the Conviction of any Person in relation to whose Offence any Goods shall have been seized under the Provisions of the said Sections respectively, such Goods shall be absolutely forfeited; or if any such Goods as aforesaid shall not within Fourteen Days after the making thereof be claimed, by Application in Writing to the Inspector or Superintendent of Police, or to the County Inspector or Sub-Inspector, by whom or within whose District such Goods shall have been seized, then, although no Conviction shall have taken place, such Goods shall be absolutely forfeited: Provided always, that if any such Claim shall be made in the Manner and within the Time herein directed and limited in that Behalf, and no such Conviction as aforesaid shall have been or shall be made, then such Goods so seized shall be proceeded upon to Condemnation by Information before any Justice or Justices of the Peace, in like Manner as in the Case of Goods seized under the Provisions of any Act relating to Duties of Excise; and all such Goods seized which shall be absolutely forfeited or condemned on Information, as herein provided, vided, may either be destroyed, or be disposed of and the Proceeds thereof applied in such Manner as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall think fit to direct in that Behalf.

Penalties recovered by Constabulary in certain Cases to be paid to Collector of Inland Revenue.

III. All Penalties recovered by Officers of the Constabulary by virtue of the Powers conferred by the Thirteenth Section of the said Act of the last Session of Parliament, as well as all Penalties recovered in Cases of immediate Arrest for any Offence committed against the said Act of the First and Second Years of His late Majesty, shall be paid into the Hands of the Sub-Inspector of Constabulary, or other Person appointed for the Purpose by the Inspector General of the Constabulary Force in Ireland, and by him handed over to the nearest Collector of Inland Revenue, for the Use of Her Majesty, after deducting and paying thereout all reasonable Expenses.

Section 7. of 3 & 4 W. 4. c. 68. requiring Bonds to be given by Applicants for Licences in Ireland, repealed.

IV. 'And whereas by Section Seven of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the 'Third and Fourth Years of His said late Majesty's Reign, Chapter Sixty-eight, Persons applying for 'any Licence for the Sale of Beer, Cider, or Spirits by Retail in Ireland are required to enter into a 'Bond, with Sureties, conditioned as in such Section is mentioned, and it is expedient to relieve such 'Applicants from the Burden of entering into such Bond and providing such Sureties:' Be it enacted, That the said Section Seven of the said last-mentioned Act shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

CAP. CIV.

An Act for the Regulation of Chinese Passenger Ships. [14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS Abuses have occurred in conveying Emigrants from Ports in the Chinese Seas: And 'whereas it is expedient to prevent such Abuses:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Definition of certain Terms herein mentioned.

I. In the Construction of this Act the Term "Chinese Passenger Ship" shall include every Ship carrying from any Port in Hong Kong, and every British Ship carrying from any Port in China or within One hundred Miles of the Coast thereof, more than Twenty Passengers, being Natives of Asia; the Word "Colony" shall include all Her Majesty's Possessions abroad not being under the Government of the East India Company; the Word "Governor" shall signify the Person for the Time being lawfully administering the Government of such Colony; the Term "Legislature of Hong Kong" shall signify the Governor and Legislative Council or other Legislative Authority of the same for the Time being; the Word "Ship" shall include all Sea-going Vessels; the Terms "Commander" and "Master" of any Ship shall include any Person for the Time being in command or charge of the same; the Term "Emigration Officer" shall include every Person lawfully acting as Emigration Officer, Immigration Agent, or Protector of Emigrants, and every Person authorized by the Governor of any British Colony to carry out the Provisions of this Act; and the Term "British Consul" shall include every Person lawfully exercising Consular Authority on behalf of Her Majesty in any Foreign Port.

Legislature of Hong Kong to make Regulations respecting Passenger Ships, &c.

II. It shall be lawful for the Legislature of Hong Kong, by any Ordinance to be by them enacted for that Purpose, to make Regulations respecting Chinese Passenger Ships, and, in the Case of British Ships, respecting the Treatment of the Passengers therein while at Sea, and until such Enactment the Regulations contained in Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed shall be in force: Provided always, that no such Ordinance shall come into operation until Her Majesty's Confirmation of the same shall have been proclaimed in Hong Kong by the Governor thereof.

Governor of Hong Kong to declare Length of Voyages.

III. It shall be lawful for the Governor of Hong Kong to declare, by Proclamation, for the Purposes of this Act and of the said Regulations, what shall be deemed to be the Duration of the Voyage of any Chinese Passenger Ship, and by such Proclamation to alter the Scales of Dietary, Medicines, and Medical Comforts contained in the aforesaid Schedule (A.)

No Chinese Passenger Ship to clear out on Voyage of more than Seven Days without Emigration Officer's Certificate and Copy of Regulations, &c.

IV. No Chinese Passenger Ship shall clear out or proceed to Sea on any Voyage of more than Seven Days Duration until the Master thereof shall have received from an Emigration Officer a Copy of the aforesaid Regulations, and a Certificate in the Form contained in Schedule B. to this Act annexed, or in such other Form as may be prescribed by the said Legislature, which Copy and Certificate, with any Documents to be attached thereto (herein-after designated as Emigration Papers,) shall be signed by the said Emigration Officer, nor until the Master shall, with Two sufficient Sureties, to be approved by the said Emigration Officer, have entered into a joint and several Bond in the Sum of One thousand Pounds to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in the Form contained in Schedule C. to this Act annexed, or in such other Form as shall be prescribed by the said Legislature.

Penalty of Bond, when recoverable.

V. The said penal Sum of One thousand Pounds shall be due and recoverable notwithstanding any Penalty or Forfeiture imposed by this Act or by the aforesaid Regulations, and whether such Penalties or Forfeitures shall have been sued for and recovered or not.

Commander of Ships of War, &c. may search Ships, or require Production of Papers.

VI. It shall be lawful for the Commander of any of Her Majesty's Ships of War, or for any Emigration Officer, Custom House Officer, or British Consul, to enter and search any Chinese Passenger Ship (being a British Vessel or within British Jurisdiction) so long as such Ship shall have any Passengers on board, and for Forty-eight Hours afterwards, and in case such Ship shall be engaged on a Voyage of more than Seven Days Duration, to require the Production of the Emigration Papers of such Ship, and to examine all Persons on board of the same, in order to ascertain whether the Provisions of this Act and of the Regulations aforesaid have been complied with; and any Person who refuses to allow, attempts to avoid, or obstructs any such Entry, Search, or Examination, or who knowingly misleads or deceives any Person lawfully making any such Search or Examination, or who, being the Master of the Ship or having the Emigration Papers in his Custody, fails to produce the same when required as aforesaid, shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Penalty for Neglect to comply with Regulations, &c.

VII. In case of any Neglect or Refusal to comply with any of the Provisions of this Act or any of the Regulations aforesaid, or to perform any Stipulation in any of the Contracts made with the Passengers, the Master of the Ship, and any other Person who may have been guilty of or have aided or abetted such Neglect or Refusal, shall each be deemed for each Offence guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Ship to be forfeited for clearing without Emigration Papers, &c.

VIII. If any Chinese Passenger Ship clears out or proceeds to Sea on any Voyage exceeding Seven Days in Duration without such Emigration Papers as aforesaid, or if the Emigration Papers of any Chinese Passenger Ship are forged or fraudulently altered, such Ship shall, if she is a British Ship, or if, not being a British Ship, the Offence is committed and the Ship is seized in Her Majesty's Dominions or in the Territories of the East India Company, be forfeited to Her Majesty.

Penalties in addition to Forfeiture.

IX. Every Person who commits or aids or abets in committing any Act or Default by which any Chinese Passenger Ship may become liable to Forfeiture shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding One hundred Pounds for each Offence.

Mode of enforcing Forfeiture.

X. It shall be lawful for any Commissioned Officer on Full Pay in the Military or Naval Service of Her Majesty, or any British Officer of Customs, or any British Consul, to seize and detain any Ship which has become subject to Forfeiture as aforesaid, and bring her for Adjudication before the High Court of Admiralty in England or Ireland, or any Court having Admiralty Jurisdiction in Her Majesty's Dominions or in the Territories of the East India Company, and such Court may thereupon make such Order in the Case as it thinks fit, and may award such Portion of the Proceeds of the Sale of any forfeited Ship as it thinks right to the Officer bringing in the same for Adjudication, or to any Persons damaged by the Act or Default which has rendered the Ship liable to Forfeiture.

Officer not liable for any Seizure made on reasonable Grounds.

XI. No such Officer as aforesaid shall be responsible, either civilly or criminally, to any Person whomsoever, in respect of the Seizure or Detention of any Ship that has been seized or detained by him in pursuance of the Provisions herein contained, notwithstanding that such Ship is not brought in for Adjudication, or, if so brought in, is declared not to be liable to Forfeiture, if it is shown to the Satisfaction of the Judge or Court before whom any Trial relating to such Ship or such Seizure or Detention is held that there are reasonable Grounds for such Seizure or Detention; but if no such Grounds are shown, such Judge or Court may award Payment of Costs and Damages to any Party aggrieved, and make such other Order in the Premises as he or it thinks just.

Fine may be substituted for Forfeiture.

XII. It shall be lawful for the Court before which any Ship liable to Forfeiture under this Act is proceeded against to impose such a pecuniary Penalty as to the same Court shall seem fit, in lieu of condemning the Ship, and in such Case to cause the Ship to be detained until the Penalty is paid, and to cause any Penalty so imposed to be applied in the same Manner in which the Proceeds of the said Ship, if condemned and sold by Order of the Court, would have been applicable.

Mode of Procedure in Criminal Cases.

XIII. All Misdemeanors and other Criminal Offences punishable under this Act shall be dealt with, tried, and judged of in the same Manner as Misdemeanors and other Offences punishable under the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854, and all the Rules of Law, Practice, or Evidence applicable to the last-mentioned Misdemeanors and Offences shall be applicable to Misdemeanors and other Offences under this Act.

Application of Penalties.

XIV. Any Court, Justice, or Magistrate imposing any Penalty under this Act for which no specific Application is herein provided may, if it or he thinks fit, direct the whole or any Part thereof to be applied in compensating any Person for any Wrong or Damage which he may have sustained by the Act or Default in respect of which such Penalty is imposed, or in or towards Payment of the Expenses of the Proceedings; and, subject to such Directions or specific Application as aforesaid, all Penalties recovered in the United Kingdom shall be paid into the Receipt of Her Majesty's Exchequer in such Manner as the Treasury may direct, and shall be carried to and form Part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom; and all Penalties recovered in any British Possession shall be paid over into the Public Treasury of such Possession, and form Part of the Public Revenue thereof.

Written Declarations of Commanders, &c. primâ facie Evidence.

XV. In any legal Proceeding taken under this Act or in respect of the Bond herein-before required any Document purporting to be the written Declaration of any British Consul, or of the Commander of any of Her Majesty's Ships of War, or to be a Copy of the Proceedings of any Court of Justice, shall, without any Proof of Signature, be received in Evidence, in case it shall appear that such Copy or Declaration, if produced in the United Kingdom, was officially transmitted to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or, if produced in any Colony, was officially transmitted to the Governor thereof: Provided always, that no Person making such written Declaration as aforesaid shall be capable of receiving a Share of any Penalty or Forfeiture which shall be procured by such written Declaration.

Short Title.

XVI. This Act may be cited for any Purpose whatever under the Name of the "Chinese Passengers Act, 1855."

Commencement of Act.

XVII. This Act shall come into operation as soon as it shall have been proclaimed in Hong Kong by the Governor thereof, or if not so proclaimed, on the First Day of January next ensuing.

SCHEDULE (A.)

REGULATIONS RESPECTING CHINESE PASSENGER SHIPS.

SCHEDULE (C.)

FORM OF BOND TO BE GIVEN BY THE MASTERS OF CHINESE PASSENGER SHIPS.

Know all Men by these Presents, That we are held and firmly bound unto our Sovereign Lady Queen Victoria, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith, in the Sum of One thousand Pounds of good and lawful Money of Great Britain, to be paid to our said Sovereign Lady the Queen, Her Heirs and Successors; to which Payment, well and truly to be made, we bind ourselves and every of us, jointly and severally, for and in the whole, our Heirs, Executors, Administrators, and every of them, firmly by these Presents.

Sealed with our Seals.

Dated this Day of 18 .

Whereas by the Chinese Passenger Act, 1855, it is enacted, that before any Chinese Passenger Ship shall clear out or proceed to Sea on a Voyage of more than Seven Days computed Duration, the Master thereof shall, with Two sufficient Sureties to be approved by an Emigration Officer, enter into a Bond to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in the Sum of One thousand Pounds.

Now the Condition of this Obligation is this, that if (in respect of the Ship , whereof is Master) all and every of the Requirements of the said Chinese Passenger Act, and of the Regulations contained in Schedule (A.) to the said Act annexed, or enacted by the Legislature of Hong Kong, shall be well and truly observed and performed [*in like Manner as the same ought to be observed and performed in case the said Ship were a British Ship, and the said a British Subject], then this Obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full Force and Effect.

Signed, sealed, and delivered by the above bounden and , in the Presence of

* This Clause to be inserted only in the Case of a Foreign Chinese Passenger Ship.

CAP. CV.

An Act to amend the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, and the Acts passed in the Ninth and Seventeenth Years of Her Majesty, for the Regulation of the Care and Treatment of Lunatics. [14th August 1855.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

County or Borough may unite with Subscribers to a Hospital, and Visitors of existing Asylums may so unite.

I. Section Three of the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, shall extend to empower the Justices of any One County or Borough to authorize any Committee of Justices elected for such County or Borough thereunder to treat and enter into an Agreement for uniting with the Subscribers to any such Hospital as therein mentioned, and it shall not be necessary that any other County or Borough be a Party to such Agreement; and Section Five of the said Act shall extend to empower any such Committee of Visitors as therein mentioned to enter into an Agreement for uniting with the Subscribers to any such Hospital alone.

The Proportion of Expenses between any County and Borough may be fixed with reference to Accommodation likely to be required. 16 & 17 Vict. c. 97.

II. When Two or more Committees agree to unite under the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, or under that Act as amended by this Act, the Proportion in which the Expenses of carrying into execution the Purposes of the said Act shall be charged upon and raised by each County and Borough so uniting may be calculated and fixed according to the Extent of the Accommodation which in the Judgment of the Committees entering into such Agreement will be required for the Pauper Lunatics of such County and Borough respectively; and the Power in Section Sixteen of the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, of repealing or altering the Stipulations of any Agreement for uniting, shall extend to authorize the Alteration thereof by readjusting the Proportions in which the Expenses aforesaid shall be charged on each County and Borough and the Subscribers (if any) uniting, or any of the said Parties, and, where the Committee of Visitors think fit, by fixing as aforesaid, according to the probable Extent of Accommodation required, the Proportion in which each County and Borough is to contribute to such Expenses; and where the Proportions of any Contributions are fixed according to the probable Extent of Accommodation required as aforesaid the Agreement shall specify that such Proportions are fixed according to that Basis.

Agreements for uniting to stipulate for Contribution by Counties and Boroughs according to their relative Populations, where not fixed according to foregoing Provision.

III. Where an Agreement for uniting is hereafter entered into under the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, or under that Act as amended by this Act, and the Proportion in which the Expenses of carrying the Purposes of the said Act into execution are to be charged upon each County and Borough is not fixed, under the foregoing Provision, with reference to the probable Extent of Accommodation required, the Agreement shall stipulate that such Expenses, or, where any Committee of Subscribers of a Lunatic Hospital are a Party to the Agreement, then that the aggregate Amount to be contributed by the Counties and Boroughs towards such Expenses, shall be from Time to Time charged upon and raised by the Counties and Boroughs in proportion to their respective Populations as stated in the last Return for the Time being made of the same under the Authority of Parliament, and such Agreement shall be varied from the Form in Schedule (A.) to the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, accordingly.

IV. Where

Where Expenses are contributed in proportion to Population, same to be ascertained by the then last Census.

IV. Where an Agreement for uniting has been already entered into under the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, or any former Act, the Expenses of carrying into execution any such Act, or, where any Committee of Subscribers is a Party to the Agreement, the aggregate Amount to be contributed by such Counties and Boroughs, shall be from Time to Time charged upon and raised by the Counties and Boroughs united in proportion to their respective Populations as stated in the last Return for the Time being made of the same under the Authority of Parliament, save where such Expenses are adjusted and fixed under the foregoing Provision according to the probable Extent of Accommodation required.

Where there is a Dissolution of a Union a new Asylum to be provided.

V. To the Intent that due Provision may be made for the Reception and Care of the Pauper Lunatics of Counties and Boroughs Parties to Unions upon the Dissolution of such Unions, the Justices of every County and Borough united (either alone or with any Subscribers) shall, before any Dissolution of their Union takes effect, at a General or Quarter Sessions for such County, or at a Special Meeting of the Justices of such Borough, (as the Case may require,) elect a Committee to provide an Asylum for their County or Borough, and authorize such Committee to proceed for that Purpose in manner by the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, provided in the Case of a County or Borough not having an Asylum; and all the Provisions of the said Act and this Act applicable to a Committee elected to provide an Asylum in the Case of a County or Borough not having an Asylum shall be applicable to the Committee elected under this Provision.

Provisions to apply to Councils of Boroughs where they have taken upon themselves the Duties and Powers of Justices.
16 & 17 Vict. c. 97.
8 & 9 Vict. c. 126.

VI. Where the Council of a Borough has taken upon itself, under the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, or the Act of the Session holden in the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twenty-six, the Duties, Powers, and Authorities imposed or conferred upon or given to the Justices of the Borough, such Council shall be subject to and have and exercise the Duties, Powers, and Authorities by this Act imposed or conferred upon the Justices of a Borough, or any Committee elected by them; and such Council may confer upon any Committee appointed by them such of the said Duties, Powers, and Authorities as under this Act are or may be conferred upon a Committee elected by the Justices of a Borough; and where the Council of a Borough had before the Commencement of the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, taken upon itself under the said Act of the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twenty-six, the Duties, Powers, and Authorities imposed or conferred upon or given to the Justices of the Borough, such Council shall, from the Commencement of the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, be deemed to have been subject to and to have had the Duties, Powers, and Authorities by that Act imposed or conferred upon the Justices of a Borough, or any Committee elected by them, and to have been authorized to confer upon any Committee appointed by such Council such of the said Duties, Powers, and Authorities as under such Act may be conferred upon a Committee elected by the Justices of a Borough.

Places becoming Boroughs after Commencement of Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, to be deemed Boroughs annexed to Counties in which they are situate.

VII. Any Place which has become a Borough within the Definition contained in Section One hundred and thirty-two of the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, since the Commencement of that Act, shall, from and after the passing of this Act, be deemed to be a Borough annexed to the County in which the same is situate, and any Place which after the passing of this Act becomes a Borough within such Definition shall, from and after the Time of becoming such Borough, be deemed a Borough so annexed, and the Provisions contained in Section Nine in the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, for the Appointment of Two Justices of a Borough annexed thereunder to a County to be Members of the Committee of Visitors of the Asylum of such County, and in relation to the Contribution by such Borough to the Expenses of the Asylum of such County, shall extend to any Borough annexed under this Enactment.

Powers given by Sect. 77. of Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, to Visitors of an Asylum to order Removal of Pauper Lunatics extended.

VIII. The Power given by Section Seventy-seven of the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, to any Two of the Visitors of any Asylum, being Justices, to order any Pauper Lunatic chargeable to any Parish or Union within the County or Borough, or any County or Borough to which such Asylum wholly or in part belongs, or to any such County, and who may be confined in any other Asylum, or in any registered Hospital or licensed House, to be removed to such first-mentioned Asylum, shall be extended so as to authorize such Visitors to order any Pauper Lunatic chargeable to any Parish or Union within any County or Borough, or to any County for the Reception of the Pauper Lunatics whereof into such first-mentioned Asylum there is a subsisting Contract, and who may be confined as aforesaid, to be removed to such first-mentioned Asylum, and also to order any such Pauper Lunatic as herein-before mentioned to be removed from such first-mentioned Asylum to any Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House, subject nevertheless to the Restriction contained in Section Seventy-eight of the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853.

Powers of Commissioners and Visitors to continue applicable to a licensed House after Licence expired while Patients are therein.

IX. The Powers of the Commissioners and Visitors under the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, and the Acts of the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred, and the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety-six, with reference to any licensed House and the Inmates thereof, and all Powers and Provisions of the said Acts having reference to the Discharge, Removal, and Transfer of such Inmates, shall, after the Expiration or Revocation of any Licence granted in respect of such House, continue in force for all Purposes, so long as any Lunatics are detained therein, in the same Manner as if the Licence subsisted.

Contracts under 16 & 17 Vict. c. 97. s. 42. may be renewed.

X. 'Whereas Doubts have been entertained whether under the Forty-second Section of the Lunatic 'Asylums Act, 1853, a Contract for the Reception of Pauper Lunatics thereby authorized can be 'renewed:' Be it declared and enacted, That upon or after the Expiration or other Determination of any any Contract for any of the Purposes of the said Section it shall be lawful for every Committee of Visitors, under and subject to the several Provisions of the said Act applicable thereto, from Time to Time to enter into a new Contract for any of the Purposes mentioned in the said Section with the Committee of Visitors of any Asylum, or with the Subscribers to any Hospital registered or the Proprietor of any House licensed for the Reception of Lunatics, and for the Committee of Visitors of any Asylum, or the Subscribers to any registered Hospital or the Proprietor of any licensed House, to contract with any Committee of Visitors accordingly.

Provision for Burial of Pauper Lunatics.

XI. Where the Visitors of Lunatic Asylums for Counties and Boroughs in England, or any of their Officers duly authorized in that Behalf, shall undertake the Burial of any Pauper Lunatic, and the Burial cannot take place in the Parish where the Death shall have taken place by reason of the public Burial Ground of such Parish having been closed, and no other having been provided, or where, in consequence of the crowded State of such Burial Ground, the Visitors as aforesaid are of opinion that the Burial of such dead Body therein would be improper, it shall be lawful to bury such Body in a public Burial Ground of or in some other Parish as near as conveniently may be to the Parish wherein the Death shall have taken place, with the Consent of the Minister and Churchwardens of such Parish: Provided, that in all Cases of Burial under the Direction of the Visitors or their Officers as aforesaid the Fee or Fees payable by the Custom of the Place where the Burial may be, or under the Provisions of any Act of Parliament, shall be paid by the said Visitors for the Burial of each such Body to the Person or Persons who by such Custom or under such Act of Parliament shall be entitled to receive such Fee or Fees.

Power to enter into Agreements with Cemetery Company or Burial Board.

XII. The Visitors of Lunatic Asylums in England may from Time to Time enter into Agreements with the Proprietors of any Cemetery established under the Authority of Parliament, or with any Burial Board duly constituted under the Statutes in that Behalf, for the Burial of the dead Bodies of any Pauper Lunatics which such Visitors may undertake to bury; and thereupon the Burial of any such Body, under the Directions of the said Visitors or their Officer, in such Cemetery, or in the Burial Ground of such Burial Board, shall be lawful: Provided, however, that no such Agreement shall be valid unless made in such Form and with such Stipulations as the Commissioners in Lunacy shall approve.

Committee of Visitors may convey Land for Burial Ground for Lunatics, &c. dying in the Asylum.

XIII. 'And whereas it is expedient that Burial Grounds should be provided for Persons dying in any 'County or Borough Lunatic Asylum built or to be built under the Authority of any Act of Parliament 'for the Reception of Pauper Lunatics:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for every Committee of Visitors of any County or Borough Lunatic Asylum, or for any Trustees or Trustee in whom any Land shall be vested for the Purposes of an Asylum, with the previous Consent of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State under his Hand, to give, grant, and convey to Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new Churches, and it shall be lawful for them to accept, any Portion not exceeding Two Statute Acres of any Land which belongs to or has been or may be purchased for any such Asylum, for the Purpose of Consecration as a Burial Ground for Pauper or other Lunatics or Officers or Servants dying in such Asylum, and that in all such Cases the Freehold of every Burial Ground, of which Her Majesty's said Commissioners shall accept a Conveyance under the Provisions of this Act for the Purpose of Consecration, shall, after the same Burial Ground shall have been consecrated, vest in the Visitors or Trustees or Trustee, as the Case may be, for the Time being, of the County or Borough Lunatic Asylum to which such Burial Ground shall belong, and be for ever thereafter exclusively appropriated for the Burial of Pauper and other Lunatics dying in such Asylum, and of the Officers and Servants belonging to such Asylum and dying therein; and that from and after the Consecration of such Land the Incumbent of the Parish in which such Burial Ground is situate shall not be entitled to any Fee for the Interment therein of any Pauper or other Lunatic dying in such Asylum, or of any of the Officers and Servants belonging to such Asylum and dying therein.

Pauper Lunatics, whose Settlements cannot be ascertained, where found in a Borough which does not contribute to the County Expenditure, to be chargeable to such Borough. 12 & 13 Vict. c. 82. s. 3. repealed. 5 & 6 W. 4. c. 76. s. 117. 16 & 17 Vict. c. 97.

XIV. 'And whereas Doubts are entertained as to the Chargeability of Pauper Lunatics found in 'Boroughs whose Settlements cannot be ascertained, and it is expedient to remove such Doubts:'

Section Three of the Act of the Session holden in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighty-two, shall be repealed; and where any Pauper Lunatic is not settled in the Parish by which, or at the Instance of some Officer or Officiating Clergyman of which, he is sent to an Asylum, registered Hospital, or licensed House, and it cannot be ascertained in what Parish such Pauper Lunatic is settled, and such Lunatic was found in a Borough having a separate Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace, and which is not liable, under the Act of the Session holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-six, Section One hundred and seventeen, to the Payment of a Proportion of the Sums expended out of the County Rate, such Lunatic may be adjudged to be chargeable to such Borough by any Two Justices of such Borough; and it shall not be lawful for any Justices to adjudge such Lunatic to be chargeable to any County, nor to make any Order upon the Treasurer of any County for the Payment of any Expenses whatsoever incurred or to be incurred in respect of the said Lunatic; and all the Provisions in the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, as to the Mode of determining that a Pauper Lunatic is chargeable to a County, and as to the Order to be made for the Maintenance of such Pauper Lunatic, shall extend and be applied to such Borough, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as if all the said Provisions were repeated and re-enacted in this Act, and made applicable to such Borough, in the same Manner in all respects as though for the Purposes of this Provision such Borough were a separate and distinct County.

XV. In

XV. In all Cases in which, under the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, or the Act of the Session holden in the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred, or the Act of the Session holden in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety-six, any Order or other Instrument is required to be under the Hand and Seal or Hands and Seals of any Visitor or Visitors, Justice or Justices, it shall be sufficient for such Order or Instrument to be signed only; and all such Orders and Instruments as aforesaid which have been signed before the passing of this Act, and have not had a Seal or Seals affixed to them, as by Law required, shall be and be deemed to have been valid and sufficient to justify any Proceeding thereon or thereunder.

Seals of Visitors and Justices to Orders, &c. dispensed with. 16 & 17 Vict. c. 97. 8 & 9 Vict. c. 96.

XVI. So much of Section Six of the said Act of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety-six, as requires such Assent as therein mentioned of Two of the Commissioners not to be given until after such Commissioners have by personal Examination of the Patient satisfied themselves of his Desire to remain, shall be repealed.

Repeal of 16 & 17 Vict. c. 96. s. 6. as to personal Examination of Patients.

XVII. The Superintendent of any registered Hospital may, with the Consent in Writing of Two Members of the Committee having the Management or Government of such Hospital, send or take, under proper Control, any Patient to any specified Place for any definite Time for the Benefit of his Health; and any such Consent, and any Consent under Section Eighty-six of the said Act of the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred, may be from Time to Time renewed and the Place varied.

Consent of Committee sufficient to authorize a Patient being sent to any Place for Health. 8 & 9 Vict. c. 100.

XVIII. If after the Lapse of Two Months from the Expiration of any Licence for the Use of any House for the Reception of Lunatics which has not been renewed, or if after the Revocation of any such Licence there be in any such House Two or more Lunatics, every Person keeping such House, or having the Care and Charge of such Lunatics, shall be guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Detention of Lunatics after Expiration, &c. of Licence a Misdemeanor.

XIX. This Act, so far as the same amends or affects the said Acts of the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred, and of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety-six, or either of them, shall be read and construed together with the said Acts as One Act, and the Provision contained in Section One hundred and six of the said Act of the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her Majesty shall extend to Offences against this Act; and this Act, so far as the same amends or affects the Lunatic Asylums Act, 1853, shall be read and construed therewith as One Act.

Act to be read with the Acts amended as One Act, and 8 & 9 Vict. c. 100. s. 6. extended to this Act.

CAP. CVI.

An Act to suspend the making of Lists and the Ballots for the Militia of the United Kingdom. [14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to suspend for a further Period the Ballots for the Militia of the United 'Kingdom:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. All General and Subdivision Meetings relating to the Militia of the United Kingdom, and all Proceedings relating to procuring any Returns, or preparing or making out Lists of such Militia or any Part thereof, for the Purpose of a Ballot, or relating to balloting for any Militiamen or supplying any Vacancies in such Militia by Ballot, as are or may be directed or authorized by or under any Act of Parliament now in force, shall cease and remain suspended until the First Day of October One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six.

Meetings relating to Militia of United Kingdom and Ballots for such Militia suspended till 1st Oct. 1856.

II. Provided always, That it shall be lawful for Her Majesty by any Order in Council to direct that any Proceedings shall be had at any Time before the Expiration of such Period as aforesaid, either for the giving of Notices and making Returns and preparing Lists, and also for the proceeding to ballot and enrol Men for the filling up Vacancies in the Militia, as Her Majesty shall deem expedient; and upon the issuing of any such Order all such Proceedings shall be had for carrying into execution all the Provisions of the Acts in force in the United Kingdom relating to the giving Notices for and Returns for Lists, and for the balloting and enrolling of Men to supply any Vacancies in the Militia, and holding General and Subdivision Meetings for such Purpose, at such Times respectively as shall be expressed in any such Order in Council, or by any Directions given in pursuance thereof to Lord Lieutenants, or Deputy Lieutenants acting for Lord Lieutenants of the several Counties, Shires, Cities, and Places in the United Kingdom; and all the Provisions of the several Acts in force in the United Kingdom relating to the Militia shall, upon any such Order, and Direction given in pursuance thereof, become and be in full Force and be carried into execution at the Period specified in such Order or Direction as aforesaid, with all such Penalties and Forfeitures for any Neglect thereof, as fully as if such Periods had been fixed in the Acts relating to such Militia.

Proceedings may be had during such Suspension by Order in Council.

III. Provided also, That nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent the holding before the Expiration of such Period as aforesaid of such General or other Meetings relating to the Militia of the United Kingdom as may be called in Great Britain under the Authority of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or in Ireland under the Authority of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor

Not to extend to prevent the holding of certain Meetings relating to the Militia.

Governor or Governors of Ireland, or of any Meeting which may be called for the Purpose of altering, enlarging, or providing any Place for the Reception of the Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing, or other Stores belonging to the Militia.

CAP. CVII.

An Act to authorize the Commissioners of the Treasury to make Arrangements concerning a certain Loan advanced by way of Relief to the Island of Tobago. [14th August 1855.]

11 & 12 Vict. c. 22.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session holden in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Twenty-two, ("for granting Relief to the Island of Tobago, and for aiding "the Colonies of British Guiana and Trinidad in raising Money for the Promotion of Immigration of "Free Labourers,") the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury were authorized, in manner therein mentioned, to lend Exchequer Bills for any Sum not exceeding Fifty thousand Pounds for the Service of the Island of Antigua, and any Sums not exceeding in the whole Fifty thousand Pounds for the Relief of the Island of Tobago, on the Credit of the Revenues and public Property thereof, as soon as the said Commissioners should be satisfied that Repayment of the several Sums to be advanced (with Interest thereon at the yearly Rate of Four Pounds by the Hundred) was duly secured to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners by some Act or Acts passed or to be passed by the Legislature of the said Island: And whereas the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury accordingly advanced the Sum of Twenty thousand Pounds to the Island of Tobago, being the Proportion required of the said Sum of Fifty thousand Pounds, the Repayment thereof, with Interest, having been secured by the Legislature of the said Island, as required by the said Act, and out of the Sums so advanced Advances were made, under the Authority of the said Legislature, to Persons who had suffered Losses by a Hurricane in the said Island: And whereas it is expedient that the Commissioners of the Treasury should be empowered to extend the Time for the Repayment of the Principal Monies remaining owing on the said Securities, and to reduce the Interest payable thereunder, as herein-after mentioned:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Power to Treasury to extend Time of Repayment of Loan to Tobago, and to reduce Interest to 3*l.* 5*s.* per Cent. Corresponding Advantages being secured to private Borrowers.

I. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to grant such Extension of the Period for Payment of the Principal Monies owing by the said Island of Tobago in respect of the said Loan, and to accept Payment thereof by such Instalments and at such Times as the said Commissioners in their Discretion may think proper and fix, and to accept Interest upon the Principal Monies remaining unpaid after the yearly Rate of Three Pounds Five Shillings per Centum, instead of the said yearly Rate of Four Pounds per Centum, upon being satisfied that an Act has been passed by the Legislature of such Island for securing on the Credit of the Revenue or public Property thereof the punctual Payment of the Instalments of Principal Monies, with Interest as aforesaid, at the Times and in manner fixed by the said Commissioners, and also for securing to the Persons indebted in respect of the Advances made out of the said Loan to the Sufferers in the said Island Advantages corresponding with those granted to such Legislatures under this Act.

In default of Payment at Times fixed, Rate of Interest, &c. originally agreed upon may be required.

II. Provided always, That in case of Default in Payment of any of the Instalments of Principal Monies which may become payable from the said Island under such Extension of Time, or of the said reduced Interest, at the Times fixed by the said Commissioners of the Treasury, it shall be lawful for such Commissioners to require from the Island, in case of such Default, Payment of Interest at the yearly Rate of Four Pounds per Centum on the Principal Monies remaining due, and also Payment of such Principal Monies by such Instalments as were made payable by the Securities originally given by the Legislature of such Island; and such Interest and Instalments of Principal Monies which may be so required to be paid shall thereupon become payable accordingly.

CAP. CVIII.

An Act to amend the Law for the Inspection of Coal Mines in Great Britain. [14th August 1855.]

13 & 14 Vict. c. 100.

'WHEREAS an Act of the Session of Parliament holden in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred, was passed "for Inspection of Coal Mines in Great "Britain:" And whereas, with a view to the Safety of the Persons employed in such Mines, it is expedient that further Provision be made for the Inspection and Regulation thereof:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

13 & 14 Vict. c. 100. repealed.

I. The said Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty shall be repealed: Provided always, that the Inspectors of Coal Mines appointed under such Act shall continue to be such Inspectors under this Act, subject, nevertheless, to Removal by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State;

State; provided also, that all Penalties incurred under the said Act before the Repeal thereof may be proceeded for and applied as if this Act had not been passed.

Secretary of State may appoint Inspectors of Mines.

II. It shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State from Time to Time to appoint any fit Person or Persons to be an Inspector or Inspectors of Coal Mines, and from Time to Time to remove any such Inspector or Inspectors; and Notice of the Appointment of every such Inspector shall be published in the London Gazette.

No Land Agent or Manager, &c. of Coal Mine to act as Inspector.

III. No Person who shall act or practise as a Land Agent, or as a Manager, Viewer, or Agent, or Mining Engineer, or Valuer of Mines, or Arbitrator in any Matters of Dispute arising between Owners of Mines, or be otherwise employed in any Coal Mine or Colliery, shall act as an Inspector of Coal Mines under this Act.

General Rules to be observed in all Coal Mines.

IV. The following Rules (herein-after referred to as the General Rules) shall be observed in every Coal Mine and Colliery by the Owner and Agent thereof:

1. An adequate Amount of Ventilation shall be constantly produced at all Collieries to dilute and render harmless noxious Gases to such an Extent as that the working Places of the Pits and Levels of such Collieries shall under ordinary Circumstances be in a fit State for working:
2. Every Shaft or Pit which is out of Use, or used only as an Air Pit, shall be securely fenced:
3. Every Working and Pumping Pit or Shaft shall be properly fenced when not at work:
4. Every Working and Pumping Pit or Shaft where the natural Strata under ordinary Circumstances are not safe shall be securely cased or lined:
5. Every Working Pit or Shaft shall be provided with some proper Means of signalling from the Bottom of the Shaft to the Surface, and from the Surface to the Bottom of the Shaft:
6. A proper Indicator to show the Position of the Load in the Pit or Shaft, and also an adequate Break, shall be attached to every Machine worked by Steam or Water Power used for lowering or raising Persons:
7. Every Steam Boiler shall be provided with a proper Steam Gauge, Water Gauge, and Safety Valve.

Special Rules to be made for each Colliery, with the Approval of Secretary of State.

V. In addition to the General Rules, there shall be established and observed in every Coal Mine or Colliery such other Rules (herein-after referred to as Special Rules) for the Conduct and Guidance of the Persons acting in the Management of such Coal Mine or Colliery, and of all Persons employed in or about the same, as under the particular State and Circumstances of such Coal Mine or Colliery may appear best calculated to prevent dangerous Accidents; and such Special Rules for each Coal Mine or Colliery shall be framed by the Owner thereof, and forthwith transmitted to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and such Rules, if not objected to by such Secretary of State within Forty Days from the Day upon which they are received by him, shall be established; and in case such Secretary of State shall be of opinion that such Rules or any of them do not sufficiently provide for the Safety of the Person or Persons employed in or about such Coal Mine or Colliery, it shall be lawful for such Secretary of State, within the Forty Days aforesaid, to propose any Alterations in or Additions to such Special Rules; and in case such Owner shall not, within Twenty Days from the Day on which such Alterations or Additions are proposed to him, object to the same, the Special Rules shall be established with such Alterations and Additions; and in case such Owner shall, within the said Twenty Days, object to such Alterations or Additions or any of them, it shall be lawful for such Owner, within Seven Days after he shall have so objected, to nominate Three or more practical Mining Engineers or other competent Persons of Experience in the District within which such Coal Mine or Colliery is situate, and who shall not be interested in or employed in the Management of such Coal Mine or Colliery, of whom such Secretary of State may appoint One or more to determine the Matter in difference, and to decide what Special Rules shall be established in such Coal Mine or Colliery; and if such Owner shall not within such Seven Days nominate such Mining Engineers as aforesaid, or if such Secretary of State shall not within One Month from the Time of such Nomination appoint One or more of the Persons so nominated by the Owner as aforesaid, then and in such Case Two such Mining Engineers or other competent Persons as aforesaid shall be appointed, One of whom shall be named by the Owner of such Coal Mine or Colliery, and One by the Secretary of State; and the said Persons so appointed shall, before they proceed to determine the Matters in difference, and to decide what Special Rules shall be established in such Coal Mine or Colliery, appoint a Third Person, being such Mining Engineer or such other competent Person as aforesaid, to be their Umpire in case of Difference of Opinion between them; and the Determination of such Persons and the said Umpire, or of any Two of them, shall be final, and the Special Rules shall be established accordingly: Provided, that after such Rules are established it shall be lawful for the Owner of any Coal Mine or Colliery (or for the Secretary of State) to propose from Time to Time any Amendments of such Rules, which Amendments, if not objected to by the Secretary of State within the Time aforesaid, or Owners, as the Case may be, shall be established; and in case of Objection being made to any of them, and of a Difference arising out of such Objection, the same Proceedings shall be had respecting them as herein-before provided in reference to the Special Rules when originally submitted to such Secretary of State, and objected to: Provided also, that the Amount of Payment to be made to all such Persons, and to such Umpire so nominated or appointed as aforesaid, for their Services, shall be fixed by such Secretary of State, and paid in equal Moieties by such Owner and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, who are hereby authorized to make such Payment accordingly.

Publication of Rules.

VI. For the Purpose of making known the General Rules and Special Rules to all Persons employed in or about each Coal Mine or Colliery, the Owner thereof shall cause the General Rules and the Special Rules for such Coal Mine or Colliery to be painted on a Board or printed upon Paper to be pasted thereon, and shall cause such Board to be hung up or affixed on some conspicuous Part of the principal Office or Place of Business of the Coal Mine or Colliery; and the General Rules and Special Rules so painted or printed and hung up shall be renewed and restored with all reasonable Despatch as often as the same or any Part thereof may be defaced, obliterated, or destroyed; and a printed Copy of such General and Special Rules shall be supplied to all Persons employed in and about the same.

Powers and Duties of Inspectors.

VII. It shall be lawful for any Inspector to enter, inspect, and examine any Coal Mine or Colliery, and the Works and Machinery belonging thereto, at all reasonable Times and Seasons, by Day or Night, but so as not to impede or obstruct the working of the said Coal Mine or Colliery, and to make Inquiry into and touching the State and Condition of such Coal Mine or Colliery, Works and Machinery, and the Ventilation of such Mine or Colliery, and the Mode of lighting or using Lights in the same, and into all Matters and Things connected with or relating to the Safety of the Persons employed in or about the same, and especially to make Inquiry whether the Provisions of this Act are complied with in relation to such Coal Mine or Colliery; and the Owner or Agent of such Coal Mine or Colliery is hereby required to furnish the Means necessary for such Entry, Inspection, Examination, and Inquiry; and if such Inspector find any of the General Rules or any of the Special Rules established for such Coal Mine or Colliery to be neglected or wilfully violated, such Inspector shall forthwith give Notice in Writing thereof to the Owner or Agent of such Coal Mine or Colliery; and if such Inspector find any Part of such Coal Mine or Colliery, Works or Machinery, or any Aircourses, Airdoors, Waterways, Drains, Pits, Levels, Shafts, or other Matter or Thing in or connected with such Coal Mine or Colliery, or the Mode of lighting or using Lights in the same, to be otherwise dangerous or defective, so as in his Opinion to threaten or tend to the bodily Injury of any Person employed in or about such Coal Mine or Colliery, such Inspector shall thereupon, by Notice in Writing, summon before him at the Colliery Office the Manager or principal Colliery Viewer or Agent having charge of the said Coal Mine or Colliery, in order to his being heard upon the Matter giving rise to such finding as aforesaid; and if such Manager or principal Colliery Viewer or Agent do not attend after reasonable Notice, or having attended fail to satisfy such Inspector, then such Inspector shall serve Notice in Writing of the particular Grounds on which he is of opinion that the said Coal Mine or Colliery, or any Part thereof, or any other of the Particulars above mentioned, is dangerous or defective, on the Owner or Agent thereof, and shall also report the same to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and in case of any Difference arising thereupon the same shall be determined in the Manner herein-before provided with respect to proposed Alterations or Additions to the Special Rules, and a Copy of such Notice in case of no such Difference as aforesaid, or of the Determination in case of such Difference, arising, shall, if the said Danger or Defect be not forthwith removed or remedied, and if the Secretary of State shall so direct, be hung up or affixed on some conspicuous Part of the principal Office or Place of Business of the Coal Mine or Colliery, and a Copy supplied to every Workman to whom such Notice or Determination shall apply, such Copy so to be hung up or affixed as aforesaid to be removed on the Certificate of the Inspector of the District, or of the Persons by whom such Determination shall have been made, that such Danger or Defect has been removed or remedied: Provided always, that so long as any Copy of such Notice or Determination purporting that the Coal Mine or Colliery, or any Part thereof, or any other of the Particulars above mentioned, is dangerous or defective, shall remain so hung up or affixed, and the Danger or Defect notified therein shall not be removed or remedied, it shall be lawful for any Person employed in or about such Coal Mine or Colliery to discontinue his Service in any Part of such Coal Mine or Colliery to which Part the said Notice or Determination shall apply, without being therefore liable to be proceeded against under the Act passed in the Fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, Chapter Thirty-four, as for Absence from his Service, or Misconduct in the Execution thereof: Provided also, that unless the Owner or Agent on whom the Notice is served as aforesaid shall within Seven Days of such Service signify to the said Inspector his Objections to the same, and at the same Time nominate Three competent Persons as herein-before provided in the Fifth Section, with a view to the Determination of such Objection, such Notice shall be considered good and valid, and shall be hung up or affixed as herein-before provided.

4 G. 4. c. 34.

Owners of Coal Mines to produce Maps or Plans of Mines to Inspector.

If Owners do not produce Maps, &c. Inspector may require them to be made.

VIII. The Owner or Agent of every Coal Mine or Colliery shall, on the Occasion and for the Purpose of the Inspection and Examination thereof, produce and submit for Examination, to any such Inspector as aforesaid, a Map or Plan of the Workings of such Coal Mine or Colliery, upon which Map or Plan shall be delineated the several Parts, Aircourses, Airdoors, Waterways, Drains, Pits, Levels, and Shafts in and connected with such Coal Mine or Colliery; and if such Owner or Agent do not produce and submit for Examination as aforesaid such a Map or Plan as aforesaid, or if any such Inspector as aforesaid find that any Portion of any Map or Plan is withheld, or any Part of the Workings of any such Mine or Colliery is concealed from his Inspection, or if he find, on examining and verifying any Map or Plan, Plan, that the same is imperfect or inaccurate, he is hereby empowered to require that an accurate Map or Plan of the actual Workings of such Coal Mine or Colliery, and the Works thereto belonging, clearly delineating such Matters and Things as aforesaid, be made within a reasonable Time, by and at the Expense of the Owner of such Mine, on a Scale of not less than Two Chains to One Inch, or on such other Scale as the Plan then used in the Colliery is constructed on; and every such Map or Plan as aforesaid shall show the Workings of the Mine up to within Six Months of the Time of Inspection; and the Owner or Agent of the Coal Mine or Colliery shall, if required so to do by any such Inspector as aforesaid, mark or cause to be marked on such Map or Plan the Progress of the Workings of the Coal Mine or Colliery up to the Time of his Inspection thereof: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be constructed to authorize any Inspector to make a Copy of the whole or any Part of a Map or Plan which shall be produced or made.

Notice of Accidents in Mines to be given to Secretary of State, and to the Inspector.

IX. If and when Loss of Life to any Person employed in or about any Coal Mine or Colliery occurs by reason of any Accident within such Coal Mine or Colliery, or any Pits or Shafts thereof, or any Works or Machinery connected with such Pits or Shafts, or if any serious personal Injury arises from Explosion therein, the Owner or Agent of such Mine or Colliery shall, within Twenty-four Hours next after such Loss of Life, send Notice of such Accident, under the Hand of such Owner or Agent, to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and in Scotland to the Lord Advocate, and in all Cases to the Inspector of the District within which such Loss of Life shall occur, and shall specify in such Notice the probable Cause of such Accident; and such Notice may be sent through the Post Office, by Letter addressed to such Secretary of State or Lord Advocate, and to the Inspector of the District at his usual Place of Residence; and every Owner or Agent who neglects to send or cause to be sent such Notice as aforesaid within the Time aforesaid, shall for such Offence be liable to a Penalty of not less than Ten Pounds, and not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Provision for giving Notice to Secretary of State of holding Inquests on Deaths from Accidents in Coal Mines.

X. Every Coroner holding an Inquest upon the Body of any Person whose Death may have been caused by any such Accident as aforesaid, shall (unless some Person be present on behalf of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to watch the Proceedings at such Inquest, or Notice of such Accident shall have been sent, Four clear Days at the least previously thereto, through the Post Office, by Letter addressed to One of such Secretaries of State, and the sending of the same be proved to the Satisfaction of the Coroner,) adjourn such Inquest, and by Letter sent Two Days at the least before holding such adjourned Inquest, through the Post Office, addressed to One of such Secretaries of State, give Notice to such Secretary of State of the Time and Place of holding the same: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for such Coroner, before the Adjournment of any such Inquest, to take Evidence to identify the Body, and to order the Interment thereof.

Penalties for Offences against this Act.

XI. If after the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five any Coal Mine or Colliery be worked, and, through the Default of the Owner thereof, Special Rules have not been established for the same, according to the Provisions of this Act, or the General Rules, or the Special Rules for such Coal Mine or Colliery, by this Act required to be established, have not been hung up or affixed, or have not, after Obliteration or Destruction, been renewed or restored, as required by this Act, or any of such General Rules or Special Rules which ought to be observed by the Owner and principal Agent or Viewer of such Coal Mine or Colliery, be neglected or wilfully violated by any such Owner, Agent, or Viewer, such Person shall be liable to a Penalty of not exceeding Five Pounds; and also, in case the Default or Neglect be not remedied with all reasonable Despatch, after Notice in Writing thereof given by an Inspector to the Owner or Agent of such Coal Mine or Colliery, to a further Penalty of not exceeding One Pound for every Day during which the Offence continues after such Notice; and every Person, other than aforesaid, employed in or about a Coal Mine or Colliery, who neglects or wilfully violates any of the Special Rules established for such Coal Mine or Colliery, shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Two Pounds; or to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, in the Common Gaol or House of Correction for any Period not exceeding Three Calendar Months; or to be proceeded against and punished according to the Provisions of the Act Fourth George the Fourth, Chapter Thirty-four, intituled An Act to enlarge the Power of Justices in determining Complaints between Masters and Servants.

4 G. 4. c. 34.

Penalty for obstructing Inspectors.

XII. Every Owner or Principal Agent of any Coal Mine or Colliery who refuses or neglects to produce, as herein-before required, a Map or Plan of the Workings of a Colliery to any Inspector, or to furnish to said Inspector the Means necessary for making any Entry, Inspection, Examination, or Inquiry under this Act, and every Person who wilfully obstructs any Inspector in the Execution of this Act, shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty of not less than Five Pounds and not exceeding Ten Pounds.

Penalty for defacing Notice.

XIII. Every Person who pulls down, injures, or defaces any Notice hung up or affixed as required by this Act shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty of not exceeding Forty Shillings.

Penalties how recoverable.

XIV. All Penalties imposed by this Act may be recovered in a summary Manner before Two Justices of the Peace, or in Scotland before the Sheriff having Jurisdiction in the County or Place where the Offence is committed, within Three Months of the Commission of the same, in the Manner prescribed by the Law in that Behalf; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, upon the Recommendation of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to direct that any Penalty imposed for neglecting to send or cause to be sent Notice of any Accident, as required by this Act, shall shall be paid to or among any of the Family or Relatives of any Person or Persons killed by such Accident, as he may think fit; and, save as aforesaid, all Penalties imposed by this Act shall, when recovered, be paid, for the Use of Her Majesty, to the Sheriff or other proper Officer of the County, Riding, Division, or Place for which the Justices or other competent Authority before whom the Penalty is recovered shall have acted.

Certified Copy of Special Rules to be Evidence.

XV. A Copy of the Special Rules for the Time being established in any Coal Mine or Colliery, certified under the Hands of One of the Inspectors to be a Copy of the Special Rules established in such Coal Mine or Colliery, shall be Evidence of such Special Rules, and of their being duly established under this Act, without further Proof.

Reports of Inspectors to be laid before Parliament.

XVI. Every Inspector shall on or before the First Day of March in every Year make a separate and distinct Report in Writing of his Proceedings during the preceding Year, and shall transmit the same to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and a Copy of such Report shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament.

Interpretation of Terms.

XVII. In the Construction of this Act the Term "Owner" of a Coal Mine or Colliery shall mean the immediate Proprietor, Lessee, or Occupier of a Coal Mine or Colliery or of any Part thereof; and the Term "Agent" of a Mine shall mean any Person having on behalf of the Owner of any Mine the Care or Direction thereof; and the Term "Inspector" or "Inspectors" shall respectively mean an Inspector or Inspectors of Coal Mines appointed under the said Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty or this Act; and the Term "District" shall mean that Portion of Great Britain which shall be assigned to any One of such Inspectors.

Extent of Act.

XVIII. This Act shall not extend to Ireland.

Term of this Act.

XIX. This Act shall continue until the Expiration of Five Years after the passing of this Act, and thenceforth until the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

CAP. CIX.

An Act to make further Provisions for the Repayment of Advances out of the Consolidated Fund for the Erection and Enlargement of Asylums for the Lunatic Poor in Ireland, and to amend the Laws with reference to the Repayments in case of Change of Districts, and the Appointment of Commissioners of General Control and Correspondence. [14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS, under the Provisions of the several Statutes in that Case made and provided, certain 'Asylums for the Lunatic Poor in Ireland were from Time to Time ordered by the Lord Lieu- 'tenant and Privy Council of Ireland to be erected, enlarged, or extended: And whereas certain Sums 'of Money have been advanced from Time to Time by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, 'out of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom arising in Ireland, for 'the Purpose of defraying the Expenses of such Erection, Enlargement, and Extension of the said 'Asylums, such Advances having been made in certain Cases under and by virtue of an Order or Orders 'of the Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council of Ireland, and in certain other Cases without such Order 'or Orders: And whereas Provision is made by the Statutes aforesaid that it shall and may be lawful 'for the Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council to make Orders for the Repayment by the Counties forming 'the District of any such Asylums of the Monies so ordered by the Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council 'to be advanced: And whereas it is doubtful whether it is competent for the Lord Lieutenant and Privy 'Council to make Orders for the Repayment of those Sums for the Advance of which no Orders in 'Council were made: And whereas it is expedient to make better Provision for the Repayment of the 'whole of such Sum or Sums so advanced as aforesaid:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

On Completion of Asylum, Commissioners for General Control and Correspondence, &c. of Asylums to certify to the Lord Lieutenant in Council the whole of the Sums expended. 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 33.

I. From and after the passing of this Act, in every Case where any of the Asylums so ordered to be erected, enlarged, or extended as aforesaid shall have been already handed over or shall be hereafter handed over to the Governors of such Asylum fit for the Reception of the Lunatic Poor, as provided by the Act First and Second George the Fourth, Chapter Thirty-three, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for General Control and Correspondence, and for superintending and directing the Erection and Establishment of Asylums for the Lunatic Poor in Ireland, and they are hereby required, to transmit to the Clerk of Her Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland a certified Return of all the Moneys which shall have been expended from Time to Time in such Erection, Enlargement, or Extension of such Asylum as aforesaid, and a certified Copy of the said Returns to the Governors of such Asylum, and also One to the Secretary of the Grand Jury of each of the Counties associated in each of such Asylums, and the said Clerk of the Council shall lay the said Return before the Lord Lieutenant in Council as soon as conveniently may be; provided that in case any Difference of Opinion shall arise as to the Fitness of any Asylum for the Reception of the Lunatic Poor between the Governors and the Board of Works, it shall be lawful for the Governors to refer the Question to the Lord Lieutenant in Council, who is hereby empowered to decide between them.

II. It shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant and Council, on such certified Return being laid before them, to make an Order or Orders for the Repayment by the Counties within the District in and for which such Asylum shall be erected and established of the Sums so certified to have been expended, in such Manner, and at such Times, and in such Proportions as shall be fixed by said Order. Lord Lieutenant to order Repayment of Sums expended.

III. It shall be lawful for the Grand Jury of any and every County in Ireland in or for which, either wholly or in part, any such Asylum hath been or shall be erected and established, and such Grand Jury is hereby required, without any previous Proceedings, at any Presentment Sessions, to present the Sum or Sums to be fixed and ascertained by any such Order or Orders accordingly, or in default thereof the same shall be inserted in and raised by an Order of the Judge of Assize, or of the Court at any Presenting Term, which Order shall have the Force of a Presentment, and the Sum or Sums therein mentioned shall be applotted and raised and levied accordingly, as if the same had been inserted in a Presentment duly made at the Assizes or Presenting Term at which such Order shall be made, any Act or Acts to the contrary notwithstanding. Grand Jury of the County to make Presentment for the Repayment of the Money so ordered to be repaid.

IV. 'And whereas it is expedient to amend so much of an Act passed in the Ninth and Tenth Years 'of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Laws as to District Lunatic 'Asylums in Ireland, to provide for the Expense of the Maintenance of certain Lunatic Poor removed 'from the Richmond Lunatic Asylum, Dublin, for Want of Room therein, and to provide for the Salaries 'and Expenses incident to the Office of Inspector of Lunatics in Ireland, as relates to the Repayments 'which, in case of Change of old Districts and Establishment of new Districts, any County or Counties 'remaining within the old Districts are liable to make to any County or Counties transferred to such 'new Districts of the whole of the Sums raised off such County or Counties so transferred as aforesaid 'for erecting and establishing any Lunatic Asylum in whose District such County shall have been 'theretofore situate:' Be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act so much of the said recited Act as provides that the whole of such Sums so raised off any County or Counties shall be repaid to such County or Counties so transferred to a new District as aforesaid shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council, if they shall so think fit, to ascertain and fix the equitable Amount so to be repaid, and the Proportions and Instalments of such Repayments: Provided always, that before finally fixing and ascertaining the equitable Amount so to be repaid, the Chief or Under Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant shall transmit a Copy of the proposed Order for fixing and ascertaining such Amount, and the Proportions and Instalments of such Repayments, to the Secretary of the Grand Jury of every County affected by or interested in such Order, and such Secretary shall lay the same before the Grand Jury of such County on the First Day of their Meeting for fiscal Business; and in case any such Grand Jury shall think proper to object to such proposed Order, or any Part thereof, such Grand Jury shall, at such Assizes, be authorized to do so, and transmit the Particulars of their Objections to the said Chief or Under Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant, and the Lord Lieutenant and Privy Council shall at any Time after such Assizes (upon Notice to the Secretary of the Grand Jury of every or any County so objecting) proceed to consider the Objections which shall have been so made by or on the Part of any such Grand Jury, or, in the Absence of any such Objections, make an Order finally fixing and ascertaining the equitable Amount so to be repaid, and the Proportions and Instalments of such Repayments, which shall, when fixed as aforesaid, be presented, levied, and repaid in the like Manner as in the said recited Act is enacted and provided. 9 & 10 Vict. c. 115. Manner of proceeding in case of Change of District.

V. 'And whereas by an Act passed in the First and Second Years of the Reign of His late Majesty 'King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to make more effectual Provision for the Establishment of 'Asylums for the Lunatic Poor, and for the Custody of Insane Persons charged with Offences, in Ireland, 'it is, amongst other things, provided and enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieu- 'tenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the Advice of His Majesty's 'Privy Council in Ireland, to nominate and appoint any Persons, not exceeding Eight in Number, to be 'Commissioners for General Control and Correspondence and for the superintending and directing the 'Erection, Establishment, and Regulation of all Asylums for the Lunatic Poor in Ireland:' Be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant in Council to revoke any Appointment heretofore made or purporting to have been made under the said recited Act as the Lord Lieutenant in Council may think fit, and to appoint from Time to Time as Vacancies may occur any other Persons (of whom the Chairman of the Commissioners of Public Works for the Time being shall be One) to be Commissioners for General Control and Correspondence, and for the superintending and directing the Erection, Establishment, and Regulation of Asylums for the Lunatic Poor in Ireland; and all Lands and Hereditaments and Property, of what Nature or Kind whatsoever, which may have been acquired by or vested in the said Commissioners for General Control and Correspondence, and for the superintending and directing the Erection, Establishment, and Regulation of Asylums for the Lunatic Poor, or any of them, appointed or purporting to have been appointed under the said recited Act of the First and Second Years of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, shall be and are hereby to all Intents and Purposes vested in the Commissioners for the Time being appointed and to be appointed under this Act. 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 33. Appointment of Commissioners.

VI. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury, if upon any Inquiries made under their Directions it shall appear to them just that the County or Counties liable to be charged in respect of any such Treasury may relieve Counties of a Portion of the Expenses if it should appear just.

such Asylum should be relieved from a Portion of the Amount of the Expenses incurred in the building of such Asylum, to authorize and direct that Remission shall be made accordingly to such Amount as to the said Commissioners of the Treasury may appear just and reasonable.

Interpretation of Terms.

VII. In the Construction of this Act the Expression "Lord Lieutenant" shall mean the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland; the Expression "Lord Lieutenant in Council" shall mean the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the Advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland; and the Word "County" shall include a County of a City or County of a Town.

Short Title.

VIII. This Act may be cited for all Purposes as the "Lunatic Asylums Repayment of Advances (Ireland) Act, 1855."

CAP. CX.

An Act to authorize the Application of certain Sums granted by Parliament for Drainage and other Works of public Utility in Ireland, towards the Completion of certain Navigations undertaken in connexion with Drainages, and to amend the Acts for promoting the Drainage of Lands and Improvements in connexion therewith in Ireland. [14th August 1855.]

5 & 6 Vict. c. 89.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighty-nine, "to promote the Drainage of Lands and Improvement of Navi'"gation and Water Power in connexion with such Drainage in Ireland:" And whereas the said Act was

8 & 9 Vict. c. 69.

'amended by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Eighth and Ninth Years of Her 9 & 10 Vict. cc. 4. and 86.

'Majesty, Chapter Sixty-nine, and by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Ninth and 'Tenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Four, and by an Act passed in the same Session of Parliament,

10 & 11 Vict. c. 79.

'Chapter Eighty-six, and by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Tenth and Eleventh
'Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-nine, and by an Act passed in a Session of Parliament holden

16 & 17 Vict. c. 130.

'in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and thirty: And
'whereas by the said Act of the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Four, it is enacted, that

9 & 10 Vict. c. 4.

'in all Cases where, for the Purposes of Navigation connected with Drainage, a free Grant of a Moiety
'or more of the Expense of making or improving any such Navigation should or might be made under
'the Authority of Parliament, and the other Moiety or Residue of the Expense of making or improving
'such Navigation should or might be raised or advanced by way of Loan under the Provisions of the 'therein recited Acts or the said Act now in recital, then such Moiety or Residue so raised or advanced 'should, with Interest from the Date of such Loan, be charged upon the District which, by the Declara'tion to be made in such Case by the said Commissioners under the Provisions of the therein first-
'recited Act, it should be declared would be benefited by the making or improving of such Navigation,
'and the several Baronies, Half Baronies, and Townlands in such District, and should be repaid by and 'levied from such Baronies, Half Baronies, and Townlands in the Proportions in which it should be so
'declared that such Baronies, Half Baronies, and Townlands would be respectively benefited, in One Sum
'or by Instalments, under and subject to the several Provisions and Regulations in the therein recited Acts
'or the Act now in recital contained in relation to the Levy and Recovery of any Sums which under
'the Final Award of the said Commissioners should be payable by the Grand Jury of any County in

10 & 11 Vict. c. 79.

'respect of the Improvement of the Navigation of any River: And whereas by the said Act of the 'Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty, it is enacted, that in all Cases where, for the Purposes of 'Navigation connected with Drainage, a free Grant of a Moiety or more of the Expenses of making or 'improving any such Navigation should be or should have been made by the Authority of Parliament,
'and the other Moiety or Residue of the Expense of making or improving such Navigation should be
'or should have been raised or advanced by way of Loan, then such Moiety or Residue so raised or 'advanced should be charged upon the District therein mentioned, and the several Baronies, Half Baro-
'nies, and Townlands in such District, and should be repaid by and levied from such Baronies, Half
'Baronies, and Townlands, without any Declaration of the Justices and associated Cess-payers, and 'without any Presentment previously made by the Grand Jury of the County or any of the Counties
'wherein such District as aforesaid should be situate; and in all such Cases all Proceedings hitherto
'taken by or before the Commissioners for the Execution of the said Acts under the therein-recited
'Provision, and all Loans, if any, made to them, and all Securities given by them for the same under 'such Provision, should be valid and effectual, notwithstanding any Omission or Defect as regards any 'such Declaration or Presentment as aforesaid: And whereas in connexion with the Drainage of Lands
'in certain Districts the Four several Navigations herein-after mentioned have been undertaken and in 'part executed under the Provisions of the said recited Acts of the Ninth and Tenth and Tenth and
'Eleventh Years of Her Majesty; (that is to say,)

'1st. In the District of Lough Neagh, situate in the Counties of Antrim, Derry, Tyrone, Armagh, and 'Down, the Navigation of the Lower Bann River from the Bridge of Coleraine in the tidal Part 'of the said River to Lough Neagh, and extending thence to the First Lock or Entrance of the 'Lagan, Newry, Ulster, and Coal Island Canals:

'2d. In

'2d. In the District of Loughs Oughter and Gowna and River Erne, situate in the Counties of 'Fermanagh and Cavan, the Navigation from Beleek by the Course of Upper and Lower Lough 'Erne, Lough Oughter and the River Erne, and the Towns of Enniskillen and Belturbet to 'Killeshandra and near to the Town of Cavan:

'3d. In the District of Ballynamore and Ballyconnell, situate in the Counties of Leitrim, Cavan, and 'Fermanagh, the Junction Navigation by the Course of the Woodford River and Lakes, from 'Lough Erne, at the Mouth of the said River, to the River Shannon near the Village of Leitrim:

'4th. In the District of Loughs Corrib, Mask, and Carra, in the County of the Town of Galway and 'Counties of Galway and Mayo, the Navigation by the River and Lake Corrib, and Loughs Corrib, 'Mask, and Carra from the Sea at Galway to the Northern Extremity of the said Lough Mask 'and Carra, and to Cloon Lough in the River Aill:

'And whereas free Grants to the Amount of One hundred and thirty-five thousand five hundred and 'seventy-three Pounds Three Shillings and Sevenpence have been heretofore made by the Authority 'of Parliament for the Purposes of the said Navigations: And whereas it is expedient to make further 'Provision by way of free Grant for the Completion of the said Navigations respectively, or such of 'them or such Portions of them or any of them as, upon Inquiries already made or to be hereafter made 'under the Directions of the Commissioners of the Treasury, it may be deemed expedient to complete:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

The Treasury may issue Money for the Purposes of Completion of Navigations. 13 & 14 Vict. c. 31.

I. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, out of the Sum of Eight hundred thousand Pounds which, by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-one, is authorized to be issued to the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, to issue such Sum as may be necessary towards defraying the Expenses incurred in respect of the Four several Navigations herein-before mentioned, and towards the Completion of such several Navigations, or such of them or such Parts of them or any of them as it may be considered by the Commissioners of the Treasury expedient and proper to complete.

Power to the Treasury to authorize Completion of the Works.

II. The said Commissioners of the Treasury may authorize and direct the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland to cause to be completed the Navigation Works so undertaken as aforesaid, or such of the same Works or such Portions of them or any of them as, upon any Inquiries already made or to be hereafter made under the Directions of the said Commissioners of the Treasury, such Commissioners of the Treasury may think fit, and with any Modifications or Alterations which to the said Commissioners of the Treasury may appear expedient; and the said Commissioners of Public Works shall have full Power and Authority to cause to be executed or completed the Works so authorized and directed by the said Commissioners of the Treasury to be completed or executed as aforesaid, and for that Purpose to do and execute all Acts and exercise all Powers and Authorities by the said Acts or this Act given for the Execution of any Work.

Power to the Treasury to reduce the Portion of Expenses chargeable on Counties, &c.

III. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury, when, upon any Inquiries made or to be made as aforesaid, it appears to them just that the Counties, Baronies, or Townlands to be charged under the Award in relation to the said Navigation Works heretofore or hereafter to be executed should be relieved from any Portion of the Moiety or Residue of the Expenses incurred in relation to such Works, to authorize and direct the said Commissioners of Public Works in and by their Award to be made under this Act to charge upon the Counties, Baronies, or Townlands made liable under such Award in respect of such Works such lesser Sum than the full Amount of such Moiety or Residue of the Expenses of and incidental to such Works as to the said Commissioners of the Treasury may, under the Circumstances of each of the said Navigations, appear just; and such lesser Sum shall be charged upon the County or Counties, Barony or Baronies, District, or Townland or Townlands, which, in Awards to be made by the Commissioners of Public Works as herein-after provided, it shall be stated and awarded will, in the Opinion of the said Commissioners, be benefited by the making of such Navigations, by such Instalments and at such Times as shall be mentioned in any such Awards.

Advances which are not to be chargeable on Counties, &c. to be free Grants.

IV. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of the Treasury to order and direct, as to any Sums of Money which out of the Funds applicable to Loans in aid of the said Navigation Works have been already advanced or issued, or may hereafter be advanced or issued, for the Execution of such Works, that so much of such Advances as in the Judgment of the said Commissioners of the Treasury should not be charged on any County, Barony, District, or Townland by the Awards of the Commissioners of Public Works should be and be deemed to be free Grants.

The Commissioners of Public Works to make an Award on Completion of the Works.

V. As soon as conveniently may be after any of the said Navigations shall have been completed in such Manner and to such Extent as shall be directed or approved of by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, the said Commissioners of Public Works shall make an Award in such Manner and Form as may be convenient, specifying the total Amount of the Costs, Charges, and Expenses incurred in the making of any such Navigation, and showing the Portion which, under the Authority of the Commissioners of the Treasury, is to be charged of such Costs and Charges, together with the County or Counties, Barony or Baronies, Townland or Townlands, or any Part thereof, to be charged with such Portion of such Costs and Expenses as aforesaid, and the Instalments by and the Manner in which the Amount of such Portion is to be paid, as also the Proportions in which such County or Counties, Barony or Baronies, or Townlands, are to be chargeable towards such Portion of the Costs and Expenses aforesaid.

The Commissioners to certify Amount to the Grand Jury of the County, who are to make Presentment accordingly.

VI. The Secretary of said Commissioners of Public Works shall, after the making of such Award, certify to the Secretary of the Grand Jury of every County, County of a City, or County of a Town in which the Lands chargeable shall be situate, the Amount of such Sum of Money and the Instalments and Manner by and in which the same is payable under the Award of the said Commissioners, and every such Grand Jury is hereby required, at the Assizes next ensuing the Date of such Certificate, without Application to Presentment Sessions, to make Presentment of the Amount mentioned in such Certificate to be raised off the County at large, Barony or Baronies, Townland or Townlands, as may be mentioned in any such Award or Certificate, by the Instalments and in the Manner mentioned in such Certificate; and in default of such Presentment the Treasurer of such County, County of a City, or County of a Town is hereby required, without Presentment or Authority, when issuing his Warrant for levying Grand Jury Cess, immediately after the Assizes next ensuing the Date of such Certificate, and from Time to Time after each succeeding Assizes (until the whole of the Instalments by any such Certificate payable shall be fully paid off and discharged), to insert in a separate Warrant to be by him issued for the Levy of the same the Amount mentioned in such Certificate to be raised off such County, Barony or Baronies, Townland or Townlands, therein mentioned; and such Amounts as shall be so presented, or so included in any such Warrant as aforesaid, shall be applotted, raised, and levied, sued for and recovered, by such and the same Ways and Means as any Grand Jury Cess; and when and so soon as such Amount as aforesaid shall be from Time to Time raised and received by the Treasurer of the County such Treasurer shall immediately pay the same to the Paymaster of Civil Services in Ireland for the Time being, and the same shall be by him paid into Her Majesty's Exchequer, in discharge of the Sum mentioned in any such Award.

Awards in respect of Drainage not to be affected, &c.

VII. Nothing herein contained shall extend to prevent the said Commissioners of Public Works from making their Awards in relation to the Drainage of the Lands in connexion with the Drainage of which the said Works of Navigation may have been undertaken, or in relation to the Improvement of Mill Power, or to affect or interfere with the Provisions in relation to such Awards; and such Awards may be made and all Provisions in relation thereto shall take effect in like Manner as if no Works of Navigation had been undertaken in connexion with such Drainage or Mill Improvement Works.

Navigations may be transferred to Counties.

VIII. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Public Works, by and with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant under the Hands of the said Commissioners of Public Works or any Two of them, from Time to Time to direct that the said Navigations or any of them, with the Tolls thereof, shall be deemed and become the public Property of the County, or Counties if more than One, in which respectively the Lands chargeable under the Award in relation to the said Navigations respectively are situate; and from and after the Date of any such Warrant such Navigation, together with all Locks, Weirs, and other Works, Rights, Members, and Appurtenances thereto belonging, shall be deemed and taken to be the public Property of such County or Counties as aforesaid, and be held, maintained, and preserved by the Grand Jury or Juries of such County or Counties, with such Powers and Authorities and subject to such Provisions and Regulations as may hereafter be established by Parliament in relation thereto.

Power to Commissioners of Public Works to charge Amounts which may be found due for Compensation, &c. 16 & 17 Vict. c. 130.

IX. 'Whereas by the said Act of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Victoria, Chapter One hundred and 'thirty, it is amongst other things enacted, that it should be lawful for the said Commissioners of the 'Treasury to authorize and direct the said Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, by their Award 'to be made under the said Acts, to charge upon the Lands made liable under such Award such lesser 'Sum than the full Amount of the Expenses of and incidental to Works as to the said Commissioners of 'the Treasury might under the Circumstances of each Case appear just; provided always, that in all 'Cases the whole Amount of the Purchase Money or Compensation payable in respect of Land taken 'for or injuriously affected by any Works commenced and completed or executed, should be included in 'or charged under the Award to be made in relation to such Works: And whereas it frequently happens 'that Claims are made after Completion of the Works in the District, and in respect of which an Award 'has been made or is about to be made, and at Times when there are no Funds in the Hands of 'the said Commissioners or otherwise available for or properly applicable to the Payment of such 'Claims; and it is expedient to authorize the Commissioners in such Cases, within such limited Times 'as herein-after mentioned, in case it shall in their Discretion seem expedient so to do, to make a further 'or additional Award for the Purpose of charging the Amount of Purchase Money or Compensation 'which may be found to be due to any Person upon the Proprietors of Lands in the District in respect 'of the said Drainage whereof such Claims shall arise, and to limit the Time within which all Claims 'for Compensation or otherwise may be made:' Be it therefore enacted, That in all Cases where after the Completion of the Works in any District, whether before or after the making the Final Award in relation to such Works, any Person shall be awarded or otherwise be entitled to be paid Purchase Money or Compensation in respect of Injury sustained or arising from such Drainage, or the Works incidental thereto, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Public Works, without Meeting or other preliminary Proceeding, in case they deem it proper or expedient so to do, by the first or by an additional Award or Awards, Awards, in such Form as the said Commissioners may think proper, from Time to Time to charge upon the Lands of the Proprietors within such District the Amount which may be found to be due for such Purchase Money or Compensation to be paid to the Person entitled to the same, as and when the same shall be received by the said Commissioners, such Sum or Sums by any such additional Award to be charged upon and paid out of the several Lands of the Proprietors in the District in such and the same Manner, and with the same Priority, and the same Rights, Privileges, and Powers for the Recovery thereof, as in and by the said Acts, or any of them, are given for the Recovery of the Sum specified in the Final Award: Provided nevertheless, that the Commissioners may declare that the Sums mentioned in such further or additional Awards shall be paid and payable at such Times and by such Instalments as the said Commissioners shall therein for that Purpose limit and direct, so nevertheless that the entire Amount thereof shall be payable as between the said Proprietors of Lands in the said District in the same Proportions as the Sum charged by the Final Award in such District.

Claims to be made within Six Months.

X. No Claim for Compensation or Damages in respect or by reason of any Act or Omission of the said Commissioners, or for or by reason of any Works whatsoever done or professed to be done by the said Commissioners, shall be made by Action, Suit, or otherwise, save within Six Months after the Act complained of.

Act not to abridge Powers of 16 & 17 Vict. c. 130.

XI. Nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed, taken, or construed to repeal, alter, or abridge any of the Provisions contained in the said Act of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Victoria, Chapter One hundred and thirty.

Power to set off Benefit resulting during Execution of the Works.

XII. In all Cases of Claims for Compensation or Purchase Money made or to be made upon the said Commissioners it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to set off against such Claims the Value of any Benefit which may have resulted or accrued to the Lands of the Party or Person making such Claim during the Execution of the Works of the said Commissioners, and before the making of the Final Award for the District in which such Lands may be situate; and the Arbitrator before whom any such Claim shall be made, when setting forth the Price or Compensation to be paid in respect of any such Claim, and the Jury before whom the Trial of any Traverse against the Award of such Arbitrator shall be had, shall take into consideration any Advantages or Benefit which may have resulted or accrued as aforesaid to the Lands of the Party or Person making such Claim.

Power to the Commissioners to release a Portion of the Lands.

XIII. It shall be lawful for the said Commissioners of Public Works, with the Sanction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from Time to Time and at any Time, (when and so often as by reason of the Redemption of any Part of the Monies charged under any Award of the said Commissioners upon the Lands of any Proprietor, the annual Instalments payable in respect of the Lands mentioned in such Award shall be reduced,) by any Deed or Instrument under the Hands and Seals of the said Commissioners, or any Two of them, to release any of the Lands originally charged with the Payment of any Instalment under any such Award as aforesaid; and no Release of any Portion of the Lands charged under any such Award shall in anywise avoid, diminish, or affect any Remedies by the Acts herein-before recited or otherwise given to be had and exercised for the Recovery of the Monies by any such Award charged in respect of the Residue of the Lands charged therewith.

As to the Appointment of Trustees for Drainage Districts connected with Navigation.

XIV. Anything in the said recited Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty to the contrary notwithstanding, the Provisions of the said Act or any of the Acts amending the same, as far as regards the Appointment of Trustees for the Maintenance of Works of Drainage, and the several Powers and Authorities of such Trustees when so appointed, shall be held and deemed equally to apply to all Works of Drainage, though a Navigation may have been improved or formed, or a Reservoir may have been formed in connexion with such Drainage.

Providing for Trustees where not more than Six Proprietors in a District.

XV. Provided always, That, anything in the said recited Acts to the contrary, in all Cases where there is only One Proprietor in any Drainage District, or where the Proprietors in any District do not exceed Six in Number, such One Proprietor or such Proprietors not exceeding Six, or other Persons nominated by them or any Two of them at any Meeting for the Purpose, shall be the Trustee or Trustees for the Maintenance of the Works in such District.

Power to further deepen the River Lung.

XVI. 'And whereas the said Commissioners of Public Works have put the Powers of the said recited 'Acts into operation in the District to which they have affixed the Name of the Lough Gara and Mantua 'District in Ireland, and in the Execution of the Works in the said District have partially deepened and 'widened the River Lung, situate in the Counties of Roscommon and Mayo: And whereas it is expedient 'that the said River should be further deepened and widened for the Purpose of draining additional Lands 'in the said District or its Vicinity:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for One or more of the Proprietors of additional Lands to be drained in the said District, having first obtained the Consent in Writing of One Half of the Proprietors or more in extent of the Lands so proposed to be drained, to undertake the Execution of the Works necessary for further deepening and widening the said River, and to make and complete the same out of his or their own proper Funds, according to and in conformity with Plans, Sections, and Specifications approved of by the said Commissioners; and when such Works shall have been executed and completed to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to make an Award charging upon the Lands of the Proprietors within such District appearing to the said Commissioners to be benefited by such additional Works the Amount of the Expenses incurred in respect of such additional Works, such Sum by any such Award to be charged upon and paid out of the several Lands of the Proprietors so benefited by such additional Works, in such Proportion as may appear to the said Commissioners just, and in the same Manner, and with the same Priority, Rights, and Powers for the Recovery thereof, as in the said Acts, or any of them, are given for the Recovery of any Sum charged under the Final Award of the said Commissioners in any District: Provided always, that the total Amount of the Expenses to be charged in respect of such additional Works shall not exceed the Sum of Five hundred Pounds.

Acts to be construed as One Act.

XVII. The several Acts mentioned in this Act shall be construed together as One Act; and the several Words and Expressions to which an extended Signification is given in the said Acts, or any of them, shall have the like Signification as this Act; and (save where such Construction would be inconsistent with the Context) the Expression "the Commissioners," where used in this Act, shall mean the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland.

CAP. CXI.

An Act to amend the Law relating to Bills of Lading. [14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS by the Custom of Merchants a Bill of Lading of Goods being transferable by Endorsement the Property in the Goods may thereby pass to the Endorsee, but nevertheless all Rights in respect of the Contract contained in the Bill of Lading continue in the original Shipper or Owner, and it is expedient that such Rights should pass with the Property: And whereas it frequently happens that the Goods in respect of which Bills of Lading purport to be signed have not been laden on board, and it is proper that such Bills of Lading in the Hands of a bonâ fide Holder for Value should not be questioned by the Master or other Person signing the same on the Ground of the Goods not having been laden as aforesaid:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Rights under Bills of Lading to vest in Consignee or Endorsee.

I. Every Consignee of Goods named in a Bill of Lading, and every Endorsee of a Bill of Lading to whom the Property in the Goods therein mentioned shall pass, upon or by reason of such Consignment or Endorsement, shall have transferred to and vested in him all Rights of Suit, and be subject to the same Liabilities in respect of such Goods as if the Contract contained in the Bill of Lading had been made with himself.

Not to affect Right of Stoppage in transitu or Claims for Freight.

II. Nothing herein contained shall prejudice or affect any Right of Stoppage in transitu, or any Right to claim Freight against the original Shipper or Owner, or any Liability of the Consignee or Endorsee by reason or in consequence of his being such Consignee or Endorsee, or of his Receipt of the Goods by reason or in consequence of such Consignment or Endorsement.

Bill of Lading in Hands of Consignee, &c. conclusive Evidence of Shipment as against Master, &c.

III. Every Bill of Lading in the Hands of a Consignee or Endorsee for valuable Consideration representing Goods to have been shipped on board a Vessel shall be conclusive Evidence of such Shipment as against the Master or other Person signing the same, notwithstanding that such Goods or some Part thereof may not have been so shipped, unless such Holder of the Bill of Lading shall have had actual Notice at the Time of receiving the same that the Goods had not been in fact laden on board: Provided, that the Master or other Person so signing may exonerate himself in respect of such Misrepresentation by showing that it was caused without any Default on his Part, and wholly by the Fraud of the Shipper, or of the Holder, or some Person under whom the Holder claims.

Proviso.

CAP. CXII.

An Act to continue an Act of the Eleventh Year of Her present Majesty, for the better Prevention of Crime and Outrage in certain Parts of Ireland. [14th August 1855.]

[11 & 12 Vict. c. 2. continued until 1st July 1856.]

CAP. CXIII.

An Act to extend the Provisions of an Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her present Majesty, for rebuilding the Bridge over the River Ness at Inverness. [14th August 1855.]

14 & 15 Vict. c. 66.

'WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Sixty-six, "for rebuilding the Bridge over the River Ness at "the Town of Inverness, and improving the Approaches thereto, and for amending the Acts relating "to Highland Roads and Bridges," after Provision for the Application of a Sum of Seven thousand seven hundred Pounds towards the Expense of erecting the said Bridge, it was enacted, that it should be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to advance by way of Loan to the Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges, for the Purposes of the said Act, any further Sum not exceeding Ten thousand seven hundred Pounds out of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund, to be repaid, with Interest, in manner therein-after provided, and that there should, upon the Advance

'by

'by the said Commissioners of the Treasury of all or any Part of the said Loan of Ten thousand seven 'hundred Pounds, be appropriated to the Repayment of the Sum advanced and Interest thereof such 'Parts of the Sums allotted to the Counties of Inverness, Ross, Sutherland, and Caithness, out of an 'annual Grant of Five thousand Pounds, in the said Act mentioned, as would produce an annual Pay-'ment at the Rate of Six Pounds Ten Shillings for every One hundred Pounds of the Sum so advanced, 'and so in proportion for any lesser Amount, and such annual Payment should be made for the Term of 'Twenty-two Years, to be computed from the Sixth Day of April or Tenth Day of October which should 'first happen after such Advance, and further Provisions are therein contained concerning such annual 'Payment, and for the Deduction thereof from the Sums allotted to the said Counties, and to provide 'for the Deficiency to arise by such Deductions: And whereas the Expense of erecting the said Bridge 'having exceeded the estimated Amount thereof it is expedient that further Public Assistance should 'be afforded towards defraying such Expense upon the Conditions herein-after expressed:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Application of Monies provided by Parliament.

I. Any Monies to be provided by Parliament for that Purpose shall be applied by the said Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges, under the Direction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, towards defraying the Expense of erecting the said new Bridge by the said Act authorized to be made and maintained.

Treasury authorized to advance 3,000*l.* by way of Loan.

II. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to advance by way of Loan to the said Commissioners of Highland Roads and Bridges, towards defraying the Expense of erecting the said Bridge, any further Sum not exceeding Three thousand Pounds, out of the growing Produce of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and such Sum shall be repaid, with Interest, in the Manner herein-after provided.

Sums advanced under this Act to be repaid, with Interest, from the County Allotments.

III. Upon the Advance of the said Commissioners of the Treasury of all or any Part of the said Loan of Three thousand Pounds, there shall be appropriated to Repayment of the Sum advanced, and Interest thereof, such Parts of the Sums allotted as in the said Act mentioned to the said Counties of Inverness, Ross, Sutherland, and Caithness, out of the said annual Grant of Five thousand Pounds, as will produce an annual Payment at the Rate of Six Pounds Ten Shillings for every One hundred Pounds of the Sum so advanced, and so in proportion for any lesser Amount, such annual Payment to be made for the Term of Twenty-two Years; and all the Provisions of the said Act of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty with reference to the said Sum of Ten thousand seven hundred Pounds, and the Charges of the annual Payments in respect thereof, and the Deduction of such annual Payments from the Sums allotted to the said Counties, and for supplying the Deficiency to arise by such Deductions, shall be extended and shall be applicable to the said Sum of Three thousand Pounds to be advanced by way of Loan under this Act, and the Charges of the annual Payments in respect thereof, and the Deduction of such annual Payments from the Sums allotted to the said Counties, and for supplying the Deficiency to arise from such last-mentioned Deductions.

14 & 15 Vict. c. 66. as to former Loan extended to Loan to be advanced under this Act.

CAP. CXIV.

An Act for the Transfer of Licences of Public Houses in Ireland. [14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the Transfer in certain Cases of Licences of Inns, Ale-'houses, and Victualling Houses in Ireland:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Justices at Petty Sessions empowered to transfer Licences on the Death or Removal of the Parties licensed.

I. Upon the Death of any Person duly licensed to carry on the Business of a Licensed Victualler, and to sell Exciseable Liquors by Retail, to be consumed on the Premises, in Ireland, or upon the Removal of any such Person from the House or Premises at which he is authorized by any such Licence to carry on such Business as aforesaid in Ireland, or the Sale of or Assignment of his Interest therein by Operation of Law or otherwise, it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace of the District within which any such licensed House or Premises shall be situated, assembled at Petty Sessions, or the Justices in any Liberty, City, Town, or Place within which any such licensed House or Premises shall be situated, assembled at Petty Sessions, at any Time when no Quarter Sessions shall be holden for any such County, Riding, Division, Liberty, City, Town, or Place, (if they shall think proper so to do, after examining upon Oath all necessary Parties,) to transfer, by Endorsement thereon, any and every such Licence as aforesaid then in force, to any Person, not disqualified by Law, to whom it shall be proposed at the Time of such Application to transfer any such Licence, to use, exercise, and carry on the Business of a Licensed Victualler at the same House and on the same Premises, and there to sell such Exciseable Liquors as might theretofore have been lawfully sold and retailed therein; and thereupon it shall be lawful for such Person so to use, exercise, and carry on the said Business at such House and Premises, until the Quarter Sessions of the Peace which shall be holden for the same County, Riding, Division, Liberty, City, Town, or Place next after the Expiration of One Calendar Month from the Time of such Transfer, and no longer.

II. Provided

Nothing to empower any Justice at Petty Sessions to make any Transfer within the District of the Dublin Metropolis.

II. Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to empower any Justices at Petty Sessions to make any such Transfer as aforesaid, within any of the Divisions assigned or to be assigned to any of the Police Courts already established or to be established within the District of Dublin Metropolis, but that any such Application as is herein-before authorized to be made at Petty Sessions shall, when the licensed House and Premises shall be situated within any of the said Divisions of the Police District of Dublin Metropolis, be made to One of the Police Magistrates sitting at any of the said Courts, and such Magistrate shall, in his Discretion, make any such Transfer as aforesaid, in the Manner and for the Time herein-before mentioned: Provided also, that any Person who shall be authorized under the Provisions of this Act to continue to carry on the Business of a Licensed Victualler shall, after the obtaining such Authority, and so long as the same shall continue in force, be subject to all the Powers, Regulations, Proceedings, Penalties, and Provisions declared by or contained in any Act or Acts in force touching the Regulation, Government, or Control of Licensed Keepers of Inns, Alehouses, and Victualling Houses, in like Manner as if the same had been repeated and re-enacted in this Act, and that all Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by any such Act or Acts shall be applied as directed by the same respectively.

CAP. CXV.

An Act to continue and amend the Public Health Act (1854). [14th August 1855.]

17 & 18 Vict. c. 95.

'WHEREAS by the Act of the Session holden in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety-five, "to make better Provision for the Administration of the Laws 'relating to the Public Health," a Board was constituted, to be called "The General Board of Health," 'and it was thereby provided that the said Board should be continued for One Year next after the Day 'of the passing of that Act, and thenceforth until the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and 'by the said Act the said Board were authorized to appoint a Secretary and Assistant Secretary, and 'such Clerks and Officers of the Board, and also so many Superintending Inspectors under such Board, 'as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury might think fit, every Person so appointed to be 'removable at the Pleasure of the said Board: And whereas it is expedient that the said Board should 'be continued, and should have Power to appoint a Medical Council and a Medical Officer:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

General Board continued for One Year, &c.

I. On the passing of this Act so much of the said Act as limits the Duration of the Board of Health shall be repealed, and the said Board shall be continued for One Year next after the Day of the passing of this Act, and thenceforth until the End of the then next Session of Parliament, and no longer.

Board may appoint, with Consent of Treasury, Medical Council and Medical Officer.

II. The said Board may appoint a Medical Council, consisting of such Number of Persons as the said Board, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, may deem expedient, and may appoint a Medical Officer, and may assign to such Council and Medical Officer such Duties as the Board may think fit; they may remove any Member of such Council, or such Officer, and appoint another Person in his Stead; and they may diminish, or, with the Consent of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, increase the Number of such Council.

Treasury to fix Salaries.

III. There shall be paid to the Members of the said Medical Council and to the said Medical Officer such Fees or Salaries as may from Time to Time be appointed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury; and in the Case of such Medical Officer there may be allowed, in addition to his Salary, such reasonable travelling and other Expenses as may be incurred by him in the Performance of the Duties of his Office.

Salaries, &c. how to be paid.

IV. All Fees and Salaries payable under this Act, and all incidental Expenses of the said General Board, shall be paid out of such Monies as shall be provided by Parliament.

Short Title.

V. This Act may be cited for all Purposes as "The General Board of Health Continuance Act, 1855."

CAP. CXVI.

An Act for the better Prevention of Diseases. [14th August 1855.]

11 & 12 Vict. c. 123. 12 & 13 Vict. c. 111.

'WHEREAS the Provisions of "The Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act, 1848," amended by "The Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Amendment Act, 1849," in so 'far as the same relate to the Prevention or Mitigation of epidemic, endemic, or contagious Diseases, are 'defective, and it is expedient to substitute other Provisions more effectual in that Behalf:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Short Title.

I. This Act may be cited for all Purposes as the "Diseases Prevention Act, 1855."

As to Execution of Act.

II. The Local Authority for executing this Act shall be the Local Authority acting in execution of any General Act in force for the Time being for the Removal of Nuisances.

III. The Expenses of Act.

III. The Expenses incurred in execution of this Act shall be borne out of the Rates or Funds administered by such Local Authority, under the Provisions and for the Purposes of any such General Act as is referred to in the preceding Section.

Power of Entry.

IV. The Local Authority and their Officers shall have Power of Entry for the Purposes of this Act, and for executing or superintending the Execution of the Regulations and Directions of the General Board issued under this Act.

Power to Privy Council to issue Orders that Provisions herein contained for Prevention of Diseases may be put in force.

V. Whenever any Part of England appears to be threatened with or is affected by any formidable epidemic, endemic, or contagious Disease, the Lords and others of Her Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, or any Three or more of them, (the Lord President of the Council or One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State being One,) may, by Order or Orders to be by them from Time to Time made, direct that the Provisions herein contained for the Prevention of Diseases be put in force in England, or in such Parts thereof as in such Order or Orders respectively may be expressed, and may from Time to Time, as to all or any of the Parts to which any such Order or Orders extend, and in like Manner, revoke or renew any such Order; and, subject to Revocation and Renewal as aforesaid, every such Order shall be in force for Six Calendar Months, or for such shorter Period as in such Order shall be expressed; and every such Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or of any Members thereof, as aforesaid, shall be certified under the Hand of the Clerk in Ordinary of Her Majesty's Privy Council, and shall be published in the London Gazette; and such Publication shall be conclusive Evidence of such Order, to all Intents and Purposes.

Power to General Board of Health to issue Regulations to carry out such Provisions.

VI. From Time to Time after the issuing of any such Order as aforesaid, and whilst the same continues in force, the General Board of Health may issue Directions and Regulations, as the said Board think fit—

For the speedy Interment of the Dead:

For House to House Visitation:

For the dispensing of Medicines, guarding against the Spread of Disease, and affording to Persons afflicted by or threatened with such epidemic, endemic, or contagious Diseases such medical Aid and such Accommodation as may be required:

Local Extent and Duration of Regulations of General Board.

And from Time to Time, in like Manner, may revoke, renew, and alter any such Directions and Regulations as to the said Board appears expedient, to extend to all Parts in which the Provisions of this Act for the Prevention of Disease shall for the Time being be put in force under such Orders as aforesaid, unless such Directions and Regulations be expressly confined to some of such Parts, and then to such Parts as therein are specified; and (subject to the Power of Revocation and Alteration herein contained) such Directions and Regulations shall continue in force so long as the said Provisions of this Act shall, under such Order, be applicable to the same Parts.

Publication of such Regulations.

VII. Every such Direction and Regulation as aforesaid, when issued, shall be published in the London Gazette, and the Gazette in which such Direction or Regulation was published shall be conclusive Evidence of the Direction or Regulation so published, to all Intents and Purposes.

Local Authority to see to Execution of Regulations, &c.;

VIII. The Local Authority shall superintend and see to the Execution of such Directions and Regulations, and shall appoint and pay such Medical or other Officers or Persons, and do and provide all such Acts, Matters, and Things, as may be necessary for mitigating such Disease, or for superintending or aiding in the Execution of such Directions and Regulations, or for executing the same, as the Case may require.

and may direct Prosecutions.

IX. The Local Authority may from Time to Time direct any Prosecutions or legal Proceedings for or in respect of the wilful Violation or Neglect of any such Direction and Regulation.

Orders of Council, &c. to be laid before Parliament.

X. Every Order of Her Majesty's Privy Council, and every Direction and Regulation of the General Board of Health, under this Act, shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament, forthwith upon the issuing thereof, if Parliament be then sitting, and if not then within Fourteen Days next after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament.

Order in Council may extend to Parts and Arms of the Sea.

XI. Orders in Council issued in pursuance of this Act for putting in force the Provisions for the Prevention of Disease in the said Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Acts contained, in Great Britain, may extend to Parts and Arms of the Sea lying within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty; and the Board of Health for England may issue under this Act Directions and Regulations for cleansing, purifying, ventilating, and disinfecting, and providing medical Aid and Accommodation, and preventing Disease in Ships and Vessels, as well upon Arms and Parts of the Sea aforesaid as upon Inland Waters.

Medical Officer of Unions and others entitled to Costs of attending Sick on board Vessels, when required by Orders of General Board of Health.

XII. Whenever, in compliance with any Regulation of the General Board of Health, which they may be empowered to make under this Act, any Medical Officer appointed under and by virtue of the Laws for the Time being for the Relief of the Poor shall perform any Medical Service on board of any Vessel, such Medical Officer shall be entitled to charge extra for any such Service, at the general Rate of his Allowance for his Services for the Union or Place for which he is appointed, and such Charges shall be payable by the Captain of the Vessel, on behalf of the Owners, together with any reasonable Expenses for the Treatment of the Sick; and if such Services shall be rendered by any Medical Practitioner who is not a Union or Parish Officer, he shall be entitled to Charges for any Service rendered on board, with extra Remuneration on account of Distance, at the same Rate as those which he is in the habit of receiving from private Patients of the Class of those attended and treated on Shipboard, to be paid as aforesaid; aforesaid; and in case of Dispute in respect of such Charges, such Dispute may, where the Charges do not exceed Twenty Pounds, be determined summarily, at the Place where the Dispute arises, as in case of Seamen's Wages not exceeding Fifty Pounds, according to the Provisions of the Law in that Behalf for the Time being in force; and any Justice before whom Complaint is made shall determine summarily as to the Amount which is reasonable, according to the accustomed Rate of Charge within the Place for Attendance on Patients of the like Class or Condition as those in respect of whom the Charge is made.

Authentication of Directions and Regulations of General Board of Health.

XIII. The Directions and Regulations of the General Board of Health under this Enactment shall be under the Seal of the said Board, and the Hand of the President or Two or more Members thereof; and any Copy of such Regulations purporting to bear such Seal and Signature, whether the said Signature and Seal be respectively impressed and written, or printed only, shall be Evidence in all Proceedings in which such Regulations may come in question.

Penalty for obstructing Execution of Act.

XIV. Whoever wilfully obstructs any Person acting under the Authority or employed in the Execution of this Act, and whosoever wilfully violates any Direction or Regulation issued by the General Board of Health as aforesaid, shall be liable for every such Offence to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, to be appropriated in or towards the defraying the Expenses of executing this Act.

Certain existing Provisions to apply to this Act.

XV. The Provisions of any General Act in force for the Removal of Nuisances, with regard to the Service of Notices, the Proof of Orders or Resolutions of the Local Authority, and the Recovery of Penalties, shall extend and apply to this Act.

CAP. CXVII.

An Act for transferring to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State the Powers and Estates vested in the Principal Officers of the Ordnance. [14th August 1855.]

5 & 6 Vict. c. 94. 17 & 18 Vict. c. 67.

'WHEREAS by various Acts of Parliament, and particularly by an Act of the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Ninety-four, and by another Act of the Session of Parliament holden in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Sixty-seven, various Powers and Authorities were given to or vested in and exerciseable by the Principal Officers of Her Majesty's Ordnance, and by the said Acts, and by or under divers Conveyances, Surrenders, Assignments, and Leases, or by some other Means, divers Lands, Hereditaments, Estates, and Property purchased, taken, used, and occupied for the Ordnance and Barrack Services throughout the United Kingdom before and at the Time of the Revocation by Her Majesty next herein-after mentioned, were vested in the said Principal Officers: And whereas Her Majesty hath thought fit to revoke the Letters Patent of some of the said Principal Officers, and by other Letters Patent to transfer to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State the Administration of the Department the Duties of which were previously executed by the said Principal Officers of Her Majesty's Ordnance: And whereas it is expedient that the said several Powers and Authorities, and the said Lands, Hereditaments, Estates, and Property, and all Title, Estate, and Interest therein respectively, should be also transferred from the said Principal Officers, and vested in One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Powers, &c. vested in Principal Officers of Ordnance to be transferred to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for War.

I. All the Powers, Authorities, Rights, and Privileges whatsoever, which by virtue of the said recited Acts or either of them, or of any other Act or Acts of Parliament, or of any other Law, Custom, or Usage whatsoever have been or were at any Time vested in or exercised or exerciseable by the Principal Officers of Her Majesty's Ordnance, or any of them, shall from henceforth continue in full Force, and shall be and the same are hereby declared to be transferred to and vested in and exerciseable by Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Time being to whom Her Majesty shall think fit to intrust the Seals of the War Department, and such last-mentioned Principal Secretary of State shall be entitled to the same Exemption from personal Responsibility as the said Principal Officers were entitled to.

All Lands, &c. vested in such Officers vested in the said Secretary of State.

II. All Lands, Hereditaments, Estates, and Property whatsoever which by virtue of the said recited Acts or either of them, or of any other Act or Acts of Parliament, or of any Conveyance, Surrender, Lease, or other Assurance, or of any Law, Custom, or Usage whatsoever, before and at the Time of the Revocation by Her Majesty herein-before mentioned were vested in the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, on behalf of Her Majesty, or which have been at any Time before the passing of this Act held, used, or occupied, or purchased, vested, or taken, by or in the Name of or by any Person or Persons in trust for Her Majesty, for the Use and Service of the said Department or for the Defence and Security of the Realm, and which have not been sold, aliened, or parted with, shall from henceforth be and the same are hereby declared to be transferred to and vested in the last-mentioned Principal Secretary of State for the Time being, on behalf of Her said Majesty; and when and so often as the said last-mentioned Principal Secretary of State, and any succeeding Principal Secretary of State to whom Her Majesty shall have intrusted the Seals of the War Department, shall cease to hold such Office, the said several Lands, Hereditaments, Estates, and Property, and all Lands, Hereditaments, Estates, and Property which hereafter shall be purchased or otherwise acquired by any such last-mentioned Principal Secretary of State

State for the Time being, on behalf of Her said Majesty, shall by virtue of this Act be absolutely divested out of such Secretary of State so ceasing to hold such Office as aforesaid, and shall by virtue of this Act be transferred to and vested in his Successor in the said Office, immediately upon his receiving the Seals of the said Department, absolutely; and the said Lands, Hereditaments, Estates, and Property hereby vested and hereafter to be vested in the said last-mentioned Principal Secretary of State and his Successors shall, as to such of them as were or shall have been purchased, or are or shall be held for an Estate of Inheritance in Fee Simple, be so vested in such last-mentioned Principal Secretary of State and his Successors in the same Manner as if the Fee Simple thereof had been originally conveyed to such Principal Secretary of State as a Corporation Sole and his Successors; and as to all Lands, Hereditaments, and Property purchased or held for any less Estate than an Estate of Inheritance in Fee Simple, as if the same Lands, Hereditaments, and Property had been originally conveyed, surrendered, demised, or otherwise assured to such Principal Secretary of State as a Corporation Sole, and his Successors, for all the existing Estates or Interests therein respectively, and so from Time to Time; nevertheless, with respect to all Lands or Hereditaments of Copyhold or Customary Tenure, the same shall, for the Purpose mentioned in the Eighth Section of the first-mentioned Act, (videlicet, the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Ninety-four,) remain vested in or be surrendered to some Person to be approved of or named by the last-mentioned Principal Secretary of State for the Time being as Tenant thereof. 5 & 6 Vict. c. 94. s. 8.

Contracts, &c. made by the Principal Officers relating to the Public Service to be enforced by such Secretary of State.

III. All Contracts, Covenants, and Agreements heretofore made or entered into by any Person or Persons whomsoever with the said Principal Officers of the Ordnance, or any Person or Persons on their Behalf, as to or concerning any Lands, Hereditaments, Estates, and Property vested in or agreed to be purchased by the said Principal Officers, or in anywise relating to the Public Service, shall be deemed and taken to have been made or entered into with such Principal Secretary of State as last aforesaid, and shall be executed and enforced by him in like Manner as if he had originally been Party thereto instead of the said Principal Officers of the Ordnance; and all Proceedings whatsoever which have been or might or may have been commenced, taken, or done in the Names of the said Principal Officers, on behalf of Her Majesty, shall and may hereafter be commenced, continued, taken, and done in the Name of such Principal Secretary of State as aforesaid, in like Manner (in the Case of Proceedings already commenced, taken, or done,) as if he had originally been Party thereto, instead of the said Principal Officers of the Ordnance.

Powers given by 10th and 18th Sections of 5 & 6 Vict. c. 94. to Bodies Corporate, &c. to sell, to be exercised by such Secretary of State.

IV. All Powers by the Tenth and Eighteenth Sections of the said first-mentioned Act given to Bodies Politic or Corporate, Feoffees or Trustees for charitable or other public Purposes, Tenants for Life and Tenants in Tail, Husbands, Guardians, Trustees, Committees, Curators, and Attornies, respectively therein mentioned, to contract and agree for the absolute Sale or Exchange of any Messuages, Buildings, Castles, Forts, Lines, or other Fortifications, Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, and for the Sale of any Reversion, and the Grant of any Lease, and to convey, surrender, demise, or grant the same accordingly, shall continue in full Force, and hereafter may or shall be exercised or exerciseable, and be acted under or take effect, in favour or at the Instance of the last-mentioned Principal Secretary of State for the Time being, on behalf of Her said Majesty, and for the Public Service, in the same Manner and as effectually as the said Powers are in and by such recited Acts given or created or made exerciseable in favour or at the Instance of the said Principal Officers for the Time being on behalf of Her said Majesty, or for the Public Service, and all Enactments, Directions, and Provisions in the said recited Acts contained shall continue in full Force, and may or shall at all Times hereafter be by the last-mentioned Principal Secretary of State for the Time being acted on and take effect, and shall enure or take effect in favour of, and may be enforced by, such last-mentioned Principal Secretary and his Successors, on behalf of Her Majesty, and for the Public Service.

Such Secretary of State to be described in Conveyances, &c. as "Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department."

V. In every Contract, Conveyance, Surrender, Lease, or other Assurance of any Lands, Hereditaments, Estates, or Property, with, unto, or by the last-mentioned Principal Secretary of State for the Time being, and in every other Deed or Instrument relating to any Lands, Hereditaments, Estates, or Property, or in anywise to the Public Service, to which the last-mentioned Principal Secretary of State for the Time being shall be or shall be intended to be a Party, it shall be sufficient to call or describe him by the Style or Title of "Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department," without naming him; and every such Contract, Conveyance, Surrender, Lease, Assurance, Deed, or Instrument may be executed by such last-mentioned Principal Secretary of State, or by any other of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the Time being, by signing his Name thereto, and if the Instrument so executed be in the Form of a Deed by setting or affixing a Seal thereto and delivering the same as his Deed; and whenever any Contract, Conveyance, Surrender, Lease, Assurance, Deed, or Instrument shall be executed by any other Principal Secretary of State than the Principal Secretary of State for the War Department the Principal Secretary of State so executing the same shall for that Time and on that Occasion, and for the Purposes thereof, be deemed to be the Principal Secretary of State for the War Department.

Commissioners of Emigration to carry this Act into execution.

VI. 'And whereas by a Warrant under Her Majesty's Sign Manual, bearing Date on the Twenty-'seventh Day of November One thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, Her Majesty was pleased to 'appoint certain Persons therein named under the Style of "The Colonial Land and Emigration 'Commissioners," to be, during Her Majesty's Pleasure, Commissioners in the United Kingdom for the 'Sale of the Waste Lands of the Crown of Her Majesty's Colonies, and for superintending the 'Emigration of the poorer Classes of Her Majesty's Subjects to such Colonies: And whereas it is 'expedient that such Commissioners should be empowered to carry this Act into execution:' Be it therefore enacted, That the said Commissioners, and their Successors for the Time being, shall and they are hereby empowered to carry this Act into execution; and that for all legal and other Purposes it shall be sufficient to describe such Commissioners by the Style of "The Emigration Commissioners."

Emigration Commissioners may sue and be sued in the Name of their Secretary, &c. Commissioners, &c. exempt from Liability.

VII. The said Emigration Commissioners for the Time being may sue and be sued in the Name of their Secretary, or of any One of such Commissioners for the Time being, and legal or equitable Proceedings taken by or against the said Commissioners in the Name of any One of them or of their Secretary shall not abate nor be discontinued by the Death or Removal of such Secretary or Commissioner, but the Secretary for the Time being, or any One of such Commissioners, shall always be deemed to be the Plaintiff or Defendant (as the Case may be) in any such Proceedings: Provided always, that the said Commissioners and their Secretary, and the Emigration Officers herein-after mentioned respectively, shall in no Case be personally liable, nor shall the private Estate and Effects of any of them be liable, for the Payment of any Monies or Costs or otherwise in respect of any Contract made or hereafter to be made by them or any of them, or in respect of any legal or equitable Proceedings taken against them or any of them, or for any Act, Deed, or Matter done or executed by them or any of them in their or his official Capacity and on the Public Service.

Emigration Officers to act under Commissioners, &c., but existing Appointments to continue until revoked.

VIII. In the United Kingdom the said Commissioners acting under the Sanction of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and in Her Majesty's Possessions abroad the respective Governors thereof, may from Time to Time appoint, and the said Commissioners and Governors may at pleasure from Time to Time remove, such Emigration Officers and Assistant Emigration Officers as they may respectively think necessary, for the Purpose of carrying this Act into execution, under the Direction of the said Commissioners or Governors, as the Case may be: Provided nevertheless, that all existing Appointments of Emigration Officers or Immigration Agents and of their Assistants, as well in the United Kingdom as in Her Majesty's Possessions abroad, shall continue in force under this Act until duly revoked.

Duties of Emigration Officer may be performed by his Assistant, &c.

IX. All Powers, Functions, and Duties to be exercised or performed by any such Emigration Officer may be exercised and performed respectively by his Assistant, or, at any Port where there shall be no such Emigration Officer or Assistant, or in their Absence, by the Chief Officer of Customs for the Time being at such Port.

Facilities to be given to the proper Officers for the Inspection of all Ships fitting for Passengers. Penalty on Master failing to comply, &c.

X. The Master of every Ship, whether a "Passenger Ship" or otherwise, fitting or intended for the Carriage of Passengers, or which shall carry Passengers upon any Voyage to which this Act extends, shall afford to such Emigration Officer as aforesaid at any Port or Place in Her Majesty's Dominions, and in the Case of British Ships, to Her Majesty's Consular Officer at any Foreign Port or Place at which such Ship shall be or arrive, every Facility for inspecting such Ship, and for communicating with the Passengers, and for ascertaining that the Provisions of this Act, so far as the same may be applicable to such Ships, have been duly complied with; the Master of any Ship who shall omit or fail to comply with any of the Requirements of this Section shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds.

Arrangements for the Ship.

No Passenger Ship to clear without Certificate from Emigration Officer, nor until Bond be given to the Crown.

XI. No Ship fitted or intended for the Carriage of Passengers as a "Passenger Ship" shall clear out or proceed to Sea until the Master thereof shall have obtained from the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance a Certificate of Clearance under his Hand that all the Requirements of this Act, so far as the same can be complied with, before the Departure of such Ship, have been duly complied with, and that such Ship is, in his Opinion, seaworthy, in safe Trim, and in all respects fit for her intended Voyage, and that her Passengers and Crew are in a fit State to proceed, nor until the Master shall have joined in executing such Bond to the Crown as required by the Sixty-third Section of this Act: Provided, that if such Emigration Officer shall refuse to grant such Certificate, and the Owner or Charterer of such Ship shall appeal in Writing to the Emigration Commissioners, such Commissioners shall appoint any Two other Emigration Officers, or any Two competent Persons, at the Expense of the Appellant, to examine into the Matter, and if the Persons so appointed shall grant a Certificate under their joint Hands to the Purport Purport herein-before required, such Certificate shall be held to be of the same Effect as if granted by the Emigration Officer of the Port of Clearance. Arrangements for the Ship.

XII. If any "Passenger Ship" shall clear out or proceed to Sea without the Master's having first obtained such Certificate of Clearance, or without his having joined in executing such Bond, as by this Act is required, or if such Ship after having sailed shall put into any Port or Place in the United Kingdom in a damaged State, and shall put to Sea again without the Master having first obtained such Certificate of Clearance as required by Section Fifty of this Act, such Ship shall be forfeited to the Use of Her Majesty, and may be seized by any Officer of Customs, if found, within Two Years from the Commission of the Offence, in any Port or Place in Her Majesty's Dominions; and such Ship shall thereupon be dealt with in the same Manner as if she had been seized as forfeited under any of the Laws relating to the Customs for an Offence incurring Forfeiture under those Laws. Forfeiture of Ship if Master proceeds to Sea without Certificate of Clearance, &c. Such Ship to be dealt with as if seized under Laws relating to Customs.

XIII. No Ship shall carry Passengers or Cabin Passengers on more than Two Decks; provided, that Cabin Passengers in a Proportion not exceeding One Cabin Passenger for every One hundred Tons of the Ship's registered Tonnage, or sick Persons placed in a Hospital, as herein-after provided, may be carried in a Poop or Deck House, notwithstanding that Passengers are carried on Two other Decks, and if Passengers are carried under the Poop or in any Round House or Deck House, such Poop, Round House, or Deck House shall be properly built and secured to the Satisfaction of the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance: For any Breach of this Enactment the Master of the Ship shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five hundred Pounds nor less than Twenty Pounds Sterling. Where Passengers may be carried.

XIV. For determining the Number of Passengers to be carried in any "Passenger Ship" the following Rules shall be observed: Rule for determining Number of Passengers to be carried.

(1.) No Ship propelled by Sails only shall carry a greater Number of Persons (including every Individual on board) than in the Proportion of One Statute Adult to every Two Tons of her registered Tonnage: Tonnage Check.

(2.) No Ship shall carry under the Poop, or in the Round House or Deck House, or on the "Upper Passenger Deck," a greater Number of Passengers than in the Proportion of One Statute Adult to every Fifteen clear Superficial Feet of Deck allotted to their Use: Space Check.

(3.) No Ship shall carry on her Lower Passenger Deck a greater Number of Passengers than in the Proportion of One Statute Adult to every Eighteen clear Superficial Feet of Deck allotted to their Use: Provided nevertheless, that if the Height between such Lower Passenger Deck and the Deck immediately above it shall be less than Seven Feet, or if the Apertures (exclusive of Side Scuttles) through which Light and Air shall be admitted together to the Lower Passenger Deck shall be less in Size than in the Proportion of Three Square Feet to every One hundred Superficial Feet of the Lower Passenger Deck, no greater Number of Passengers shall be carried on such Deck than in the Proportion of One Statute Adult to every Twenty-five clear Superficial Feet thereof:

(4.) No Ship, whatever be her Tonnage or superficial Space of "Passenger Decks," shall carry a greater Number of Passengers on the whole than in the Proportion of One Statute Adult to every Five Superficial Feet, clear for Exercise, on the upper Deck or Poop, or (if secured and fitted on the Top with a Railing or Guard to the Satisfaction of the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance) on any Round House or Deck House:

(5.) In the Measurement of the Passenger Decks, Poop, Round House, or Deck House, the Space for the Hospital and that occupied by such Portion of the personal Luggage of the Passengers as the Emigration Officer may permit to be carried there shall be included:

If there shall be on board of any Ship at or after the Time of Clearance a greater Number, either of Persons or Passengers (except by Births at Sea), than in the Proportions respectively herein-before mentioned, the Master of such Ship shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds nor less than Five Pounds Sterling for each Passenger or Person constituting such Excess. Penalty.

XV. Provided nevertheless, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to repeal or vary an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-four, intituled An Act to amend the Passengers Act, 1852, so far as relates to the Passages of Natives of Asia or Africa, and also Passages between the Island of Ceylon and certain Parts of the East Indies. Nothing to extend to repeal 16 & 17 Vict. c. 84.

XVI. The Master of every Ship, whether a "Passenger Ship" or otherwise, carrying Passengers on any Voyage to which this Act extends, shall, before demanding a Clearance for such Ship, sign Two Lists, made out according to the Form contained in Schedule (B.) hereto annexed, correctly setting forth in the Manner therein directed the Name and other Particulars of the Ship, and of every Passenger on board thereof; and the said Lists, when countersigned by the Emigration Officer, where there is One at the Port, shall be delivered by the Master to the Officer of the Customs from whom a Clearance of the said Ship shall be demanded, and such Officer shall thereupon also countersign and return to the said Master One of such Lists, herein-after called "The Master's List;" and the said Master shall note in Writing on such last-mentioned List, and on any additional Lists to be made out as next herein-after provided, Passengers Lists to be delivered in Duplicate by the Master before Clearance.

Arrangements for the Ship.

provided, the Date and supposed Cause of Death of any Passenger who may die, and the Date of Birth, and Sex of any Child who may be born on the Voyage, and shall exhibit such last-mentioned List, with any Additions which may from Time to Time be made thereto, as herein-after directed, to the Chief Officer of Customs at any Port or Place in Her Majesty's Possessions, or to Her Majesty's Consular Officer at any Foreign Port at which the said Passengers or any of them shall be landed, and shall deposit the same with such Chief Officer of Customs or such Consular Officer, as the Case may be, at the final Port or Place of Discharge, and such Officer of Customs or Consular Officer shall thereupon forthwith transmit the Particulars respecting any Passenger who may die, or of any Child who may be born on the Voyage to the Registrar General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England, who shall file the same, and enter a Copy thereof under his Hand, in the "Marine Register Book," which Entry shall be dealt with and be of the same Value as Evidence as any other Entry made in such Book under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Sixth and Seventh Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for registering Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England: In case of Non-compliance with any of the Requirements of this Section on the Part of the Master, or if such Lists shall be wilfully false, the Master shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding One hundred Pounds nor less than Five Pounds Sterling.

6 & 7 W. 4. c. 86.

Lists of Passengers embarked after Clearance to be delivered by Master.

XVII. If at any Time after such Lists shall have been signed and delivered as aforesaid any additional Passenger shall be taken on board, in every such Case the Master shall, according to the Form aforesaid, add to "The Master's List" the Names and other Particulars of every such additional Passenger, and shall also sign a separate List, made out according to the Form aforesaid, containing the Names and other Particulars of every such additional Passenger, and such last-mentioned List, when countersigned by the Emigration Officer, where there is One at the Port, shall, together with "The Master's List" to which such Addition shall have been made, be delivered to the Chief Officer of Customs as aforesaid, and thereupon such Officer shall countersign "The Master's List," and shall return the same to the said Master, and shall retain the separate List, and so on in like Manner whenever any additional Passenger or Passengers may be taken on board; or if no Officer of Customs shall be stationed at the Port or Place where such additional Passenger or Passengers may be taken on board, the said Lists shall be delivered to the Officer of Customs at the next Port or Place at which such Vessel shall touch or arrive and where any such Officer shall be stationed, to be dealt with as herein-before mentioned: Provided, that when any additional Passengers shall be taken on board the Master shall obtain a fresh Certificate from the Emigration Officer of the Port that all the Requirements of this Act have been duly complied with before the Ship shall proceed to Sea: In case of Noncompliance with any of the Requirements of this Section, the Master of such Ship shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds nor less than Five Pounds Sterling.

Penalty on Noncompliance.

Penalty on Persons found on board Ships without Consent of Owners, &c.

XVIII. If any Person shall be found on board any Passenger Ship with Intent to obtain a Passage therein without the Consent of the Owner, Charterer, or Master thereof, such Person and every Person aiding and abetting him in such fraudulent Intent, shall respectively be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds, and in default of Payment to Imprisonment, with or without Hard Labour, for a Period not exceeding Three Calendar Months; and such Person so found on board may be taken before any Justice of the Peace, without Warrant, and such Justice may summarily hear the Case, and on Proof of the Offence convict such Offender as aforesaid.

All Passenger Ships to be surveyed before clearing out.

XIX. No "Passenger Ship" shall clear out or proceed to Sea unless she shall have been surveyed, under the Direction of the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance, but at the Expense of the Owner or Charterer thereof, by Two or more competent Surveyors to be appointed by the said Emigration Commissioners for each Port at which there may be an Emigration Officer, and for other Ports by the Commissioners of Customs, nor unless it shall be reported by such Surveyors that such "Passenger Ship" is in their Opinion seaworthy, and fit for her intended Voyage. The Survey shall be made before any Part of the Cargo is taken on board, except so much as may be necessary for ballasting the Ship; and such Portion of Cargo if laden on board shall be shifted, if required by the Emigration Officer or Surveyors, so as to expose to view successively every Part of the Frame of the Ship. In case of Non-compliance with any of the Requirements of this Section, the Owner, Charterer, or Master of the Ship, or any of them, shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding One hundred Pounds nor less than Five Pounds Sterling: Provided always, that in case any "Passenger Ship" shall be reported by any such Surveyors not to be seaworthy, or not fit for her said intended Voyage, the Owner or Charterer, if he shall think fit, may require, by Writing under his Hand, the Emigration Officer, or in his Absence the Chief Officer of Customs, to appoint Three other competent Surveyors, of whom Two at least shall be Shipwrights, to survey the said Ship, at the Expense of the said Owner or Charterer; and the said Officer shall thereupon appoint such Surveyors, who shall survey the said Ship, and if they shall, by an unanimous Report under their Hands (but not otherwise), declare the said Ship to be seaworthy, and fit for her intended Voyage, the said Ship shall then, for the Purposes of this Act, be deemed seaworthy for such Voyage.

Penalty on Noncompliance.

Power to Owners to appeal against Surveyors Report of Ships not being seaworthy.

As to the Construction of Beams and Decks.

XX. In every "Passenger Ship" the Beams supporting the "Passenger Decks" shall form Part of the permanent Structure of the Ship: They shall be of adequate Strength, in the Judgment of the Emigration Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance, and shall be firmly secured to the Ship to his Satisfaction. The "Passenger Decks" shall be at least One Inch and a Half in Thickness, and shall be laid and firmly fastened upon the Beams continuously from Side to Side of the Compartment in which the Passengers are berthed. The Height between that Part of any Deck on which Passengers are carried and the Deck immediately above it shall not be less than Six Feet. In case of Noncompliance with any of the Requirements of this Section, the Owner, Charterer, or Master of the Ship, or any of them, shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds nor less than Five Pounds Sterling. Arrangements for the Ship.

XXI. There shall not be more than Two Tiers of Berths on any One Deck in any "Passenger Ship," and the Interval between the Floor of the Berths and the Deck immediately beneath them shall not be less than Six Inches, nor the Interval between each Tier of Berths and between the uppermost Tier and the Deck above it less than Two Feet Six Inches: The Berths shall be securely constructed, and of Dimensions not less than Six Feet in Length and Eighteen Inches in Width for each Statute Adult, and shall be sufficient in Number for the proper Accommodation of all the Passengers contained in the Lists of Passengers herein-before required to be delivered by the Master of the Ship. No Part of any Berth shall be placed within Nine Inches of any Watercloset erected in the Between-Decks. In case of Noncompliance with any of the Requirements of this Section, the Owner, Charterer, or Master of the Ship, or any of them, shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds nor less than Five Pounds Sterling. Arrangement and Size of Berths.

XXII. In every "Passenger Ship" all the Male Passengers of the Age of Fourteen Years and upwards who shall not occupy Berths with their Wives shall, to the Satisfaction of the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance, be berthed in the fore Part of the Ship, in a Compartment divided off from the Space appropriated to the other Passengers by a substantial and well-secured Bulk-head, without Opening into, or Communication with, any adjoining Passenger Berth, or in separate Rooms if the Ship be fitted with enclosed Berths: Not more than One Passenger, unless Husband and Wife, or Females or Children under Twelve Years of Age, shall be placed in or occupy the same Berth. In case of Noncompliance with any of the Requirements of this Section, the Owner, Charterer, or Master of the Ship, or any of them, shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds nor less than Five Pounds Sterling. Single Men to be berthed in a separate Compartment. As to Numbers and Sexes in One Berth. Penalty.

XXIII. No Berths in a "Passenger Ship" occupied by Passengers during the Voyage shall be taken down until Forty-eight Hours after the Arrival of such Ship at the Port of final Discharge, unless all the Passengers shall have voluntarily quitted the Ship before the Expiration of that Time. In case of Noncompliance with any of the Requirements of this Section, the Master of such Ship shall be liable for each Offence to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds nor less than Five Pounds Sterling. Berths not to be removed till Passengers landed.

XXIV. In every "Passenger Ship" there shall be a sufficient Space properly divided off to the Satisfaction of the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance, to be used exclusively as a Hospital or Hospitals for the Passengers: This Space shall be under the Poop, or in the Round House, or in any Deck House which shall be properly built and secured to the Satisfaction of such Emigration Officer, or on the Upper Passenger Deck, and not elsewhere, and shall in no Case be less than Eighteen clear Superficial Feet for every Fifty Passengers which the Ship shall carry. Such Hospitals shall be fitted with Bed-places, and supplied with proper Beds, Bedding, and Utensils, to the Satisfaction of the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance, and throughout the Voyage kept so fitted and supplied. In case of Noncompliance with any of the Requirements of this Section, the Owner, Charterer, or Master of the Ship shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds nor less than Five Pounds Sterling. Space to be allotted as an Hospital. Penalty.

XXV. No "Passenger Ship" shall clear out or proceed to Sea unless fitted, to the Satisfaction of the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance, with at least Two Privies, and with Two additional Privies on Deck, for every One hundred Passengers on board, and in Ships carrying as many as Fifty Female Passengers, with at least Two Waterclosets under the Poop, or elsewhere on the Upper Deck, to the Satisfaction of such Emigration Officer, for the exclusive Use of the Women and young Children; all of which Privies and Waterclosets shall be firmly constructed and maintained in a serviceable and cleanly Condition throughout the Voyage, and shall not be taken down until the Expiration of Forty-eight Hours after the Arrival of the Ship at the Port of final Discharge, unless all the Passengers sooner quit the Ship; provided that such Privies shall be placed in equal Numbers on each Side of the Ship, and need not in any Case exceed Twelve in Number. In case of Noncompliance with any of the Requirements of this Section, the Master shall be liable to a Penalty for each Offence not exceeding Fifty Pounds nor less than Five Pounds Sterling. Regulation as to Construction of Privies.

XXVI. No "Passenger Ship" shall clear out or proceed to Sea without such Provision for affording Light and Air to the Passenger Decks as the Circumstances of the Case may, in the Judgment of the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance, require; nor if there are as many as One hundred Passengers on board, without having an adequate and proper ventilating Apparatus, to be approved by such Emigration Officer and fitted to his Satisfaction; the Passengers shall, moreover, have the free and unimpeded Use of the whole of each Hatchway situated over the Space appropriated to their Use, and over As to Light and Ventilation.

Arrangements for the Ship.

over each such Hatchway there shall be erected such a Boobyhatch or other substantial Covering as shall, in the Opinion of such Emigration Officer, afford the greatest Amount of Light and Air, and of Protection from Wet, as the Case will admit. In case of Noncompliance with any of the Requirements of this Section, the Owner, Charterer, or Master of the Ship, or any of them, shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds nor less than Twenty Pounds.

Penalty on Noncompliance.

Regulations as to the carrying of Boats;

XXVII. Every "Passenger Ship" shall carry throughout the Voyage a Number of Boats according to the following Scale; (that is to say,)

Two Boats for every Ship of less than Two hundred Tons:
Three Boats for every Ship of Two hundred and less than Four hundred Tons:
Four Boats for every Ship of Four hundred and less than Six hundred Tons:
Five Boats for every Ship of Six hundred and less than Ten hundred Tons:
Six Boats for every Ship of Ten hundred and less than Fifteen hundred Tons:
Seven Boats for every Ship of Fifteen hundred Tons and upwards: Provided that no "Passenger Ship" shall be required to carry a greater Number of Boats than are sufficient in the Judgment of the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance to carry all the Persons on board of such Ship.

of Life Boats;

One of such Boats shall in all Cases be a Long Boat, and One shall be a properly fitted Life Boat, which shall be carried in such a Manner as to be, in the Opinion of the Emigration Officer, most available for immediate Service: Each of such Boats shall be of a suitable Size and Description, to be approved by the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance, and shall be seaworthy, and properly supplied with all Requisites, and kept clear at all Times for immediate Use at Sea: There shall likewise be on board each "Passenger Ship" if proceeding to any Place to the Southward of the Equator at least Two Chronometers, and if to any Place to the Northward of the Equator at least One Chronometer, and on board of all "Passenger Ships" at least Three Steering and One Azimuth Compass, Four properly fitted Life Buoys, kept ready at all Times for immediate Use, and some adequate Means, to be approved by the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance, of making Signals by Night and in Fogs; also a Fire Engine, in proper working Order, and of such Description and Power and either with or without such other Apparatus for extinguishing Fire as such Officer may approve; and not less than Three Bower Anchors of such Weight, and with Cables of such Length, Size, and Material, as in the Judgment of such Emigration Officer shall be sufficient for the Size of the Ship. In case of Noncompliance with any of the Requirements of this Section, the Master of the Ship shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds nor less than Five Pounds Sterling.

and of Life Buoys, Anchors, and Fire Engines, &c.

Regulations as to carrying an efficient Crew.

XXVIII. Every "Passenger Ship" shall be manned with an efficient Crew for her intended Voyage, to the Satisfaction of the Emigration Officer from whom a Clearance of such Ship may be demanded, and the Strength of the Crew shall not be diminished, nor any of the Men changed when once passed by such Emigration Officer, without his Consent in Writing, or that of the Shipping Master of the Port of Clearance, as required by the Laws then in force regulating the shipping of Seamen on board Merchant Vessels. Where the Consent of the Shipping Master is obtained, it shall, within Twenty-four Hours thereafter, be lodged with such Emigration Officer. In case of Noncompliance with any of the Requirements of this Section, the Master of the Ship shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds: Provided, that if the Emigration Officer shall consider the Crew inefficient, and the Owner or Charterer of the Ship shall thereupon appeal in Writing to the said Emigration Commissioners, such Commissioners shall, at the Expense of the Appellant, appoint Two other Emigration Officers or Two competent Persons to examine into the Matter, and the unanimous Opinion of the Persons so appointed, expressed under their Hands, shall be conclusive on the Point.

Certain Articles prohibited as Cargo and Ballast.

Stowage of Cargo, Stores, and Luggage to be approved by Emigration Officer.

XXIX. No "Passenger Ship" shall clear out or proceed to Sea if there shall be on board as Cargo, Horses, Cattle, Gunpowder, Vitriol, Lucifer Matches, Guano, or Green Hides, nor if there shall be on board any other Article or Number of Articles, whether as Cargo or Ballast, which by reason of the Nature or Quantity or Mode of Stowage thereof shall, either singly or collectively, be deemed by the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance likely to endanger the Health or Lives of the Passengers or the Safety of the Ship: No Part of the Cargo, or of the Passengers Luggage, or of the Provisions, Water, or Stores, whether for the Use of the Passengers or of the Crew, shall be carried on the Upper Deck or on the "Passenger Decks," unless in the Opinion of such Emigration Officer it shall be so placed as not to impede Light or Ventilation, nor interfere with the Comfort of the Passengers; nor unless the same be stowed and secured to the Satisfaction of such Emigration Officer, and the Space occupied thereby, or rendered, in the Opinion of such Officer, unavailable for the Accommodation of the Passengers, shall (unless occupied by Passengers Luggage) be deducted in calculating the Space by which, under the Provisions of this Act, the Number of Passengers is regulated. In case of Noncompliance with any of the Requirements of this Section, the Owner, Charterer, or Master, or any of them, shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Three hundred Pounds nor less than Five Pounds Sterling.

For the like Purposes, the said Emigration Commissioners, acting by and under the Authority of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Time to Time, by any Notice in Writing issued under the Hands of any Two of such Commissioners, and published in the London Gazette, may nevertheless declare what shall be deemed to be the Length of Voyage from the United Kingdom to any of the said herein-before mentioned Places, or to any other Port or Place whatsoever, and may fix such different Lengths of Voyage as they may think reasonable for such different Descriptions of Vessels as aforesaid.

Before Clearance, Provisions and Water to be surveyed.

XXXI. Before any "Passenger Ship" shall be cleared out, the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance shall survey or cause to be surveyed by some competent Person the Provisions and Water by this Act required to be placed on board for the Consumption of the Passengers, and shall satisfy himself that the same are of a good and wholesome Quality, and in a sweet and good Condition, and are in Quantities sufficient to secure throughout the Voyage the Issues herein-after prescribed: In addition to the Allowance of pure Water for the Use of each Passenger there shall be shipped for cooking Purposes an additional Supply of pure Water after the Rate of at least Ten Gallons for every Day of the prescribed Length of Voyage for every One hundred Statute Adults on board; and also for the Use of the Crew and all other Persons on board an ample Supply of wholesome Provisions and pure Water, which shall not be inferior in Quality to the Supply of the same Articles provided for the Consumption of the Passengers: All such Water, Provisions, and Stores shall be provided and properly stowed away in accordance with the Requirements of the Twenty-ninth Section of this Act, by and at the Expense of the Owner, Charterer, or Master of the Ship; and if a Clearance be obtained for any "Passenger Ship" which shall not be then stored with the requisite Quantities of such Water, Provisions, and Stores as are required by this Act, the Owner, Charterer, or Master of such Ship, or any of them, shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Three hundred Pounds Sterling.

Provisions for the Crew not to be inferior to those for the Passengers. s. 29.

Penalty.

Power to Emigration Officer to reject and mark bad Provisions, and direct the same to be landed, &c.

XXXII. If such Emigration Officer shall consider that any of the Provisions or Stores or Water are not of a good and wholesome Quality, or are not in a sweet and good Condition, it shall be lawful for him to reject and mark the same, or the Packages or Vessels in which they are contained, and to direct the same to be landed or emptied; and if such rejected Provisions or Stores or Water shall not thereupon be forthwith landed or emptied, or if, after being landed, the same or any Part thereof shall be reshipped in such Ship, the Owner, Charterer, or Master thereof, or any of them, or if reshipped in any other "Passenger Ship," the Person causing the same to be reshipped, shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding One hundred Pounds Sterling.

Arrangements for the Ship.

Water Tanks or Casks to be approved by Emigration Officer.

XXXIII. In every "Passenger Ship" the Water to be laden on board, as herein-before required, shall be carried in Tanks or in Casks to be approved by the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance. When Casks are used, they shall be sweet and tight, of sufficient Strength, and if of Wood, properly charred inside, and shall not be capable severally of containing more than Three hundred Gallons each: The Staves of the Water Casks shall not be made of Fir, Pine, or soft Wood. In case of Noncompliance with any of the Requirements of this Section, the Owner, Charterer, or Master of such Ship, or any of them, shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds.

Provision for touching at intermediate Ports to fill up Water. s. 63.

XXXIV. If any "Passenger Ship" shall be intended to call at any intermediate Port or Place during the Voyage, for the Purpose of taking in Water, and if an Engagement to that Effect shall be inserted in the Bond mentioned in the Sixty-third Section of this Act, then it shall be sufficient to place on board at the Port of Clearance such Supply of Water as may be requisite, according to the Rate herein-after mentioned, for the Voyage of the said Ship to such intermediate Port or Place, subject to the following Conditions; (that is to say,)

First, That the Emigration Officer signify his Approval in Writing of the Arrangement, to be carried amongst the Papers of the Ship, and exhibited to the Chief Officer of Customs, or to Her Majesty's Consular Officer, as the Case may be, at such intermediate Port or Place, and to be delivered to the Chief Officer of Customs, or to Her Majesty's Consular Officer, as the Case may be, on the Arrival of the said Ship at the final Port or Place of Discharge:

Secondly, That if the Length of either Portion of the Voyage, whether to such intermediate Port or Place, or from such intermediate Port or Place to the final Port or Place of Discharge, be not prescribed in or under the Provisions of this Act, the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance shall in every such Case declare the same in Writing, to be carried amongst the Papers of the Ship:

Thirdly, That the Ship shall have on board at the Time a Clearance is demanded Tanks or Water Casks, of the Description herein-before mentioned, sufficient for stowing the Quantity of Water required for the longest of such Portions of the Voyage as aforesaid.

Dietary Scales of Provisions.

XXXV. The Master of every "Passenger Ship" shall, during the Voyage, including the Time of Detention at any Place before the Termination thereof, issue to each Passenger, or where the Passengers are divided into Messes, to the Head Man for the Time being of each Mess on behalf and for the Use of all the Members thereof, an Allowance of pure Water and sweet and wholesome Provisions, of good Quality, according to the following Dietary Scale; (that is to say,) if the Length of the Voyage, computed as herein-before mentioned, shall not exceed Eighty-four Days for Ships propelled by Sails only, or Fifty Days for Ships propelled by Steam, or Steam in aid of Sails, then according to the Dietary Scale marked "A.;" but if the Length of the Voyage, computed as aforesaid, shall exceed Eighty-four Days for Ships propelled by Sails only, or Fifty Days for Ships propelled by Steam, or Steam in aid of Sails, then according to the Dietary Scale marked "B."

WATER.

Three Quarts of Water daily to each Statute Adult, exclusive of the Quantity herein-before specified as necessary for cooking the Articles herein-after required to be issued in a cooked State.

SUBSTITUTIONS.

Arrangements for the Ship.

Substitutions at the following Rates may, at the Option of the Master of any "Passenger Ship," be made in the above Dietary Scales, that is to say:—

1 lb. of preserved Meat	- for	1 lb. of Salt Pork or Beef.
1 lb. of Flour or of Bread or Biscuit, or ½ lb. of Beef or of Pork	- for	1¼ lb. of Oatmeal or 1 lb. of Rice or 1 lb. of Peas.
1 lb. of Rice	- for	1¼ lb. of Oatmeal, or vice versâ.
¼ lb. of preserved Potatoes	- for	1 lb. of Potatoes.
10 oz. of Currants	- for	8 oz. of Raisins.
3½ oz. of Cocoa or of Coffee, roasted and ground	- for	2 oz. of Tea.
¾ lb. of Treacle	- for	½ lb. of Sugar.
1 gill of mixed Pickles	- for	1 gill of Vinegar.

Provided, that the substituted Articles be set forth in the Contract Tickets of the Passengers. In case of Noncompliance with any of the Requirements of this Section, the Master of the Ship shall be liable for each Offence to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds Sterling. Penalty on Noncompliance.

XXXVI. The Messes into which the Passengers in any Passenger Ship may be divided shall not consist of more than Ten Statute Adults in each Mess, and Members of the same Family, whereof One at least is a Male Adult, shall be allowed to form a separate Mess. The Provisions according to the above Scale shall be issued, such of them as require to be cooked, in a properly cooked State, daily before Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, to the Head Person for the Time being of each Mess on behalf and for the Use of the Members thereof. The first of such Issues shall be made before Two o'Clock in the Afternoon of the Day of Embarkation to or for such Passengers as shall be then on board. In case of Noncompliance with any of the Requirements of this Section, the Master of the Ship shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds. Size of Messes. Provisions to be issued daily, and Articles which require cooking to be cooked.

XXXVII. The said Emigration Commissioners for the Time being, acting under the Authority of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, may from Time to Time, by any Notice for that Purpose, issued under the Hands of any Two of such Commissioners, and published in the London Gazette, authorize the Issue of Provisions in any "Passenger Ship" according to such other Dietary Scale (besides that herein-before prescribed) as shall in their Opinion contain in the whole an equivalent Amount of wholesome Nutriment; and after the Publication of such Notice it shall be lawful for the Master of any "Passenger Ship" to issue Provisions to his Passengers either according to the Scale by this Act prescribed, or according to the Scale authorized by the said Commissioners, whichever may have been set forth in the Contract Tickets of the Passengers: Provided always, that the said Commissioners acting under such Authority and by such Notice as aforesaid may revoke or alter any such Dietary Scale authorized by them, as Occasion may require. Power to Emigration Commissioners to authorize an alternative Dietary Scale. Power to Commissioners to alter Dietary Scale.

XXXVIII. Every "Passenger Ship" carrying as many as One hundred Passengers shall have on board a seafaring Person, who shall be rated in the Ship's Articles as Passengers Steward, and who shall be approved by the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance, and who shall be employed in messing and serving out the Provisions to the Passengers, and in assisting to maintain Cleanliness, Order, and good Discipline among the Passengers, and who shall not assist in any way in navigating or working the Ship. In case of Noncompliance with any of the Requirements of this Section, the Master of the Ship shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds nor less than Five Pounds Sterling. As to Passengers Stewards. Penalty on Noncompliance.

XXXIX. Every "Passenger Ship" carrying as many as One hundred Passengers shall also have on board a seafaring Man, or if carrying more than Three hundred "Statute Adults," Two seafaring Men, to be rated and approved as in the Case of Passengers Stewards, who shall be employed in cooking the Food of the Passengers: A convenient Place for cooking shall also be set apart on Deck; and a sufficient cooking Apparatus, properly covered in and arranged, shall be provided, to the Satisfaction of the said Emigration Officer, together with a proper Supply of Fuel adequate, in his Opinion, for the intended Voyage. In case of Noncompliance with any of the Requirements of this Section, the Master of the Ship shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds nor less than Five Pounds Sterling. As to Passenger Cooks and cooking Apparatus. Penalty on Noncompliance.

XL. In every Foreign "Passenger Ship" in which as many as One Half of the Passengers shall be British Subjects, unless the Master and Officers or not less than Three of them shall understand and speak intelligibly the English Language, there shall be carried, where the Number of Passengers does not exceed Two hundred and fifty, One Person, and where it exceeds Two hundred and fifty, Two Persons, who understand and speak intelligibly the Language spoken by the Master and Crew and also the English Language, and such Persons shall act as Interpreters, and be employed exclusively in Attendance on the Passengers, and not in the working of the Ship; and no such Ship shall clear out or proceed to Sea without having such Interpreter or Interpreters on board; and the Master of any such Foreign Ship clearing out or proceeding to Sea without having such Interpreter or Interpreters on board as aforesaid shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds nor less than Five Pounds Sterling. In what Cases Interpreters to be carried. Penalty.

Arrangements for the Ship.

In what Cases a Medical Man must be carried.

XLI. Every "Passenger Ship" shall in the following Cases carry a duly qualified Medical Practitioner, who shall be rated on the Ship's Articles:

First, when the Duration of the intended Voyage, as herein-before computed, exceeds Eighty Days in the Case of Ships propelled by Sails, and Forty-five Days in the Case of Ships propelled by Steam, and the Number of Passengers on board exceeds Fifty:

Second, whenever the Number of Persons on board (including Cabin Passengers, Officers, and Crew,) exceeds Three hundred:

Penalty.

In case of Noncompliance with any of the Requirements of this Section, the Master shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding One hundred Pounds nor less than Twenty Pounds Sterling.

Qualification of Medical Man.

XLII. No Medical Practitioner shall be considered to be duly qualified for the Purposes of this Act unless authorized by Law to practise in some Part of Her Majesty's Dominions, or, in the Case of a Foreign Ship, in the Country to which such Ship may belong, as a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary, nor unless his Name shall have been notified to the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance, and shall not be objected to by him, nor unless he shall be provided with proper Surgical Instruments to the Satisfaction of such Officer: Provided nevertheless, that where the Majority of the Passengers in any "Passenger Ship," or as many as Three hundred, are Foreigners, any Medical Practitioner who may be approved by such Emigration Officer may be carried therein.

Penalty.

In case any Person shall proceed or attempt to proceed as Medical Practitioner in any "Passenger Ship" without being duly qualified as aforesaid, or contrary to any of the Requirements of this Section, such Person and all Persons aiding or abetting therein shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding One hundred Pounds nor less than Ten Pounds Sterling.

Medicines and Medical Comforts.

XLIII. The Owner or Charterer of every "Passenger Ship" shall provide for the Use of the Passengers a Supply of Medicines, Medical Comforts, Instruments, and other Things proper and necessary for Diseases and Accidents incident to Sea Voyages, and for the Medical Treatment of the Passengers during the Voyage, including an adequate Supply of disinfecting Fluid or Agent, together with printed or written Directions for the Use of the same respectively; and such Medicines, Medical Comforts, Instruments, and other Things shall, in the Judgment of the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance, be good in Quality, and sufficient in Quantity, for the probable Exigencies of the intended Voyage, and shall be properly packed and placed under the Charge of the Medical Practitioner, when there is one on board, to be used at his Discretion.

Penalty.

In case of Noncompliance with any of the Requirements of this Section, the Master of the Ship shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds, nor less than Five Pounds Sterling.

Medical Inspection of Passengers and Medicines, &c.

XLIV. No "Passenger Ship," except as herein-after provided, shall clear out or proceed to Sea until some Medical Practitioner, to be appointed by the Emigration Officer at the Port of Clearance, shall have inspected such Medicines, Medical Comforts, and other Articles as are required to be supplied by the last preceding Section, and also all the Passengers and Crew about to proceed in the Ship, and shall have certified to the said Emigration Officer that the said Ship contains a sufficient Supply of Medicines, Medical Comforts, disinfecting Fluid or Agent, Instruments, and other Things requisite for the Medical Treatment of the Passengers during the intended Voyage, nor until such Medical Practitioner shall have certified and the said Emigration Officer shall be satisfied that none of the Passengers or Crew appear, by reason of any bodily or mental Disease, unfit to proceed, or likely to endanger the Health or Safety of the other Persons about to proceed in such Vessel. Such Medical Inspection of the Passengers shall take place either on board the Vessel, or, at the Discretion of the said Emigration Officer, at such convenient Place on shore before Embarkation as he may appoint; and the Master, Owner, or Charterer of the Ship shall pay to such Emigration Officer a Sum at the Rate of Twenty Shillings for every Hundred Persons so examined: Provided also, that in case the Emigration Officer on any particular Occasion shall be unable to obtain the Attendance of a Medical Practitioner, it shall be lawful for the Master of any such Ship to clear out and proceed to Sea, on receiving from the said Emigration Officer written Permission for the Purpose.

Penalty.

In case any "Passenger Ship" shall clear out or proceed to Sea without having complied with all the Requirements of this Section, the Master of such Ship shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding One hundred Pounds, nor less than Five Pounds Sterling.

Relanding of Passengers on account of Sickness or for purifying Ships.

XLV. If the Emigration Officer at any Port shall be satisfied that any Person on board or about to proceed in any "Passenger Ship" is by reason of Sickness unfit to proceed, or is for that or for any other Reason likely to endanger the Health or Safety of the other Persons on board, the said Emigration Officer shall prohibit the Embarkation of such Person, or if embarked shall require him to be relanded; and if such Emigration Officer shall be satisfied that it is necessary, for the Purification of the Ship or otherwise, that all or any of the Passengers or Persons on board shall be relanded, the said Emigration Officer may require the Master of the Ship to reland all such Passengers or Persons, and the Master shall thereupon reland such Passengers or Persons, with so much of their Effects, and with such Members of their Families as cannot in the Judgment of such Emigration Officer be properly separated from them;

Penalty.

and in case of Noncompliance with any of the Requirements of this Section, the Master, Owner, or Charterer of the Ship shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Two hundred Pounds nor less than Ten Pounds; and any Passenger or Person embarking after such Prohibition, or refusing or neglecting to leave the Ship when so directed to be relanded, shall be liable to be summarily removed,

and

and to a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings for each Day which he shall remain on board after the giving of such Prohibition or Direction.

Passengers Rights.

As to Return of Passage Money to Passengers relanded on account of Sickness, &c.

XLVI. Any Passenger so relanded on account of the Sickness of himself or of any Member of his Family who may not be re-embarked and finally sail in such Ship, or any Emigration Officer on his Behalf, shall be entitled to recover, by summary Process, the whole of the Monies which may have been paid by or on account of such Passenger for his Passage, and that of the Members of his Family so relanded, from the Party to whom the same may have been paid, or from the Owner, Charterer, or Master of such Ship, or any of them, at the Option of such Passenger or Emigration Officer.

Subsistence Money to be paid to Passengers relanded. s. 45.

XLVII. The Master of any "Passenger Ship," from which the whole or any Part of the Passengers shall be relanded on account of any of the Reasons mentioned in Section XLV. shall pay to each Passenger so relanded (or if he shall be lodged and maintained in any Hulk or Establishment under the Superintendence of the said Emigration Commissioners, then to the Emigration Officer at the Port,) Subsistence Money at the Rate of One Shilling and Sixpence a Day for each Statute Adult until he shall be re-embarked or decline or neglect to proceed, or until his Passage Money, if recoverable under the Forty-sixth Section of this Act, be returned to him.

Return of Passage Money and Compensation to Passengers where Passages not provided for them according to Contract.

XLVIII. If any Person by whom or on whose Behalf any Contract shall have been made for a Passage in any Ship proceeding on any Voyage to which this Act extends, shall be at the Place of Embarkation before Six o'Clock in the Afternoon of the Day of Embarkation appointed in such Contract, and shall, if required, pay the stipulated Passage Money, or the unpaid Balance thereof, and if from any Cause whatever, other than his own Refusal, Neglect, or Default, or the Prohibition of an Emigration Officer, as herein-before mentioned, or the Requirements of any Order in Council, such Passenger shall not be received on board before that Hour, or if from any such Cause as aforesaid any Passenger who shall have been received on board shall not either obtain a Passage in such Ship to the Port at which he may have contracted to land, or, together with all the immediate Members of his Family who may be included in such Contract, obtain a Passage to the same Port in some other equally eligible Ship, to sail within Ten Days from the Expiration of the said Day of Embarkation, and in the meantime be paid Subsistence Money from the Time and at the Rate herein-after mentioned, such Passenger, or any Emigration Officer on his Behalf, shall be entitled to recover either from the Party to whom or on whose Account the same may have been paid, or (in case such Contract shall have been made with the Owner, Charterer, or Master of such Ship, or with any Person acting on behalf or by the Authority of any of them respectively,) from such Owner, Charterer, or Master of such Ship, or any of them, at the Option of such Passenger or Emigration Officer, all Monies which shall have been paid by or on account of such Passengers for such Passage, and also such further Sum, not exceeding Ten Pounds in respect of each such Passage, as shall, in the Opinion of the Justices of the Peace who shall adjudicate on the Complaint, be a reasonable Compensation for the Loss or Inconvenience occasioned to such Passenger by the Loss of such Passage.

Subsistence in case of Detention.

XLIX. If any Ship, whether a "Passenger Ship" or otherwise, shall not actually put to Sea, and proceed on her intended Voyage before Three o'Clock in the Afternoon of the Day next after the said Day of Embarkation, the Owner, Charterer, or Master of such Ship, or his or their Agent, or any of them, at the Option of such Passenger or Emigration Officer, shall pay to every Passenger entitled to a Passage (or if such Passenger shall be lodged and maintained in any Establishment under the Superintendence of the said Emigration Commissioners, then to the Emigration Officer at the Port of Embarkation,) Subsistence Money after the Rate of One Shilling and Sixpence for each Statute Adult in respect of each Day of Delay for the first Ten Days, and afterwards Three Shillings a Day for each Statute Adult, until the final Departure of such Ship on such Voyage, and the same may be recovered in manner herein-after mentioned; provided that if the Passengers be maintained on board in the same Manner as if the Voyage had commenced, no such Subsistence Money shall be payable for the first Two Days next after the said Day of Embarkation, nor if they shall be maintained shall such Subsistence Money be payable if the ship be unavoidably detained by Wind or Weather, or by any Cause not attributable in the Opinion of the Emigration Officer to the Act or Default of the Owner, Charterer, or Master.

Ships putting back to replenish Provisions, &c.

L. If any "Passenger Ship" shall, after Clearance, be detained in Port for more than Seven Days, or shall put into or touch at any Port or Place in the United Kingdom, she shall not put to Sea again until there shall have been laden on board, at the Expense of the Owner, Charterer, or Master of such Ship, such further Supply of pure Water, wholesome Provisions of the requisite Kinds and Qualities, and Medical Comforts and Stores, as may be necessary to make up the full Quantities of those Articles herein-before required to be laden on board for the intended Voyage, nor until any Damage she may have sustained shall have been effectually repaired, nor until the Master of the said Ship shall have obtained from the Emigration Officer or his Assistant, or, where there is no such Officer, or in his Absence, from the Officer of Customs at such Port or Place, a Certificate to the same Effect as the Certificate herein-before required to enable the Ship to be cleared out; and in case of any Default herein the said Master shall be liable, on Conviction, as herein-after mentioned, to a Penalty not exceeding One hundred Pounds nor less than Fifty Pounds Sterling: And if the Master of any "Passenger Ship" so putting into or touching at any Port or Place as aforesaid shall not within Twelve Hours thereafter report, in Writing, his Arrival, and the Cause of his putting back, and the Condition of

of his Ship, and of her Stores and Provisions, to the Emigration Officer, or, as the Case may be, to the Officer of Customs at the Port, and shall not produce to such Officer the Official or "Master's List" of Passengers, such Master shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds nor less than Two Pounds Sterling.

Penalty for Neglect.

In case of Wreck or Damage Passengers to be provided with a Passage by some other Vessel, and maintained in the meantime.

LI. If any "Passenger Ship" shall put into any Port or Place in the United Kingdom in a damaged State, and the Master, Charterer, or Owner shall not give a written Undertaking that the said Ship shall be made sound and seaworthy, and shall within Six Weeks from the Day of her so putting into such Port or Place again proceed with her Passengers on her intended Voyage, and if the said Ship shall not accordingly be made seaworthy and proceed on her intended Voyage within that Period, or if any such Ship shall after the Commencement of her Voyage be wrecked, sunk, or otherwise destroyed, or shall from any Cause whatsoever not land her Passengers at the Place where they may have respectively contracted to land, the Owner, Charterer, or Master thereof shall provide the Passengers with a Passage in some other eligible Ship to sail within Six Weeks to the Port or Place at which they respectively may have originally contracted to land, and shall in the meantime, if the Passengers be not lodged and maintained on board in the same Manner as if the Ship were at Sea, pay to such Passengers (or if such Passengers shall be lodged or maintained in any Hulk or Establishment under the Superintendence of the said Emigration Commissioners, then to the Emigration Officer at such Port or Place,) Subsistence Money after the Rate of One Shilling and Sixpence Sterling for each Statute Adult in respect of each Day of Delay until such Passengers are duly forwarded to their Destination; and if Default shall be made in any of the Requirements of this Section such Passengers respectively, or any Emigration Officer on their Behalf, shall be entitled to recover, by summary Process, as herein-after mentioned, all Monies which shall have been paid by or on account of such Passengers, or any of them, for such Passage, from the Party to whom or on whose Account the same may have been paid, or from the Owner, Charterer, or Master of such Ship, or any of them, at the Option of such Passenger or Emigration Officer: Provided that the said Emigration Officer may, if he shall think it necessary, direct that the Passengers shall be removed from such "Passenger Ship" at the Expense of the Master thereof; and if after such Direction any Passenger shall refuse to leave such Ship, he shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings or to Imprisonment not exceeding One Calendar Month.

In default, Passage Money to be returned.

Power to remove Passengers from Ship; Penalty on Passengers refusing.

Secretary of State, &c. may pay Expenses of taking off Passengers at Sea.

LII. If the Passengers or Cabin Passengers of any "Passenger Ship" shall be taken off from any such "Passenger Ship" or shall be picked up at Sea from any Boat, Raft, or otherwise, it shall be lawful, if the Port or Place to which they shall be conveyed shall be in the United Kingdom, for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or if in any of Her Majesty's Colonial Possessions, for the Governor of such Colony, or for any Person authorized by him for the Purpose, or if in any Foreign Country, for Her Majesty's Consular Officer, at such Port or Place therein, to defray all or any Part of the Expenses thereby incurred.

Governors or Consuls may send on Passengers if the Master of the Ship fail to do so.

LIII. If any Passenger or Cabin Passenger of any "Passenger Ship" shall, without any Neglect or Default of his own, find himself within any Colonial or Foreign Port or Place other than that at which he may have contracted to land, it shall be lawful for the Governor of such Colony, or for any Person authorized by him for the Purpose, or for Her Majesty's Consular Officer at such Foreign Port or Place, as the Case may be, to forward such Passenger to his intended Destination, unless the Master of such Ship shall, within Forty-eight Hours of the Arrival of such Passenger, give to the Governor or Consular Officer, as the Case may be, a written Undertaking to forward or carry on within Six Weeks thereafter such Passenger or Cabin Passenger to his original Destination, and unless such Master shall accordingly forward or carry him on within that Period.

Expenses incurred under the Two preceding Sections to be a Crown Debt.

LIV. All Expenses incurred under the last Two preceding Sections or either of them, by or by the Authority of such Secretary of State, Governor, Consular Officer, as aforesaid, including the Cost of maintaining the Passengers until forwarded to their Destination, and of all necessary Bedding, Provisions, and Stores, shall become a Debt to Her Majesty and Her Successors from the Owner, Charterer, and Master of such Ship, and shall be recoverable from them, or from any One or more of them, at the Suit and for the Use of Her Majesty, in like Manner as in the Case of other Crown Debts; and a Certificate purporting to be under the Hand of any such Secretary of State, Governor, or Consular Officer, (as the Case may be,) stating the total Amount of such Expenses, shall, in any Suit or other Proceeding for the Recovery of such Debt, be received in Evidence without Proof of the Handwriting or of the official Character of such Secretary of State, Governor, or Consular Officer, and shall be deemed sufficient Evidence of the Amount of such Expenses, and that the same were duly incurred: Provided nevertheless, that in no Case shall any larger Sum be recovered on account of such Expenses than a Sum equal to twice the total Amount of Passage Money received by the Owner, Charterer, or Master of such Passenger Ship, or any of them, from or on account of the whole Number of Passengers and Cabin Passengers who may have embarked in such Ship; which total Amount of Passage Money shall be proved by the Defendant, if he will have the Advantage of this Limitation of the Debt; but if any such Passengers are forwarded or conveyed to their intended Destination under the Provisions of the last preceding Section, they shall not be entitled to the Return of their Passage Money, or to any Compensation for Loss of Passage under the Provisions of this Act.

When Passengers not entitled to Return of Passage Money.

Insurance of Passage Money not void on account of Nature of Risk.

LV. No Policy of Assurance effected in respect of any Passages, or of any Passage or Compensation Monies, by any Person by this Act made liable, in the Events aforesaid, to provide such Passages or to pay such Monies, or in respect of any other Risk under this Act, shall be deemed to be invalid by reason of the Nature of the Risk or Interest sought to be covered by such Policy of Assurance.

Penalty on wrongfully landing Passengers.

LVI. If any Passenger in any Ship, whether a "Passenger Ship" or otherwise, shall be landed at any Port or Place other than the Port or Place at which he may have contracted to land, unless with his previous Consent, or unless such Landing shall be rendered necessary by Perils of the Sea, or other unavoidable Accident, the Master shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds nor less than Ten Pounds Sterling.

Passengers to be maintained for 48 Hours after Arrival.

Penalty.

LVII. Every Passenger in a "Passenger Ship" shall be entitled for at least Forty-eight Hours next after his Arrival at the End of his Voyage, to sleep in the Ship, and to be provided for and maintained on board thereof, in the same Manner as during the Voyage, unless within that Period the Ship shall quit such Port or Place in the further Prosecution of her Voyage. In case of Noncompliance with any of the Requirements of this Section, the Master shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds Sterling.

Passengers Right of Action preserved.

LVIII. Nothing herein contained shall take away or abridge any Right of Action which may accrue to any Passenger in any Ship, or to any other Person, in respect of the Breach or Nonperformance of any Contract made or entered into between or on behalf of any such Passenger or other Person, and the Master, Charterer, or Owner of any such Ship, or his or their Agent, or any Passage Broker.

Miscellaneous.

LIX. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Order in Council, to prescribe such Rules and Regulations as to Her Majesty may seem fit, for the following Purposes; (that is to say,)

Her Majesty may, by Orders in Council, prescribe Rules for Purposes herein described.

1st. For preserving Order, promoting Health, and securing Cleanliness and Ventilation on board of "Passenger Ships" proceeding from the United Kingdom to any Port or Place in Her Majesty's Possessions abroad.

2d. For permitting the Use on board of "Passenger Ships" of an Apparatus for distilling Water, and for defining in such Case the Quantity of fresh Water to be carried in Tanks or Casks for the Passengers.

3d. For prohibiting Emigration from any Port or Ports at any Time when Choleraic or any Epidemic Disease may be generally prevalent in the United Kingdom or any Part thereof, or for reducing the Number of Passengers allowed to be carried in "Passenger Ships" generally, or from any particular Ports under the Provisions of this Act.

4th. For requiring duly qualified Medical Practitioners to be carried in "Passenger Ships," in Cases where they would not be required to be carried under the Provisions of this Act.

Gazette and Copies printed by Queen's Printer to be Evidence, &c.

Any such Order in Council may from Time to Time in like Manner be altered, amended, and revoked, as Occasion may require. Any Copy of such Order in Council contained in the London Gazette, or purporting to be printed by the Queen's Printer, shall throughout Her Majesty's Dominions be received in all legal Proceedings as good and sufficient Evidence of the making and Contents of any such Order in Council.

Surgeon or Master to exact Obedience to Rules and Regulations.

Penalty on Refusal.

LX. In every such "Passenger Ship" the Medical Practitioner on board, aided by the Master thereof, or, in the Absence of such Medical Practitioner, the Master of such Ship, is hereby empowered to exact Obedience to all Rules and Regulations which may be prescribed by any such Order in Council to be observed on board Passenger Ships as aforesaid; and any Person on board who shall neglect or refuse to obey any such Rule or Regulation, or who shall obstruct the Medical Practitioner or Master of such Ship in the Execution of any Duty imposed upon him by any such Rule or Regulation, or who shall offend against any of the Provisions of this Act, or who shall be guilty of riotous or insubordinate Conduct, shall be liable for each Offence to a Penalty not exceeding Two Pounds Sterling, and, in addition thereto, to be confined in the Common Gaol for any Period not exceeding One Month, at the Discretion of the Justices who shall adjudicate on the Complaint.

Emigration Commissioners to prepare an Abstract of Act and Orders in Council.

Such Abstract to be posted up in each Ship.

Penalty for Neglect; and for defacing Abstract.

LXI. The said Emigration Commissioners shall from Time to Time prepare such Abstracts as they may think proper of the whole or any Part of this Act, and of any such Order in Council as aforesaid; and Four Copies of such Abstracts, together with a Copy of this Act, shall, on Demand, be supplied by the Principal Officer of Customs at the Port of Clearance to the Master of every "Passenger Ship" proceeding from the United Kingdom to any Port or Place in Her Majesty's Possessions abroad; and such Master shall, on Request made to him, produce a Copy of this Act to any Passenger on board, for his Perusal, and, further, shall post, previous to the Embarkation of the Passengers, and shall keep posted so long as any Passenger shall be entitled to remain in the Ship, in at least Two conspicuous Places between the Decks on which Passengers may be carried, Copies of such Abstracts; and such Master shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings Sterling for every Day during any Part of which by his Act or Default such Abstracts shall fail to be so posted; and any Person displacing or defacing such Abstracts so posted shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings Sterling.

Sale of Spirits prohibited.

Penalty.

LXII. If in any "Passenger Ship" any Person shall during the Voyage, directly or indirectly, sell or cause to be sold any Spirits or Strong Waters to any Passenger, he shall be liable for every such Offence to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds nor less than Five Pounds Sterling.

LXIII. Before

Miscellaneous.

Bond to be given by Masters of British and Foreign Passenger Ships.

LXIII. Before any "Passenger Ship" shall clear out or proceed to Sea, the Master, together with the Owner or Charterer of the Ship, or, in the event of the Absence of such Owner or Charterer, or if the Master be the Owner or Charterer, One other good and sufficient Person, to be approved by the Chief Officer of Customs at the Port of Clearance, shall enter into a joint and several Bond, in the sum of Two thousand Pounds, to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, according to the Form contained in Schedule (C.) hereto annexed. Such Bond shall not be liable to Stamp Duty, and shall be executed in Duplicate.

Counterpart of Bond to be certified, and sent to the Colony to which Ship bound, and to be received in Evidence without further Proof of Execution.

LXIV. It shall be the Duty of the Chief Officer of Customs at the Port of Clearance of any "Passenger Ship" bound to any of Her Majesty's Possessions abroad, to certify on One Part of such Bond that it has been duly executed by the said Master of such Ship and the other Obligor, and to forward the same by Post to the Colonial Secretary of the Colony to which such "Passenger Ship" may be bound; and such Certificate shall, in any Colonial Court of Judicature in which the Bond may be put in suit, be deemed conclusive Evidence of the due Execution of the Bond by the said Master and the other Obligor; and it shall not be necessary to prove the Handwriting of the Officer of Customs who may have signed such Certificate, nor that he was at the Time of signing it Chief Officer of Customs at the Port of Clearance; provided that no such Bond shall be put in suit in any of Her Majesty's Possessions abroad after the Expiration of Three Calendar Months next after the Arrival therein of the said Ship, nor in the United Kingdom after the Expiration of Twelve Calendar Months next after the Return of the said Ship and of the said Master to the United Kingdom.

Owner responsible in respect of Default if no Agreement to the contrary.

LXV. In the Absence of any Agreement to the contrary, the Owner shall be the Party ultimately responsible, as between himself and the other Persons hereby made liable in respect of any Default in complying with the Requirements of this Act; and that if any such last-mentioned Person shall pay any Monies hereby made payable to or on behalf of any such Passengers as aforesaid, the Person so paying the same shall be entitled, in the Absence of any such Agreement as aforesaid, to sue for and recover from the Owner the Amount so paid, together with Costs of Suit.

Passage Brokers.

No Person to act as a Passage Broker without a Licence.

LXVI. No Person whatever shall directly or indirectly act as a Passage Broker in respect of Passages from the United Kingdom to any Place out of Europe, and not being within the Mediterranean Sea, or shall sell or let, or agree to sell or let, or be in anywise concerned in the Sale or Letting of Passages in any Ship, whether a "Passenger Ship" or otherwise, proceeding from the United Kingdom to any such Place as aforesaid, unless such Person, with Two good and sufficient Sureties to be approved by the Emigration Officer at the Port nearest to the Place of Business of such Person, shall have previously entered into a joint and several Bond, in the Sum of One thousand Pounds to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, according to the Form contained in Schedule (D.) hereto annexed, which Bond shall be renewed on each Occasion of obtaining such Licence as herein-after mentioned, and shall be in Duplicate, without Stamps, and One Part thereof shall be deposited at the Office in London of the said Emigration Commissioners, and the other Part thereof with the Emigration Officer at the Port nearest to the Place of Business of such Person; nor unless such Person shall have obtained a Licence, as herein-after mentioned, to let or sell Passages, nor unless such Licence shall then be in force; and if any Person shall offend in any Particular against this Enactment, every Person so offending shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds nor less than Twenty Pounds, to be sued for and recovered as herein-after mentioned: Provided, that such Bond shall not be required of any Person who shall be One of the Sworn Brokers of the City of London: Provided also, that there shall be excepted from the Operation of this Section the said Emigration Commissioners, and any Persons contracting with them, or acting under their Authority, and also any Person acting as the Agent of any Passage Broker in pursuance of an Appointment made in the Form prescribed by Schedule (I.) hereto annexed, signed by such Passage Broker, and countersigned by such Emigration Officer as aforesaid: Provided further, that the Acts and Defaults of any Person acting under the Authority or as Agent of any Passage Broker shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be deemed to be also the Acts and Defaults of such Passage Broker: Provided also, that nothing herein-before contained shall be held or construed to prevent the said Emigration Officer from accepting the Bond of a Guarantee Society, such Bond and such Guarantee Society as shall have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in lieu of the Bond of Two good and sufficient Securities as aforesaid.

Emigration Commissioners and Agents exempted from this Section.

Passage Brokers to be responsible for their Agents.

How Passage Brokers Licences may be obtained.

LXXV. Any Person who shall act as an "Emigrant Runner" without having previously been licensed and registered as herein-after mentioned, or who while so acting shall omit to wear conspicuously on his Breast such Badge as herein-after mentioned, or who shall employ as an "Emigrant Runner" any Person not duly licensed and registered, shall for each Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds nor less than Twenty Shillings.

Mode of licensing and registering Runners.

LXXVI. The Justices of the Peace at any Petty Sessions held for the District or Place within which any Person wishing to act as an "Emigrant Runner" is to carry on his Business, may upon the Recommendation in Writing of an Emigration Officer or of the Chief Constable or other Head Officer of Police of such District or Place (but not otherwise) grant, if they shall think fit, to such Person wishing to act as Runner a Licence for that Purpose according to the Form in Schedule (M.) hereto annexed, and such Runner shall within Forty-eight Hours thereafter (under a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings for any Default) lodge such Licence with the nearest Emigration Officer, who shall register the Name and Abode of such Runner in a Book to be kept for that Purpose, and shall number each Name registered in arithmetical Progression, and shall supply to such Runner, on his paying a Sum not exceeding Seven Shillings for the same, a Badge of such Form and Description as shall be approved by the said Emigration Commissioners.

Emigrant Runner's Licence to be renewed annually.

LXXVII. Every such "Emigrant Runner's" Licence shall continue in force until the Thirty-first Day of December in the Year in which it shall be granted, unless sooner revoked by any Justice of the Peace, for any Offence against this Act or for any other Misconduct committed by the Holder of such Licence. In case of any renewed Licence it shall be sufficient for the Emigration Officer to note the Fact, and the Date of the Renewal, in his Registry Book against the original Entry therein of the Name of the Runner holding such renewed Licence.

Penalty on Runner for certain Acts of Misconduct.

LXXVIII. If any "Emigrant Runner" shall refuse or fail to produce, on Demand, his Badge for Inspection, or to permit any Person to take the Number thereof, or if he shall fail within Forty-eight Hours to give to the Emigration Officer of the Port or Place within which he is licensed to act, Notice in Writing of any Change in his Place of Abode, in order that his new Abode may be registered, or of the Loss of his Badge, or if he shall mutilate or deface his Badge, or wear the same while unlicensed, or wear any other than the one delivered to him by such Emigration Officer as aforesaid, or permit any other Person to use his Badge, he shall for each such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Forty Shillings and to the Forfeiture of his Licence, if the convicting Justices or Magistrate shall so determine; and any Person retaining or using any "Emigrant Runner's" Badge not issued to him under the Provisions of this Act, or counterfeiting or forging any such Badge, shall for each such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

Penalty for using Badges not lawfully issued.

How fresh Badges may be obtained if old ones lost, &c.

LXXIX. Such Emigration Officer as last aforesaid may, if he thinks fit, on Payment to him of the Sum of Five Shillings, deliver a new Badge to any licensed "Emigrant Runner" who shall satisfy such Officer that he has lost his original Badge, or who shall deliver up the same in a mutilated or defaced State.

Runners not entitled to Commission from any Passage Broker unless acting with his Authority, &c.

LXXX. No "Emigrant Runner" shall be entitled to recover from any Passage Broker any Fee, Commission, or Reward for or in consideration of any Service connected with Emigration, unless he shall be acting under the written Authority of such Passage Broker, nor, under a Penalty for each Offence not exceeding Five Pounds, shall take or demand from any Person about to emigrate any Fee or Reward for the procuring of his Passage, or in any way relating thereto.

List of Runners to be exhibited by Brokers and sent to Emigration Officers.

LXXXI. Every Passage Broker shall exhibit and keep constantly exhibited in some conspicuous Place in his Office or Place of Business a correct List, in plain and legible Characters, containing the Names and Addresses in full of every Person for the Time being holding such Authority to act as his Agent or as an Emigrant Runner for him as aforesaid, and shall on or before the Fifth Day, or if that Day be a Sunday, on or before the Fourth Day, in every Month, transmit a true Copy of such List, duly signed by him, to the Emigration Officer stationed nearest to the Place of Business of such licensed Passage Broker, and shall report to such Emigration Officer every Discharge or fresh Engagement of an Agent or of an "Emigrant Runner" within Twenty-four Hours of the same taking place. In case of Noncompliance with any of the Requirements of this Section, the Person so offending shall be liable for each Offence to Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds nor less than Two Pounds.

Trustees of Docks may pass Byelaws for regulating the Landing and Embarkation of intending Emigrants, and for licensing Emigrant Porters.

LXXXII. It shall be lawful for the Trustees or other Persons charged with the Management of any Docks or Basins in any Port within the United Kingdom from which "Passenger Ships" are despatched, to make, and from Time to Time to alter, amend, or repeal, such Rules and Byelaws as may be necessary for prescribing the Docks, Basins, or other Places at which Persons arriving by Sea at such Ports for the Purpose of emigrating, or actually emigrating therefrom, shall be landed and embarked, and the Mode of their Landing and Embarkation, and for licensing Porters to carry their Luggage, and otherwise to attend upon them, and for the Storing and safe Custody of their Luggage, and for admitting Persons to and excluding Persons from Access to such Docks or Basins, and for attaching a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for the Breach of any of such Rules or Byelaws, such Penalty to be sued for and recovered as other Penalties are by this Act directed to be recovered, except that instead of an Emigration Officer, such Trustees or other Persons as aforesaid shall sue for and recover the same: And it shall further be lawful for such Trustees, by their Officers or Servants, or by any Police Officer, to arrest and detain any Person charged with the Breach of any such Rule or Byelaw until brought before any Justice of the Peace, who is hereby authorized to adjudicate on the Offence in a summary Way: Provided that no such Rules or Byelaws shall take effect until they shall have been approved by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and published by his Authority in the London Gazette, which Publication shall for all Purposes be deemed conclusive Evidence of such Rules and Byelaws, and of the Approval thereof by such Secretary of State.

Passage Brokers.

Byelaws to be approved by Secretary of State, &c.

LXXXIII. 'And whereas the said Emigration Commissioners and Persons acting under their Authority 'issue from Time to Time certain Forms of Application and other Papers for the Use of Persons desirous 'of emigrating by their Assistance: And whereas it is expedient to afford additional Security against the 'Falsification or Misuse of such Forms and Papers, and of any Certificate of Marriage or of Birth or 'Baptism, or other Document or Statement adduced in support of any Application to the said Commis-'sioners for such Assistance:' Be it therefore enacted, That if any Person shall falsely represent himself to be or falsely assume to act as the Agent of the said Commissioners, or shall sell any such Form of Application, Paper, or Embarkation Order, or shall wilfully make any false Representation in any such Form of Application, Paper, Certificate, or Document as aforesaid, or shall forge or fraudulently alter any Signature or Statement contained therein respectively, or shall personate any Person named therein respectively, or shall aid or in any way abet any Person in any such false Representation, Forgery, Alteration, or Personation, the Person so offending shall be liable for each such Offence to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds nor less than Two Pounds Sterling.

Penalty for falsifying Documents to obtain Passages from Emigration Commissioners, and for Personation.

LXXXIV. All Penalties and Forfeitures imposed by this Act shall be sued for in the United Kingdom by any Emigration Officer or his Assistant, or by any Person authorized thereto by the said Emigration Commissioners under the Hands of any Two of them, or by any Collector or Comptroller of Her Majesty's Customs, or by any other Officer of Her Majesty's Customs authorized thereto in Writing by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, and in any of Her Majesty's Possessions abroad by any Government Emigration Officer or Agent, or by any such Collector or Comptroller of Customs, or other Officer of Customs so authorized as aforesaid, or by any Officer authorized to sue for Penalties and Forfeitures under this Act by Writing under the Hand and Seal of the Governor of any such Possession; and the said Emigration Commissioners, and the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, and every such Governor, are hereby respectively empowered to grant such Authority as aforesaid: And all Sums of Money made recoverable by this Act as Return of Passage Money, Subsistence Money, Damages, or Compensation may be sued for and recovered by and for the Use of any Passenger entitled thereto under this Act, or by any such Officer as aforesaid, for and on behalf and to the Use of any such Passenger or any Number of such Passengers respectively, and in any Case either by One or several Informations or Complaints.

according to One of the Forms of Conviction or Adjudication contained in Schedule (O.) hereto annexed, or as near thereto as the Circumstances of the Case will admit,) and upon every such Conviction, to order the Offender to pay such Penalty as they may think proper, not exceeding the Penalties hereinbefore imposed, and upon every such Adjudication to order the Party complained against to pay to the Party suing for the same the Sum of Money or Damages sued for, or so much thereof as such Justices shall think the Complainant justly entitled to, together with, in every Case, the Costs of the Proceedings; and if the Monies and Costs mentioned in such Conviction or Adjudication be not paid immediately, or within the Time limited in the Order, it shall be lawful for any Two of such Justices so acting as aforesaid, by Warrant, (and although the written Order of Conviction or Adjudication, or any Minute thereof, may not have been served,) to cause the Party offending to be committed to Gaol, there to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, according to the Discretion of such Justices, for any Term not exceeding Three Calendar Months, unless such Monies and Costs be sooner paid and satisfied: Provided always, that in all Proceedings taken under this Act for which no Form is herein expressly provided, it shall be lawful to use Forms similar, as nearly as Circumstances will admit, to those contained in the Schedule to an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Forty-three.

Proviso where no Forms of proceeding are prescribed by this Act.

Police and Stipendiary Magistrate, and in Scotland Sheriff, &c. to have same Powers as Justices of the Peace.

LXXXVI. Every Police or Stipendiary Magistrate, and in Scotland every Sheriff or Steward and Sheriff Substitute or Steward Substitute of a County or Stewartry within his own County or Stewartry, shall have such and the like Powers, Privileges, and Functions, and be entitled to exercise such and the like Jurisdiction under this Act, as any Justice or Two Justices, or Justices at Petty Sessions, have, or is or are entitled to exercise under the Provisions of this Act; and all Acts, Matters, and Things competent to be done under the Provisions of this Act by or before any Justice or Two Justices of the Peace, or Justices at Petty Sessions, or otherwise, may be done by and before any Police or Stipendiary Magistrate, and in Scotland by and before any Sheriff or Steward, or Sheriff Substitute or Steward Substitute within his own County or Stewartry.

No Objection to be allowed, nor Convictions to be quashed for Want of Form.

LXXXVII. No Objection shall be taken or allowed to any Complaint, Information, Summons, or Warrant under this Act, for any alleged Defect therein, either in Substance or in Form, or for any Variance between such Complaint or Information and the Evidence adduced on the Hearing thereof; but if any Variance shall appear to the Justice or Justices present and acting at such Hearing to be such that the Party so summoned and appearing has been thereby deceived or misled, it shall be lawful for such Justice or Justices, upon such Terms as he or they shall think fit, to adjourn the Hearing of the Case to some future Day, and in the meantime to commit the Defendant to such safe Custody as the said Justice or Justices may think fit, or to discharge him upon his Recognizance, with or without Sureties, to appear at such Time and Place as may be appointed: No Conviction, Order, Adjudication, or other Proceeding under or in pursuance of this Act shall be quashed or vacated for Want of Form.

Application of Penalties.

LXXXVIII. All Penalties imposed by this Act shall, when recovered, and notwithstanding any Local Act of Parliament to the contrary, be paid to the Emigration Officer or Officer of Customs at whose Suit the same shall have been recovered, for the Use of Her Majesty and Her Successors, and if recovered in the Colonies shall be paid over by the Party receiving the same into the Colonial Treasury, and shall form Part of the general Revenue of the Colony, and if recovered in the United Kingdom shall be paid over to the said Emigration Commissioners if the Party at whose Suit the same shall have been recovered be an Emigration Officer or his Assistant, and to Her Majesty's Commissioners of Customs if the Party at whose Suit the same shall have been recovered be an Officer of Customs, to be by such Emigration Commissioners and Commissioners of Customs respectively duly accounted for; and all such Penalties as may be recovered in the United Kingdom shall be appropriated to such Purposes and in such Manner as the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may from Time to Time direct and appoint: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Justices of the Peace who shall impose any such Penalty at the same Time to direct, if they shall think fit, that a Part, not exceeding One Moiety thereof, be applied to compensate any Passenger for any Wrong or Damage which he may have sustained by the Act or Default in respect of which such Penalty or Forfeiture shall have been imposed.

Justices may award Compensation out of Penalties.

Burden of Proof to be on Persons claiming Exemption from Act.

Proof of Negatives.

LXXXIX. If in any Suit, Action, Prosecution, or other legal Proceeding under this Act any Question shall arise whether any Ship was or was not exempted from the Provisions of this Act or any of them, the Burden of proving that such Ship was so exempted shall lie on the Party claiming the Benefit of the Exemption, and failing such Proof it shall for any such Purpose as aforesaid be taken and adjudged that the Ship did come within the Provisions of this Act; and it shall not be necessary, in any Information, Complaint, or other Process or Proceeding, to negative any Exemption, Proviso, or Condition contained in any Section of this Act on which such Information, Complaint, or other Process or Proceeding shall be framed, neither shall it be necessary for the Complainant to prove the Negative, but the Defendant may prove the Affirmative thereof, if he will have Advantage of the same.

Proof of a Party being an Emigration Officer.

XC. If in any Proceeding before any Justice or Justices of the Peace under this Act, or upon any Action, Suit, or other Proceeding whatsoever, against any Person, for anything done either contrary to or in pursuance of this Act, a Question should arise whether any Person is an Emigration Officer or Assistant

Assistant Emigration Officer, or an Officer of Customs, vivâ voce Evidence may be given of such Fact by the Officer himself, and shall be deemed legal and sufficient Evidence.

Passengers suing not incompetent Witnesses.

XCI. Any Passenger suing under this Act for any Sum of Money made recoverable by this Act as Passage Money, Subsistence Money, or Compensation, or Damages, shall not be deemed an incompetent Witness in any Proceeding for the Recovery thereof, notwithstanding the same, if recovered, shall be applicable to his own Use and Benefit.

Tender of Amends.

XCII. No Plaintiff shall recover in any Action against any Emigration Officer, his Assistant, Government Emigration Agent, or Officer of Customs, or other Person, for anything done in pursuance of this Act, if Tender of sufficient Amends shall have been made before such Action brought, or if, after Action brought, a sufficient Sum of Money shall have been paid into Court, by or on behalf of the Defendant.

Limitation of Actions against Officers executing the Act.

XCIII. No Action or Suit shall be commenced against any Emigration Officer, his Assistant, Government Emigration Agent, Officer of Customs, or other Person, for anything done in pursuance of or under the Authority of this Act, until Ten clear Days Notice in Writing, specifying distinctly the Cause of Action, has been given to the Officer, Agent, or Person as aforesaid against whom such Action or Suit is intended to be brought, nor after Three Calendar Months next after the Act committed and mentioned in such Notice for which such Action or Suit shall be so brought; and every such Action shall be brought, laid, and tried where the Cause of Action shall have arisen, and not in any other Place; and the Defendant in such Action or Suit may plead the General Issue, and give this Act and any special Matter in Evidence, at any Trial which shall be had thereupon; and if the Matter or Thing shall appear to have been done under or by virtue of this Act, or if it shall appear that such Action or Suit was brought before Ten clear Days Notice thereof given as aforesaid, or if any Action or Suit shall not be commenced within the Time herein-before limited, or shall be brought or laid in any other Place than as aforesaid, then the Jury shall find a Verdict for the Defendant therein; and if a Verdict shall be found for such Defendant, or if the Plaintiff in such Action or Suit shall become nonsuited, or suffer a Discontinuance of such Action, or if upon any Demurrer in such Action, Judgment shall be given for the Defendant thereon, then and in any of the Cases aforesaid, such Defendant shall recover full Costs of Suit as between Solicitor and Client, and shall have such Remedy for recovering the same as any Defendant may have for his Costs in any other Case by Law.

Defendant may plead the General Issue, &c.

Costs.

Limitation of legal Proceedings generally.

XCIV. Where no Time is expressly limited within which any Complaint or Information is to be made or laid for any Breach or Nonperformance of any of the Requirements of this Act, the Complaint shall be made or the Information laid within Twelve Calendar Months from the Time when the Matter of such Complaint or Information respectively arose, or in case the Master of any Ship is the Offender or Party complained against, within Twelve Calendar Months next after his Return to the Country in which the Matter of Complaint or Information arose.

Colonial Voyages.

XCV. 'And whereas it is expedient to provide in certain Cases for the Carriage of Passengers by Sea 'from Her Majesty's Possessions abroad:' Be it therefore enacted as follows: For the Purposes of this Act the Term "Colonial Voyage" shall signify any Voyage from any Place within any of such Possessions (except the Territories under the Government of the East India Company and the Island of Hong Kong) to any Place whatever, where the Distance between such Places shall exceed Four hundred Miles, or the Duration of the Voyage, to be prescribed as herein-after mentioned, shall exceed Three Days.

Colonial Voyages defined.

This Act to apply to all Colonial Voyages, except as relates to Matters herein named.

XCVI. This Act shall apply, so far as the same is applicable, to all Ships carrying Passengers on any such "Colonial Voyage," except as to such Parts of the Act as relate to the following Matters; (that is to say,)

1. To Passage Brokers and their Licences:
2. To Passengers Contract Tickets:
3. To Emigrant Runners:
4. To the giving Bond to Her Majesty:
5. To the keeping on board a Copy of this Act:
6. To Orders in Council regulating Emigration from the United Kingdom, or prescribing Rules for promoting Health, Cleanliness, Order, and Ventilation:

If any Colonial Voyage be less than Three Weeks, this Act not to apply to Subjects herein named.

Provided that if the prescribed Duration of any "Colonial Voyage" be less than Three Weeks, then, in addition to the Matters lastly herein-before excepted, the Provisions of this Act shall not extend or apply, so far as they relate to the following Subjects; (namely,)

The Construction or Thickness of the Decks:
The Berths and Berthing:
The Height between Decks:

Provided

Colonial Voyages.

Provided also, that in the Case of such "Colonial Voyages" whereof the prescribed Duration is less than Three Weeks, the Requirements of this Act respecting the Issue of Provisions shall not, except as to the Issue of Water, be applicable to any Passenger who may have contracted to furnish his own Provisions.

Governor of Colonies may, by Proclamation, declare Length of Voyage, and prescribe Scale of Diet, Medicines, and Medical Comforts.

XCVII. It shall be lawful for the Governor of each of Her Majesty's Possessions abroad, by any Proclamation to be by him from Time to Time issued for that Purpose (which shall take effect from the issuing thereof), to declare what shall be deemed, for the Purposes of this Act, to be the Length of the Voyage of any Ship carrying Passengers from such Possession to any other Place whatsoever, and to prescribe such Scale of Diet for the Use of the Passengers during the Voyage as he shall think proper, and also to declare what Medicines, Medical Comforts, Medical Instruments, and other Matters shall be deemed necessary for the Medical Treatment of the Passengers during such "Colonial Voyage;" and the Provisions and Requirements of every such Proclamation shall be enforced in all Her Majesty's Dominions as if they were incorporated in this Act, and in like Manner as the Provisions of this Act may be enforced; and a Copy of any such Proclamation, purporting to be under the Hand of the Governor of the Colony wherein the same may have been issued, and under the public Seal of such Colony, shall in any Part of Her Majesty's Dominions wherein the same shall be produced, be received as good and sufficient Evidence of the due issuing, and of the Contents of such Proclamation, unless it shall be proved that such Copy is not genuine.

Copies of Proclamations to be received as Evidence.

Provision for Survey of Ships in the Colonies, and for appointing Surgeons thereto.

XCVIII. It shall be lawful for the Governors of any such Possessions respectively to authorize such Person or Persons as they may think fit to make the like Survey and Examination of "Passenger Ships" sailing from such Possessions respectively as is herein-before required to be made by Two or more competent Surveyors in respect of "Passenger Ships" sailing from the United Kingdom, and also to authorize in such Cases, as to such Governors may seem proper, any competent Person to act as Medical Practitioner on board any "Passenger Ship" proceeding on a "Colonial Voyage."

Power to Governor General of India in Council, by any Act to be passed for that Purpose, to adopt this Act for India, and to make Rules respecting Food, Passengers, Surgeons, &c.,

XCIX. This Act shall not apply to any of the Territories or Places under the Government of the East India Company: It shall, however, be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council, from Time to Time, by any Act or Acts to be passed for that Purpose, to declare that this Act or any Part thereof, shall apply to the Carriage of Passengers upon any Voyage from any Ports or Places within such Territories, to be specified in such Act or Acts, to any other Places whatsoever, to be also specified in such Act or Acts; and also in like Manner to authorize the Substitution, as respects such Voyages, of other Articles of Food and Provisions for those herein-before enumerated; and to declare the Rule of Computation by which the Length of any such Voyage shall be estimated; and to determine the Persons or Officers who, in such Territories, shall be entitled to exercise or perform the Powers, Functions, or Duties herein-before given to or imposed upon the Emigration Officers and Officers of Customs in the United Kingdom; and to authorize the Employment, on board any Ship, of a Medical Practitioner duly qualified by Law to practise as a Physician, Surgeon, or Apothecary within such Territories; and to declare for the Purposes of this Act the Space necessary for Passengers, and the Age at which Two Children shall be considered equal to One Statute Adult, in Ships that may clear out from any Port or Place within such Territories; and also to declare in what Manner, and before what Authorities, and by what Form of Proceedings, the Penalties imposed, and the Sums of Money made recoverable by this Act shall be sued for and recovered within such Territories, and to what Uses such Penalties shall be applied: And on the passing of such Indian Act or Acts, and whilst the same shall remain in force, all such Parts of this Act as shall be adopted therein, shall apply to and extend to the Carriage of Passengers upon such Voyages as in the said Indian Act or Acts shall be specified; the Provisions of such Indian Act shall be enforced in all Her Majesty's Possessions in like Manner as the Provisions of this Act may be enforced: Every such Indian Act shall be subject to Disallowance and Repeal, and shall in the same Manner be transmitted to England, to be laid before both Houses of Parliament, as in the Case of any other Law made by the Governor General in Council.

and to declare in what Manner Penalties, &c. may be sued for and recovered.

Indian Act may be enforced in like Manner as this Act.

WHEREAS by the "Passengers Act, 1855," it is amongst other things enacted, that no Person whatever, save as therein excepted, shall directly or indirectly act as a Passage Broker in respect of Passages from the United Kingdom to any Place out of Europe, and not being within the Mediterranean Sea, or shall sell or let, or agree to sell or let, or be in anywise concerned in the Sale or Letting of Passages in any Ship, whether a "Passenger Ship" or otherwise, proceeding from the United Kingdom to any such Place as aforesaid, unless such Person, with Two good and sufficient Sureties, to be approved by the Emigration Officer at the Port nearest the Place of Business of such Person, shall have previously entered into a joint and several Bond to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, in the Sum of One thousand Pounds: And whereas the said C.D. and E.F. have been duly approved by the proper Emigration Officer as Sureties for the said A.B.:

Now the Condition of this Obligation is such, that if the above-bounden A.B., and every Agent whom he may employ in his Business of a Passage Broker, shall well and truly observe and comply with all the Requirements of the said recited Act, so far as the same relate to Passage Brokers, and further shall well and truly pay all Fines, Forfeitures, and Penalties, and also all Sums of Money, by way of Subsistence Money, or of Return of Passage Money and Compensation, to any Passenger, or on his Account, together with all Costs which the above-bounden A.B., or any of his Agents as aforesaid, may at any Time be adjudged to pay under or by virtue of any of the Provisions of the said recited Act, then and in such Case this Obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full Force.

Signed, sealed, and delivered by the above-bounden A.B., C.D., and E.F., in the Presence of *

* Insert the Names and Addresses in full of the Witnesses.

N.B.—This Bond is to be executed in Duplicate, in the Presence of and to be attested by an Emigration Officer or his Assistant, or an Officer of Customs, or a Magistrate, or a Notary Public. One Part is to be deposited with the Emigration Commissioners in London, and the other Part with the Emigration Officer at the Port nearest to the Place of Business of the Broker. Each Member of a Firm or Partnership who acts as a Passage Broker must give a separate Bond with Two Sureties.

[The Bond is exempt from Stamp Duty, but must be renewed annually with Licence.]

CAP. CXX.

An Act for the better Local Management of the Metropolis. [14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that Provision should be made for the better Local Management of the Metropolis in respect of the Sewerage and Drainage, and the paving, cleansing, lighting, and Improvements thereof:' Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Election of Vestries and Auditors in Parishes in Schedules (A.) and (B.)

1 & 2 W. 4. c. 60. repealed so far as regards Parishes in Schedules (A.) and (B.)

I. The Act of the Session holden in the First and Second Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Sixty, "For the better Regulation of Vestries, and for the Appointment of Auditors of Accounts in "certain Parishes of England and Wales," shall be repealed, from and after the passing of this Act, so far as regards any Parish mentioned in either of the Schedules (A.) and (B.) to this Act: Provided always, that the Vestry and Auditors already elected for any such Parish under the said Act shall continue to be such Vestry and Auditors until the First Election of Vestrymen and Auditors for such Parish under this Act has taken place, but no longer; and the Provisions of the said Act of King William the Fourth shall continue applicable to every such Vestry and to their Proceedings, and the Books in which the same are entered, and to such Auditors and their Proceedings accordingly.

Vestries in Parishes named in either of the Schedules (A.) and (B.) to consist of not less than 18 or more than 120 Persons qualified and elected as after provided.

II. The Vestry in every Parish mentioned in either of the Schedules (A.) and (B.) to this Act shall consist of a certain Number of Persons qualified and elected as herein provided; (that is to say,) Eighteen Vestrymen for every Parish in which the Number of rated Householders shall not exceed One thousand; and Six additional Vestrymen, that is, Twenty-four Vestrymen for every Parish in which the Number of rated Householders shall exceed One thousand; and Twelve additional Vestrymen, that is, Thirty-six Vestrymen, for every Parish in which the Number of rated Householders shall exceed Two thousand; and so on at the Proportion of Twelve additional Vestrymen for every Thousand rated Householders: Provided always, that in no Case the Number of Vestrymen shall exceed One hundred and twenty: Provided also, that the Incumbent and Churchwardens of each such Parish shall constitute a Part of the Vestry, and shall vote therein, in addition to the elected Vestrymen: Provided also, that every District Rector now constituting in any such Parish a Part of the Vestry thereof shall continue to constitute a Part of the Vestry thereof under this Act: Provided also, that where in any Parish the whole Number of Persons qualified to be Vestrymen shall not amount to Eighteen, the Vestry thereof shall consist of so many Persons as are so qualified, anything in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Such Parishes with more than 2,000 rated Householders to be divided into Wards.

III. Each of the said Parishes which at the Time of the passing of this Act contains more than Two thousand rated Householders shall be divided into Wards; and it shall be lawful for such Person or Persons as may be appointed for this Purpose as herein provided to determine and set out, on or before the Tenth Day of October next, the Number, Extent, Limits, and Boundary Lines of such Wards, but so nevertheless that no Ward shall contain less than Five hundred rated Householders, and that the whole whole Number of Wards in any Parish shall not exceed Eight; and the Person or Persons setting out such Wards in any Parish shall apportion among the several Wards the Number of Vestrymen to be elected for such Parish, and shall, in assigning the Number of Vestrymen to each Ward, have regard, as far as in his or their Judgment it is practicable, as well to the Number of Persons rated to the Relief of the Poor in each Ward as to the aggregate Amount of the Sums at which all such Persons are rated; and the Number of Vestrymen assigned to each Ward shall be a Number divisible by Three; and a Copy of the Particulars of such Division and Apportionment shall be forthwith transmitted to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and also to the Vestry Clerk of the Parish to which such Division and Apportionment relate; and if Her Majesty, by the Advice of Her Privy Council, approve of such Division and Apportionment, the Particulars thereof shall be published in the London Gazette; and the Parish shall, after such Publication, be deemed to be divided into such Wards so determined and set out, and such Division shall continue and be in force until the same be altered as herein provided; and the Number of Vestrymen assigned to each Ward shall be the Number to be elected for such Ward until altered as aforesaid: Provided always, that if Her Majesty, by Advice of Her Privy Council, do not approve such Division and Apportionment, such Publication as aforesaid shall nevertheless be made, and such Division and Apportionment be in force for the Purpose of any Election under the Provisions of this Act, until such Time as Her Majesty, by Advice of Her Privy Council, upon further Information and Report from any such Person or Persons, definitively approve the Division of such Parish into Wards, and of the Number of Vestrymen assigned to each Ward in manner herein-before mentioned: Provided also, that where any Parish is already divided into Wards under any Local Act such Parish shall be deemed to be divided into such Wards for the Purposes of this Act, without any Division of such Parish into Wards being made as herein-before provided, but the Number of Vestrymen to be elected for such Parish shall be apportioned as aforesaid among the Wards of such Parish by such Person or Persons as may be appointed for that Purpose as herein provided.

Power to Secretary of State to appoint Persons to set out the Wards, and apportion Number of Vestrymen to be elected.

IV. One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the passing of this Act, appoint not more than Four fit Persons, the Names of such Persons to be published in the London Gazette, to set out the Wards into which the said Parishes are by this Act directed to be divided, and to apportion the Number of Vestrymen to be elected for such Parishes respectively among such Wards, and also to apportion the Number of Vestrymen to be elected for any Parish already divided into Wards as aforesaid among such Wards; and any One or more of such Persons may be appointed to act as aforesaid separately from any other or others of them as such Secretary of State may see fit; and such Secretary of State shall, in case Circumstances appear to him so to require, appoint any other fit Person or Persons in the Place of or in addition to any such Person or Persons originally appointed under this Provision; and every Person appointed to set out such Wards shall be paid at a Rate not exceeding the Sum of Five Guineas for every Day that he is employed by virtue of such Appointment, and the Amount payable to him in respect of such Employment in each Parish shall be determined and certified by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Amount so certified shall be paid out of the Poor Rates of the Parish.

If relative Population of Wards vary in future Census, Numbers of Vestrymen may be altered.

V. When at any Time, upon any Account taken of the Population by the Authority of Parliament, the relative Numbers of the inhabited Houses in the several Wards of any Parish divided into Wards as aforesaid are found to have varied from those shown by the last previous Census, it shall be lawful for the Metropolitan Board of Works, upon the Application of the Vestry or any Ratepayers of such Parish, to alter the Number of Vestrymen assigned to such Wards or any of them, but so that the Number of Vestrymen assigned to each Ward shall be a Number divisible by Three.

Qualification of Vestrymen.

VI. The Vestry elected under this Act in any Parish shall consist of Persons rated or assessed to the Relief of the Poor upon a Rental of not less than Forty Pounds per Annum; and no Person shall be capable of acting or being elected as One of such Vestry for any Parish unless he be the Occupier of a House, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments in such Parish, and be rated or assessed as aforesaid upon such Rental as aforesaid within such Parish: Provided always, that in any Parish in which the Number of Poor Rate Assessments at Forty Pounds or upwards does not exceed One Sixth of the whole Number of such Assessments it shall not be necessary, in order to qualify a Person to be a Vestryman, that the Amount of Rental upon which he is rated or assessed as aforesaid exceed Twenty-five Pounds: Provided also, that the joint Occupation of any such Premises as aforesaid, and a joint Rating in respect thereof, shall be sufficient to qualify each joint Occupier in case the Amount of Rental on which all such Occupiers are jointly rated will, when divided by the Number of Occupiers, give for each such Occupier a Sum not less than the Amount herein-before required.

As to the First Election of Vestrymen under this Act.

VII. The First Election of Vestrymen under this Act in every Parish shall be holden in the Month of November next after the passing of this Act, and between the Fifth and Twenty-first Days of that Month, and the Day on which such Election shall commence shall be appointed by the Churchwardens of the Parish, and Twenty-one Days previously to the Day of Election Notice of such Election shall be given in manner herein-after directed concerning Notice of Election of Vestrymen and Auditors, and the next such Election shall take place on such Day in the Month of May in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven as the Vestry shall appoint, and every subsequent Election shall take place annually in the Month of May in every Year as the Vestry appoint.

VIII. At

The full Number of Vestrymen to be chosen at First Election, and existing Vestries superseded.

VIII. At the First such Election of Vestrymen as aforesaid for any Parish, the full Number of Elective Vestrymen of which such Vestry is to consist as herein-before mentioned shall be elected, and such Vestrymen, with such other Persons as herein-before mentioned, shall forthwith be deemed to constitute the Vestry of such Parish, and shall supersede any existing Vestry therein, and exercise the Powers and Privileges held by such existing Vestry, save as in this Act otherwise provided; and the Authority of such Vestry may be pleaded before any Justice or Justices of the Peace or in any Court of Law in regard to all Parochial Property or Monies due, or Holdings or Contracts, or other Documents of the like Nature, under the Control or in the Keeping of such existing Vestry; and all Parish Officers or Boards shall account to them in like Manner as they are by Law liable to account to such existing Vestry.

As to the Term of Office of Vestrymen elected at First Election, and as to future Elections.

IX. One Third of the Vestrymen first elected under this Act in any Parish, or, where such Parish is divided into Wards under this Act, in each Ward of such Parish, shall go out of Office at the Time appointed for the Election of Vestrymen in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, One other Third of them at the Time appointed for such Election in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and the remaining Third at the Time appointed for such Election in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine; and the Vestry shall, at some Meeting before the Time of the Election in One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, determine by Lot which of the Members first elected shall constitute the One Third to go out of Office in the Years One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven and One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight respectively; and all Members from Time to Time elected at the annual Elections after the First Election shall go out of Office at the Time appointed for the annual Election in the Third following Year, except such Members as are elected to supply Vacancies occasioned otherwise than by Effluxion of Time; and such last-mentioned Members shall go out of Office at the respective Times when the Terms of Office of the Members in whose Places they are respectively elected would have expired by Effluxion of Time.

Vacancies to be filled up at annual Elections.

X. At every Election of Vestrymen under this Act, except the First, for any Parish or any Ward of any Parish, the Parishioners of such Parish entitled to vote in such Election shall elect as many Vestrymen as there are Vacancies in the Vestry, or among the Vestrymen elected for such Ward, whether such Vacancies be occasioned by the Expiration of the Term of Office, or by Death or otherwise.

Appointment of Auditors of Accounts for Parishes in Schedules (A.) and (B.)

XI. For every Parish mentioned in either of the Schedules (A.) and (B.) to this Act there shall be elected such Number as herein-after mentioned of the Ratepayers of the Parish who have signified in Writing their Assent to serve to be Auditors of Accounts, which Auditors shall be so elected at the same Times and in the same Manner as Members of the Vestry; and the Number of Ratepayers so to be elected Auditors in any Parish not divided into Wards under this Act shall be Five, and the Number of Ratepayers so to be elected Auditors in any Parish which is divided into Wards shall be the same as the Number of Wards, One Auditor being elected in each Ward: Provided always, that where the Number of Wards into which any Parish is divided exceeds Five, the Vestry of such Parish shall, at their First Meeting after the Election of Auditors as aforesaid, in any Year, elect by Ballot from among such Auditors Five of them, and the Five Persons so elected by Ballot shall be the Auditors for such Parish exclusively of any other Person or Persons who may have been elected an Auditor or Auditors for such Parish under the Provisions herein contained; and a List of the Five Persons so elected by the Vestry shall be forthwith published by the Churchwardens in the Parish as herein provided: Provided also, that no Person shall be eligible to fill the Office of Auditor of Accounts who is not qualified to fill the Office of Vestryman for the Parish; but no Person shall be eligible to fill the Office of Auditor who is a Member of the Vestry; and if any Person be chosen to be both a Member of the Vestry and Auditor of Accounts he shall be incapable of acting as a Vestryman.

As to the Term of Office of Auditors.

XII. The Auditors first elected under this Act in any Parish as aforesaid shall go out of Office at the Time appointed for the Election of Vestrymen and Auditors in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and the Auditors then elected and to be thereafter elected shall go out of Office at the Election of Vestrymen and Auditors in the Year next following their Election.

Notice of Elections.

XIII. The Churchwardens of every Parish mentioned in either of the said Schedules (A.) and (B.), which is not divided into Wards, shall, on some Sunday at least Twenty-one Days previously to the Day of annual Election of Vestrymen, cause to be published in such Parish as herein provided a Notice according to the following Form:

'Parish of [here insert Name of Parish].

And

And the Churchwardens of every such Parish as aforesaid which is divided into Wards shall at the Time aforesaid cause to be published as herein provided, in each Ward of the Parish, a Notice according to the following Form:

'Parish of , Ward of [inserting the Parish and Ward].

'The Parishioners duly qualified according to the Provisions of the Act of Parliament of the Session 'holden in the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Years of the Reign of Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act," '[here insert the Title of this Act], are hereby required to meet at on the 'Day of , conformably to the Provisions of the said Act, and then and there to consider of 'and elect fit and proper Persons to be Vestrymen and an Auditor of Accounts of the 'Parish of for the Ward of for the ensuing Year [the Words "for the 'ensuing Year" to be omitted in the Notice of the First Election].'

Churchwardens to appoint Persons to preside at Ward Elections.

XIV. Where any Parish is divided into Wards, the Churchwardens, Three clear Days at least before the Day of Election, shall appoint in Writing under their Hands a Person to preside at such Election as aforesaid in each of the said Wards, except any Ward in which One of the Churchwardens shall preside, and notify such Appointment to the Vestry Clerk of the Parish.

Rate Collectors to assist at the Elections.

XV. The Rate Collectors, or Persons appointed by them, shall attend the Churchwardens and Persons presiding at Elections under this Act, and Inspectors of Votes, to assist in ascertaining that the Persons presenting themselves to vote are Parishioners rated to the Relief of the Poor in the Parish, or the respective Wards thereof, and duly qualified to vote at the Election.

Form of Proceeding at Elections.

XVI. On the Day of Election of Vestrymen and Auditors in any Parish under this Act the Parishioners then rated to the Relief of the Poor in the Parish, or, where the Parish is divided into Wards under this Act, in the Ward thereof for which the Election is holden, and who are desirous of voting, shall meet at the Place appointed for such Election, and shall then and there nominate Two Ratepayers of the Parish, or (if the Parish be divided into Wards) of the Ward for which the Election is holden, as fit and proper Persons to be Inspectors of Votes; and the Churchwardens, or, in the Case of a Ward Election, such One of the Churchwardens as is present thereat, or, where One of the Churchwardens is not present, the Person appointed by them to preside thereat, shall, immediately after such Nomination as aforesaid by the Parishioners, nominate Two other such Ratepayers to be such Inspectors; and after such Nominations the said Parishioners shall elect such Persons duly qualified as may be there proposed for the Offices of Vestrymen and Auditors or Auditor; and the Chairman at such Meeting shall declare the Names of the Parishioners who have been elected by a Majority of Votes at such Meeting: Provided nevertheless, that no Person shall be entitled to join or vote in any such Election for any Parish, or any Ward of any Parish, or be deemed a Ratepayer thereof, or be entitled to do any Act as such under this Act, unless he have been rated in such Parish to the Relief of the Poor for One Year next before the Election, and have paid all Parochial Rates, Taxes, and Assessments due from him at the Time of so voting or acting, except such as have been made or become due within Six Months immediately preceding such voting or acting.

Power to demand a Poll, which shall be taken by Ballot.

XVII. Provided always, That any Five Ratepayers may then and there, in Writing or otherwise, demand a Poll, which shall be taken by Ballot on the Day next following, and shall commence at Eight of the Clock in the Forenoon and close at such Hour as herein-after mentioned; that is to say, at Six of the Clock in the Afternoon in the Case of any Election to be holden in November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and at Eight of the Clock in the Afternoon in all other Cases; each Ratepayer depositing as herein-after provided Two folded Papers, One of which Papers shall contain the Names of the Persons for whom such Parishioner may vote as fit and proper to be Members of the Vestry, and the other shall contain the Names or Name of the Persons or Person for whom such Parishioner may vote as fit and proper to be Auditors or Auditor of Accounts; and each Ratepayer shall have One Vote and no more for the Members of the Vestry, and One Vote and no more for the Auditors or Auditor of Accounts to be chosen in the said Parish or Ward.

Duty of Inspectors of Votes.

XVIII. The Persons voting shall deposit such folded Papers in Two separate Sets of Balloting Glasses or Boxes, one Set for Voting Papers for Members of Vestry, and another Set for the Voting Papers for Auditors or an Auditor; and the said Balloting Glasses or Boxes shall be closed at the Time herein-before fixed for the closing of the Poll; and the Inspectors for the Parish or Ward (as the Case may be) shall forthwith meet together, and proceed to examine the said Votes, and if necessary shall continue the Examination by Adjournments from Day to Day, not exceeding Two Days (Sunday excepted), until they have decided upon the Persons duly qualified according to the Provisions of this Act who may have been chosen to fill the aforesaid Offices.

Provision for Case of Equality of Votes.

XIX. In case an Equality of Votes appear to the aforesaid Inspectors to be given for any Two or more Persons to fill either of the said Offices, the Inspectors shall decide by Lot upon the Person to be chosen.

If in the Interval between Elections the Vestry of any Parish be re-

XX. If in the Interval between any Election under this Act of Vestrymen in any Parish and the Time at which the next Election would in the Absence of this Enactment have taken place the Number of such Vestrymen be reduced below Two Thirds of the full Number, so many Vestrymen as may be requisite for filling up such Number shall be forthwith elected in like Manner as in the Case of the annual duced below Two Thirds, the Vacancies to be filled up as herein named.

annual Election of such Vestrymen, and the Provisions of this Act shall be applicable in the Case of such Election accordingly, save that the Notice of Election shall be varied from the Form prescribed by this Act so far as may be necessary, and where such Parish is divided into Wards under this Act each Ward shall supply the Vacancies among the Members elected for the same; and every Vestryman elected under this Enactment shall go out of Office at the Time when the Term of Office of the Person in whose Place he is elected would have expired by Effluxion of Time.

Penalty for forging or falsifying any Voting Paper or obstructing the Election.

XXI. If any Person knowingly personate and falsely assume to vote in the Name of any Parishioner entitled to vote in any Election under this Act, or forge or in any way falsify any Name or Writing in any Paper purporting to contain the Vote or Votes of any Parishioner voting in any such Election, or by any Contrivance attempt to obstruct or prevent the Purposes of any such Election, the Person so offending shall, upon Conviction before any Two or more Justices of the Peace having Jurisdiction in the Parish, be liable to a Penalty of not less than Ten and not more than Fifty Pounds, and in default of Payment thereof shall be imprisoned for a Term not exceeding Six nor less than Three Months.

A List of Persons elected Vestrymen and Auditors to be published.

XXII. The Inspectors shall, immediately after they have decided upon whom the aforesaid Elections have fallen, deliver to the Churchwardens, or to One of them, or other the Person presiding at the Election, a List of the Persons chosen by the Parishioners to act as Vestrymen and Auditors, or an Auditor of Accounts; and the said List, or a Copy thereof, shall be published in the Parish as herein provided.

Penalty on Inspector for making incorrect Return.

XXIII. If any Inspector wilfully make or cause to be made an incorrect Return of the said Votes, every such Offender shall, upon Information laid by any Person before Two or more Justices of the Peace having Jurisdiction in the Parish, and upon Conviction for such Offence, be liable to a Penalty of not less than Twenty-five Pounds and not exceeding Fifty Pounds.

Vestries to provide Places for holding Elections, and pay Expenses of taking Poll, &c.

XXIV. The Vestry of every Parish mentioned in either of the Schedules (A.) and (B.) to this Act shall provide such Places as may be requisite for holding Elections of Vestrymen and Auditors under this Act, and taking the Poll thereat; and the Expenses of providing such Places, of publishing Notices, of taking the Poll, and of making the Return at Elections of Vestrymen and Auditors, shall be paid out of the Poor Rates of the Parish by Order of the Vestry: Provided always, that the Places requiring to be provided for the First Election under this Act of Vestrymen and Auditors in any Parish shall be provided by the Churchwardens, and the Expenses of providing the same shall be paid out of the Poor Rates, upon their Order.

As to Parishes having no Churchwardens.

XXV. The Provisions herein-before contained shall, so far as concerns any Parish in either of the said Schedules (A.) and (B.) in which there are no Churchwardens, be construed as referring to the Overseers of the Poor instead of the Churchwardens.

How Notices and Lists to be published.

XXVI. Every Notice and List herein-before required to be published in any Parish or Ward of any Parish shall be so published by being fixed in some public and conspicuous Situation, on the Outside of the outer Door or outer Wall near the Door of every Church and Public Chapel in such Parish or Ward, including Places of Public Worship which do not belong to the Established Church, and if there be no such Building as aforesaid, then in some public and conspicuous Situation within such Parish or Ward.

Non-compliance with Act a Misdemeanor.

XXVII. If any Churchwarden, Overseer, Rate Collector, or other Parish Officer refuse or neglect to call any Meeting, or give any Notice, or do any other Act required of him under the Provisions of this Act, he shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Quorum of Vestries.

XXVIII. All Powers or Duties to be performed by the Vestry of any Parish under this Act may be exercised and performed respectively by the major Part of such Vestry assembled at any Meeting, there being not less than Five Vestrymen present at a Meeting of a Vestry which consists of not more than Eighteen elected Vestrymen, and not being less than Seven Vestrymen present at a Meeting of a Vestry which consists of Twenty-four elected Vestrymen and no more, and not being less than Nine Vestrymen present at a Meeting of a Vestry which consists of Thirty-six elected Vestrymen or upwards; and at every such Meeting all Questions shall be decided by the Votes of the Majority of the Vestrymen present, and the Vestry may act notwithstanding any Vacancies therein.

Meetings not to be holden in the Church.

XXIX. In any Case in which the Vestry-room of any such Parish as aforesaid is not sufficiently large and commodious for any Vestry Meeting, such Meeting shall be held elsewhere within the said Parish, but not in the Church or Chapel thereof.

Meeting to elect a Chairman.

XXX. At every Meeting of any Vestry under this Act, in the Absence of the Persons authorized by Law or Custom to take the Chair, the Members present shall elect a Chairman for the Occasion before proceeding to other Business, and the Chairman, in case of an Equality of Votes on any Question, shall have a Second or Casting Vote.

Formation of Parishes into Districts, and Constitution of District Boards.

Parishes in Schedule (B.) to be united, and form Districts, and District Boards constituted.

XXXI. For the Purposes of this Act the several Parishes mentioned in the Second Column of Schedule (B.) to this Act shall be united, and form the respective Districts mentioned in conjunction therewith and named in the First Column of the same Schedule; and there shall be a Board of Works for each such District, composed of the Members elected as herein-after mentioned for the Parishes forming such District.

XXXII. The

Vestries to elect Members of District Boards.

XXXII. The Vestry constituted by this Act in every Parish in any such District shall on the Twenty-eighth Day of November in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five elect the Number of Persons mentioned in the Third Column of the said Schedule (B.) in conjunction with such Parish to be a Member or Members of the Board of Works for such District.

If relative Numbers of inhabited Houses in any District vary on any future Census, Numbers of Members may be altered.

XXXIII. When at any Time hereafter, upon any Account taken of the Population by the Authority of Parliament, the relative Numbers of the inhabited Houses in the several Parishes forming any such District are found to have varied from those shown by the last previous Census, it shall be lawful for the Metropolitan Board of Works constituted by this Act, upon the Application of the Vestry or any Ratepayers of any such Parish, to alter the Number of the Members of the Board of Works for such District to be elected for all or any of the Parishes therein; but so that the Number of Members to be elected for any such Parish, if exceeding Three, shall be a Number divisible by Three.

As to the Term of Office of Members of District Boards elected at First Election, and as to future Elections.

XXXIV. One Third of the Members of any such Board first elected for any Parish for which Three or more such Members are by this Act appointed to be elected shall go out of Office at the Time hereinafter appointed for the Election of Members of such Board in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, One other Third of them at the Time appointed for such Election in One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and the remaining Third at the Time appointed for such Election in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine; and the Vestry shall at the Time of the First Election under this Act of such Members determine by Lot which of the Members first elected shall constitute the One Third to go out of Office in the Years One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven and One thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight respectively; and all Members elected to supply Vacancies occasioned by Members going out of Office at the Expiration of their Term of Office shall go out of Office at the Election of Members of such Board in the Third following Year.

Elections to be held annually for supplying Vacancies.

XXXV. The Vestry of every such Parish shall on the First Wednesday in the Month of June in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and in every subsequent Year, elect so many Vestrymen of such Parish to be Members of the Board for the District in which such Parish is comprised, as may be necessary for supplying the Vacancies among the Members of such Board, elected for such Parish, occasioned by Expiration of the Term of Office of the Members going out of Office at the Time of such Election.

Provision as to Parishes not electing as many as Three Members of a District Board.

XXXVI. The Members of any such Board first elected for Parishes for which less than Three Members are by this Act appointed to be elected shall go out of Office on the said First Wednesday in June One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, and Members subsequently elected for such Parishes to supply Vacancies occasioned by Members going out of Office at the Expiration of their Term of Office shall go out of Office on the First Wednesday in June in the Third Year following their Election; and the Vestries of such Parishes shall on the said First Wednesday in June in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, and in every Third following Year, elect Members in the Place of the Members then going out of Office.

Provision as to casual Vacancies.

XXXVII. When any Member of any District Board dies, resigns, or ceases to be such Member, otherwise than by the Expiration of his Term of Office, the Vestry of the Parish for which he was elected shall with all convenient Speed elect a Person to be a Member of such Board in his Place; and every Member of any such Board elected to supply any such Vacancy shall go out of Office when the Term of Office of the Member in whose Place he is elected would have expired by Effluxion of Time.

Powers of District Boards to be exercised at Meetings, &c.

XXXVIII. All Powers and Duties vested in the Board of Works for any District may be exercised or performed at any Meeting of such Board holden under this Act, there being not less than Seven Members of the Board present; and at every such Meeting all Questions shall be decided by the Votes of the Majority of the Members present; and the Board may act notwithstanding any Vacancies therein, and notwithstanding any Omission to elect any Member or Members of such Board, in pursuance of this Act.

Ordinary Meetings of District Boards.

XXXIX. The First Meeting of the Board of Works for any District shall be holden on the Wednesday in the Week next following the Election of such Board, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Place at which the Vestry of the Parish in such District first named in Schedule (B.) to this Act usually meet; and every subsequent Ordinary Meeting shall be holden on and at such Day, Time, and Place as the Board may from Time to Time appoint in this Behalf, subject, nevertheless, to the Provision herein-after contained, appointing the Day on which Meetings shall be holden for the First Election of the Metropolitan Board of Works.

Special Meetings of District Boards.

XL. A Special Meeting of any such Board may be convened by any Five Members of the Board, or by the Clerk of the Board, upon the Requisition in Writing of Five Members of the Board, by a Notice to the several Members thereof Forty-eight Hours at least before the Time of meeting, such Notice to be signed by the Members or Clerk convening the Meeting, and to specify the Object thereof.

Chairman to be elected at Meeting of Board.

XLI. Every such Board shall at every Meeting of such Board, before proceeding to Business, elect a Chairman of such Meeting, and such Chairman, in case of an Equality of Votes on any Question, shall have a Second or Casting Vote.

Elected Members of Metropolitan Board to elect a Chairman, with Salary not less than 1,500*l.* nor more than 2,000*l.*

XLIX. The Members first elected of the Metropolitan Board of Works shall meet at such Time and Place as One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State shall by Notice in the London Gazette appoint in this Behalf, and shall at such Meeting, or some Meeting to be holden by Adjournment thereof (which it shall be competent for the Members present to appoint), elect a Chairman of the said Board, and shall also decide upon the Amount of Salary to be paid to such Chairman, such Salary not to be less than One thousand five hundred Pounds and not to exceed Two thousand Pounds per Annum; and such Members, before proceeding at any such Meeting to such Election, or to determine the Amount of such Salary, shall choose from among the Members present a Chairman of such Meeting, and such Election of the future Chairman of the Board shall be determined by the Votes of the Majority of the Members present, and in case of an Equality of Votes the Chairman of the Meeting shall have a Second or Casting Vote; and any Person may be elected as aforesaid, whether he be or be not a Member of the said Board; and such Chairman shall be subject to be removed by a Resolution agreed to by Two Thirds of the Members present at any Meeting specially convened for considering the Question of such Removal; and in case any elected Member of the said Metropolitan Board be appointed Chairman thereof, he shall thenceforth be a Member thereof by virtue only of his Office of Chairman, and his Place as an elected Member shall become vacant, and another shall be elected in his Stead.

As to Appointment of Chairman on any Vacancy.

L. Upon every Vacancy in the Office of Chairman of the said Metropolitan Board a new Chairman shall be appointed, and his Salary fixed, in manner herein-before mentioned, save that the Appointment of such Chairman may be made at any such Meeting as may be provided in this Behalf by the Regulations for the Time being of the said Metropolitan Board.

Powers of Metropolitan Board to be exercised at Meetings, not less than Nine Members being present.

LI. All Powers and Duties vested in the Metropolitan Board of Works may be exercised and performed at any Meeting of such Board at which not less than Nine Members of the Board are present; and at every such Meeting all Questions shall be determined by the Votes of the Majority of the Members present; and such Board may act notwithstanding any Vacancies therein, and notwithstanding any Omission to elect any Member or Members of such Board in pursuance of this Act, but such Board shall not be deemed to be constituted until the First Election of a Chairman of such Board under this Act.

Meetings of the Metropolitan Board.

LII. The First Meeting of the said Metropolitan Board shall be holden at such Time and Place as the Chairman may appoint, of which Notice in Writing, signed by such Chairman, shall be given to each elected Member of the said Board Two clear Days at the least before the Time of such Meeting; and the said Board may meet at such Times and Places as they may from Time to Time appoint; and a Special Meeting of the said Board may be convened by the Chairman of the said Board, or by the Clerk thereof, upon the Requisition in Writing of the Chairman or any Five Members of the Board, by a Notice to the several Members thereof Two clear Days at the least before the Time of meeting, such Notice to be signed by the Chairman or Clerk convening the Meeting, and to specify the Object thereof.

Chairman to preside at Meetings. In case of Vacancy, &c.

LIII. The Chairman of the Metropolitan Board of Works for the Time being elected under this Act shall preside at every Meeting of such Board at which he is present; and in case of a Vacancy in the Office of such Chairman, or in his Absence, some other Member of such Board shall be chosen to preside thereat; and in case there be an equal Number of Votes upon any Question, the Chairman presiding at the Meeting shall have a Second or Casting Vote.

Provisions concerning Constitution, Procedure, and Officers of Metropolitan and District Boards and Vestries.

Disqualifications of Members of Metropolitan Board, of District Boards, of Vestries of Parishes in Schedule (A.) and (B.), and of Auditors.

LIV. In case any Member of the Metropolitan Board of Works, or of any District Board of Works, or of any Vestry for any Parish mentioned in Schedule (A.) or (B.) to this Act, or any Auditor of the Accounts of any such Board or Vestry, be declared bankrupt, or apply to take the Benefit of or become subject to any Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, or compound with his Creditors, or accept or hold any Office under the Board or Vestry of which he is a Member, or of whose Accounts he is Auditor, other than, in the Case of any such Auditor, his Office of Auditor, or in any Manner be concerned or interested in any Contract or Work made with or executed for such Board or Vestry, in every such Case such Person shall cease to be such Member or Auditor as aforesaid: Provided always, that no Person being a Shareholder of any Joint Stock Company shall be disabled from continuing or acting as a Member of of any such Board or Vestry by reason of any Contract between such Company and such Board or Vestry, or of any Work executed by such Company; but no such Member shall vote upon any Question in which such Company is interested; and any Person who acts as a Member of any such Board or Vestry, or as Auditor of the Accounts thereof, after ceasing to be such Member or Auditor as aforesaid, or who, being a Shareholder in any Joint Stock Company, votes upon any Question in which such Company is interested, and any Person who acts as a Member of any such Vestry as aforesaid without being qualified by Rating and Occupation as required by this Act, shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty of Fifty Pounds, which may be recovered by any Person who may sue for the same in any of the Superior Courts of Law, with full Costs of Suit: Provided also, that all Acts and Proceedings of any Person ceasing to be such Member or Auditor, or disabled from acting as aforesaid, shall, if done previously to the Recovery of such Penalty, be valid and effectual to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever.

Members of Metropolitan and District Boards, and of Vestries of Parishes in Schedule (A.) or (B.), may resign.

LV. Any Member of the Metropolitan Board of Works, or of any Vestry elected for any Parish mentioned in Schedule (A.) or (B.) to this Act, or of the Board of Works for any District, may at any Time resign his Office, such Resignation of any Member of the Metropolitan Board of Works to be notified in Writing signed by such Member to the Chairman of such Board, and such Resignation of any Vestryman or Member of any such District Board to be notified in Writing signed by such Vestryman or Member to the Churchwardens of the Parish for which he was elected.

Retiring Members may be re-elected.

LVI. Any Member of the Metropolitan Board of Works, or of any District Board of Works, or of any such Vestry, going out of Office, shall, if qualified, be capable of immediate Re-election.

No Resolution of Metropolitan or any District Board, &c. to be revoked at a subsequent Meeting, unless under certain Circumstances.

LVII. No Resolution or other Act of the Metropolitan Board of Works, or of the Board of Works for any District, or of any such Vestry, shall be revoked or altered at any subsequent Meeting, unless such subsequent Meeting be specially convened for the Purpose, nor unless such Revocation or Alteration be determined upon by a Majority consisting of Two Thirds of the Members of the Board, or of the Vestrymen present at such subsequent Meeting, if the Number of Members or Vestrymen present at such subsequent Meeting be not greater by One Fifth than the Number present when such Resolution was made or such Act was done, but if the Number of Members or Vestrymen present at such subsequent Meeting be greater by One Fifth than the Number present at such former Meeting, then such Revocation or Alteration may be determined upon by a mere Majority.

Committees may be appointed.

LVIII. It shall be lawful for the Metropolitan Board of Works, and the Board of Works for any District, and any such Vestry respectively, to appoint a Committee or Committees for any Purposes which, in the Discretion of the Board or Vestry, would be better regulated and managed by means of such Committee, and at any Meeting to continue, alter, or discontinue such Committee: Provided always, that the Acts of every such Committee shall be submitted to the general Body of the Board or Vestry appointing such Committee for their Approval.

Powers of Committees.

LIX. Every Committee so appointed may meet from Time to Time, and may adjourn from Place to Place, as they may think proper, for carrying into effect the Purposes of their Appointment; but no Business shall be transacted at any Meeting of the Committee unless Three Members of the Committee are present.

Minutes of Proceedings of Metropolitan and District Boards and of Vestries to be entered.

LX. Entries of all Proceedings of the Metropolitan Board of Works and every such District Board, and of any such Vestry, with the Names of the Members who attend each Meeting, shall be made in Books to be provided and kept for that Purpose, under the Direction of the Board or Vestry, and shall be signed by the Members present, or any Two of them; and all Entries purporting to be so signed shall be received as Evidence, without Proof of any Meeting of the Board or Vestry having been duly convened or held, or of the Presence at any such Meeting of the Persons named in any such Entry as being present thereat, or of such Persons being Members of the Board or Vestry, or of the Signature of any Person by whom any such Entry purports to be signed, all which Matters shall be presumed until the contrary be proved; and every such Board and Vestry shall provide and keep Books in which shall be entered true and regular Accounts of all Sums of Money received and paid by them or under their Authority, and of all Liabilities incurred by them, and of the several Purposes for which such Sums of Money are received and paid and such Liabilities incurred, and Copies of all Contracts entered into by any such Board or Vestry.

All Books to be open to Inspection.

LXI. All such Books shall at all reasonable Times be open to the Examination of every Member of the Board and Vestry respectively to which such Books belong, and of every Owner of Property, Churchwarden, Overseer, and Ratepayer within the Metropolis, as regards Books of the said Metropolitan Board, and of every Owner of Property, Churchwarden, Overseer, and Ratepayer within any District or Parish, as regards Books belonging to the District Board or Vestry thereof (as the Case may be), and of every Creditor on the Rates raised under this Act by any such Board or Vestry respectively, without Fee or Reward, and they respectively may take Copies of or Extracts from such Books or any Part thereof, without paying for the same; and in case the Members of the Board or Vestry, or any of them, or any of the Officers or Servants of the Board or Vestry having the Custody of the said Books, being thereunto reasonably requested, refuse to permit or do not permit any such Owner of Property, Churchwarden, Overseer, Ratepayer, or Creditor to examine the same, or take any Copies or Extracts, every such Member, Officer, or Servant so offending shall for every such Offence, upon a summary Conviction thereof before Two Justices, forfeit any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds.

LXII. The Power to Metropolitan Board, District Boards, and Vestries to appoint Officers.

LXII. The Metropolitan Board of Works, and (subject to the Provisions herein contained) the Board of Works for every District under this Act, and the Vestry of every Parish mentioned in Schedule (A.) to this Act, shall respectively appoint or employ, or continue for the Purposes of this Act, and may remove at pleasure, such Clerks, Treasurers, and Surveyors, and such other Officers and Servants as may be necessary, and may allow to such Clerks, Treasurers, Surveyors, Officers, and Servants respectively such Salaries and Wages as the Board or Vestry may think fit.

Clerk and Treasurer not to be the same Person.

LXIII. No Person holding the Office of Treasurer under the Metropolitan Board, or any District Board or any such Vestry, nor his Partner, nor any Person in the Service or Employ of them or either of them, shall hold, be eligible to, or in any Manner assist or officiate in the Office of Clerk; and neither the Person holding the Office of Clerk, nor his Partner, nor any Person in the Service or Employ of them or either of them, shall hold, be eligible to, or in any Manner assist or officiate in the Office of Treasurer; and every Person offending in any of the Cases specified in this Provision shall forfeit and pay the Sum of One hundred Pounds, which may be recovered by any Person, with full Costs of Suit, by Action in any of the Superior Courts of Law.

Penalty on Officers, &c. being interested in Contracts, or exacting Fees.

LXIV. No Officer or Servant of the Metropolitan Board, or of any District Board or any such Vestry, shall be in anywise concerned or interested in any Contract or Work made with or executed for such Board or Vestry; and if any such Officer or Servant be so concerned or interested, or, under colour of his Office or Employment, exact, take, or accept any Fee or Reward whatsoever, other than his proper Salary, Wages, and Allowances, he shall be incapable of afterwards holding or continuing in any Office or Employment under such Board or Vestry, and shall forfeit and pay the Sum of Fifty Pounds, which may be recovered by any Person, with full Costs of Suit, by Action in any of the Superior Courts of Law; provided that no Person, being a Shareholder of any Joint Stock Company, shall be prevented from being employed as an Officer or Servant by reason of any Contract between such Company and such Board or Vestry, or of any Work executed by such Company.

Officers, &c. intrusted with Money to give Security for duly accounting for the same.

LXV. Before any Officer or Servant as aforesaid enters upon any Office or Employment under this Act, by reason whereof he will or may be intrusted with the Custody or Control of Money, the Board or Vestry shall require and take from him such Security for the faithful Execution of such Office or Employment, and for duly accounting for all Monies which may be intrusted to him by reason thereof, as they may think sufficient; and every such Officer and Servant, as well during his Continuance in Office or Employment as upon his Resignation, Dismissal, or ceasing to hold his Office or Employment, shall respectively, when and in such Manner as shall be required by the Board or Vestry, make out and deliver a true and perfect Account, in Writing signed by him, of all Monies received by him for the Purposes of this Act, and stating how, and to whom, and for what Purpose such Monies have been disposed of, and shall together with such Account deliver the Vouchers or Receipts for all Payments made by him, and pay over to the Treasurer or such Person as the Board or Vestry may appoint all Monies owing by him; and if any such Officer or Servant fail to render such Account, or to produce and deliver up such of the said Vouchers and Receipts as may be in his Possession or Power, or to pay over any such Monies as aforesaid, or if, for the Space of Five Days after being thereunto required, he fail to deliver up to the Board or Vestry, or to such Person as they may appoint, all Books, Papers, Writings, Property, Effects, Matters, and Things in his Possession or Power belonging to the Board or Vestry, then and in every such Case a Justice shall, on Complaint being made to him in that Behalf, summon the Party charged to appear and answer the Complaint before Two Justices, at a Time and Place to be specified in the Summons; and upon the Appearance of the Party charged, or upon Proof that the Summons was personally served upon him or left at his last known Place of Abode in England, and if it appear to the last-mentioned Justices that he has failed to render any such Account, or to produce and deliver up any such Vouchers or Receipts, or any such Books, Papers, Writings, Property, Effects, Matters, or Things as aforesaid, and that he still fails or refuses so to do, it shall be lawful for them, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to commit the Offender to Gaol, there to remain, without Bail, until he shall have rendered such Account, and produced and delivered up all such Vouchers, Receipts, Books, Papers, Writings, Property, Effects, Matters, and Things in respect of which the Charge was made; and if it appears that the Party charged has failed to pay over any such Monies as aforesaid, and that he still fails or refuses so to do, it shall be lawful for the last-mentioned Justices, by a like Warrant, to cause the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of his Goods and Chattels, and in default of any sufficient Distress to commit him to Gaol, there to remain, without Bail, for a Period not exceeding Three Months, unless such Monies be sooner paid: Provided always, that if the Complainant, by Deposition on Oath, show to the Satisfaction of any Justice that there is probable Cause for believing that the Party charged intends to abscond, it shall be lawful for such Justice, without previous Summons, by Warrant under his Hand and Seal to cause him to be forthwith apprehended; and in such Case the said Party shall, within Twenty-four Hours after Apprehension, be brought before the same or some other Justice, who may order that he be discharged from Custody, if such Justice think that there is no sufficient Ground for Detention, or that he be further detained until he be brought before Two Justices at a Time and Place to be named in the Order, unless Bail to the Satisfaction of the Justice be given for the Appearance of the Party before such Two Justices: Provided also, that no such Proceeding shall be construed to relieve or discharge any Surety of the Offender from any Liability whatsoever.

If Officer fail to render Account, &c. Justices may commit Offender to Prison.

Power to levy by Distress.

LXVI. The

Metropolitan and District Boards and Vestries to provide proper Offices, &c.

LXVI. The Metropolitan Board of Works and every such District Board and Vestry respectively shall provide and maintain such Offices within their respective District or Parish as may be necessary for the Purposes of this Act, and shall take care that their Clerk, or some Person duly authorized by them in that Behalf, attends at their Office daily (Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday, and Days appointed for any General Fast or Thanksgiving, alone excepted), for the Purpose of receiving Notices and transacting the ordinary Business of the Board or Vestry under this Act.

Duties and Powers of Vestries and District Boards.

Meaning of "Vestry" in following Provisions.

LXVII. Where in the Provisions herein-after contained any Expression is used referring to the Vestry of a Parish, such Expression shall be construed as referring only to the Vestry of a Parish mentioned in Schedule (A.) to this Act, unless such Construction be repugnant to the Context.

Sewers (except Main Sewers) vested in Vestries and District Boards.

LXVIII. Upon the Commencement of this Act all Sewers vested in the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers which are situate in any Parish mentioned in Schedule (A.) to this Act (except such Sewers as are mentioned in Schedule (D.) to this Act), with the Walls, Defences, Banks, Outlets, Sluices, Flaps, Penstocks, Gullies, Grates, Works, and Things thereunto appertaining, and the Materials thereof, with all Rights of Way and Passage used and enjoyed by such Commissioners over or to such Sewers, Works, and Things, and all other Rights concerning or incident to such Sewers, Works, and Things, shall become vested in the Vestry of such Parish; and all Sewers vested in the said Metropolitan Commissioners which are situate within any District mentioned in Schedule (B.) to this Act, except as before excepted, with all such Works and Things as aforesaid appertaining thereto, and all Rights of Way and Passage used and enjoyed by such Commissioners over or to such Sewers, Works, and Things, and all other Rights concerning or incident to such Sewers, Works, and Things, shall become vested in the Board of Works for such District; and all Sewers made and to be made within any such Parish or District, except Sewers and Works vested or to be vested in the Metropolitan Board of Works, as herein-after mentioned, shall be vested in such Vestry and Board respectively.

Vestries and District Boards to repair, &c. all Sewers vested in them, and from Time to Time to construct new ones, &c.

LXIX. The Vestry of every Parish mentioned in Schedule (A.) to this Act, and the Board of Works for every District mentioned in Schedule (B.) to this Act, shall (subject to the Powers by this Act vested in the Metropolitan Board of Works) from Time to Time repair and maintain the Sewers under this Act vested in them, or such of them as shall not be discontinued, closed up, or destroyed under the Powers herein contained, and shall cause to be made, repaired, and maintained such Sewers and Works, or such Diversions or Alterations of Sewers and Works, as may be necessary for effectually draining their Parish or District, and shall cause all Banks, Wharves, Docks, or Defences abutting on or adjoining any River, Stream, Canal, Pond, or Watercourse in such Parish or District to be raised, strengthened, or altered or repaired, where it may be necessary so to do, for effectually draining, or protecting from Floods or Inundation such Parish or District; and it shall be lawful for any such Vestry or District Board to carry any such Sewers or Works through, across, or under any Turnpike Road, or any Street or Place laid out as or intended for a Street, or through or under any Cellar or Vault which may be under the Pavement or Carriageway of any Street, and into, through, or under any Lands whatsoever, making Compensation for any Damage done thereby as herein-after provided; and it shall be lawful for any such Vestry or District Board from Time to Time to enlarge, contract, raise, lower, arch over, or otherwise improve or alter all or any of the Sewers, Watercourses, and Works which shall be from Time to Time vested in them or subject to their Order and Control, and to discontinue, close up, or destroy such of them as they may deem to have become unnecessary: Provided always, that no new Sewer shall be made without the previous Approval of the Metropolitan Board of Works: Provided also, that the Discontinuance, Closing up, Destruction, or Alteration of any Sewer as aforesaid shall be so done as not to create a Nuisance; and if by reason thereof any Person shall be deprived of the lawful Use of any covered Sewer, it shall be the Duty of the Vestry or District Board to provide some other Sewer or a Drain as effectual for his Use as the Sewer of which he is so deprived: Provided also, that where the Vestry or District Board alter any Sewer, or provide a new Sewer in substitution for a Sewer discontinued, closed up, or destroyed, they may contract or otherwise alter the private Drains communicating with the Sewer so altered, or with the Sewer so discontinued, closed up, or destroyed, or may close up or destroy such private Drains, and provide new Drains in lieu thereof, as the Circumstances of the Sewerage may appear to them to require, but so that in every Case the altered or substituted Drain shall be as effectual for the Use of the Person entitled thereto as the Drain previously used.

Power to Vestries and District Boards to do Works of Improvement in Sewers, &c., the Expense of which to be divided between the Party liable and the Parish or District.

LXX. Wherever any Party is, by Prescription, by reason of Tenure, or otherwise, liable by Law to maintain or do any Repairs to Sewers, Banks, Watercourses, or Works in any such Parish or District which the Vestry or District Board judge it necessary to alter or improve, it shall be lawful for them to make such Alterations or Improvements therein as they think proper, and to divide the Expense of such Alterations or Improvements between the Party liable to such Maintenance or Repairs and the Parish, District, or Persons who would have been wholly liable to the Expense of such Alterations or Improvements if no Party had been liable as aforesaid, so as to throw on the Party liable to such Maintenance or Repairs such Part of the Expense of Alterations or Improvements as may be equal to what would be incurred for such Maintenance or Repairs, and to throw on the Parish, District, or Persons Persons aforesaid the Residue of such Expense, and to settle and adjust such Proportions either by some general Regulation or by Order in each particular Case, as they may think proper: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall exempt from Liability to do any Works, or to pay the whole Cost thereof, any Person who, by Prescription, by reason of Tenure, or otherwise by Law, is so liable.

Gullyholes, &c. to be trapped.

LXXI. Every District Board and Vestry shall, by providing proper Traps or other Coverings, or by Ventilation, or by such other Ways and Means as shall be practicable for that Purpose, prevent the Effluvia of Sewers from exhaling through Gullyholes, Gratings, or other Openings of Sewers in any of the Streets or other Places within their District or Parish.

Vestries and District Boards to cause Sewers to be cleansed, &c.

LXXII. Every Vestry and District Board shall cause the Sewers vested in them to be constructed, covered, and kept so as not to be a Nuisance or injurious to Health, and to be properly cleared, cleansed, and emptied, and for the Purpose of clearing, cleansing, and emptying the same they may construct and place, either above or under Ground, such Reservoirs, Sluices, Engines, and other Works as may be necessary.

Vestry or District Board in certain Cases may compel Owners, &c. of Houses to construct Drains into the Common Sewer.

LXXIII. If any House or Building, whether built before or after the Commencement of this Act, situate within any such Parish or District, be found not to be drained by a sufficient Drain communicating with some Sewer, and emptying itself into the same, to the Satisfaction of the Vestry or Board of such Parish or District, and if a Sewer of sufficient Size be within One hundred Feet of any Part of such House or Building, on a lower Level than such House or Building, it shall be lawful for the Vestry or Board, at their Discretion, by Notice in Writing, to require the Owner of such House or Building forthwith, or within such reasonable Time as may be appointed by the Vestry or Board, to construct and make from such House or Building into any such Sewer a covered Drain, and such Branches thereto, of such Materials, of such Size, at such Level, and with such Fall as shall be adequate for the Drainage of such House or Building, and its several Floors or Stories, and also of its Areas, Waterclosets, Privies, and Offices, (if any,) and for conveying the Soil, Drainage, and Wash therefrom into the said Sewer, and to provide fit and proper paved or impermeable sloped Surfaces for conveying Surface Water thereto, and fit and proper Sinks, and fit and proper syphoned or otherwise trapped Inlets and Outlets for hindering Stench therefrom, and fit and proper Water Supply and Water supplying Pipes, Cisterns, and Apparatus for scouring the same, and for causing the same to convey away the Soil, and fit and proper Sand Traps, expanding Inlets, and other Apparatus for hindering the Entry of improper Substances therein, and all other such fit and proper Works and Arrangements as may appear to the Vestry or Board, or to their Officers, requisite to secure the safe and proper working of the said Drain, and to prevent the same from obstructing or otherwise injuring or impeding the Action of the Sewer to which it leads; and it shall be lawful for the said Vestry or Board to cause the said Works to be inspected while in progress, and from Time to Time during their Execution to order such reasonable Alterations therein, Additions thereto, and Abandonment of Part or Parts thereof, as may to the Vestry or Board or their Officers appear, on the fuller Knowledge afforded by the opening of the Ground, requisite to secure the complete and perfect working of such Works; and if the Owner of such House or Building neglect or refuse, during Twenty-eight Days after the said Notice has been delivered to such Owner, or left at such House or Building, to begin to construct such Drain and other Works aforesaid, or any of them, or thereafter fail to carry them on and complete them with all reasonable Despatch, it shall be lawful for the Vestry or Board to cause the same to be constructed and made, and to recover the Expenses to be incurred thereby from such Owner in the Manner herein-after provided.

Penalty on Owner, &c. for Neglect.

Provision for combined Drainage of Blocks of Houses.

LXXIV. If it appear to the Vestry or Board of any Parish or District that a Group or Block of contiguous Houses, or of adjacent detached or semi-detached Houses, may be drained and improved more economically or advantageously in combination than separately, and a Sewer of sufficient Size already exist or be about to be constructed within One hundred Feet of any Part of such Group or Block of Houses, whether contiguous, detached, or semi-detached, it shall be lawful for such Board or Vestry to order that such Group or Block of Houses be drained and improved, as herein-before provided, by a combined Operation.

No House to be built without Drains constructed to the Satisfaction of the Vestry or District Board.

LXXV. It shall not be lawful to erect any House or other Building in any Parish mentioned in Schedule (A.) to this Act, or in any District mentioned in Schedule (B.) to this Act, or to rebuild any House or Building within any such Parish or District which has been pulled down to or below the Floor commonly called the Ground Floor, or to occupy any House or Building so newly built or rebuilt, unless a Drain and such Branches thereto and other connected Works and Apparatus and Water Supply as herein-before mentioned be constructed and provided to the Satisfaction of the Surveyor of the Vestry of such Parish or Board of Works for such District, of such Materials, of such Size, at such Level, and with such Fall as they may direct, so that the same shall be available for the Drainage of the lowest Floor of such House or Building, and of its several Floors or Stories, and also of its Areas, Waterclosets, Privies, and Offices (if any), which Drain shall lead from such House or Building, or the intended Site of such House or Building, to such Sewer, already made or intended to be constructed near thereto, as the Vestry or Board shall direct and appoint, or if there be no such Sewer existing or intended to be constructed within One hundred Feet of any Part of the intended Site of such House or Building, then to such covered Cesspool or other Place, not being under any Dwelling House, as the Vestry or Board shall direct; direct; and whenever any House or Building is rebuilt as aforesaid, the Level of the lowest Floor of such House or Building shall be raised sufficiently to allow of the Construction of such a Drain and such Branches thereto and other Works and Apparatus as are herein-before required, and for that Purpose the Levels shall be taken and determined under the Direction of the Vestry or District Board.

Notice of Buildings to be given to the Vestry or District Board before commencing the same.

LXXVI. Before beginning to lay or dig out the Foundation of any new House or Building within any such Parish or District, or to rebuild any House or Building therein, and also before making any Drain for the Purpose of draining directly or indirectly into any Sewer under the Jurisdiction of the Vestry or Board of or for any such Parish or District, Seven Days Notice in Writing shall be given to the Vestry or Board by the Person intending to build or rebuild such House or Building or to make such Drain; and every such Foundation shall be laid at such Level as will permit the Drainage of such House or Building in compliance with this Act, and as the Vestry or Board shall order, and every such Drain shall be made in such Direction, Manner, and Form, and of such Materials and Workmanship, and with such Branches thereto and other connected Works and Apparatus and Water Supply as herein-before mentioned, and as the Vestry or Board shall order, and the making of every such Drain shall be under the Survey and Control of the Vestry or Board; and the Vestry or District Board shall make their Order in relation to the Matters aforesaid, and cause the same to be notified to the Person from whom such Notice was received within Seven Days after the Receipt of such Notice, and in default of such Notice, or if such House, Building, or Drain, or Branches thereto or other connected Works and Apparatus and Water Supply, be begun, erected, made, or provided in any respect contrary to any Order of the Vestry or Board made and notified as aforesaid, or the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Vestry or Board to cause such House or Building to be demolished or altered, and to cause such Drain or Branches thereto and other connected Works and Apparatus and Water Supply to be relaid, amended, or re-made, or, in the event of Omission, added, as the Case may require, and to recover the Expenses thereof from the Owner thereof in the Manner herein-after provided.

Power to branch Drains into Sewers constructed by Metropolitan Board or any Vestry or District Board under certain Regulations.

Penalty.

LXXVII. It shall be lawful for any Person, at his own Expense, to make or branch any Drain into any of the Sewers vested in the Metropolitan Board of Works or any Vestry or District Board under this Act, or authorized to be made by them under this Act, such Drain being of such a Size, and of such Conditions, and branched to such Sewer, in such a Manner and Form of Communication in all respects as the Vestry or Board shall direct or appoint; and in case any Person make or branch any Drain into any of the said Sewers so vested in the Vestry or Board, or authorized to be made by them under this Act, of a larger Size, or of different Conditions, or in a different Manner and Form of Communication than shall be directed or appointed by the Vestry or Board, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Fifty Pounds.

Power to Metropolitan Board, &c. to branch private Drains into Sewers, at the Expense of the Party to whom they belong.

LXXVIII. Whenever it is necessary to open any Part of the Pavement or any Street or public Place, for the Purpose of making or branching any private Drain into any of the Sewers or Drains vested in the Metropolitan Board of Works, or any Vestry or District Board under this Act, or authorized to be made by them under this Act, it shall be lawful for the Vestry or Board, in case they think fit so to do, to make so much and such Part of such private Drain, and also to construct so much and such Part of the Work necessary for branching the same into the public Sewers as shall be under or in any Street, and to recover the Expenses incurred thereby from the Owner of the House, Building, or Ground to which such private Drain belongs, in the Manner herein-after provided.

Vestry or District Board may agree to make House Drains at the Expense of Owners or Occupiers.

LXXIX. It shall be lawful for any such Vestry or Board to contract and agree with the Owners or Occupiers of any Houses, Buildings, or Ground that any Drains required to be made, altered, or enlarged by such Owners shall be constructed, made, altered, and enlarged by the Vestry or Board; and the Cost Price of making, altering, or enlarging such Drains, as certified by the Surveyor of the Vestry or Board, shall be repaid by the Owner or Occupier so agreeing to the Vestry or Board, and in default of Payment the same may be recovered in the Manner herein-after provided.

Vestry or District Board may order a Contribution towards Construction of Sewers in certain Cases.

LXXX. Where any Sewer in any of the Parishes mentioned in either of the Schedules (A.) and (B.) to this Act, into which any Drain shall be made or branched, has been built since the Third Day of September One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, and before the Commencement of this Act, at the Expense of any Person or Body other than any Commissioners of Sewers, the Vestry or District Board in whom such Sewer is vested may order such Sum as they may deem just, to be paid and contributed by the Owner of the House to which such Drain belongs towards the Expense of the Construction of such Sewer, which Sum shall, on the Receipt thereof by such Vestry or Board, be paid over to the Person or Body aforesaid, and such Vestry or Board may, if they see fit, order and accept Payment of such Sum, with Interest after a Rate not exceeding Five Pounds for the Hundred by the Year, by Instalments within any Period not exceeding Twenty Years.

Penalty on erecting or rebuilding Houses without proper Watercloset, &c.

LXXXI. After the Commencement of this Act it shall not be lawful newly to erect any House, or to rebuild any House pulled down to the Extent aforesaid, within any Parish mentioned in Schedule (A.) to this Act, or any District mentioned in Schedule (B.) to this Act, without a sufficient Watercloset or Privy and Ashpit furnished with proper Doors and Coverings, and also furnished as regards the Watercloset with suitable Water Supply and Water Supply Apparatus, and with suitable trapped Soilpan and other suitable Works and Arrangements, so far as may be necessary to ensure the efficient Operation thereof; and whosoever shall offend against this Enactment shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Twenty Pounds; and if at any Time it appear to the Vestry or District Board of such Parish or District that any House in any such Parish or District, whether built before or after the Commencement of this Act, is without a sufficient Watercloset or Privy and Ashpit furnished with proper Doors and Coverings, and with other Apparatus and Works as aforesaid, the Vestry or District Board shall, in case the same can be provided without disturbing any Building, give Notice in Writing to the Owner or Occupier of such House, requiring him forthwith, or within such reasonable Time as shall be specified in such Notice, to provide a sufficient Watercloset or Privy and Ashpit so furnished as aforesaid, or either of them, as the Case may require; and if such Notice be not complied with, it shall be lawful for the Vestry or District Board to cause to be constructed a sufficient Watercloset or Privy and Ashpit, or either of them, or do such other Works as the Case may require, and to recover the Expenses incurred by them in so doing from the Owner of such House in manner herein-after provided: Provided always, that where a Watercloset or Privy has been and is used in common by the Inmates of Two or more Houses, or if in the Opinion of the Vestry or District Board a Watercloset or Privy may be so used, they need not require the same to be provided for each House.

Power to Vestry, &c. to require Owners, &c. to provide sufficient Watercloset, &c.

If Owners fail, Vestry, &c. to cause the Work to be done at their Expense.

LXXXII. It shall be lawful for any such Vestry or Board, or for their Surveyor or Inspector, or such other Person as they appoint, to inspect any Drain, Watercloset, Privy, Cesspool, or Water Supply Apparatus, or Sinks, Traps, Syphons, Pipes, or other Works or Apparatus connected therewith, within the Parish or District of such Vestry or Board, and for that Purpose, at all reasonable Times in the Daytime, after Twenty-four Hours Notice in Writing has been given to the Occupier of the Premises to which such Drain, Watercloset, Privy, Cesspool, or Water Supply Apparatus, or other connected Works or Apparatus as aforesaid, is attached, or left upon the Premises, or in case of Emergency without Notice, to enter, by themselves or their Surveyor or Inspector and Workmen, upon any Premises, and cause the Ground to be opened in any Place they think fit, doing as little Damage as may be.

Power for Vestries and District Boards to authorize Inspection of Drains, Privies, and Cesspools.

LXXXIII. In case any Drain, Watercloset, Privy, Cesspool, or Water Supply, or Water Supply Apparatus, or other connected Works or Apparatus, herein-before mentioned, be found, on Inspection, not to have been made or provided according to the Directions or Regulations of the Vestry or District Board, or contrary to the Provisions of this Act, or in case any Person, without the Consent of the Vestry or District Board, construct, rebuild, or unstop any Sewer, Drain, Watercloset, Privy, or Cesspool, which may have been ordered by them not to be made, or to be demolished or stopped up, or in case any Person discontinue any Water Supply, or destroy any connected Works or Apparatus as aforesaid, or in case any Person, without the Consent of the Vestry or District Board, break into any Sewer vested in such Vestry or Board, every person so offending shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds; and in case the Person so making any Sewer, Drain, Watercloset, Privy, Cesspool, or other Works or Apparatus as aforesaid, contrary to the Directions or Regulations of the Vestry or Board, or contrary to the Provisions of this Act, or, without such Consent as aforesaid, constructing, rebuilding, or unstopping any Sewer, Drain, Watercloset, Privy, or Cesspool which may have been ordered to be demolished or stopped up, or discontinuing any Water Supply or destroying any connected Works or Apparatus as aforesaid, or breaking into any such Sewer as aforesaid, do not, within Fourteen Days after Notice in Writing by the Vestry or Board, cause such Sewer, Drain, Watercloset, Privy, or Cesspool to be altered or reinstated in conformity with the Directions of the Vestry or Board, or, as the Case may be, to be demolished or stopped up, or such Water Supply to be renewed, or such connected Works or Apparatus to be restored, then and in every such Case the Vestry or Board may cause the Work to be done, and the Expenses thereof shall be paid by the Person who has so offended.

Penalty on Persons improperly making or altering Drains.

LXXXIV. If such Drain, Watercloset, Privy, Cesspool, or Water Supply, or Water Supply Apparatus, or other connected Works and Apparatus, be found, on Inspection as aforesaid, to be made to the Satisfaction of the Vestry or Board, and in proper Order and Condition, they shall cause the same to be reinstated and made good as soon as may be, and the Expenses of Examination, reinstating, and making good such Drain, Watercloset, Privy, Cesspool, or other Works or Apparatus as aforesaid, shall be defrayed by the Vestry or Board, and full Compensation shall be made by them for all Damages or Injuries done or occasioned by the Examination of any such Drain, Watercloset, Privy, Cesspool, or other Works or Apparatus as aforesaid.

Where no Default found Expenses to be paid by Vestry or Board.

LXXXV. If, upon such Inspection as aforesaid, any Drain, Watercloset, Privy, or Cesspool appear to be in bad Order and Condition, or to require cleansing, Alteration, or Amendment, or to be filled up, the Vestry or Board shall cause Notice in Writing to be given to the Owner or Occupier of the Premises upon or in respect of which the Inspection was made, requiring him forthwith, or within such reasonable Time as shall be specified in such Notice, to do the necessary Works; and if such Notice be not complied with by the Person to whom it is given, the Vestry or Board may, if they think fit, execute such Works, and the Expenses incurred by them in so doing shall be paid to them by the Owner or Occupier of the Premises.

Vestry or District Board to cause Drains, &c. to be put into proper Condition, &c. where necessary.

LXXXVI. Every Vestry and District Board shall drain, cleanse, cover, or fill up, or cause to be drained, cleansed, covered, or filled up, all Ponds, Pools, open Ditches, Sewers, Drains, and Places containing or used for the Collection of any Drainage, Filth, Water, Matter, or Thing of an offensive Nature, or likely to be prejudicial to Health, which may be situate in their Parish or District; and they shall cause written Notice to be given to the Person causing any such Nuisance, or to the Owner or Occupier Vestry and District Board to cause offensive Ditches, Drains, &c. to be cleansed or covered.

Occupier of any Premises whereon the same exists, requiring him, within a Time to be specified in such Notice, to drain, cleanse, cover, or fill up such Pond, Pool, Ditch, Sewer, Drain, or Place, or to construct a proper Sewer or Drain for the Discharge of such Filth, Water, Matter, or Thing, or to do such other Works as the Case may require; and if the Person to whom such Notice is given fail to comply therewith, the Vestry or Board shall execute such Works as may be necessary for the Abatement of such Nuisance, and may recover the Expenses thereby incurred from the Owner of the Premises in manner herein-after mentioned: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for such Vestry or Board, where they think it reasonable, to defray all or any Portion of such Expenses, as Expenses of Sewerage are to be defrayed under this Act: Provided also, that where any Work by any Vestry or District Board done or required to be done in pursuance of the Provisions of this Act interferes with or prejudicially affects any ancient Mill, or any Right connected therewith, or other Right to the Use of Water, full Compensation shall be made to all Persons sustaining Damage thereby, in manner herein-after provided, or it shall be lawful for the Vestry or Board, if they think fit, to contract for the Purchase of such Mill, or any such Right connected therewith, or other Right to the Use of Water; and the Provisions of this Act with respect to the Purchases by the Vestry or Board herein-after authorized shall be applicable to every such Purchase as aforesaid.

Where Works interfere with any ancient Mill, &c. Compensation to be made, or Rights therein purchased.

Power to Vestries and District Boards to fill up Ditches by the Side of Roads, and substitute Pipes.

LXXXVII. It shall be lawful for any Vestry or District Board, where they think fit, to cause the Ditches at the Sides of or across public Roads and Byeways and public Footways to be filled up, and to substitute Pipe or other Drains alongside or across such Roads and Ways, with appropriate Shoots and Means of conveying Water from such Roads and Ways thereinto, and from Time to Time to repair and amend the same; and the Surface of Land gained by filling up such Ditches may, if the Vestry or Board so think fit and direct, be thrown into such Roads and Ways, and be repairable as Part thereof, and be under the Control of the Surveyors of the Highways, or other Person in charge of such Roads, Byeways, or Footways.

Power to Vestries and District Boards to provide public Conveniences.

LXXXVIII. It shall be lawful for every Vestry and District Board to provide and maintain Urinals, Waterclosets, Privies, and like Conveniences, in Situations where they deem such Accommodation to be required, and to supply the same with Water, and to defray the Expense thereof, and any Damage occasioned to any Person by the Erection thereof, and the Expense of keeping the same in good Order, as Expenses of Sewerage are to be defrayed under this Act.

Vestries and District Boards may transfer their Powers as to Sewerage to the Metropolitan Board of Works.

LXXXIX. If any Vestry or District Board desire to transfer to the Metropolitan Board of Works the Powers and Duties vested in such Vestry or District Board in relation to Sewerage and Drainage, and a Resolution for so transferring such Powers and Duties be passed by a Majority at a Meeting of such Vestry or District Board, specially convened for the Purpose of considering the Question of such Transfer, of which not less than Fourteen Days Notice shall have been given, and at which there shall be present not less than Two Thirds of the whole Number of such Vestry or Board, then such Powers and Duties, and all Sewers and Property vested in such Vestry or Board under this Act, for the Purposes of or in connexion with such Powers and Duties, shall, at the Expiration of One Month after Notice from such Vestry or Board shall have been given under their Seal to the said Metropolitan Board of such Resolution having been passed as aforesaid, become vested in the said Metropolitan Board, and the Provisions of this Act for defraying Expenses incurred by such Board in the Execution of this Act shall extend to Expenses incurred by them in the Execution of the Powers and Duties so transferred to them.

All Powers relating to paving, &c. to be vested in Vestries and in District Boards.

XC. All the Duties, Powers, and Authorities for or in relation to the paving, lighting, watering, cleansing, or improving of any Parish mentioned in Schedule (A.) to this Act, or any Part of such Parish, now vested in any Commissioners, or in any Body other than the Vestry of such Parish, or in any Officer of any Commissioners or other Body, and all other Duties, Powers, and Authorities in anywise relating to the Regulation, Government, or Concerns of any such Parish or Part, or of the Inhabitants thereof, (except such Duties, Powers, and Authorities as relate to the Affairs of the Church, or the Management or Relief of the Poor, or the Administration of any Money or other Property applicable to the Relief of the Poor, so far as such Duties, Powers, and Authorities relate thereto,) now vested under any Local Act of Parliament in any Commissioners, or in any Body other than the Vestry of such Parish, or in any such Officer, shall cease to be so vested, and shall, save as herein otherwise provided, become vested in and be performed and exercised by the Vestry of such Parish under this Act; and all the Duties, Powers, and Authorities for or in relation to the paving, lighting, watering, cleansing, or improving of any Parish included in any District mentioned in Schedule (B.) to this Act, or any Part of such Parish, now vested in any Commissioners, Vestry, or other Body, or in any Officer of any Commissioners or other Body, and all other Duties, Powers, and Authorities in anywise relating to the Regulation, Government, or Concerns of any such Parish, or Part, or of the Inhabitants thereof (except such Duties, Powers, and Authorities as relate to the Affairs of the Church, or the Management or Relief of the Poor, or the Administration of any Money or other Property applicable to the Relief of the Poor, so far as such Duties, Powers, and Authorities relate thereto), now vested under any Local Act of Parliament in any Commissioners, Vestry, or other Body, or in any such Officer, shall cease to be so vested, and shall, save as herein otherwise provided, become vested in and be performed and exercised by the Board of Works for such District; and the Provisions of every such Act of Parliament as aforesaid shall be applicable to the Vestry of every Parish mentioned in the said Schedule (A.) and to every such District Board accordingly, and the Offices of all Commissioners and Persons whose Powers are determined by this Act shall cease and be determined, and there shall be no new Appointment or Election to any such Office.

Saving as to Baths and Washhouses, Metropolitan Burials, Markets, and Charitable Trusts Acts.

XCI. Provided always, That, save as regards the Appointment of Auditors, nothing in this Act shall divest the Vestry of any Parish, or any Commissioners or Burial Board appointed by any Vestry, of any Powers or Property vested in them respectively under the Provisions of the Act of the Session holden in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-four, or any Act amending the same, or under the Provisions of the Act of the Session holden in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighty-five, or any Act amending the same, or in anywise affect the Provisions of any of the said Acts; and nothing in this Act shall extend to or affect any Rights, Privileges, Powers, or Authorities vested in any Persons in reference to any Market, or any Powers or Rights for or in relation to the Administration of any Charitable Trusts, save that any Powers or Rights in relation to any such Trusts vested or which would have become vested in the existing Vestry of any Parish shall be vested in the Vestry of such Parish as constituted by this Act.

Expenses incurred under existing Powers relating to paving, &c. to be deemed Expenses incurred under this Act.

XCII. Provided also, That all Expenses of paving, lighting, watering, cleansing, or improving any Parish or any Part of any Parish mentioned in either of the Schedules (A.) and (B.) to this Act, and all other Expenses in relation to the Regulation, Government, or public Concerns of any such Parish or Part, or of the Inhabitants thereof, except only Expenses incurred in relation to the Affairs of the Church, or for the Management or Relief of the Poor, and other Expenses by Law payable out of any Poor Rate, which are not herein provided for, shall be deemed Expenses incurred in the Execution of this Act, and shall be defrayed accordingly.

As to the Transfer of Property.

XCIII. All Property, Matters, and Things whatsoever vested in such Commissioners or other Body, or in any such Officer as aforesaid, under any such Act, in connexion with any such Duties or Powers as aforesaid, hereby transferred to the Vestry of any Parish or the Board of Works for any District, shall upon the Commencement of this Act be vested in such Vestry or Board; and where any such Property, Matters, or Things are vested in any such Commissioners or Body, or Officer, acting for Parts extending beyond such Parish or District, the Metropolitan Board of Works shall by their Order declare in what Vestry or District Board they shall be vested, and may, if they see fit, apportion the same between the Vestries and District Boards within whose respective Districts and Parishes such Parts may be situate, and the same shall be vested accordingly; and any Money in the Possession of any such Commissioners or other Body, or any such Officer, which becomes vested in any such Vestry or Board under this Enactment, and the Income of any other such Property, until sold or disposed of, shall be applicable, as nearly as may be, for the like Purposes as if this Act had not been passed.

Existing Contracts, &c. to remain valid.

XCIV. Provided always, That all Contracts, Agreements, Bonds, Covenants, or Securities made or entered into with or in favour of or by such Commissioners or Body, or any Person in their Behalf, or any such Officer as aforesaid, before the Commencement of this Act, shall remain as valid and effectual and be proceeded on and enforced as if this Act had not been passed; and no Action, Suit, Prosecution, or Proceeding commenced or carried on by or against such Commissioners or Body, or any of them respectively, shall abate or be discontinued, or prejudicially affected by this Act, but shall continue and take effect as if this Act had not been passed; and all Monies coming to such Commissioners or Body, under any such Contract, Agreement, Bond, Covenant, Security, Action, Suit, or Proceeding, and which would have been applicable by them, if this Act had not been passed, for the Purposes of any of the Duties or Powers hereby transferred to any Vestry or District Board, shall be paid over to such Vestry or Board, or as they may direct, and be applied for the like Purposes; and all Monies and Liabilities which such Commissioners or Body, or Officer, would have been liable to pay or discharge, under any such Contract, Agreement, Bond, Covenant, Security, Action, Suit, or Proceeding, out of any Rates to be levied under any such Powers as aforesaid, if this Act had not been passed, and all Costs, Damages, and Expenses which such Commissioners or Body, or any of them respectively, might, if this Act had not been passed, have legally defrayed out of any such Rates, shall be paid out of Rates to be levied by such Vestry or Board as herein-after provided.

Existing Commissioners, &c. under Local Acts continued in Office until Commencement of this Act.

XCV. Where, under the Provisions of any Local Act in relation to the paving, lighting, watering, cleansing, or improving of any Parish mentioned in either of the Schedules (A.) and (B.) to this Act, or any Part of any such Parish, any Election or Appointment of any Commissioners or Persons whose Powers are determined by this Act is appointed to take place at any Time between the Time of the passing of this Act and the Time appointed for the Commencement thereof, the Commissioners or Persons now acting under such Local Act shall remain in Office, and perform and exercise all the Duties, Powers, and Authorities of such Act, until the Commencement of this Act, anything in such Local Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

Powers and Duties of Surveyors of Highways, and Property vested in them, transferred to Ves-

XCVI. Every Vestry and District Board shall, within their Parish or District (exclusively of any other Persons whatsoever), execute the Office of and be Surveyor of Highways, and have all such Powers, Authorities, and Duties, and be subject to all such Liabilities, as any Surveyor of Highways in England is now or may hereafter be invested with or liable to by virtue of his Office, under the Laws for the Time being in force, so far as such Powers, Authorities, Duties, and Liabilities are not inconsistent with this Act; but all Expenses which under any such Law ought to be defrayed by Highway Rates shall be defrayed tries and District Boards.

defrayed by means of the Rates to be raised under this Act, and all Monies which would be applicable in aid of such Highway Rates shall be applied in aid of the said Rates to be raised under this Act, and no such Vestry or Board shall be subject to any Provisions concerning the Accounts of Surveyors of Highways, or requiring any Returns to be made to any Special Sessions; and all Streets being Highways, and the Pavements, Stones, and other Materials thereof, and all other Things provided for the Purposes thereof by any Surveyor of Highways, or by any Person serving the Office of Surveyor of Highways, or by any Vestry or District Board under this Act, shall vest in and be under the Management and Control of the Vestry or District Board of the Parish or District in which such Highways are situate.

Provision as to Rates already made in Parishes mentioned in Schedule (A.)

XCVII. Provided always, That all Rates made previously to the Commencement of this Act for defraying the Expenses of executing any Duties, Powers, and Authorities hereby transferred to any Vestry or District Board, and all Highway Rates made previously to such Commencement, or so much of such respective Rates as may not have been levied and paid, shall be levied and collected as if this Act had not been passed, and, subject to the Payment or Retainer thereout of any Sum or Expenses lawfully payable out of such respective Rates, shall, where such Rates are levied in a Parish mentioned in Schedule (A.) to this Act, be accounted for and paid over to the Vestry of such Parish, and shall, where levied in any other Parish, be accounted for and paid over to the Board of Works for the District in which such Parish is comprised, and shall in every Case be applied in aid of the Rates to be raised for the like Purposes under this Act in the particular Parish or Part in which the said Rates so made previously to the Commencement of this Act are levied.

Vestry or District Board to cause Streets to be paved.

XCVIII. It shall be lawful for every Vestry and District Board from Time to Time to cause all or any of the Streets within their Parish or District, or any Part thereof respectively, to be paved or repaired when and as often and in such Form and Manner and with such Materials as such Vestry or Board think fit, and to cause the Ground or Soil thereof to be raised or lowered, and the Course of the Channels running in, into, or through the same to be turned or altered, in such Manner as they think proper, and to alter the Position of any Mains or Pipes in or under such Street, such Alteration to be made subject to the Approval of the Engineer of the Company to which such Mains or Pipes belong.

Owners possessing Freehold of Courts, &c. to pave the same.

XCIX. Provided always, That whenever the Freehold of any Court, Passage, or public Place, not being a Thoroughfare, is vested in the Owner of any adjoining House, the paving of such Court, Passage, or public Place shall be done by such Owner, if deemed expedient or necessary by the Vestry or District Board.

Owner of Courts to drain them, and keep the Pavement, &c. in repair.

C. The Owner of any such Court, Passage, or public Place, not being a Thoroughfare, shall, if required by the Vestry or District Board of the Parish or District in which the same is situate, to the Satisfaction of such Vestry or District Board, sufficiently pave, cover the Surface of, or repair the same, and lay, at a proper Level, through, over, under, or along such Part thereof as such Vestry or Board may require, a Drain, Channel, or Gutter, and keep such Pavement or Covering, and Drain, Channel, or Gutter, in good Repair, to the Satisfaction of such Vestry or Board; and if any such Owner of any Court, Passage, or public Place, not being a Thoroughfare, do not sufficiently pave or cover the same as aforesaid, or do not lay down therein such Drain, Channel, or Gutter, or do not repair the same respectively, to the Satisfaction of such Vestry or Board, within Fourteen Days after Notice in Writing requiring him so to do, has been given to him by such Vestry or Board, every such Person so offending shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Penalty on Owners for Neglect.

Vaults and Cellars under Streets not to be made without the Consent of the Vestry or Board.

CI. No Vault, Arch, or Cellar shall be made under any Street without the Consent of the Vestry or District Board of the Parish or District in which the same is situate; and all such Vaults, Arches, and Cellars hereafter to be made within any Parish or District mentioned in either of the Schedules (A.) and (B.) to this Act shall be substantially made, and so as not to interfere or communicate with any Drain or Sewer under the Control of any Vestry or District Board, or of the Metropolitan Board of Works, without their Consents respectively first obtained; and if any Vault, Arch, or Cellar be made contrary to this Provision, it shall be lawful for the Vestry or District Board, or for the Metropolitan Board of Works, to fill up or alter the same, and the Expenses incurred thereby shall be paid by the Owner of such Vault, Arch, or Cellar.

Vaults, &c. under Streets to be repaired by Owners or Occupiers.

CII. All Vaults, Arches, and Cellars made either before or after the Commencement of this Act under any Street in any Parish or District mentioned in either of the Schedules (A.) and (B.) to this Act, and all Openings into the same in any such Street, shall be repaired and kept in proper Order by the Owners or Occupiers of the Houses or Buildings to which the same respectively belong; and in case any such Vault, Arch, or Cellar be at any Time out of repair, it shall be lawful for the Vestry or District Board of such Parish or District to cause the same to be repaired and put into good Order, and to recover the Expenses thereof from such Owner in the Manner herein-after provided.

Provisions as to the Occupation of underground Rooms as Dwellings.

CIII. Any Room of a House, the Surface of the Floor of which Room is more than Three Feet below the Surface of the Footway of the adjoining Street, and any Cellar, where such Room or Cellar is or has been occupied separately as a Dwelling at or before the Time of the passing of this Act, may continue to be so let or occupied if it possess the following Requisites; that is to say,

If there be an Area not less than Three Feet wide, in every Part from Six Inches below the Floor of such Room or Cellar to the Surface or Level of the Ground adjoining to the Front, Back, or external Side thereof, and extending the full Length of such Side;

If

If such Area, to the Extent of at least Five Feet long and Two Feet Six Inches wide, be in front of the Window of such Room or Cellar, and be open or covered only with open Iron Gratings;

If there be in every such Room or Cellar an open Fireplace, with proper Flue therefrom;

If there be a Window Opening of at least Nine Superficial Feet in Area, which Window Opening must be fitted with a Frame filled in with glazed Sashes, of which at the least Four and a Half Superficial Feet must be made to open for Ventilation:

And no such Room nor any Cellar not so let or occupied as aforesaid at or before the Time of the passing of this Act shall be so let or occupied unless it possess the following Requisites; that is to say,

Unless the same be in every Part thereof at least Seven Feet in Height, measured from the Floor to the Ceiling thereof;

Unless the same be at least One Foot of its Height above the Surface of the Footway of the Street adjoining or nearest to the same;

Unless there be outside of and adjoining the same Room or Cellar, and extending along the entire Frontage thereof and upwards, from Six Inches below the Level of the Floor thereof up to the Surface of the said Footway, an open Area at least Three Feet wide in every Part;

Unless the same be effectually drained and secured against the Rise of Effluvia from any Sewer or Drain;

Unless there be appurtenant to such Room or Cellar the Use of a Watercloset or Privy and an Ashpit furnished with proper Doors and Coverings kept and provided according to the Provisions of this Act;

Unless the same have a Fireplace with a proper Chimney or Flue;

Unless the same have an external glazed Window of at least Nine Superficial Feet in Area clear of the Frame, and made to open in such Manner as is approved by the Surveyor of the Metropolitan Board of Works;

Provided always, that in any Area adjoining a Room or Cellar there may be placed Steps necessary for Access to such Room or Cellar, and over or across any such Area there may be Steps necessary for Access to any Building above the Room or Cellar to which such Area adjoins, if the Steps in such respective Cases be so placed as not to be over or across any such external Window:

And whosoever lets, occupies, or continues to let, or knowingly suffers to be occupied, any Room or Cellar contrary to this Act, shall be liable for every such Offence to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Shillings for every Day during which the same continues to be so let or occupied; and every Room or Cellar in which any Person passes the Night shall be deemed to be occupied as a Dwelling within the Meaning of this Act; and every District Surveyor acting under the Act of the Session holden in the Seventh and Eighth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighty-four, or under any Act repealing or amending the same, shall, without any Fee or Reward, report periodically, and otherwise, as the said Metropolitan Board may order, to such Board, all Cases in which Rooms or Cellars are occupied contrary to this Enactment in the District of such Surveyor, and also to the respective Vestries and District Boards, all such Cases occurring within such Parts of his District as may be within their respective Parishes and Districts; but nothing herein contained shall be construed to disable other Persons from enforcing this Enactment, and taking Proceedings for Penalties thereunder.

Power to District Surveyors to enter underground Rooms and Cellars. If Admission refused, Justice may issue an Order.

CIV. For the Purpose of enforcing the Enactment lastly herein-before contained, it shall be lawful for any such District Surveyor, or for any other Person, having reasonable Grounds for believing that any Room or Cellar is occupied contrary to such Enactment, to demand Admission to inspect the same at any Time between Nine o'Clock in the Morning and Six o'Clock in the Evening; and if Admission be not granted, any Justice having Jurisdiction in the Place where such Room or Cellar is situate may, on Oath before him, of Belief that such Room or Cellar is occupied contrary to the said Enactment, by Order under his Hand, authorize such District Surveyor or other Person to enter into and inspect such Room or Cellar between the Hours aforesaid.

Provisions for paving new Streets.

CV. In case the Owners of the Houses forming the greater Part of any new Street laid out or made, or hereafter to be laid out or made, which is not paved to the Satisfaction of the Vestry or District Board of the Parish or District in which such Street is situate, be desirous of having the same paved, as hereinafter mentioned, or if such Vestry or Board deem it necessary or expedient that the same should be so paved, then and in either of such Cases, such Vestry or Board shall well and sufficiently pave the same, either throughout the whole Breadth of the Carriageway and Footpaths thereof, or any Part of such Breadth, and from Time to Time keep such Pavement in good and sufficient Repair; and the Owners of the Houses forming such Street shall, on Demand, pay to such Vestry or Board the Amount of the estimated Expenses of providing and laying such Pavement (such Amount to be determined by the Surveyor, for the Time being, of the Vestry or Board); and in case such estimated Expenses exceed the actual Expenses of such paving, then the Difference between such estimated Expenses and such actual Expenses shall be repaid by the said Vestry or Board to the Owners of Houses by whom the said Sum of Money has been paid; and in case the said estimated Expenses be less than the actual Expenses of such paving, then the Owners of the said Houses shall, on Demand, pay to the said Vestry or Board such further Sum of Money as, together with the Sum already paid, amounts to such actual Expenses.

CVI. The

Notice of Intention to repair any Street, not being a Highway.

CVI. The Vestry or District Board of any Parish or District may, if they think fit, by Notice in Writing put up in any Part of any Street in their Parish or District, not being a Highway, declare their Intention of repairing the same under this Act, and thereupon the same shall be from Time to Time repaired by them under the Authority of this Act: Provided always, that no Street shall be repaired as last aforesaid, unless such Notice in Writing be also given to all Persons interested in such Street, or if within One Month after Notice in Writing has been put up or given as last aforesaid, any Person interested in such Street, or the Person representing, or entitled to represent any Person interested as aforesaid, by Notice in Writing to the Vestry or Board, object thereto.

Proviso.

Act not to authorize the making any Thoroughfare without Consent.

CVII. Nothing in this Act shall extend or be construed to extend to authorize the taking down or removing any Bar, Gate, Rail, or other Fence fixed for preventing any Thoroughfare into or from any Square, Street, or Way, without the Consent of the Proprietor of the Estate or Property upon which such Bar, Gate, Rail, or other Fence, Square, Street, or Way shall be situate.

Vestries and District Boards may place Fences, &c. to Footways.

CVIII. It shall be lawful for every Vestry and District Board from Time to Time to place any Posts, Fences, and Rails on the Sides of any Footways or Carriageways in their Parish or District, for the Purposes of Safety, and to prevent any Carriage or Cattle from going on the same, and also to place any Posts or other Erections in any Carriageways so as to make the Crossings thereof less dangerous for Foot Passengers, and also from Time to Time to repair and renew any such Posts, Rails, or Fences, or to remove the same, or any other Obstruction or Encroachment on any Carriageway or Footway.

Notice to be given by Companies to Vestries and District Boards when Pavement, &c. is required to be taken up.

CIX. No Company or Person shall break up or open the Pavement, Surface, or Soil of any Street, the Paving whereof is under the Control and Management of the Vestry or District Board of any Parish or District, for the Purpose of making and laying down any Main of Pipes or for any other Purpose whatsoever, except in Cases of Emergency arising from Defects in Pipes or other Works, without having previously given Three clear Days Notice in Writing to such Vestry or District Board, stating in such Notice the Name of the Street and the particular Part thereof in which such Pavement, Surface, or Soil is intended to be broken up or opened, the Day on which the Work is proposed to be commenced, and the Time within which it will be completed; and in any such Case of Emergency as aforesaid such Company or Person shall, within Twelve Hours after they or he begin to break up or open such Pavement, Surface, or Soil as aforesaid, give such Notice as aforesaid to the said Vestry or District Board; and no such Pavement, Soil, or Surface shall be broken up or opened for the Purpose of laying down any new Main of Pipes for the Conveyance of Water during any Part of the Months of December, January, and February, without the Consent of the said Vestry or District Board; and no Gaslight Company shall at any Time break up or open any such Pavement, Surface, or Soil for the Purpose of laying down any new Mains of Pipes, without the Consent in Writing of the said Vestry or District Board; and every Company or Person offending against this Enactment shall, for every such Offence, forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, and shall, within Twenty-four Hours after Notice in Writing from the Vestry or District Board, cause such Mains of Pipes to be taken up and removed, and the Pavement, Surface, or Soil to be reinstated and put into its former State: Provided always, that any Gaslight Company may break up or open any such Pavement, Surface, or Soil, for the Purpose of laying down and attaching to Mains and Pipes already existing, any new Service Pipes, on giving to the said Vestry or District Board, Three Days at the least before so doing, Notice of their Intention to break up or open such Pavement, Surface, or Soil for such Purpose.

Streets not to be broken up, except under the Superintendence of Vestry or Board.

Streets broken up to be reinstated without Delay.

CX. Whenever it is necessary, from any Cause whatever, for any Company or Person to break up or open the Pavement, Surface, or Soil of any Street, such Street, and the Pavement, Surface, and Soil thereof, shall be broken up and opened under the Superintendence of the Vestry or District Board of the Parish or District in which the same is situate, and in such Manner, and as regards Gas Companies, at such Time, as they shall direct; and such Company or Person shall with all convenient Speed complete the Work on account of which the same is broken up or opened, and fill in the Ground, and make good the Pavement or Surface or Soil so broken up or opened, and carry away the Rubbish occasioned thereby, and shall, in the meantime, cause the Place where such Pavement or Surface or Soil is so broken up or opened, to be fenced and guarded, and shall set up and maintain upon or against the Part of the Pavement, Surface, or Soil so broken up or opened a sufficient Light during every Night that such Pavement or Surface or Soil is continued open or broken up.

Penalty on Persons taking taking up Pavements neglecting to reinstate them, and to place Lights during the Night-time to prevent Accidents.

CXI. If any Company or Person authorized to break up or open any of the Pavement or Surface of any Street, for the Purpose of laying, altering, or repairing any Gas, Water, or other Pipe, or other lawful Cause, do not, with due Diligence, cause the Ground to be filled in, and the Pavement to be reinstated, and the Surface to be made good, in a proper and substantial Manner, or do not, in the meantime, fence and guard the same, and affix and maintain Lights during the Night, near to the Places where any Ground is open, so as to prevent any Accident, every such Company or other Person so offending shall, for every such Offence, forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, and also a further Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, for every Day during which such Offence continues; and no such Pavement shall be considered to have been reinstated in a proper and substantial Manner by any such Company or other Person, unless the same have been reinstated with the same or similar Materials of the like Quality and Thickness, and cemented and bound together in the same or in an equally substantial Manner, as those of which it was composed, in such Manner as is satisfactory to the Vestry or Board.

CXII. In

Vestry or District Board to direct Pavements injured by Water or Gas Pipes to be repaired by Company. Penalty for Neglect.

CXII. In case any Part of the Pavement of any Street be sunk, broken, injured, or damaged, by reason of the breaking, bursting, or Want of Repair of any Pipe belonging to any Water, Gas, or other Company, it shall be lawful for the Vestry or District Board of the Parish or District in which such Pavement is situate, if they deem it expedient so to do, to cause Notice to be given to the Company to whom such Pipe is supposed to belong, forthwith well and sufficiently to repair and make good such Pavement; and if the Company to whom such Notice is given do not, within Forty-eight Hours next after such Notice, take up such Pavement, and well and sufficiently repair and amend such Pipe, and cause the Ground to be well and sufficiently filled in and rammed down, and the said Pavement to be relaid and repaired, to the Satisfaction of the Vestry or District Board, then such Company so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Company opening the Ground to repair a Pipe discovered to belong to another Company, to give Notice to such Company, and to be reimbursed Expenses.

CXIII. Provided always, That in case it be discovered, after any Pavement in any Street has been taken up by any Company, and the Ground opened, that the Pipe beneath the Surface of such Pavement required to be repaired and amended, does not belong to the Company to whom such Notice has been given as aforesaid, but to some other Company, then such first-mentioned Company, to whom such Notice has been so given as aforesaid, shall, within Forty-eight Hours after such Discovery, cause a Copy of such Notice to be in like Manner given to the Company to whom such Pipe belongs, and require them to obey, conform to, and comply with the original Notice, instead of the Company to whom such original Notice was given as aforesaid; and such other Company to whom such last-mentioned Notice is given as aforesaid, shall reimburse and pay, on Demand, to the first-mentioned Company, the reasonable Costs and Charges incurred in and about the taking up of the Pavement and opening the Ground; and the said last-mentioned Company shall obey, conform to, and comply with the said original Notice, and execute and perform the Work mentioned therein, in such and the same Manner, and within such and the same Time, in all respects, as if the said original Notice had been given to such last-mentioned Company, and they shall be liable to, and shall incur the same Penalties and Forfeitures, on Neglect so to do, as they would have incurred and been liable to if the said original Notice had been given to them in manner before directed with respect to such first-mentioned Company; and if the Company by whom such Pavement has been first taken up, and who have opened the Ground, neglect to give the Notice hereby required to the Company to whom such Pipe actually belongs, such Company so neglecting shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Power to Vestry or District Board to reinstate Pavement, and charge the Expenses to the Parties.

CXIV. Provided also, That whenever the permanent Surface or Soil of any Street is broken up or opened, it shall be lawful for the Vestry or District Board of the Parish or District in which the same is situate, in case they think it expedient so to do, to fill in the Ground, and to make good the Pavement or Surface or Soil so broken up or opened, and to carry away the Rubbish occasioned thereby, instead of permitting such Work to be done by the Company or Person by whom such Surface or Soil is broken up or opened; and the Expenses of filling in such Ground, and of making good the Pavement or Soil so broken up or opened, shall be repaid, on Demand, to the Vestry or Board by such Company or Person.

Power for Vestry or District Board to contract for restoring Pavements.

CXV. It shall be lawful for the Vestry or District Board of any Parish or District to contract and agree, for any Term of Years or otherwise, with the several Companies or Persons authorized to take up any of the Pavements or other formed Surface of any of the Streets within such Parish or District, for the filling in, paving, and restoring of such Parts of the said Streets as may be from Time to Time required to be taken up for the Purpose of laying, altering, or repairing any Pipes or other like Purpose.

As to the watering of Streets.

CXVI. Every Vestry and District Board shall have full Power and Authority to cause all or any of the Streets in their Parish or District to be watered as often as they think fit, and also to cause any Wells to be dug and sunk in such public Places as they think proper, and also to erect and fix any Pumps in any public Places, for the gratuitous Supply of Water to the Inhabitants of the Parish or District.

Vestry or District Board to cause Footways to be cleansed.

CXVII. Every Vestry and District Board shall cause any Footway within their Parish or District to be scraped, swept, or cleansed in such Manner and at such Times as they think fit; but this Enactment shall not relieve any Occupier of any House or Building or any Company whatsoever from any Liability to scrape, sweep, or cleanse, or cause to be scraped, swept, or cleansed, any Part of any such Footway, or from any Penalty for Neglect so to do.

Vestries and District Boards may appoint and pay Crossing Sweepers.

CXVIII. It shall be lawful for every Vestry and District Board to appoint and pay, or for Two or more Vestries and District Boards to unite, when necessary, in appointing and paying, suitable Persons to cleanse and sweep, and to keep properly cleansed and swept daily, Crossings for Passengers over the Streets and public Thoroughfares within their respective Jurisdictions, and in such Situations as the said Vestries or District Boards may from Time to Time fix and determine, which Persons so appointed shall be distinguished by their Dress or some distinctive Mark as Public Servants.

Owners, &c. to remove future Projections, on Notice from Vestry or District Board.

CXIX. If any Porch, Shed, projecting Window, Step, Cellar Door or Window, or Steps leading into any Cellar or otherwise, Lamp, Lamp Post, Lamp Iron, Sign, Sign Post, Sign Iron, Showboard, Window Shutter, Wall, Gate, Fence, or Opening, or any other Projection or Obstruction placed or made against or in front of any House or Building after the Commencement of this Act, shall be an Annoyance, in consequence of the same projecting into or being made in or endangering or rendering less commodious the Passage along any Street in their Parish or District, it shall be lawful for the Vestry or District Board to give Notice in Writing to the Owner or Occupier of such House or Building to remove such Projection or Obstruction, or to alter the same, in such Manner as the Vestry or Board think fit; and such Owner or Occupier shall within Fourteen Days after the Service of such Notice upon him remove such Projection or Obstruction, or alter the same in the Manner directed by the Vestry or Board; and if the Owner or Occupier of any such House or Building neglect or refuse, within Fourteen Days after such Notice, to remove such Projection or Obstruction, or to alter the same, in the Manner directed by the Vestry or Board, he shall forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, and a further Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, for every Day, during which such Projection or Obstruction continues, after the Expiration of such Fourteen Days from the Time when he may be convicted of any Offence contrary to the Provisions hereof.

Penalty for Neglect.

Vestry or District Board may remove existing Projections, and make Compensation for the same.

CXX. It shall be lawful for every Vestry and District Board, if any Projection or Obstruction which has been placed or made against or in front of any House or Building in any such Street, before the Commencement of this Act, shall be an Annoyance as aforesaid, to cause the same to be removed or altered as they think fit: Provided always, that the Vestry or Board shall give Notice in Writing of such intended Removal or Alteration to the Owner or Occupier against or in front of whose House or Building such Projection or Obstruction shall be, Seven Days before such Removal or Alteration shall be commenced, and shall make reasonable Compensation to every Person who shall incur any Loss or Damage by such Removal, excepting in Cases where the Obstruction or Projection may now be removable under any Act, in which Case no Compensation shall be made.

Hoards to be erected during Repairs.

CXXI. Every Person who shall build or begin to build, or to take down or begin to take down, any House, Building, or Wall, or alter or repair, or begin to alter or repair, the outward Part of any House, Building, or Wall, shall, in all Cases in which the Footway is thereby obstructed or rendered inconvenient, cause to be put up a proper and sufficient Hoard or Fence, with a convenient Platform and Handrail, if there be Room enough for the same, to serve as a Footway for Passengers outside of such Hoard or Fence, and shall continue such Hoard or Fence, in such Cases as aforesaid, with such Platform and Handrail, standing and in good Condition, to the Satisfaction of the Vestry or District Board of the Parish or District in which such House, Building, or Wall is situate, during such Time as may be necessary for the Public Safety or Convenience, and shall, in all Cases in which the same is necessary to prevent Accidents, cause such Hoard or Fence to be well lighted during the Night; and every such Person who fails to put up such Hoard or Fence and such Platform, with such Handrail as aforesaid, or who does not, whilst the said Hoard or Fence is standing, keep the same well lighted during the Night, shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, and a further Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings for every Day during the Continuance of such Default.

Penalty on not erecting Hoards.

No Hoard to be erected without Licence from Vestry or District Board.

CXXII. It shall not be lawful for any Person to erect or set up in any Street any Hoard or Fence or Scaffold for any Purpose whatever, or any Posts, Bars, Rails, Boards, or other Things by way of Inclosure, for the Purpose of making Mortar, or of depositing Bricks, Lime, Rubbish, or other Materials, without a Licence in Writing first had and obtained from the Clerk or Surveyor of the Vestry or District Board of the Parish or District in which such Street is situate; and every such Licence shall state the Place where, and the Purpose for which, such Hoard or Fence, Scaffold or Inclosure, is to be set up or made, and the Size thereof, and the Time for which it is to be permitted to continue.

If Hoard be erected or Materials be deposited in any Manner otherwise than to the Satisfaction of the Vestry or District Board, the same may be removed.

CXXIII. If any Person erect or set up in any Street any Hoard or Fence or Scaffold for any Purpose whatever, or any Posts, Bars, Rails, Boards, or other Things by way of Inclosure, for the Purpose of making Mortar, or of depositing Bricks, Lime, Rubbish, or other Materials, without a Licence from the Vestry or District Board, or do any such Act as aforesaid in any other Manner than as permitted by such Licence, or continue the same beyond the Time stated in such Licence, or fail to keep any Hoard, Fence, Platform, or Handrail in good Repair, he shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, and a further Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, for every Day during the Continuance of such Offence; and it shall be lawful for the Vestry or Board to cause such Hoard, Fence, Scaffold, or Inclosure to be pulled down, and the Materials thereof, and also all the Bricks, Mortar, Lime, or other Building Materials, or other Matters or Things contained within any such Inclosure, to be removed, and deposited in such Place as the Vestry or Board may think fit, and to be kept until the Charges of pulling down and removing the same be paid to the Vestry or Board; and in case the same be not claimed and the said Charges paid within the Space of Eight Days next after such Seizure thereof, it shall be lawful for the Vestry or Board to order the same to be sold, and by and out of the Proceeds of such Sale, to pay such Charges, rendering any Surplus to the Owner or other Person by Law entitled thereto; and in case the Proceeds of such Sale be insufficient to cover such Charges, and the Charges of selling and disposing of such Materials, Matters, and Things, the Deficiency shall be repaid by the Owner of such Materials, Matters, and Things to the Vestry or District Board, on Demand.

Providing against Accidents in laying out new Streets, &c.

CXXIV. Every Person laying out or opening any new Street, or building therein, shall, during the Operations necessary for forming such new Street, or for building therein, take all such Precautions for guarding against Injury to the Passengers along such Street, as may be directed by the Vestry or District Board of the Parish or District within which such Operations are being carried on; and if any Person fail to comply with the Directions of such Vestry or District Board, within such Time as may be limited by them, such Vestry or District Board may do whatever may be necessary for carrying the same into effect, and the Expenses thereby incurred shall be repaid to such Vestry or District Board by the the Person laying out or opening such new Street, or building therein, as aforesaid, and shall be recoverable by them from such Person in manner provided by this Act.

Vestries and District Boards to appoint Scavengers.

CXXV. It shall be lawful for every Vestry and District Board, and they are hereby required to appoint and employ a sufficient Number of Persons, or to contract with any Company or Persons, for the sweeping and cleansing of the several Streets within their Parish or District, and for collecting and removing all Dirt, Ashes, Rubbish, Ice, Snow, and Filth, and for the cleansing out and emptying of Privies and Cesspools, Sewers and Drains, in or under Houses and Places within their Parish or District; and such Company or Persons are herein-after referred to as Scavengers; and such Scavengers, or their Servants, shall, on such Days and at such Hours and in such Manner as the Vestry or District Board shall from Time to Time appoint, sufficiently execute and perform all such Works and Duties as they respectively are employed or contract to execute or perform; and if any such Company or Person fail in any respect properly to execute and perform such Works and Duties such Company or Person shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Penalty for obstructing Scavengers in Performance of their Duty.

CXXVI. Any Occupier of any House or Land or other Person who refuses or does not permit any Soil, Dirt, Ashes, or Filth to be taken away by the Scavengers appointed by, or contracting with any Vestry or Board as aforesaid, or who obstructs the said Scavengers in the Performance of their Duty, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Refuse collected to be vested in Vestry or District Board, who may dispose of the same.

CXXVII. All Dirt, Dust, Nightsoil, Ashes, and Rubbish collected as aforesaid shall be the Property of such Vestry or Board, and such Vestry or Board shall have full Power to sell and dispose of the same for the Purposes of this Act as they shall think proper, and the Person purchasing the same shall have full Power to take, carry away, and dispose of the same for his own Use, and the Money arising from the Sale thereof shall be applied towards defraying the Expenses of the Execution of this Act, other than the Sewerage Expenses.

Owners, &c. to pay for Removal of Refuse of Trades.

CXXVIII. In case any Scavenger be required by the Owner or Occupier of any House or Land to remove the Refuse of any Trade, Manufacture, or Business, or of any Building Materials, such Owner or Occupier shall pay to the Scavenger a reasonable Sum for such Removal, such Sum, in case of Dispute, to be settled by Two Justices.

Dispute as to what is Refuse of Trade, &c. to be determined by Justices.

CXXIX. If any Dispute or Difference of Opinion arise between the Owner or Occupier of any such House or Land, and the Scavengers required to remove such Refuse, as to what shall be considered as Refuse, it shall be lawful for any Two Justices, upon Application made to them by either of the Parties in difference, to determine whether the Subject Matter of Dispute is or is not Refuse of Trade, Manufacture, or Business, or of any Building Materials, and in every such Case the Decision of such Justices shall be final and conclusive.

Vestries and District Boards to cause Streets to be lighted.

CXXX. Every Vestry and District Board shall cause the several Streets within their Parish or District to be well and sufficiently lighted, and for that Purpose shall maintain, or set up and maintain, a sufficient Number of Lamps in every such Street, and shall cause the same to be lighted with Gas or otherwise, and to continue lighted at and during such Times as such Vestry or Board may think fit, necessary, or proper; and all public Lamps, and the Lamp Posts and Lamp Irons and Fittings thereof, to be provided by any Vestry or District Board, shall vest in such Vestry or Board.

No Slaughter-house to be licensed under the 14th & 15th Vict. c. 61. without Notice to Vestry or District Board.

CXXXI. Before any Licence for the Use of any Place within any Parish mentioned in either of the Schedules (A.) and (B.) to this Act as a Slaughter-house, is granted by any Quarter Sessions of the Peace under the Provisions of the Act of the Session holden in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Sixty-One, (the Metropolitan Market Act, 1851,) One Month's previous Notice of the Intention to apply for such Licence shall be given to the Vestry or District Board of the Parish or District in which such Place is situate, to the Intent that such Vestry or District Board, if they think fit, may show Cause against the Grant of such Licence.

Vestries and District Boards to appoint Medical Officers of Health.

CXXXII. Every Vestry and District Board shall from Time to Time appoint One or more legally qualified Medical Practitioner or Practitioners of Skill and Experience to inspect and report periodically upon the sanitary Condition of their Parish or District, to ascertain the Existence of Diseases, more especially Epidemics, increasing the Rate of Mortality, and to point out the Existence of any Nuisance or other local Causes which are likely to originate and maintain such Diseases, and injuriously affect the Health of the Inhabitants, and to take cognizance of the Fact of the Existence of any contagious or epidemic Diseases, and to point out the most efficacious Mode of checking or preventing the Spread of such Diseases, and also to point out the most efficient Modes for the Ventilation of Churches, Chapels, Schools, Lodging Houses, and other public Edifices within the Parish or District, and to perform any other Duties of a like Nature which may be required of him or them; and such Persons shall be called "Medical Officers of Health;" and it shall be lawful for the Vestry or Board to pay to every such Officer such Salary as they think fit, and also to remove any such Officer at the Pleasure of such Vestry or Board.

Appointment of Inspectors of Nuisances.

CXXXIII. Every Vestry and District Board shall nominate and appoint such Number of Persons to be Inspectors of Nuisances in their Parish or District, as the Vestry or Board may think fit; and the Inspectors of Nuisances shall superintend and enforce the due Execution of all Duties to be performed by the Scavengers employed or contracted with under this Act, and report to the Vestry or District Board the Existence of any Nuisances; and the Vestry or Board shall require every such Inspector to provide and keep a Book in which shall be entered all Complaints made by any Inhabitant of the Parish or District of any Infringement of the Provisions of this Act, or of any Byelaws made thereunder, or of Nuisances; and every such Inspector shall forthwith inquire into the Truth or otherwise of such Complaints, and report upon the same to the Vestry or Board at their next Meeting; and such Report, and the Order of the Vestry or Board thereon, shall be entered in a Book, which shall be kept at their Office, and shall be open, at all reasonable Times, to the Inspection of any Inhabitant of the Parish or District; and it shall be the Duty of such Inspector, subject to the Direction of the Vestry or Board, to make Complaints before any Justices, and take legal Proceedings for the Punishment of any Person for any Offence under this Act or any such Byelaws.

Vestries and District Boards to be the Local Authorities to execute the Nuisances Removal Acts.

CXXXIV. Every Vestry and District Board under this Act shall execute, within their respective Parish or District, all the Duties and Powers exerciseable under the Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act, 1848, and the Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act, 1849, by any Commissioners or other Body, or any Officers having under any Act Powers of cleansing, and shall be the Local Authority to execute any Act passed or to be passed in the present Session amending or repealing the said Acts or either of them.

Duties and Powers of Metropolitan Board of Works.

Main Sewers vested in the Metropolitan Board of Works, and Power to such Board to make Sewers.

CXXXV. The Sewers mentioned in Schedule (D.) to this Act, being the Main Sewers now vested in the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London and in the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers respectively, with the Walls, Defences, Banks, Outlets, Sluices, Flaps, Penstocks, Gullies, Grates, Works, and Things thereunto belonging, and the Materials thereof, with all Rights of Way and Passage used and enjoyed, by such Commissioners respectively, over and to such Sewers, Works, and Things, and all other Rights concerning or incident to such Sewers, Works, and Things, shall be vested in the Metropolitan Board of Works, and such Board shall make such Sewers and Works as they may think necessary for preventing all or any Part of the Sewage within the Metropolis from flowing or passing into the River Thames in or near the Metropolis, and shall cause such Sewers and Works to be completed on or before the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and sixty; and shall also make all such other Sewers and Works, and such Diversions or Alterations of any existing Sewers or Works vested in them under this Act, as they may from Time to Time think necessary for the effectual Sewerage and Drainage of the Metropolis, and shall discontinue, close up, or destroy such Sewers for the Time being vested in them under this Act, as they may deem unnecessary, and such Board shall from Time to Time repair and maintain the Sewers so vested in them, or such of them as may not be discontinued, closed up, or destroyed as aforesaid; and for the Purposes aforesaid, such Board shall have full Power and Authority to carry any such Sewers or Works through, across, or under any Turnpike Road, or any Street or Place laid out as, or intended for a Street, as well beyond, as within the Limits of the Metropolis, or through or under any Cellar or Vault under the Carriageway or Pavement of any Street, and into, through, or under any Lands whatsoever within or beyond the said Limits, making Compensation for any Damage done thereby as herein-after provided, and all Sewers and Works from Time to Time made by the said Board shall vest in them; and the said Board shall cause the Sewers vested in them to be constructed, covered, and kept so as not to be a Nuisance or injurious to Health, and to be properly cleared, cleansed, and emptied, and for the Purpose of clearing, cleansing, and emptying the same, they may construct and place, either above or under Ground, such Reservoirs, Sluices, Engines, and other Works as may be necessary, and may cause the Sewage and Refuse from such Sewers to be sold or disposed of as they may see fit, but so as not to create a Nuisance, and the Money arising thereby shall be applied towards defraying the Expenses of such Board.

Plans, &c. for intercepting Sewage to be submitted to Commissioners of Works.

CXXXVI. Before the Metropolitan Board of Works commence any Sewers and Works for preventing the Sewage from passing into the Thames as aforesaid, the Plan of the intended Sewers and Works for the Purpose aforesaid, together with an Estimate of the Cost of carrying the same into execution, shall be submitted by such Board to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings; and no such Plan shall be carried into effect until the same has been approved by such Commissioners.

Metropolitan Board may declare Sewers to be Main Sewers, and take under their Jurisdiction Sewerage Matters, &c.

CXXXVII. In case it appear to the Metropolitan Board of Works that any Sewers in the Metropolis not herein-before vested in such Board ought to be considered Main Sewers, and to be under their Management, it shall be lawful for such Board, by an Order under their Seal, to declare the same to be Main Sewers, and thereupon the same shall vest in and be under the Management of the said Board; and it shall also be lawful for the said Board, by any such Order, to take under their Jurisdiction and Authority any other Matters in relation to Sewerage and to Drainage, with respect to which, Jurisdiction or Authority is by this Act vested in any Vestry or District Board.

Metropolitan Board to make Orders for controlling Vestries and District Boards in Construction of Sewers, &c.

CXXXVIII. The Metropolitan Board of Works shall from Time to Time, in order to secure the efficient Maintenance of the main and general Sewerage of the Metropolis, make such General or Special Order as to them may seem proper, for the Guidance, Direction, and Control of the Vestries of Parishes and District Boards in the Levels, Construction, Alteration, and Maintenance and cleansing of Sewers in their respective Parishes or Districts, and for securing the proper Connexion and Intercommunication of the Sewers of the several Parishes and Districts, and their Communications with the Main Sewers vested in the said Metropolitan Board, and generally for the Guidance, Direction, and Control of Vestries and District

District Boards in the Exercise of their Powers and Duties in relation to Sewerage; and all such Orders shall be binding upon such Vestries and Boards.

Metropolitan Board may direct Appointments to be made for Two Parishes or Districts jointly.

CXXXIX. The Metropolitan Board of Works, where it appears to them expedient that any Officer or Set of Officers, necessary for any of the Purposes of this Act, should act for a larger Area than is comprised in One Parish or District, or for Parts of different Parishes or Districts, may, with the Consent of the Vestries or Boards of such Parishes or Districts, direct that such Vestries or Boards shall unite in the Appointment and Removal of such Officer or Set of Officers; and the said Metropolitan Board shall in such Case direct the Mode in which the respective Bodies or Committees thereof shall act together for the Purposes of every such Appointment and Removal, and the Proportions in which the Salary or Salaries of such Officer or Officers shall be borne and paid by every such Parish and District respectively.

Or may place a Street in different Parishes under Management of One Vestry, or Part of a Parish under Management of Vestry of adjoining Parish.

CXL. It shall be lawful for the Metropolitan Board of Works, where it appears to them that any Street or Line of Street, being in more than One Parish or District, should be placed under the exclusive Management of One Vestry or District Board for the Purposes of paving, lighting, watering, and cleansing, or any of them, or for the Purposes of Sewerage and Drainage, or for all the Purposes of this Act, to order that the same shall be under the Management of such Vestry or Board accordingly; and it shall also be lawful for the said Metropolitan Board, where it appears to them that any Part of any Parish or District is so detached or situate that it would be convenient for the Purposes of Sewerage or Drainage that the same should be placed under the Management of the Vestry or District Board of any adjoining Parish or District, to order that such Part shall, for such Purposes, be under the Management of such Vestry or District Board.

Metropolitan Board to regulate naming of Streets and numbering of Houses.

CXLI. It shall be lawful for the Metropolitan Board of Works from Time to Time to cause to be painted or affixed on a conspicuous Part of some House or Building at or near each End, Corner, or Entrance of every Street in the Metropolis the Name of such Street, and the Board may, where more than One Street in the Metropolis is called by the same Name, alter the Name of any or all such Streets, except One, to any other Name which to such Board may seem fit, and which may be approved by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings; and before any Name is given to any new Street, Notice of the intended Name shall be given to the said Board, and if there be any Street in the Metropolis called or about to be called by the same Name, the said Board may, by Notice in Writing, stating that there is already a Street in the Metropolis called or about to be called by the same Name, and describing the Locality thereof, given to the Person by whom Notice of such intended Name was given to them at any Time within Fourteen Days after Receipt of such last-mentioned Notice, object to such intended Name; and it shall not be lawful to set up any Name to any new Street in the Metropolis, until the Expiration of Fourteen Days after Notice thereof has been given as aforesaid to the said Board, or to set up any Name objected to as aforesaid; and the Owners or Occupiers of Houses and Buildings in the several Streets in the Metropolis shall mark such Houses or Buildings with such Numbers or Names, for the Purpose of distinguishing the same, as the said Board may direct or approve, and shall renew the Numbers or Names of such Houses or Buildings as often as they are obliterated or defaced; and if any Occupier of any such House or Building neglect, for One Week after Notice from the said Board, to mark such House or Building with such Number or Name as the said Board may direct or approve, or to renew the Number or Name thereof as aforesaid, he shall be liable to a Penalty of not exceeding Forty Shillings, and the said Board may cause such Number or Name to be so marked or renewed, and recover the Expense thereof from the Owner of such House or Building in manner herein-after provided; and if any Person wilfully or maliciously destroy, pull down, obliterate, or deface the Name of any Street in the Metropolis, or the Name or Number of any House or Building in any such Street, or paint, affix, or set up any Name to any Street, or any Name or Number to any House or Building, contrary to this Enactment, he shall for every such Offence forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings; and it shall be lawful for the said Board to cause such Name or Number so painted, affixed, or set up contrary to their Directions to be obliterated or destroyed.

Register to be kept of Alterations in Names of Streets.

CXLII. The said Metropolitan Board shall keep a Register of all Alterations made by them in the Names of Streets, and such Register shall be kept in such Form as to show the Date of every such Alteration, and the Name of the Street previous to such Alteration as well as the new Name thereof.

Buildings not be brought beyond Line of Street.

CXLIII. No Building shall, without the Consent in Writing of the Metropolitan Board of Works, be erected beyond the regular Line of Buildings in the Street in which the same is situate, in case the Distance of such Line of Buildings from the Highway do not exceed Thirty Feet, or within Thirty Feet of the Highway where the Distance of the Line of Buildings therefrom amounts to or exceeds Thirty Feet, notwithstanding there being Gardens or vacant Spaces between the Line of Buildings and the Highway; and in case any Building be erected contrary to this Enactment, it shall be lawful for the Vestry or District Board in whose Parish or District such Building is situate to cause the same to be demolished or set back (as the Case may require), and to recover the Expenses incurred by them from the Owner of the Premises in manner provided by this Act.

Power to Metropolitan Board to make Improvements.

CXLIV. The Metropolitan Board of Works shall have Power to make, widen, or improve any Streets, Roads, or Ways, for facilitating the Passage and Traffic between different Parts of the Metropolis, or to contribute and join with any Persons in any such Improvements as aforesaid, and to take, by Agreement or by Gift, any Land, Rights in Land, or Property, for the Purposes aforesaid (or otherwise) for the Improvement

Improvement of the Metropolis, on such Terms and Conditions as they may think fit; and such Board, where it appears to them that further Powers are required for the Purpose of any Work for the Improvement of the Metropolis or public Benefit of the Inhabitants thereof, may make Applications to Parliament for that Purpose, and the Expenses of such Application may be defrayed as other Expenses of the said Board: Provided always, that before the Metropolitan Board of Works commence any such Works, the estimated Expense whereof shall exceed Fifty thousand Pounds, the Plan of such Works, together with an Estimate of the Cost of carrying the same into execution, shall be submitted by such Board to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings; and no such Plan shall be carried into effect until the same has been approved by such Commissioners; and no such Works shall be commenced in Cases where the estimated Expense thereof shall exceed the Sum of One hundred thousand Pounds, without the previous Sanction of Parliament.

Determination of Metropolitan Commission of Sewers.

Powers of Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers to cease. 11 & 12 Vict. c. 112.

CXLV. From and after the Commencement of this Act, all Duties, Powers, and Authorities vested in the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers shall cease to be so vested; and in the meantime, and until such Commencement, the Metropolitan Commission of Sewers, and the Act of the Session holden in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twelve, and the Acts amending the same, shall continue in force.

Actions, &c. not to abate, but to continue for or against Metropolitan Board of Works.

CXLVI. No Action, Suit, Prosecution, or other Proceeding whatsoever, commenced or carried on by or against the said Commissioners, shall abate or be discontinued or prejudicially affected by the Determination of the Powers of such Commissioners, but shall continue and take effect in favour of or against the Metropolitan Board of Works in the same Manner in all respects as the same would have continued and taken effect in relation to the said Commissioners if this Act had not been passed, and the Powers of the said Commissioners had continued in full Force; and all Decrees and Orders made, and all Fines, Amerciaments, and Penalties imposed and incurred, respectively, previously to the Commencement of this Act, shall and may be enforced, levied, recovered, and proceeded for, and all administrative Proceedings commenced previously to the Commencement of this Act shall and may be continued, proceeded with, and completed, the Metropolitan Board of Works being, in reference to the Matters aforesaid, in all respects substituted in the Place of the said Commissioners.

Rates made by Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers to be recoverable under this Act.

CXLVII. All Rates made by the said Commissioners previously to the Commencement of this Act, or so much thereof as may not have been levied and paid, shall be levied by and paid to the Metropolitan Board of Works, and such Board shall have the same Rights and Remedies in all respects in relation thereto, as would have been had and might have been exercised by the said Commissioners; but all such Rates respectively shall, so far as Circumstances admit, be applied to the same Purposes as the same would have been applicable to, in case the Powers of the said Commissioners had continued in force, and shall for the Purposes of such Application (where the Circumstances so require) be paid over by the Metropolitan Board of Works, or by their Order, to the Vestry or District Board having the Management of the Sewers in any Parish or District under this Act, or as such Vestry or Board may direct.

Property vested in Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers (except Sewers transferred to Vestries and DistrictBoards) transferred to the Metropolitan Board of Works. 11 & 12 Vict. c. 112.

CXLVIII. All Property, Matters, and Things whatsoever vested in the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers, except such Sewers as are hereby vested in any Vestry or District Board, and except such Sewers as are not within the Limits of the Parishes and Places mentioned in the Schedules to this Act, shall be vested in the Metropolitan Board of Works; and all Persons who then owe any Money to the said Commissioners of Sewers, or to any Person on behalf of such Commissioners, shall pay the same to the Metropolitan Board of Works, or as they may direct; and all Monies then due and owing by, or recoverable from the said Commissioners shall be paid by, or recoverable from the Metropolitan Board of Works; and all Contracts, Agreements, Bonds, Covenants, and Securities theretofore made or entered into with, or in favour of, or by the said Commissioners, and all Contracts, Agreements, Bonds, Covenants, and Securities made or entered with or in favour of, or by any former or other Commissioners, which, under the said Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty, were to take effect in favour of, against, and with reference to the said Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers, and are now in force, shall take effect, and may be proceeded on and enforced, as near as Circumstances admit, in favour of, by, against, and with reference to the Metropolitan Board of Works, as the same would have taken effect, and might have been proceeded on and enforced in favour of, by, against, and with reference to the said Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers, if this Act had not been passed, and the Powers of such Commissioners had continued in full Force; and any Retiring Pension or Allowance granted under Section Twenty-seven of the said Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty shall continue payable on the like Terms by the said Metropolitan Board of Works.

Auxiliary Powers common to the Metropolitan Board of Works and to Vestries and District Boards.

Power to Boards and Vestries to enter into Contracts for carrying Act into execution.

CXLIX. The Metropolitan Board of Works, and every District Board and Vestry, may enter into all such Contracts as they may think necessary for carrying this Act into execution; and every such Contract for Works or Materials, whereof the Value or Amount exceeds Ten Pounds, shall be in Writing or Print, or partly in Writing and partly in Print, sealed with the Seal of the Board or Vestry; and every Contract so entered into, and duly executed by the other Parties thereto, shall be binding on the Board or Vestry and their Successors, and upon all other Parties thereto: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for any such Board or Vestry to compound with any Contractor or other Person in respect of any Penalty incurred by reason of the Nonperformance of any Contract entered into as aforesaid, whether such Penalty be mentioned in any such Contract, or in any Bond, or otherwise, for such Sum of Money or other Recompence as to the Board or Vestry may seem proper. Power to compound for Penalties in respect of Breach of Contracts.

CL. It shall be lawful for the Metropolitan Board of Works and every District Board and Vestry to purchase, or to take on Lease for such Term as they may think fit, any Land, or any Right or Easement in or over any Land which they may deem necessary or expedient for the Formation or Protection of any Works which they are authorized to execute under this Act, also any Offices and other Buildings, Yards, Stations, or Places for Deposit of Refuse, Materials, and Things, or any Land for the Erection and Formation of such Offices and other Buildings, Yards, Stations, or Places for Deposit; and also to contract for the Purchase, Removal, or Abatement of any Milldam, Pound, Weir, Bank, Wall, Lock, or other Obstruction to the Flow of Water, whereby Sewerage or Drainage is interrupted or impeded, and for the Purchase of any Land, or any Right or Easement in or over any Land, which it may be necessary or expedient to purchase to prevent the Obstruction of Sewerage or Drainage; and also to purchase or take on Lease as aforesaid the whole or any Part of any Streams or Springs of Water, or any Rights therein, which it appears to them necessary to acquire and use for the Purposes of cleansing Sewers and Drains, and the other Purposes of this Act, or any Land which is deemed by them advisable to purchase or take on Lease for the Purpose of drawing or obtaining Water from Springs, or by sinking of Wells, and for making and providing Reservoirs, Tanks, Aqueducts, Watercourses, and other Works, or for any other Purpose connected with the Works for obtaining such Supply of Water as aforesaid: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall authorize the said Metropolitan Board, or any District Board or Vestry, to use or permit to be used any such Works for the Purpose of carrying Water by Supply Pipes into any House or Factory for domestic, manufacturing, or commercial Purposes. Power to Boards and Vestries to purchase Lands, &c. for the Purposes of this Act.

CLI. For the Purpose of enabling the said Metropolitan Board, and every District Board and Vestry, to obtain any Land, or any Right or Easement in or over any Land, which they respectively may require for the Purposes of this Act, "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," except the Provisions of that Act with respect to the Recovery of Forfeitures, Penalties, and Costs, shall, subject to the Provisions herein contained, be incorporated with this Act; and the Provisions of the said Act so incorporated with this Act which would be applicable in the Case of a Purchase of any Land shall be applicable in the Case of the Purchase of a Right or Easement in or over any Land; and for the Purposes of this Act the Expression "the Promoters of the Undertaking," wherever used in the said Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, shall mean the Metropolitan Board, or the District Board or Vestry, acting under the Provisions of the said Act and this Act, as the Case may be. Certain Provisions of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 18. incorporated with this Act.

CLII. Provided always, That the Provisions of the said Lands Clauses Consolidation Act "with respect to the Purchase and taking of Lands otherwise than by Agreement" shall not be incorporated with this Act, save for enabling the Metropolitan Board of Works to take Land, or any Right or Easement in or over Land, for the Purpose of making any Sewers or Works for preventing the Sewage or any Part of the Sewage within the Metropolis from passing into the Thames in or near the Metropolis, or otherwise for the Purpose of the Sewerage or Drainage of the Metropolis: Provided also, that no Land, or Right or Easement in or over Land, for the Purposes aforesaid, shall be taken compulsorily by the said Board, without the previous Consent in Writing of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State. Lands not to be taken compulsorily except by Metropolitan Board with Consent of Secretary of State.

CLIII. The Metropolitan Board of Works, before applying for the Consent of the Secretary of State for taking Land, or any Right or Easement in or over Land, compulsorily, as aforesaid, shall publish, once at the least in each of Four consecutive Weeks, in One of the daily Newspapers published in the Metropolis, an Advertisement describing the Nature of the Works in respect of which the Land, Right or Easement, is proposed to be taken, naming a Place where a Plan of the proposed Works is open for Inspection at all reasonable Hours, and stating the Quantity of Land, or the Particulars of the Right or Easement that they require for the Purpose of such Works, and shall serve a Notice on the Owners or reputed Owners, Lessees or reputed Lessees, and Occupiers of the Land intended to be taken, or of the Land, in or over which such Right or Easement is intended to be taken, such Service to be made Four Weeks previously to the Application to such Secretary of State, and such Notice shall state the Particulars of the Land, Right, or Easement so required, and that the Metropolitan Board are willing to treat for the Purchase thereof, and as to the Compensation to be made for the Damage that may be sustained by reason of the proposed Works. Previous Notice to be given.

CLIV. The Metropolitan Board of Works, and any District Board or Vestry, may sell and dispose of any Land purchased by them under this Act, and any Property whatsoever vested in them under this Act, which, it may appear to them, may be properly sold or disposed of; and for completing and carrying any such Sale of any Land into effect, such Board may make and execute a Conveyance of the Land sold and disposed of as aforesaid unto the Purchaser, or as he shall direct, and such Conveyance shall be under the Seal of the said Board or Vestry; and the Word "grant" in such Conveyance shall have the same Operation as by the said Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, is given to the same Word in a Conveyance of Lands made by the Promoters of the Undertaking; and a Receipt under the Seal of the said Power to dispose of Lands or Property not wanted. 8 & 9 Vict. c. 18.

said Board or Vestry shall be a sufficient Discharge to the Purchaser of any such Land or any other such Property as aforesaid for the Purchase Money in such Receipt expressed to be received; and the Money arising from such Sale of any Land purchased under this Act, and (except as herein-after otherwise provided) of any such Property, shall be applied in aid of the Rate out of which the Expenses of the Purchase of such Land or providing such Property have been or are authorized to be defrayed under this Act; and the Money arising from the Sale of any Property vested in any such Board or Vestry under this Act, and which before becoming so vested, was vested in any Commissioners or other Body, or in any Officer of any Commissioners or other Body, or in any Surveyor of Highways, shall be applied in or towards the Discharge of any Debts or Liabilities, for the Discharge whereof, Rates are by this Act authorized to be raised in the Parish, or Part, to the Commissioners or other Body for the Management of the paving, lighting, or cleansing whereof such Property may have belonged before the Commencement of this Act, and, subject as aforesaid, shall be applied in aid of such Rate to be raised under this Act in such Parish or Part as to the Board or Vestry disposing of such Property may seem just; and any such Board or Vestry may let any Land purchased by or vested in them under this Act, and which for the Time being is not required for the Purposes thereof, in such Manner and on such Terms as such Board or Vestry may see fit.

Owners of Land may on Sale reserve a Right of Pre-emption.

8 & 9 Vict. c. 18. ss. 128, 129, 130.

CLV. Provided always, That where any Land, or any Right or Easement in or over Land is purchased by the said Metropolitan Board, or any District Board or Vestry, under this Act, it shall be lawful for the Owners of, or Parties entitled to sell or convey such Land, Right or Easement to reserve upon the Sale thereof to such Board or Vestry, in and by the Conveyance, such Right of Pre-emption to the Person for the Time being entitled to the Land (if any) from which the Land so purchased was severed, or in or over which such Right or Easement is granted, as is provided by Sections 128, 129, and 130 of the said Lands Clauses Consolidation Act; but, except where such Right of Pre-emption is so reserved, there shall be no such Right, notwithstanding the Incorporation of the said Lands Clauses Consolidation Act with this Act.

Penalty for withholding Property transferred to Metropolitan Board or any Vestry or District Board.

CLVI. In case any Person having the Charge, Control, or Possession of any Property, Matters, or Things vested in the Metropolitan Board of Works, or the Vestry of any Parish, or any District Board, by or under this Act, neglect or refuse to give up the same, on Demand, to such Board or Vestry, or such Person as they respectively may order, every Person so offending shall, upon being convicted thereof before any Two Justices of the Peace, for every such Offence forfeit and pay, over and above the Value of the Property not given up, such Sum not exceeding Five Pounds as the said Justices may think fit.

Regulations as to breaking up Turnpike Roads.

CLVII. The Metropolitan Board of Works, and any Vestry or District Board, may, where necessary for the Purpose of executing any Work authorized by this Act, open and break up any Turnpike Road, under and subject to the Restrictions and Provisions herein-after contained; that is to say, Seven Days previous Notice, with a full Description of any intended Works, shall be left at the Office of the Commissioners or Trustees of the Road; and, except by the Permission of the said Commissioners or Trustees, the Traffic of the Road shall not at One Time be stopped or hindered along more than Half of its Width, nor, if the Half left open be of less than the clear Width of Fourteen Feet, along more than One hundred Yards in Length; and no Alteration shall, except by such Permission as aforesaid, be made in the Inclination of any Part of the Road of more than One Foot in Sixty Feet; and all Work shall be done under the Superintendence of the Surveyor of the said Commissioners or Trustees; and the Party doing the Works shall cause all Openings in the Road to be effectually secured and fenced, and affix and maintain Lights during the Night near to the Place where the Ground is open, so as to prevent Accidents; and the said Commissioners or Trustees are hereby absolved from all Liability in respect of any Accident arising in consequence of such Works; and the Party doing the Works shall restore every Road so opened or broken up to its original State as to Surface and Materials, and, in order to meet the future Expenses consequent on the Subsidence of Materials newly filled in, shall pay to such Commissioners or Trustees, on Demand, such Sum as they shall require for such Purpose, not exceeding One Shilling for every Superficial Square Yard, and, so far as the Works affect the same, shall make good all Drainage, paving of Water Channels, Kerbs of Footpaths, and other Matters and Things connected with the Maintenance of the Road; and in default the Surveyor of the said Commissioners or Trustees may cause the necessary Work to be done; and in all Cases of Expense incurred by any such Surveyor, on the Default of the Party doing the Works, such Party shall pay such Expense to the Commissioners or Trustees, on Demand.

Provisions for defraying Expenses of Vestries and District Boards.

How Sums to be raised by Vestries and District Boards for defraying their Expenses.

CLVIII. Every Vestry and District Board shall from Time to Time, by Order under their Seal, require the Overseers of their Parish, or of the several Parishes in their District, to levy, and to pay over to the Treasurer of such Vestry or Board, or into any Bank in such Order mentioned, and within the Time or Times thereby limited, the Sums which such Vestry or Board may require for defraying the Expenses of the Execution of this Act (and such Orders may be made wholly or in part in respect of Expenses already incurred or of Expenses to be thereafter incurred); and every such Vestry and Board shall distinguish in their Orders Sums required for defraying Expenses of constructing, altering, maintaining, and cleansing the Sewers, or otherwise connected with Sewerage, and also, where the Act of the the Session holden in the Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Ninety, or any other Act by virtue whereof Land is rated in respect of Expenses of Lighting at a less Amount in proportion to the annual Value thereof than Houses, or is wholly exempted from being rated in respect of such Expenses, is in force in any Parish, or any Part of any Parish, at the Time of the passing of this Act, distinguish, as regards such Parish, or Part, the Sums required for defraying Expenses of lighting their Parish or District, from Sums required for defraying other Expenses of executing this Act; but every such Vestry and Board may cause to be raised as Expenses connected with Sewerage such Portion of the Expenses incident to the Conduct of their Business in relation to Sewerage, in common with the Conduct of their other Business under this Act, as to such Vestry or Board may seem just; and the Overseers or Collectors, in the Receipts to be given for the Sums levied or collected by them, shall distinguish the Rate in the Pound required for Sewerage Expenses, and the Rate required for the other Expenses of this Act. 3 & 4 W. 4. c. 90.

CLIX. Where it appears to any Vestry or District Board that all or any Part of the Expenses, for defraying which any Sum is by such Vestry or Board ordered to be levied as aforesaid, have or has been incurred for the special Benefit of any particular Part of their Parish or District, or otherwise have or has not been incurred for the equal Benefit of the whole of their Parish or District, such Vestry or Board may, by any such Order, direct the Sum or Sums necessary for defraying such Expenses, or any Part thereof, to be levied in such Part, or exempt any Part of such Parish or District from the Levy, or require a less Rate to be levied thereon, as the Circumstances of the Case may require; and any such Board may refrain, where any entire Parish ought in their Judgment to be so exempt, from issuing an Order for levying any Money thereon, notwithstanding they may issue an Order or Orders for levying Sums upon any other Parish or Parishes in their District. Vestries and Boards may exempt Parts not benefited by Expenditure from Payment.

CLX. Where Part of any Parish is placed, for all or any of the Purposes of this Act, under the Management of the Vestry or District Board of an adjoining Parish or District, the Sums which such Vestry or Board may require for defraying the Expenses of executing this Act by such Vestry or Board in the Part so placed under their Management, shall be from Time to Time paid, upon their Orders, by the Vestry of the Parish whereof such Part is so placed under the Management of such other Vestry or Board, or if such Parish is comprised in a District formed by this Act, then by the District Board of such District; and such Sums shall be raised by the Vestry or Board upon whom such Orders are made, in like Manner as if the Expenses, in respect whereof the same are required, had been incurred by them in executing this Act. Provisions for Cases where Part of Parish is placed under Management of Vestry or Board of adjoining Parish or District.

CLXI. The Overseers of the Poor of every Parish to whom any such Order as aforesaid is issued shall levy the Amount mentioned therein according to the Exigency thereof, and shall for that Purpose make separate equal Pound Rates upon their Parish, or the Part thereof upon which any Sum specified in such Order is required to be levied, in respect of each Sum thereby ordered to be levied; that is to say, a separate Rate in respect of each Sum ordered to be levied for defraying Expenses connected with Sewerage, to be called a Sewers Rate; a separate Rate in respect of each Sum ordered to be levied for defraying Expenses of lighting (where a separate Sum is ordered to be levied for defraying such Expenses), to be called a Lighting Rate; and a separate Rate in respect of each Sum ordered to be levied for defraying other Expenses of executing this Act, to be called a General Rate; and shall make such respective Rates of such Amount in the Pound on the annual Value of the Property rateable, as will, in their Judgment, having regard to all Circumstances, be sufficient to raise the Sums specified in such Order; and such Rates shall be levied on the Persons and in respect of the Property by Law rateable to the Relief of the Poor in the respective Parishes, and shall be assessed upon the net annual Value of such Property ascertained by the Rate for the Time being for the Relief of the Poor; and the said Overseers shall, for the Purpose of levying such Rates, proceed in the same Manner, and have the same Powers, Remedies, and Privileges, as for levying Money for the Relief of the Poor; and all such Rates shall be allowed in the same Manner, and be subject to all the same Provisions, in relation to Appeal, and to excusing Persons from Payment on account of Poverty and otherwise, as the Rate for the Relief of the Poor in the same Parish; and such Overseers shall pay to the Treasurer of the Vestry or Board, or otherwise, as in such Order directed, the Amount mentioned in the Order, within the Time or respective Times specified for that Purpose, and the Excess, if any, which may have been levied beyond such Amount, which Excess shall be placed to the Credit of the Parish or Part in which the same has been levied; and the said Overseers shall, at the Time of making any such Payment, deliver with the Money a Note in Writing signed by them, specifying the Amount so paid, which Note shall be kept as a Voucher for the Receipt of that particular Amount; and the Receipt of the Treasurer of the Vestry or Board, or of any proper Officer or Person of or belonging to any Bank into which such Money is so paid, specifying the Amount paid to him by the Overseers, shall be a sufficient Discharge to the Overseers for such Amount. Overseers to collect the Rate in the same Manner as the Poor Rate.

CLXII. Provided always, That all such Hospitals, public Schools, and other public Buildings, dead Walls, and void Spaces of Ground as are now by Law rateable to any Rate for the Costs and Charges of paving, or repairing the Pavements within any parochial or other District, either separately or jointly with any other Object or Objects, (except only Places of Religious Worship, and Burial Grounds, or Places which have been used for Burial Grounds, and are not used for any other Purpose,) shall be rateable Public Buildings and void Spaces now rateable (except Churches and Burial Grounds) to continue rateable.

rateable under this Act to the like Extent, and for the like Objects or Purposes as they may now be rated, and the Rates to be made in respect of such Objects or Purposes shall be payable by the Persons now liable to pay the same, and be recoverable in like Manner, as any Rate to which such Buildings and Spaces of Ground are now rateable as aforesaid in respect of the like Objects or Purposes.

Land to be rated to Sewers Rate at One Fourth its annual Value.

CLXIII. Provided also, That any Sewers Rate raised under this Act shall, as regards all Land used as Arable, Meadow, or Pasture Ground only, or as Woodland, Orchard, Market Garden, Hop, Herb, Flower, Fruit, or Nursery Ground, be assessed and levied in the Proportion of One Fourth Part only of the net annual Value of such Land.

Existing Exemptions in respect of Sewers Rate to be allowed.

CLXIV. Provided also, That where any Property was at the Time of the issuing of the First Commission under the said Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twelve, entitled to Exemption from or to any Reduction or Allowance in respect of the Sewers Rate, such Exemption, Reduction, or Allowance shall be observed and allowed in levying any Sewers Rate under this Act.

Existing Exemptions of Land from Lighting Rates to be allowed. 3 & 4 W. 4. c. 90.

CLXV. Provided also, That in every Parish or Part of a Parish in which, at the Time of the passing of this Act, the Act of the Session holden in the Third and Fourth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Ninety, is in force, the Owners and Occupiers of Houses, Buildings, and Property, other than Land, shall be rated to every Lighting Rate made under this Act at a Rate in the Pound Three Times greater than that at which the Owners and Occupiers of Land shall be rated in such Lighting Rate; and in every Parish or Part of a Parish in which, under any other Act, Land is now rated, in respect of Expenses of lighting, at a less Amount, in proportion to the annual Value thereof, than Houses, or is now wholly exempted from being rated in respect of such Expenses, such Land shall continue to be rated to every Lighting Rate made under this Act, at such less Amount, or, where such Land is now wholly exempted as aforesaid, shall be wholly exempted from such Rate.

Overseers, on Nonpayment of the Rate, shall be distrained upon.

CLXVI. In case the Amount ordered, by any such Order as aforesaid, to be paid by the Overseers of any Parish, be not paid in manner directed by such Order, and within the Time therein specified for that Purpose, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, upon the Complaint by the Vestry or Board, or by any Person authorized by them for this Purpose, to issue his Warrant for levying the Amount, or so much thereof as may be in arrear, by Distress and Sale of the Goods of all or any of the said Overseers; and in case the Goods of all the Overseers be not sufficient to pay the same, the Arrears thereof shall be added to the Amount of the next Levy which shall be directed to be made in such Parish for the Purposes of this Act, and shall be collected by the like Methods.

Arrears may be levied on the Parish.

Provision for Cases where the Vestry of any Parish in Schedule (A.) make the Poor Rate.

CLXVII. Where the Vestry of any Parish mentioned in Schedule (A.) to this Act make the Rate for the Relief of the Poor in such Parish, such Vestry shall from Time to Time raise and levy the Sums required for defraying their Expenses of executing this Act, in like Manner as Overseers are required to do with respect to the Sums for which Orders are made upon them by any Vestry under this Act, and shall, in raising such Sums, act upon the like Principles, and have the like Discretion as any Vestry making Orders upon Overseers under this Act; and where any Parishes maintain their Poor in common by a common Rate, the Orders for levying any Money by this Act directed to be made on the Overseers of such Parishes, shall be made on the Overseers by Law authorized to levy such Rate thereon, and such Sums shall be levied by such Overseers, in manner provided by this Act, as if such Parishes were One Parish.

Special Persons may be appointed to levy Rates in certain Cases.

CLXVIII. Any Vestry or District Board may, in case of any Default or Neglect of any Overseers to pay the Amount required by any such Order as aforesaid, within the Time and in the Manner directed by such Order, and the said Metropolitan Board may, in case of any Default or Neglect of any Vestry or District Board to pay the Amount required by any Precept of the said Metropolitan Board, within such Time, and in such Manner as may be therein mentioned, appoint Persons to levy any Money, required by such Vestry or Board for the Purposes of this Act, in any Parish or District; and such Persons shall proceed in the same Manner, and have the same Powers, Remedies, and Privileges, and be subject to the same Regulations and Penalties, with reference to the levying of such Money, as any Overseers would have had, or been subject to, with reference to levying any such Money in pursuance of an Order of the Vestry or District Board, or, where the same might be levied by the Vestry under this Act, as such Vestry would have had, or been subject to, with reference to levying the same.

Provision for Deduction by Tenants of Sewers Rate.

CLXIX. As between Landlord and Tenant, every Tenant, whether his Tenancy have commenced before or after the passing of this Act, and who, if this Act had not been passed, would have been entitled to deduct against or to be repaid by his Landlord any Sum paid by such Tenant on account of the Sewers Rate, shall in like Manner be entitled to deduct against or to be repaid by his Landlord any Sewers Rate levied on him under this Act.

Provisions for defraying Expenses of Metropolitan Board.

Sums to be assessed upon the City and other Parts of the Metropolis by Metropolitan

CLXX. The Metropolitan Board of Works shall from Time to Time ascertain, and assess upon the City of London and the other Parts of the Metropolis the Sums which, in their Judgment, ought to be charged upon the said City, and such other Parts respectively, for defraying the Expenses of the said Board in the Execution of this Act, having regard to the annual Value of the Property in the several Parts of the Metropolis, and having regard, in the Case of Expenditure on Works of Drainage, to the Benefit Benefit derived from such Expenditure by the several Parts of the Metropolis affected thereby; and any such Sum may be so assessed wholly or in part in respect of Expenses already incurred or of Expenses to be thereafter incurred; and for the Purposes of such Assessment, the annual Value of the Property in such several Parts shall be estimated according to the Estimate or Basis on which the County Rate is assessed, or, where there is no such County Rate, according to a like Estimate. Board for defraying Expenses.

CLXXI. The Clerk of the said Metropolitan Board, or any Person authorized by the said Board in this Behalf, may from Time to Time inspect any Rate made or to be made for any County, any Part of which is within the Metropolis; and any Basis or Standard for the County Rate of any such County, and any Returns concerning all or any of the Parishes and Places, whether parochial or extra-parochial, in the Metropolis, delivered or to be delivered in pursuance of any Act relating to County Rates, and any Rate made by the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London, and any Valuation on which the same is made; and may take Copies or Extracts from any such Rates, Basis or Standard, Returns or Valuation, without Payment of any Fee or Reward; and if any Person having the Custody of any such Rate, Basis or Standard, Return or Valuation, wilfully neglect or refuse to permit any such Clerk or Person, authorized as aforesaid, to inspect the same, or to take Copies or Extracts of or from the same, at all reasonable Times, he shall forfeit for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds. Power to Metropolitan Board, or any One authorized by them, to inspect Rates made for County or Part of County within the Metropolis.

CLXXII. For obtaining Payment of the Sums so assessed upon the City of London and the Parishes mentioned in Schedules (A.) and (B.) to this Act, the said Board shall issue Precepts under their Seal, requiring Payment thereof to their Treasurer, or into any Bank therein mentioned, within such Time as may be therein limited, and every such Precept for any Sum assessed upon the City of London shall be directed to the Chamberlain of the said City; and every such Precept for any Sum assessed upon any Parish mentioned in Schedule (A.) to this Act shall be directed to the Vestry thereof; and every such Precept for any Sum assessed upon any District mentioned in Schedule (B.) to this Act, or any Parish comprised therein, shall be directed to the Board of Works for such District; and where any such Sum is assessed upon any Part of any Parish or District, the said Metropolitan Board shall specify in their Precept the Part of such Parish or District upon which such Sum is assessed. Payment to be obtained from the City and from Parishes by Precepts to the Chamberlain of the City and to Vestries and District Boards.

CLXXIII. The Chamberlain of the City of London shall, out of any Monies in the Chamber of the said City, pay to the Treasurer of the Metropolitan Board of Works, or otherwise as they may direct, the Sums required by their Precepts, within such Time as may be therein mentioned; and all Payments so made by the said Chamberlain shall be charged by him against, and reimbursed to him out of any Rates which the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London are authorized to direct to be made under any Act relating to the Sewerage of the said City; and such Commissioners shall have full Power to raise every such Sum by any such Rate which they may be authorized to direct to be made as aforesaid, or by any Addition thereto. Payment of Sums assessed upon the City.

CLXXIV. All Sums which any Vestry or District Board may be required to pay by such Precepts as aforesaid, shall be paid by such Vestry and Board respectively within such Time as may be therein mentioned, and shall be raised in like Manner as if the same were required by the said Vestry or Board for defraying the Expenses of such Vestry or Board, in the Execution of their Powers and Duties under this Act, in relation to the Sewerage of their Parish or District. Payment by Vestries, &c. of Sums assessed by Metropolitan Board.

CLXXV. The Sums which may be assessed from Time to Time upon any Place mentioned in Schedule (C.) to this Act, or such Part thereof as may not be comprised within any Parish, or the City of London, shall be raised by means of a Rate to be made and levied as herein provided; that is to say, the said Metropolitan Board shall from Time to Time, by Warrant under their Seal, appoint a proper Person to be an Assessor, for the Purpose of assessing the full and fair annual Value of all Property in every such Place, or such Part thereof as aforesaid, which, if the same were not extra-parochial, would be liable to be rated to the Relief of the Poor, and rating the same to a Rate to be levied under this Act; and such Assessor shall, within Forty Days after the Delivery to him of the Warrant of his Appointment, make, sign, and return to the said Board an Assessment for the Place named in such Warrant; and the Assessment shall be fairly written in a Book, and shall specify, in different Columns, the Names of the respective Inhabitants or Occupiers of all Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, the full and fair annual Value of the same, and the Amount of Rate charged on the Inhabitants or Occupiers thereof, and when the Premises are unoccupied, the full and fair annual Value thereof to let; and every such Assessor shall be allowed for his Trouble and Expenses such Remuneration as the said Board may think fit; and the same shall be paid out of the Amount of the Rate which shall be collected after such Assessment; and the said Rate to be levied as aforesaid shall, for the Purposes of the Provisions of this Act relating to Exemption from and Reduction or Allowance in respect of Sewers Rate, and relating to Deduction and Repayment of Sums paid on account of Sewers Rate, be deemed a Sewers Rate. Provision for assessing and levying Rates in Places where there is no Poor Rate. Mode of making the Assessment. Allowance to Assessors.

CLXXVI. Provided always, That the Places mentioned in Schedule (C.) to this Act which are not now under rating for Sewers shall not be liable to be rated under this Act, except for the Purpose of their contributing to the Expense of carrying into effect any Plan for preventing the Sewage of the Metropolis from flowing into the River Thames in or near the Metropolis, so far as such Places respectively shall be benefited. Certain Places in Schedule (C.) to be rated only for intercepting Sewers.

CLXXVII. When such Assessment has been allowed by the said Board, public Notice of such Assessment, and of the Place where the same may be inspected, shall be given by fixing such Notice on the Door When Assessment is made, Notice to be given; and all Persons assessed to have Liberty to inspect it, &c. Penalty for refusing Inspection.

Door of the Church or Chapel, or some other conspicuous Part of the Place to which such Assessment relates, upon the Sunday next or next but one after the same has been so allowed; and any Person in whose Custody such Assessment may be, shall permit every Inhabitant or Owner or Occupier of Property included in such Assessment to inspect the same, and to make any Extracts therefrom, without Payment of any Fee or Reward; and if such Person wilfully neglect or refuse to permit any such Inhabitant, Owner, or Occupier to inspect such Assessment or to make any Extract therefrom, he shall, on Conviction thereof before any Two Justices of the Peace, forfeit, for every such Offence, such Sum, not exceeding Five Pounds, as the Justices think meet.

As to the Collection of the Rate charged in such Assessment.

CLXXVIII. The said Board shall, from Time to Time, nominate One or more Person or Persons for levying the Amount of Rate charged in every such Assessment, who shall proceed in the same Manner, and shall have the same Powers, Remedies, and Privileges, and be subject to the same Regulations and Penalties, with reference to the levying of such Rate, as if he or they were an Overseer or Overseers of the Poor in a Place rated to the Relief of the Poor; and shall pay over the Amount of such Rate to the Treasurer of the said Board or otherwise as the said Board may direct, or in default thereof, shall be proceeded against in the same Manner as Overseers are by this Act to be proceeded against for Non-payment.

Appeal against Assessment.

CLXXIX. Provided always, That if any Person, who has paid the Amount of Rate charged upon him by the Assessment made by an Assessor appointed under this Act, think himself aggrieved by such Assessment, on the Ground that such Assessment includes Property for which he is not rateable under this Act, or that it assesses his rateable Property beyond its full and fair annual Value, or that any Person is omitted out of such Assessment, or that the Property of any Person is assessed below its full and fair annual Value, the Person so aggrieved may appear to the next Court of General or Quarter Sessions for the County or Franchise in which the Cause of Appeal arises, not less than Twenty-one Days after public Notice of such Assessment has been given as herein-before mentioned; provided that the Person so intending to appeal shall give to the said Board a Notice in Writing of such Appeal, and of the Cause and Matter thereof, Ten clear Days at the least before such Sessions, and shall also, within Three Days after his Notice of Appeal, enter into a Recognizance before some Justice of the Peace of the County or Franchise, with Two sufficient Sureties, conditioned to try such Appeal at the said Sessions, and to abide the Order of the Court thereupon, and to pay such Costs as shall be by the Court awarded; and in case such Person appeal on the Ground that any Person is omitted out of the Assessment, or that the Property of any Person is assessed below its full and fair annual Value, the Party so appealing shall not only give such Notice of Appeal to the said Board, and enter into such Recognizance as aforesaid, but shall also give a like Notice of Appeal to the Person so interested in the event of such Appeal as aforesaid; and the Person so interested shall, if he desire it, be heard upon the Appeal; and the Justices of the Peace at such Sessions or some Adjournment thereof, upon due Proof of the Notice having been given, and of the Recognizance having been entered into as aforesaid, shall hear and determine the Matter of the Appeal in a summary Manner, and shall make such Order therein, with or without Costs to either Party, as the said Justices think proper; and in case the said Justices think the Appellant entitled to Relief, they shall order the Assessment to be amended in such Manner as may be necessary for giving him Relief, and shall also order any Money paid by him, which he was not liable to pay, to be returned to him; and in case he have appealed on the Ground that any Person is omitted out of the Assessment, the said Justices may order the Name of such Person to be inserted in the Assessment, and to be therein rated at such Amount as they deem just; and in case the Appellant have appealed on the Ground that the Property of any Person is assessed below its full and fair annual Value, the said Justices may order the Amount at which such Person is rated in the Assessment to be altered in such Manner as they deem just; and the proper Officer of the Court shall in each of the Cases aforesaid forthwith amend the Assessment accordingly, but the Assessment shall not be quashed or altered with respect to any other Persons named therein; and the Determination of the Justices at any such Sessions or Adjournment shall be final and conclusive.

The Assessment may be amended to relieve the Appellant without altering any other Part of it.

Provisions for discharging existing Liabilities of Boards or Bodies having Powers of paving, &c., and of the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers.

Provision for discharging existing Liabilities under Local Acts relating to paving, &c.

CLXXX. All Debts and Liabilities legally charged upon or payable out of any Rates or Assessments authorized to be levied or made under any Act relating to the paving, lighting, watering, cleansing, or improving of any Parish in either of the Schedules (A.) and (B.) to this Act, or any Part of any such Parish, shall be charged upon the Rates (other than those to be raised for defraying Expenses of Sewerage, and (where separate Rates are made under this Act for defraying Expenses of lighting) Expenses of lighting,) to be raised under this Act in such Parish or Part, and the several District Boards and Vestries shall cause the Sums necessary for discharging such Debts and Liabilities to be raised in their respective Districts and Parishes accordingly; and such Boards and Vestries shall, once in every Year, set aside, out of the Rates charged under this Act with such Debts and Liabilities, such Sum as they think proper, not being less than such Per-centage as herein-after mentioned; that is to say, Three Pounds per Centum where the Amount of Principal Debt (exclusive of Annuities) does not exceed One Fourth of the rateable Value of the Property rateable for Payment thereof, and in other Cases, Two Pounds per Centum on the Amount of the Principal Debt (exclusive of Annuities), for the Purpose of paying off such Principal, except where the Interest only of such Debt is charged upon such Rates or Assessments as aforesaid, and except also where any such Debt was contracted under the Authority of a Local Act, and the Local Act did not require that the Principal of such Debt should be paid off within a limited Time; and the Sums so from Time to Time set aside, and all Monies applied in augmentation thereof, and the Proceeds thereof respectively, shall be applied and dealt with for the Purpose of paying off such Principal as aforesaid, in manner by this Act provided with respect to Sums set aside for the Purpose of providing a Fund for paying off Mortgages granted under this Act: Provided always, that where any Debts or Liabilities are charged on any Rates or Assessments not wholly levied or made in or upon any One Parish mentioned in Schedule (A.) to this Act, or any One District mentioned in Schedule (B.) to this Act, the Metropolitan Board of Works shall apportion such Debts and Liabilities between the respective Parishes and Districts, in or upon which such Rates or Assessments are authorized to be levied or made, and shall certify to the District Board and Vestry respectively of every such District and Parish, the Amount of the apportioned Part of such Debts and Liabilities to be discharged by Rates to be raised in such Parish or District, or any Part thereof, under this Act, and such apportioned Part shall be discharged accordingly: Provided also, that nothing in this Enactment shall affect the Right of any Creditor to require Payment of any such Debt as aforesaid within any less Time than is prescribed by this Enactment for the Payment thereof.

Provision for Payment of Liabilities of Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers. 11 & 12 Vict. c. 112.

CLXXXI. Notwithstanding the Determination or Expiration of the said Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twelve, all Mortgages, Annuities, Securities, and other Debts and Liabilities which at or immediately before such Determination or Expiration may be a Charge on, or payable out of all or any of the Rates authorized to be levied thereunder, shall continue in full Force, and be a Charge on the Districts or Parts in which such Rates would have been authorized to be levied in case such Act had continued in force, and all Persons who may be entitled to any such Mortgages, Annuities, or Debts shall have Priority in respect of all Monies advanced before the passing of this Act over any Monies advanced to the Metropolitan Board of Works under this Act, and shall have the like Priority among themselves as they are now entitled to under the said Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twelve, or any Act continuing or amending the same; and the Sums from Time to Time becoming payable under, or required for Payment of the said Mortgages, Annuities, Securities, Debts, and Liabilities, shall be raised by the Metropolitan Board of Works in such Districts or Parts, in like Manner as the Expenses of such Board in the Execution of this Act; and in case any such District or Part be wholly or in part without the Limits of the Metropolis, as defined by this Act, the said Metropolitan Board shall from Time to Time issue Precepts under their Seal to the Overseers of the Parish or Parishes in which any Part without such Limits is comprised, requiring Payment to the Treasurer of the said Board or into any Bank in such Precepts respectively mentioned, within such respective Times as may be therein limited, of such Sums as it may be necessary to raise, in such Part, for the Purposes aforesaid; and the Provisions herein contained respecting the levying and Payment of Money by Overseers, in pursuance of any Order of a Vestry or District Board, shall be applicable, mutatis mutandis, to and for the levying and Payment of Money by Overseers in pursuance of any such Precept as aforesaid of the said Metropolitan Board; and the said Board shall once in every Year set aside such Sum as they think proper, not being less than Two Pounds per Centum on the Amount of all Principal Monies (exclusive of Annuities) becoming payable by them under this Enactment, for the Purpose of paying off all such Principal Monies; and the Sums so from Time to Time set aside, and all Monies applied in augmentation thereof, and the Proceeds thereof respectively, shall be applied and dealt with, for the Purpose of paying off such Principal Monies as aforesaid, in manner by this Act provided with respect to Sums set aside for the Purpose of providing a Fund for paying off Mortgages granted under this Act, and the Sums to be so set aside shall be raised by such Board in manner aforesaid.

Improvement Rates may be levied for Recovery of certain Expenses, &c.

CLXXXII. Where the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers have incurred any Expenses authorized by the said Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twelve, to be paid by an Improvement Rate, or as Charges for Default, it shall be lawful for the Metropolitan Board of Works to levy Improvement Rates or Charges for Default for the Recovery of the whole of such Expenses, or such Portion thereof as shall still remain due and unpaid, in the Manner directed by the said Act, and the said Board shall have all the Rights and Remedies for the Recovery thereof which are now vested in the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers in this Behalf.

General Powers to Metropolitan and District Boards and Vestries to borrow.

Power to Boards and Vestries to borrow Money on Mortgage.

CLXXXIII. It shall be lawful for the Metropolitan Board, and every District Board and Vestry, for the Purposes of defraying any Expenses incurred or to be incurred by them in the Execution of this Act, to borrow and take up at Interest, on the Credit of all or any of the Monies or Rates authorized to be raised by them under this Act, any Sums of Money necessary for defraying any such Expenses; and for the Purpose of securing the Repayment of any Sums so borrowed, together with such Interest as aforesaid, such Board or Vestry may mortgage and assign over to the Persons by or on behalf of whom such Sums are advanced, the respective Monies or Rates upon the Credit of which such Sums are borrowed; and the respective Mortgagees shall be entitled to a Proportion of the Monies or Rates comprised in their respective respective Mortgages, according to the Sums in such Mortgages mentioned to have been advanced; and each Mortgagee shall be entitled to be repaid the Sums so advanced, with Interest, without any Preference over any other Mortgagee or Mortgagees by reason of any Priority of Advance or the Date of his Mortgage: Provided always, that no Monies shall be so borrowed by any District Board or Vestry without the previous Sanction in Writing of the said Metropolitan Board.

Power to Commissioners acting under 14 & 15 Vict. c. 23. to make Advances.

CLXXXIV. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners acting in the Execution of an Act passed in the Session holden in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Twenty-three, "to "authorize for a further Period the Advance of Money out of the Consolidated Fund to a limited "Amount for carrying on Public Works and Fisheries and Employment of the Poor," and any Act or Acts for amending or continuing the same, to make Advances to any such Board or Vestry upon the Security of all or any of the Monies or Rates to be raised by them under this Act, and without requiring any further or other Security than a Mortgage of such Monies or Rates.

Form of Mortgage.

CLXXXV. Every Mortgage authorized to be made under this Act shall be by Deed duly stamped, truly stating the Date, Consideration, and the Time of Payment, and shall be sealed with the Seal of the Board or Vestry, and may be made according to the Form (E.) contained in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, or with such Variations or Additions in each Case as the Board or Vestry and the Party advancing the Money intended to be thereby secured may agree to; and there shall be kept, at the Office of the Board or Vestry, a Register of the Mortgages made by them, and within Fourteen Days after the Date of any Mortgage, an Entry shall be made in the Register of the Number and Date thereof, and of the Names and Descriptions of the Parties thereto, as stated in the Deed; and every such Register shall be open to public Inspection during Office Hours at the said Office, without Fee or Reward; and any Clerk or other Person having the Custody of the same, refusing to allow such Inspection, shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

Register of Mortgages.

Repayment of Money borrowed at a Time agreed upon.

CLXXXVI. The Board or Vestry making any such Mortgage may, if they think proper, fix a Time or Times for the Repayment of all or any Principal Monies borrowed under this Act, and the Payment of the Interest thereof respectively, and may provide for the Repayment of such Monies, with Interest, by Instalments or otherwise, as they may think fit; and in case the Board or Vestry fix the Time or Times of Repayment, they shall cause such Time or Times to be inserted in the Mortgage Deed; and at the Time or Times so fixed for Payment thereof, such Principal Monies and Interest respectively shall, on Demand, be paid to the Party entitled to receive the same accordingly; and if no other Place of Payment be inserted in the Mortgage Deed, the Principal and Interest shall be payable at the principal Office of the Board or Vestry, and, unless otherwise provided by any Mortgage, the Interest of the Money borrowed thereupon shall be paid half-yearly; and if no Time be fixed in the Mortgage Deed for the Repayment of the Money so borrowed, the Party entitled to receive such Money may, at the Expiration or at any Time after the Expiration of Twelve Months from the Date of such Deed, demand Payment of the Principal Money thereby secured, with all Arrears of Interest, upon giving Six Months previous Notice for that Purpose; and in the like Case the Board or Vestry may at any Time pay off the Money borrowed, on giving the like Notice; and every such Notice shall be in Writing or Print, or both, and, if given by a Mortgagee, shall be given in manner herein provided for Service of Notices on the Board or Vestry, and, if given by the Board or Vestry, shall be given either personally to such Mortgagee or left at his Residence, or if such Mortgagee or his Residence be unknown to them, or cannot be found after diligent Inquiry, such Notice shall be given by Advertisement in the London Gazette; and if the Board or Vestry have given Notice of their Intention to pay off any such Mortgage at a Time when the same may lawfully be paid off by them, then, at the Expiration of such Notice, all further Interest shall cease to be payable thereon, unless, on Demand of Payment made pursuant to such Notice, or at any Time thereafter, the Board or Vestry fail to pay the Principal and Interest due at the Expiration of such Notice on such Mortgage.

Interest on Mortgages to be paid half-yearly.

As to Repayment of Money borrowed when no Time has been agreed upon.

Interest to cease on Expiration of Notice to pay off a Mortgage Debt.

Power to borrow to pay off existing Securities.

CLXXXVII. It shall be lawful for the said Metropolitan Board, with respect to any Security granted by the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers, or granted by such Board under this Act, and for every District Board and Vestry, with respect to any Security for any existing Debt or Liability which such Board or Vestry are by this Act required to discharge, and any Security granted by such Board or Vestry under this Act, to raise and borrow the Monies necessary for paying off such Security, and to pay off the same; and the Monies borrowed for the Purpose of such Payment shall be secured and repaid in like Manner as if borrowed for defraying the Expenses of the Execution of this Act: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize the paying off of any Security otherwise than in accordance with the Provisions thereof.

Payment of Principal and Interest may be enforced by the Appointment of a Receiver. 11 & 12 Vict. c. 112.

CLXXXVIII. If at the Expiration of Six Months from the Time when any Principal Money or Interest has become due upon any Mortgage made under this Act, or under the said Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twelve, or any Act continuing or amending the same, and after Demand in Writing, the same be not paid, the Mortgagee may, without Prejudice to any other Mode of Recovery, apply for the Appointment of a Receiver, to Two Justices, who are hereby empowered, after hearing the Parties, to appoint, in Writing under their Hands and Seals, some Person to collect and receive the whole or a competent Part of the Monies or Rates liable to the Payment of the Principal or Interest in respect of which the Application is made, until such Principal or Interest, or both, as the Case may be, together with the Costs of the Application and the Costs of Collection, are fully paid; and upon such Appointment being made, all such Monies or Rates, or such competent Part thereof as aforesaid, shall be paid to the Person appointed, and when so paid, shall be so much Money received by or to the Use of the Mortgagee or Mortgagees, and shall be rateably apportioned between or among them, but subject and without Prejudice to such Rights of Priority, if any, as shall then be subsisting between the Mortgagees or any of them: Provided always, that no Mortgagee shall be prejudiced, either directly or indirectly, by any Loss which may be occasioned by the Misapplication or Nonapplication of any Monies or Rates received by any Receiver appointed otherwise than upon the Application or with the express Consent of such Mortgagee, or by any Act, Deed, Neglect, or Default on the Part of such Receiver; but such Loss shall be wholly borne by the Mortgagee or Mortgagees upon whose Application, or with whose express Consent such Receiver was appointed: Provided also, that no such Application shall be entertained unless the Sum or Sums due and owing to the Applicant amount to One thousand Pounds, or unless a joint Application be made by Two or more Mortgagees to whom there may be due, after such Lapse of Time, and Demand, as last aforesaid, Monies collectively amounting to that Sum.

Transfer of Mortgages.

CLXXXIX. Any Mortgagee or other Person entitled to any Mortgage under this Act may transfer his Estate and Interest therein to any other Person by Deed duly stamped, truly stating its Date, the Names and Descriptions of the Parties thereto, and the Consideration for the Transfer; and such Transfer may be according to the Form contained in the Schedule (F.) to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect; and there shall be kept at the Office of every Board and Vestry making any Mortgages under this Act, a Register of the Transfers of such Mortgages; and within Thirty Days after the Date of any such Deed of Transfer, if executed within the United Kingdom, or within Thirty Days after its Arrival in the United Kingdom, if executed elsewhere, the same shall be produced to the Clerk of the Board or Vestry making the Mortgage; and such Clerk shall, upon Payment of the Sum of Five Shillings, cause an Entry to be made in such Register of its Date, and of the Names and Description of the Parties thereto, as stated in the Transfer; and upon any Transfer being so registered, the Transferee, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall be entitled to the full Benefit of the original Mortgage, and the Principal and Interest secured thereby; and every such Transferee may, in like Manner, transfer his Estate and Interest in any such Mortgage; and no Person, except the Person to whom the same has been last transferred, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, shall be entitled to release or discharge any such Mortgage, or any Money secured thereby.

Register of Transfers.

Sinking Fund to be formed for paying off Mortgages.

CXC. For the Purpose of providing a Fund for paying off Mortgages granted under this Act, the Board or Vestry granting such Mortgage shall, once in every Year, set aside, out of the Monies or Rates charged thereby, such Sum as they think proper, being not less than Two Pounds per Centum on the Amount of the Principal Monies secured thereby; and the Sum so from Time to Time set aside, and all other Monies applied by the Board or Vestry in augmentation of the said Fund, shall be applied, in the Manner herein-after directed, in Payment, so far as the same will extend, of the Principal Money secured by such Mortgages, or the same shall be invested in the Public Funds, or on Government or Real Security, in the Name of the Board or Vestry; and the Dividends and Interest of the Monies so invested, when and as the same become due, shall from Time to Time be received and invested in like Manner, in order that the said Monies so set aside and invested may accumulate at Compound Interest; and when such accumulated Fund amounts to a Sum which, in the Opinion of the Board or Vestry, can be conveniently applied for that Purpose, the Stocks, Funds, or Securities whereon the same is invested shall be sold or otherwise converted into Money, and the Monies arising from any such Sale and Conversion shall be applied, in the Manner herein-after directed, in Payment, so far as the same will extend, of the said Principal Monies, and so from Time to Time until the whole of the said Principal Monies are discharged.

Mode of paying off Mortgages.

CXCI. When and as often as the Board or Vestry are enabled and think it expedient to pay off One or more of the said Mortgages, they shall cause the several Numbers of such Mortgages to be written upon distinct Slips of Paper of an equal Size, and all such Slips shall be rolled or folded up in a similar Form, and put in a Box, and the Clerk of the said Board or Vestry shall, at a Meeting of the Board or Vestry, draw separately out of the said Box One of the said Slips, and thereupon the Mortgage corresponding with the Number so drawn shall be paid off by the Board or Vestry; and, after every such Ballot, the Board or Vestry shall cause a Notice, signed by the Clerk, to be given to the Person entitled to the Money to be paid off, and such Notice shall express the Principal Sum proposed to be paid off, and that the same will be paid, together with the Interest due thereon, at a Place to be specified in such Notice, at the Expiration of Six Months from the Date of giving such Notice; and at the Expiration of such Period the Interest of the Principal Money to be paid off shall cease, unless such Principal Money and Interest be not paid, on Demand, pursuant to such Notice; but such Principal Money, and the Interest thereof to the End of the said Six Months, shall nevertheless be payable, on Demand.

Audit of Accounts.

Accounts of Metropolitan Board, District

CXCII. The Metropolitan Board of Works, every District Board, and the Vestry of every Parish mentioned in either of the Schedules (A.) and (B.) to this Act, shall, in the Month of April in every Year, Boards, and Vestries to be balanced up to the End of each Year.

Year, cause their Accounts to be balanced up to the Twenty-fifth Day of March next preceding, and shall cause a full Statement and Account to be drawn out, of the Amount of all Contracts entered into, and of all Monies received and expended by them, during the preceding Year, under the several distinct Heads of Receipt and Expenditure, and also of all Arrears of Rates and other Monies then owing to such respective Board or Vestry, and of all Mortgages and other Debts and Liabilities then owing by such Board or Vestry: Provided always, that where by reason of the Time established by or under any Local Act for making and collecting Rates in any Parish, the Time hereby fixed for making up the Accounts is inconvenient, it shall be lawful for the Metropolitan Board of Works to order that the Time of making and collecting such Rates, and the Period for which any such Rate may be made, shall be altered, as to the said Board may appear convenient.

Appointment and Remuneration of Auditor of Accounts of Metropolitan Board.

CXCIII. One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State shall, in the Month of April in every Year, by Order under his Hand, appoint some fit Person to be the Auditor of the Accounts of the said Metropolitan Board for the preceding Year; and every such Auditor shall be paid by such Board not exceeding Five Guineas for every Day he is fully employed on such Audit, and all Expenses he is put to in the auditing of such Accounts; provided always, that such Payment shall not exceed Fifty Guineas.

Auditors to be elected annually by the District Boards.

CXCIV. Every District Board shall, in the Month of April in every Year, elect by Ballot from among the Persons acting as Auditors for the Parishes in the District Three Persons, not being Members of such Board, to be Auditors for the current Year of the Accounts of such Board; and in case of the Death of any such Auditor, the Board by whom he was elected shall forthwith elect in a similar Manner some other such Person as aforesaid in his Place, and the Powers hereby given to the said Auditors may be exercised by any Two of them.

As to the Audit of Accounts.

CXCV. The Auditor of the Accounts of the said Metropolitan Board, and the Auditors of the Accounts of every District Board and every such Vestry as aforesaid, shall, in the Month of May, on such Day or Days as shall be fixed by him or them for the Audit of such respective Accounts, attend at the Office or principal Office of the Metropolitan Board of Works, or of such District Board or Vestry, (as the Case may require,) for the Purpose of auditing their Accounts; and such respective Boards and every such Vestry shall, by their Clerks, Treasurers, and other Officers, produce and lay before such Auditor or Auditors, at every such Audit, their Accounts for the Year preceding, together with the Statement and Account herein-before mentioned, accompanied by proper Vouchers for the Support of the same, and submit to his or their Inspection all Books, Papers, Instruments, and Writings in their Custody or Control relating thereto; and such Auditor or Auditors, in the Presence of such of the Members of such respective Boards or Vestries, and of the Ratepayers and Creditors on the Rates as desire to attend, shall audit the Accounts herein-before mentioned, and may examine any of the Members of such respective Boards or Vestries or their Officers whom he or they shall deem accountable (and whom he and they is and are hereby empowered to summon, by Writing under his or their Hand or Hands, or under the Hand of any One of them, to appear before him or them for the Purpose of such Examination,) touching the said Accounts; and shall also hear any Complaint which any such Ratepayer or Creditor shall at the Time of such Audit, make touching such Accounts; and such Auditor or Auditors shall have full Power to examine, audit, allow, and disallow the said Accounts and Items therein, and shall charge in such Accounts all Sums (if any) which ought to be accounted for, and are not brought into account; and if such Accounts be found correct, such Auditor or Auditors, or the major Part of them, shall sign the same in token of his or their Allowance thereof, and such Allowance shall be final and conclusive on all Parties.

Abstract of Accounts to be made.

CXCVI. The Auditor or Auditors of the Accounts of the Metropolitan Board of Works, and of every District Board and Vestry, shall, after such Audit of Accounts as aforesaid, cause an Account in abstract to be prepared, showing the Receipt and Expenditure under this Act for the preceding Year, under the several distinct Heads of Receipt and Expenditure, with the Statement of the Allowance of the Auditor or Auditors, if he or they has or have allowed such Accounts, or of the Parts, if any, which he or they have disallowed of such Accounts, and also a summary Statement of all Contracts entered into by such Board or Vestry in such preceding Year, and of the Monies owing to and Debts and Liabilities owing by such Board or Vestry on the Twenty-fifth Day of March next preceding.

Accounts of other Parochial Boards to be audited by the Auditors elected under this Act.

CXCVII. In all Parishes mentioned in the Schedules (A.) and (B.) to this Act, in which other Boards have Control over any Part of the Parochial Expenditure, the Auditors of Accounts of the Parish elected under this Act shall have the same Power of examining the Accounts and Officers of the said Boards as of examining the Accounts and Officers of the Vestry, and shall audit the Accounts of the said Boards in the same Manner as they audit the Accounts of the Vestry, and the Accounts of the said Boards shall not be subject to any other Audit: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall apply to Accounts which, if this Act had not been passed, would have been subject to the Audit of any Auditor already or hereafter appointed under the Authority of the Act of the Session holden in the Fourth and Fifth Years of King William the Fourth, Chapter Seventy-six, or any Act incorporated therewith.

4 & 5 W. 4. c. 76.

Annual Reports.

Annual Reports by Vestries, &c.

CXCVIII. Every such Vestry as aforesaid and District Board shall, in the Month of June in every Year, cause to be printed the said Account in abstract and summary Statement for the preceding Year, relating relating to such Vestry or Board, and also make and cause to be printed therewith a Report of their Proceedings in the Execution of this Act, and of the Works commenced and completed respectively in the preceding Year by such Vestry or Board, and the Works remaining in progress at the Termination of such Year, and also of any Proceedings taken by them or under their Authority in the preceding Year, in pursuance of any Regulations of the General Board of Health for the Time being in force, or otherwise, for the Removal of Nuisances, or the Improvement of the Sanitary Condition of their Parish or District; and to every such Report there shall be appended a Copy of every Report made to such Vestry or Board during the preceding Year by the Officer or Officers of Health for their Parish or District; and every such Vestry and Board shall, in the said Month of June, send a Copy of every such Account in abstract, Statement, and Report, together with a printed List of the Names and Addresses of the Members of such Vestry and Board, and of their Officers, to the Metropolitan Board of Works; and every Vestry and District Board shall permit Inspection at their Office of a Copy of any such Account in abstract, Statement, and Report by any Ratepayer in their Parish or District, without Payment, at all reasonable Times, and shall also permit the like Inspection, by the Public generally, of such List of Officers; and Copies of such Account in abstract, Statement, and Report, and List of Officers, shall be delivered to any Person applying for the same, on Payment of such reasonable Sums, not exceeding Twopence for each such Copy, as may be fixed by such Vestry or Board in this Behalf.

Vestry to make out and publish yearly a List of Estates, Charities, and Bequests, &c. with the Application thereof.

CXCIX. Every such Vestry as aforesaid shall cause to be made out, once at least in every Year, a List of the several Freehold, Copyhold, and Leasehold Estates, and of all Charitable Foundations and Bequests, if any, belonging to the Parish, and under the Control of the Vestry; the List to contain a true and detailed Account of the Place where such Estate or Charitable Foundation may be situate, or in what Mode and Security such Bequest may be invested, specifying also the yearly Rental of each, and the particular Appropriation thereof, together with the Names of the Persons partaking of their Benefit (except where such Benefit shall be allotted to the Poor of the Parish generally), and to what Amount in each Case, and also stating the Name and Description of the Persons in whom such Estates are vested, and the Names and Description of the Trustees for each Charity; and such Lists shall be open for the Inspection of the Ratepayers, at the Office of the Vestry Clerk, at the same Time with the Accounts when audited according to the Provisions of this Act.

Annual Report of Metropolitan Board of Works.

CC. The Metropolitan Board of Works shall, in the Month of June in every Year, make a Report of their Proceedings in the Execution of this Act, and shall, in the said Month, send a Copy thereof, together with a Copy of the said Account in abstract and summary Statement for the preceding Year relating to such Board, to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, to the General Board of Health, to the Lord Mayor of the City of London, and to each of the Vestries and District Boards in the other Parts of the Metropolis.

Reports, &c. of Metropolitan Board to be laid before Parliament.

CCI. Every such Report, Account in abstract, and Statement to be sent to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as aforesaid, shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within One Month after the Receipt thereof if Parliament be sitting, or if Parliament be not sitting, then within One Month after the next Meeting of Parliament.

Byelaws.

Power to Metropolitan Board of Works to make Byelaws.

CCII. The Metropolitan Board of Works and every District Board and Vestry respectively may, from Time to Time, make, alter, and repeal Byelaws for all or any of the Purposes following; (that is to say,) for regulating the Business and Proceedings at their Meetings, and of Committees appointed by them, the Appointment and Removal of their Officers and Servants, and the Duties, Conduct, and Remuneration of such Officers and Servants; and the said Metropolitan Board may also, from Time to Time, make, alter, and repeal Byelaws for regulating the Plans, Level, Width, Surface Inclination, and the Material of the Pavement and Roadway of new Streets and Roads, and the Plans and Level of Sites for building, and for regulating the Dimensions, Form, and Mode of Construction, and the keeping, cleansing, and repairing, of the Pipes, Drains, and other Means of communicating with Sewers, and the Traps and Apparatus connected therewith; for the emptying, cleansing, closing, and filling up of Cesspools and Privies; and for other Works of cleansing, and of removing and disposing of Refuse, and for regulating the Form of Appeal and Mode of proceeding thereon; and generally for carrying into effect the Purposes of this Act; and every such Board and Vestry may thereby impose such reasonable Penalties as they think fit, not exceeding Forty Shillings, for each Breach of such Byelaws; and in case of a continuing Offence a further Penalty, not exceeding Twenty Shillings for each Day, after Notice of the Offence from the Board or Vestry: Provided always, that under every such Byelaw, it shall be lawful for the Justices before whom any Penalty imposed thereby is sought to be recovered, to order the whole or Part only of such Penalty to be paid, or to remit the whole Penalty: Provided also, that no Byelaws shall be repugnant to the Laws of England, or to the Provisions of this Act; and that no Byelaw shall be of any Force or Effect unless and until the same be submitted to and confirmed at a subsequent Meeting of the Board or Vestry: Provided also, that no Penalty shall be imposed by any such Byelaw unless the same be approved by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Penalty for Breach of Byelaws.

Power to Justices to remit Penalties.

Publication of Byelaws.

CCIII. All Byelaws made and confirmed as aforesaid in pursuance of this Act, shall be printed, and hung up in the principal Office of the Board or Vestry, and be open to public Inspection without Payment, Payment, and Copies thereof shall be delivered to any Person applying for the same, on Payment of such Sum, not exceeding Twopence, as the Board or Vestry shall direct; and such Byelaws, when so published, shall be binding upon, and be observed by all Parties, and shall be sufficient to justify all Parties acting under the same; and the Production of a printed Copy of such Byelaws, authenticated by the Seal of the Board or Vestry, shall be Evidence of the Existence, and of the due making, Confirmation, and Publication of such Byelaws, in all Prosecutions under the same, without adducing Proof of such Seal or of the Fact of such Confirmation or Publication of such Byelaws.

Evidence of Byelaws.

Provisions for Protection of Property and Works of Metropolitan and District Boards and Vestries, and preventing Obstruction in Execution of Works.

Buildings not to be made over Sewers without Consent.

CCIV. No Building shall be erected in, over, or under any Sewer vested in the Metropolitan Board of Works, or in any Vestry or District Board, without their Consent first obtained in Writing, and if any Building be erected contrary to this Provision, the Board or Vestry in whom such Sewer is vested may demolish the same, and the Expenses incurred thereby shall be paid by the Person erecting such Building.

Penalty on Persons sweeping Dirt into Sewers.

CCV. No Scavenger or other Person shall sweep, rake, or place any Soil, Rubbish, or Filth, or any other Thing, into or in any Sewer or Drain, or over any Grate communicating with any Sewer or Drain, or into any Dock or Inlet communicating with the Mouth of any Sewer or Drain, or into which any Sewer or Drain may discharge its Contents, or into the River Thames contiguous thereto; and every Scavenger or other Person who shall so offend shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Penalty for wilfully damaging, &c. Lamps or other Property of Vestries or District Boards, or of the Metropolitan Board.

CCVI. If any Person wilfully take away, break, throw down, or damage any Lamp set up for lighting any of the Streets in any Parish mentioned in either of the Schedules (A.) and (B.) to this Act, or wilfully extinguish the Light within the same, or damage the Iron or other Furniture thereof, or wilfully damage any other Property vested in any Vestry or District Board, or any Property vested in the said Metropolitan Board, it shall be lawful for any Person who sees such Offence committed, to seize, as also for any other Person to assist in seizing, the Offender, and by Authority of this Act, and without any other Warrant, to convey him, or to deliver him into the Custody of a Police Officer in order to be secured and conveyed, before some Justice; and if the Party accused be convicted of such Offence he shall forfeit the Sum of Forty Shillings, and shall also pay to such Vestry or Board the Amount of Damage done.

As to careless or accidental Damage to Lamps, &c.

CCVII. In case any Person carelessly or accidentally break, throw down, or damage any such Lamp, or the Iron or other Furniture thereof, or other such Property as aforesaid, he shall pay the Amount of Damage done.

Penalty on interrupting Workmen, &c. in Execution of Duties.

CCVIII. If any Person at any Time obstruct, hinder, or molest any Surveyor, Inspector, Collector, or other Officer, Workman, or Person whomsoever, employed by virtue of this Act, in the Performance or Execution of his Duty, every such Person so offending shall for the First Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of Five Shillings, for the Second Offence the Sum of Twenty Shillings, and for any subsequent Offence the Sum of Five Pounds.

Penalty upon Occupiers obstructing Execution of Works, or not disclosing Owner's Name.

CCIX. If the Occupier of any Premises prevent the Owner thereof from carrying into effect, with respect to such Premises, any of the Provisions of this Act, or any Order of any Vestry or District Board made in pursuance thereof, he shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for every Day during the Continuance of such Refusal or Neglect; and if the Occupier of any Premises, when requested by or on behalf of the Vestry or District Board to state the Name and Description of the Owner of the Premises occupied by him, refuse or wilfully omit to disclose or wilfully mis-state the same, it shall be lawful for any Justice to summon the Party to appear before him or some other Justice at a Time and Place to be appointed in such Summons; and if the Party so summoned neglect or refuse to attend at the Time and Place so appointed, or if he do not show good Cause for such Refusal, or if such wilful Omission or Mis-statement be proved, the Justice before whom the Party is so summoned may impose upon the Offender a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

Savings and Provisions in Local Acts applicable to Commissioners of Sewers to apply to Metropolitan and District Boards, &c.

CCX. All Savings and Provisions in Turnpike, Railway, Waterworks, Improvement, and other Acts, saving and providing for the Rights, Powers, and Authorities of the Commissioners of Sewers for any of the Parts which shall be within the Metropolis as defined by this Act, shall, so far as the same are not inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act, continue and be in force in favour of and with reference to the Metropolitan Board of Works and the several District Boards of Works and Vestries having the Management of Sewers under this Act, and in favour of the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London, so far as such Savings and Provisions respectively are now applicable to them, or to any Officer or Person so continued by the said Board.

Appeals.

Power to appeal against Orders and Acts of Vestries and District Boards in relation to Construction of Works.

CCXI. Any Person who deems himself aggrieved by any Order of any Vestry or District Board in relation to the Level of any Building, or any Order or Act of any Vestry or District Board in relation to the Construction, Repair, Alteration, stopping or filling up, or Demolition of any Building, Sewer, Drain, Watercloset, Privy, Ashpit, or Cesspool, may, within Seven Days after Notice of any such Order to the Occupier of the Premises affected thereby, or after such Act, appeal to the Metropolitan Board of Works against the same; and all such Appeals shall stand referred to the Committee appointed by by such Board for hearing Appeals as herein provided; and such Committee shall hear and determine all such Appeals, and may order any Costs of such Appeals to be paid to or by the Vestry or District Board by or to the Party appealing, and may, where they see fit, award any Compensation in respect of any Act done by any such Vestry or District Board in relation to the Matters aforesaid; provided that no such Compensation shall be awarded in respect of any such Act which may have been done under any of the Provisions of this Act on any Default to comply with any such Order as aforesaid, unless the Appeal be lodged within Seven Days after Notice of such Order has been given to the Occupier of the Premises to which the same relates.

Metropolitan Board to appoint a Committee for hearing Appeals.

CCXII. The Metropolitan Board of Works shall appoint a Committee for the Purpose of hearing all such Appeals as may be made to the said Board as aforesaid, which Committee shall have Power to hear and decide all such Appeals, and the Metropolitan Board of Works shall from Time to Time fill up any Vacancy in such Committee, and the Chairman of the said Board shall, by virtue of his Office of Chairman, be a Member of the said Committee in addition to the Members appointed by the said Board, and shall preside at all Meetings of such Committee at which he is present; and in case of a Vacancy in the Office of such Chairman, or, in his Absence, some other Member of the Committee shall be chosen to preside, and all the Powers of such Committee may be exercised by any Three of them, and any Member of such Committee may at any Time resign his Office.

Retiring Allowances to Officers of Commissioners of Sewers, and Compensations to other Officers.

Power to grant Retiring Allowances to Persons employed under Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers. 11 & 12 Vict. c. 112.

CCXIII. The Metropolitan Board of Works may, if they deem it just, order the Payment of Retiring Pensions or Allowances, of such Amounts and upon such Terms as they deem just, to any Officers or Persons who have been employed under the Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers, and who shall not continue to be employed by the Metropolitan Board of Works, or to any Officer or Person continued by the said Board, having regard in the Case of Persons who have been employed under any of the Commissions determined by the issuing of the First Commission under the said Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and twelve, to their Employment under any of such Commissions, as well as under the said Metropolitan Commissioners of Sewers, and to pay such Pensions or Allowances out of such Monies raised by the said Metropolitan Board under this Act as to them may seem meet.

Compensation to Officers of Paving Boards.

CCXIV. Every Officer to any Commissioners, Vestry, or other Body whose Powers in relation to paving, lighting, watering, cleansing, or improving, or otherwise in relation to the Regulation, Government, or public Concerns of any of the Parishes mentioned in either of the Schedules (A.) and (B.) to this Act, or any Part of any of such Parishes, are determined by this Act, and any paid Surveyor of Highways of any of such Parishes, shall be entitled within Six Months after the Commencement of this Act to make a Claim for Compensation in respect of any Loss of Emoluments arising from the passing of this Act, such Claim to be made to the Vestry of the Parish in case the Office of the Claimant existed in any Parish mentioned in the said Schedule (A.), and in other Cases to the District Board of the District in which the Office existed; and it shall be lawful for such Vestry or Board respectively to inquire, in such Manner as they think fit, what were the Nature and Tenure of the Office and the Period for which the same has been holden by the Claimant, and what were the lawful Emoluments in respect of which Compensation should be awarded; and the Vestry or District Board shall award a gross or yearly Sum, and, in the Case of a yearly Sum, for such Time as they think just upon consideration of the special Circumstances of each Case; but no such Award shall be final until confirmed by the Metropolitan Board of Works, and One Month before any such Award is taken into consideration by such Board, Notice of such Award shall be given to the Party in whose Favour the same is made, and such Board shall take into consideration any Representations which may in the meantime be made to them by the Party in whose Favour the Award is made, and by the Vestry or District Board making the same, and such further Information or Representations in relation to the Matter of any such Award as the said Metropolitan Board may see fit to require or receive; and such Board may confirm such Award with or without any Alteration therein as to them may seem just; and any Person making any such Claim to Compensation whose Claim is rejected by any Vestry or District Board may, within One Month after Notice to him of the Rejection thereof, appeal against the Determination of such Vestry or District Board, to the Metropolitan Board of Works, and such Board shall consider all the Circumstances of the Case, and may, if it appear to them just, award Compensation to the Claimant in like Manner as the Vestry or District Board are herein empowered to do; and the Determination or Award of the said Metropolitan Board in reference to such Claim shall be final; and all Compensation awarded as aforesaid shall be paid out of the general Rates to be levied under this Act in the Parish or particular Part of any Parish to which the Office, in respect whereof the Compensation is awarded, related, so as to charge such Parish or particular Part therewith in exoneration of other Parishes and Parts: Provided always, that if any Person to whom a yearly Sum is awarded by way of Compensation as aforesaid, be appointed to any Office or Employment under the Vestry of any of the said Parishes, or under any District Board, or the Metropolitan Board of Works, or in the Public Service, the Payment of the Compensation so awarded shall be suspended so long as he continues to hold such Office or Employment, if the Emoluments thereof be equal to or greater than the Amount of the Emoluments of the Office formerly held by him, and in case the Emoluments of the Office or Employment to which he is appointed be not equal in Amount to those of his former Office, then no more of such Compensation shall be paid to him than will, with the Salary of his new Appointment, be equal to the Emoluments of his former Office.

Miscellaneous Clauses.

Where Two or more Persons are to do any Act or pay any Sum of Money, Vestry may apportion the same.

CCXV. Where, under the Authority of this Act, Two or more Persons are or may be directed by any Vestry or District Board to do or join in doing any Act, or to pay or join in paying any Sum of Money, Costs, or Expenses, or where any Vestry or District Board are authorized or think proper to permit Two or more Persons to join together in doing any Act, or paying any Sum of Money, Costs, or Expenses, it shall be lawful for the Vestry or District Board to apportion the Matter to be done, or the Sum of Money, Costs, or Expenses to be paid, between such Persons, in such Manner as the Vestry or Board consider just and reasonable.

Power to spread Repayment of Expenses over a Period not exceeding 20 Years.

CCXVI. In all Cases where any Vestry or District Board is authorized to order any Costs, Charges, or Expenses to be paid by private Parties, it shall be lawful for such Vestry or District Board to order and accept Payment of such Costs, Charges, Expenses, together with Interest thereon after a Rate not exceeding Five Pounds for the Hundred by the Year, by Instalments, within such Period, not exceeding Twenty Years in each Case, as they may determine, the Amount thereof to be recoverable in the same Manner as other Expenses are to be recovered under this Act.

Occupiers to pay Expenses for which Owners are liable, and to be reimbursed out of Rent.

CCXVII. It shall be lawful for any Vestry or District Board to require the Payment of any Costs or Expenses which the Owner of any Premises may be liable to pay under this Act, from any Person who then or at any Time thereafter occupies such Premises; and the Owner shall allow every such Occupier to deduct all Sums of Money which he so pays, or which are levied by Distress, out of the Rent from Time to Time becoming due in respect of the said Premises, as if the same had been actually paid to such Owner as Part of such Rent.

Occupier not to be required to pay more than the Amount of Rent owing by him.

CCXVIII. Provided always, That no such Occupier shall be required to pay any further Sum than the Amount of Rent for the Time being due from him, or which, after such Demand of such Costs or Expenses from such Occupier, and after Notice not to pay his Landlord any Rent without first deducting the Amount of such Costs or Expenses, becomes payable by such Occupier, unless he refuse, on Application being made to him for that Purpose by or on behalf of the Vestry or District Board, truly to disclose the Amount of his Rent, and the Name and Address of the Person to whom such Rent is payable; but the Burden of Proof that the Sum demanded from any such Occupier is greater than the Rent due by him at the Time of such Notice, or which has since accrued, shall lie upon such Occupier.

Agreements between Landlord and Tenant not to be affected.

CCXIX. Provided also, That nothing herein contained shall be taken to affect any Contract made or to be made between any Owner and Occupier of any House, Building, or other Property whereof it is or may be agreed that the Occupier shall pay and discharge all Rates, Dues, and Sums of Money payable in respect of such House, Building, or other Property, or to affect any Contract whatsoever between Landlord and Tenant.

As to Service of Notices, &c. on Metropolitan and District Boards and Vestries.

CCXX. Any Summons or Notice, or any Writ or other Process at Law or in Equity, or any other Matter or Thing whatsoever, required to be served upon the Metropolitan Board of Works or any District Board or Vestry, may, unless herein otherwise provided, lawfully be served by delivering the same personally to the Clerk of such respective Board or Vestry, or by leaving the same at the principal Office of such Board or Vestry.

As to Service of Notices on Owners and Occupiers and other Persons.

CCXXI. All Notices by this Act required to be given to the Owner or Occupier of any Land or Premises, or other Person, may be served personally on such Owner, Occupier, or Person, or left with some Inmate of his Place of Abode, and any Notice required to be given to any such Owner or Occupier may, if there be no Occupier, be affixed to some conspicuous Part of the Land or Premises, and it shall not be necessary in any Notice to any Owner or Occupier of any Land or Premises to name such Owner or Occupier: Provided always, that where there is no Occupier, and the Owner of any such Land or Premises, and his Place of Abode or that of his Agent is known to the Vestry or Board by or on behalf of whom such Notice is given, or any of their Officers, such Notice shall be served on such Owner personally, or left with some Inmate of his Place of Abode, or transmitted to such Owner through the Post Office, addressed to him at his Place of Abode or last known Place of Abode in the United Kingdom, or served on his Agent as aforesaid.

Authentication of Documents.

CCXXII. Every Notice, Demand, or like Document given by or on behalf of the Metropolitan Board of Works, or any Vestry or District Board, under this Act, may be in Writing or Print, or partly in Writing and partly in Print, and shall be sufficiently authenticated if signed by their Clerk or by the Officer by whom the same is given.

Proof of Debts in Bankruptcy.

CCXXIII. If any Person against whom the Metropolitan Board of Works, or any District Board or Vestry, have any Claim or Demand, become bankrupt, or take the Benefit of any Act for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors, it shall be lawful for the Clerk or Collector, in all Proceedings under the Bankruptcy or Insolvency, to represent such Board or Vestry, and act in their Behalf in all respects as if such Claim or Demand were the Claim or Demand of the Clerk or Collector, and not of such Board or Vestry.

CCXXIV. If

Tender of Amends.

CCXXIV. If any Party have committed any Irregularity, Trespass, or other wrongful Proceeding in the Execution of this Act, or any Act incorporated therewith, or by virtue of any Power or Authority given by this Act or such other Act as aforesaid, and if before Action brought in respect thereof, such Party make Tender of sufficient Amends to the Party injured, such last-mentioned Party shall not recover in any such Action.

Compensation, Damage, and Expenses how to be ascertained and recovered.

CCXXV. In every Case where the Amount of any Damage, Costs, or Expenses is by this Act directed to be ascertained or recovered in a summary Manner, or the Amount of any Damage, Costs, or Expenses is by this Act directed to be paid, and the Method of ascertaining the Amount or enforcing the Payment thereof is not provided for, such Amount shall, in case of Dispute, be ascertained and determined by, and shall be recovered before Two Justices; and the Amount of any Compensation to be made under this Act by the said Metropolitan Board, or any Vestry or District Board, shall, unless herein otherwise provided, be settled, in case of Dispute, by, and shall be recovered before Two Justices, unless the Amount of Compensation claimed exceed Fifty Pounds, in which Case the Amount thereof shall be settled by Arbitration, according to the Provisions contained in the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, which are applicable where Questions of disputed Compensation are authorized or required to be settled by Arbitration.

Method of proceeding before Justices in Questions of Damages, &c.

CCXXVI. Where the Amount of any Compensation, or of any Damage, Costs, or Expenses, is to be determined by, or to be recovered before Two Justices, it shall be lawful for any Justice, upon the Application of either Party, to summon the other Party to appear before Two Justices, at a Time and Place to be named in such Summons; and upon the Appearance of such Parties, or, in the Absence of either of them, upon Proof of due Service of the Summons, it shall be lawful for such Two Justices to hear and determine the Matter, and for that Purpose to examine such Parties, or any of them, and their Witnesses, on Oath, and make such Order, as well as to Costs as otherwise, as to them may seem just.

Penalties, &c. to be recovered as provided by 11 & 12 Vict. c. 43.

CCXXVII. Every Penalty or Forfeiture imposed by this Act, or by any Byelaw made in pursuance thereof, the Recovery of which is not otherwise provided for, may be recovered by summary Proceedings before any Justice in manner provided by the Act of the Session holden in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Forty-three, "to facilitate the Performance of the Duties of "Justices of the Peace out of Sessions within England and Wales with respect to summary Convictions "and Orders."

Damages to be made good in addition to Penalty.

CCXXVIII. If, through any Act, Neglect, or Default on account whereof any Person has incurred any Penalty imposed by this Act, any Damage to the Property of the said Metropolitan Board, or any Vestry or District Board, has been committed by such Person, he shall be liable to make good such Damage, as well as to pay such Penalty; and the Amount of such Damage, in case of Dispute, shall be determined by the Justices by whom the Party incurring such Penalty is convicted, and the Payment of the Amount of such Damage may be enforced in all respects as such Penalty.

Transient Offenders.

CCXXIX. It shall be lawful for any Officer or Servant of the said Metropolitan Board, or any Vestry or District Board, and for any Police Constable, and all Persons called by him to his Assistance, to seize and detain any Person who has committed any Offence against the Provisions of this Act, or any Byelaw made in pursuance thereof, and whose Name and Residence shall be unknown to such Officer or Servant or Police Constable, and convey him with all convenient Despatch before some Justice, without any Warrant or other Authority than this Act; and such Justice shall proceed, with all convenient Despatch, to the hearing and determining of the Complaint against such Offender.

Proceedings not to be quashed for Want of Form.

CCXXX. No Act, Order, or Proceeding in pursuance of this Act, or in relation to the Execution thereof, shall be quashed or vacated for Want of Form; nor shall the same be removed by Certiorari or otherwise into any of the Superior Courts, except as herein specially provided.

Parties allowed to appeal to Quarter Sessions, on giving Security.

CCXXXI. If any Person feel aggrieved by any Adjudication or Determination of any Justice or Justices with respect to any Penalty or Forfeiture under the Provisions of this Act, such Party may appeal to the General or Quarter Sessions; but no such Appeal shall be entertained unless it be made within Four Months next after the making such Determination or Adjudication, nor unless Ten Days Notice in Writing of such Appeal, stating the Nature and Grounds thereof, be given to the Party against whom the Appeal is brought, nor unless the Appellant forthwith, after such Notice, enter into Recognizances, with Two Sureties, before Two Justices, conditioned duly to prosecute such Appeal, and to abide the Order of the Court thereon.

Court to make such Order as they think reasonable.

CCXXXII. At the General or Quarter Sessions for which such Notice is given the Court shall proceed to hear and determine the Appeal in a summary Way, or they may, if they think fit, adjourn it to the following Sessions; and upon the hearing of such Appeal the Court may, if they think fit, mitigate any Penalty or Forfeiture, or they may confirm or quash the Adjudication, and order any Money paid to the Appellant, or levied by Distress upon his Goods, to be returned to him, and may also order such further Satisfaction to be made to the Party injured as they may judge reasonable, and they may make such Order concerning the Costs, both of the Adjudication and of the Appeal, as they may think reasonable.

Penalties to be sued for within Three Months.

CCXXXIII. No Person shall be liable to the Payment of any Penalty or Forfeiture under this Act, or any Byelaw made by virtue thereof, for any Offence made cognizable before a Justice, unless the Complaint respecting such Offence have been made before such Justice within Three Months next after the Commission or Discovery of such Offence.

CCXXXIV. If

Application of Penalties.

CCXXXIV. If the Application of any Penalty or Forfeiture be not otherwise provided for, One Half thereof shall go to the Informer, and the Remainder shall go to the Vestry or District Board of the Parish or District in which the Offence was committed, or if such Vestry or Board be the Informers, the whole of the Penalty recovered shall go to them; and all Sums which shall go to, or be recovered by any such Vestry or Board, on account of any such Penalty or Forfeiture, shall be paid to their Treasurer, or otherwise into such Bank, to their Account, as they may direct, and shall be applicable to the general Expenses of the Vestry or Board; provided that in every Case where any Vestry or Board are liable to any Penalty or Forfeiture, the whole of such Penalty or Forfeiture shall go to the Informer.

Special Provisions and Savings.

Provision for joint Action of Vestries, and Elections out of Vestries under Local Acts.

CCXXXV. Where the Vestries of any Parishes mentioned in either of the Schedules (A.) and (B.) to this Act, now act jointly or in union, or exercise any Powers or Privileges jointly or in union, or elect Guardians, Directors, Trustees, or other Persons whomsoever, whose Offices are not expressed to be determined by this Act for any joint Purposes, the Vestries of such Parishes elected under this Act may act jointly or in union, and shall have the like Powers and Privileges jointly or in union, and elect for such joint Purposes in like Manner and with the like Effect; and where in any of the said Parishes, any Guardians, Directors, Trustees, or other Persons whosoever whose Offices are not expressed to be determined by this Act, are now by Law elected out of the Vestry of any such Parish, such Guardians, Directors, Trustees, or other Persons as aforesaid may be elected out of, or from the Vestrymen and Persons who under this Act are eligible as Vestrymen for the same Parish; and the Office of no such Guardian, Director, Trustee, or other Person shall be determined by reason of his ceasing to be a Vestryman in consequence of the passing of this Act; but every such Guardian, Director, Trustee, or other Person shall continue in Office until such Time as he would otherwise have ceased to hold his Office.

Agreement between the London and North-western Railway Company and certain Paving Commissioners confirmed.

CCXXXVI. 'And whereas by an Agreement, made on the Tenth Day of August One thousand eight 'hundred and fifty-four, between the London and North-western Railway Company of the one Part, 'and Five of the Commissioners acting under certain Acts of Parliament relating to the paving and 'improving of certain Streets in the Parish of Saint Pancras in the County of Middlesex of the other 'Part, it was agreed that the Commissioners acting under the said Acts should, in consideration of the 'Payment of the Sums of Three thousand Pounds and Five hundred Pounds to the said Commissioners 'by the said Company, put into good and complete State of Repair and Condition certain Roads therein 'particularly mentioned, and (except in the event therein mentioned of an Act not being obtained during 'the then next Session to authorize the Transfer to the said Commissioners of the Management of the 'said Roads) would maintain the said Roads at their own Charge and Expense: And whereas the said 'Sums have been paid to the said Commissioners, and it is expedient that the said Agreement should be 'confirmed, as herein-after mentioned:'

The said Agreement shall be confirmed so far as the same relates to the Repair and Maintenance of the said Roads; and the Maintenance thereof shall be vested in the Vestry of the said Parish of Saint Pancras in like Manner as if the said Commissioners had been by Act of Parliament liable to maintain and repair the said Roads at the Time of the Commencement of this Act; and the Sums paid to the said Commissioners as aforesaid, or such Part thereof as may not have been already applied for the Purpose of putting the said Roads into good and complete Repair, shall be paid over to the Vestry of the Parish of Saint Pancras, and be applied for the general Benefit of such Parish in aid of any Rates to be raised in such Parish to defray Expenses of paving, anything in this Act or in any Act relating to the said Company to the contrary notwithstanding.

Special Provision as to Powers of Commissioners acting under 5 & 6 Vict. c. xlviii. as to paving Ely Place, &c.

CCXXXVII. This Act shall not divest the Commissioners under an Act of the Session holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Forty-eight (Local), "For paving, lighting, watching, cleansing, and improving Ely Place and Ely Mews, Holborn, in the County of Middlesex," of any of the Powers or Property vested in them under that Act, nor shall any of the Provisions of this Act in relation to the paving, lighting, watering, and cleansing of Streets apply to the Parts within the Limits of the said Local Act, nor shall such Parts be assessed or rated under this Act for defraying any Expenses incurred by the District Board for the Holborn District in relation to paving, lighting, watering, and cleansing; but such Parts shall be subject to all the Provisions of this Act relating to Sewerage and House Drainage, and to be assessed or rated for Sewerage Expenses incurred by the said District Board, and for Expenses incurred by the Metropolitan Board of Works, and towards any Sums required to be raised by such Board under this Act, in like Manner as other Parts within the said District.

Special Provision as to Parish of Woolwich.

CCXXXVIII. Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained to the contrary, the Provisions of this Act shall extend and apply to the Parish of Woolwich only to the Extent and in manner herein-after mentioned; (that is to say,)

A Member of the Metropolitan Board of Works shall be from Time to Time elected by the Local Board of Health of Woolwich, at a Meeting of such Board, as by this Act directed with respect to the Vestry of each of the Parishes mentioned in the said Schedule (A.):

The said Metropolitan Board shall have and perform, within and in relation to the said Parish, all the Powers and Duties vested in them under this Act, in like Manner as within and in relation to other Parishes mentioned in the said Schedule (A.), save that the said Local Board shall be subject to all Orders

Orders of the said Metropolitan Board in relation to Sewerage and otherwise, and to all Precepts requiring Payment of Money, in all respects as the Vestries of other Parishes in the said Schedule (A.) are subject to the same, in lieu of the Vestry of the said Parish; and all Sums required to be paid by such Precepts shall be defrayed out of any Moneys carried to the District Fund Account, or by means of a General District Rate to be levied on the whole of the Parish of Woolwich, or such Part thereof as may be specified in the Precept of the said Metropolitan Board.

Special Provisions as to enclosed Gardens in Squares, &c.

CCXXXIX. Where any enclosed Garden or ornamental Ground is vested in or under the Maintenance or Management of any Commissioners or other Body, for the Use of the Inhabitants of any Square, Crescent, Circus, Street, or Place, surrounding or adjoining such Garden or Ground, and the Powers of such Commissioners or other Body do not extend beyond such Garden or Ground, and such Square, Crescent, Circus, Street, or Place, or any adjoining Street, Way, or Passage, so far as the same may abut upon any Part of any House, Shop, Building, or Tenement situate in or fronting any such Square, Crescent, Circus, Street, or Place, nothing in this Act shall divest such Commissioners or Body of any Property in such Garden or Ground, or in any Railing or Footway bounding the same, or of any Duties, Powers, or Authorities now or hereafter vested in any such Commissioners or other Body, for or in relation to the paving, watering, cleansing, improving, or regulating of such enclosed Garden or ornamental Ground, or in relation to the Railing or Footway bounding the same, or to levy Rates for defraying any Expenses incurred in the Execution of such Duties or Powers; and where the Maintenance or Management of any enclosed Garden or ornamental Ground is vested in any Commissioners or other Body, for the Use or Benefit of the Inhabitants of any Square, Crescent, Circus, Street, or Place surrounding or adjoining the same, who are liable to be assessed for the Maintenance thereof, and the Powers of such Commissioners or other Body extend beyond such enclosed Garden or ornamental Ground, and such Square, Crescent, Circus, Street, or Place, or such adjoining Street, Way, or Passage as aforesaid, the Maintenance and Management of such enclosed Garden or ornamental Ground shall be vested in a Committee, consisting of not more than Nine nor fewer than Three of such Inhabitants, and such Committee shall be appointed annually in the First Week in June by such Inhabitants; and the Vestry or Board shall, from Time to Time, cause to be raised the Sums required by such Committee for defraying the Expenses of the Maintenance and Management of such enclosed Garden or ornamental Ground, or of such Part thereof as is situate within their Parish or District, by an Addition to the General Rate to be assessed on the Occupiers of the Houses or Buildings, the Occupiers whereof are now liable to be assessed for the same Purpose: Provided always, that where any such Rate which may now be levied for such Purpose is limited in Amount, the Rate to be levied under this Provision shall be subject to the like Limit.

Saving of Powers and Property of Commissioners under 14 & 15 Vict. c. 95.

CCXL. This Act shall not divest the Commissioners for carrying into execution "The Crown Estate Paving Act, 1851," and the subsisting Provisions of the Acts therein recited, or the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, of any of the Powers, Duties, Authorities, or Property vested in them respectively under the said Acts; and nothing in this Act shall extend to authorize or empower any Vestry or District Board to exercise any Power or Control whatsoever in respect of paving, maintaining, lighting, watering, cleansing, and regulating any Streets or Places in the Neighbourhood of the Houses of Parliament, delineated on a Plan marked E., referred to by "The Crown Estate Paving Act, 1851," or any Portion of the District now under the Management of the Commissioners for carrying into execution the said Crown Estate Paving Act, and the subsisting Provisions aforesaid, or to exercise any Power or Control whatsoever in or over any of the Gardens or Pleasure Grounds, the Management whereof is now, or may for the Time being be vested in such last-mentioned Commissioners; nor shall any such Street or Place, or any Portion of such District, as aforesaid, be assessed or rated under this Act, for defraying any Expenses incurred by any Vestry or District Board in relation to paving, lighting, watering, or cleansing, but such Streets, Places, and District shall be subject to all the Provisions of this Act relating to Sewerage and House Drainage, and to be assessed or rated for Sewerage Expenses incurred by any such Vestry or Board, and for Expenses incurred by the Metropolitan Board of Works, and towards any Sums required to be raised by such Board under this Act as by this Act provided.

Saving of the Rights of the Commissioners of Works.

CCXLI. Nothing in this Act shall divest the Commissioners for the Time being of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings of any Power or Property now or which for the Time being may be vested in them; and nothing in this Act shall extend to authorize or empower any Vestry or District Board to exercise any Power or Control whatsoever in or over any of the Royal or Public Parks, Gardens, or Pleasure Grounds, the Management whereof is now, or may be for the Time being vested in such Commissioners; and nothing in this Act shall abridge, alter, or affect any Right, Power, Exemption, or Remedy of the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, Her Heirs or Successors, or the said Commissioners, in, over, or in relation to the Possessions of the Crown or of the Public.

Saving Powers of City Commissioners of Sewers, &c.

CCXLII. Nothing in this Act shall divest the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London of any Powers or Property vested in them in relation to such Parts of any of the Parishes mentioned in Schedule (B.) to this Act as are within the City of London, nor shall such Parts be subject to be rated or assessed by any District Board, but shall be subject to all the Powers of the Metropolitan Board of Works as other Places in the City of London.

CCXLIII. Nothing

Saving Rights of Metropolitan Sewage Manure Company acting under 9 & 10 Vict. c. cccxcviii. and 10 & 11 Vict. c. cxxxviii.

CCXLIII. Nothing in this Act shall extend to, or affect any of the Rights, Privileges, Powers, or Authorities vested in the Metropolitan Sewage Manure Company by an Act of the Session holden in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, intituled An Act to incorporate a Company by the Name of the Metropolitan Sewage Manure Company, or an Act of the Session then next following, intituled An Act for enabling the Metropolitan Sewage Manure Company to alter the Line of their Works, and for other Purposes: Provided always, that all Rights, Powers, and Authorities by either of the said Acts vested in the Commissioners of Sewers, for the Time being, for the City and Liberty of Westminster and Part of the County of Middlesex shall be vested in the Metropolitan Board of Works, and the Provisions of the said Acts shall be construed as applying to such Board in lieu of such Commissioners, but any Order or Act which might have been made or done by the said Commissioners at a Court of Sewers, may be made or done by the said Metropolitan Board at any Meeting of such Board.

Saving Rights of Commissioners or Trustees of Turnpike Roads.

CCXLIV. Nothing in this Act shall divest the Commissioners or Trustees of any Turnpike Road of any Powers or Property vested in them as such Commissioners or Trustees, save as herein expressly provided with respect to Turnpike Roads; and save that the Footpaths of any such Road shall be under the Care and Management of the Vestries and District Boards of the Parishes or Districts in which the same are situate, in like Manner as other Footpaths in such Parishes and Districts: Provided always, that the Provisions of this Act transferring to Vestries and District Boards Powers and Property vested in any Commissioner or other Body in relation to the paving, lighting, watering, cleansing, and improving of their Parishes and Districts, and all other Provisions of this Act incident to or consequent upon such Transfer, shall apply to all Powers and Property vested in the Trustees of the Commercial Road, so far as regards any Streets or Highways other than such Road, and also so far as regards the Footpaths of such Road.

Saving for Metropolitan Police Commissioners.

CCXLV. Nothing in this Act shall interfere with the Powers given by Law to the Commissioners of the Police of the Metropolis.

Saving as to Battersea and Penge.

CCXLVI. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to prejudice or affect any Question as to whether the Hamlet of Penge is or is not a Part of the Parish of Battersea.

Repeal of Acts inconsistent with this Act.

CCXLVII. All Acts of Parliament in force in any Parish or Place to which this Act extends, or in any Part of such Parish or Place, shall, so far as the same are inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act, be repealed as regards such Parish or Place, or such Part thereof, notwithstanding any Provisions of this Act continuing and transferring respectively to Vestries of Parishes, and transferring to District Boards any Duties, Powers, or Authorities now vested in Vestries, Commissioners, or other Bodies.

In case of Conflict with the Provisions of this Act, Provisions of Local Acts may be varied by Order in Council, on Petition of Boards or Vestries.

CCXLVIII. Upon the Petition of the Metropolitan Board of Works, or of any District Board or Vestry, representing to Her Majesty in Council that by reason of the Provisions of any Local Act of Parliament relating to any District or Parish, or any Part thereof respectively, Difficulties have arisen in the Execution of this Act and of such Local Act, or either of them, and praying for a Suspension or Alteration of all or any of the Provisions of such Local Act, or for the Establishment of other Provisions in lieu thereof under this Enactment, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by Order in Council, to suspend or alter all or any of the Provisions of such Local Act, and to make other Provisions in relation to the Matters thereof, as Her Majesty, with the Advice of Her Privy Council, may think necessary under the Circumstances of the Case; and every such Order in Council shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within One Month after the making thereof, if Parliament be then sitting, or, if Parliament be not sitting, then within One Month after the next Meeting of Parliament, and shall be published in the London Gazette: Provided always, that no such Order in Council shall remain in force beyond the Term of One Year from the making thereof.

Power to extend Act to adjoining Parishes.

Act may be extended by Order in Council to Parishes adjoining the Metropolis not having less than 750 Ratepayers.

CCXLIX. In case, and when, and so often as it is made to appear to Her Majesty in Council, upon the Representation of the Metropolitan Board of Works, that the Provisions of this Act should be extended to any Parish adjoining the Metropolis, and in which there are not less than Seven hundred and fifty Inhabitants rated to the Relief of the Poor, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the Advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the Provisions of this Act shall extend to such Parish, from and after a Day to be mentioned in this Behalf in the Order in Council, and that such Parish shall join with any Parish or Parishes or District in such Order named, in the Election, from Time to Time, of the Member or Members of the Metropolitan Board of Works by this Act directed to be elected for such Parish or Parishes or District; and to make such Provision as to the Mode in which every such joint Election shall take place, and otherwise in relation thereto, as to Her Majesty in Council may seem necessary and proper; and every such Order shall be published in the London Gazette; and from and after the Time mentioned in such Order for the Extension of the Provisions of this Act to any Parish as aforesaid, the Provisions of this Act shall extend to and be in force therein, in like Manner, so far as Circumstances will admit, as such Provisions apply to any Parish mentioned in Schedule (A.) of this Act, subject, nevertheless, to the Provisions in such Order contained in relation to the Election, by such Parish jointly as aforesaid, of a Member or Members of the said Metropolitan Board: Provided always, that Notice of every such Representation, and of the Time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that that the same be taken into consideration by Her Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette One Month at least before such Representation is so considered.

Interpretation and Commencement of Act.

CCL. In the Construction of this Act "the Metropolis" shall be deemed to include the City of London, and the Parishes and Places mentioned in the Schedules (A.), (B.), and (C.) to this Act; "the City of London" shall be deemed to include all Parts now within the Jurisdiction of the Commissioners of Sewers for the City of London; and the Word "Parish" shall include any Place mentioned in Schedule (A.) to this Act, and any Place or Combination of Places mentioned in Schedule (B.) to this Act, for which One or more Member or Members is or are to be elected to any District Board; the Expression "the Overseers of the Poor" shall include any Persons authorized to make and collect or cause to be collected the Rate for the Relief of the Poor in any Parish; any Expression referring to any Rate or Rates raised under this Act by the Metropolitan Board of Works, or any Vestry or District Board, shall mean the Sums and Rates authorized to be raised by the said Metropolitan Board, and the Sums authorized to be raised by any Vestry and District Board respectively; the Word "Owner" shall, except for the Purpose of the Provision of this Act requiring Notice to be served on Owners or reputed Owners of Land, before Application to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for his Consent to exercise Powers of taking Land, or any Right or Easement in or over Land, compulsorily, mean the Person for the Time being receiving the Rackrent of the Lands or Premises, in connexion with which the said Word is used, whether on his own Account, or as Agent or Trustee for any other Person, or who would so receive the same if such Lands or Premises were let at a Rackrent; the Word "Street" shall apply to and include any Highway (except the Carriageway of any Turnpike Road), and any Road, Bridge (not being a County Bridge), Lane, Footway, Square, Court, Alley, Passage, whether a Thoroughfare or not, and a Part of any such Highway, Road, Bridge, Lane, Footway, Square, Court, Alley, or Passage; the Word "Drain" shall mean and include any Drain of, and used for the Drainage of One Building only, or Premises within the same Curtilage, and made merely for the Purpose of communicating with a Cesspool or other like Receptacle for Drainage, or with a Sewer into which the Drainage of Two or more Buildings or Premises occupied by different Persons is conveyed, and shall also include any Drain for draining any Group or Block of Houses, by a combined Operation, under the Order of any Vestry or District Board; and the Word "Sewer" shall mean and include Sewers and Drains of every Description, except Drains to which the Word "Drain," interpreted as aforesaid, applies; and the Word "Ashpit" shall include "Dustbin." CAP. CXXI.

An Act to consolidate and amend the Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Acts, 1848 and 1849. [14th August 1855.]

11 & 12 Vict. c. 123. 12 & 13 Vict. c. 111.

'WHEREAS the Provisions of "The Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act, 1848," 'as amended by "The Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Amendment Act, 1849," are 'defective, and it is expedient to repeal the said Acts as far as relates to England, and to substitute 'other Provisions more effectual in that Behalf:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Recited Acts repealed as far as relates to England, &c.

I. From and after the passing of this Act, the said Acts are by this Section repealed, as far as relates to England: Provided always, that all Proceedings commenced or taken under the said Acts, and not yet completed, may be proceeded with under the said Acts; and all Contracts or Works undertaken by virtue of the said Acts shall continue and be as effectual as if the said Acts had not been repealed.

Interpretation of certain Terms used in this Act.

II. In this Act the following Words and Expressions have the Meanings by this Section herein-after assigned to them, unless such Meanings be repugnant to or inconsistent with the Context; (that is to say,) the Word "Place" includes any City, Borough, District under the Public Health Act, Parish, Township, or Hamlet, or Part of any such City, Borough, District, Town, Parish, Township, or Hamlet; the Word "Guardians" includes the Directors, Wardens, Overseers, Governors, or other like Officers having the Management of the Poor for any Parish or Place where the Matter or any Part of the Matter requiring the Cognizance of any such Officer arises; the Word "Borough," and the Expressions "Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses," "Council," and "Borough Fund," have respectively the same Meaning as in the Acts for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations, and shall also respectively mean, include, and apply to any Royal Borough, Royal Town, or other Town having a Warden, High Bailiff, Borough Reeve, or other Chief Officer, and Burgesses or Inhabitants, however designated, associated with him in the Government or Management thereof, or any Town or Place having a Governing Body therein, in the Nature of a Corporation or otherwise, and to the Chief Officers and Governing Bodies of such Boroughs, Towns, and Places, and to the Funds and Property under the Management of or at the Disposal of such Chief Officers and Governing Bodies; the Expression "Improvement Act" means an Act for regulating and managing the Police of, and for draining, cleansing, paving, lighting, watching, and improving a Place, and an Act for any of those Purposes; the Word "Owner" includes any Person receiving the Rents of the Property in respect of which that Word is used, from the Occupier of such Property on his own Account, or as Trustee or Agent for any other Person, or as Receiver or Sequestrator appointed by the Court of Chancery or under any Order thereof, or who would receive the same if such Property were let to a Tenant; the Word "Premises" extends to all Messuages, Lands, or Tenements, whether open or inclosed, whether built on or not, and whether public or private; the Word "Parish" includes every Township or Place separately maintaining its Poor, or separately maintaining its own Highways; the Expression "Quarter Sessions" means the Court of General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for a County, Riding, or Division of a County, City, or Borough; the Word "Person," and Words applying to any Person or Individual, apply to and include Corporations, whether aggregate or sole; and the Expression "Two Justices" shall, in addition to its ordinary Signification, mean One Stipendiary or Police Magistrate acting in any Police Court for the District.

PART I.

PART I. Constitution of Local Authority, Expenses, Description of Nuisances, and Powers of Entry.

And with respect to the Constitution of the Local Authority for the Execution of this Act, the Expenses of its Execution, the Description of Nuisances that may be dealt with under it, and the Powers of Entry for the Purposes of the Act, be it enacted thus:

The Local Authority to execute this Act in Places as herein stated.

III. The following Bodies shall respectively be the Local Authority to execute this Act in the Districts hereunder stated in England:

In any Place within which the Public Health Act is or shall be in force, the Local Board of Health:

In any other Place wherein a Council exists or shall exist, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses by the Council, except in the City of London and the Liberties thereof, where the Local Authority shall be the Commissioners of Sewers for the Time being; and except in the City of Oxford and Borough of Cambridge, where the Local Authority shall be the Commissioners acting in execution of the Local Improvement Acts in force respectively in the said City and Borough:

In any Place in which there is no Local Board of Health or Council, and where there are or shall be Trustees or Commissioners under an Improvement Act, such Trustees or Commissioners:

In any Place within which there is no such Local Board of Health nor Council, Body of Trustees, or Commissioners, and where there is or shall be a Board for the Repair of the Highways of such Place, that Board:

In any Place where there is no such Local Board of Health, Council, Body of Trustees, or Commissioners, nor Highway Board, a Committee for carrying this Act into execution, by the Name of "The Nuisances Removal Committee," of which the Surveyor or Surveyors of Highways for the Time

Time being of such Place shall be ex officio a Member or Members, may be annually chosen by the Vestry on the same Day as the Overseers or Surveyors of Highways, and the first of such Committees may be chosen at a Vestry to be specially held for that Purpose; and such Committee may consist of such Number of Members as the Vestry shall determine, not being more than Twelve, exclusive of such Surveyor or Surveyors, and of such Committee Three shall be a Quorum:

In any Place wherein there is no such Local Board of Health, Council, Body of Trustees or Commissioners, Highway Board or Committee appointed as aforesaid, and wherein there is or shall be a Board of Inspectors for Lighting and Watching under the Act 3 & 4 W. 4. c. 90., that Board with the Surveyors of Highways:

In any Place in which there is no such Local Board of Health, Council, Body of Trustees, or Commissioners, nor Highway Board, nor Committee appointed as aforesaid, nor Board of Inspectors for Lighting and Watching, the Guardians and Overseers of the Poor and the Surveyors of the Highways in and for such Place.

As to filling up Vacancies.

IV. On any Vacancy in such Nuisances Removal Committee arising from Death, Change of Residence or otherwise, Notice shall be given by the Committee to the Churchwardens, who shall forthwith summon a Meeting of the Vestry, and fill up such Vacancy by Election; and until such Vacancy is filled up, the remaining Members of the Committee may act in all respects as if their Number was complete.

Power to Local Authority to appoint Committees.

V. The Local Authority may appoint any Committee of their own Body to receive Notices, take Proceedings, and in all or certain specified respects execute this Act, whereof Two shall be a Quorum; and such Local Authority, or their Committee, may, in each particular Case, by Order in Writing under the Hand of the Chairman of such Body or Committee, empower any Officer or Person to make Complaints and take Proceedings on their Behalf.

As to the Execution of this Act in Extra-parochial Places.

VI. In Extra-parochial Places not comprised within the Jurisdiction of any of the Local Authorities aforesaid, and having a Population of not less than Two hundred Persons, the Local Authority for the Execution of this Act shall be a Nuisances Removal Committee, elected annually by the Householders within the Extra-parochial Place:

The First Election of such Committee shall take place at a Meeting of such Householders summoned for that Purpose by the Churchwardens of the adjacent Place having the largest common Boundary with such Extra-parochial Place; and Subsequent Elections shall be held annually on some Day in Easter Week at Meetings summoned by the Chairman of the Local Authority for the Year preceding:

Extra-parochial Places not so comprised as aforesaid, and having a Population of less than Two hundred Persons, shall, for the Purpose of this Act, be attached to and form Part of the adjacent Place having the largest common Boundary with the Extra-parochial Place, and Notice of Vestry Meetings for the Election of a Local Authority under and for the Purposes of this Act shall be given in such Extra-parochial Places, and the Householders within such Places may attend such Vestry Meetings, and vote on such Elections.

As to defraying Expenses of executing this Act.

VII. All Charges and Expenses incurred by the Local Authority in executing this Act, and not recovered, as by this Act provided, may be defrayed as follows; to wit,

Out of General District Rates, where the Local Authority is a Local Board of Health;

Out of the Borough Fund or Borough Rate, where the Local Authority is the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses by the Council, or if there be an Improvement Act for the Borough administered by the Council, then out of Rates levied thereunder applicable to the Purposes of such Improvement Act; or in the City of London and the Liberties thereof, any Rates or Funds administered by the Commissioners of Sewers for the said City and Liberties;

Provided always, that in the City of Oxford and Borough of Cambridge such Expenses shall be deemed annual Charges and Expenses of cleansing the Streets of the said City and Borough respectively, and shall be so payable;

Out of the Rates levied for Purposes of Improvement under any Improvement Act, where the Local Authority is a Body of Trustees or Commissioners acting in execution of the Powers of such an Act;

Out of Highway Rates, or any Fund applicable in aid or in lieu thereof, where the Local Authority is a Highway Board, or a Nuisances Removal Committee;

Out of the Rates for Lighting and Watching, where the Local Authority is a Board of Inspectors appointed for Lighting and Watching;

And if there be no such Rates or Funds, or if the Local Authority be the Guardians and Surveyors of Highways, then out of the Rates or Funds applicable to the Relief of the Poor of the Parish or Place wherein such Rates or Funds are collected or arise, if such Parish or Place be co-extensive with the District within which the Charges and Expenses are incurred, but if such Parish or Place be now or hereafter shall be partly comprised within and partly without the Limits of a Place where a Local Authority, other than a Highway Board, Nuisance Removal Committee, Inspectors of Watching and Lighting, and Surveyors or Guardians and Surveyors, exists or shall exist, all the Charges and Expenses incurred in the District comprising that Part of the Parish or Place which is excluded from such Limits shall be defrayed out of any Highway Rate or Rates, or any Funds applicable in lieu thereof, collected or raised within the Part so excluded; and if there be more than One Highway Rate collected within such District, the Local Authority shall settle the Proportion in which the respective Parties or Places liable thereto shall bear such Charges and Expenses; and if any Portion of such excluded Part be exempt from such Highway Rate or Rates, then all the Charges and Expenses incurred in the whole of such excluded Part shall be defrayed out of any District Police Rate or other Rate which may by the Act 12 & 13 Vict. Cap. 65. be raised and assessed upon such excluded Part:

And when the Local Authority has not Control of such Rates or Funds, the Officer or Person having the Custody or Control thereof shall pay over the Amount to the Local Authority, on the Order of Two Justices, directed to such Officer or Person; and on Neglect or Refusal to pay the Sum specified in such Order for Six Days after the Service thereof, the same may, by Warrant under the Hands of the same or any Two Justices, be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Officer or Person in default, and such Levy shall include the Costs of such Distress and Sale:

In Extra-parochial Places having a Population of not less than Two hundred Persons, out of a Rate assessed by the Local Authoriy on all such Property in the Place as would be assessable to Highway Rate if such Rate were levied therein:

In Extra-parochial Places having a Population of less than Two hundred Persons, out of a similar Rate assessed by the Surveyor of Highways of the adjacent Place having the largest common Boundary with such Extra-parochial Place:

And the Local Authority in the First Case, and the Surveyor of Highways in the Second, may levy and collect the Sums so assessed, in the same Manner, and with the same Remedies in case of any Default in Payment thereof, and with the same Right of Appeal against the Amount of such Assessment reserved to the Person assessed, as are provided by the Law in force for the Time being with regard to Rates for the Repair of Highways.

What are deemed Nuisances under this Act.

VIII. The Word "Nuisances" under this Act shall include—

Any Premises in such a State as to be a Nuisance or injurious to Health:

Any Pool, Ditch, Gutter, Watercourse, Privy, Urinal, Cesspool, Drain, or Ashpit so foul as to be a Nuisance or injurious to Health:

Any Animal so kept as to be a Nuisance or injurious to Health:

Any Accumulation or Deposit which is a Nuisance or injurious to Health:

Provided always, that no such Accumulation or Deposit as shall be necessary for the effectual carrying on of any Business or Manufacture shall be punishable as a Nuisance under this Section, when it is proved to the Satisfaction of the Justices that the Accumulation or Deposit has not been kept longer than is necessary for the Purposes of such Business or Manufacture, and that the best available Means have been taken for protecting the Public from Injury to Health thereby.

Power to Local Authority to appoint a Sanitary Inspector, and allow him a proper Salary.

IX. The Local Authority shall, for the Purposes of this Act, appoint or employ, or join with other Local Authorities in appointing or employing, a Sanitary Inspector or Inspectors, and may appoint a convenient Place for his or their Office, and may allow to every such Person, on account of his Employment, a proper Salary or Allowance; and where Local Authorities join in such Appointment or Employment they may apportion among themselves the Payment of such Salary or Allowance: Provided always, that where the Local Authority has already appointed an Officer who executes the Duties of such Inspector under any Improvement Act, it shall not be necessary to appoint any other Inspector under this Act, but the Inspector acting in execution of the Improvement Act shall have all the Powers, Authorities, and Privileges granted to any Inspector appointed under this Act.

Notice of Nuisances to be given to Local Authority, &c. to ground Proceedings.

X. Notice of Nuisance may be given to the Local Authority by any Person aggrieved thereby, or by any of the following Persons; the Sanitary Inspector or any paid Officer under the said Local Authority; Two or more Inhabitant Householders of the Parish or Place to which the Notice relates; the Relieving Officer of the Union or Parish; any Constable or any Officer of the Constabulary or Police Force of the District or Place; and in case the Premises be a Common Lodging House, any Person appointed for the Inspection of Common Lodging Houses; and the Local Authority may take Cognizance of any such Nuisance after Entry made as herein-after provided, or in conformity with any Improvement Act under which the Inspector has been appointed.

Power of Entry to Local Authority or their Officer.

XI. The Local Authority shall have Power of Entry for the following Purposes of this Act, and under the following Conditions:—

1. To ground Proceedings.

For this Purpose, when they or any of their Officers have reasonable Grounds for believing that a Nuisance exists on any private Premises, Demand may be made by them or their Officer, on any Person having Custody of the Premises, of Admission to inspect the same, at any Hour between Nine in the Morning and Six in the Evening; and if Admission be not granted, any Justice having Jurisdiction in the Place may, on Oath made before him of Belief in the Existence of the Nuisance, and after reasonable Notice of the intended Application to such Justice being given in Writing to the Party on whose Premises the Nuisance is believed to exist, by Order under his Hand, require the Person having the Custody of the Premises to admit the Local Authority or their Officer; and if no Person having Custody of the Premises can be discovered, any such Justice may and shall, on Oath made before him of Belief in the Existence of such Nuisance, and of the Fact that no Person having Custody of the Premises can be discovered, by Order under his Hand authorize the Local Authority or their Officers to enter the Premises between the Hours aforesaid.

2. To examine Premises where Nuisances exist, to ascertain the Course of Drains, and to execute or inspect Works ordered by Justices to be done under this Act.

For these Purposes, whenever, under the Provisions of this Act, a Nuisance has been ascertained to exist, or when an Order of Abatement or Prohibition under this Act has been made, or when it becomes necessary to ascertain the Course of a Drain, the Local Authority may enter on the Premises, by themselves or their Officers, between the Hours aforesaid, until the Nuisance shall have been abated, or the Course of the Drain shall have been ascertained, or the Works ordered to be done shall have been completed, as the Case may be.

3. To remove or abate a Nuisance in case of Noncompliance with or Infringement of the Order of Justices, or to inspect or examine any Carcase, Meat, Poultry, Game, Flesh, Fish, Fruit, Vegetables, Corn, Bread, or Flour, under the Powers and for the Purposes of this Act.

For this Purpose the Local Authority or their Officer may from Time to Time enter the Premises where the Nuisance exists, or the Carcase, Meat, Poultry, Game, Flesh, Fish, Fruit, Vegetables, Corn, Bread, or Flour is found, at all reasonable Hours, or at all Hours during which Business is carried on on such Premises, without Notice.

PART II.

PART II. With regard to Removal of Nuisances.

With regard to the Removal of Nuisances, be it enacted thus:

Proceedings by Local Authority before Justices in the Case of Nuisances likely to recur, &c.

XII. In any Case where a Nuisance is so ascertained by the Local Authority to exist, or where the Nuisance in their Opinion did exist at the Time when the Notice was given, and, although the same may have been since removed or discontinued, is in their Opinion likely to recur, or to be repeated on the same Premises or any Part thereof, they shall cause Complaint thereof to be made before a Justice of the Peace; and such Justice shall thereupon issue a Summons requiring the Person by whose Act, Default, Permission, or Sufferance the Nuisance arises or continues, or if such Person cannot be found or ascertained, the Owner or Occupier of the Premises on which the Nuisance arises, to appear before any Two Justices, in Petty Sessions assembled, at their usual Place of Meeting, who shall proceed to inquire into the said Complaint; and if it be proved to their Satisfaction that the Nuisance exists, or did exist at the Time when the Notice was given, or, if removed or discontinued since the Notice was given, that it is likely to recur or to be repeated, the Justices shall make an Order in Writing under their Hands and Seals on such Person, Owner, or Occupier for the Abatement or Discontinuance and Prohibition of the Nuisance as herein-after mentioned, and shall also make an Order for the Payment of all Costs incurred up to the Time of hearing or making the Order for Abatement or Discontinuance or Prohibition of the Nuisance.

If proved to Justices that Nuisance exists, &c., they shall issue Order for Abatement, &c.

Justices Order for Abatement.

XIII. By their Order the Justices may require the Person on whom it is made, to provide sufficient Privy Accommodation, Means of Drainage or Ventilation, or to make safe and habitable, or to pave, cleanse, whitewash, disinfect, or purify the Premises which are a Nuisance or injurious to Health, or such Part thereof as the Justices may direct in their Order, or to drain, empty, cleanse, fill up, amend, or remove the injurious Pool, Ditch, Gutter, Watercourse, Privy, Urinal, Cesspool, Drain, or Ashpit which is a Nuisance or injurious to Health, or to provide a Substitute for that complained of, or to carry away the Accumulation or Deposit which is a Nuisance or injurious to Health, or to provide for the cleanly and wholesome keeping of the Animal kept so as to be a Nuisance or injurious to Health, or if it be proved to the Justices to be impossible so to provide, then to remove the Animal, or any or all of these Things (according to the Nature of the Nuisance), or to do such other Works or Acts as are necessary to abate the Nuisance complained of, in such Manner and within such Time as in such Order shall be specified; and if the Justices are of opinion that such or the like Nuisance is likely to recur, the Justices may further prohibit the Recurrence of it, and direct the Works necessary to prevent such Recurrence, as the Case may in the Judgment of such Justices require; and if the Nuisance proved to exist be such as to render a House or Building, in the Judgment of the Justices, unfit for Human Habitation, they may prohibit the using thereof for that Purpose until it is rendered fit for that Purpose in the Judgment of the Justices, and on their being satisfied that it has been rendered fit for such Purpose, they may determine their previous Order by another declaring such House habitable, from the Date of which other Order such House may be let or inhabited.

Prohibitive Order against future Nuisance.

XIV. Any Person not obeying the said Order for Abatement shall, if he fail to satisfy the Justices that he has used all due Diligence to carry out such Order, be liable for every such Offence to a Penalty of not more than Ten Shillings per Day during his Default; and any Person knowingly and wilfully acting contrary to the said Order of Prohibition shall be liable for every such Offence to a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Shillings per Day during such contrary Action; and the Local Authority may, under the Powers of Entry given by this Act, enter the Premises to which the Order relates, and remove or abate the Nuisance condemned or prohibited, and do whatever may be necessary in execution of such Order, and charge the Cost to the Person on whom the Order is made as herein-after provided.

Penalty for Contravention of Order of Abatement, &c.

Local Authority may enter and remove or abate Nuisance.

XV. Any such Order of Prohibition may be appealed against as provided in this Act.

Appeal against Order of Prohibition.

XVI. When

PART II. With regard to Removal of Nuisances.

Appeal against Order of Abatement when structural Works are required.

XVI. When it shall appear to the Justices that the Execution of structural Works is required for the Abatement of a Nuisance, they may direct such Works to be carried out under the Direction or with the Consent or Approval of any Public Board, Trustees, or Commissioners having Jurisdiction in the Place in respect of such Works; and if within Seven Days from the Date of the Order the Person on whom it is made shall have given Notice to the Local Authority of his Intention to appeal against it as provided in this Act, and shall have entered into Recognizances to try such Appeal as provided by this Act, and shall appeal accordingly, no Liability to Penalty shall arise, nor shall any Work be done nor Proceedings taken under such Order, until after the Determination of such Appeal, unless such Appeal cease to be prosecuted.

If Person cannot be found, Local Authority to execute Order.

XVII. Whenever it appears to the Satisfaction of the Justices that the Person by whose Act or Default the Nuisance arises, or the Owner or Occupier of the Premises, is not known or cannot be found, then such Order may be addressed to and executed by such Local Authority, and the Cost defrayed out of the Rates or Funds applicable to the Execution of this Act.

Manure, &c. to be sold.

XVIII. Any Matter or Thing removed by the Local Authority in pursuance of this Enactment may be sold by Public Auction, after not less than Five Days Notice by Posting Bills distributed in the Locality, unless in Cases where the Delay would be prejudicial to Health, when the Justices may direct the immediate Removal, Destruction, or Sale of the Matter or Thing; and the Money arising from the Sale, retained by the Local Authority, and applied in Payment of all Expenses incurred under this Act with reference to such Nuisance, and the Surplus, if any, shall be paid, on Demand, by the Local Authority, to the Owner of such Matter or Thing.

Costs and Expenses of Works to be paid by Person on whom Order is made, or Owner or Occupier.

XIX. All reasonable Costs and Expenses from Time to Time incurred in making a Complaint, or giving Notice or in obtaining an Order of Justices under this Act, or in carrying the same into effect under this Act, shall be deemed to be Money paid for the Use and at the Request of the Person on whom the Order is made; or if the Order be made on the Local Authority, or if no Order be made, but the Nuisance be proved to have existed when the Complaint was made or the Notice given, then of the Person by whose Act or Default the Nuisance was caused; and in case of Nuisances caused by the Act or Default of the Owner of Premises, the said Premises shall be and continue chargeable with such Costs and Expenses, and also with the Amount of any Penalties incurred under this Act, until the same be fully discharged, provided that such Costs and Expenses shall not exceed in the whole One Year's Rack-rent of the Premises; and such Costs and Expenses and Penalties, together with the Charges of suing for the same, may be recovered in any County or Superior Court, or, if the Local Authority think fit, before any Two Justices of the Peace; and the said Justices shall have Power to divide such Costs, Expenses, and Penalties between the Persons by whose Act or Default the Nuisance arises, in such Manner as they shall consider reasonable; and if it appear to them that a Complaint made under this Act is frivolous or unfounded, they may order the Payment by the Local Authority or Person making the Complaint of the Costs incurred by the Person against whom the Complaint is made, or any Part thereof.

Proceedings before Justices to recover Expenses.

XX. Where any Costs, Expenses, or Penalties are due under or in consequence of any Order of Justices made in pursuance of this Act as aforesaid, any Justice of the Peace, upon the Application of the Local Authority, shall issue a Summons requiring the Person from whom they are due, to appear before Two Justices at a Time and Place to be named therein; and upon Proof, to the Satisfaction of the Justices present, that any such Costs, Expenses, or Penalties are so due, such Justices, unless they think fit to excuse the Party summoned upon the Ground of Poverty or other special Circumstances, shall, by Order in Writing under their Hands and Seals, order him to pay the Amount to the Local Authority at once, or by such Instalments as the Justices think fit, together with the Charges attending such Application and the Proceedings thereon; and if the Amount of such Order, or any Instalment thereof, be not paid within Fourteen Days after the same is due, the same may, by Warrant of the said or other Justices, be levied by Distress and Sale.

Surveyors of Highways to cleanse Ditches, &c., paying Owners, &c. for Damages.

XXI. All Surveyors and District Surveyors may make, scour, cleanse, and keep open all Ditches, Gutters, Drains, or Watercourses in and through any Lands or Grounds adjoining or lying near to any Highway, upon paying the Owner or Occupier of such Lands or Grounds, provided they are not Waste or Common, for the Damages which he shall thereby sustain, to be settled and paid in such Manner as the Damages for getting Materials in inclosed Lands or Grounds are directed to be settled and paid by the Law in force for the Time being with regard to Highways.

Power to Local Authority to cover and improve open Ditches, &c.

XXII. Whenever any Ditch, Gutter, Drain, or Watercourse used or partly used for the Conveyance of any Water, Filth, Sewage, or other Matter from any House, Buildings, or Premises is a Nuisance within the Meaning of this Act, and cannot, in the Opinion of the Local Authority, be rendered innocuous, without the laying down of a Sewer, or of some other Structure along the same or Part thereof, or instead thereof, such Local Authority shall and they are hereby required to lay down such Sewer or other Structure, and to keep the same in good and serviceable Repair, and they are hereby declared to have the same Powers as to entering Lands for the Purposes thereof, and to be entitled to recover the same Penalties in case of Interference, as are contained in the Sixty-seventh and Sixty-eighth Sections of the Act passed in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for consolidating and amending the Laws relating to Highways in England; and such Local Authority

5 & 6 W. 4. c. 50. ss. 67, 68.

rity are hereby authorized and empowered to assess every House, Building, or Premises then or at any Time thereafter using, for the Purposes aforesaid, the said Ditch, Gutter, Drain, Watercourse, Sewer, or other Structure, to such Payment, either immediate or annual, or distributed over a Term of Years, as they shall think just and reasonable, and, after Fourteen Days Notice at the least, left on the Premises so assessed, to levy and collect the Sum and Sums so assessed in the same Manner, and with the same Remedies in case of Default in Payment thereof, as Highway Rates are by the Law in force, for the Time being, leviable and collectable, and with the same Right and Power of Appeal against the Amount of such Assessment reserved to the Person or Persons so assessed, as by the Law for the Time being in force, shall be given against any Rate made for the Repair of the Highways; and the Provisions contained in this Section shall be deemed to be Part of the Law relating to Highways in England: Provided always, that where such Ditch, Gutter, Drain, or Watercourse shall, as to Parts thereof, be within the Jurisdiction of different Local Authorities, this Enactment shall apply to each Local Authority only as to so much of the Works hereby required, and the Expenses thereof, as is included within the respective Jurisdiction of that Authority: Provided also, that such Assessment shall in no Case exceed a Shilling in the Pound on the Assessment to the Highway Rate, if any.

Penalty for causing Water to be corrupted by Gas Washings.

XXIII. Any Person or Company engaged in the Manufacture of Gas who shall at any Time cause or suffer to be brought or to flow into any Stream, Reservoir, or Aqueduct, Pond or Place for Water, or into any Drain communicating therewith, any Washing or other Substance produced in making or supplying Gas, or shall wilfully do any Act connected with the making or supplying of Gas whereby the Water in any such Stream, Reservoir, Aqueduct, Pond or Place for Water shall be fouled, shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Two hundred Pounds.

Penalty to be sued for in Superior Courts within Six Months.

XXIV. Such Penalty may be recovered, with full Costs of Suit, in any of the Superior Courts, by the Person into whose Water such Washing or other Substance shall be conveyed or shall flow, or whose Water shall be fouled by any such Act as aforesaid, or if there be no such Person, or in default of Proceedings by such Person, after Notice to him, from the Local Authority, of their Intention to proceed for such Penalty, by the Local Authority; but such Penalty shall not be recoverable unless it be sued for during the Continuance of the Offence, or within Six Months after it shall have ceased.

Daily Penalty during the Continuance of the Offence.

XXV. In addition to the said Penalty of Two hundred Pounds (and whether such Penalty shall have been recovered or not), the Person or Company so offending shall forfeit the Sum of Twenty Pounds (to be recovered in the like Manner) for each Day during which such Washing or other Substance shall be brought or shall flow as aforesaid, or during which the Act by which such Water shall be fouled shall continue, after the Expiration of Twenty-four Hours from the Time when Notice of the Offence shall have been served on such Person or Company by the Local Authority, or the Person into whose Water such Washing or other Substance shall be brought or flow, or whose Water shall be fouled thereby, and such Penalty shall be paid to the Parties from whom such Notice shall proceed; and all Monies recovered by a Local Authority under this or the preceding Section shall, after Payment of any Damage caused by the Act for which the Penalty is imposed, be applied towards defraying the Expenses of executing this Act.

Penalty on Sale of unwholesome Meat, &c.

XXVI. The Sanitary Inspector may at all reasonable Times inspect and examine any Carcase, Meat, Poultry, Game, Flesh, Fish, Fruit, Vegetables, Corn, Bread, or Flour exposed for Sale, or in the course of, or on their Way to slaughtering, dressing, or Preparation for Sale or Use, or landed from any Ship or Vessel in any Port in England; and in case any such Carcase, Meat, Poultry, Game, Flesh, Fish, Fruit, Vegetables, Corn, Bread, or Flour appear to him to be unfit for such Food the same may be seized; and if it appear to a Justice that any such Carcase, Meat, Poultry, Game, Flesh, Fish, Fruit, Vegetables, Corn, Bread, or Flour is unfit for the Food of Man, he shall order the same to be destroyed, or to be so disposed of as to prevent its being exposed for Sale or used for such Food; and the Person to whom such Carcase, Meat, Poultry, Game, Flesh, Fish, Fruit, Vegetables, Corn, Bread, or Flour belongs, or in whose Custody the same is found, shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds for every Carcase, Fish, or Piece of Meat, Flesh, or Fish, or any Poultry or Game, or for the Parcel of Fruit, Vegetables, Corn, Bread, or Flour so found.

As to Nuisances arising in Cases of noxious Trades, Businesses, Processes, or Manufactures.

XXVII. If any Candle House, Melting House, Melting Place, or Soaphouse, or any Slaughter-house, or any Building or Place for boiling Offal or Blood, or for boiling, burning, or crushing Bones, or any Manufactory, Building, or Place used for any Trade, Business, Process, or Manufacture causing Effluvia, be at any Time certified to the Local Authority by any Medical Officer, or any Two legally qualified Medical Practitioners, to be a Nuisance or injurious to the Health of the Inhabitants of the Neighbourhood, the Local Authority shall direct Complaint to be made before any Justice, who may summon before any Two Justices in Petty Sessions assembled at their usual Place of Meeting, the Person by or in whose Behalf the Work so complained of is carried on, and such Justices shall inquire into such Complaint, and if it shall appear to such Justices that the Trade or Business carried on by the Person complained against is a Nuisance, or causes any Effluvia injurious to the Health of the Inhabitants of the Neighbourhood, and that such Person shall not have used the best practicable Means for abating such Nuisance or preventing or counteracting such Effluvia, the Person so offending (being the Owner or Occupier of the Premises, or being a Foreman or other Person employed by such Owner or Occupier,) shall, upon a summary Conviction for such Offence, forfeit and pay a Sum of not more than Five Pounds nor less than than Forty Shillings, and upon a Second Conviction for such Offence the Sum of Ten Pounds, and for each subsequent Conviction a Sum double the Amount of the Penalty imposed for the last preceding Conviction, but the highest Amount of such Penalty shall not in any Case exceed the Sum of Two hundred Pounds: Provided always, that the Justices may suspend their final Determination in any such Case, upon Condition that the Person so complained against shall undertake to adopt, within a reasonable Time, such Means as the said Justices shall judge to be practicable and order to be carried into effect for abating such Nuisance, or mitigating or preventing the injurious Effects of such Effluvia, or shall give Notice of Appeal in the Manner provided by this Act, and shall enter into Recognizances to try such Appeal, and shall appeal accordingly: Provided always, that the Provisions herein-before contained shall not extend or be applicable to any Place without the Limits of any City, Town, or populous District.

Reference to Superior Court at the Option of the Party complained against.

XXVIII. Provided also, That if, upon his Appearance before such Justices, the Party complained against object to have the Matter determined by such Justices, and enter into Recognizances, with sufficient Sureties, to be approved by the Justices, to abide the Event of any Proceedings at Law or in Equity that may be had against him on account of the Subject Matter of Complaint, the Local Authority shall thereupon abandon all Proceedings before the Justices, and shall forthwith take Proceedings at Law or in Equity in Her Majesty's Superior Courts for preventing or abating the Nuisance complained of.

On Certificate of Medical Officer that House is overcrowded, Proceedings may be taken, &c.

XXIX. Whenever the Medical Officer of Health, if there be One, or if none, whenever Two qualified Medical Practitioners, shall certify to the Local Authority that any House is so overcrowded as to be dangerous or prejudicial to the Health of the Inhabitants, and the Inhabitants shall consist of more than One Family, the Local Authority shall cause Proceedings to be taken before the Justices to abate such overcrowding, and the Justices shall thereupon make such Order as they may think fit, and the Person permitting such overcrowding shall forfeit a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

Local Authority to order Costs of Prosecutions to be paid out of the Rates.

XXX. The Local Authority may, within the Area of their Jurisdiction, direct any Proceedings to be taken at Law or in Equity in Cases coming within the Purview of this Act, and may order Proceedings to be taken for the Recovery of any Penalties, and for the Punishment of any Persons offending against the Provisions of this Act, or in relation to Appeals under this Act, and may order the Expenses of all such Proceedings to be paid out of the Rates or Funds administered by them under this Act.

PART III.

PART III. As to Procedure under this Act.

And with regard to Procedure under this Act, be it enacted, That Service of Notices, Summonses, and Orders.

XXXI. Notices, Summonses, and Orders under this Act may be served by delivering the same to or at the Residence of the Persons to whom they are respectively addressed, and where addressed to the Owner or Occupier of Premises, they may also be served by delivering the same, or a true Copy thereof to some Person upon the Premises, or if there be no Person upon the Premises who can be so served, by fixing the same upon some conspicuous Part of the Premises, or if the Person shall reside at a Distance of more than Five Miles from the Office of the Inspector, then by a registered Letter through the Post.

Proof of Resolutions of Local Authority.

XXXII. Copies of any Orders or Resolutions of the Local Authority or their Committee, purporting to be signed by the Chairman of such Body or Committee, shall, unless the contrary be shown, be received as Evidence thereof, without Proof of their meeting, or of the official Character or Signature of the Person signing the same.

As to Proceedings taken against several Persons for the same Offence.

XXXIII. Where Proceedings under this Act are to be taken against several Persons in respect of One Nuisance caused by the joint Act or Default of such Persons, it shall be lawful for the Local Authority to include such Persons in One Complaint, and for the Justices to include such Persons in One Summons, and any Order made in such a Case, may be made upon all or any Number of the Persons included in the Summons, and the Costs may be distributed as to the Justices may appear fair and reasonable.

One or more joint Owners or Occupiers may be proceeded against alone.

XXXIV. In case of any Demand or Complaint under this Act to which Two or more Persons, being Owners or Occupiers of Premises, or partly the one, or partly the other, may be answerable jointly or in common or severally, it shall be sufficient to proceed against any one or more of them without proceeding against the others or other of them; but nothing herein contained shall prevent the Parties so proceeded against from recovering Contribution in any Case in which they would now be entitled to Contribution by Law.

Designation of "Owner" or "Occupier."

XXXV. Whenever, in any Proceeding under this Act, whether written or otherwise, it shall become necessary to mention or refer to the Owner or Occupier of any Premises, it shall be sufficient to designate him as the "Owner" or "Occupier" of such Premises, without Name or further Description.

Penalty for obstructing Execution of this Act.

XXXVI. Whoever refuses to obey an Order of Justices under this Act for Admission on Premises of the Local Authority or their Officers, or wilfully obstructs any Person acting under the Authority or employed in the Execution of this Act, shall be liable for every such Offence to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

Penalty on Occupier obstructing Owner.

XXXVII. If the Occupier of any Premises prevent the Owner thereof from obeying or carrying into effect the Provisions of this Act, any Justice, to whom Application is made in this Behalf, shall by Order in Writing require such Occupier to desist from such Prevention, or to permit the Execution of the Works required to be executed, provided that such Works appear to such Justice to be necessary for the the Purpose of obeying or carrying into effect the Provisions of this Act; and if within Twenty-four Hours after the Service of such Order the Occupier against whom it is made do not comply therewith, he shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for every Day afterwards during the Continuance of such Non-compliance.

Penalties and Expenses recoverable under 11 & 12 Vict. c. 43.

XXXVIII. Penalties imposed by this Act for Offences committed, and Sums of Money ordered to be paid under this Act may be recovered by Persons thereto competent in England according to the Provisions of the Act of the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the present Reign, Chapter Forty-three; and all Penalties recovered by the Local Authority under this Act shall be paid to them, to be by them applied in aid of their Expenses under this Act.

Proceedings not to be quashed for Want of Form.

XXXIX. No Order, nor any other Proceeding, Matter, or Thing done or transacted in or relating to the Execution of this Act, shall be vacated, quashed, or set aside for Want of Form, nor shall any Order, nor any other Proceeding, Matter, or Thing done or transacted in relation to the Execution of this Act, be removed or removable by Certiorari, or by any other Writ or Process whatsoever, into any of the Superior Courts; and Proceedings under this Act against several Persons included in One Complaint shall not abate by reason of the Death of any among the Persons so included, but all such Proceedings may be carried on as if the deceased Person had not been originally so included.

Appeals under this Act to be to Quarter Sessions.

XL. Appeals under this Act shall be to the Court of Quarter Sessions held next after the making of the Order appealed against; but the Appellant shall not be heard in support of the Appeal unless, within Fourteen Days after the making of the Order appealed against, he give to the Local Authority Notice in Writing stating his Intention to bring such Appeal, together with a Statement in Writing of the Grounds of Appeal, and shall, within Two Days of giving such Notice, enter into a Recognizance before some Justice of the Peace, with sufficient Securities, conditioned to try such Appeal at the said Court, and to abide the Order of, and pay such Costs as shall be awarded by the Justices at such Court or any Adjournment thereof; and the said Court, upon hearing and finally determining the Matter of the Appeal, may, according to its Discretion, award such Costs to the Party appealing or appealed against as they shall think proper; and its Determination in or concerning the Premises shall be conclusive and binding on all Persons to all Intents or Purposes whatsoever: Provided always, that if there be not Time to give such Notice and enter into such Recognizance as aforesaid, then such Appeal may be made to, and such Notice, Statement, and Recognizance be given and entered into for, the next Sessions at which the Appeal can be heard; provided also, that on the Hearing of the Appeal, no Grounds of Appeal shall be gone into or entertained other than those set forth in such Statement as aforesaid; provided also, that in any Case of Appeal the Court of Quarter Sessions may, if they think fit, state the Facts specially for the Determination of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench, in which Case it shall be lawful to remove the Proceedings, by Writ of Certiorari or otherwise, into the said Court of Queen's Bench.

Forms to be used as in Schedule.

XLI. The Forms contained in the Schedule to this Act annexed, or any Forms to the like Effect, varied as Circumstances may require, may be used for Instruments under this Act, and shall be sufficient for the Purpose intended.

As to Protection of Local Authority and its Officers.

XLII. The Local Authority, and any Officer or Person acting under the Authority, and in execution or intended Execution of this Act, shall be entitled to such Protection and Privilege in Actions and Suits, and such Exemption from personal Liability, as are granted to Local Boards of Health and their Officers by the Law in force for the Time being.

Act not to impair Jurisdiction of Sewers Commissioners, or Common Law Remedies for Nuisance, or Jurisdiction of Local Authority as to the Nuisances referred to in this Act.

XLIII. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to affect the Provisions of any Local Act as to Matters included in this Act, nor to impair, abridge, or take away any Power, Jurisdiction, or Authority which may at any Time be vested in any Commissioners of Sewers or of Drainage, or to take away or interfere with any Course of Proceedings which might be resorted to or adopted by such Commissioners if this Act had not passed, nor to impair any Power of abating Nuisances at Common Law, nor any Jurisdiction in respect of Nuisances that may be possessed by any Authority under the Act intituled An Act to abate the Nuisances arising from the Smoke of Furnaces in the Metropolis, and from Steam Vessels above London Bridge, or the Common Lodging Houses Acts, the Act for the Regulation of Municipal Corporations, the Public Health Act, or any Improvement Act respectively, or any Acts incorporated with such Acts, and Authorities may respectively proceed for the Abatement of Nuisances, or in respect of any other Matter or Thing herein-before provided or referred to, either under the Acts mentioned in this Section or any other Act conferring Jurisdiction in respect of the Nuisances referred to in this Act, or any Byelaws framed under any such Act, as they may think fit; and the Local Authorities constituted under and for the Purposes of the Common Lodging House Acts, 1851 and 1853, shall for the Purposes of those Acts have all the Powers of Local Authorities under this Act.

Act not to affect Navigation of Rivers or Canals.

XLIV. Nothing herein contained shall enable any Local Authority, Surveyor of Highways, or other Person, either with or without any Order of Justices, to injuriously affect the Navigation of any River or Canal, or to divert or diminish any Supply of Water of Right belonging to any such River or Canal; and the Provisions of this Act shall not extend or be construed to extend to Mines of different Descriptions, so as to interfere with or obstruct the efficient working of the same, or to the smelting of Ores and Minerals, or to the manufacturing of the Produce of such Ores and Minerals.

Saving as to Rights of Millowners, &c.

XLV. No Power given by this Act shall be exercised in such Manner as to injuriously affect the Supply, Quality, or Fall of Water contained in any Reservoir or Stream, or any Feeders of such Reservoir

CAP. CXXII.

An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Construction of Buildings in the Metropolis and its Neighbourhood. [14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that the Laws relating to Buildings in the Metropolis and its Neighbourhood should be amended:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

PRELIMINARY.

Short Title.

I. This Act may be cited for all Purposes as "The Metropolitan Building Act, 1855."

Commencement of Act.

II. This Act shall, except in Cases where it is otherwise expressly provided, come into operation on the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six.

Interpretation of certain Terms in this Act.

III. In the Construction of this Act (if not inconsistent with the Context) the following Terms shall have the respective Meanings herein-after assigned to them; (that is to say,)

"The Treasury" shall mean the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury:

"Public Building" shall mean every Building used as a Church, Chapel, or other Place of Public Worship; also every Building used for Purposes of public Instruction; also every Building used as a College, public Hall, Hospital, Theatre, public Concert Room, public Ball Room, public Lecture Room, public Exhibition Room, or for any other public Purposes:

"External Wall" shall apply to every outer Wall or vertical Enclosure of any Building not being a Party Wall:

"Party Wall" shall apply to every Wall used or built in order to be used as a Separation of any Building from any other Building, with a view to the same being occupied by different Persons:

"Cross Wall" shall apply to every Wall used or built in order to be used as a Separation of one Part of any Building from another Part of the same Building, such Building being wholly in One Occupation:

"Party Structure" shall include Party Walls, and also Partitions, Arches, Floors, and other Structures separating Buildings, Stories or Rooms which belong to different Owners, or which are approached by distinct Staircases or separate Entrances from without:

The "Area" of every Building shall be deemed to be the Superficies of a horizontal Section of such Building made at the Point of its greatest Surface, including the External Walls and such Portion of the Party Walls as belong to the Building, but excluding any attached Building the Height of which does not exceed the Height of the Ground Story:

"The Base of the Wall" shall mean the Course immediately above the Footings:

"Owner" shall apply to every Person in possession or receipt either of the whole or of any Part of the Rents or Profits of any Land or Tenement, or in the Occupation of such Land or Tenement other than as a Tenant from Year to Year or for any less Term, or as a Tenant at Will:

"Builder" shall apply to and include the Master Builder or other Person employed to execute or who actually executes any Work upon any Building:

"District

"District Surveyor" shall mean every such Surveyor who is appointed in pursuance of this Act, or whose Appointment is hereby confirmed, and shall include any Deputy or Assistant Surveyor appointed under this Act:

In all Cases in which the Name of an Officer having local Jurisdiction in respect of his Office is referred to without Mention of the Locality to which the Jurisdiction extends, such Reference is to be understood to indicate the Officer having Jurisdiction in that Place within which is situate the Building or other Subject Matter or any Part thereof to which such Reference applies:

"Person" shall include "a Body Corporate."

LIMITS OF ACT.

Act to extend to all Places within Limits defined by 18 & 19 Vict. c. 120.

IV. This Act shall extend to all Places within the Limits of the Metropolis as defined by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled An Act for the better local Management of the Metropolis, and to all other Places to which such last-mentioned Act may be extended, unless such Places are, in making such Extension, expressly excepted from the Operation of this Act; but nothing herein contained shall affect the Exercise of any Powers vested by any Act of Parliament in the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London for the Time being.

Division of Act.

V. This Act shall be divided into Five Parts:

(1.) The First Part relating to the Regulation and Supervision of Buildings:

(2.) The Second Part relating to Dangerous Structures:

(3.) The Third Part relating to Party Structures:

(4.) The Fourth Part relating to Miscellaneous Provisions:

(5.) The Fifth Part relating to the Repeal of former Acts, and to temporary Provisions.

PART I.

REGULATION AND SUPERVISION OF BUILDINGS.

PART I. Regulation and Supervision of Buildings.

Buildings, &c. herein named exempt from Operation of Part I. of this Act.

VI. The following Buildings and Works shall be exempt from the Operation of the First Part of this Act:

Bridges, Piers, Jetties, Embankment Walls, Retaining Walls, and Wharf or Quay Walls:

Her Majesty's Royal Palaces, and any Building in the Possession of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, or employed for Her Majesty's Use or Service:

Common Gaols, Prisons, Houses of Correction, and Places of Confinement under the Inspection of the Inspectors of Prisons, and Bethlehem Hospital, and the House of Occupations adjoining:

The Mansion House, Guildhall, and Royal Exchange of the City of London:

The Offices and Buildings of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England already erected, and which now form the Edifice called "The Bank of England," and any Offices and Buildings hereafter to be erected for the Use of the said Governor and Company, either on the Site of or in addition to and in connexion with the said Edifice:

The Buildings of the British Museum:

The Offices and Buildings of the Honourable East India Company already erected, and any Offices or Buildings hereafter to be erected, for the Use of the said Company, on the Site of or in addition to such existing Offices and Buildings:

Greenwich Hospital and the Buildings in the Parish of Greenwich vested in the Commissioners of Greenwich Hospital for the Purposes of the said Hospital:

All County Lunatic Asylums, Sessions Houses, and other public Buildings belonging to or occupied by the Justices of the Peace of the County or City in which the same are situated:

The Erections and Buildings authorized by an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, for the Purposes of a Market in Covent Garden:

The Cattle Market, with its Appurtenances, erected in pursuance of the Metropolitan Cattle Market Act, 1851:

The Buildings belonging to any Canal, Dock, or Railway Company, and used for the Purposes of such Canal, Dock, or Railway, under the Provisions of any Act of Parliament:

All Buildings, not exceeding in Height Thirty Feet, as measured from the Footings of the Walls, and not exceeding in Extent One hundred and twenty-five thousand Cubic Feet, and not being Public Buildings, wholly in One Occupation, and distant at least Eight Feet from the nearest Street or Alley, whether public or private, and at the least Thirty Feet from the nearest Buildings and from the Ground of any adjoining Owner:

All Buildings not exceeding in Extent Two hundred and sixteen thousand Cubic Feet, and not being Public Buildings, and distant at least Thirty Feet from the nearest Street or Alley, whether public or private, and at the least Sixty Feet from the nearest Buildings and from the Ground of an adjoining Owner:

All Party Fence Walls and Greenhouses so far as regards the necessary Woodwork of the Sashes, Doors, and Frames:

Openings

Openings made into Walls or Flues for the Purpose of inserting therein ventilating Valves of a superficial Extent not greater than Forty Square Inches, if such Valves are not nearer than Twelve Inches to any Timber or other combustible Material.

Application of Act, except Exemptions before mentioned.

VII. With the Exemptions herein-before mentioned, this Act shall apply to all new Buildings; and whenever Mention is herein made of any Building, it shall, unless the contrary appears from the Context, be deemed to imply a new Building.

Building, when deemed to be new.

VIII. A Building shall be deemed to be new whenever the enclosing Walls thereof have not been carried higher than the Footings previously to the said First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six: Any other Building shall be deemed to be an old Building.

Alterations of and Additions to old Buildings.

IX. Any Alteration, Addition, or other Work made or done for any Purpose, except that of necessary Repair not affecting the Construction of any External or Party Wall, in, to, or upon any old Building, or in, to, or upon any new Building after the Roof has been covered in, shall, to the Extent of such Alteration, Addition, or Work, be subject to the Regulations of this Act; and whenever Mention is herein-after made of any Alteration, Addition, or Work in, to, or upon any Building, it shall, unless the contrary appears from the Context, be deemed to imply an Alteration, Addition, or Work to which this Act applies.

Rebuilding old Buildings.

X. Whenever any old Building has been taken down to an Extent exceeding One Half of such Building, such Half to be measured in Cubic Feet, the rebuilding thereof shall be deemed to be the Erection of a new Building; and every Portion of such old Building that is not in conformity with the Regulations of this Act shall be forthwith taken down.

Division of old Buildings separated by irregular Partitions.

XI. Whenever any old Buildings are separated by Timber or other Partitions not in conformity with this Act, then, if such Partitions are removed to the Extent of One Half thereof, such Building shall as respects the Separation thereof be deemed to be new Buildings, and be forthwith divided from each other in the Manner directed by this Act.

WALLS.

Structure and Thickness of Walls.

XII. Walls shall be constructed of such Substances and of such Thickness and in such Manner as are mentioned in the First Schedule annexed hereto.

RECESSES AND OPENINGS.

Rules as to Recesses and Openings.

XIII. The following Rules shall be observed with respect to Recesses and Openings in Walls:

Recesses and Openings may be made in External Walls, provided,

1. That the Backs of such Recesses are not of less Thickness than Eight and a Half Inches; and,
2. That the Area of such Recesses and Openings do not, taken together, exceed One Half of the whole Area of the Wall in which they are made:

Recesses may be made in Party Walls, provided that,

1. The Backs of such Recesses are not of less Thickness than Thirteen Inches; and,
2. That every Recess so formed is arched over, and that the Area of such Recesses do not, taken altogether, exceed One Half of the whole Area of the Wall of the Story in which they are made; and,
3. That such Recesses do not come within One Foot of the inner Face of the External Walls;

But no Opening shall be made in any Party Wall except in accordance with the Rules of this Act:

The Word Area, as used in this Section, shall mean the Area of the vertical Face, or Elevation, of the Wall, Pier, or Recess to which it refers.

MISCELLANEOUS.

As to Timber in External Walls.

XIV. Loophole Frames may be fixed within One Inch and a Half of the Face of any External Wall; but all other Woodwork fixed in any External Wall, except Bressummers and Story Posts under the same, and Frames of Doors and Windows of Shops on the Ground Story of any Building, shall be set back Four Inches at the least from the external Face of such Wall.

Rules as to Bressummers.

XV. The following Rules shall be observed with respect to Bressummers and Timbers:

1. Every Bressummer must have a Bearing in the Direction of its Length, of Four Inches at the least at each End, upon a sufficient Pier of Brick or Stone, or upon a Timber or Iron Story Post fixed on a solid Foundation, in addition to its Bearing upon any Party Wall; and the Ends of such Bressummer shall not be placed nearer to the Centre Line of the Party Walls than Four and a Half Inches:
2. No Bond Timber or Wood Plate shall be built into any Party Wall, and the Ends of any Beam or Joist bearing on such Walls shall be at the least Four and a Half Inches distant from the Centre Line of the Party Walls:
3. Every Bressummer bearing upon any Party Wall must be borne by a Templet or Corbel of Stone or Iron tailed through at least Half the Thickness of such Wall, and of the full Breadth of the Bressummer.

Height and Thickness of Parapets to External Walls.

XVI. If any Gutter, any Part of which is formed of combustible Materials, adjoins an External Wall, then such Wall must be carried up so as to form a Parapet One Foot at the least above the highest Part of such Gutter, and the Thickness of the Parapet so carried up must be at the least Eight and a Half Inches, reckoned from the Level of the under Side of the Gutter Plate.

XVII. Every

Height of Party Walls above Roof.

XVII. Every Party Wall shall be carried up above the Roof Flat or Gutter of the highest Building adjoining thereto, to such Height as will give a Distance of Fifteen Inches measured at Right Angles to the Slope of the Roof, or Fifteen Inches above the highest Part of any Flat or Gutter, as the Case may be; and every Party Wall shall be carried up above any Turret, Dormer, Lantern Light, or other Erection of combustible Materials fixed upon the Roof or Flat of any Building within Four Feet from such Party Wall, and shall extend at the least Twelve Inches higher and wider on each Side than such Erection; and every Party Wall shall be carried up above any Part of any Roof opposite thereto, and within Four Feet from such Party Wall.

As to Chases in Party Walls.

XVIII. In a Party Wall no Chase shall be made wider than Fourteen Inches, nor more than Four and a Half Inches deep from the Face of the Wall, nor so as to leave less than Eight and a Half Inches in Thickness at the Back or opposite Side thereof, and no Chase may be made within a Distance of Seven Feet from any other Chase on the same Side of the Wall.

As to Construction of Roofs.

XIX. The Roofs of Buildings shall be constructed as follows; that is to say,

1. The Flat, Gutter, and Roof of every Building, and every Turret, Dormer, Lantern Light, Skylight, or other Erection placed on the Flat or Roof thereof, shall be externally covered with Slates, Tiles, Metal, or other incombustible Materials, except the Doors, Door Frames, Windows, and Window Frames of such Dormers, Turrets, Lantern Lights, Skylights, or other Erections:
2. The Plane of the Surface of the Roof of a Warehouse or other Building used either wholly or in part for Purposes of Trade or Manufacture shall not incline from the External or Party Walls upwards at a greater Angle than Forty-seven Degrees with the Horizon.

Rules as to Chimnies and Flues.

XX. The following Rules shall be observed as to Chimnies and Flues:—

1. Chimnies built on Corbels of Brick, Stone, or other incombustible Materials may be introduced above the Level of the Ceiling of the Ground Story if the Work so corbelled out does not project from the Wall more than the Thickness of the Wall, but all other Chimnies shall be built on solid Foundations, and with Footings similar to the Footings of the Wall against which they are built:
2. Chimnies and Flues having proper Doors of not less than Six Inches square may be constructed at any Angle, but in every other Chimney or Flue the Angles shall be constructed of an Obtuseness of not less than One hundred and thirty Degrees, and shall be properly rounded:
3. An Arch of Brick or Stone or a Bar of Wrought Iron must be built over the Opening of every Chimney to support the Breast thereof, and if the Breast projects more than Four and a Half Inches from the Face of the Wall, and the Jamb on either Side is of less Width than Seventeen and a Half Inches, the Abutments must be tied in by an Iron Bar or Bars turned up and down at the Ends, and built into the Jambs for at least Eight and a Half Inches on each Side:
4. The Inside of every Flue, and the Back or Outside, unless forming Part of the outer Face of an External Wall, must be rendered, pargeted, or lined with Fire-proof Piping:
5. The Jambs of every Chimney must at the least be Eight and a Half Inches wide on each Side of the Opening thereof:
6. The Breast of every Chimney, and the Front, Withe, Partition, and Back of every Flue, must at the least be Four Inches in Thickness:
7. The Back of every Chimney Opening, from the Hearth up to the Height of Twelve Inches above the Mantel, must at the least be Eight and a Half Inches thick if in a Party Wall, or Four and a Half Inches thick if not in a Party Wall:
8. The Thickness of the upper Side of every Flue, when its Course makes, with the Horizon, an Angle of less than Forty-five Degrees, must be at the least Eight and a Half Inches:
9. Every Chimney Shaft shall be carried up in Brick or Stone Work all round, at the least Four Inches thick, to a Height of not less than Three Feet above the Roof, Flat, or Gutter adjoining thereto, measured at the highest Point in the Line of Junction with such Roof, Flat, or Gutter:
10. The Brickwork or Stonework of any Chimney Shaft, excepting that of the Furnace of any Steam Engine, Brewery, Distillery, or Manufactory, shall not be built higher above the Roof, Flat, or Gutter adjoining thereto, measured from the highest Point in the Line of Junction with such Roof, Flat, or Gutter, than a Height equal to Six Times the least Width of such Chimney Shaft at the Level of such highest Point in the Line of Junction, unless such Chimney Shaft is built with and bonded to another Chimney Shaft not in the same Line with the first, or otherwise rendered secure:
11. There shall be laid, level with the Floor of every Story, before the Opening of every Chimney, a Slab of Stone, Slate, or other incombustible Substance, at the least Twelve Inches longer than the Width of such Opening, and at the least Eighteen Inches wide in front of the Breast thereof:
12. On every Floor, except the lowest Floor, such Slab shall be laid wholly upon Stone or Iron Bearers, or upon Brick Trimmers; but on the lowest Floor it may be bedded on the solid Ground:

PART I. Regulation and Supervision of Buildings.

13. The Hearth or Slab of every Chimney shall be bedded wholly on Brick, Stone, or other incombustible Substance, and shall be solid for a Thickness of Seven Inches at the least beneath the upper Surface of such Hearth or Slab:

14. No Flue shall be built against any Party Structure, unless a Withe is properly secured thereto, at the least Four Inches in Thickness:

15. No Chimney Breast or Shaft built with or in any Party Wall shall be cut away unless the District Surveyor certifies that it can be done without injuriously affecting the Stability of any Building:

16. No Chimney Shaft, Jamb, Breast, or Flue shall be cut into, except for the Purpose of Repair, or doing some One or more of the following Things:

Of letting in or removing or altering Flues, Pipes, or Funnels for the Conveyance of Smoke, hot Air, or Steam, or of letting in, removing, or altering Smoke Jacks:

Of forming Openings for Soot Doors, such Openings to be fitted with a close Iron Door and Frame:

Of making Openings for the Insertion of ventilating Valves, subject to the following Restriction, That no Opening shall be made nearer than Twelve Inches to any Timber or combustible Substance:

17. No Timber or Woodwork shall be placed,

In any Wall or Chimney Breast nearer than Twelve Inches to the Inside of any Flue or Chimney Opening;

Under any Chimney Opening within Eighteen Inches from the upper Surface of the Hearth of such Chimney Opening;

Within Two Inches from the Face of the Brickwork or Stonework about any Chimney or Flue, where the Substance of such Brickwork or Stonework is less than Eight and a Half Inches thick, unless the Face of such Brickwork or Stonework is rendered;

And no Wooden Plugs shall be driven nearer than Six Inches to the Inside of any Flue or Chimney Opening, nor any Iron Holdfast or other Iron Fastening nearer than Two Inches thereto.

Rules as to close Fires and Pipes for conveying Vapour, &c.

XXI. The following Rules shall be observed as to close Fires, and Pipes for conveying heated Vapour or Water; that is to say,

1. The Floor under every Oven or Stove used for the Purpose of Trade or Manufacture, and the Floor around the same for a Space of Eighteen Inches, shall be formed of Materials of an incombustible and non-conducting Nature:

2. No Pipe for conveying Smoke, heated Air, Steam, or hot Water shall be fixed against any Building on the Face next to any Street, Alley, Mews, or public Way:

3. No Pipe for conveying heated Air or Steam shall be fixed nearer than Six Inches to any combustible Materials:

4. No Pipe for conveying hot Water shall be placed nearer than Three Inches to any combustible Materials:

5. No Pipe for conveying Smoke or other Products of Combustion shall be fixed nearer than Nine Inches to any combustible Material:

And if any Person fails in complying with the Rules of this Section, he shall for each Offence incur a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds, to be recovered before a Justice of the Peace.

Rules as to Accesses and Stairs in certain Buildings.

XXII. The following Rules shall be observed with respect to Accesses and Stairs:

In every Public Building, and in every other Building containing more than One hundred and twenty-five thousand Cubic Feet, and used as a Dwelling House for separate Families, the Floors of the Lobbies, Corridors, Passages, and Landings, and also the Flights of Stairs, shall be of Stone or other Fire-proof Material, and carried by Supports of a Fire-proof Material.

Rules as to habitable Rooms.

XXIII. The following Rules shall be observed with respect to habitable Rooms in any Building; that is to say,

1. Every habitable Room hereafter constructed in any Building, except Rooms in the Roof thereof, and Cellars and underground Rooms, shall be in every Part at the least Seven Feet in Height from the Floor to the Ceiling:

2. Every habitable Room hereafter constructed in the Roof of every Building shall be at the least Seven Feet in Height from the Floor to the Ceiling throughout not less than One Half the Area of such Room:

3. Cellars and underground Rooms shall be constructed in manner directed by the said Act for the better Local Management of the Metropolis:

And whosoever knowingly suffers any Room that is not constructed in conformity with this Section to be inhabited, shall, in addition to any other Liabilities he may be subject to under this Act, incur a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Shillings for every Day during which such Room is inhabited; and any Room in which any Person passes the Night shall be deemed to be inhabited within the Meaning of this Act.

As to Party Arches over public Ways.

XXIV. Every Party Arch, and every Arch or Floor over any public Way, or any Passage leading to Premises in other Occupation, shall be formed of Brick, Stone, or other incombustible Materials: If an

Arch

Arch of Brick or Stone is used, it shall, in Cases where its Span does not exceed Nine Feet, be of the Thickness of Four and a Half Inches at the least, but when its Span exceeds Nine Feet, be of the Thickness of Eight and a Half Inches at the least: If an Arch or Floor of Iron or other incombustible Material is used, it shall be constructed in such Manner as may be approved by the District Surveyor.

As to Arches under public Ways.

XXV. Every Arch under any public Way shall be formed of Brick, Stone, or other incombustible Materials: If an Arch of Brick or Stone is used, it shall, in Cases where its Span does not exceed Ten Feet, be of the Thickness of Eight and a Half Inches at the least; where its Span does not exceed Fifteen Feet, it shall be of the Thickness of Thirteen Inches at least; and where its Span exceed Fifteen Feet, it shall be of such Thickness as may be approved by the District Surveyor: If an Arch or other Construction of Iron or other incombustible Material is used, it shall be constructed in such Manner as may be approved by the District Surveyor.

Rules as to Projections.

XXVI. The following Rules shall be observed as to Projections:

1. Every Coping, Cornice, Facia, Window Dressing, Portico, Balcony, Verandah, Balustrade, and architectural Projection or Decoration whatsoever, and also the Eaves or Cornices to any overhanging Roof, except the Cornices and Dressings to the Window Fronts of Shops, and except the Eaves and Cornices to detached and semi-detached Dwelling Houses distant at least Fifteen Feet from any other Building, and from the Ground of any adjoining Owner, shall, unless the Metropolitan Board otherwise permit, be of Brick, Tile, Stone, artificial Stone, Slate, Cement, or other Fire-proof Material:
2. In Streets or Alleys of a less Width than Thirty Feet, any Shop Front may project beyond the External Wall of the Building to which it belongs for Five Inches and no more, and any Cornice of any such Shop Front may project Thirteen Inches and no more; and in any Street or Alley of a Width greater than Thirty Feet, any Shop Front may project Ten Inches and no more, and the Cornice may project for Eighteen Inches from the External Walls, but no more:
3. No Part of the Woodwork of any Shop Front shall be fixed nearer than Four and a Half Inches from the Line of Junction of any adjoining Premises, unless a Pier or Corbel of Stone, Brick, or other Fire-proof Material, Four and a Half Inches wide at the least, is built or fixed next to such adjoining Premises as high as such Woodwork is fixed, and projects an Inch at the least in front of the Face thereof:
4. The Roof, Flat, or Gutter of every Building, and every Balcony, Verandah, Shop Front, or other Projection, must be so arranged and constructed, and so supplied with Gutters and Pipes, as to prevent the Water therefrom from dropping upon or running over any public Way:
5. Except in so far as is permitted by this Section in the Case of Shop Fronts, and with the Exception of Water Pipes and their Appurtenances, Copings, Cornices, Facias, Window Dressings, and other like architectural Decorations, no Projection from any Building shall extend beyond the general Line of Fronts in any Street, except with the Permission of the Metropolitan Board of Works herein-after mentioned.

Rules as to the Separation of Buildings, and Limitation of their Areas.

XXVII. The following Rules shall be observed as to the Separation of Buildings, and Limitation of their Areas:

1. Every Building shall be separated by External or Party Walls from any adjoining Building:
2. Separate Sets of Chambers or Rooms tenanted by different Persons shall, if contained in a Building exceeding Three thousand six hundred Square Feet in Area, be deemed to be separate Buildings, and be divided accordingly, so far as they adjoin vertically by Party Walls, and so far as they adjoin horizontally by Party Arches or Fire-proof Floors:
3. If any Building in One Occupation is divided into Two or more Tenements, each having a separate entrance and Staircase, or a separate Entrance from without, every such Tenement shall be deemed to be a separate Building for the Purposes of this Act:
4. Every Warehouse, or other Building used either wholly or in part for the Purposes of Trade or Manufacture, containing more than Two hundred and sixteen thousand Cubic Feet, shall be divided by Party Walls in such Manner that the Contents of each Division thereof shall not exceed the above-mentioned Number of Cubic Feet.

Rules as to uniting Buildings.

XXVIII. The following Rules shall be observed as to uniting Buildings:

1. No Buildings shall be united unless they are wholly in the same Occupation:
2. No Buildings shall be united, if when so united, they will, considered as One Building only, be in contravention of any of the Provisions of this Act:
3. No Opening shall be made in any Party Wall dividing Buildings, which, if taken together, would contain more than Two hundred and sixteen thousand Cubic Feet, except under the following Conditions:

   Such Opening shall not exceed in Width Seven Feet or in Height Eight Feet:

   Such Opening shall have the Floor, Jambs, and Head formed of Brick, Stone, or Iron, and be closed by Two Wrought Iron Doors, each One Fourth of an Inch thick in the Panel, at a Distance from each other of the full Thickness of the Wall, fitted to rebated Frames, without Woodwork of any kind:

PART. I. Regulation and Supervision of Buildings.

4. Whenever any Buildings which have been united, cease to be in the same Occupation, any Openings made in the Party Walls dividing the same shall be stopped up with Brick or Stone Work of the full Thickness of the Wall itself, and properly bonded therewith.

As to Open Spaces near Dwelling Houses.

XXIX. Every Building used or intended to be used as a Dwelling House, unless all the Rooms can be lighted and ventilated from a Street or Alley adjoining, shall have in the Rear, or on the Side thereof, an open Space exclusively belonging thereto, of the Extent at least of One hundred Square Feet.

Construction of Public Buildings.

XXX. Notwithstanding anything herein contained, every Public Building, including the Walls, Roofs, Floors, Galleries, and Staircases, shall be constructed in such Manner as may be approved by the District Surveyor, or, in the event of Disagreement, may be determined by the Metropolitan Board; and, save in so far as respects the Rules of Construction, every Public Building shall throughout this Act, be deemed to be included in the Term Building, and be subject to all the Provisions of this Act, in the same Manner as if it were a Building erected for a Purpose other than a public Purpose.

DISTRICT SURVEYORS.

Buildings to be supervised by District Surveyors.

XXXI. With the Exemptions herein-before mentioned, every Building, and every Work done to, in, or upon any Building, shall be subject to the Supervision of the District Surveyor appointed to the District in which the Building is situate.

Power to Metropolitan Board of Works established under 18 & 19 Vict. c. 120.

XXXII. The following Things may be done by the Metropolitan Board of Works, established by the said Act for the better Local Management of the Metropolis, by Order, at their Discretion; that is to say,

1. They may alter the Limits of any District, or unite any Two or more Districts together, and in any such Case place such altered District under the Supervision of any existing or of any future District Surveyor, with Power from Time to Time to alter any District so made, and do all such Matters and Things as are necessary for carrying into effect the Power hereby given:
2. They may dismiss any existing District Surveyor, with the Consent of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; they may suspend any such Surveyor as last aforesaid; they may dismiss or suspend any future District Surveyor; and in case of any Suspension or during any Vacancy, they may appoint a temporary Substitute:
3. Whenever any Vacancy occurs in the Office of any existing or future District Surveyor, they may appoint another qualified Person in his Place:
4. They may pay such Amount of Compensation as they think fit to any District Surveyor who may be deprived of his Office, in pursuance of the Power hereby given of altering the Limits of Districts:

But, subject to the Provisions herein contained, the several Places which at the Time when this Act comes into operation are constituted Districts under an Act passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-four, and intituled An Act for regulating the Construction and Use of Buildings in the Metropolis and its Neighbourhood, for the Purposes of that Act, shall continue to be Districts for the Purposes of this Act, and the several Persons who at the Time when this Act comes into operation are District Surveyors under the Provisions of the said Act shall continue to be District Surveyors under this Act.

Examination by Institute of British Architects.

XXXIII. The Institute of British Architects may from Time to Time cause to be examined, by such Persons and in such Manner as they think fit, all Candidates presenting themselves for the Purpose of being examined as to their Competency to perform the Duties of District Surveyor, and shall grant Certificates of Competency to the Candidates found deserving of the same; and no Person who has not already filled the Office of District Surveyor, or has not already obtained a Certificate of Competency in pursuance of the said Act of the Eighth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-four, shall be qualified to be appointed to that Office, unless he has received a Certificate of Competency from the said Institute of British Architects, or has been examined in such other Manner as the said Metropolitan Board may direct, and been found competent in such Examination.

District Surveyor to have an Office.

XXXIV. Every District Surveyor shall have and maintain an Office, at his own Expense, in such Part of his District as may be approved by the Metropolitan Board of Works.

District Surveyor may appoint Deputy, with Consent.

XXXV. If any District Surveyor is prevented by Illness, Infirmity, or any other unavoidable Circumstance from attending to the Duties of his Office, he may, with the Consent of the Metropolitan Board of Works, appoint some other Person as his Deputy to perform all his Duties for such Time as he may be prevented from executing them.

Assistant Surveyor may be appointed on Emergency.

XXXVI. If at any Time it appears to the Metropolitan Board of Works that, on account of the Pressure of Business in any District, or any other Account, the Surveyor of that District cannot discharge his Duties promptly and efficiently, then such Board may direct any other District Surveyor to assist the Surveyor of such District in the Performance of his Duties, or appoint some other Person to give such Assistance, and such Assistant Surveyor shall be entitled to receive all Fees payable in respect of the Services performed by him.

District Surveyor not to act in case of XXXVII. If any Building is executed, or any Work done to, in, or upon any Building, by or under the Superintendence of any District Surveyor acting professionally or on his own private Account, it shall shall not be lawful for such Surveyor to survey any such Building for the Purpose of this Act, or to act as District Surveyor in respect thereof, or in any Matter connected therewith, but it shall be his Duty to give Notice thereof to the said Metropolitan Board, who shall then appoint some other District Surveyor to act in respect of such Matter. Works under his professional Superintendence.

NOTICES TO DISTRICT SURVEYORS.

XXXVIII. Two Days before the following Acts or Event, that is to say, Notices to be given to District Surveyor by Builder.

Two Days before any Building, or any Work to, in, or upon any Building, is commenced, and also, if the Progress of any such Building or Work is after the Commencement thereof suspended for any Period exceeding Three Months, Two Days before such Building or Work is resumed, and also if during the Progress of any such Building or Work, the Builder employed thereon is changed, then Two Days before any new Builder enters upon the Continuance of such Building or Work,

It shall be the Duty of the Builder engaged in building or rebuilding such Building, or in executing such Work, or in continuing such Building or Work, to give to the District Surveyor Notice in Writing stating the Situation, Area, and Height, and intended Use of the Building or Buildings about to be commenced, or to, in, or upon which any Work is to be done, and the Number of such Buildings if more than One, and also the Particulars of any such proposed Work, and stating also his own Name and Address; but any Works to, in, or upon the same Building, that are in progress at the same Time, may be included in One Notice.

XXXIX. Every District Surveyor shall, upon the Receipt of any such Notice as aforesaid, and also upon any Work, affected by the Rules of this Act, but in respect of which no Notice has been given, being observed by or made known to him, and also from Time to Time during the Progress of any Works affected by the Rules and Directions of this Act, as often as may be necessary for securing the due Observance of such Rules, survey any Building or Work hereby placed under their Supervision, and cause all the Rules of this Act to be duly observed. District Surveyor to cause Rules of this Act to be observed.

XL. Every Notice given in pursuance of this Act shall be deemed, in any Question relative to any Building or Work, to be primâ facie Evidence as against such Builder, of the Nature of the Building or Work proposed to be built or done. Notice to be Evidence of intended Works.

XLI. If any Builder neglects to give Notice in any of the Cases aforesaid, or executes any Works of which he is hereby required to give Notice before giving the same, or having given due Notice of any Works, executes the same before the Expiration of Two Days from the Time of giving such Notice, such Builder shall for every such Offence incur a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds, to be recovered before a Justice of the Peace. Penalty on Builders neglecting to give Notice.

XLII. At all reasonable Times during the Progress of any Building or Work affected by this Act it shall be lawful for the District Surveyor to enter and inspect such Building or Work; and if any Person refuses to admit such Surveyor to inspect such Building or Work, or refuses or neglects to afford such Surveyor all reasonable Assistance in such Inspection, in every such Case the Offender shall incur for each Offence a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds, to be recovered before a Justice of the Peace. District Surveyor may enter and inspect Buildings. Penalty for Refusal.

XLIII. The District Surveyor may at all reasonable Times enter any Premises, with the Exception of Buildings herein-before exempted by Name, for the Purpose of ascertaining whether any Buildings erected in such Premises are in such a Situation or possess such Characteristics as are herein-before required in order to exempt them from the Operation of this Act, and he may do all such Things as are necessary for the above Purpose; and if any Person refuses to admit such Surveyor to enter such Premises, or to inspect any such Building, or neglects to afford to him all reasonable Assistance in such Inspection, in every such Case the Offender shall incur for each Offence a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds to be recovered before a Justice of the Peace. District Surveyor may enter Buildings to ascertain as to exempted Buildings.

XLIV. If, by reason of any Emergency, any Act or Work is required to be done immediately, or before Notice can be given as aforesaid, then it shall be lawful to do the Act or Work so required to be done, upon Condition that before the Expiration of Twenty-four Hours after such Act or Work has been begun, Notice thereof is given to the District Surveyor. In case of Emergency, Works may be commenced without Notice.

PROCEEDINGS BY DISTRICT SURVEYORS IN CASE OF IRREGULARITY.

XLV. In the following Cases, that is to say,— Notice by District Surveyor in case of Irregularity.

If in erecting any Building, or in doing any Work to, in, or upon any Building, anything is done contrary to any of the Rules of this Act, or anything required by this Act is omitted to be done; or

In Cases where due Notice has not been given,—

If the District Surveyor, on surveying or inspecting any Building or Work, finds that the same is so far advanced that he cannot ascertain whether anything has been done contrary to the Rules of this Act, or whether anything required by the Rules of this Act has been omitted to be done;

In every such Case the District Surveyor shall give to the Builder engaged in erecting such Building, or in doing such Work, Notice in Writing requiring such Builder, within Forty-eight Hours from the Date

PART I. Regulation and Supervision of Buildings.

Date of such Notice, to cause anything done contrary to the Rules of this Act to be amended, or to do anything required to be done by this Act, but which has been omitted to be done, or to cause so much of any Building or Work as prevents such District Surveyor from ascertaining whether anything has been done or omitted to be done as aforesaid, to be to a sufficient Extent cut into, laid open, or pulled down.

On Noncompliance with Notice, Justice to summon Builder, and make Order to comply with Requisition.

XLVI. If the Builder, to whom such Notice is given, makes default in complying with the Requisition thereof within such Period of Forty-eight Hours, the District Surveyor may cause Complaint of such Noncompliance to be made before a Justice of the Peace, and such Justice shall thereupon issue a Summons requiring the Builder so in default to appear before him; and if, upon his Appearance, or in his Absence, upon due Proof of the Service of such Summons, it appears to such Justice that the Requisitions made by such Notice or any of them are authorized by this Act, he shall make an Order on such Builder commanding him to comply with the Requisitions of such Notice, or any of such Requisitions that may in his Opinion be authorized by this Act, within a Time to be named in such Order.

Penalty on Noncompliance with Order of Justice.

XLVII. If such Order is not complied with, the Builder on whom it is made shall incur a Penalty not exceeding Twenty Pounds a Day, to be recovered before a Justice of the Peace, during every Day of the Continuance of such Noncompliance, and in addition thereto, the District Surveyor may, if he thinks fit, proceed, with a sufficient Number of Workmen, to enter upon the Premises, and do all such Things as may be necessary for enforcing the Requisitions of such Notice, and for bringing any Building or Work into conformity with the Rules of this Act, and all Expenses incurred by him in so doing, and in any such Proceedings as aforesaid, may be recovered from the Builder on whom such Order was made, in a summary Manner, before a Justice of the Peace, or may be recovered from the Owner of the Premises in the same Manner in which Expenses incurred by the Commissioners herein-after named in respect of dangerous Buildings, are herein-after directed to be recovered from any Owner; and if the Owner cannot be found, or if, on Demand, he refuses or Neglects to pay the aforesaid Expenses, the District Surveyor shall have the same Power of taking and selling the Building in respect of which the Order is made, and of applying the Proceeds, as is thereby given to the Commissioners.

Penalty on Workmen, &c. doing anything contrary to Rules of Act.

XLVIII. If any Workman, Labourer, Servant, or other Person employed in or about any Building, wilfully, and without the Privity or Consent of the Person causing such Work to be done, does anything in or about such Building contrary to the Rules of this Act, he shall, for each such Offence, incur a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Shillings.

FEES OF DISTRICT SURVEYORS.

Payments to District Surveyors in respect of Matters in First Part of Second Schedule.

XLIX. There shall be paid to the District Surveyors, in respect of the several Matters specified in the First Part of the Second Schedule hereto, the Fees therein specified, or such other Fees, not exceeding the Amounts therein specified, as may from Time to Time be directed by the Metropolitan Board of Works; but One Fee only shall be chargeable with respect to any such Works done in, to, or upon any Building as are in pursuance of the Provisions herein-before contained included in One Notice; and if in consequence of any Reduction being made by the said Metropolitan Board in the Amount of the said scheduled Fees, the Income of any existing District Surveyor is diminished, the Metropolitan Board shall grant to him Compensation in respect of such Diminution.

Appointment of special Fees for Services not provided for.

L. If any special Service is required to be performed by the District Surveyor under the First Part of this Act, for which no Fee is specified in the said Schedule, the Metropolitan Board of Works may order such Fee to be paid for such Service as they think fit, and the District Surveyor shall have the same remedy for recovering such special Fee as if the same were expressly named in the said Schedule.

Periods when Surveyors entitled to Fees.

LI. At the Expiration of the following Periods, that is to say, of One Month after the Roof of any Building surveyed by any District Surveyor under this Act has been covered in,

of Fourteen Days after the Completion of any such Work as is by this Act placed under the Supervision of the District Surveyor, of Fourteen Days after any special Service in respect of any Building has been performed, the District Surveyor shall be entitled to receive the Amount of Fees due to him from the Builder employed in erecting such Building, or in doing such Work, or in doing any Matter in respect of which any special Service has been performed by the Surveyor, or from the Owner or Occupier of the Building so erected, or in respect of which such Work has been done or Service performed; and if any such Builder, Owner, or Occupier refuses to pay the same, such Fees may be recovered in a summary Manner before a Justice of the Peace, upon its being shown, to the Satisfaction of such Justice, that a proper Bill specifying the Amount of such Fees was delivered to such Builder, Owner, or Occupier, or sent to him, in a registered Letter, addressed to his last known Residence.

RETURNS BY DISTRICT SURVEYORS.

District Surveyor to make monthly Returns to Metropolitan Board of Works.

LII. Every District Surveyor shall, within Seven Days after the First Day of every Month, make a Return to the Metropolitan Board of Works, in such Manner as they may appoint, of all Notices and Complaints received by him relative to the Business of his District, and the Results thereof, and of all Matters brought by him before any Justice of the Peace, and of all the several Works supervised and special Services performed by him in the Exercise of his Office within the previous Month, and of all

Fees

Fees charged or received in respect thereof; and specify in such Return the Description and Locality of every Building built, rebuilt, enlarged, or altered, or on which any Work has been done under his Supervision, with the particular Nature of every Work in respect of which any Fee has been charged or received.

As to Certificate that Works are agreeable to Act.

LIII. Every such Return shall be signed by such Surveyor, and shall be deemed to be a Certificate that all the Works enumerated therein as completed, have been done in all respects agreeably to this Act, according to the best of his Knowledge and Belief, and that they have been duly surveyed by him.

Superintending Architect to audit Accounts of Fees charged by District Surveyors, and to report in case of Excess.

LIV. The Officer herein-after mentioned as the Superintending Architect of Metropolitan Buildings, or such other Officer as the Metropolitan Board of Works appoint, shall from Time to Time examine the said monthly Returns made by the District Surveyors; and in case any Fees therein specified appear to such Officer to be unauthorized by this Act, or to exceed in Amount the Rates hereby made payable, or in case any such Account appears to be in any respect fraudulent or untrue, he shall make his Report in Writing to that Effect to the Metropolitan Board of Works, who shall thereupon take such Steps in the Matter as they deem expedient.

POWERS OF METROPOLITAN BOARD OF WORKS.

Metropolitan Board of Works to modify Rules.

LV. The Metropolitan Board of Works may, by Order, made with the Consent of Her Majesty in Council, alter, in such Manner as they may think fit, the Rules for the Regulation of the Thickness of Walls contained in the First Schedule hereto.

Buildings to which Rules of Act are inapplicable.

LVI. Whenever any Builder is desirous of erecting any Iron Building, or any other Building to which the Rules of this Act are inapplicable, he shall make an Application to the Metropolitan Board of Works, stating such Desire, and setting out a Plan of the proposed Building, with such Particulars as to the Construction thereof as may be required by the said Board; and the latter, if satisfied with such Plan and Particulars, shall signify their Approval of the same, and thereupon such Building may be constructed according to such Plan and Particulars; but it shall not be lawful for such Board to authorize any Warehouse or other Building, used either wholly or in part for the Purposes of Trade or Manufacture, to be erected, of greater Dimensions than Two hundred and sixteen thousand Cubic Feet, unless it is divided by Party Walls in manner herein-before required.

Power of Metropolitan Board to make General Rules.

LVII. The said Metropolitan Board may, for the Purpose of regulating the Proceedings of such Applicants as aforesaid, from Time to Time issue such General Rules as to the Time and Manner of making such Applications, as to the Plans to be presented, as to the Expenses to be incurred, and as to any other Matter or Thing connected therewith, as they may think fit.

Approval of Board how signified.

LVIII. The Approval by the Metropolitan Board of Works of any Plans or Particulars, in pursuance of the foregoing Provisions, shall be signified by Writing under the Hand of the Superintending Architect of Metropolitan Buildings, and countersigned by the Chairman of such Board, or by any other Officer appointed by the Board.

Board to issue Forms of Notices.

LIX. The said Metropolitan Board may from Time to Time prepare or sanction Forms of the various Notices required by this Act, and may from Time to Time make such Alterations therein as they deem requisite; and they shall cause every such Form to be sealed with the Seal of the Board, or marked with some other distinguishing Mark; and any Notice made in a Form sanctioned by the Board shall in all Proceedings be held sufficient in Law.

Expenses of Orders to be borne by Builders.

LX. All Expenses incurred in and about the obtaining such Approval of the Metropolitan Board of Works as aforesaid shall be paid by the Builder to the said Superintending Architect, or to such other Person as the said Board may appoint, and in default of Payment, may be recovered in a summary Manner.

District Surveyor to see Plans carried into execution.

LXI. A Copy of any Plans and Particulars, approved by the Metropolitan Board of Works, shall be furnished to the Surveyor within whose District the Building to which such Plans and Particulars relate is situate, and thereupon it shall be the Duty of such District Surveyor to ascertain that the same is built in accordance with the said Plans and Particulars.

Power to Metropolitan Board to appoint Superintending Architect and Clerks.

LXII. The Metropolitan Board of Works may, for the Purpose of aiding in the Execution of this Act, appoint some fit Person, to be called the "Superintending Architect of Metropolitan Buildings," together with such Number of Clerks as they think fit; such Architect and Clerks shall be removable by the said Metropolitan Board, and shall perform such Duties as the said Board direct; but it shall not be lawful for any Superintending Architect to practise as an Architect, or to follow any other Occupation.

Superintending Architect may appoint Deputy, with Consent.

LXIII. If the Superintending Architect is prevented by Illness, Infirmity, or any other unavoidable Circumstance from attending to the Duties of his Office, he may, with the Consent of the Metropolitan Board of Works, appoint some other Person as his Deputy to perform all his Duties for such Time as he may be temporarily prevented from executing them.

Salaries to Architect and Clerks.

LXIV. There shall be paid to such Superintending Architect and Clerks such Salaries as the said Metropolitan Board may from Time to Time direct.

EXPENSES.

Power of Metropolitan Board to pay Salaries.

LXV. The said Metropolitan Board may at any Time hereafter, by Order, cause such fixed Salary as they may determine to be paid to any District Surveyor by way of Remuneration instead of Fees, provided vided the Amount of such Remuneration be not less than the Amount of the Average of the Fees for the last Three Years; and thereupon such Surveyor shall pay all Fees received by him under this Act into the Hands of the said Superintending Architect.

PART I. Regulation and Supervision of Buildings.

As to Monies received by Superintending Architect.

LXVI. All Monies received by the Superintending Architect in pursuance of this Act shall be accounted for and paid by him into the Hands of the Treasurer of the said Metropolitan Board, at such Time and in such Manner as the said Board may direct.

Metropolitan Board may pay Salaries out of Rates.

LXVII. The said Metropolitan Board may at any Time hereafter provide, either wholly or partially, for the Payment of Salaries to the District Surveyors, or to any of them, out of the Rates leviable by such Board in pursuance of the said Act for the better local Management of the Metropolis, and may thereupon abolish or reduce any Fees hereby made payable to the District Surveyors.

Expenses, how borne.

LXVIII. All Expenses of carrying into execution this Act, not hereby otherwise provided for, shall be deemed to be Expenses incurred by the said Metropolitan Board in the Execution of the said Act for the better local Management of the Metropolis, and shall be raised and paid accordingly.

PART II. Dangerous Structures.

PART II.

DANGEROUS STRUCTURES.

Survey to be made of dangerous Structures. 8 Vict. c. 84. s. 40.

LXIX. Whenever it is made known to the Commissioners herein-after named that any Structure (including in such Expression any Building, Wall, or other Structure, and anything affixed to or projecting from any Building, Wall, or other Structure,) is in a dangerous State, such Commissioners shall require a Survey of such Structure to be made by the District Surveyor, or by some other competent Surveyor, and it shall also be the Duty of the District Surveyor to make known to the said Commissioners any Information he may receive with respect to any Structure being in such State as aforesaid.

Definition of "Commissioners."

LXX. In Cases where any such Structure is situate within the City of London or the Liberties thereof, herein-after included under the Expression "the City of London," the Expression "the Commissioners" shall mean "the Commissioners of Sewers of the City of London;" but when such Structure is situate elsewhere it shall mean "the Commissioners of Police of the Metropolis," or such One of them as may be authorized by One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State to act in the Matter of this Act.

Surveyor to give Certificate.

LXXI. Upon the Completion of his Survey the Surveyor employed shall certify to the said Commissioners his Opinion as to the State of any such Structure as aforesaid.

Proceedings to be taken in respect of Certificate.

LXXII. If such Certificate is to the Effect that such Structure is not in a dangerous State, no further Proceedings shall be had in respect thereof, but if it is to the Effect that the same is in a dangerous State, the Commissioners shall cause the same to be shored up, or otherwise secured, and a proper Hoard or Fence to be put up for the Protection of Passengers, and shall cause Notice in Writing to be given to the Owner or Occupier of such Structure requiring him forthwith to take down, secure, or repair the same, as the Case requires.

On Noncompliance with Notice, Justice to summon Owner, &c. and make Order to comply with Requisition.

LXXIII. If the Owner or Occupier to whom Notice is given as last aforesaid, fails to comply, as speedily as the Nature of the Case permits, with the Requisition of such Notice, the said Commissioners may make Complaint thereof before a Justice of the Peace; and it shall be lawful for such Justice to order the Owner, or, on his Default, the Occupier, of any such Structure to take down, repair, or otherwise secure, to the Satisfaction of the Surveyor who made such Survey as aforesaid, or of such other Surveyor as the said Commissioners may appoint, such Structure, or such Part thereof as appears to him to be in a dangerous State, within a Time to be fixed by such Justice; and in case the same is not taken down, repaired, or otherwise secured within the Time so limited, the said Commissioners may with all convenient Speed cause all or so much of such Structure as is in a dangerous Condition to be taken down, repaired, or otherwise secured, in such Manner as may be requisite; and all Expenses incurred by the said Commissioners in respect of any dangerous Structure, by virtue of the Second Part of this Act, shall be paid by the Owner of such Structure, but without Prejudice to his Right to recover the same from any Lessee or other Person liable to the Expenses of Repairs.

If Owner cannot be found, Commissioners may sell Structure, giving the Surplus to Owner, &c.

LXXIV. If such Owner cannot be found, or if, on Demand, he refuses or neglects to pay the aforesaid Expenses, the said Commissioners, after giving Three Months Notice of their Intention to do so, by posting a printed or written Notice in a conspicuous Place on the Structure in respect of which or of Part of which they have incurred Expense, or on the Land whereon it stands, may sell such Structure, and they shall, after deducting from the Proceeds of such Sale the Amount of all Expenses incurred by them, restore the Surplus (if any) to the Owner.

Payments by or to the Commissioners, how made.

LXXV. All Payments hereby directed to be made by or to the Commissioners, shall, in the Cases of Payments in respect of any Structure situate within the City of London, be made by or to the Chamberlain of the City out of or to the Consolidated Rate made by the Commissioners of Sewers, and in the Cases of Payments in respect of any Structure situate elsewhere within the Limits of this Act, be made by or to the Receiver of Metropolitan Police, in the same Manner in which Payments are made by or to such Chamberlain and Receiver respectively in the ordinary Course of their Business; but no Commissioner or other Officer shall be liable in respect of any Loss that may be sustained by any Person in consequence of the Exercise by the said Commissioners of the Powers hereby given them, unless such Loss happens through the wilful Default of such Commissioner or other Officer.

LXXVI. In

Surplus how to be applied if no Demand made for it.

LXXVI. In Cases where any Surplus is hereby made payable to any Owner, if no Demand for the same is made by any Person entitled thereto within One Year, then the same shall be paid into the Bank of England in the Name and with the Privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, to be placed to his Account there to the Credit of the Owner (describing him so far as the Commissioners can), subject to the Control of the Court, and to be paid out to the Owner on his applying by Petition, and proving his Title thereto.

Fees to District Surveyor.

LXXVII. There shall be paid to the District Surveyor, or to such other Surveyor as aforesaid, in respect of his Services under the Second Part of this Act, such Fees, not exceeding the Amounts specified in the Second Part of the Second Schedule hereto, as may from Time to Time be directed by the said Metropolitan Board.

Special Fees for Services not provided for.

LXXVIII. If any special Service is required to be performed by the District Surveyor, or by such other Surveyor as aforesaid, under the Second Part of this Act, for which no Fee is specified in the said Schedule, the said Metropolitan Board may order such Fee to be paid for such Service as they think fit.

Fees to be deemed Part of Expenses.

LXXIX. All Fees paid to the District Surveyor, or to such other Surveyor as aforesaid, by virtue of the Second Part of this Act, shall be deemed to be Expenses incurred by the said Commissioners in the Matter of the dangerous Structure in respect of which such Fees are paid, and shall be recoverable by them from the Owner accordingly.

Justice of Peace may cause Inmates to be removed from dangerous Structures.

LXXX. In Cases where a Structure has been certified by a District Surveyor, or such other Surveyor as aforesaid, to be dangerous to its Inmates, a Justice of the Peace may, if satisfied of the Correctness of such Certificate, upon the Application of the said Commissioners, by Order under his Hand direct any Inmates of such Structure to be removed therefrom by a Constable or other Peace Officer, and if they have no other Abode, he may require them to be received into the Workhouse established for the Reception of the Poor of the Place in which such Structure is situate.

Powers of Commissioners to appoint Officers.

LXXXI. Subject to the Approval of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the said Commissioners may appoint such Persons at such Salaries, and make such Regulations, as they think fit for carrying into execution the Second Part of this Act; and all Expenses incurred by them not hereby otherwise provided for, shall, in the Case of Expenses incurred by the said Commissioners of Police, be deemed to be Expenses incurred by them in respect of the Police Force of which they are Commissioners, and be payable accordingly; and all Expenses incurred by the said Commissioners of Sewers shall be paid out of the said Consolidated Rate.

PART III.

Part III. Party Structures.

PARTY STRUCTURES.

Preliminary.

Definition of Building Owner and Adjoining Owner.

LXXXII. In the Construction of the following Provisions relating to Party Structures, such One of the Owners of the Premises separated by or adjoining to any Party Structure as is desirous of executing any Work in respect to such Party Structure shall be called the Building Owner, and the Owner of the other Premises shall be called the Adjoining Owner.

Rights of Building and Adjoining Owners.

Rights of Building Owner.

LXXXIII. The Building Owner shall have the following Rights in relation to Party Structures; that is to say,

(1.) A Right to make good or repair any Party Structure that is defective or out of repair:

(2.) A Right to pull down and rebuild any Party Structure that is so far defective or out of repair as to make it necessary or desirable to pull down the same:

(3.) A Right to pull down any Timber or other Partition that divides any Buildings, and is not conformable with the Regulations of this Act, and to build instead a Party Wall conformable thereto:

(4.) In the Case of Buildings having Rooms or Stories, the Property of different Owners intermixed, a Right to pull down such of the said Rooms or Stories or any Part thereof as are not built in conformity with this Act, and to rebuild the same in conformity with this Act:

(5.) In the Case of Buildings connected by Arches or Communications over public Ways or over Passages belonging to other Persons, a Right to pull down such of the said Buildings, Arches, or Communications, or any Part thereof, as are not built in conformity with this Act, and to rebuild the same in conformity with this Act:

(6.) A Right to raise any Party Structure permitted by this Act to be raised, or any External Wall built against such Party Structure, upon Condition of making good all Damage occasioned thereby to the adjoining Premises or to the internal Finishings and Decorations thereof, and of carrying up to the requisite Height all Flues and Chimney Stacks belonging to the Adjoining Owner on or against such Party Structure or External Wall:

(7.) A Right to pull down any Party Structure that is of insufficient Strength for any Building intended to be built, and to rebuild the same of sufficient Strength for the above Purpose, upon upon Condition of making good all Damage occasioned thereby to the adjoining Premises, or to the internal Finishings and Decorations thereof:

(8.) A Right to cut into any Party Structure upon Condition of making good all Damage occasioned to the adjoining Premises by such Operation:

(9.) A Right to cut away any Footing or any Chimney Breasts, Jambs, or Flues projecting from any Party Wall, in order to erect an External Wall against such Party Wall, or for any other Purpose, upon Condition of making good all Damage occasioned to the adjoining Premises by such Operation:

(10.) A Right to cut away or take down such Parts of any Wall or Building of an Adjoining Owner as may be necessary in consequence of such Wall or Building overhanging the Ground of the Building Owner, in order to erect an upright Wall against the same, on Condition of making good any Damage sustained by the Wall or Building by reason of such cutting away or taking down:

(11.) A Right to perform any other necessary Works incident to the Connexion of Party Structure with the Premises adjoining thereto:

But the above Rights shall be subject to this Qualification, that any Building which has been erected previously to the Time of this Act coming into operation shall be deemed to be conformable with the Provisions of this Act, if it is conformable with the Provisions of an Act passed in the Fourteenth Year of His late Majesty King George the Third, Chapter Seventy-eight, or with the Provisions of the said Act of the Eighth Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-four.

14 G. 3. c. 78. 8 Vict. c. 84.

Rights of Adjoining Owner.

LXXXIV. Whenever the Building Owner proposes to exercise any of the foregoing Rights with respect to Party Structures, the Adjoining Owner may require the Building Owner to build on any such Party Structure certain Chimney Jambs, Breasts, or Flues, or certain Piers or Recesses, or any other like Works for the Convenience of such Adjoining Owner; and it shall be the Duty of the Building Owner to comply with such Requisition in all Cases where the Execution of the required Works will not be injurious to the Building Owner, or cause to him unnecessary Inconvenience or unnecessary Delay in the Exercise of his Right; and any Difference that arises between any Building Owner and Adjoining Owner in respect of the Execution of such Works as aforesaid shall be determined in manner in which Differences between Building Owners and Adjoining Owners are herein-after directed to be determined.

Rules as to Exercise of Rights by Building and Adjoining Owners.

LXXXV. The following Rules shall be observed with respect to the Exercise by Building Owners and Adjoining Owners of their respective Rights:—

(1.) No Building Owner shall, except with the Consent of the Adjoining Owner, or in Cases where any Party Structure is dangerous, in which Cases the Provisions hereby made as to dangerous Structures shall apply, exercise any Right hereby given in respect of any Party Structure, unless he has given at the least Three Months previous Notice to the Adjoining Owner by delivering the same to him personally, or by sending it by Post in a registered Letter addressed to such Owner at his last known Place of Abode:

(2.) The Notice so given shall be in Writing or printed, and shall state the Nature of the proposed Work, and the Time at which such Work is proposed to be commenced:

(3.) No Building Owner shall exercise any Right hereby given to him in such Manner or at such Time as to cause unnecessary Inconvenience to the Adjoining Owner:

(4.) Upon the Receipt of such Notice the Adjoining Owner may require the Building Owner to build, or may himself build on any such Party Structure, any Works to the Construction of which he is herein-before mentioned to be entitled:

(5.) Any Requisition so made by an Adjoining Owner shall be in Writing or printed, and shall be delivered personally to the Building Owner within One Month after the Date of the Notice being given by him, or be sent by Post in a registered Letter addressed to him at his last known Place of Residence: It shall specify the Works required by the Adjoining Owner for his Convenience, and shall, if necessary, be accompanied with explanatory Plans and Drawings:

(6.) If either Owner does not, within Fourteen Days after the Delivery to him of any Notice or Requisition, express his Consent thereto, he shall be considered as having dissented therefrom, and thereupon a Difference shall be deemed to have arisen between the Building Owner and the Adjoining Owner:

(7.) In all Cases not hereby specially provided for, where a Difference arises between a Building Owner and Adjoining Owner in respect of any Matter arising under this Act, unless both Parties concur in the Appointment of One Surveyor, they shall each appoint a Surveyor, and the Two Surveyors so appointed shall select a Third Surveyor, and such One Surveyor or Three Surveyors, or any Two of them, shall settle any Matter in Dispute between such Building and Adjoining Owner, with Power by his or their Award to determine the Right to do, and the Time and Manner of doing any Work, and generally any other Matter arising out of or incidental to such Difference; but any Time so appointed for doing any Work shall not not commence until after the Expiration of such Period of Three Months, as is herein-before mentioned:

(8.) Any Award given by such One Surveyor, or by such Three Surveyors, or any Two of them, shall be conclusive, and shall not be questioned in any Court, with this Exception, that either of the Parties to the Difference may appeal therefrom to the County Court, within Fourteen Days from the Date of the Delivery of any such Award as aforesaid, and such County Court may, subject as herein-after mentioned, rescind or modify the Award so given in such Manner as it thinks just:

(9.) If either Party to the Difference makes default in appointing a Surveyor for Ten Days after Notice has been given to him by the other Party in manner aforesaid to make such Appointment, the Party giving the Notice may make the Appointment in the Place of the Party so making default:

(10.) The Costs incurred in obtaining any such Award as aforesaid shall be paid by such Party as such One Surveyor, or Three Surveyors, or any Two of them, may determine:

(11.) If the Appellant from any such Award as aforesaid, on appearing before the County Court, declares his Unwillingness to have the Matter decided by such Court, and proves, to the Satisfaction of the Judge of such Court, that, in the event of the Matter being decided against him, he will be liable to pay a Sum, exclusive of Costs, exceeding Fifty Pounds, and gives Security, to be approved by such Judge, duly to prosecute his Appeal and to abide the Event thereof, all Proceedings in the County Court shall thereupon be stayed; and it shall be lawful for such Appellant to bring an Action in One of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Law at Westminster against the other Party to the Difference; and the Plaintiff in such Action shall deliver to the Defendants an Issue or Issues whereby the Matters in difference between them may be tried; and the Form of such Issue or Issues, in case of Dispute, or in case of the Nonappearance of the Defendant, shall be settled by the Court in which the Action is brought; and such Action shall be prosecuted and Issue or Issues tried in the same Manner and subject to the same Incidents in and subject to which Actions are prosecuted and Issues tried in other Cases within the Jurisdiction of such Court, or as near thereto as Circumstances admit:

(12.) If the Parties to any such Action agree as to the Facts, a special Case may be stated for the Opinion of any such Superior Court as aforesaid, and any Case so stated may be brought before the Court in like Manner and subject to the same Incidents in and subject to which other special Cases are brought before such Court, or as near thereto as Circumstances admit; and any Costs that may have been incurred in the County Court by the Parties to such Action as is mentioned in this Section, shall be deemed to be Costs incurred in such Action, and be payable accordingly.

Power for Building Owner to make Entry on Premises to effect Works.

LXXXVI. Whenever any Building Owner has become entitled, in pursuance of this Act, to execute any Work, it shall be lawful for him, his Servants, Agents, or Workmen, at all usual Times of working, to enter on any Premises, for the Purpose of executing and to execute such Work, removing any Furniture, or doing any other Thing that may be necessary, and if such Premises are closed he or they may, accompanied by a Constable or other Officer of the Peace, break open any Doors in order to such Entry; and any Owner or other Person that hinders or obstructs any Workman employed for any of the Purposes aforesaid, or wilfully damages or injures the said Work, shall incur for every such Offence, a Penalty not exceeding Ten Pounds, to be recovered before a Justice of the Peace.

Penalty on Persons obstructing.

Security to be given by Building Owner, if required by Adjoining Owner.

LXXXVII. Any Adjoining Owner may, if he thinks fit, by Notice in Writing given by himself or his Agent, require the Building Owner, before commencing any Work which he may be authorized by this Act to execute, to give such Security as may be agreed upon, or, in case of Difference, may be settled by the Judge of the County Court, for the Payment of all such Costs and Compensation in respect of such Work as may be payable by such Building Owner.

Rules as to Expenses in respect of Party Structure.

LXXXVIII. The following Rules shall be observed as to Expenses in respect of any Party Structure; (that is to say,)

As to Expenses to be borne jointly by the Building Owner and Adjoining Owner:

(1.) If any Party Structure is defective or out of repair, the Expense of making good or repairing the same shall be borne by the Building Owner and Adjoining Owner in due Proportion, regard being had to the Use that each Owner makes of such Structure:

(2.) If any Party Structure is pulled down and rebuilt by reason of its being so far defective or out of repair as to make it necessary or desirable to pull down the same, the Expense of such pulling down and rebuilding shall be borne by the Building Owner and Adjoining Owner in due Proportion, regard being had to the Use that each Owner makes of such Structure:

(3.) If any Timber or other Partition dividing any Building is pulled down, in exercise of the Right herein-before vested in a Building Owner, and a Party Structure built instead thereof, the Expense of building such Party Structure, and also of building any additional Party Structures that may be required by reason of such Partition having been pulled down, shall be borne by the Building Owner and Adjoining Owner in due Proportion, regard being had to the PART III. Party Structures.

Use that each Owner makes of such Party Structure, and to the Thickness required to the respective Buildings parted thereby:

(4.) If any Room or Stories, or any Part of Rooms or Stories, the Property of different Owners, and intermixed in any Building, are pulled down in pursuance of the Right herein-before vested in any Building Owner, and rebuilt in conformity with this Act, the Expense of such pulling down and rebuilding shall be borne by the Building Owner and Adjoining Owner in due Proportion, regard being had to the Use that each Owner makes of such Rooms or Stories:

(5.) If any Arches or Communications, or any Parts thereof, are pulled down in pursuance of the Right herein-before vested in any Building Owner, and rebuilt in conformity with this Act, the Expense of such pulling down and rebuilding shall be borne by the Building Owner and Adjoining Owner in due Proportion, regard being had to the Use that each Owner makes of such Arches or Communications:

As to Expenses to be borne by Building Owner:

(6.) If any Party Structure or External Wall built against the same is raised in pursuance of the Power herein-before vested in any Building Owner, the Expense of raising the same, and of making good all such Damage, and of carrying up to the requisite Height all such Flues and Chimnies as are herein-before required to be made good and carried up, shall be borne by the Building Owner:

(7.) If any Party Structure which is of proper Materials and sound, or not so far defective or out of repair as to make it necessary or desirable to pull down the same, is pulled down and rebuilt by the Building Owner, the Expense of pulling down and rebuilding the same, and of making good all such Damage as is herein-before required to be made good, shall be borne by the Building Owner:

(8.) If any Party Structure is cut into by the Building Owner, the Expense of cutting into the same, and of making good any Damage herein-before required to be made good, shall be borne by such Building Owner:

(9.) If any Footing, Chimney Breast, Jambs, or Floor is cut away in pursuance of the Powers herein-before vested in any Building Owner, the Expense of such cutting away, and of making good any Damage herein-before required to be made good, shall be borne by the Building Owner.

Account of Expenses of Works to be delivered to Adjoining Owner within One Month.

LXXXIX. Within One Month after the Completion of any Work which any Building Owner is by this Act authorized or required to execute, and the Expense of which is in whole or in part to be borne by an Adjoining Owner, such Building Owner shall deliver to the Adjoining Owner an Account in Writing of the Expense of the Work, specifying any Deduction to which such Adjoining Owner or other Person may be entitled in respect of old Materials, or in other respects; and every such Work as aforesaid shall be estimated and valued at fair average Rates and Prices, according to the Nature of the Work and the Locality, and the Market Price of Materials and Labour at the Time.

Adjoining Owner may appeal against Account.

XC. At any Time within One Month after the Delivery of such Account, the Adjoining Owner, if dissatisfied therewith, may declare his Dissatisfaction to the Party delivering the same, by Notice in Writing given by himself or his Agent, and specifying his Objections thereto; and upon such Notice having been given, a Difference shall be deemed to have arisen between the Parties, and such Difference shall be determined in manner herein-before provided for the Determination of Differences between Building and Adjoining Owners.

Building Owner may recover, if no Appeal made.

XCI. If within such Period of One Month as aforesaid the Party receiving such Account does not declare in manner aforesaid his Dissatisfaction therewith, he shall be deemed to have accepted the same, and shall pay the same, on Demand, to the Party delivering the Account, and if he fails to do so, the Amount so due may be recovered as a Debt.

Penalty on Delay of Payment by Adjoining Owner.

XCII. Where the Adjoining Owner is liable to contribute to the Expenses of building any Party Structure, until such Contribution is paid, the Building Owner at whose Expense the same was built shall stand possessed of the sole Property in such Structure.

As to Expenses incurred on Requisition of Adjoining Owner.

XCIII. Where any Building Owner has incurred any Expenses on the Requisition of an Adjoining Owner, the Adjoining Owner making such Requisition shall be liable for all such Expenses, and in default of Payment, the same may be recovered from him as a Debt.

Penalty on Building Owner failing to execute required Works.

XCIV. Where any Building Owner is, by the Third Part of this Act, liable to make good any Damage he may occasion to the Property of the Adjoining Owner by any Works authorized to be executed by him, or to do any other Thing upon Condition of doing which, his Right to execute such Works is hereby limited to arise, and such Building Owner fails within a reasonable Time to make good such Damage or to do such Thing, he shall incur a Penalty, to be recovered before a Justice of the Peace, not exceeding Twenty Pounds for each Day during which such Failure continues.

Consent how given on behalf of Persons under Disability.

XCV. Where, in pursuance of this Act, any Consent is required to be given, any Notice to be served, or any other Thing to be done by, on, or to any Owner under Disability, such Consent may be given, such such Notice may be served, and such Thing may be done by, on, or to the following Persons, on behalf of such Persons under Disability; that is to say,

By, on, or to a Husband, on behalf of his Wife:

By, on, or to a Trustee, on behalf of his Cestuique Trust:

By, on, or to a Guardian or Committee, on behalf of an Infant, Idiot, or Lunatic.

Consent how given on behalf of Persons not to be found.

XCVI. Where any Consent is required to be given or any other Thing to be done by any Owner in pursuance of this Act, if there is no Owner capable of giving such Consent or of doing such Thing, and no Person empowered by this Act to give such Consent or to do such Thing on behalf of such Owner, or if any Owner so capable, or any Person so empowered, cannot be found, the Judge of the County Court shall have Power to give such Consent, or do or cause to be done such Thing on behalf of such Owner, upon such Terms and subject to such Conditions as he may think fit, having regard alike to the Nature and Purpose of the Subject Matter in respect of which such Consent is to be given, and to the fair Claims of the Parties on whose Behalf such Consent is to be given; and such Judge shall have Power to dispense with the Service of any Notice which would otherwise be required to be served.

PART IV.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

PART IV. Miscellaneous Provisions.

Payment of Expenses by Owners.

XCVII. Where it is hereby declared that Expenses are to be borne by the Owner of any Premises (including in the Term "Owner" the Adjoining and Building Owner respectively), the following Rules shall be observed with respect to the Payment of such Expenses:

(1.) The Owner immediately entitled in possession to such Premises, or the Occupier thereof, shall in the first instance pay such Expenses, with this Limitation, that no Occupier shall be liable to pay any Sum exceeding in Amount the Rent due, or that will thereafter accrue due from him, in respect of such Premises during the Period of his Occupancy:

(2.) If there are more Owners than One, every Owner shall be liable to contribute to such Expenses in proportion to his Interest:

(3.) If any Difference arises as to the Amount of Contribution, such Difference shall be decided by Arbitration, to be conducted in manner directed by the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845; and for that Purpose the Clauses of the said Act with respect to the Settlement of Disputes by Arbitration shall be incorporated with this Act:

(4.) If some of the Owners liable to Contribution cannot be found, the Deficiency so arising shall be divided amongst the Parties that can be found:

(5.) Any Occupier of Premises, who has paid any Expenses under this Act, may deduct the Amount so paid from any Rent payable by him to any Owner of the same Premises; and any Owner of Premises, who has paid more than his due Proportion of any Expenses, may deduct the Amount so overpaid from any Rent that may be payable by him to any other Owner of the same Premises:

(6.) If Default is made by any Owner or Occupier in Payment of any Expenses hereby made payable by him in the first instance, or if Default is made by any Owner in Payment of any other Expenses or Monies due from him by way of Contribution, or otherwise, in pursuance of this Act, then in addition to any other Remedies hereby provided, such Expenses and Monies, if arising in respect of any Matter within the Provisions of the Third Part of this Act, may be recovered as a Debt in due Course of Law, but if arising in respect of any other Matter under this Act, may be recovered in a summary Manner.

Rules as to Service of Notices, Summonses, and Orders.

XCVIII. The following Rules shall be observed with respect to the giving or Service of any Notice, Summons, or Order directed to be given or served under this Act in Cases not herein-before provided for:

(1.) A Notice, Summons, or Order may in all Cases be served personally:

(2.) A Notice, Summons, or Order may be served on any Builder by leaving the same, or sending it in a registered Letter addressed to him at his Place of Address, as stated by him to the District Surveyor, or by putting up such Notice, Summons, or Order on a conspicuous Part of the Building or Premises to which the same relates:

(3.) A Notice, Summons, or Order may be served on the Owner or Occupier of any Premises, by leaving the same with the Occupier of such Premises, or with some Inmate of his Abode, or, if there is no Occupier, by putting up such Notice, Summons, or Order on a conspicuous Part of the Building or Premises to which the same relates; and it shall not be necessary to name the Owner or Occupier of such Premises; nevertheless, when the Owner of any such Premises and his Residence, or that of his Agent, are known to the Party by whom, or on whose Behalf, any Notice, Summons, or Order is intended to be served, it shall be the Duty of such Party to send every such Notice, Summons, or Order by the Post in a registered Letter addressed to the Residence, or last known Residence of such Owner or of his Agent:

(4.) A Notice, Summons, or Order may be served on any District Surveyor by leaving the same at his Office.

XCIX. When-

PART IV. Miscellaneous Provisions.

As to Things authorized to be done by a County Court. 11 & 12 Vict. c. lxxi.

XCIX. Whenever any Thing is hereby authorized to be done by a County Court, it may be done as follows; that is to say, if such Thing arises in respect of any Structure, or other Subject Matter situate within the City of London, or the Liberties thereof, by the Sheriffs Court established by a Local Act passed in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-one, intituled An Act for the more easy Recovery of Small Debts and Demands within the City of London or the Liberties thereof, and if such Thing arises in respect of any Structure, or other Subject Matter situate elsewhere, by the County Court having Jurisdiction within the District in which such Structure or other Subject Matter is situate.

Manner of determining Differences.

C. In Cases where Jurisdiction is hereby given to a County Court, such Court may, from Time to Time, make such Order in respect of Matters so brought before it as it may think fit, with Power to settle the Time and Manner of executing any Work, or of doing any other Thing, and to put the Parties to the Case upon such Terms, as respects the Execution of the Work, as it thinks fit: It shall also have Power to award or refuse Costs according to Circumstances, and to settle the Amount thereof.

Form of Proceedings in County Court.

CI. Proceedings in any County Court, in respect of any Matter arising under this Act, shall be conducted in the same Manner as Proceedings are conducted in any Case within the ordinary Jurisdiction of such Court, or as near thereto as Circumstances permit; and Orders made by the Judge of any such Court may be enforced by Execution, Committal, or otherwise, in a similar Manner to that in which the Orders of such Court are ordinarily enforced.

Appeal from Decision of County Court.

CII. If either Party in any Case, over which Jurisdiction is hereby given to a County Court, feels aggrieved with the Decision of such Court in respect of any Point of Law, or the Admission or Rejection of any Evidence, he may appeal therefrom in the same Manner, and upon the same Terms, in and upon which he might have appealed from the Decision of such Court in any Case within the ordinary Jurisdiction of such Court, or as near thereto as Circumstances permit; but no such Appeal shall be allowed, unless the Value of the Matter in difference between the Parties exceeds Fifty Pounds; and the Opinion of the Judge before whom the Case is tried as to such Value shall be conclusive.

Recovery of Penalties.

CIII. All Penalties under this Act, and all Fees, Monies, Costs, or Expenses by this Act directed to be recovered in a summary Manner, may be recovered in manner directed by an Act passed in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter Forty-three, intituled An Act to facilitate the Performance of the Duties of Justices of the Peace out of Sessions within England and Wales with respect to summary Convictions and Orders; and whenever any Thing is hereby authorized or required to be done by or before a Justice of the Peace it may be done as follows; that is to say, if such Thing arises in respect of any Building or Wall situate within the City of London, by or before One or more Justice or Justices of the Peace for the said City, or by any Metropolitan Police Magistrate, and if such Thing arises in respect of any Building or Wall situate elsewhere within the Limits of this Act, by or before any Metropolitan Police Magistrate.

Application of Penalties.

CIV. Any Justice of the Peace, in any Case over which Jurisdiction is hereby given to him, may make such Order as to the Costs of any Proceedings of which he has cognizance, as he thinks just; he may also direct the whole or any Part of any Penalty imposed by him under this Act, to be applied in or towards Payment of the Costs of the Proceedings; and, subject to such Direction, all Penalties shall be paid into the Hands of the Treasurer of the said Metropolitan Board, to be applied in such Manner as the said Board thinks fit.

Provisions as to Limitation of Time when due Notice has not been given.

CV. In Cases where any Building has been erected, or Work done without due Notice being given to the District Surveyor, the District Surveyor may, at any Time within One Month after he has discovered that such Building has been erected or Work done, enter the Premises for the Purpose of seeing that the Regulations of this Act have been complied with, and the Time during which the District Surveyor may take any Proceeding, or do anything authorized or required by this Act to be done by him, in respect of such Building or Work, shall begin to run from the Date of his discovering that such Building has been erected or Work done.

Power to appeal to Superior Courts.

CVI. In every Case, except in respect of Fees of a District Surveyor, in which Jurisdiction is hereinbefore given to a Justice of the Peace, if either Party to any such Case is dissatisfied with the Determination of the Justice so convicting, in respect of any Point of Law, or of the Admission or Rejection of any Evidence, such Party may, upon giving Notice within Seven Days to the other Party of his Intention to appeal, appeal therefrom to any of the Superior Courts of Common Law at Westminster; subject to this Restriction, that no such Appeal shall be made by any District Surveyor except with the Consent of the Justice before whom the Case is tried, and that no such Appeal shall be made by any other Party to the Case except upon giving such Security for Costs, and, if the Case requires it, in addition thereto, such Undertaking in respect of desisting, in the meantime, from any Works complained of, or in respect of any other Matter or Thing arising in the Case, as the Justice thinks fit.

Form of Appeal.

CVII. Any Appeal so made shall be in the Form of a Special Case, to be agreed on by both Parties, or, if the Parties cannot agree, to be settled by the Justice from whose Decision the Appeal is made; and such Case shall be transmitted by the Appellant to the Rule Department of the Master's Office in the Court in which the Appeal is to be brought, and be heard in manner provided by the Practice of such Court.

CVIII. No

Notice of Action.

CVIII. No Writ or Process shall be sued out against any District Surveyor or other Person for anything done or intended to be done under the Provisions of this Act, until the Expiration of One Month next after Notice in Writing has been delivered to him, or left at his Office or usual Place of Abode, stating the Cause of Action, and the Name and Place of Abode of the intended Plaintiff, and of his Attorney or Agent in the Cause; and, upon the Trial of any such Action, the Plaintiff shall not be permitted to go into Evidence of any Cause of Action which is not stated in such last-mentioned Notice; and unless such Notice is proved, the Jury shall find for the Defendant; and every such Action shall be brought or commenced within Six Months next after the Accrual of the Cause of Action, and not afterwards; and shall be laid and tried in the County or Place where the Cause of Action occurred, and not elsewhere; and the Defendant shall be at liberty to plead the General Issue, and give this Act and all special Matter in Evidence thereunder.

PART V.

Part V. Repeal of former Acts, and temporary Provisions.

REPEAL OF FORMER ACTS, AND TEMPORARY PROVISIONS.

REPEAL.

Repeal of 7 & 8 Vict. c. 84., except ss. 54. to 63., and 9 & 10 Vict. c. 5.

CIX. From and after the Commencement of this Act, the following Acts, that is to say, an Act passed in the Eighth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-four, and intituled An Act for regulating the Construction and the Use of Buildings in the Metropolis and its Neighbourhood, with the Exception of the Sections relating to dangerous and noxious Businesses, and numbered respectively Fifty-four, Fifty-five, Fifty-six, Fifty-seven, Fifty-eight, Fifty-nine, Sixty, Sixty-one, Sixty-two, and Sixty-three, and an Act passed in the Ninth Year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Five, and intituled An Act to amend an Act for regulating the Construction and Use of Buildings in the Metropolis and its Neighbourhood, are throughout the Limits of this Act and elsewhere hereby repealed, subject to the following Provisions; that is to say,

1. That such Repeal shall not affect any Proceedings authorized to be taken by the said Acts or either of them in respect of any Act, Omission, Penalty, Matter, or Thing, and pending before the Official Referees or any other Tribunal at the Time of the Commencement of this Act:
2. That in Cases where any Act, Omission, or Thing has occurred previously to the Time of the Commencement of this Act, in respect of which, if this Act had not passed, Proceedings might have been taken under the said Acts, or either of them, then Proceedings in respect of such Act, Omission, or Thing may be had under this Act in manner following; that is to say, if the Matter in question is anything relating to the Rights of Building and Adjoining Owners in respect of Party Structures, Proceedings may be had in the County Court, but if the Matter in question relates to the Recovery of any Penalty or to any other Thing, Proceedings may be had before any Justice of the Peace:
3. That so much of the Act of the Fourteenth Year of King George the Third, Chapter Seventy-eight, as was excepted from the Operation of the said Act of the Eighth Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter Eighty-four; (that is to say,) the Sections numbered respectively Seventy-four, Seventy-five, Seventy-six, Seventy-seven, Seventy-eight, Eighty, Eighty-one, Eighty-two, Eighty-three, Eighty-four, Eighty-five, and Eighty-six, shall continue in full Force.

14 G. 4. c. 78. ss. 74. to 78., and 80. to 86., to continue in force.

As to Contracts made previously to passing of Act.

CX. Any Contract made, previously to the passing of this Act, for the Erection of a new Building, shall be carried into effect in the same Manner as if this Act had been passed at the Time of the making thereof, and the necessary Deviations from the Terms of such Contract may be made accordingly; and if any Dispute arises in respect of any Loss sustained by any Party to such Contract by reason of such necessary Deviation, such Dispute shall be determined by the County Court; and whenever any Costs or Expenses have been paid by any Owner in pursuance of this Act, then as to any Structure held under any Lease or Agreement made previously to the Commencement of this Act it shall be lawful for such Owner to recover the same from the Persons hitherto liable by Law, or by such existing Lease or Contract, to maintain or repair the Structure in respect of which such Costs and Expenses have been incurred.

Rights not affected.

CXI. Nothing herein contained shall vary or affect the Rights or Liabilities as between Landlord and Tenant under any Contract between them.

As to Iron Buildings constructed before this Act comes into operation.

CXII. In Cases where any Iron Building has been constructed, or is in the Progress of Construction, previously to the Time at which this Act comes into operation, and Doubts are entertained whether such Building is permitted by Law, any Person interested in such Building may make an Application to the Commissioners of Works and Buildings, to signify their Approval of such Building; and the Commissioners of Works and Buildings, upon being satisfied of the Stability of such Building, may approve of the same, and upon such Approval being given such Building shall be deemed to have been constructed in manner permitted by Law, and this Section shall come into operation immediately after the passing of this Act.

Compensation to Official Referees and Registrar.

CXIII. The Official Referees and Registrar of Metropolitan Buildings may, within Six Months from the Time at which this Act comes into operation, apply to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for Compensation in respect of the Loss they have sustained by reason of the Abolition of their Offices; and the Commissioners shall take any such Application into consideration, and award such Compensation, sation, either by way of a gross Sum or annual Payment, as they think just, having regard to the Nature of the Office, the Time during which the Applicant has held the same, and generally to the special Circumstances of each Case; and any Compensation so given shall be paid out of Monies to be provided by Parliament; and such Compensation, when made by annual Payment, shall be subject to this Proviso, that if any such Official Referee or Registrar is at any Time thereafter appointed to any Public Office in respect of which he receives a Salary, the Payment of the Compensation awarded to him under this Act shall be suspended so long as he receives such Salary, if the Amount thereof is greater than such Compensation, or if not shall be diminished by the Amount of such Salary.

PART V. Repeal of former Acts, and temporary Provisions.

Compensation to Clerks in Office of Metropolitan Buildings.

CXIV. Any Person, except the said Official Referees and Registrar, who, at the Time when this Act comes into operation is employed in the Office of Metropolitan Buildings, may within Six Months from such Time apply to the Metropolitan Board of Works for Employment, and such Board shall thereupon take such Application into consideration, and they shall either employ the Applicant at a Salary not less in Amount than that which he enjoyed when in the said Office of Metropolitan Buildings, or at a less Salary, awarding to him Compensation in respect of such Diminution of Salary, or they shall award to him such Compensation, if any, as they, or in the event of the Applicant feeling aggrieved with their Decision, as the Commissioners of the Treasury think just, having regard to the Nature of the Office, the Time during which it has been held by the Applicant, and generally to the special Circumstances of the Case; and any Expenses incurred by the said Board in carrying into effect this Section shall be deemed to be Expenses incurred in the Execution of the said Act for the better Local Management of the Metropolis, and be raised accordingly; nevertheless, if any such Clerk or Servant as aforesaid at any Time thereafter is appointed to any Public Office, or to any Office under the said Metropolitan Board, in respect of which he receives a Salary, the Payment of the Compensation awarded to him under this Act shall be suspended so long as he receives such Salary, if the Amount thereof is greater than the Amount of such Compensation, or if not, shall be diminished by the Amount of such Salary; but, notwithstanding anything herein contained, the Metropolitan Board may, in the event of their employing any Person mentioned in this Section, dismiss him, with the Consent of the Treasury.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

PRELIMINARY.

Structure of Buildings.

1. Every Building shall be enclosed with Walls constructed of Brick, Stone, or other hard and incombustible Substances, and the Foundations shall rest on solid Ground, or upon Concrete or upon other solid Substructure.

Construction of Walls of Brick, Stone, &c.

2. Every Wall constructed of Brick, Stone, or other similar Substances shall be properly bonded and solidly put together with Mortar or Cement, and no Part of such Wall shall overhang any Part underneath it, and all Return Walls shall be properly bonded together.

Extra Thickness of certain Stone Walls.

3. The Thickness of every Stone Wall in which the Beds of the Masonry are not laid horizontally shall be One Third greater than the Thickness prescribed for Stone Walls in the Rules herein-after contained.

Thickness of Walls.

4. The Thickness of every Wall as herein-after determined shall be the minimum Thickness.

Height of Story.

5. The Height of every topmost Story shall be measured from the Level of its Floor up to the under Side of the Tie of the Roof, or up to Half the vertical Height of the Rafters, when the Roof has no Tie; and the Height of every other Story shall be the clear Height of such Story exclusive of the Thickness of the Floor.

Height of External and Party Walls.

6. The Height of every External and Party Wall shall be measured from the Base of the Wall to the Level of the Top of the topmost Story.

Length of Walls.

7. Walls are deemed to be divided into distinct Lengths by Return Walls, and the Length of every Wall is measured from the Centre of one Return Wall to the Centre of another; provided that such Return Walls are External, Party, or Cross Walls of the Thickness herein-after required, and bonded into the Walls so deemed to be divided:

Footings of Walls.

8. The Projection of the Bottom of the Footing of every Wall, on each Side of the Wall, shall be at least equal to One Half of the Thickness of the Wall at its Base; and the Diminution of the Footing of every Wall shall be formed in regular Offsets, and the Height from the Bottom of such Footing to the Base of the Wall shall be at the least equal to One Half of the Thickness of the Wall at its Base.

PART I.

RULES FOR THE WALLS OF DWELLING HOUSES.

Thickness of Walls of Dwelling Houses.

1. The External and Party Walls of Dwelling Houses shall be made throughout the different Stories of the Thickness shown in the following Table, arranged according to the Heights and Lengths of the Walls, and calculated for Walls up to One hundred Feet in Height, and supposed to be built of Bricks not less than Eight and a Half Inches and not more than Nine and a Half Inches in Length, the Heights of the Stories being subject to the Condition herein-after given.

3. In using the above Table the Height of the Wall is to be reckoned on the First vertical Column on the Left Hand of the Table, and the Length of the Wall on the corresponding horizontal Column. The Thickness of the Wall in each Story is given in Inches, and begins with the Wall from the Base upwards. Explanation of Tables.

Qualification in case of certain Walls.

4. If any External or Party Wall, measured from Centre to Centre, is not more than Twenty-five Feet distant from any other External or Party Wall to which it is tied by the Beams of any Floor or Floors, other than the Ground Floor, or the Floor of any Story formed in the Roof, the Length of such Wall is not to be taken into consideration, and the Thickness of the Wall will be found in the Second vertical Column in the above Table.

Condition in respect of Stories exceeding a certain Height.

5. If any Story exceeds in Height Sixteen Times the Thickness prescribed for the Walls of such Story in the above Table, the Thickness of each External and Party Wall throughout such Story shall be increased to One Sixteenth Part of the Height of the Story; but any such additional Thickness may be confined to Piers properly distributed, of which the collective Widths amount to One Fourth Part of the Length of the Wall.

Restriction in case of certain Stories.

6. No Story enclosed with Walls less than Thirteen Inches in Thickness shall be more than Ten Feet in Height.

Thickness of Walls built of Materials other than Bricks as aforesaid.

7. The Thickness of any Wall of a Dwelling House, if built of Materials other than such Bricks as aforesaid, shall be deemed to be sufficient if made of the Thickness required by the above Tables, or of such less Thickness as may be approved by the Metropolitan Board, with this Exception, that in the Case of Walls built of Stone in which the Beds of the Masonry are not laid horizontally no Diminution shall be allowed in the Thickness required by the foregoing Rules for such last-mentioned Walls.

Rule as to Buildings not being Public &c.

8. All Buildings, excepting Public Buildings, and such Buildings as are herein-after defined to be Buildings of the Warehouse Class, shall, as respects the Thickness of their Walls, be subject to the Rules given for Dwelling Houses.

PART II.

CAP. CXXIII.

An Act to defray the Charge of the Pay, Clothing, and contingent and other Expenses of the Disembodied Militia in Great Britain and Ireland; to grant Allowances in certain Cases to Subaltern Officers, Adjutants, Paymasters, Quartermasters, Surgeons, Assistant Surgeons, Surgeons Mates, and Serjeant Majors of the Militia; and to authorize the Employment of the Non-commissioned Officers. [14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS it is necessary that Provision should be made for defraying the Charge of the Pay, Clothing, and contingent and other Expenses of the Regular Militia, and of the Miners of Cornwall and Devon, when disembodied, in Great Britain and Ireland, and for making in certain Cases Allowances of Retired Pay to Subaltern Officers and Surgeons Mates and Assistant Surgeons of the Regular Militia, and of the Miners of Devon and Cornwall, and Allowances to Adjutants, Paymasters, Surgeons, Quartermasters, and Serjeant Majors of the Regular Militia who have been allowed to retire, and to Adjutants, Surgeons, and Quartermasters disabled after long Service:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Secretary-at-War to issue Pay of Regular Militia.

I. The Secretary-at-War for the Time being shall cause to be issued and paid the whole Sum required for the Regular Militia of Great Britain and Ireland (when disembodied), in the Manner and for the several Uses herein-after mentioned; (that is to say,) for the Pay of the said Regular Militia at the daily Rates following; (that is to say,)

Rates of Pay.

For each Adjutant of Infantry, Eight Shillings, and of Artillery, Nine Shillings:

For each Serjeant Major of Infantry, where One is appointed in Corps consisting of Two or more Companies, One Shilling and Tenpence, and of Artillery, Three Shillings:

For each Quartermaster Serjeant and Paymaster Serjeant (in Corps whose Establishment exceeds Four Companies) of Infantry, One Shilling and Eightpence, and of Artillery, Two Shillings and Sixpence; and to the Serjeant performing the Duty of both Quartermaster Serjeant and Paymaster Serjeant (in Corps consisting of Four Companies or less) of Infantry, One Shilling and Eightpence, and of Artillery, Two Shillings and Sixpence:

For each Serjeant of Infantry, One Shilling and Sixpence, and of Artillery, Two Shillings and Twopence:

For each Drummer, Trumpeter, or Bugler above Sixteen Years of Age, One Shilling, and under Sixteen Years of Age, Tenpence:

Pay when on Furlough.

Provided always, that when any Serjeant Major or Serjeant shall be absent on Furlough or Licence he shall during such Absence receive Sixpence per Diem less than the above-mentioned Rates respectively:

Contingent Fund.

And also at Rates varying from Two Shillings to Sixpence per Annum for each Private Man for defraying the contingent Expenses of each Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, when enrolled:

Clothing.

And the Secretary-at-War for the Time being shall give the necessary Instructions for the Provision of Clothing for each Serjeant Major, Serjeant, and Drummer on the Disembodied Staff of the Militia of Great Britain and Ireland who shall be resident at Head Quarters, and the said Disembodied Staff shall be entitled to be clothed once in Two Years.

Adjutant, &c. to reside where the Secretary-at-War shall appoint.

II. Except when employed as herein-after provided, every Adjutant and Non-commissioned Officer on the Staff of the Regular Militia, when disembodied, shall reside in such Places as shall be sanctioned by the Secretary-at-War, and every such Adjutant and Non-commissioned Officer shall forfeit his Pay for any Period during which he shall be absent, except when employed as herein-after provided, or when absent by Leave from the Colonel or Commandant of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, which Leave shall not, except in case of certified Sickness, extend beyond Three Calendar Months in One Year, nor to a greater Proportion than One Third of the Non-commissioned Officers at the same Time.

Adjutants, &c. of Militia may be employed in their Counties.

III. Every Adjutant and Non-commissioned Officer of the Regular Militia, when disembodied, and not called out for Training or Exercise, shall be liable to be employed within the County to which the Regiment, Battalion, or Company of the said Militia Staff belongs, under the Officers appointed to pay and superintend the Out-Pensioners of Chelsea Hospital, in such Manner as One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State may determine.

Adjutant to have Charge of Arms and Clothing, and to issue Money for contingent Expenses on Order signed by the Colonel. Balance to form a Stock Purse.

IV. The Adjutant of each Regiment of Militia shall have the Charge and Care of the Arms, Accoutrements, Great Coats, Clothing, Necessaries, and other Stores thereof, under the Superintendence of the Colonel or Commandant, and shall, out of the Allowance directed by this Act to be issued and paid for defraying the contingent Expenses of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, from Time to Time issue and pay such Sums of Money as may be necessary for the Repair of Arms, and other usual contingent Expenses, upon an Order in Writing signed by the Colonel or other Commandant, and after Payment of such Sums as aforesaid he shall, Three Times in the Year, make up Accounts of all such Money, and of the Expenditure thereof, showing the Balance remaining in his Hands, (which said Balance shall form a Stock Purse for the Use of the Regiment, Battalion, or Corps,) and shall transmit the same to the Colonel

Colonel or other Commandant of such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps, to be by him examined, allowed, and signed; and the said Accounts, so allowed and signed, shall be the proper Vouchers and Acquittal of such Adjutant for the Application and Disposal of such Money.

In Absence of Adjutant, Serjeants to be under Command of Serjeant Major.

V. In the occasional and unavoidable Absence of the Adjutant from the City, Town, or Place where the Disembodied Staff is quartered, or during any Vacancy in the Appointment of Adjutant, the Serjeants shall be under the Command of the Serjeant Major, or of some Serjeant who shall be appointed by the said Adjutant, with the Approbation of the Colonel or other Commanding Officer, to act as Serjeant Major during the Absence of such Adjutant; and the said Serjeant Major or acting Serjeant Major shall render the same Returns and perform such other Acts as are by Law required from the Adjutant.

Militia when called out for Training or Exercise entitled to Pay.

Volunteers attached to Regiments of Line subject to Mutiny Act.

VII. Volunteers may, with the Sanction of the Secretary-at-War, when attached to Regiments of the Line to qualify themselves for the Permanent Staff, either as Serjeants or Drummers, be allowed Pay whilst so under Instruction, but while they remain so attached, they will be under the Command of the Officer commanding the Regiment of the Line equally with the Soldiers of that Regiment, and will be subject to the Provisions of the Mutiny Act.

Certain Officers unfit for Duty may be placed upon retired Allowance, upon making Declaration.

VIII. It shall be lawful for the Secretary-at-War to place any Lieutenant, Ensign, and Surgeon's Mate of the Militia of Great Britain, or Subaltern Officer and Assistant Surgeon of the Militia of Ireland, when unfit for further Duty, upon a retired Allowance equal to and instead of the Allowance granted to him on the disembodying of the Militia at the Termination of the last War; and all such Subalterns, Surgeon's Mates, and Assistant Surgeons, to entitle them to the Receipt of such retired Allowance, shall make and subscribe the following Declaration; (videlicet,)

Form of Declaration.

'I do solemnly and sincerely declare, That I formerly served as a in the Militia; that I am not in Holy Orders; and that from the Day of to the Day of I did not hold or enjoy any Place or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under Her Majesty, or in the Colonies or Possessions of Her Majesty

'Majesty beyond the Seas, or under any other Government, besides my Allowance of per Diem 'as a of the said Militia, except my Half Pay or Civil Pension as a .'

Certain Paymasters, &c. to be placed on retired Allowance instead of reduced Allowance.

IX. It shall be lawful for the Secretary-at-War to place any Paymaster, Surgeon, or Quartermaster, when unfit for further Duty, upon a retired Allowance equal to and instead of his reduced Allowance, which may have been granted in pursuance of an Act passed in the Tenth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth; and all such Paymasters, Surgeons, or Quartermasters, to entitle them to the Receipt of such retired Allowance, shall make and subscribe the Declaration annexed to the foregoing Section of this Act.

Reduced Non-commissioned Officers, &c. not to receive Out-Pension while serving.

X. 'And whereas certain Non-commissioned Officers and Drummers of the Militia of the United King-'dom of Great Britain and Ireland have, on the Reduction of the Establishment of the Disembodied 'Staff, been placed on the Out-Pension, although not unfit for further Service:' No Non-commissioned Officer or Drummer so placed on Pension shall be entitled to receive the said Pension for any Period during which he shall be receiving Pay in the Militia.

Persons on Half Pay, &c. empowered to receive Pay, &c. during Training.

XI. Provided always, That any Person, being on Naval or Military Half Pay, or being entitled to any Allowance as having served in any of Her Majesty's Regular Forces or Navy or Marines, and serving in the Militia, may receive the Pay and Allowances by this Act directed to be paid to the Field Officers, Captains, Lieutenants, Ensigns, Adjutants, Quartermasters, Surgeons, Surgeons Mates, and Assistant Surgeons, when assembled for annual Training; and the receiving any such Pay and Allowances by any such Field Officer, Captain, Lieutenant, Ensign, Adjutant, Quartermaster, Surgeon, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon, shall not prevent such Person on Half Pay, or being entitled to any such Allowance, from receiving his Half Pay or such Allowance: Provided also, that such Person shall, in the Declaration to be taken for the Receipt of the Half Pay or such Allowance, declare that he has received or is entitled to such Militia Pay and Allowances, and shall specify the Militia Rank which entitles him to the same.

Adjutants, &c. Non-commissioned Officers, or Privates, not to lose Right to Chelsea or Kilmainham Pensions, &c.

XII. Provided always, That no Adjutant, Quartermaster, Non-commissioned Officer, Drummer, or Private Man in the Regular Militia, entitled to receive any Chelsea or Kilmainham Pension or Allowance on account of Service in the Regular Army, shall forfeit or lose his Right to the same by reason of his serving and receiving Pay in the Regular Militia; nor shall any Quartermaster, Subaltern Officer, Surgeon's Mate, or Assistant Surgeon forfeit or lose his Right to receive any such Chelsea or Kilmainham Pension or Allowance by reason of his receiving the Allowance by this Act granted to him when disembodied.

Allowance to be made for Medicines.

XIII. There shall be granted for each Regiment of Regular Militia, when disembodied, a Sum of Money after the Rate of One Guinea for every One hundred Men of each such Regiment, for the Expense of necessary Medicines for the sick Non-commissioned Officers, Drummers, Fifers, and Private Men of such Regiment, during the Period or Periods of Assembly for Exercise or Training, and also an Allowance of Twopence per Week for each of the Non-commissioned Officers and their Families of each Regiment on the Disembodied Staff at Head Quarters, for the Expenses of necessary Medicines and Attendance given to the said Non-commissioned Officers and their Families while such Regiment is not called out for Training and Exercise.

Reduced Adjutants to receive 4*s.* per Day till 31st July 1856.

XIV. In case any Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia shall have already ceased and determined, or been reduced in its Establishment, or shall cease and determine or be reduced in its Establishment during the Continuance of this Act, the Sum of Four Shillings per Diem shall be paid to such Person as was or shall be actually serving as Adjutant to such Regiment, Battalion, or Corps at the Time of Reduction, from the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, or from the Time such Regiment shall cease and determine or be reduced in its Establishment, (as the Case may be,) to the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in like Manner and subject to the same Restrictions and Conditions as the Allowances granted by this Act to Adjutants who shall by Age or Infirmity be rendered unfit for further Service: Provided always, that no such reduced Adjutant shall lose any Right he may have to Half Pay of the Navy, Army, Marines, or Provisional Battalion formed from the Militia, by reason of receiving such Allowance as last aforesaid, but shall be entitled to receive such Half Pay as well as such Allowance.

Right to Half Pay reserved.

Adjutants and Serjeant Majors entitled to Allowance under 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 44.

XV. 'And whereas certain Adjutants and Serjeant Majors are entitled to and have received certain 'Allowances in consequence of having been reduced under the Provisions of an Act passed in the 'Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of King George the Third, which Allowances have been 'continued, and as to such Adjutants augmented to Four Shillings per Diem:' All such Adjutants and Serjeant Majors shall be entitled to receive and shall receive such Allowance from the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five to the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six.

Reduced Adjutants may take such Allowance with any Pay or other Allowance under

XVI. Every reduced Adjutant entitled to any Allowance granted under the said Act of the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of King George the Third, and continued by any subsequent Act or by this Act, may receive such Allowance, together with any Full Pay, Half Pay, or Allowance which was tenable together with such reduced Allowance, under the Provisions of an Act passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, intituled An Act for amending and reducing into One Act of Parliament the Laws relating to the Militia in that Part of Great Britain called England, or under the the Provisions of the aforesaid Act of the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Years of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third: Provided always, that no such reduced Adjutant shall be entitled to receive any Allowance under this Act during the Time he shall hold any Military Office of Profit under Her Majesty, other than such as aforesaid, or under any other Government, or any Civil Office or Employment under Her Majesty, or any other Government, otherwise than according to the Provisions of this Act in relation to the Allowances granted to Adjutants on account of Age or Infirmity. 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 44. and 26 G. 3. c. 107.

XVII. 'And whereas certain Allowances have been granted in pursuance of former Acts, to Adjutants, 'Surgeons, and Quartermasters of Regular Militia who have by Age or Infirmity been rendered unfit 'for further Service:' Such Allowances shall be issued and paid, during the Continuance of this Act, in like Manner and subject to the same Restrictions as the Allowances granted by this Act to Adjutants who shall by Age or Infirmity be rendered unfit for further Service: Provided always, that no Person receiving such Allowance shall by reason thereof forfeit his Right to any Half Pay to which he may be entitled. Allowances to Adjutants, Surgeons, and Quartermasters.

XVIII. The following Allowances shall be granted and paid, under the Restrictions and Limitations herein-after expressed, to Adjutants of the Militia of Great Britain and Ireland, on the Completion of the following Periods of Service in Her Majesty's Regular Forces and in the Militia, if unfit, either by Age or Infirmity, for the Performance of the Duties of their Commissions; (that is to say,) Allowances, granted to Adjutants on Completion of certain Periods of Service.

To every Adjutant who shall have completed in the Service a Period of, (videlicet,)

Fifteen Years, of which Five Years as an Adjutant of Militia, an Allowance of Three Shillings per Diem:

Twenty Years, of which Seven Years as an Adjutant of Militia, an Allowance of Four Shillings per Diem:

Twenty-five Years, of which Ten Years as an Adjutant of Militia, an Allowance of Five Shillings per Diem:

Thirty Years, of which Fifteen Years as an Adjutant of Militia, an Allowance of Six Shillings per Diem:

Provided, that such Adjutants shall retain any Right they may have to Half Pay or to Out-Pension, notwithstanding the Grant of such retired Allowance as aforesaid; and all such Allowances shall be granted upon the Production to the Secretary-at-War of a Certificate of such Service and Disability; and upon the Order of the Secretary-at-War, founded upon such Certificate, the Paymaster General shall pay to such Adjutant the above Allowance: Provided always, that no Person shall be entitled to receive such Allowance as aforesaid who shall hold any Military Office or Employment of Profit under Her Majesty or any other Government; and that no Person who before the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine held any Civil Place or Employment of Profit under the Crown, or in the Colonies or Possessions of Her Majesty beyond the Seas, or under any other Government, shall receive any Part of the said Allowance for any Time during which he held such Civil Place or Employment, except in the Cases in which the Emoluments of such Civil Place or Employment shall not exceed Three Times the Amount of the said Allowance, and unless in such excepted Cases the Royal Consent to the holding of such Civil Place or Employment shall have been signified through the Secretary-at-War; and that no Person appointed on or after the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine to any Civil Place or Employment of Profit under Her Majesty, or in the Colonies or Possessions of Her Majesty beyond the Seas, or under any other Government, shall receive any Part of the said Allowance for any Time during which he shall hold such Civil Place or Employment.

XIX. 'And whereas certain Allowances have been granted to reduced Adjutants of the Local Militia:' The said Allowances shall be issued and paid during the Continuance of this Act, under the Restrictions and in the Manner herein-after expressed: Provided always, that in the Cases in which any such Local Militia Adjutants have been permitted to receive the said Allowances whilst holding any Civil Offices under the Crown, to which Offices they had been appointed previously to the Twenty-eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, it shall be lawful to continue the Payment of the said Allowances under the same Regulations and Restrictions as those under which the Permission was originally granted. Restrictions as to Allowances to reduced Adjutants of the Local Militia.

XX. Every Adjutant of Local Militia who shall claim under the Authority of this Act to receive any Part of the said Allowance shall, previous to receiving the same, and in order to entitle himself thereto, take and subscribe a Declaration before some One of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace in the United Kingdom, or Notary Public, or other Officer now by Law authorized to administer or receive such Declaration, or before some One of Her Majesty's Ministers, Secretaries of Embassy, of Legation, or Consuls abroad, in the Words or to the Effect following; (that is to say,) A Declaration to be taken by Adjutants of Local Militia claiming the said Allowance.

'I A.B. do solemnly and sincerely declare, That I was serving as Adjutant in the of Local Militia at the Reduction of the Staff of the said Militia in One thousand eight hundred and 'twenty-nine; and that I was not in Holy Orders during any Part of the Period for which I now claim 'to receive an Allowance, that is to say, from the Day of One thousand 'eight hundred and to the Day of One thousand eight 'hundred and ; and that I did not hold or enjoy, nor did any Person for me hold or enjoy, 'during

'during any Part of the said Period, any Place, Office, or Employment of Profit, Civil or Military, under 'the Crown or any other Government, besides the Allowance of a Day now claimed, 'except my Half Pay as a [of the Army or Navy or Marines, or of a Provisional 'Battalion formed from the Militia, as the Case may be].'

Which Declaration, so taken and subscribed, shall be produced to the Paymaster General of Her Majesty's Forces by the Adjutant claiming the Allowance: Provided always, that any Adjutant receiving such Allowance, and being on Naval or Military Half Pay, or entitled to any Allowance as having served in any of Her Majesty's Regular Forces, or Navy, or Marines, shall, notwithstanding such Militia Allowance, be entitled to receive such Half Pay or Allowance.

Allowance to Clerks of General Meetings, &c.

XXI. Where the Militia is raised by Ballot in Great Britain, Allowances shall be made and issued to the Clerks of General and Subdivision Meetings of Lieutenancy and others mentioned in Schedule A. to this Act for their Trouble and Expenses in the Execution of the Laws relating to the Militia at the Rates mentioned in the same Schedule; and where the Militia is raised in the United Kingdom otherwise than by Ballot, Allowances shall be made and issued to the Clerks of General Meetings for their Trouble and Expenses in the Execution of such Laws at the Rates mentioned in the Schedule B. to this Act.

Manner of granting Allowances.

Clerks, &c. to make Declaration of the Justness of Accounts.

XXII. The said Allowances shall be granted as follows; (videlicet,) the Account shall be certified by the Lieutenant of the County, Stewartry, City, or Place, or by Two or more Deputy Lieutenants acting for such County, Stewartry, City, or Place, or by the Lord Warden of the Stannaries of Cornwall and Devon, or by Two or more Deputy Wardens of the Stannaries of Cornwall and Devon; and the Clerks of General and Subdivision Meetings in Great Britain, and the Schoolmasters, Constables, and other Officers in Scotland, shall make a Declaration as to the Justness of the Accounts, in the following Terms respectively, before some Justice of the Peace; (videlicet,) Declaration of a Clerk of General or Subdivision Meetings.

'I do solemnly declare, That the preceding Account, so far as regards my Interest 'therein, is a just and true Account of Business performed by me for and in behalf of the Public 'Service, according to the Manner therein set forth; and the Sums claimed as disbursed were actually 'paid by me.'

Declaration of a Schoolmaster, Constable, or other Officer in Scotland.

'I do solemnly declare, That I am the Parochial Schoolmaster [or Constable or other Officer] of the District of in the Subdivision of the County 'of ; and that the preceding Account is a just and true Account of Business actually 'performed by myself for and in behalf of the Public Service according to the Manner therein set forth; 'and that I was employed on such Business the full Time therein stated; and that the Sums claimed as 'disbursed were actually paid by me.'

And the said Accounts shall be transmitted to the Secretary-at-War, who is hereby empowered to issue the Allowances according to the Rates specified in the respective Tables to this Act annexed, or such Sums as he shall think reasonable and proper.

Deputy Lieutenants may require Attendance of any Surgeon residing near Place of Meeting for Appeals.

XXIII. 'And whereas it is expedient that the Deputy Lieutenants acting in any Subdivision of any 'County, Stewartry, City, or Place in Great Britain, and the Special Deputy Wardens acting in any Sub-'division in the Stannaries of the Counties of Cornwall and Devon, should be assisted by the Advice of a 'Surgeon in deciding upon the Appeals of Persons claiming to be exempt from compulsory Service in the 'Militia by reason of bodily Infirmity, and upon the Fitness for Service of the Persons presenting them-'selves for Enrolment:' It shall be lawful for any Two Deputy Lieutenants and they are hereby empowered and required to summon, by Two Days previous Notice in Writing, any competent Surgeon residing at or nearest to the Place where any Meeting for Appeals or Enrolment shall be held to attend at such Meeting; and every such Surgeon shall, before he begins any such Examination, make the following Declaration, which Declaration any Deputy Lieutenant is hereby authorized to administer; (videlicet,) Declaration to be made by Surgeon.

'I do solemnly declare, That I will, to the best of my Ability, faithfully and truly 'report as to the Fitness for Service of the Man or Men about to be submitted to my Examination, 'and that I will not receive from any of them any Fee or Reward whatever for any such Examination.'

CAP. CXXIV.

An Act to amend the Charitable Trusts Act, 1853. [14th August 1855.]

16 & 17 Vict. c. 137.

'WHEREAS it is expedient to extend and amend the Charitable Trusts Act, 1853, as herein-after provided:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

16 & 17 Vict. c. 137. and this Act to be construed together.

I. "The Charitable Trusts Act, 1853," herein-after called "the principal Act," and this Act, shall be construed together as One Act, and any Provisions of the principal Act inconsistent with this Act are hereby repealed.

As to Salary of One Commissioner.

II. So much of the principal Act (Section IV.) as provides that after the Thirty-first Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven an annual Salary shall be paid to One only of the Commissioners besides the Chief Commissioner is hereby repealed.

Power to appoint additional Inspectors.

III. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty and Her Successors, under the Royal Sign Manual, to appoint additional Inspectors (not exceeding Three in Number) for the Purposes of this Act and the Charitable Trusts Act, 1853, and such additional Inspectors shall hold Office during Pleasure, and shall be possessed of the same Powers, Authorities, and Jurisdiction, and be entitled to the same Privileges and Emoluments, as the Inspectors appointed under the said former Act of One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

Acts of Board, how to be authenticated.

IV. Every Act of the Board may be sufficiently authenticated by the Seal of the Commissioners, and the Signature of their Secretary, or in his Absence of the Chief Clerk.

Entries in and Extracts from the Books of the Board, how to be authenticated.

V. All Orders, Certificates, Schemes, and other Documents issued under the Seal of the Board shall be deemed and taken to be the Originals, and Copies thereof shall be entered in the Books of the Board, and all such Entries may be sufficiently certified by the Signature of the Secretary, or in his Absence of the Chief Clerk: Every Order, Certificate, Scheme, and other Document purporting to be sealed with the Seal of the Board, shall be received in Evidence without further Proof; and any Writing purporting to be a Copy extracted from the said Books, and to be certified as aforesaid, shall be received in Evidence in like Manner.

The Powers of the Commissioners and Inspectors to inquire into Charities extended.

VI. The Board, or any Commissioner or Inspector, such Inspector acting under the Authority of the Board, may require written Accounts, and Statements and Answers to Inquiries relating to any Charity, or the Property or Income thereof, to be rendered or made to them respectively by all or any of the following Persons; that is to say,

Trustees or Persons acting or concerned in the Administration of the Charity, its Property or Income, or in the Receipt or Payment of any Monies thereof:

Agents of any such Trustees or Persons:

Depositaries of any Funds or Monies of the Charity:

Persons in the beneficial Receipt of any Funds thereof, or of any Income or Stipend therefrom:

Persons having the Possession or Control of any Documents concerning the Charity or any Property thereof:

And

And the Board, or the Commissioner or Inspector, may require the Persons rendering or making any such Account, Statement, or Answer to verify the same by Oath or otherwise, and may administer such Oath: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to give to the said Board or their Inspectors any Power of requiring from any Person holding or claiming to hold any Property whatsoever adversely to any Charity, or free or discharged from any Charitable Trust or Charge, any Information, or the Production of any Deed or Document whatever, in relation to the Property so held or claimed adversely, or any Charitable Trust or Charge alleged to affect the same.

Power to require Trustees and others to attend and be examined.

VII. The Board, or any Commissioner or Inspector acting as aforesaid, may require all or any such Trustees and Persons as aforesaid to attend before them respectively at such Times and Places as may be reasonably appointed, for the Purpose of being examined in relation to the Charity, and to answer such Questions as may be proposed to them, and to produce upon such Examination, any Documents in their Custody or Power relating to the Charity or the Property thereof, and may examine upon Oath or otherwise all such Persons and all Persons voluntarily attending, and may administer such Oath: Provided always, that no Person shall be obliged to travel in obedience to any such Requisition more than Ten Miles from his Place of Abode.

Orders, &c. how to be made.

VIII. All Requisitions made under the foregoing Authorities shall be made respectively by the Order of the Board, or by Precept, under the Hand of the Commissioner or Inspector making the same.

Persons not complying with Requisitions, &c., guilty of Contempt of Court of Chancery.

IX. Any Person refusing or wilfully neglecting to comply with any such Requisition, or with any Order of the Board, made under the Provisions of this Act, or the principal Act, or destroying or withholding any Document required to be produced or transmitted by him, shall be taken to be guilty of a Contempt of the High Court of Chancery, and shall be liable to be attached and committed by such Court, on summary Application by the Commissioners to the same Court or to any Judge thereof, and shall pay such Costs attending such Contempt as the said Court or Judge shall direct: Provided always, that the Court may at any Time discharge, on such Terms as it may deem just, any Person attached or committed on any such Application, or on any Application made under Section Fourteen of the principal Act.

Power to apportion Parochial Charities after Division of Parishes.

X. Where any Parish or Ecclesiastical District entitled to the Benefit of a Charity, has or shall have been divided into separate Parishes or Ecclesiastical Districts, and no Apportionment of Charities originally applicable to the Parish or District so divided, shall have been made by Parliament, or other competent Authority, the Board, in respect of all Charities, the gross annual Income whereof does not for the Time being exceed Thirty Pounds, may apportion the Benefit of the Charity between each new Parish or District, or any Portion thereof taken from the Parish or District originally entitled to the whole Benefit, and the Remainder of such last-mentioned Parish or District, in such Manner and such Proportions as, upon a Consideration of the Purposes of the Charity, the Population of each Parish or District, and other Circumstances, they may think fit, and may also apportion the principal Endowments between such Parishes or Districts, if it be thought fit, and may appoint separate Trustees of any Part of the Endowments.

Evidence as to Income of a Charity not exceeding 30*l.*

XI. The Certificate of the Board, that according to their Judgment the gross yearly Income of any Charity does not, for the Time being, exceed Thirty Pounds, shall be sufficient Evidence of the Amount of such annual Income for the Purpose of determining the Jurisdiction under the foregoing Provision.

Official Trustees empowered to call for Transfers of Stock, &c.

XII. Any Court or Judge having Jurisdiction to order the Transfer of Stock in the Public Funds, or Stock or Shares of any public Company, to the Official Trustees of Charitable Funds, shall have Power also to authorize such Trustees to call for a Transfer of and to transfer such Stock or Shares, and may also order the Payment to the same Trustees of any Principal Monies of any Charity, under the same Circumstances in which the Transfer of Stock to them may now be ordered.

Notices to be given of certain Orders of the Board.

XIII. No Order for apportioning the Benefits of any Charity shall be made by the Board, until after such public Notices shall have been given of the Proposal to make the same, as the Board may consider expedient, for insuring Publicity in each Parish or District in which the Charity is or ought to be applied, or among all Persons interested therein, nor until after the Expiration of One Month from the Publication of such Notice; and every such Notice shall contain (so far as conveniently may be) sufficient Particulars of the proposed Order to show the Objects thereof, and shall prescribe a Time within which any Objections thereto may be stated or transmitted to the Board.

Proceedings upon the Receipt of Objections or Suggestions.

XIV. All Objections which may be made to any proposed Order shall be considered by the Board, who may suspend the making thereof for further Inquiry, or may modify the same, as may be found expedient; and a Copy of every such Order when made, shall, in the Case of any local Charity, be deposited for the Space of One Month in some convenient Place within the Parish, or One of the Parishes, or the District in which the Charity is applicable, and also be open to Inspection at the Office of the Commissioners, and such Publicity shall be given thereto among all Persons interested in the Charity as the Board shall consider expedient; or if the Charity be not local, then a Copy of such Order shall be open to Inspection at the Office of the Commissioners, and public Notice thereof shall be given in such Manner as to the Board shall seem fit, and in Cases where there is a special Visitor, Notice shall be given to him.

The Official Trustee of Charity Lands constituted.

XV. The Secretary for the Time being of the Board shall be a Corporation Sole, by the Name of "The Official Trustee of Charity Lands," for taking and holding Charity Lands, and by that Name (instead of the Name of "Treasurer of Public Charities") shall have perpetual Succession; and all Land, or or Estates or Interests in Land, now vested in the "Treasurer of Public Charities" by that Name shall become, upon the passing of this Act, and by virtue thereof, vested in like Manner and upon the same Trusts in "The Official Trustee of Charity Lands," and all Provisions of the principal Act which have reference to the Treasurer of Public Charities, shall operate as if the Name of the "Official Trustee of Charity Lands," had been used therein instead of the Name of "Treasurer of Public Charities."

Power to acting Trustees to grant Leases.

XVI. The acting Trustees of every Charity, or the Majority of them, provided that such Majority do not consist of less than Three Persons, shall have at Law, and in Equity, Power to grant all such Leases or Tenancies of Land belonging thereto, and vested in the Official Trustee of Charity Lands, as they would have Power to grant, in the due Administration of the Charity, if the same Land were legally vested in themselves; and all Covenants, Conditions, and Remedies contained in, or incident to any Lease or Tenancy so granted, shall be enforceable by and against the Trustees or Persons acting in the Administration of the Charity for the Time being, and their Alienees or Assigns, in like Manner as if such Lands had been legally vested in the Trustees granting such Lease or Tenancy at the Time of the Execution thereof, and had legally remained in or had devolved to such Trustees or Administrators for the Time being, their Alienees or Assigns, subject to the same Lease or Tenancy.

Appointments of Official Trustees regulated.

XVII. The Lord Chancellor may, from Time to Time, by Writing under his Hand, appoint any Persons to be jointly with the Secretary for the Time being of the said Board, the Official Trustees of Charitable Funds, and remove any such Trustees, and every such Appointment or Removal shall be published in the London Gazette.

Such Trustees to have perpetual Succession, and may hold Funds in that Name.

XVIII. The present Official Trustees of Charitable Funds, and their Successors, to be so appointed, shall have perpetual Succession by the Name of "The Official Trustees of Charitable Funds," and may hold by that Name Stock in the Public Funds, and Stock and Shares of any public Company, Securities, and Monies, which shall respectively devolve to their Successors, the Official Trustees of Charitable Funds for the Time being, without Transfer or Assignment.

Funds to vest in Official Trustees for Time being.

XIX. All Stock in the Public Funds vested in the joint Names of Henry Morgan Vane, Thomas Hare, and Walker Skirrow, Esquires, the present Official Trustees of Charitable Funds, shall, upon the passing of this Act, be transferred by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England from their Names to the Account of the Official Trustees of Charitable Funds.

Official Trustees to keep Banking Account.

XX. The Official Trustees of Charitable Funds shall, for the Purposes of their Trust, keep a Banking Account in their official Name in the Books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and the Secretary of the Board shall keep separate Accounts of the Monies held upon such Account, and belonging to each separate Charity.

Mode of drawing on the Banking Account.

XXI. All Orders for Payment of any Money, held upon such Banking Account, shall be signed by One at least of the Official Trustees of Charitable Funds, not being the Secretary of the Board, and also by the Secretary, and shall be countersigned by One of the Commissioners, or shall be otherwise signed or authenticated in such Manner as the Lord Chancellor shall from Time to Time by Order under his Hand direct; and such Orders shall be a sufficient Authority to the Bank paying the same for all such Payments.

Trustees may transfer Stock.

XXII. Any Trustee or other Person may, on obtaining an Order of the Board for the Purpose, transfer any Stock or pay any Money to the Official Trustees of Charitable Funds in trust for any Charity.

As to Disposal of Principal Monies paid to them.

XXIII. All Principal Monies belonging to any Charity directed to be paid to the Official Trustees of Charitable Funds shall be paid to their Account at the Bank, and, subject to any Order of the Court or Judge or of the Board by which respectively the Payment shall have been authorized, shall be forthwith invested in the Public Funds in the Names of the Official Trustees of Charitable Funds, for the Benefit of the Charity to which they shall belong.

All Dividends and Interest due to Official Trustees to be placed to their Banking Account.

XXIV. The Dividends arising from all Stock in the Public Funds standing in the Name of the Official Trustees of Charitable Funds shall from Time to Time be received by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, under the Authority of this Act, for the Credit of the said Official Trustees, and shall be placed to their Banking Account accordingly; and all Dividends and Interest arising from any other Stock, Shares, or Securities standing in the Name of or held by the Official Trustees of Charitable Funds shall be paid only to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England for the Account of the same Trustees; and the said Trustees shall from Time to Time execute to the said Governor and Company all such Powers as shall be found necessary for enabling them to receive and give effectual Discharges for the last-mentioned Dividends and Interest.

For Regulation of Transfers and Payments to or by Official Trustees.

XXV. No Transfer of any Stock, Shares, or Securities shall be made to the Official Trustees of Charitable Funds, nor shall any Money, other than the Dividends or Interest of any such Stock, Shares, or Securities as aforesaid, be paid to their Account, except in pursuance of an Order of the Court of Chancery, or of some Judge thereof, or of a District Court of Bankruptcy, or County Court, or of the Board; and no Transfer of any such Stock, Shares, or Securities shall be made by the Official Trustees, except under the Order of such Court or Judge, or under the Order of the Board signed by Two Commissioners, or authenticated in such Manner as the Lord Chancellor from Time to Time by any Order under his Hand direct; and no Transfer to or by the Official Trustees shall be permitted by the Governor and Company of the Bank of England or any other Company contrary to this Provision.

XXVI. Copies

Copies of certain Orders to be sent to Board.

XXVI. Copies of all Orders made by any Court or Judge for any Transfer, Deposit, or Payment of Stock, Shares, Securities, or Monies to or by the Official Trustees of Charitable Funds, shall be forthwith transmitted to the Board by the Parties obtaining such Orders.

Indemnity to the Bank and others.

XXVII. Every Order made under the principal Act or this Act, requiring or authorizing the Transfer, Payment, or Deposit of any Stock, Shares, Securities, or Monies to or with the Trustees of any Charity or the Official Trustees of Charitable Funds, or conferring a Right to call for or to make such Transfer, shall be a complete Indemnity to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England and all Companies and Persons for any Act done pursuant to such Order; and the said Governor and Company and other Companies and Persons shall be required to give effect or to conform to every such Order, and it shall not be necessary for them to inquire concerning the Propriety of such Order, or the Jurisdiction of the Court or Judge or the Board to make the same.

Dividends on Stock in Name of Official Trustees to be carried to Account free from Income Tax.

XXVIII. All Dividends arising from any Stock in the Public Funds standing in the Name of the Official Trustees of Charitable Funds, and which shall be certified by the Board, to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to be exempt from the Property or Income Tax, shall be paid or carried to the Banking Account of the Official Trustees without any Deduction of such Tax; and all Dividends arising from any Stock in the Public Funds standing in any other Names or Name, and which the Board shall certify to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England to be subject only to Charitable Trusts, and to be exempt from such Tax, shall be paid without any Deduction thereof.

Restrictions of Charges and Leases of Charity Estates.

XXIX. It shall not be lawful for the Trustees or Persons acting in the Administration of any Charity to make or grant, otherwise than with the express Authority of Parliament, under any Act already passed, or which may hereafter be passed, or of a Court or Judge of competent Jurisdiction, or according to a Scheme legally established, or with the Approval of the Board, any Sale, Mortgage, or Charge of the Charity Estate, or any Lease thereof in reversion after more than Three Years of any existing Term, or for any Term of Life, or in consideration wholly or in part of any Fine, or for any Term of Years exceeding Twenty-one Years.

Sinking Fund to be provided for paying off Mortgages in lieu of Provision in Mortgage Deeds.

XXX. So much of Section Twenty-one of the principal Act as requires a compulsory Provision to be inserted in every Mortgage for the Payment of the Principal Money borrowed by annual Instalments, and for the Redemption and Reconveyance of the mortgaged Estates within the Period of not more than Thirty Years, is hereby repealed; but the Board authorizing any Mortgage to be made of any Charity Estate shall make such Provisions, by the same or any other Order, as to them may seem necessary, for directing the Trustees or Persons administering the Charity to discharge the Principal Debt or any Part thereof by such yearly or other Instalments, within Thirty Years from the Date of the Security, as to the said Board may seem fit, or to form an Accumulation or Sinking Fund out of the Income of the Charity for discharging the Principal Debt, or any Portion thereof within the same Period, and shall give Directions as to the Investment and Accumulation of such Fund, and the Trustees for the Time being, or Persons administering the Charity, shall carry such Order into effect.

Extension of Power of Board as to Compromise of Claims.

XXXI. The Twenty-third Section of the principal Act shall extend to authorize a Compromise or Adjustment of any Claim, Demand, or Cause of Suit against any Charity, or the Trustees or Administrators thereof, and the Order of the Board in relation thereto shall have the like Effect as in the Case of any Compromise or Adjustment for which Provision is made by the said Section.

Board may authorize Payment for Equality of Exchange, &c.

XXXII. The Board may authorize the Application of any Funds belonging to any Charity, in Payments for Equality of Exchange or Partition, or in Payment of any Expenses incident thereto, or may authorize the Trustees to raise any Money for such Purposes, by Mortgage of any Land acquired on such Exchange or Partition, or belonging to the Charity.

Power to ascertain Lands charged with Rents to Charities.

XXXIII. Where there shall be Uncertainty as to the specific Part of any Lands out of which any Rent, Annuity, or other periodical Payment, not exceeding the yearly Sum of Ten Pounds, charged upon some Part of the same Lands, for the Benefit of a Charity, shall be payable, it shall be lawful for the Board, upon the Application of the Trustees or Persons acting in the Administration of the Charity, and with the Consent of the Persons interested, according to the aforesaid Definition of "Persons interested," in the same Lands, to determine by their Order the Land charged with such Rent, Annuity, or other periodical Payment, which shall thenceforth stand charged with such Rent, Annuity, or periodical Payment accordingly, to the Exoneration of the Residue of such Lands therefrom.

Expenses of Exchanges, &c. and determining Application of Charges.

XXXIV. The Expenses incident to the Application for, and procuring of any such Order of Exchange or Partition, or Order determining the Land charged with any Rent, Annuity, or periodical Payment, shall be paid by the Trustees or Administrators of the Charity, or by the other Parties to such Transactions, or by both, as the Board may direct.

Incorporated Charities and Trustees for Charities may re-invest in Land.

XXXV. Any incorporated Charity, or the Trustees of any Charity, whether incorporated or not, may, with the Consent of the Board, invest Money arising from any Sale of Land belonging to the Charity, or received by way of Equality of Exchange or Partition, in the Purchase of Land, and may hold such Land, or any Land acquired by way of Exchange or Partition, for the Benefit of such Charity, without any Licence in Mortmain.

Order of Board for Investments

XXXVI. All Orders of the Board for the Investment of Money coming to any Charity, or the Trustees thereof, on any Sale, Exchange, or Partition, shall be carried into effect by the Trustees or Persons Persons administering the Charity; and all Monies which the Board shall order to be provided out of any Income or Property of a Charity, for the Payment of the Costs of any such Transaction, shall be provided or raised by the Trustees or Administrators of the Charity, and applied accordingly. to be carried into effect, and Cost to be raised.

XXXVII. It shall be lawful for the Board to authorize or order and direct the Official Trustee of Charity Lands, and the Official Trustees of Charitable Funds respectively, to convey Lands, and to assign, transfer, and pay over Stocks, Funds, Monies, and Securities, as the Board shall think expedient. Board may direct Official Trustees to convey Lands, &c.

XXXVIII. All Leases, Sales, Exchanges, Partitions, and Transactions authorized by the Board under the principal Act, or this Act, shall be valid and effectual, notwithstanding the Act of the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, Chapter Ten, the Acts of the Fourteenth Year of the same Queen, Chapters Eleven and Fourteen, the Acts of the Eighteenth Year of the same Queen, Chapters Six and Eleven, the Act of the Thirty-ninth Year of the same Queen, Chapter Five, and the Act of the Twenty-first Year of the Reign of King James the First, Chapter One, or any disabling Act applicable to the Charity, the Estates whereof shall be the Subject of any such Transaction. Leases, &c., to be valid notwithstanding disabling Acts.

XXXIX. It shall be lawful for the Board to prepare, and under their Seal to approve of, any Scheme for the letting of the Property or any Part of the Property of any Charity; and all Leases granted by any Trustees or Persons acting in the Management of any Charity, pursuant to or in conformity with such Scheme, shall be valid. Board may approve Schemes for letting Property.

XL. The Board may order the Bill of Costs or Charges claimed by any Attorney or Solicitor on account of Business conducted or transacted by him on behalf of any Charity, or the Trustees thereof, to be examined and taxed by the Taxing Masters of the Court of Chancery, or by the proper Taxing Officers of any of the Superior Courts at Westminster, who shall proceed to examine and tax the same Bill accordingly; and if the same shall be reduced upon such Taxation by the Amount of One Sixth Part or more of the Amount thereof, the Costs of the Taxation shall be paid by such Attorney or Solicitor, but otherwise, out of the Funds of the Charity by the Trustees thereof; and the Board may, after being satisfied as to any Bill that it contains exorbitant Charges, order any such Bill to be so taxed, notwithstanding that the same may have been paid by the Trustees of the Charity, at any Period not more than Six Calendar Months previously to such Order; and any Amount taxed off any such paid Bill shall be a Debt due from the Attorney or Solicitor to the Trustees of the Charity, and shall be forthwith paid by him to such Trustees accordingly. Power to refer Bills of Costs in Charity Matters to Taxation.

XLI. Section Twenty-seven of "The Charitable Trusts Act, 1853," shall be construed and operate as if the Words "and the Trustees of the Charity shall be legally authorized to purchase and hold such Land" had been omitted therefrom; and incorporated Trustees of any Charity shall be competent to purchase and hold Lands, for the Purposes mentioned in the same Section, without Licence in Mortmain. Construction of Sect. 27. of 16 & 17 Vict. c. 137.

XLII. Any Deed, Will, or Document relating to any Charity may be enrolled by the Board in Books to be provided and kept by them for that Purpose at their Office, and a Copy of any such Deed, Will, or Document made from such Books, and certified under the Hand of the Secretary or One of the Commissioners, shall be received as Evidence of the Contents of the same Deed, Will, or Document. Deeds, &c. relating to Charities may be enrolled at the Office, &c.

XLIII. The Fifty-fifth and Fifty-ninth Sections of the principal Act shall be construed and operate as if the Words "The Office of the Board" had been inserted therein in the Place of the Words "the Office in London of the Registrar of County Courts Judgments." Construction of ss. 55. and 59. of 16 & 17 Vict. c. 137.

XLIV. Section Sixty-one of "The Charitable Trusts Act, 1853," except so much thereof as enacts that the Trustees or Persons acting in the Administration of every Charity shall, in Books to be kept by them for that Purpose, regularly enter or cause to be entered full and true Accounts of all Money received and paid respectively on account of such Charity, shall be repealed as to all Accounts which such Trustees or Administrators shall not have been bound to render before the passing of this Act; and the Trustees or Administrators of every Charity shall, on or before the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, prepare and make out, and transmit to the Board an Account of the Endowments then belonging to the Charity, showing, in the Case of Realty not in hand, the Manner in which the same is let or occupied, and in the Case of Personalty, the existing Investment or Employment thereof, and in what Names such Investments are made; and such Trustees or Administrators shall also, on or before the Twenty-fifth Day of March next after the Acquisition of any Endowment not included in the foregoing Account, prepare and make out, in like Manner, and transmit to the Board, a similar Account of such last-mentioned Endowment, and in case of any Alienation, or Charge, or Transfer of any Real or Personal Estate of the Charity, shall on or before the Twenty-fifth Day of March then next following, transmit to the Board an Account of such Alienation, Charge, or Transfer, and such Trustees or Administrators shall also, on or before the Twenty-fifth Day of March in every Year, or such other Day as may be fixed for that Purpose by the Board, or as may have been already fixed for rendering the Accounts thereof required by the principal Act, prepare and make out the following Accounts in relation thereto; (that is to say,) Amendment of Sect. 61. of 16 & 17 Vict. c. 137. and other Provision made as to the annual Returns of Accounts by Trustees of Charities.

(1.) An Account of the gross Income arising from the Endowment, or which ought to have arisen therefrom during the Year ending on the Thirty-first Day of December then last, or on such other Day as may have been appointed for this Purpose by the Board:

(2.) An Account of all Balances in hand at the Commencement of the Year, and of all Monies received during the same Year on account of the Charity:

(3.) An Account for the same Period of all Payments:

(4.) An Account of all Monies owing to or from the Charity, so far as conveniently may be:

Which Accounts shall be certified under the Hand of One or more of the said Trustees or Administrators, and shall be audited by the Auditor of the Charity, if any; and the said Trustees or Administrators shall, within Fourteen Days after the Day appointed for making out such Accounts, deliver or transmit a Copy thereof to the Commissioners at their Office in London, and in the Case of Parochial Charities shall deliver another Copy thereof to the Churchwarden or Churchwardens of the Parish or Parishes with which the Objects of such Charities are identified, who shall present the same at the next General Meeting of the Vestry of such Parishes, and insert a Copy thereof in the Minutes of the Vestry Book; and every such Copy shall be open to the Inspection of all Persons at all seasonable Hours subject to such Regulations as to the said Board may seem fit; and any Person may require a Copy of every such Account or of any Part thereof, on paying therefor after the Rate of Twopence for every Seventy-two Words or Figures.

Board may make Orders as to Delivery, &c.

XLV. The Board may from Time to Time make such Orders as they may think fit, in relation to the Delivery or Transmission of the said Accounts, and the Forms of such Accounts, and such Orders shall be executed by all Trustees and Persons from whom the Accounts to which they may relate are required.

Application of 16 & 17 Vict. c. 137. s. 64.

XLVI. The Sixty-fourth Section of the principal Act shall apply as well to Members of any Charity within the Operation of that Act, as to Members of any Charity exempted from the Operation thereof.

Acts not to apply to Roman Catholic Charities until 1st Sept. 1856.

XLVII. Neither this Act nor the principal Act shall, until the First Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, extend, or be in any Manner applied to Charities or Institutions, the Funds or Income of which are applicable exclusively for the Benefit of Persons of the Roman Catholic Persuasion; and which are under the Superintendence and Control of Persons of that Persuasion; nor shall anything in this Act extend to any of the Cases which by the Sixty-second Section of the principal Act are excepted from the Operation thereof.

As to the Term "Charity."

XLVIII. In the Construction of the principal Act and this Act the Word "Charity" shall include every Institution in England or Wales endowed for charitable Purposes, but shall not include any Charity or Institution expressly exempted from the Operation of the Act of 1853, and Words applying to any Person or Individual shall apply also to a Corporation, whether sole or aggregate.

Act not to extend to Eton or Winchester.

XLIX. Nothing in this Act or in the principal Act contained shall extend to the Colleges of Eton and Winchester, or either of them.

SCHEDULE to which this Act refers.

MIDDLESBROUGH.

Provisional Order for the Application of the Public Health Act to the Borough of Middlesbrough, in the North Riding of the County of York.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

WHEREAS, upon the petition of not less than one tenth of the inhabitants rated to the relief of the Poor of and within the Borough of Middlesbrough, in the North Riding of the County of York, and within the boundaries of the said borough, as fixed for the purposes of an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of Municipal "Corporations in England and Wales," We, the General Board of Health, appointed for the purposes of the Public Health Act, 1848, have, in pursuance of the provisions of that Act, directed William Ranger, a Superintending Inspector, appointed for the purposes of the said Act, to visit the said Borough, within and throughout the said boundaries, and to make public inquiry, and to examine witnesses as to the sewerage, drainage, and supply of water, the state of the burial grounds, the number and sanitary condition of the inhabitants, and as to any Local Acts of Parliament in force within the said Borough, for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with water, or improving the said Borough, or having relation to the purposes of the said Act; also as to the natural drainage areas, and the existing municipal, parochial, or other local boundaries, and the boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the purposes of the said Act.

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the notices directed by the said Act, proceeded upon the said inquiry, and hath reported in writing to the said General Board upon the several matters with respect to which he was directed to inquire, and upon certain other matters in respect of which he deemed it expedient to report for the purposes of that Act.

And whereas copies of the said Report, accompanied by a notice, stating that written statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as directed by the said Public Health Act, and the time for forwarding such statements has now elapsed, and all such statements as have been received by the said Board have been duly deposited as required by that Act.

And whereas it appears upon such Report that there is a certain Local Act of Parliament in force within the said Borough, having relation to the purposes of the said Public Health Act; (that is to say,) An Act passed in the fourth and fifth years of the reign of Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act "for paving, lighting, watching, cleansing, and otherwise improving the Town of Middlesbrough, and "the neighbourhood thereof, in the North Riding of the County of York and for establishing a market "therein."

And whereas it appears to the said General Board of Health to be expedient that the said Public Health Act, except as herein-after mentioned, should be applied to the said Borough; and that provision should be made with respect to the said Local Act of Parliament, and the partial repeal, alteration, extension, and further execution thereof; but the same cannot be done without the authority of Parliament.

Now therefore, in pursuance of the power vested in the said Board by the Public Health Act, 1848, the said General Board of Health do, by this Provisional Order under my hand and seal of office, direct:—

That from and after the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order,—

1. In the construction of this Order, the same meanings shall be assigned to certain expressions which are assigned to them by the section numbered 2 in the copies of "The Public Health Act, 1848," printed by Her Majesty's Printers, unless such meanings be repugnant to or inconsistent with the context or subject matter in which such expressions occur.
2. "The Public Health Act, 1848," and every part thereof relating to corporate districts, except the section numbered 95 in the copies of that Act printed by Her Majesty's printers, shall apply to the the area comprised within the boundaries of the said Borough of Middlesbrough, as defined in the Charter of Incorporation of the said Borough.

3. The Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the said Borough shall be, by the Council of the said Borough, the Local Board of Health under the said Public Health Act.

4. Such parts of the said Local Act as are specified in the Schedule to this Order shall be repealed, except in so far as relates to anything done before the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order, and except in so far as the same repeal any other Act or Acts of Parliament.

5. The powers, authorities, and duties of the Commissioners for the time being acting in execution of the said Local Act shall cease; and such of them as are granted or imposed by the unrepealed parts of the said Local Act shall, so far as they are not repugnant to or inconsistent with the said Public Health Act, or this Order, or any byelaw which shall be lawfully made under the said Public Health Act, be transferred to the said Local Board of Health, and the officers and servants of the said Local Board, and shall be exercised as if they had been granted or imposed by the said Public Health Act, and for this purpose the unrepealed parts of the said Local Act shall be incorporated with the said Public Health Act as applied to the said Borough, and all places within the Limits of the said Borough shall be subject to the unrepealed parts of the said Local Act.

6. The said Local Board shall be the Commissioners for executing the unrepealed parts of the said Local Act.

7. All property and estate of the Commissioners acting in the execution of the said Local Act shall be transferred to the said Local Board of Health, and shall, as near as circumstances will permit, be held by the said Local Board of Health upon the same trusts, and for the same purposes, as by such Commissioners.

8. All debts, monies, and securities for money contracted or payable by such Commissioners, shall be satisfied by the said Local Board out of such parts of the said transferred property and estate as would have been chargeable therewith, if this Order had not been made; and shall be paid and satisfied by the said Local Board, as by such Commissioners.

9. Provided always, that if such property and estate be insufficient for that purpose, the deficiency shall be charged upon the rates leviable under the said Public Health Act, in the parts only which would have been chargeable with such deficiency if this Order had not been made.

10. Provided also, that if such property and estate be more than sufficient, the surplus shall be applied to the exclusive use of the same parts and to the same purposes as it would have been if this Order had not been made.

11. All expenses which shall be incurred by the said Local Board of Health under the unrepealed parts of the said Local Act, and which shall not be defrayed out of monies arising under such Local Acts, shall be deemed to be expenses incurred by such Board under the said Public Health Act, and shall be defrayed out of the rates under that Act (as the nature of the case may require); and the monies necessary to be raised for the purposes of such Local Act may be raised as under the said Public Health Act.

12. Provided always, that this Order, and the repeal of the parts of the said Local Act mentioned in the Schedule thereto, shall not prejudicially affect anything done under that Act before the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order; but notwithstanding this Order, and the Schedule thereto, all such things shall be as valid with reference to the said Local Board of Health, as if the same had been done with reference to that Board, and may be dealt with in the same manner, in all respects, as if they related to that Board, instead of such Commissioners.

13. Provided also, that this Order, and the repeal of the parts of the said Local Act mentioned in the Schedule thereto, shall be without prejudice to any penalties incurred under the said Local Act, but all such penalties may be recovered by the said Local Board of Health according to the provisions of this Order.

Given under my Hand and under the Seal of the General Board of Health this Eighteenth day of July, in the Year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

(L.S.) (Signed) B. HALL.

Schedule to which this Order refers.

The parts of the said Local Act referred to in this Order to be repealed are as follows; (that is to say,)

The sections numbered respectively in the copies of the said Act printed by the Queen's printers 1 to 88, 111 to 114, 238 to 250, 252 to 281, all inclusive, and 283.

And so much of any unrepealed part of the said Act as fixes the amount of any penalty for any offence under the said Act, wherever the penalty for such offence shall have been fixed by the Public Health Act, 1848, or by any byelaw of the Local Board of Health, made under and by virtue of the said Public Health Act, at an amount other than that fixed by the said first-mentioned Act.

Public Health (No. 2.)

WINDHILL.

Provisional Order for the Application of the Public Health Act to the District of Windhill, in the County of York.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

WHEREAS it having been ascertained from the last return for the time being made up by the Registrar General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages, that the annual number of deaths within the boundaries of the Township of Idle, in the West Riding of the County of York, has on the average of seven years exceeded the proportion of twenty-three to a thousand of the population of such Township, the General Board of Health directed William Ranger, one of their Superintending Inspectors, to visit the said Township, and to make public inquiry, and to examine witnesses as to the sewerage, drainage, and supply of water, the state of the burial grounds, the number and sanitary condition of the inhabitants, and as to any Local Acts of Parliament in force within the said Township for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with water, or improving the said Township, or having relation to the purposes of the said Act; also, as to the natural drainage areas, and the existing parochial or other local boundaries, and the boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the purposes of the said Act.

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the notices required by the said Act, proceeded upon the said inquiry in the manner directed by the said Act, and hath reported in writing to the said General Board upon the several matters with respect to which he was so directed to inquire as aforesaid, and upon certain other matters in respect of which he deemed it expedient to report for the purposes of the said Act.

And whereas copies of the said Report, accompanied by a notice, stating that, within the time directed by the said Act, written statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as required by the said Act, and the time for forwarding such statements has now elapsed, and all such statements as have been received by the said Board have been duly deposited as required by that Act.

And whereas it having appeared to the said General Board that the boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the purposes of the Act were not the same as those of the said township with respect to which the said inquiry had been made, the said Board caused the said William Ranger to visit the parts within the Boundaries proposed to be adopted for the purposes of the said Act.

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, after having given such notice as is required by the said Act, did hear all persons desirous of being heard before him on the subject of the said Report, and did make further inquiry and report according to the directions of the said Board.

And whereas copies of such further Report, accompanied by a notice stating that, within the time directed by the said Act, written statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any matter contained in or omitted from the said last-mentioned Report, or any amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as required by the said Act, and the time for forwarding such statements has now elapsed; and all such statements as have been received by the said Board have been duly deposited as required by that Act.

And whereas it appears to the said General Board to be expedient that the said Public Health Act, except as herein-after mentioned, should be applied to so much of the said township of Idle as is included within the boundaries described in the Schedule to this Order, and being the same within which the said inquiry and further inquiry have been made; but the same cannot be done without the authority of Parliament.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the powers vested in the said Board by the Public Health Act, 1848, We, the said General Board of Health, do, by this Provisional Order under my hand and seal of office, direct:—

That from and after the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming the present Order,—

1. The Public Health Act, except the Section numbered 50 in the copies of that Act printed by Her Majesty's Printers, shall apply to so much of the said township of Idle as is described in the Schedule to this Order annexed, and the said district shall be called the district of Windhill.
2. The Local Board of Health for the said district shall consist of nine persons, and the entire number shall be elected for the whole of the said district.
3. One third in number of the persons so elected shall go out of office on the twenty-fifth day of March in each year subsequent to that of the first election of the said Local Board.
4. Every person shall, at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, be resident, as in the Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be seised or possessed of real or personal estate, or both, to the value or amount of not less than three hundred pounds, or shall be so resident and rated to the relief of the poor of some parish, township, or place of which some part is within the said district, upon an annual value of not less than ten pounds.

5. At

5. At the first election of the said Local Board, Thomas Crabtree, of Windhill aforesaid, worsted spinner and manufacturer, shall have the powers and perform the duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting the said first election; and in case the said Thomas Crabtree, from illness or other sufficient cause, shall be unable to discharge such duties, or shall be absent, or shall refuse to act, then William Thomas, of Windhill aforesaid, cloth manufacturer, shall perform such of those duties as then remain to be exercised or performed.
6. The fourteen days notice of qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by owners of property in order to entitle them to vote at the said first election, shall be given to the said Thomas Crabtree, at his manufactory, in Windhill aforesaid, or in case he shall refuse or be unable to receive the same, then to the said William Thomas, at his residence, within the aforesaid district.

Given under my Hand and under the Seal of the General Board of Health, this Thirty-first day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

H. Dawson, Esq.; then to a point opposite the northern side of a highway, and along a line of fence, forming the northern boundary of a field marked No. 412, and belonging to Mr. John Clark; then along the northern side of a road to a line of fence forming the northern boundary of a field marked No. 300, and belonging to Mr. Wright; then along a line of fence forming the northern boundary of a field marked No. 660, and belonging to the Rev. Mr. Edmonson; then along a line of fence forming the northern side of the fields marked Nos. 661 and 662, and belonging to C. H. Dawson, Esq.; then along a line of fence forming the southern sides of the fields marked Nos. 663 and 670, and belonging to C. H. Dawson, Esq.; then across a highway to a point opposite the southern side of a cross road; then along the northern side of a road to a corner of the fence forming the south and west sides of the fields marked Nos. 267 and 268, and belonging to the Earl of Rosse; then along a line forming the southern side of the Leeds and Bradford Railway, to a point in the centre of the Bradford Brook; then along the centre of the said brook to the first-named point. The figures herein-before cited in the description of the said boundary refer to those on the plan of Windhill prefixed to the second report on Idle made by Mr. Ranger to the General Board of Health, and dated 4th February 1854.

CHRISTCHURCH.

Provisional Order for the Application of the Public Health Act, 1848, to the District of Christchurch, in the County of Monmouth.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

WHEREAS in pursuance of the Public Health Act, 1848, the General Board of Health, appointed for the purposes of the said Act, upon the joint petition of not less than one tenth of the inhabitants rated to the relief of the poor of and within the parish of Christchurch, in the County of Monmouth, (the number of the said petitioners exceeding thirty in the whole,) directed Thomas Webster Rammell, a Superintending Inspector, appointed for the purposes of the said Act, to visit the said Parish, and to make public inquiry, and to examine witnesses as to the sewerage, drainage, and supply of water, the state of the burial grounds, the number and sanitary condition of the inhabitants, and as to any Local Acts of Parliament liament in force within the said Parish for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with water, or improving the said Parish, or having relation to the purposes of the said Act; also, as to the natural drainage areas, and the existing parochial or other local boundaries, and the boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the purposes of the said Act.

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the notices required by the said Act, proceeded upon the said inquiry in the manner directed by the said Act, and hath reported in writing to the said General Board upon the several matters with respect to which he was so directed to inquire as aforesaid, and upon certain other matters in respect of which he deemed it expedient to report for the purposes of the said Act.

And whereas copies of the said Report, accompanied by a notice stating that within the time directed by the said Act written statements might be forwarded to the said Board, with respect to any matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as required by the said Act, and the time for forwarding such statements has now elapsed, and no such statements have been received by the said Board.

And whereas it having appeared to the said General Board that the boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the purposes of the said Act were not the same as those of the said Parish with respect to which the said inquiry had been made, the said Board caused Alfred Lamerte Dickens, another of the Superintending Inspectors appointed for the purposes of the said Act, to visit the parts within the boundaries proposed to be adopted for the purposes of the said Act.

And whereas the said last herein-before named Superintending Inspector, after having given such notice as is required by the said Act, did hear all persons desirous of being heard before him on the subject of the said Report, and of the boundaries proposed to be adopted for the purposes of the said Act; and did make further inquiry, and report according to the directions of the said Board.

And whereas copies of such further Report, accompanied by a notice stating that within the time directed by the said Act written statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as required by the said Act; and the time for forwarding such statements has now elapsed, and no such statements have been received by the said Board.

And whereas it appears to the said General Board to be expedient that the said Public Health Act, except as herein-after mentioned, should be applied to the Parish of Christchurch, that is to say, within the same boundaries as those within and with respect to which the said inquiry and further inquiry have been made; but the same cannot be done without the authority of Parliament.

Now therefore, in pursuance of the powers vested in the said Board by the Public Health Act, 1848, the said General Board of Health do, by this Provisional Order, under my hand and official seal, order and direct, That from and after the day appointed for the first election of the Local Board of Health by any Act of Parliament confirming this Order,—

1. The Public Health Act, 1848, and every part thereof, except the Section numbered 50 in the copies of that Act printed by Her Majesty's Printers, shall apply to and be in force within and throughout the entire area, places, and parts of places comprised within the boundaries set forth and described in the Schedule to this Order annexed, and shown by the red line on the map accompanying Mr. Rammell's printed Report to the General Board of Health, bearing date the 5th April 1854, being the parts within which the said inquiry and further inquiry have been made, and that such area, places, and parts of places shall be and constitute a district, for the purposes of the said Public Health Act, called the Christchurch District.
2. That the Local Board of Health, to be elected under the said Public Health Act, shall consist of nine persons, to be elected for the whole of the said District.
3. That one third in number of the said Local Board shall go out of office on the Thirty-first day of March in each year subsequent to that in which the first election of the said Local Board takes place.
4. That every person shall, at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office, by virtue of such election, be resident, as in the Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be seised and possessed of real or personal estate, or both, to the value or amount of not less than seven hundred pounds, or shall be so resident and rated to the relief of the poor of the said parish, or of some township or place of which some part is within the said District, upon an annual value of not less than twenty pounds.
5. That at the first election of the said Local Board, Thomas Morgan Llewellin, of Newport, shall have the powers and perform the duties vested in or imposed upon the chairman of the Local Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, in relation to any election by owners of property and ratepayers, and shall perform all other duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said first election; and in case the said Thomas Morgan Llewellin, from illness or other sufficient cause, shall be unable to exercise or discharge such powers or duties, or shall be absent, or shall refuse to act, then William Graham, Land Agent, of Maindee, shall exercise and perform such of the said powers and duties as then remain to be exercised or performed; and the said chairman may be elected a member of the said Local Board.

6. That the fourteen days notice of qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by owners of property in order to entitle them to vote at the said first election shall be given to the said Thomas Morgan Llewellin at Mr. William Graham's residence, Gore House, Maindee; or in case he shall refuse or be unable to receive the same, then to the said William Graham, at his residence, Gore House aforesaid.

Given under my Hand and under the Seal of the General Board of Health, this Thirty-first day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

(L.S.) (Signed) B. HALL.

Schedule to which this Order refers.

The boundary of the District of the Christchurch Local Board of Health, referred to in the preceding Order, commences at a point where the boundary of the district of the Newport Local Board of Health intersects the southern side of the Old Christchurch Road, thence proceeds easterly along the southern boundary of such Road until it reaches a fence dividing the properties of Messrs. Edward Locke and James Rennie; thence it continues in a south-westerly direction along that fence dividing the properties of James Rennie on the south-east from the properties of Edward Locke, William Evans, Henry Farr, and William Graham, until it reaches the turnpike road leading from Newport to Chepstow; thence it turns in a north-westerly direction along the northern side of that road as far as a stream of water known as Eve's Well Stream. It then follows the course of that stream in a southerly direction, crossing the line of the South Wales Railway, until it reaches the northern angle of a field belonging to Sir Thomas Phillips, numbered in the tithe map 978. It then follows the northern boundary of Sir Thomas Phillips's land until it intersects the district of the Newport Local Board of Health, and continues in a northerly direction along the boundary of such District to the point first named.

KEIGHLEY.

Provisional Order for the Application of the Public Health Act, 1848, to the Town of Keighley, in the West Riding of the County of York.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

WHEREAS in pursuance of the Public Health Act, 1848, the General Board of Health, appointed for the purposes of the said Act, upon the joint petition of not less than one tenth of the inhabitants rated to the relief of the poor of and within the Town of Keighley in the West Riding of the County of York, (the number of the said petitioners exceeding thirty in the whole,) directed William Ranger, a Superintending Inspector, appointed for the purposes of the said Act, to visit the said Town, and to make public inquiry, and to examine witnesses as to the sewerage, drainage, and supply of water, the state of the burial grounds, the number and sanitary condition of the inhabitants, and as to any Local Acts of Parliament in force within the said Town for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with water, or improving the said Town, or having relation to the purposes of the said Act; also, as to the natural drainage areas, and the existing parochial or other local boundaries and the boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the purposes of the said Act:

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the notices required by the said Act, proceeded upon the said inquiry in the manner directed by the said Act, and hath reported in writing to the said General Board upon the several matters with respect to which he was so directed to inquire as aforesaid, and upon certain other matters in respect of which he deemed it expedient to report for the purposes of the said Act.

And whereas copies of the said Report, accompanied by a notice stating that, within the time directed by the said Act, written statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as required by the said Act, and the time for forwarding such statements has now elapsed, and no such statements have been received by the said Board.

And whereas it appears upon such Report that there is a certain Local Act in force within the said Town having relation to the purposes of the said Public Health; that is to say, an Act passed in the Fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for paving, lighting, cleansing, "watching, regulating, and otherwise improving the town of Keighley, within the Parish of Keighley, "in the West Riding of the County of York."

And whereas it appears to the said General Board to be expedient that the said Public Health Act, except as herein-after mentioned, should be applied to the said Town, and within the same boundaries as those within and with respect to which the said inquiry and further inquiries have been made, and that provision should be made in respect to the said Local Act of Parliament, and the repeal, alteration, extension, and future execution thereof; but the same cannot be done without the authority of Parliament.

Now therefore, in pursuance of the powers vested in the said Board by the Public Health Act, 1848, We, the said General Board of Health, do, by this Provisional Order under the hand of the President and official seal, order and direct:—

1. That

1. That from and after the day appointed for the first election of the Local Board of Health by any Act of Parliament confirming this Order, the Public Health Act shall apply to and be in force within and throughout the said Town, and that the said Town shall be and constitute a district, called the Keighley District, for the purposes of the said Public Health Act accordingly.
2. That the Local Board of Health to be elected under the said Public Health Act shall consist of twenty-one persons.
3. That one third in number of the said Local Board shall go out of office on the day next after the expiration of a year from the day appointed by Parliament for the first election of the said Local Board, and thence annually.
4. That every person shall, at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, be resident, as in the Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be rated to the relief of the poor of the town of Keighley, or of some township or place of which some part is within the said district, upon an annual value of not less than ten pounds.
5. That at the first election of the said Local Board, Richard Metcalfe, of Keighley, Solicitor, shall have the powers and perform the duties vested in or imposed upon the chairman of the Local Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, in relation to any election by owners of property and ratepayers, and shall perform all other duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said first election; and in case the said Richard Metcalfe, from illness or other sufficient cause, shall be unable to exercise or discharge such powers or duties, or shall be absent, or shall refuse to act, then that William Burr, of Keighley, Solicitor, shall exercise and perform such of the said powers and duties as then remain to be exercised or performed; and the said Chairman may be elected a member of the said Local Board.
6. That the fourteen days notice of qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by owners of property in order to entitle them to vote at the said first election shall be given to Richard Metcalfe aforesaid, at his residence, Keighley, or in case he shall refuse or be unable to receive the same, then to William Burr aforesaid, at his residence, Keighley.
7. That from and after the day fixed for the said first election by any Act of Parliament confirming this Order, such parts of the said Local Act as are specified in the Schedule hereunto annexed shall be repealed, except in so far as the same repeal any other Act or Acts of Parliament.
8. That from and after the day fixed for the said first election by any Act of Parliament confirming this Order, all the powers, authorities, and duties of the Commissioners for the time being constituted and appointed for putting the said Local Act into execution shall wholly cease and determine, and that those of their treasurers, clerks, assessors, collectors, receivers, surveyors, and other officers and persons shall cease and determine at such time as shall be appointed by the said Local Board by order under their hands and seal of office.
9. That from and after the day fixed for the said first election by any Act of Parliament confirming this Order, such of the said powers, authorities, and duties as are granted or imposed by so much of the said Local Act as shall not be repealed according to the provisions of this Order, and so far as the same are not repugnant to or inconsistent with the said Public Health Act, or this Order, or any Byelaw which shall be lawfully made under the said Public Health Act, shall be transferred to and be had and exercised by the said Local Board of Health, and by such of the committees, officers, and servants of the said Local Board as shall be appointed by such Board in that behalf under the said Public Health Act, or as shall continue in office under the said Local Board, and shall be had and exercised in the same manner as nearly as may be as if such powers, authorities, privileges, and duties had been granted or imposed by the said Public Health Act.
10. That from and after the day fixed for the said first election by any Act of Parliament confirming this Order, the said Local Board shall be the Commissioners for executing such parts of the said Local Act as shall not be repealed according to the Provisions of this Order.
11. That the unrepealed parts of the said Local Act shall be incorporated with the Public Health Act as applied to the said district, and the several clauses and provisions of the said Public Health Act may (whenever it may be practicable so to do) be applied to all or any cases, matters, and things which shall arise under such parts of the said Local Act as shall not be repealed according to this Order.
12. That from and after the day fixed for the said first election by any Act of Parliament confirming this Order, all lands, buildings, works, rates, tolls, duties, and hereditaments, utensils, materials, books, plans, maps, deeds, effects, contracts, papers, monies, and securities for money, and all other property and estate whatsoever belonging to or vested in the Commissioners acting in the execution of the said Local Act, shall be transferred to, vested in, belong to, and be recoverable by the said Local Board of Health, as fully as the same would or could have belonged to, been vested in, or recovered by such Commissioners, and shall, as near as circumstances will permit, be held by the said Local Board of Health upon the same trusts and for the same uses, intents, and purposes as the same were or would be held by such Commissioners.
13. That from and after the day fixed for the said first election by any Act of Parliament confirming this Order, all bonds, mortgages, annuities, contracts, debts, monies, and securities for money, made, made, given, contracted, or payable by such Commissioners, shall be paid and satisfied by the said Local Board out of such parts of the said transferred property and estate as would or ought to have been charged or chargeable in respect of the same if this Order had not been made, and shall, as near as circumstances will permit, have the same priority, and be paid and satisfied within the same times, and be recovered from the said Local Board as the same might have been recovered from such Commissioners.

14. Provided always, that if such property and estate be insufficient for that purpose, the deficiency shall be charged upon and paid and satisfied by the said Local Board of Health out of the General District Rates, levied under the said Public Health Act, in the parts and places which would or ought to have been chargeable with such deficiency if this Order had not been made.

15. Provided also, that if such property and estate be more than sufficient, the surplus shall be applied to the exclusive use and benefit of the parts and places, and as nearly as may be to the same purposes, to which the same would or ought to have been applied if this Order had not been made.

16. That all charges and expenses which shall be incurred by the said Local Board of Health under such parts of the said Local Act as shall not be repealed according to the provisions of this Order, and which shall not be defrayed out of the tolls, duties, and revenue received or to be received by the said Local Board under such Local Act, shall be deemed to be expenses incurred by such Board under the said Public Health Act, and shall be defrayed out of the General or Special District Rates (as the nature of the case may require); and the monies necessary to be raised for the purposes of such Local Act may be borrowed, charged, secured, and recovered in the same manner as if such charges and expenses were actually incurred under the said Public Health Act.

17. Provided always, that, except as regards the repeal of such of the powers and provisions of the said Local Act as are mentioned in the Schedule to this Order, this Order shall take effect subject and without prejudice to that Act, and all estates, interests, rights, claims, demands, powers, duties, privileges, and authorities created, conferred, arising, and subsisting under or by virtue of that Act are, except as aforesaid, hereby absolutely saved.

18. Provided also, that this Order, and the repeal of the parts of the said Local Act mentioned in the Schedule thereto, shall not annul, defeat, lessen, or otherwise prejudicially affect any rate, assessment, imposition, composition, charge, purchase, sale, conveyance, grant, demise, lease, mortgage, annuity, assignment, bond, contract, covenant, agreement, security, matter, or thing whatsoever before the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order made, entered into, or done under or by virtue or in pursuance of that Act, or with reference to the purposes of the same; but notwithstanding this Order and the Schedule thereto, all such acts, deeds, matters, and things shall be as good, valid, and effectual to all intents and purposes whatsoever for, against, and with reference to the said Local Board of Health as if the same had been made, entered into, or done by, to, or with reference to that Board, instead of the Commissioners of the said Local Act, and may be proceeded on and enforced in the same manner in all respects as if that Board instead of such Commissioners had been party or privy to the same, and been named or referred to therein.

19. Provided also, that this Order, and the repeal of the parts of the said Local Act mentioned in the Schedule thereto, shall be subject and without prejudice to any penalties incurred under that Act, at the time fixed for the said first election, by any Act of Parliament confirming this Order, but all such penalties may be enforced and recovered by the said Local Board of Health according to the provisions of this Order.

Given under my Hand, and under the Seal of the General Board of Health, this Second day of August, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

(L.S.) (Signed) B. HALL.

Schedule to which this Order refers.

The sections numbered respectively in the copies of the said Act printed by the King's Printers, 1, 3 to 19, 24 to 35, 55 to 60, 62 to 72, 81 to 96, all inclusive, 98 and 99.

And so much of any unrepealed part of the said Act as fixes the amount of any penalty for any offence under the said Act, wherever the penalty for such offence is fixed by the Public Health Act, or by any Byelaw of the Local Board of Health made under and by virtue of the Public Health Act, at an amount other than that fixed by the said Local Act.

TUNSTALL.

Provisional Order for the Application of the Public Health Act to the Township of Tunstall, in the County of Stafford.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

WHEREAS upon the petition of not less than one tenth of the inhabitants rated to the relief of the poor of and within the Township of Tunstall, in the County of Stafford, We, the General Board of Health, appointed for the purposes of the Public Health Act, 1848, have, in pursuance of the provisions of that Act, directed William Ranger, a Superintending Inspector, appointed for the purposes of the said Act, to visit visit the said Township, within and throughout the said boundaries, and to make public inquiry, and to examine witnesses as to the sewerage, drainage, and supply of water, the state of the burial-grounds, the number and sanitary condition of the inhabitants, and as to any Local Acts of Parliament in force within the said Township for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with water, or improving the said Township, or having relation to the purposes of the said Act; also, as to the natural drainage areas, and the existing municipal, parochial, or other local boundaries, and the boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the purposes of the said Act.

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the notices directed by the said Act, proceeded upon the said inquiry, and hath reported in writing to the said General Board upon the several matters with respect to which he was directed to inquire, and upon certain other matters in respect of which he deemed it expedient to report for the purposes of that Act.

And whereas copies of the said Report, accompanied by a notice stating that written statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as directed by the said Public Health Act, and the time for forwarding such statements has now elapsed, and all such statements as have been received by the said Board have been duly deposited as required by that Act.

And whereas it appears upon such Report that there is a certain Local Act of Parliament in force within the said Township having relation to the purposes of the said Public Health Act; that is to say, an Act passed in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for "paving, lighting, watching, cleaning, and otherwise improving the Town and neighbourhood of "Tunstall, in the County of Stafford, and for improving and regulating the market place and markets "therein."

And whereas it appears to the said General Board of Health to be expedient that the said Public Health Act should be applied to the said Township, and that provision should be made with respect to the said Local Act of Parliament, and the partial repeal, alteration, extension, and further execution thereof, but the same cannot be done without the authority of Parliament.

Now therefore, in pursuance of the power vested in the said Board by the Public Health Act, 1848, the said General Board of Health do, by this Provisional Order under my hand and seal of office, direct:

That from and after the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order,—

1. In the construction of this Order, the same meanings shall be assigned to certain expressions which are assigned to them by the section numbered 2 in the copies of "The Public Health Act, 1848," printed by Her Majesty's Printers, unless such meanings be repugnant to or inconsistent with the context or subject matter in which such expressions occur.
2. The Public Health Act, 1848, shall apply to and be in force within and throughout the entire area, places, and parts of places comprised within the boundaries of the said Township of Tunstall, and that the said Township shall be and constitute a district for the purposes of the said Public Health Act accordingly.
3. That the Local Board of Health to be elected for the said Township shall consist of twenty-four persons, and that the entire number shall be elected for the whole of the said district.
4. That one third in number of the said Local Board shall go out of office on the 25th day of March in each year subsequently to that in which the said first election takes place; but in case the day as appointed shall fall on a Sunday, or on a day appointed for a Public Fast or Thanksgiving, then that such one third shall go out of office on the day next following.
5. That every person shall, at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, be resident as in the Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be seised and possessed of real or personal estate, or both, to the value or amount of not less than five hundred pounds, or shall be so resident and rated to the relief of the poor of some parish, township, or place of which some part is within the said district, upon an annual value of not less than fifteen pounds.
6. That, at the first election of the said Local Board, Enoch Wedgwood, Esquire, of Tunstall, shall have the powers and perform the duties vested in or imposed upon the Chairman of the Local Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, in relation to any election by owners of property and ratepayers, and shall perform all other duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said first election; and in case the said Enoch Wedgwood, from illness or other sufficient cause, shall be unable to exercise or discharge such powers or duties, or shall be absent, or shall refuse to act, then Anthony Shaw, Esquire, of Tunstall, shall exercise and perform such of the said powers and duties as then remain to be exercised or performed.
7. That the fourteen days notice of qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by owners of property in order to entitle them to vote at the said first election shall be given to the said Enoch Wedgwood, at his residence, Tunstall, or in case he shall refuse or be unable to receive the same, then to the said Anthony Shaw, at his residence, Tunstall.

8. Such parts of the said Local Act as are specified in the Schedule to this Order shall be repealed, except in so far as relates to anything done before the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order, and except in so far as the same repeal any other Act or Acts of Parliament.
9. The powers, authorities, and duties of the Commissioners for the time being acting in execution of the said Local Act shall cease; and such of them as are granted or imposed by the unrepealed parts of the said Local Act shall, so far as they are not repugnant to or inconsistent with the said Public Health Act, or this Order, or any byelaw which shall be lawfully made under the said Public Health Act, be transferred to the said Local Board of Health, and the officers and servants of the said Local Board, and shall be exercised as if they had been granted or imposed by the said Public Health Act; and all matters arising under the said Local Act may be dealt with under the provisions of the said Public Health Act; and the provisions of that Act shall apply to all such matters, and for this purpose the unrepealed parts of the said Local Act shall be incorporated with the said Public Health Act as applied to the said Township.
10. All property and estate of the Commissioners acting in the execution of the said Local Act shall be transferred to the said Local Board of Health, and shall, as near as circumstances will permit, be held by the said Local Board of Health upon the same trusts and for the same purposes as by such Commissioners.
11. All debts, monies, and securities for money, contracted or payable by such Commissioners, shall be satisfied by the said Local Board out of such parts of the said transferred property and estate as would have been chargeable therewith if this Order had not been made, and shall be paid and satisfied by the said Local Board as by such Commissioners.
12. Provided always, that if such property and estate be insufficient for that purpose, the deficiency shall be charged upon the rates leviable under the said Public Health Act, in the parts only which would have been chargeable with such deficiency if this Order had not been made.
13. Provided also, that if such property and estate be more than sufficient, the surplus shall be applied to the exclusive use of the same parts and to the same purposes as it would have been if this Order had not been made.
14. All expenses which shall be incurred by the said Local Board of Health under the unrepealed parts of the said Local Act, and which shall not be defrayed out of monies arising under such Local Acts, shall be deemed to be expenses incurred by such Board under the said Public Health Act, and shall be defrayed out of the rates under that Act (as the nature of the case may require); and the purposes of the said Local Act shall be deemed to be purposes of the said Public Health Act as applied to the said Township; and the monies necessary to be raised for the purposes of such Local Act may be raised as under the said Public Health Act.
15. Provided always, that this Order, and the repeal of the parts of the said Local Act mentioned in the Schedule thereto, shall not prejudicially affect anything done under that Act before the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order; but, notwithstanding this Order, and the Schedule thereto, all such things shall be as valid with reference to the said Local Board of Health, as if the same had been done with reference to that Board, and may be dealt with in the same manner in all respects as if they related to that Board instead of such Commissioners.
16. Provided also, that this Order, and the repeal of the parts of the said Local Act mentioned in the Schedule thereto, shall be without prejudice to any penalties incurred under the said Local Act, but all such Penalties may be recovered by the said Local Board of Health according to the provisions of this Order.

Given under my Hand and under the Seal of the General Board of Health, this Thirtieth day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

(L.S.) (Signed) B. HALL.

Schedule to which this Order refers.

The parts of the said Local Act referred to in this Order to be repealed are as follows; (that is to say,) so much of the section numbered 1 in the copies of that Act printed by the Queen's Printers as incorporates with that Act the Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847, and so much of the same section as incorporates the sections of the Towns Improvement Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the officers to be appointed by the Commissioners, or under any General Town Improvement Act, and the sections with respect to plans of the district within the limits of the Special Act, and of the works to be executed under the powers of that and the Special Act; the sections with respect to making and maintaining the public sewers; and the sections with respect to the drainage of houses; and the sections with respect to the paving and maintaining of streets; and the sections with respect to laying out new streets; and the sections with respect to objections to the works to be constructed by or subject to the approval of the Commissioners; and the sections with respect to supplying buildings with fresh air, numbered 113, 114, and 115; and the sections with respect to lodging-houses; and the sections with respect to lighting the town or district; and the sections with respect to the supply of water; and the sections with respect to slaughter-houses; and the sections with respect to things to be done by the Commissioners by special order, order, numbered 134 and 135; and the sections with respect to the ensuring the execution of the works by that or the Special Act required to be done by the owners or occupiers of houses or lands; and the sections with respect to the rates by that Act to be made for sewers, drains, and private improvements; and the sections with respect to the manner of making rates authorized by that or the Special Act, except the section numbered 176; and the sections with respect to the appeal to be made against any rate; and the sections with respect to the recovery of rates; and the sections with respect to byelaws to be made under that or the Special Act; and the sections with respect to the recovery of damages not specially provided for, and of penalties, and to the determination of any other matter referred to justices; and the sections numbered respectively in the copies of the said Act printed by the Queen's Printers 4 to 9, 18, and 35 to 40, all inclusive.

And so much of any unrepealed part of the said Act as fixes the amount of any penalty for any offence under the said Act, wherever the penalty for such offence shall have been fixed by the Public Health Act, 1848, or by any byelaw of the Local Board of Health made under and by virtue of the said Public Health Act, at an amount other than that fixed by the said first-mentioned Act.

TOXTETH PARK.

Provisional Order for the Application of the Public Health Act to the Extra-parochial Place of Toxteth Park, in the County Palatine of Lancaster.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

WHEREAS upon the petition of not less than one tenth of the inhabitants rated to the relief of the poor of and within the Extra-parochial Place of Toxteth Park, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, and within the boundaries of the said place, as fixed for the purposes of an Act passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for better paving and improving the "Streets and Highways within the Extra-parochial Place of Toxteth Park in the County Palatine of "Lancaster, and for the Sewerage of certain Parts of the said Place," We, the General Board of Health, appointed for the purposes of the Public Health Act, 1848, have, in pursuance of the provisions of that Act, directed William Ranger, a Superintending Inspector, appointed for the purposes of the said Act, to visit the said Place, within and throughout the said boundaries, and to make public inquiry and to examine witnesses as to the sewerage, drainage, and supply of water, the state of the burial grounds, the number and sanitary condition of the inhabitants, and as to any Local Acts of Parliament in force within the said place for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with water, or improving the said place, or having relation to the purposes of the said Act; also as to the natural drainage areas, and the existing municipal, parochial, or other local boundaries, and the boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the purposes of the said Act:

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the notices directed by the said Act, proceeded upon the said inquiry, and hath reported in writing to the said General Board upon the several matters with respect to which he was directed to inquire, and upon certain other matters in respect of which he deemed it expedient to report for the purposes of that Act:

And whereas copies of the said Report, accompanied by a notice stating that written statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as directed by the said Public Health Act, and the time for forwarding such statements has now elapsed; and all such statements as have been received by the said Board have been duly deposited as required by that Act:

And whereas it appears upon such Report that there is a certain Local Act of Parliament in force within the said Place having relation to the purposes of the said Public Health Act; (that is to say,) the Act herein-before recited of the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty:

And whereas it appears to the said General Board of Health to be expedient that the said Public Health Act, except as herein-after mentioned, should be applied to the said place, and that provision should be made with respect to the said Local Act of Parliament, and the partial repeal, alteration, extension, and further execution thereof; but the same cannot be done without the authority of Parliament:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the power vested in the said Board by the Public Health Act, 1848, the said General Board of Health do, by this Provisional Order under my Hand and Seal of office, direct:—

That from and after the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order,—

1. In the construction of this Order, the same meanings shall be assigned to certain expressions which are assigned to them by the section numbered 2 in the copies of "The Public Health Act, 1848," printed by Her Majesty's Printers, unless such meanings be repugnant to or inconsistent with the context or subject matter in which such expressions occur.
2. "The Public Health Act, 1848," and every part thereof except the sections relating to the election, continuance in office, and qualification of Local Boards of Health, being the sections numbered in the copies of that Act printed by the Queen's Printers from 12 to 31, both inclusive, inclusive, and the section numbered 50 in the copies of that Act printed by Her Majesty's Printers, shall apply to the said place within the boundaries defined in the Local Act aforesaid.

3. The Commissioners for the time being acting in execution of the said Local Act shall be the Local Board of Health under the said Public Health Act.
4. Such parts of the said Local Act as are specified in the Schedule to this Order shall be repealed, except in so far as relates to anything done before the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this Order, and except in so far as the same repeal any other Act or Acts of Parliament.
5. All matters arising under the said Local Act may be dealt with under the provisions of the said Public Health Act, and the provisions of that Act shall apply to all such matters; and for this purpose the unrepealed parts of the said Local Act shall be incorporated with the said Public Health Act as applied to the said place.
6. All expenses which shall be incurred by the said Commissioners under the unrepealed parts of the said Local Act, and which shall not be defrayed out of monies arising under such Local Act, shall be deemed to be expenses incurred by such Board under the said Public Health Act, and shall be defrayed out of the rates under that Act (as the nature of the case may require); and the purposes of the said Local Act shall be deemed to be purposes of the said Public Health Act as applied to the said place; and the monies necessary to be raised for the purposes of such Local Act may be raised as under the said Public Health Act.

Given under my Hand, and under the Seal of the General Board of Health, this Thirtieth day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

(L.S.) (Signed) B. HALL.

Schedule to which this Order refers.

The parts of the said Local Act referred to in this Order to be repealed are as follows; (that is to say,)

The sections numbered respectively in the copies of the said Act printed by the Queen's Printers 20 to 87 both inclusive, 99, 115 to 123, 129 to 131 both inclusive, 145 to 154, 158 to 160, 163 to 193, all inclusive, 196 and 197.

And so much of any unrepealed part of the said Act as fixes the amount of any penalty for any offence under the said Act, wherever the penalty for such offence shall have been fixed by the Public Health Act, 1848, or by any byelaw of the Local Board of Health, made under and by virtue of the said Public Health Act, at an amount other than that fixed by the said first-mentioned Act.

ROMFORD.

Provisional Order for altering the Boundaries of the District of Romford, in the County of Essex, as constituted for the Purposes of the Public Health Act, 1848.

GENERAL BOARD OF HEALTH.

WHEREAS by a Provisional Order of the General Board of Health, bearing date the 16th day of June 1851, confirmed by "The Public Health Supplemental Act, 1851, (No. 2.)," (14 & 15 Vict. c. 98.), the Public Health Act, 1848, has been duly applied to the Parish of Romford, in the County of Essex.

And whereas it appears to the General Board of Health appointed for the purposes of the said Act that the boundaries of the said District, as determined by the said Order, should be altered and amended in the manner prescribed by the said Act.

And whereas the said General Board have, in pursuance of the Provisions of the said Act, directed William Ranger, a Superintending Inspector appointed for the purposes of the said Act, to visit the said District, and to make public inquiry, and to examine witnesses as to the boundaries not being the boundaries of the said Parish so fixed as aforesaid, which might most advantageously be adopted for the purposes of the said Act.

And whereas the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the notices directed by the said Public Health Act, proceeded upon the said further inquiry in the manner directed by the said Act, and hath reported in writing to the said General Board upon the said matter with respect to which he was directed to inquire.

And whereas copies of the Report on such further inquiry, accompanied by a notice stating that written statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as directed by the said Public Health Act, and the time for forwarding such statements has now elapsed, and all such statements as have been received by the said Board have been duly deposited as required by that Act.

And whereas the alteration of the boundaries of the said District cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament.

Now therefore, in pursuance of the power vested in the said General Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, the said General Board of Health do, by this Provisional Order, under my Hand and Seal of office, order and direct as follows; that is to say:—

That

That from and after the passing of any Act of Parliament confirming this present Order—

1. The provisions of the Public Health Act of 1848, and every part thereof, except the Section numbered 50 in the copies of that Act printed by Her Majesty's Printers, shall apply to and be in force within and throughout the entire area comprised within the boundary of the town ward of Romford in the parish of Romford and county of Essex, shown by the strong black line on the plan prefixed to the said further Report made by Mr. Ranger to the General Board of Health, and bearing date the 29th day of April 1854; and the parts within the said boundary shall be and constitute a district for the purposes of the said Public Health Act accordingly, under the name of the "Romford District."
2. The present Local Board of Health for the time being for the district of Romford, as originally constituted by the herein-before recited Provisional Order, shall, from and after the passing of the Act of Parliament confirming this Order, be the Local Board of Health for the District constituted by this Order and the Act of Parliament confirming the same.
3. At every election of members of the said Local Board which shall take place after the passing of the Act of Parliament confirming this Order, the members to be elected shall be elected for the whole of the District constituted by this Order, and by the votes of owners of and ratepayers in respect of property situate within the said District; and any person residing in the said District, or within seven miles thereof, may be elected a member of the said Local Board; but the number and qualification of such members, and the day of such election, shall remain as fixed by the herein-before recited Provisional Order of the General Board of Health, dated 16th of June 1851, and confirmed by the aforesaid "Public Health Supplemental Act, 1851, (No. 2)."

Given under my Hand and under the Seal of the General Board of Health, this Thirtieth day of July in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

CAP. CXXVI.

An Act for diminishing Expense and Delay in the Administration of Criminal Justice in certain Cases. [14th August 1855.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Power to Justices at Petty Sessions to punish Persons charged with Larceny, &c. summarily.

I. Where any Person is charged before any Justices of the Peace assembled at such Petty Sessions as herein-after provided, with having committed Simple Larceny, and the Value of the whole of the Property alleged to have been stolen does not, in the Judgment of such Justices, exceed Five Shillings, or with having attempted to commit Larceny from the Person, or Simple Larceny, it shall be lawful for such Justices to hear and determine the Charge in a summary Way, and, if the Person charged shall confess the same, or if such Justices, after hearing the whole Case for the Prosecution and for the Defence, shall find the Charge to be proved, then it shall be lawful for such Justices to convict the Person charged, and commit him to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Period not exceeding Three Calendar Months, and if they find the Offence not proved they shall dismiss the Charge, and make out and deliver to the Person charged a Certificate under their Hands, stating the Fact of such Dismissal; and every such Conviction and Certificate respectively may be in the Forms (A.) and (B.) in the Schedule to this Act, or to the like Effect: Provided always, that if the Person charged do not consent to have the Case heard and determined by such Justices, or if it appear to such Justices that the Offence is one which, owing to a previous Conviction of the Person charged, is punishable by Law with Transportation or Penal Servitude, or if such Justices be of opinion that the Charge is, from any other Circumstances, fit to be made the Subject of Prosecution by Indictment, rather than to be disposed of summarily, such Justices shall, instead of summarily adjudicating thereon, deal with the Case in all respects as if this Act had not been passed: Provided also, that if upon the Hearing of the Charge, such Justices shall be of opinion that there are Circumstances in the Case which render it inexpedient to inflict any Punishment, they shall have Power to dismiss the Person charged, without proceeding to a Conviction.

If Parties accused do not consent, Justices to deal with Cases as if this Act had not passed.

Justices to ask the Accused whether he consents to the Charge being summarily determined.

II. Where the Justices, before whom any Person is charged as aforesaid, propose to dispose of the Case summarily under the foregoing Provisions, One of such Justices, after the Examinations of all the Witnesses for the Prosecution have been completed, and before calling upon the Person charged for any Statement which he may wish to make, shall state to such Person the Substance of the Charge against him, and shall then say to him these Words, or Words to the like Effect: "Do you consent that the "Charge against you shall be tried by us, or do you desire that it shall be sent for Trial by a Jury at "the Sessions or Assizes" (as the Case may be); and if the Person charged shall consent to the Charge being summarily tried and determined as aforesaid, then the Justices shall reduce the Charge into Writing, and read the same to such Person, and shall then ask him whether he is guilty or not of such Charge; and if such Person shall say that he is guilty, the Justices shall then proceed to pass such Sentence upon him as may by Law be passed, subject to the Provisions of this Act in respect to such Offence; but if the the Person charged shall say that he is not guilty, the Justices shall then inquire of such Person whether he has any Defence to make to such Charge, and if he shall state that he has a Defence, the Justices shall hear such Defence, and then proceed to dispose of the Case summarily.

Persons charged with Larceny, &c. may plead guilty before Justices in Petty Sessions, and be sentenced forthwith.

III. Where any Person is charged before any Justices at such Petty Sessions as aforesaid with Simple Larceny (the Property alleged to have been stolen exceeding in Value Five Shillings), or stealing from the Person, or Larceny as a Clerk or Servant, and the Evidence, when the Case on the Part of the Prosecution has been completed, is, in the Opinion of such Justices, sufficient to put the Person charged on his Trial for the Offence with which he is charged, such Justices, if the Case appear to them to be one which may properly be disposed of in a summary Way, and may be adequately punished by virtue of the Powers of this Act, shall reduce the Charge into Writing, and shall read it to the said Person, and shall then ask him whether he is guilty or not of the Charge; and if such Person shall say that he is guilty, such Justices shall thereupon cause a Plea of guilty to be entered upon the Proceedings, and shall convict him of such Offence, and commit him to the Common Gaol or House of Correction, there to be imprisoned, with or without Hard Labour, for any Term not exceeding Six Calendar Months; and every such Conviction may be in the Form (C.) in the Schedule to this Act, or to the like Effect: Provided always, that the said Justices, before they ask such Person whether he is guilty or not, shall explain to him that he is not obliged to plead or answer before them at all, and that if he do not plead or answer before them, he will be committed for Trial in the usual Course.

Justices to warn Accused that he is not obliged to plead.

Persons accused may have Counsel, &c.

IV. In every Case of summary Proceeding under this Act the Person accused shall be allowed to make his full Answer and Defence, and to have all Witnesses examined and cross-examined by Counsel or Attorney.

Power to remand Persons charged to next Petty Sessions. 11 & 12 Vict. c. 42. s. 21. 14 & 15 Vict. c. 93. s. 14.

V. Where any Person is charged before any Justice or Justices with any Offence mentioned in this Act, and, in the Opinion of such Justice or Justices, the Case may be proper to be disposed of by Justices in Petty Sessions under this Act, the Justice or Justices before whom such Person is so charged may, if he or they see fit, remand such Person for further Examination to the next Petty Sessions, in like Manner in all respects as a Justice or Justices are authorized to remand a Party accused under the Act passed in the Session holden in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Forty-two, Section Twenty-one, or under the Petty Sessions Act (Ireland), 1851, Section Fourteen.

Forfeited Recognizances to be transmitted to Clerk of Peace.

VI. If any Person suffered to go at large, upon entering into such Recognizance as the Justice or Justices are authorized under the last-mentioned Act to take on the Remand of a Party accused, do not afterwards appear pursuant to such Recognizance, then the Justices before whom he ought to have appeared, shall certify (under the Hands of Two of them) on the Back of the Recognizance, to the Clerk of the Peace of the County or Place, the Fact of such Nonappearance, and such Recognizance shall be proceeded upon in like Manner as other Recognizances, and such Certificate shall be deemed sufficient primâ facie Evidence of such Nonappearance.

Convictions and other Proceedings to be returned to Quarter Sessions.

VII. The Justices adjudicating under this Act shall transmit the Conviction, or a Duplicate of a Certificate of Dismissal, with the written Charge, the Depositions of the Witnesses for the Prosecution and for the Defence, and the Statement of the Accused, to the next Court of General or Quarter Sessions for the County or Place, there to be kept by the proper Officer among the Records of the Court; and a Copy of such Conviction, or of such Certificate of Dismissal, certified by the proper Officer of the Court, or proved to be a true Copy, shall be sufficient Evidence to prove a Conviction or Dismissal for the Offence mentioned therein, in any legal Proceeding whatever.

Justices may order Restitution of Property.

VIII. It shall be lawful for the Justices, by whom any Person is convicted under this Act, to order Restitution of the Property stolen, taken, or obtained by false Pretences, in those Cases in which the Court, before whom the Person convicted would have been tried but for this Act, may be by Law authorized to order Restitution.

Petty Sessions to be an open Court, &c.

IX. Every Petty Sessions, for the Purposes of this Act, shall be an open Public Court, and shall be the Petty Sessions holden for a Petty Sessional Division; and a written or printed Notice of the Days and Hours for holding such Petty Sessions shall be posted or affixed by the Clerk to the Justices of Petty Sessions upon the Outside of some conspicuous Part of the Building or Place where the same are held.

11 & 12 Vict. c. 43. not to apply, &c.

X. The Provisions of the Act of the Session holden in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Forty-three, shall not be construed as applying to any Proceeding under this Act.

Effect of Conviction.

XI. Every Conviction by Justices in Petty Sessions under this Act shall have the same effect as a Conviction upon Indictment for the same Offence would have had, save that no Conviction under this Act shall be attended with any Forfeiture.

Further Proceedings barred.

XII. Every Person who obtains a Certificate of Dismissal, or is convicted under this Act, shall be released from all further or other Criminal Proceedings for the same Cause.

No Conviction quashed for Want of Form.

XIII. No Conviction, Sentence, or Proceeding under this Act shall be quashed for Want of Form; and no Warrant of Commitment upon a Conviction shall be held void by reason of any Defect therein, if it be therein alleged that the Offender has been convicted, and there be a good and valid Conviction to sustain the same.

Justices may order Payment of Expenses.

XIV. Where any Charge is summarily adjudicated upon under this Act, or an Offender is, under this Act, convicted by Justices in Petty Sessions upon a Plea of "Guilty," it shall be lawful for the Justices by by whom such Charge has been adjudicated upon, or Offender convicted, upon the Request of any Person who has preferred the Charge or appeared to prosecute or give Evidence against the Person charged, if such Justices think fit so to do, to grant a Certificate to such Person of the Amount of the Compensation which such Justices may deem reasonable for his Expenses, Trouble, and Loss of Time therein, subject nevertheless to the Regulations made or to be made as herein-after mentioned; and every such Certificate shall, when granted in England, have the Effect of an Order of Court for the Payment of the Expenses of a Prosecution made under the Act of the Seventh Year of King George the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-four, and the Acts amending the same, and when granted in Ireland shall have the Effect of an Order of Court for the Payment of the Expenses of a Prosecution made under the Act of the Fifty-fifth Year of King George the Third, Chapter Ninety-one, and the Acts amending the same; and the Amount mentioned in such Certificate shall be paid in like Manner as the Money mentioned in such Order of Court; and all Certificates to be granted under this Act shall be subject to the like Regulations made or to be made in relation thereto, as the Certificates mentioned in the said Act of the Seventh Year of King George the Fourth to be granted by examining Magistrates, are or may be subject to under the Act of the Session holden in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Fifty-five: Provided also, that the Amount of the Fees payable to the Clerks of the Magistrates in Petty Sessions, in respect of any Proceeding under this Act, and of the Fees payable to the Clerks of the Peace for filing the Depositions, Conviction, or Certificate of Dismissal aforesaid, and of all such Expenses of apprehending the Person charged, and detaining him in Custody, and of such other Expenses as are now by Law payable when incurred before a Commitment for Trial, may be added to the Certificate for Compensation aforesaid, and paid in the like Manner.

7 G. 4. c. 64.

55 G. 3. c. 91.

14 & 15 Vict. c. 55.

XV. In every City, Borough, Town, or Place in England where any Petty Sessions shall be holden under this Act, the Town Hall, Court House, or other public Building therein belonging to any County, City, Borough, Town, or Place, or any Court House in such City, Borough, Town, or Place provided by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, under the Act of the Session holden in the Ninth and Tenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Ninety-five, may be used for the Purpose of holding such Petty Sessions, without any Charge for Rent or other Payment, save and except the reasonable and necessary Charges for lighting, warming, and cleaning, when such public Building is used for the Purpose of holding such Courts of Petty Sessions, and for all other Expenses necessarily incidental to the Use of the said Building for the Purposes of the said Courts: Provided always, that the necessary Arrangements shall be made so that the Sittings of the said Courts of Petty Sessions shall not interfere with the Business of the County, City, Borough, Town, or Place or other Business usually transacted in such Town Hall, Court House, or other public Building, or any Purpose for which any such Town Hall, Court House, or other public Building may be used by virtue of any Act of Parliament in that Behalf.

9 & 10 Vict. c. 95. Town Hall, Court House, &c. of County, City, or Borough may be used for Petty Sessions held under this Act.

XVI. Any One of the Magistrates appointed to act at any of the Police Courts of the Metropolis, and sitting at a Police Court within the Metropolitan Police District, or any Magistrate appointed to act at the Police Courts of the Dublin Metropolitan District, and sitting at a Police Court within the said District, or any Stipendiary Magistrate appointed for any City, Town, Liberty, Borough, or District, and sitting at a Police Court or other Place appointed in that Behalf, may, in the Case of Persons charged before such Magistrate, do alone all Acts by this Act authorized to be done by Justices of the Peace in Petty Sessions; and all the Provisions of this Act referring to Justices in Petty Sessions shall be read and construed as referring also to such Magistrate.

Any Metropolitan Police Magistrate or Stipendiary Magistrate may act alone.

XVII. Nothing in this Act shall affect the Provisions of the Act of the Session holden in the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Eighty-two, "For the more speedy Trial and Punishment of Juvenile Offenders," or of the Act of the Session holden in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Thirty-seven, "For the further Extension of Summary Jurisdiction in Cases of Larceny," or of the Summary Jurisdiction (Ireland) Act, 1851; and this Act shall not extend to Persons punishable under the said Acts, so far as regards Offences for which such Persons may be punished thereunder.

Nothing to affect Provisions of 10 & 11 Vict. c. 82. and 13 & 14 Vict. c. 37. 14 & 15 Vict. c. 92.

XVIII. 'And whereas the Fees and Emoluments of Clerks of the Peace for Counties and Boroughs, 'and of other Officers of the Courts of Quarter Sessions, in Criminal Proceedings, may be seriously 'diminished by the Operation and Effect of this Act, and it is just and reasonable that full Compensation 'for any such Loss should be made in respect thereof to such Clerks of the Peace and other Officers 'appointed before the passing of this Act:' Be it enacted, That immediately after the passing of this Act, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury shall, upon the Application of any such Clerk of the Peace or other Officer, by such Means and in such Manner as they may think proper, inquire into and ascertain the annual Amount, to be computed upon an Average of Five Years immediately preceding the passing of this Act, or of such shorter Period as such Clerk of the Peace or other Officer shall have been in Office, of the Fees and Emoluments in Criminal Prosecutions received by such Clerk of the Peace or other Officer; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the like Application, also ascertain, in such Manner as they may think proper, the total Amount of Fees and Emoluments in Criminal Prosecutions received by such Clerk of the Peace or other Officer during any Year after the passing of this Act; and the said Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered, by Warrant under their

As to Compensation to Clerks of Peace and other Officers.

Hands, to award to such Clerk of the Peace or other Officer the Deficiency, when and so often as the same shall occur, between the last-mentioned Amount, and the annual average Amount so ascertained as aforesaid, and the Sum so awarded shall be paid out of any Monies which may be provided by Parliament for that Purpose; provided, that in all Cases where any such Clerk of the Peace, by reason of his being paid by Salary, under an Order made by virtue of the Act of the Session holden in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Fifty-five, shall pay such Fees and Emoluments as aforesaid to the Treasurer of the County or Borough, for which he is Clerk of the Peace, in aid of the County or Borough Rate, as the Case may be, such Deficiency, when so ascertained as aforesaid, shall be paid to the Treasurer of such County or Borough respectively.

14 & 15 Vict. c. 55.

2 & 3 Vict. c. 71. s. 9. Power to increase Salary of Chief Magistrate to a Sum not exceeding 1,500*l.*

XIX. 'And whereas by Section Nine of the Act of the Session holden in the Second and Third 'Years of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-one, Provision is made for Payment, out of the Monies in 'the Hands of the Receiver of the Metropolitan Police District, of such Salaries as Her Majesty shall 'direct, to the Magistrates of the Police Courts of the Metropolis, the Salary to the Chief Magistrate 'not being more than One thousand two hundred Pounds, and to each of the other Magistrates not more 'than One thousand two hundred Pounds: And whereas after the passing of the said Act, the Salary 'of the Chief Magistrate was fixed at One thousand two hundred Pounds, and the Salaries of the other 'Police Magistrates at One thousand Pounds: And whereas the Duties of the said Chief and other 'Magistrates have increased, and are subject under this Act to be further increased: And whereas the 'Salaries of such other Magistrates have, in consequence of such Increase of Duty, been increased from 'One thousand Pounds to the Limit permitted by the said Act, and it is expedient to authorize such 'Increase of the Salary of the said Chief Magistrate as herein-after mentioned:' The Salary to be paid out of the Monies aforesaid to the said Chief Magistrate shall be such yearly Sum, not exceeding One thousand five hundred Pounds, as Her Majesty may direct.

Provisions of 15 & 16 Vict. c. 73. for Payment by Salary in lieu of Fees to Clerks of Assize for their Duties as Associates, extended to the whole Office of Clerk of Assize, &c.

XX. 'And whereas by the Act of the Session holden in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her 'Majesty, Chapter Seventy-three, certain Powers were granted and Provisions made for the Payment 'to the several Clerks of Assize of annual Sums for Salaries, and for the Expenses of their Office, in 'respect of their Duties as Associates, in lieu of the Fees and Emoluments appertaining to those Duties: 'And whereas it is expedient that the Principle of Payment by Salary in lieu of Fees should be further 'provided for, and that the Clerks of Assize should be so paid for the Performance of all their other 'Duties:' Be it therefore enacted, That all Fees and Emoluments heretofore payable to the Clerks of Assize for the Performance of their Duties as Clerks of the Crown shall be and they are hereby abolished; and all the Powers and Provisions made by the before-mentioned Act, except as is herein-after provided, for the Payment of Clerks of Assize by Salary in lieu of Fees, in respect of their Duties as Associates, shall be and the same are hereby extended and made applicable to the Payment of Clerks of Assize by Salary, and the Expenses of their Offices, in lieu of Fees and Emoluments, for the Performance of their Duties as Clerks of the Crown, and of all other Duties appertaining to the Office of Clerk of Assize: Provided always, that the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury for the Time being shall fix and determine the Amount of Salary to be allowed to any subordinate Officer now employed, or who shall hereafter be employed by any Clerk of Assize, and shall be empowered to order the Payment of such Salary to the said Officers in the first instance, and not through the Medium of the Clerk of Assize: Provided also, that the Salaries and Expenses of the Officers of the said Clerks of Assize for the whole of their Duties on the Criminal and Civil Sides of the Court, shall be paid out of any Monies which may be provided by Parliament for that Purpose.

So much of 12 Ric. 2. c. 10. and 14 Ric. 2. c. 12., &c. as directs Payment of Wages to Justices and their Clerks repealed.

XXI. 'And whereas by Acts of the Twelfth and Fourteenth Years of King Richard the Second 'Payments are provided for Justices of the Peace and their Clerks in each County, as Wages by the 'Day for the Time of their Sessions, to be payable by the Sheriff, as therein mentioned, and in several 'Counties in England Sums are claimed from the Sheriffs and paid in respect of such statutory Wages, 'and it is expedient that such Payments should be discontinued:' Be it therefore enacted, That so much of the several Acts of the Twelfth Year of King Richard the Second, Chapter Ten, and of the Fourteenth Year of King Richard the Second, Chapter Twelve, or of any other Act now in force as directs or authorizes the Payment of Wages to Justices of the Peace and their Clerks for the Time of their Sessions, shall be repealed.

In Cases of Injuries to Property, Parties aggrieved may receive Compensation, &c.

XXII. 'And whereas it is expedient to amend the Law as to Witnesses in Cases of wilful or malicious 'Injuries to Property:' Be it further enacted, That in all Cases where any Justice or Justices of the Peace have or shall hereafter have Power to order a Sum of Money to be forfeited and paid to the Party aggrieved, as Amends or Compensation for any Injury to Property, Real or Personal, the Right of such Party to receive the Money so ordered to be paid shall not be affected by such Party having been examined as a Witness in Proof of the Offence, any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithstanding.

Interpretation of Terms.

7 & 8 G. 4. c. 29.

XXIII. In the Interpretation of this Act "County" shall be construed to include Riding, Parts, Liberty, and Division of a County; "Borough" to include City, County of a City or Town, and Town Corporate; "Property" to include everything included under the Words "Chattel, Money, or valuable Security," as used in the Act of the Session holden in the Seventh and Eighth Years of King George the Fourth, Chapter Twenty-nine; and in the Case of any "valuable Security" the Value of the Share, Interest, Interest, or Deposit to which the Security may relate, or of the Money due thereon or secured thereby, and remaining unsatisfied, or of the Goods or other valuable Thing mentioned in the Warrant or Order, shall be deemed to be the Value of such Security.

XXIV. This Act shall not extend to Scotland. Extent of Act.

CAP. CXXVII.

An Act to make better Provision for the Union of contiguous Benefices, and to facilitate the building and endowing of new Churches in spiritually destitute Districts.

[14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Second Year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to abridge the holding of Benefices in Plurality, and to make better Provision for the Residence of the Clergy; and in such Act Provision is contained authorizing the Union, by Order of Her Majesty in Council, after such Inquiry and Notice, and with such Consent, and upon such Certificate as is therein mentioned, of Two or more Benefices, or One or more Benefice or Benefices, and One or more Spiritual Sinecure Rectory or Rectories, Vicarage or Vicarages, in the same Parish, or contiguous to each other, of which the aggregate Population should not exceed One thousand five hundred Persons, and the aggregate yearly Value should not exceed Five hundred Pounds: And whereas another Act was passed in the Fourteenth Year of Her Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to amend the Law relating to the holding of Benefices in Plurality, by which Act the Provision herein-before referred to was extended so as to be applicable to and for the Union of Benefices, Sinecure Rectories, and Vicarages in 1 & 2 Vict. c. 106. 13 & 14 Vict. c. 98.

'the same Parishes or contiguous to each other, and of which the aggregate Population should not 'exceed One thousand five hundred Persons, notwithstanding the aggregate yearly Value should exceed 'Five hundred Pounds: And whereas it is expedient to amend the said recited Acts, and further to 'extend the same, so as to make better Provision for the Union of contiguous Benefices in Cases where 'such Union may be advantageous to the Interests of Religion:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Contiguous Benefices may be united without regard to aggregate Population, &c.

I. Under the Provisions of this Act, it shall and may be lawful to unite Two or more Benefices or One or more Benefice or Benefices and One or more Spiritual Sinecure Rectory or Rectories, Vicarage or Vicarages, contiguous to each other, without regard to aggregate Population or aggregate yearly Value, and without any Limitation as to the same, and that the Union of such Benefices shall and may be effected in the Manner herein-after provided.

On Representation of Inhabitants of any Two or more Parishes that their Benefices might be advantageously united, the Bishop shall inquire into the same.

II. Whenever it shall be represented in Writing to the Bishop of the Diocese by the Inhabitants of any Two or more of such Parishes in Vestry assembled, or the major Part of them respectively, due Notice of the Representation proposed to be made having been given in the usual Manner, that the Benefices of the Parishes of which they are Inhabitants may, with Advantage to the Interests of Religion, be united, the Bishop of the Diocese to whom such Representation in Writing may be made shall inquire into the Circumstances of the Case; and if on such Inquiry it shall appear to such Bishop that such Union may usefully be made, and that the Patron or Patrons of the Benefices, Rectories, or Vicarages proposed to be united are consenting thereto, such Consent being signified in Writing under the Hands of such Patron or Patrons, or that the Patronage of any new Church or Churches proposed to be erected under this Act is to be vested in such Patron or Patrons as herein-after is provided, the said Bishop shall cause a Statement in Writing of the Facts, certified and signed by himself, to be submitted to Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new Churches, and the said Commissioners shall institute Inquiry, and, if they see fit, may propose a Scheme for the Union of such Benefices and for the other Purposes of this Act; and Her Majesty's said Commissioners shall and may for the Purposes of this Act, exercise such Powers and Privileges as they now exercise or claim to exercise for the Purchase of Sites, the Erection of new Churches, and other Objects within the Commission of the said Commissioners, to the full Extent as such Powers and Privileges are now exercised or claimed to be exercised by the said Commissioners.

Church Building Commissioners may propose Scheme for Transfer of surplus Revenues to poor Parishes.

III. Whenever it shall appear to the Commissioners for building new Churches, upon Inquiry into the Circumstances of the Case, that the total Revenue of any Benefices proposed to be united would be more than sufficient for the due Maintenance and Support of the Incumbent of the Benefice when united, and of such Curate or Curates as may be needed for the same, and that the whole or some specified Part or Parts of the Glebe Lands, Houses, Tithes, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or other permanent Endowments in lieu of Tithes, belonging to the Benefice or Benefices proposed to be united, or any of them, might with Advantage to the Interests of Religion be made subject to a certain annual Rentcharge in perpetuity in favour of some other specified Benefice in the same Diocese, or be excepted out of such Union, and transferred and annexed to such other specified Benefice having no Provision or competent Provision belonging thereto, as an Endowment or a further Endowment for the same, the Church Building Commissioners, with the Consent of the Patron or Patrons of the Benefices proposed to be united, may entertain or propose a Scheme or Plan for such Rentcharge or Transfer and Annexation: Provided always, that the Consents of such Patrons shall be signified in Writing, and that in any Case where the Patronage of any such Benefice may be vested in any Individual not wholly entitled to dispose of the same, the Consent of the next Heir, being of full Age, to the Right of such Patronage, shall also be signified in Writing.

Scheme to be posted on Church Doors, &c.

IV. The Church Building Commissioners, so soon as they shall have prepared a Scheme for the Purpose of more effectively carrying out the proposed Union of Benefices, or a Scheme for the Transfer of Surplus Revenues, shall seal the same with their Seal, and shall cause to be affixed on or near to the principal outer Door of the Church or Churches of the Parishes proposed to be united, and in the usual Place of Notice in the said Parishes, a Copy or Copies of such Scheme, and shall deliver Copies of the same to the Bishop of the Diocese, and to the Patrons, Ministers, Churchwardens, Overseers, and Vestry Clerks of the Benefices proposed to be united, together with a Notice to any Person or Persons interested, that they or any of them may within Two Months show Cause to the said Commissioners against the proposed Union of Benefices, or the Transfer of surplus Revenues, or as to any Part or Parts of any Scheme relating thereto; and if within such Period of Two Months no Cause be shown, or if upon Consideration of any Objection, the Church Building Commissioners shall be of opinion that the Cause shown is not sufficient, the said Commissioners shall then certify the Statement and Certificate of the Bishop as aforesaid, together with their Scheme, to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make and issue any Order or Orders for uniting such Benefices into One Benefice with Cure of Souls for Ecclesiastical Purposes, and for such other Purposes as are herein provided: Provided always, that if any Petition or Statement is lodged by way of Protest, or any Appeal is made against the Scheme or any Part thereof, as herein-after is provided, no such Order or Parties interested may show Cause against Scheme. If no sufficient Cause shown, Commissioners to certify to Queen in Council.

Proviso.

Orders

Orders in Council shall be made or issued until such Petition or Statement has been duly considered, or the Parties to such Appeal have been duly heard.

Protests against the Scheme may be considered by Judicial Committee.

V. It shall and may be lawful for any Person or Persons interested, who may have been heard by the said Commissioners against the proposed Union of any Benefices, or against subjecting the Endowments or Revenues thereof, or any Part of them, to any Rentcharge or Transfer or Annexation, or against any Part or Parts of any Scheme certified by them to Her Majesty in Council, to appeal to Her Majesty in Council against such Scheme or any Part thereof, in the usual Manner, or such Person or Persons may, at their Option, state in Writing, by way of Protest, his, her, or their Objections to such Union or any Part or Parts thereof, and the Commissioners shall annex such written Statement or Protest to their Certificate to the Queen in Council, and Her Majesty in Council may order and direct that such Objections shall be considered by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council; and the said Judicial Committee shall make Report to Her Majesty in Council thereupon, and may propose to Her Majesty in Council to affirm, vary, or dismiss the Scheme certified by the Commissioners, or to return the same to the said Commissioners for Alteration or Amendment; and Her Majesty in Council may affirm, vary, or dismiss the Scheme accordingly, or return the same to the Commissioners to be reconsidered as to any Parts thereof.

Queen in Council may make Orders affirming or approving any Scheme.

VI. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council, by any Order or Orders affirming or approving any Scheme of the Commissioners, and directing a Union of any Parishes, or by any other Order or Orders, to direct that such or such Part of any Lands, Tithes, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or other permanent Endowments of the Benefices proposed to be united, shall be subject to such Rentcharge, or excepted out of such Benefice when united, and be transferred and annexed to such other specified Benefice, and upon the Order or Orders directing such Rentcharge or Transfer and Annexation coming into operation the Lands, Houses, Tithes, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or other permanent Endowments, so directed to be subject to such Rentcharge, or to be transferred and annexed, shall, without any further Deed, Transfer, or other Assurance, become and be for ever subject to such Rentcharge or annexed to such Benefice, as the Case may be, and shall be held and enjoyed by the Incumbent thereof for the Time being as the Endowment or a Part of the Endowment thereof, subject and without Prejudice nevertheless, to all Leases, Grants, Rents, Charges, and Incumbrances existing at the Time of such Rentcharge or Transfer and Annexation legally affecting the same, except so far as any such Apportionment as aforesaid may affect the same respectively; and all such Lands, Houses, Tithes, Tenements, and Hereditaments, or other permanent Endowments, when so transferred or annexed as aforesaid, shall belong to and the same and the Rents and Profits thereof shall be recoverable by the Incumbent of such Benefice for the Time being, in the same Manner and by the same Remedies as were applicable thereto before such Transfer and Annexation.

Orders in Council to be gazetted and registered, and to have Force of Law.

VII. The Order or Orders in Council affirming any Scheme, or directing any Union of Parishes, Rentcharge, Transfer, or Annexation as aforesaid, shall, as soon as may be after the making thereof by Her Majesty in Council, be inserted and published in the London Gazette, and shall be registered in the Registry of the Diocese, and the Registrar of the Diocese is hereby required to make such Registry; and such Order in Council, so soon as the same shall have been gazetted, shall have full Force and Effect of Law in all respects and as to all Things therein contained, any Law, Statute, Canon, Grant, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to affect the Rights and Interests of any of the Incumbents of Benefices united under the Provisions thereof who, at the Time of the making such Order in Council, were in possession respectively of such Benefices, without the Consent of such Incumbent expressed in Writing.

Commissioners may propose Scheme for Erection of new Church or Parsonage, Removal of old Church or Parsonage, Sale of Site, &c., for Purposes of this Act.

VIII. If for the Purposes and Objects of this Act it shall be found necessary or desirable to provide for the Erection of any new Church or Parsonage House, for the pulling down or Removal of any existing Church or Parsonage House, in either of the Benefices proposed to be united, for the Sale of the Materials or Site of the same, for the Appropriation of any Plate or other Property held in trust by the Churchwardens of any Church to be pulled down, for the Disposal of any Organ in such Church, for the Appropriation or Re-appropriation of any Pews or Sittings in the Church of the united Benefice left standing, for the Transfer of any Lectureships, the Sale of any Parsonage Houses, with their Appurtenances, for Compensation to Parish Clerks or other Officers, for Arrangement with respect to Fees or Vestry-rooms, it shall and may be lawful for the Church Building Commissioners to make Proposals thereupon as Part of their Scheme, and such Proposals or any of them shall be subject to Objection and Protest as herein provided: Provided nevertheless, that nothing in this Act contained shall authorize the Sale of any Plate heretofore used for the Purposes of the Holy Communion, but the same shall be transferred, with the Consent of the Bishop of the Diocese, to the Church of the united Benefice, or if such Plate be not needed for such Church then to any other Church or Chapel or Churches or Chapels within the Diocese which the said Bishop may select.

No Burial Ground, &c. to be sold under this Act.

Vaults and Tablets.

IX. Nothing in this Act contained shall be taken or construed to legalize the Sale or letting of any Burial Ground or Churchyard, or of the Site of any Church to be pulled down, if there shall have been any Interments or Deposits in any Grave or Vault under the Site of such Church; and if there shall be any Tablets or Monuments erected in such Church, such Tablets or Monuments, if not removed by the legal Representatives of the Parties to whom the same were erected, shall be carefully removed, at at the Cost and Charge of the Parties removing the Church, and shall be fixed by them in some convenient Part of the Church thereafter to be constituted the Church of the united Parishes.

Church and Vestry of Church left standing to be the Church and Vestry of united Parishes.

X. From and after the Union of any Two or more Benefices under this Act, the Church left standing and remaining within such united Benefice shall be the Church of the united Parishes, and all Meetings of Vestry for Ecclesiastical Purposes within such Parishes shall be Vestry Meetings of the Parishes united under this Act; and the Vestry-room of the Church left standing within such united Parishes shall be held to be the Vestry-room of the united Parishes for the Use of the Parishioners thereof, and also the Vestry-room for secular Purposes for the Parishioners of each of the Parishes forming the united Parish, and for the Care and Preservation of the Deeds, Muniments, and Records belonging to the same: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be taken or construed to interfere with any Privileges or Liberties whatsoever reserved to any Parishes in the City of London by an Act of the Twenty-second Year of His Majesty King Charles the Second, commonly called the City of London Fire Act.

22 Car. 2. c. 11.

6 & 7 Vict. c. 77. Bishop of London may, under certain Circumstances, appropriate for Service in Welsh a Church in London otherwise to be pulled down.

XI. 'And whereas by the Act of the Session holden in the Sixth and Seventh Years of Her Majesty, 'Chapter Seventy-seven, it was enacted, that out of the Proceeds of any Lands, Tithes, Tenements, or 'other Hereditaments in the Principality of Wales, vested or to be vested in the Ecclesiastical Commis- 'sioners for England by or under the Provisions of the said recited Acts or that Act, it should be 'lawful, by the Authority therein mentioned, to make Provision, in whole or in part, for the competent 'Maintenance of any Spiritual Person or Persons (being a Native or Natives of the Principality afore- 'said) who might be licensed by the Bishop of the Diocese for the Time being to officiate in any 'Church or Chapel within London or Westminster or the Suburbs thereof, duly consecrated for the 'Performance of Divine Service according to the Rites and Ceremonies of the United Church of England 'and Ireland, in the Welsh Language, and such Bishop was thereby authorized to license any Spiritual 'Person or Persons accordingly:' It shall be lawful for the Bishop of London, if he sees fit, to appropriate for the Performance of Divine Service in the Welsh Language, so long as such Provision shall continue to be made by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, One of the Churches within his Diocese which might under this Act be pulled down: Provided always, that before such Appropriation sufficient Provision shall be made to the Satisfaction of the said Bishop for the Repairs, Maintenance, and Support of the Fabric of the Church, so long as such Church remains so appropriated.

Bishop may prepare a Scheme for Transference of Lectures from Churches to be pulled down. 16 & 17 Vict. c. 137.

XII. 'And whereas Difficulties might arise in the Case of endowed Lectureships, when the Lectures 'have been customarily preached in a Church which may be taken down under the Authority of this 'Act:' It shall therefore be lawful for the Bishop of any Diocese for the Time being to prepare from Time to Time under his Hand and Seal a Scheme or Schemes for transferring such Lectures to other Churches, to be preached therein at such Times as to the said Bishop may appear convenient; and such Scheme shall be submitted by the said Bishop to the Charity Commissioners under the "Charitable Trusts Act, 1853," and such Scheme, if approved of by them, or subject to such Alterations therein as may appear to the said Commissioners advisable, and as shall be approved of by the said Bishop, shall be valid for effecting the Purposes therein mentioned, and shall be registered in the Registry of the Diocese: Provided nevertheless, that nothing in this Act contained shall give the Bishop any Power respecting the Appointment of a Lecturer without the Consent of the Incumbent of the Church in which such Lecturer is to officiate.

Commissioners may reappropriate Pews of Churches left standing in united Benefices.

XIII. When any Church is pulled down, under the Provisions of this Act, Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new Churches, with the Consent of the Bishop of the Diocese or Chancellor of the Diocese under his Hand and Seal, shall and they are hereby authorized to alter and readjust the Pews or Seats and the Appropriation thereof in the Church of the united Benefice left standing, so that not less than One Third of the Sittings in such Church shall be free and unappropriated, and the Remainder be placed at the Disposal of the Churchwardens, under the Control and Direction of the Bishop, of such Church, for the Use of the Parishioners of such united Benefice.

Sites of Churches to be pulled down to vest in Commissioners, in trust to sell, and apply the Proceeds to certain Purposes. Commissioners may make valid Conveyances of such Sites. Proviso.

XIV. After any Order in Council under this Act shall have obtained full Force of Law, the Fee Simple and Inheritance of the Site of any Church or Parsonage House by such Order in Council directed to be pulled down, and of the Building Materials of such Church or Parsonage House, shall, without any further Transfer, Conveyance, or other Form of Law being had, observed, or required, belong to and be vested in Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new Churches, in trust to make Sale or dispose of such Sites and Materials or any Part thereof, where the same may be sold, under the Powers and for the Purposes of this Act, and in further trust to apply the Proceeds of such Sale or Sales from Time to Time to such of the same Purposes as in the said Order in Council may be indicated; and the said Commissioners, with the Consent of the Bishop of the Diocese under his Hand and Seal, may make a valid Conveyance in Fee Simple to any Body or Person of the Site of any Church or Parsonage House pulled down under this Act, or by virtue of any Order in Council authorized hereby: Provided always, the said Commissioners shall give Two Calendar Months Notice in the London Gazette previous to the Sale or Disposal of such Site or any Part thereof, in order that thereby Facilities may be afforded for appropriating such Site to sanitary Purposes, public Improvements, or the Improvements of public Streets in the Vicinity; and if within Two Months from the Time such Notice shall have been inserted in the London Gazette the said Commissioners shall not receive an Offer which in their Judgment shall be satisfactory satisfactory for the Purchase of such Land for the Purposes aforesaid, it shall be lawful for them to make Sale or to dispose of such Ground, at such Time and at such Prices and in such Manner as in their Discretion shall seem fit, and to apply the Proceeds of such Sale or Sales, from Time to Time, for or towards the Purposes herein-before mentioned.

Commissioners to report.

XV. The Church Building Commissioners shall make an annual Report to Parliament respecting their Proceedings in pursuance of this Act.

Extent of Act.

XVI. This Act shall extend only to that Part of the United Kingdom called England and Wales.

Continuance of Act.

XVII. The Operation of this Act shall be limited to Five Years from the Date of the same receiving the Royal Assent.

C A P. CXXVIII.

An Act further to amend the Laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in England.

[14th August 1855.]

15 & 16 Vict. c. 85. 16 & 17 Vict. c. 134. 17 & 18 Vict. c. 87.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her Majesty (Chapter Eighty-five), "to amend the Laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in the Metropolis;" and an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of Her Majesty (Chapter One hundred and thirty-four), "to amend the Laws concerning the Burial of the Dead in England beyond the Limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the Burial of the Dead in the Metropolis;" and an Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament (Chapter Eighty-seven), "to make further Provisions for the Burial of the Dead in England" beyond the Limits of the Metropolis:" And whereas it is expedient that further Provision should be made for the Burial of the Dead, and that the said Acts should be amended:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Orders in Council under the recited Acts may be varied by like Orders.

I. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the Advice of Her Privy Council, from Time to Time to postpone the Time appointed by any Order in Council for the Discontinuance of Burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the said recited Acts or this Act, (whether the Time thereby appointed for the Discontinuance of Burials thereunder or other Operation of such Order shall or shall not have arrived,) as to Her Majesty, with such Advice as aforesaid, may seem fit; and every Order of Her Majesty in Council made before the passing of this Act for varying any Order previously made under the said Acts or any of them shall be deemed valid and effectual in Law.

Penalty on Persons burying contrary to the Provisions of Orders in Council.

II. If any Person, after the Time mentioned in any Order in Council under the said Acts or any of them, or this Act, for the Discontinuance of Burials, shall knowingly and wilfully bury any Body or in anywise act or assist in the Burial of any Body in any Church, Chapel, Churchyard, Burial Ground, or Place of Burial or (as the Case may be) within the Limits in which Burials have by such Orders been ordered to be discontinued, in violation of the Provisions of any such Order, every Person so offending shall, upon summary Conviction before Two Justices of the Peace, forfeit a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds.

Churchwardens may call Vestry for providing Burial Grounds. Where Order in Council has been made, &c. Churchwardens shall call a Meeting of Vestry.

III. The Churchwardens or other Persons to whom it belongs to convene Meetings of the Vestry of any Parish in which no Burial Board has been appointed may, at any Time, at their Discretion, without Requisition of Ratepayers for that Purpose, convene a Meeting of such Vestry for the Purpose of determining whether a Burial Ground shall be provided for the Parish; and where any Order in Council has been made before the passing of this Act for discontinuing Burials (wholly or subject to any Exception or Qualification) in any Burial Ground of any Parish for which no Burial Board has been appointed, or Notice has been given of the Intention of the Secretary of State to make a Representation to Her Majesty in Council that Burials should be discontinued (wholly or subject to any Exception or Qualification) in any Burial Ground of any Parish, the Churchwardens or other Persons to whom it belongs to convene Meetings of Vestry shall, with all convenient Speed after the passing of this Act, convene a Meeting of the Vestry for the Purpose aforesaid; and where at any Time hereafter Notice is given of the Intention of the Secretary of State to make a like Representation in relation to a Burial Ground of any Parish, such Churchwardens or other Persons as aforesaid shall forthwith convene a Meeting of the Vestry for the Purpose aforesaid; and all the Provisions of the said Acts as amended by this Act relating to and consequent upon Vestry Meetings convened upon such Requisition as provided by the first-recited Act shall be applicable to Vestry Meetings convened under this Enactment.

Vacancies in Burial Board to be filled up by Vestry within a Month.

IV. Every Vacancy in any Burial Board shall be filled up by the Vestry appointing the same within One Month after such Vacancy shall have happened, and immediately on the Occurrence thereof the same shall be notified by the Burial Board to the Churchwardens or other Persons to whom it belongs to convene Meetings of the Vestry; and in case any such Vestry shall neglect to fill up any such Vacancy, the Vacancy may be filled up by the Burial Board at any Meeting thereof; and every Person to be appointed to supply any such Vacancy shall be a Ratepayer of the Parish for which the Burial Board is appointed; and every such Board may act for any Purpose, notwithstanding any Vacancies therein.

V. So

Monthly Meetings of Boards repealed.

V. So much of Section Thirteen of the said Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her Majesty as requires that the Burial Board shall meet once at least in every Month shall be repealed.

Sanction of Vestry not required for Expenditure and other Acts of Burial Board in certain Cases.

VI. If the Vestry of any Parish shall refuse or neglect to authorize the Expenditure of such Sums as the Burial Board of such Parish shall have declared to be necessary for providing and laying out a Burial Ground, and building the necessary Chapel or Chapels therein, it shall be lawful for such Burial Board to represent such Refusal or Neglect to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and in case it shall appear to the Secretary of State, after Inquiry into the Circumstances of the Case, that the Burial Board are unable to provide such Burial Ground, or to proceed effectually in the Execution of their Duties, by reason of such Refusal or Neglect, it shall be lawful for such Secretary of State, by Warrant under his Hand, to authorize such Burial Board, without further Authority, Sanction, or Approval of or by such Vestry, to expend such Sums of Money for providing and laying out a Burial Ground, and building the necessary Chapel or Chapels thereon, and to borrow and charge such Money for all or any of such Purposes, and to enter into and make such Contracts and Purchases, and do such other Acts as under the Sections Nineteen, Twenty, Twenty-six, and Forty-two of the said Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her Majesty might have been expended, borrowed, and charged, entered into, made, and done with the Authority, Approval, and Sanction of such Vestry, subject, nevertheless, to such Limitation of Amount or other Limitation or Restriction as such Secretary of State may by his Warrant prescribe; and all Acts done in pursuance of such Warrant shall be as valid and effectual as if the Authority, Approval, and Sanction of such Vestry had in every Case been obtained.

Fees, &c. to be subject to Approval of Secretary of State.

VII. All such Fees, Payments, and Sums as may be fixed, settled, and received by any Burial Board under Section Thirty-four of the said Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her Majesty, shall be so fixed and settled subject to the Approval of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and no such Fees, Payments, or Sums shall be altered or varied without such Approval.

Secretary of State may direct Inspection of Burial Grounds.

Penalty for obstructing Inspector or violating Regulations.

VIII. It shall be lawful for One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State from Time to Time to appoint and authorize any Person to inspect any Burial Ground or Cemetery, parochial or non-parochial, or Place for the Reception of Bodies, to ascertain the State and Condition thereof, and where Regulations in relation thereto have been made or may be made by the Secretary of State under the said Acts or any of them, to ascertain whether such Regulations have been observed and complied with; and if any Person having the Care of any such Burial Ground or Cemetery or other Place shall obstruct any Person so authorized to inspect the same, or if any Person having the Care of any Burial Ground or Place for the Reception of Bodies subject to such Regulations as aforesaid shall violate or neglect or fail to observe and comply with any such Regulation, or any Regulation imposed by this Act, every Person so offending shall upon summary Conviction thereof before Two Justices forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds.

Part of s. 24. of 15 & 16 Vict. c. 85. repealed.

Burial Ground not to be within 100 Yards of Dwelling House.

IX. So much of the said Act of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of Her Majesty as enacts that "no "Ground (not already used as or appropriated for a Cemetery) shall be appropriated as a Burial Ground "or as an Addition to a Burial Ground under that Act nearer than Two hundred Yards to any Dwelling "House, without the Consent in Writing of the Owner, Lessee, and Occupier of such Dwelling House," shall be repealed; but no Ground not already used as or appropriated for a Cemetery shall be used for Burials under the said Act or this Act, or either of them, within the Distance of One hundred Yards from any Dwelling House, without such Consent as aforesaid.

If Ratepayers resolve, Land for new Burial Ground may be conveyed and settled as old Burial Ground.

X. If the Ratepayers assembled at any Vestry duly convened under the Provisions of this Act shall, in pursuance of public Notice duly given in that Behalf, resolve unanimously that any new Burial Ground to be provided for their Parish, under the Provisions of this Act, shall be held and used in like Manner and subject to the same Laws and Regulations in all respects as the existing Burial Ground or Churchyard of the said Parish, the Land for such new Burial Ground may be conveyed and settled in accordance with such Resolution, anything in this or the said recited Acts notwithstanding, and in such Case it shall not be necessary to set apart to remain unconsecrated any Portion of the Land so conveyed and settled: Provided always, that if at any Time within Ten Years thereafter the Vestry, duly convened under the Provisions of this Act in pursuance of public Notice duly given in that Behalf, should determine that an unconsecrated Burial Ground should be also provided for such Parish, all the Powers and Provisions of the said recited Acts and this Act may be put in force and shall be applicable for providing such unconsecrated Burial Ground separately, in like Manner as they might have been put in force and been applicable for providing an ordinary Burial Ground for such Parish.

How Burial Grounds are to be provided for united Parishes.

XI. Where a Parish or Place has been united with any other Parish or Place, Parishes or Places, for all or any Ecclesiastical Purposes, or where Two or more Parishes or Places have heretofore had a Church or a Burial Ground for their joint Use, or where the Inhabitants of several Parishes or Places have been accustomed to meet in One Vestry for Purposes common to such several Parishes or Places, it shall be lawful for the Vestry or any Meeting in the Nature of a Vestry of such several Parishes or Places in any of the Cases aforesaid, and whether any One or more of such Parishes or Places do or do not separately maintain its own Poor, to appoint a Burial Board, and from Time to Time to supply Vacancies therein, and to exercise the same Powers of Authorization, Approval, and Sanction in relation to such Burial Board, and such other Powers as under the said Acts and this Act are vested in the Vestry of a Parish or Place separately maintaining its own Poor; and the Burial Board so appointed shall have all the Powers for providing

providing a Burial Ground for the common Use of such several Parishes or Places, and for facilitating Interments, and otherwise, as if such several Parishes or Places had been a Parish separately maintaining its own Poor; and the Expenses of the Burial Board appointed under this Provision shall be borne by the several Parishes or Places for which such Board is appointed, and shall be apportioned among them by such Burial Board in proportion to the Value of the Property in such several Parishes or Places as rated to the Relief of the Poor; and the Sums required by the Burial Board in respect of the Portion of such Expenses to be borne by any such Parish or Place shall be paid out of the Rates for the Relief of the Poor in such Parish or Place, in like Manner as if such Burial Board had been appointed for such Parish or Place alone.

Burial Boards may be appointed for certain Townships, &c. which have had separate Burial Grounds.

XII. The Vestry or Meeting in the Nature of a Vestry of any Parish, Township, or other District not separately maintaining its own Poor, which has heretofore had a separate Burial Ground, may appoint a Burial Board, and from Time to Time supply Vacancies therein, and may exercise the same Powers of Authorization, Approval, and Sanction in relation to such Burial Board, and such other Powers as under the said Acts and this Act are vested in the Vestry of a Parish separately maintaining its own Poor; and the Burial Board so appointed shall have all the Powers for providing a Burial Ground and otherwise as if such Parish, Township, or other District had been a Parish separately maintaining its own Poor.

Provision for Expenses of Burial Boards of Places not separately maintaining their own Poor.

XIII. Where any District (whether a Parish or Township or other Subdivision) not separately maintaining its own Poor, but forming Part of a Parish maintaining its own Poor, or of an Incorporation or other Union maintaining the Poor of the Places comprised therein, by means of a common Rate, shall have a Burial Board, or shall form Part of a Place or Union of Places not co-extensive with the Area rated for the Relief of the Poor, and having One Burial Board, it shall be lawful for such respective Burial Board to issue their Certificate to the Overseers of such Parish, or the Overseers or other Persons authorized to make and collect or cause to be collected such common Rate (as the Case may be), for Payment of the Sums required for the Expenses of such Burial Board, or, where such District not separately maintaining its own Poor forms Part only of the Area of the Burial Board, of the Sums required in respect of the Portion of such Expenses to be borne by such District, in like Manner as if such District had been a Parish separately maintaining its own Poor, and such Overseers or Persons authorized as aforesaid had been the Overseers thereof; and such Overseers or Persons shall pay such Sums as shall be required by such Certificate, according to the Directions of such Burial Board, and shall levy such Sums as may be required for such Payments to the Burial Board by an Addition to the Parish Rate or common Rate, so far as the same affects the District in respect of which such Payments are required, or by separate Rates to be made from Time to Time on such District; and for levying such Additions or separate Rates as aforesaid, such Overseers or other Persons shall have the Powers, Remedies, and Privileges, and proceed in the same Manner, as in the Case of the Rates for the Relief of the Poor; provided that any such Rates may (notwithstanding any Restriction in relation to the Parish Rate or common Rate) be made and levied at such Times as may be necessary to provide for the Payments aforesaid.

No Obligation to build a Chapel for Persons not Members of the Church of England when Secretary of State declares it unnecessary.

XIV. ‘ And whereas Doubts have arisen whether in all Cases in which any Burial Board shall build ‘ in any Burial Ground provided by such Board a Chapel for the Burial Service according to the Rites ‘ of the United Church of England and Ireland, such Burial Board is not also bound by Law to build a ‘ Chapel or Chapels upon the unconsecrated Part of such Burial Ground for the Performance of Burial ‘ Service for Persons not being Members of the said Church :’ Be it enacted, That in any such Case as aforesaid, where it shall appear to One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, upon the Representation of a Majority of the Vestry of any Parish, consisting of not less than Three Fourths of the Members of the same, that the building of a Chapel upon the unconsecrated Part of any such Burial Ground for the Use of Persons not being Members of the said Church is undesirable and unnecessary, it shall be lawful for the said Secretary of State, if he shall think fit, to signify his Opinion to that Effect to the Burial Board of the Parish, and the said Burial Board shall thereupon be relieved from all Obligation to build the same: Provided always, that such Secretary of State shall not signify his Opinion as aforesaid unless it be shown to his Satisfaction that Notice of the Intention to propose to such Vestry to make such Representation was given in manner required by Law for Notices of Vestry Meetings, and of the special Purposes thereof.

When Assessment to local Rates not to be increased after Purchases.

XV. No Land already or to be hereafter purchased or acquired, under the Provisions of any of the Acts herein-before recited, for the Purpose of a Burial Ground (with or without any Building erected or to be erected thereon), shall while used for such Purposes be assessed to any County, Parochial, or other local Rates at a higher Value or more improved Rent than the Value or Rent at which the same was assessed at the Time of such Purchase or Acquisition.

15 & 16 Vict. c. 85. 16 & 17 Vict. c. 134. Separate Burial Boards whose

XVI. That in any Case where the Burial Boards appointed under the said recited Acts of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth and the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of Her Majesty, or either of them, for any Two Parishes, shall provide separate Burial Grounds for such Parishes respectively, and such Burial Grounds shall adjoin each other, it shall be lawful for the said Burial Boards to concur in building, either on One of the said Burial Grounds or partly on One of such Grounds and partly on the other, such Chapels as are are authorized to be built by the said Acts, and that such Chapels when erected shall be used in common by both of such Parishes, and be deemed and taken to be the Chapels of and belonging to each of such Burial Grounds respectively, in such Manner, consistent with the Provisions of the said Acts or either of them, as the said Burial Boards shall mutually agree upon; and that the said Burial Boards may agree as to the Proportions in which the Expenses of erecting such Chapel Accommodation shall be borne by each of the said Boards respectively; and the Proportion for each of such Parishes of such Expenses shall be chargeable upon and paid in the same Manner as the Costs of providing Burial Grounds under the said Acts; and where any Burial Board shall provide a Burial Ground, and cause Chapels to be built thereon, pursuant to the said recited Acts, it shall be lawful for such Burial Board, with the Sanction of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, to contract with any other Burial Board whose Burial Ground shall adjoin the One on which such Chapels shall so have been built, for the Use of such Chapels, in such Manner and on such Terms as such respective Burial Boards shall mutually agree, and that during the Existence of any such Agreement such Chapels shall be deemed and taken to be the Chapels of and belonging to each of such Burial Grounds respectively.

Burial Grounds adjoin may contract with each other for specific Purposes.

Burial Board may let Land not required for Burials.

XVII. It shall be lawful for any Burial Board, with the Sanction of One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and subject to Regulations approved of by him, to let any Land purchased by and vested in them under this Act or any of the Acts herein-before recited, and which has not been consecrated, and in which no Body has been at any Time interred, and which is not for the Time being required for the Purposes of a Burial Ground, in such Manner and on such Terms as such Board may see fit, but so nevertheless that Power shall be reserved to such Board to resume any such Land which may be required for the Purposes aforesaid, upon giving Six Months Notice.

Burial Board to keep in Order closed Burial Grounds, &c.

XVIII. In every Case in which any Order in Council has been or shall hereafter be issued for the Discontinuance of Burials in any Churchyard or Burial Ground, the Burial Board or Churchwardens, as the Case may be, shall maintain such Churchyard or Burial Ground of any Parish in decent Order, and also do the necessary Repair of the Walls and other Fences thereof, and the Costs and Expenses shall be repaid by the Overseers, upon the Certificate of the Burial Board or Churchwardens, as the Case may be, out of the Rate made for the Relief of the Poor of the Parish or Place in which such Churchyard or Burial Ground is situate, unless there shall be some other Fund legally chargeable with such Costs and Expenses.

Act not to abridge Powers of Local Boards of Health, &c.

XIX. Nothing in this Act contained shall in anywise abridge, lessen, or defeat any Power, Right, or Privilege of any Local Board of Health being the Burial Board of a Borough created or to exist under or by virtue of any Local Act of Parliament.

Local Boards of Health to exercise Powers of this Act.

XX. Any Local Board of Health acting as or created a Board under or by virtue of the Powers of any Local Act of Parliament shall and may have and exercise all the Powers, Rights, and Privileges which by this Act or by the secondly recited Act are or can or may be had, enjoyed, or exercised by any Burial Board therein named.

Acts to be construed together.

XXI. The said Acts of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth, Sixteenth and Seventeenth, and Seventeenth and Eighteenth Years of Her Majesty and this Act shall be read and construed together as One Act.

CAP. CXXXI.

An Act to render more secure the Conditions upon which Money is advanced out of the Parliamentary Grant for the Purposes of Education. [14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient that greater Security should be afforded for the due Application of 'Money advanced in certain Cases to the Trustees or Managers of Schools by the Lords Com- 'missioners of the Treasury out of the Parliamentary Grant for the Promotion of Education in Great 'Britain:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows: Where any Grant hath been made or shall hereafter be made out of any Sums of Money heretofore granted or hereafter to be granted by Parliament for the Purposes of Education in Great Britain, under the Advice of any Committee of the Council on Education for the Time being, to the Trustees, Managers, or other Persons applying on behalf of any School, with the Consent of the Trustees or Persons holding the legal Estate thereof, for or towards the Purchase of the Site or the Erection, Enlargement, or Repair of the School, or the Residence of the Master or Mistress, or the furnishing such School or Residence, no Sale, Exchange, or Mortgage of the Premises in respect of which such Grant hath been or may hereafter be made in exercise of any Power contained in the Conveyance or other Deed relating thereto, or under any other legal Authority, shall be valid unless either the Consent of the Secretary of State for the Home Department for the Time being, in Writing under his Hand be given to the same, or the Amount of the Grant which shall have been made as aforesaid shall be repaid to the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being; and whenever any Grant as aforesaid shall be hereafter made, a Memorandum, to be signed by One of the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, shall be endorsed upon some One of the Title Deeds relating to the School, certifying the Fact of the Grant having been made upon such Application, and for some such Purpose as aforesaid, and referring to this Act; and in any Case in which any Grant as aforesaid shall have been already made, so soon as such Memorandum shall have been endorsed and signed on any such Deed, all Bonds, Covenants, or other personal Obligations heretofore given or entered into to prevent the Exercise of any such Power of Sale, Exchange, or Mortgage, without such Consent as aforesaid, shall, so far as they relate to such Exercise, but no further, be annulled.

Sale, &c. of Premises in respect of which Grant of Money has been made not to be valid without Consent of Secretary of State, &c.

II. Nothing herein contained shall affect any Purchaser for a valuable Consideration without Notice, nor be deemed to apply to any School in respect of any such Grant heretofore made without any such Bond, Covenant, or other personal Obligations or Conditions as to Sale, Exchange, or Mortgage having been entered into by the Trustees or Persons holding the legal Estate in such Schools and the Committee of Council on Education.

Purchasers not to be affected without Notice.

CAP. CXXXII.

An Act for facilitating the Erection of Dwelling Houses for the Labouring Classes.

[14th August 1855.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that Facilities should be afforded for the Erection of healthful and commodious Dwellings for the Labouring Classes: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

I. This Act may for all Purposes be cited as "The Labourers Dwellings Act, 1855." Short Title.

Constitution of Company.

II. Any Number of Persons not less than Six may, by subscribing Articles of Association or a Schedule thereto, form themselves into a Company for the Purposes herein-after mentioned: The Articles shall be in the Form set forth in the Schedule hereto, or as near thereto as Circumstances permit: There shall be set opposite to the Name of each Subscriber the Sum subscribed for by him in the Capital of the Company, and his Subscription shall be deemed to imply a Covenant on the Part of himself, his Heirs, Executors, and Administrators, to pay to the Company the Amount so subscribed for. Power to form Company.

III. The Articles shall be registered by the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies, who shall charge in respect of such Registration such Fees as may from Time to Time be directed by the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council appointed for the Consideration of Matters relating to Trade and Plantations, herein-after called the Board of Trade; and upon such Registration being made, the Subscribers, together with such other Persons as may from Time to Time become Members of the Company, shall be a Body Corporate by the Name prescribed in the Articles of Association, having a perpetual Succession and a Common Seal; but no such Registration shall be made until it is proved to the Satisfaction of the said Registrar that Three Fourths of the proposed Capital has been subscribed for, and that Ten per Centum upon such Capital has been paid up. Registration of Articles.

IV. The said Registrar shall grant a Certificate stating the Date of the Incorporation of the Company, and such Certificate shall in all Cases be primâ facie Evidence of the Fact of such Incorporation. Certificate of Incorporation.

V. The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, shall be incorporated into and form Part of this Act, with the Exception of the Provisions relating to the Recovery of Damages, and to the Provision to be made for affording Access to the Special Act; and in the Construction of the said Companies Clauses Act the Articles of Association shall be deemed to be the Special Act, and the Date of the Incorporation of the Company, as certified in manner aforesaid, shall be deemed to be "the Time of the passing of the Special Act;" and whenever the Term "prescribed" is used in this or in the said incorporated Act, it shall mean "prescribed by the Articles of Association." 8 & 9 Vict. c. 16. incorporated with this Act.

Rights and Obligations of Company.

VI. Every Company incorporated under this Act, and herein-after referred to as "the Company," shall be established for the Purpose of providing Dwellings for the Labouring Classes, with or without private Gardens, or with or without common Gardens or Places of common Recreation for the Use of the Inmates of such Dwellings, and for no other Purpose whatever; and for the above Purpose the Company shall have Power to accept Grants and Leases of and to purchase and hold Land, to erect thereon Dwellings for the Labouring Classes, and to let such Dwellings to Lodgers by the Week or Month, or to demise the same to Lessees for any Estate or Interest not greater than a Term of Twenty-one Years, upon such Terms of Remuneration as they think fit; subject to this Proviso, that the Company shall not be entitled to hold at any One Time more than Ten Acres of Land, except with the Licence of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade. Purpose of Company.

VII. The following Regulations shall be made respecting any Dwellings provided by the Company; that is to say, Regulations as to Dwellings.

(1.) All such Dwellings shall, as respects Drainage, Ventilation, Supply of Water, and necessary Conveniences, be constructed and provided in such Manner as may be approved by the General Board of Health, and shall be maintained by the Company in good and sufficient Repair:

(2.) Any Person appointed by the General Board of Health may at all reasonable Times inspect any such Dwellings as aforesaid.

VIII. The following Matters and Things may be prescribed by the Articles of Association, and if so prescribed, but not otherwise, shall be binding; that is to say, Permissive Rights of the Company.

(1.) That the Capital of the Company may, with the Approval of the Board of Trade, and subject to such Condition as they may impose, be increased by the Issue of a prescribed Number of Shares, and of a prescribed Amount:

(2.) That no Premium is to be taken in respect of any Lease granted by the Company:

(3.) That the Interest granted to any Lessee is not to exceed the prescribed Term, such Term being less than Twenty-one Years:

(4.) That the Interest of a Lessee is not to be disposed of without the Consent of the Directors:

But no Power hereby given shall be exercised in such Manner as to prejudice any Right under any subsisting Lease or Contract for a Lease.

Power to mortgage given in certain Cases.

IX. In Cases where it is prescribed by the Articles of Association that the Dwellings belonging to the Company are to be let only to Lodgers by the Week or Month and not for any greater Interval, the Company may, as soon as Half the subscribed Capital is paid up, borrow on the Security of their Property to the prescribed Amount, such Amount not to exceed One Third of such subscribed Capital; but no Mortgagee shall have Power to eject any Tenant before the Expiration of his Tenancy; and in no other Case shall the Company have Power to borrow Money.

Rules as to Demises by the Company.

X. The following Rules shall be observed with respect to Demises and Letting made by the Company:

(1.) The Dwellings provided by the Company, with the private Gardens (if any) appurtenant thereto, shall be divided into such Parcels as may be conveniently held in distinct Occupations:

(2.) The Parcels shall be numbered in Arithmetical Progression, beginning with the Figure One, each Parcel being distinguished by a separate Number:

(3.) The Interests of the Lessees, other than monthly or weekly Tenants, in the Property of the Company, shall be deemed to be Shares in a Capital consisting of the Dwelling Houses of the Company, with their Appurtenances; and in all Cases where such Interests are not restricted to the original Lessee, the Transfer or Transmission of such Interests shall take place in manner in which the Transfer or Transmission of Shares takes place in pursuance of the said Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, or as near thereto as Circumstances admit; and the Clauses of such last-mentioned Act with respect to the Transfer or Transmission of Shares shall, with the necessary Alterations, be held to apply to the Transfer or Transmission of the Interests of any such Lessees as aforesaid.

8 & 9 Vict. c. 16.

Power to Company to purchase Interests of Lessees.

XI. The Company may purchase the Interest of any registered Lessee, and upon such Purchase being made such Interest shall be deemed to be extinguished, and the Company may demise the Premises so purchased in the same Manner as if no previous Lease thereof had ever before been made.

Penalty on Misappropriation of Funds.

XII. If any Funds of the Company are advanced to any Person by way of Loan, or are with a view of gaining Profit appropriated to any Purpose other than the Purpose for which the Company is hereby declared to be established, every Director of the Company shall, in addition to any other Liabilities he may be under to replace such Funds, be liable, at the Suit of any Shareholder or other Person, whether implicated or not in such Loan or Misappropriation, to pay to such Shareholder or other Person, to be applied by him to his own Use, in respect of each such Advance or Misappropriation, a Sum by way of Penalty not greater in Amount than the Sum so advanced or misappropriated, and not less than Half such Sum.

Penalty in case Dwellings are not sufficiently drained, &c.

XIII. If any Dwelling belonging to the Company is insufficiently drained or ventilated, or insufficiently supplied with Water or necessary Conveniences, or is in a bad State of Repair, the General Board of Health may, by Order left at any Office of the Company, or served on any Director of the Company, require the Company, within a reasonable Time, to be specified in such Order, sufficiently to drain, ventilate, and supply with Water and necessary Conveniences, or put in a good State of Repair, such Dwelling; and if default is made in compliance with the Requisitions of such Notice, the Company shall incur a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for every Day during which such Default continues; and it shall be lawful for any Justices by whom such Penalty is imposed, if they think fit, to order the whole or any Part thereof to be laid out in executing the Works in respect of which the Penalty is incurred; and in addition to the above Remedy the said General Board may themselves do the Works required by such Notice, and recover from the Company in a summary Manner the Expenses of so doing the same; but any Order made by the General Board in pursuance of this Section may be appealed against, and, on Application by Motion, be set aside or otherwise modified by any of Her Majesty's Superior Courts of Law at Westminster.

Penalty on obstructing Inspector.

XIV. If any Person obstructs any Inspector of the General Board of Health in the Inspection of any Dwelling belonging to the Company, he shall for each Offence incur a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds.

Miscellaneous.

Provisions of 8 & 9 Vict. c. 18. incorporated with this Act.

XV. The Provisions of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with reference to the Purchase of Lands by Agreement, shall be incorporated with this Act, and shall apply to the Purchase of Land by the Company in pursuance of this Act.

Recovery of Penalties.

XVI. All Penalties imposed by this Act, or by any Byelaws made in pursuance of this Act or of any Act incorporated herewith, and all Sums of Money hereby directed to be recovered in a summary Manner, may be recovered in a summary Manner before Two Justices, as directed by an Act passed in the Eleventh and Twelfth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter Forty-three, intituled An Act to facilitate the Performance of the Duties of Justices of the Peace out of Sessions within England and Wales with respect to summary Convictions and Orders.

11 & 12 Vict. c. 43.

Extent of Act.

XVII. This Act shall not extend to Scotland.

CAP. CXXXIII.

An Act for limiting the Liability of Members of certain Joint Stock Companies.

[14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS it is expedient to enable Members of Joint Stock Companies to limit the Liability for 'the Debts and Engagements of such Companies to which they are now subject:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Mode of obtaining Limited Liability by future Companies under 8 Vict. c. 110.

I. Any Joint Stock Company to be formed under the Act of the Eighth Year of Her Majesty, Chapter One hundred and ten, (other than an Assurance Company,) with a Capital to be divided into Shares of a nominal Value not less than Ten Pounds each, may obtain a Certificate of Complete Registration with Limited Liability upon complying with the Conditions following, in addition to doing all other Matters and Things now required in order to obtain a Certificate of Complete Registration; that is to say,

(1.) The Promoters shall state on their Returns to the Office for Provisional Registration that such Company is proposed to be formed with Limited Liability:

(2.) The Word "Limited" shall be the last Word of the Name of the Company:

(3.) The Deed of Settlement shall contain a Statement to the Effect that the Company is formed with Limited Liability:

(4.) The Deed of Settlement shall be executed by Shareholders, not less than Twenty-five in Number, holding Shares to the Amount in the aggregate of at least Three Fourths of the nominal Capital of the Company, and there shall have been paid up by each of such Shareholders on account of his Shares not less than Twenty Pounds per Centum:

(5.) The Payment of the above Per-centage shall be acknowledged in or endorsed on the Deed of Settlement, and the Fact of the same having been bonâ fide so paid shall be verified by a Declaration of the Promoters, or any Two of them, made in pursuance of the Act made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-two: 6 W. 4. c. 62.

And upon such Conditions being complied with, and such other Matters and Things done, the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies shall grant a Certificate of Complete Registration with Limited Liability to such Company.

Mode of obtaining Limited Liability by Companies now or hereafter registered.

II. Any Joint Stock Company, except as aforesaid, now or hereafter completely registered under the said Act of the Eighth Year of Her Majesty, may obtain a Certificate of Complete Registration with Limited Liability, in manner and subject to the Condition following; that is to say,

The Directors of such Company may, with the Consent of at least Three Fourths in Number and Value of its Shareholders who may be present, personally or by Proxy, at any General Meeting summoned for that Purpose, make such Alteration in the Name, nominal Value of Shares, and Deed of Settlement of the Company as may be necessary for enabling it to comply with the Conditions herein-before mentioned with respect to Joint Stock Companies seeking to obtain Certificates of Complete Registration with Limited Liability; and upon Compliance with such Conditions, the Registrar, after the Affairs of the Company shall at the Expense of the Company have been audited by some Person appointed by the Board of Trade, and on Certificate from the said Board that the complete Solvency thereof has been established on such Audit to its Satisfaction, shall grant to such Company, by its new Name, a Certificate of Complete Registration with Limited Liability, and thereupon all Privileges and Obligations hereby attached to Companies with Limited Liability, their Shareholders, Directors, and Officers, shall attach to the Company named in such Certificate, its Shareholders, Directors, and Officers.

Mode of obtaining Limited Liability by existing Companies constituted under Private Acts of Parliament.

III. Any Joint Stock Company, except as aforesaid, constituted under any Private Act of Parliament, whereof it shall be proved to the Satisfaction of the Board of Trade, after the Affairs of the Company shall, at the Expense of the Company, have been audited by some Person appointed by the Board of Trade, that the said Company is perfectly solvent, and that not less than Twenty per Centum of Three Fourths of the nominal Capital of such Company has been paid up, may obtain a Certificate of Complete Registration with Limited Liability, in manner and subject to the Condition following; that is to say,

The Directors of such Company may, with the Consent of at least Three Fourths in Number and Value of its Shareholders who may be present, personally or by Proxy, at any General Meeting summoned for that Purpose, make such Alteration in the Name and nominal Value of Shares as may be necessary for enabling it to comply with the Condition in that Behalf herein-before mentioned with respect to Joint Stock Companies seeking to obtain Certificates of Complete Registration with Limited Liability; and upon Compliance with such Condition the Registrar, on Receipt of a Certificate of the Solvency of the Company, and of the Payment of Capital as before mentioned, shall grant to such Company, by its new Name, a Certificate of Complete Registration with Limited Liability; and thereupon all Privileges and Obligations hereby attached to Companies with Limited Liability, their Shareholders, Directors, and Officers, shall attach to the Company named in such Certificate, its Shareholders, Directors, and Officers.

Regulations to be observed on Complete Registration with Limited Liability.

IV. Every Company that has obtained a Certificate of Complete Registration with Limited Liability shall paint or affix, and shall keep painted or affixed, its Name on the Outside of every Office or Place in which the Business of the Company is carried on, in a conspicuous Position, in Letters easily legible, and shall have its Name engraven in legible Characters on its Seal, and shall have its Name mentioned in legible Characters in all Notices, Advertisements, and other official Publications of such Company, and in all Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, Cheques, Orders for Money, Bills of Parcels, Invoices, Receipts, Letters, and other Writings used in the Transaction of the Business of the Company.

Penalties to be inflicted for Non-observance of such Regulations.

V. If such Company do not paint or affix, and keep painted or affixed, its Name, in the Manner aforesaid, each of the Directors thereof shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Five Pounds for not so painting or affixing its Name, and for every Day during which such Name is not so kept painted or affixed; and if any Director or other Officer of the Company, or any Person on its Behalf, use any Seal purporting to be a Seal of the Company whereon its Name is not so engraven as aforesaid, or issue or authorize the Issue of any Notice, Advertisement, or other official Publication of such Company, or of any Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, Cheque, Order for Money, Bill of Parcels, Invoice, Receipt, Letter, and other Writing used in the Transaction of the Business of the Company, wherein its Name is not mentioned in the Manner aforesaid, he shall be liable to a Penalty of Fifty Pounds, and shall further be personally liable to the Holder of any such Bill of Exchange, Promissory Note, Cheque, or Order for Money, for the Amount thereof, unless the same shall be duly paid by the Company.

Every Increase in the nominal Capital to be registered under a Penalty.

VI. No Increase to be made in the nominal Capital of any Company that has obtained a Certificate of Complete Registration with Limited Liability shall be advertised or otherwise treated as Part of the Capital of such Company, until it has been registered with the Registrar of Joint Stock Companies; and no such Registration shall be made unless a Deed is produced to the Registrar, executed by Shareholders holding Shares of the nominal Value of not less than Ten Pounds to the Amount in the aggregate of at least Three Fourths of the proposed increased Capital of the Company, nor unless it is proved to the Registrar, by such Acknowledgment and Declaration as herein-after mentioned, that upon each of such Shares there has been paid up by the Holder thereof an Amount of not less than Twenty Pounds per Centum; and if any such Increase of Capital as aforesaid be advertised or otherwise treated as Part of the Capital of the Company before the same has been so registered, every Director of such Company shall incur a Penalty of Fifty Pounds; and the Payment of the above Per-centage shall be acknowledged in or endorsed on the Deed so produced, and the Fact of the same having been bonâ fide so paid shall be verified by a Declaration of the Directors, or any Two of them, made in pursuance of the said Act made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter Sixty-two.

Certificated Companies to be free from Liability notwithstanding 8 Vict. c. 110.

VII. The Members of a Joint Stock Company which has so obtained a Certificate of Complete Registration with Limited Liability, after such Certificate is granted, notwithstanding the Provisions contained in the said Act of the Eighth Year of Her present Majesty, shall not be liable, under any Judgment, Decree, or Order which shall be obtained against such Company, or for any Debt or Engagement of such Company, further or otherwise than is herein-after provided.

Effect of Execution against Company.

VIII. If any Execution, Sequestration, or other Process in the Nature of Execution, either at Law or in Equity, shall have been issued against the Property or Effects of the Company, and if there cannot be found sufficient whereon to levy or enforce such Execution, Sequestration, or other Process, then such Execution, Sequestration, or other Process may be issued against any of the Shareholders to the Extent of the Portions of their Shares respectively in the Capital of the Company not then paid up, but no Shareholder shall be liable to pay in satisfaction of any One or more such Execution, Sequestration, or other Process a greater Sum than shall be equal to the Portion of his Shares not paid up: Provided always, that no such Execution shall issue against any Shareholder except upon an Order of the Court, or of a Judge of the Court, in which the Action, Suit, or other Proceeding shall have been brought or instituted; and such Court or Judge may order Execution to issue accordingly, with the reasonable Costs of such Application, Application, and Execution to be taxed by a Master of the said Court; and for the Purpose of ascertaining the Names of the Shareholders, and the Amount of Capital remaining to be paid upon their respective Shares, it shall be lawful for any Person entitled to any such Execution, at all reasonable Times, to inspect the Register of Shareholders without Fee.

If Dividends be made and Corporation insolvent, each Director consenting thereto liable.

IX. If the Directors of any such Company shall declare and pay any Dividend when the Company is known by them to be insolvent, or any Dividend the Payment of which would to their Knowledge render it insolvent, they shall be jointly and severally liable for all the Debts of the Company then existing, and for all that shall be thereafter contracted, so long as they shall respectively continue in Office; provided that the Amount for which they shall all be so liable shall not exceed the Amount of such Dividend, and that if any of the Directors shall be absent at the Time of making the Dividend, or shall object thereto, and shall file their Objection in Writing with the Clerk of the Company, they shall be exempted from the said Liability.

Notes of Shareholders not receivable in Payment of Calls; Liability of each Officer consenting to a Loan to Shareholders.

X. No Note or Obligation given by any Shareholder to the Company whereof he is a Shareholder, whether secured by any Pledge or otherwise, shall be considered as Payment of any Money due from him on any Share held by him, and no Loan of Money shall be made by any such Company to any Shareholder therein; and if any such Loan shall be made to a Shareholder, the Directors who shall make it, or who shall assent thereto, shall be jointly and severally liable to the Extent of such Loan, and Interest for all the Debts of the Company contracted before the Repayment of the Sum so lent.

Rights of Creditors of existing Companies preserved.

XI. Where any Company completely registered under the said Act of the Eighth Year of Her present Majesty, or any Company constituted under any Act of Parliament, shall obtain a Certificate of Complete Registration with Limited Liability, the Grant of such Certificate shall not prejudice or affect any Right which previously to the Grant of such Certificate has accrued to any Creditor or other Person against the Company in its Corporate Capacity, or against any Person then being or having been a Member of such Company, but every such Creditor or other Person shall be entitled to all such Remedies against the Company in its Corporate Capacity, and against every Person then being or having been a Member of such Company, as he would have been entitled to in case such Certificate had not been obtained.

Change in the Name of a Company under the Act not to affect the Rights of the Company or other Parties.

XII. No Alteration made by virtue of this Act in the Name of any Company shall prejudice or affect any Right which previously to such Alteration has accrued to such Company as against any other Company or Person, or which has accrued to any other Company or Person as against such Company, but every such Company as against any other Company or Person, and every other Company or Person as against such Company and the Members thereof, shall be entitled to all such Remedies as they or he would have been entitled to if no such Alteration had been made; and no such Alteration shall abate or render defective any legal Proceeding pending at the Time when such Alteration is made.

Companies to be dissolved and wound up when Three Fourths of the Capital lost.

XIII. In the Case of any Company which has obtained a Certificate of Limited Liability, whenever, on taking the yearly Accounts of such Company, or by any Report of the Auditors thereof, it appears that Three Fourths of the subscribed Capital Stock of the Company has been lost, or has become unavailable in the Course of Trade, from the Insolvency of Shareholders, or from any other Cause, the Trading and Business of such Company shall forthwith cease, or shall be carried on for the sole Purpose of winding up its Affairs; and the Directors of such Company shall forthwith take proper Steps for the Dissolution of such Company, and for the winding up of its Affairs, either by Petition to the Court of Chancery, or by Exercise of the Powers of the Deed of Settlement, or by such other lawful Course as they may think most fit.

8 Vict. c. 110. s. 38. Auditors to be appointed, subject to Approval of Board of Trade.

XIV. In Cases where a Certificate of Registration with Limited Liability has been obtained, when One Auditor only shall have been appointed under the Thirty-eighth Section of the Act of the Eighth of Victoria, Chapter One hundred and ten, that single Auditor, and when Two or more such Auditors shall have been so appointed, then One of such Auditors, shall be subject to the Approval of the Board of Trade; and such Board in case the Auditor submitted to them for Approval shall for any Reason appear unfit or objectionable, shall appoint another in his Place.

Recovery of Penalties.

XV. Every pecuniary Penalty imposed in pursuance of this Act shall be deemed a Debt due to the Crown, and shall be recoverable accordingly.

Act to be taken as Part of 7 & 8 Vict. c. 110. and 11 & 12 Vict. c. 78.

XVI. This Act shall, so far as is consistent with the Contents and Subject Matter thereof, be taken as Part of and construed with the said Act of the Eighth Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and ten, and the Act of the Eleventh Year of Her Majesty, Chapter Seventy-eight; and all the Provisions of the said Acts, save in so far as they are varied by this Act, shall apply to Persons and Companies applying for or obtaining a Certificate of Complete Registration with Limited Liability.

Provisions of 7 & 8 Vict. c. 111., 11 & 12 Vict. c. 45., and 12 & 13 Vict. c. 108. to apply to this Act.

XVII. The Provisions of the Act of the Eighth Year of Her present Majesty, Chapter One hundred and eleven, and of the Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Act, 1848, and of the Joint Stock Companies Winding-up Amendment Act, 1849, shall apply to Persons and Companies obtaining a Certificate of Complete Registration with Limited Liability, subject only to such Variations as may be occasioned by the Provisions of this Act.

Act not to apply to Scotland.

XVIII. This Act shall not apply to Scotland.

Short Title.

XIX. This Act may be cited for all Purposes as "The Limited Liability Act, 1855."

CAP.

CAP. CXXXIV.

An Act to make further Provision for the more speedy and efficient Despatch of Business in the High Court of Chancery, and to vest in the Lord Chancellor the Ground and Buildings of the said Court situate in Southampton Buildings, Chancery Lane, with Powers of leasing and Sale thereof. [14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS, for the Prevention of Delays and Inconveniences in the carrying on of such Portion of the Business of the High Court of Chancery as is transacted by the Master of the Rolls and the Vice Chancellors respectively sitting at Chambers, it is requisite that an Addition to the Number of Junior Clerks attached to the Courts of the said Judges respectively should be forthwith made, and a further like Addition may hereafter become necessary:' Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Additional Junior Clerk to each Chief Clerk may be appointed.

I. It shall be lawful for the Master of the Rolls and every of the Vice Chancellors to appoint forthwith after the passing of this Act One additional Junior Clerk to each of their respective Chief Clerks, and for the Master of the Rolls and the Vice Chancellors for the Time being respectively to fill up from Time to Time such Vacancies as may occur in the respective Offices of the Junior Clerks so appointed.

Duties, &c. of the Junior Clerks under this Act. 15 & 16 Vict. c. 80. applicable in part to them.

II. Such of the Provisions contained in the Sections numbered respectively XIX., XX., XXII., XXIII., XXIV., XLIV., and XLV. of the Act, intituled An Act to abolish the Office of Master in Ordinary of the High Court of Chancery, and to make Provision for the more speedy and efficient Despatch of Business in the said Court, passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, (Chapter Eighty,) as relate to the Removal from Office, striking off the Rolls, Tenure of Office, Attendances, Duties, Prohibitions, Prosecutions, Penalties and Punishments, Salaries and Annuities, of and respecting the Junior Clerks by the same Act authorized to be appointed, are hereby extended and applied to and in the Case of the Junior Clerks to be appointed under this Act.

Lord Chancellor may increase Salaries of Chief Clerks.

III. That notwithstanding anything in the Master in Chancery Abolition Act, of the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Victoria, Chapter Eighty, to the contrary, it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, if he shall so think fit, upon the Certificate therein mentioned to order and direct the Salaries of the present Chief Clerks appointed thereunder to be increased to the full Amount authorized by the said Act, as from the Second Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

Salaries of Junior Clerks may be apportioned among them.

IV. Notwithstanding anything in the said Act or this Act contained concerning the Salaries to be paid to the Junior Clerks respectively, it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor to apportion from Time to Time the aggregate Amount of the Salaries which the Junior Clerks to any one Chief Clerk shall for the Time being be entitled collectively to receive, to and between the same Junior Clerks, in such Proportion and Manner as the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Assistance of the Judge to whose Court such Chief Clerk shall be attached, may think fit, but so nevertheless that the apportioned Part which shall be directed to be paid to any Person appointed to the Office of Junior Clerk before the passing of this Act shall not at any Time be of less Amount than the Salary to which he would have been at that Time entitled if this Act had not been passed.

'And whereas better Provision is required for the due Despatch of the Business now transacted in the Report Office of the Court of Chancery:' Be it therefore enacted as follows:

Office of Master of Reports and Entries abolished from first Vacancy.

V. The Office of Master of Reports and Entries shall be and the same is hereby abolished from the first Occurrence of a Vacancy therein after the passing of this Act, or from such other Period before the Occurrence of a Vacancy as the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Assistance of the Master of the Rolls, may by Order direct.

Report Office to be thenceforth under Superintendence of Clerks of Records and Writs, the Entering Clerks to be under that of the Senior Registrar.

VI. From and after the Time when such Abolition shall take effect, the Business of the Report Office (except such Part thereof as is transacted by the Entering Clerks) shall be conducted and carried on under the Superintendence, Direction, and Control of the Clerks of Records and Writs, who shall thenceforth discharge all such Duties relative to the Report Office as may then belong to the Office of the Master of Reports and Entries, as far as the same may be from Time to Time necessary or proper to be discharged; and such Part of the Business of the Report Office as is transacted by the Entering Clerks shall be conducted and carried on by such Entering Clerks (who shall be thenceforth styled "The Entering Clerks to the Registrars") under the Superintendence, Direction, and Control of the Senior Registrar for the Time being, subject nevertheless, as to all and every Part of the Business now transacted in the Report Office, to such Rules and Regulations as the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Assistance of the Master of the Rolls, may from Time to Time think fit by Order to make concerning the same.

Repeal of Part of 15 & 16 Vict. c. 87. s. 29.

VII. The Provision contained in the Section numbered XXIX. of the Act, intituled An Act for the Relief of the Suitors of the High Court of Chancery, passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty (Chapter Eighty-seven), directing that the Duties of the Clerk of Reports (whose Office was before by the same Act abolished) should be performed performed by such Person or Persons as the Lord Chancellor should appoint for that Purpose, and providing for his or their Salary or Salaries, shall be and the same is hereby repealed, without Prejudice, nevertheless, to any Appointment already made under the same Provision.

Number, &c. of Clerks in Report Office.

VIII. The Offices of the Two Clerks appointed under the last-mentioned Provision to perform the Duties of the Clerk of Reports shall be continued under this Act, and upon any Vacancy in either of those Offices it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor to fill up the Vacancy; and if and when the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Assistance of the Master of the Rolls, shall deem the Appointment of more than Two Persons to be requisite for the due Performance of the Duties of the Clerk of Reports or otherwise for the due Despatch of the Business of the Report Office, it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor to appoint from Time to Time, in addition to such Two Clerks and their Successors as aforesaid, so many Clerks of and in the Report Office as Occasion may require and the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Assistance last aforesaid, may direct, and from Time to Time to fill up all or any of the Vacancies which may occur in the Offices of the Clerks so appointed in addition as aforesaid.

Provision respecting other Duties of the Master of Reports and Entries not repealed as to present Master. 15 & 16 Vict. c. 87. ss. 34., 35., 36.

IX. Nothing in this Act contained shall be taken to repeal or alter, as far as regards James Thomas Fry, the present Master of Reports and Entries, any of the Provisions contained in the Sections numbered respectively XXXIV., XXXV., and XXXVI. of the said Act "for the Relief of the Suitors of the High Court of Chancery," relating to the countersigning by the Master of Reports and Entries of Notes or Cheques drawn by the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery upon the Bank of England, and the Payment thereof by the same Bank, and directing that the Master of Reports and Entries should also perform all such other Duties (as well as the Duties in the same Act mentioned) as the Lord Chancellor should from Time to Time by any Order direct, and the same Provisions shall respectively continue in full Force as far as regards the said James Thomas Fry, and the Lord Chancellor is hereby required to continue the said James Thomas Fry as an Officer of the Court of Chancery for the Performance of the Duties herein-before mentioned, or such other Duties as aforesaid, after and notwithstanding that the Abolition of the said Office may have taken effect under this Act.

Provision for Continuance of present Master's Salary.

X. As long as the said James Thomas Fry shall continue to perform or shall be ready and willing to perform any Duty now belonging to the Office of Master of Reports and Entries, or any Duty which under the last-mentioned Provision he may be directed by the Lord Chancellor to perform, he shall continue to be entitled to receive the Salary attached to the Office of Master of Reports and Entries as if this Act had not been passed.

Additional Salary to present Clerks of Records and Writs in certain Cases.

XI. In case, upon the Abolition of the Office of the Master of Reports and Entries taking effect, any of the Persons now respectively holding the Offices of Clerks of Records and Writs shall be required under this Act to discharge the Duties of the Office of the Master of Reports and Entries, or any of them, and the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Assistance of the Master of the Rolls, shall deem the Duties then devolving upon the said Persons to be too extensive in proportion to their present Salaries, they respectively may receive, in addition to their respective Salaries as Clerks of Records and Writs, such Salaries, not exceeding the Sum of Two hundred Pounds per Annum each, as the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Assistance of the Master of the Rolls, shall by Order direct; but such additional Salaries shall cease in the event of the Vacancy now existing being filled up by the Appointment of a Fourth Clerk of Records and Writs, or in the event of the said Persons now respectively holding the Offices of Clerks of Records and Writs being relieved from the Duties of the Office of Master of Reports and Entries.

Salaries of the Clerks in the Report Office.

XII. The Two Clerks already appointed and the Clerks who may be hereafter appointed to perform the Duties of the Clerk of Reports or to act in the Report Office shall respectively be entitled under this Act to receive such Salaries as the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Assistance of the Master of the Rolls, shall from Time to Time by Order direct, but so that the whole Amount payable for all such Salaries shall not in any One Year exceed the Sum which, if equally divided between or among all such Clerks for the Time being, would admit of a Salary of Two hundred and fifty Pounds for each of them.

Power to Lord Chancellor to grant Retiring Allowance to Alexander McKean.

XIII. 'And whereas Alexander McKean, One of the Two Persons already appointed by the Lord 'Chancellor under the Provision herein-before mentioned to perform the Duties of the Clerk of Reports, 'has been employed as a Clerk or as a Writer in the Report Office for a Period of Twenty-five Years in 'the whole, and had been employed previously thereto as a Writer attached to the Registrars Office of 'the Court of Chancery for a Period of Thirteen Years, and he is now of the Age of Sixty-seven Years, 'and is no longer capable of discharging efficiently the Duties which have been hitherto assigned to him 'in the Report Office: And whereas under the Circumstances aforesaid it is desirable that the Lord 'Chancellor should be empowered to order a suitable Retiring Allowance to be paid to the said Alexander 'McKean on his ceasing to be employed in the Report Office:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor by Order to direct that, from and after the said Alexander McKean ceasing to be employed in the Report Office, there shall be paid to him during his Life such Retiring Allowance, not exceeding the Sum of One hundred Pounds per Annum, as the Lord Chancellor shall think fit, upon such Terms and Conditions, if any, as the Lord Chancellor may in such Order think fit to annex thereto.

How Salaries, Compensations, &c. to be paid. 15 & 16 Vict. c. 87. ss. 48. & 50.

XIV. All Salaries given under this Act shall grow due and be payable in such Manner, at such Times, to such Parties, and out of such Fund, as are in the Section numbered XLVIII. of the said Act "for the Relief of the Suitors of the High Court of Chancery" mentioned respecting Salaries under that Act, and such Retiring Allowance as may be ordered to be paid to the said Alexander McKean under this Act, shall grow due and be payable in such Manner, at such Times, to such Parties, and out of such Interest and Dividends as are in the Section numbered L. of the same Act mentioned respecting Retiring Allowances under that Act, subject nevertheless to the Payment of all such Salaries and other Sums of Money as are now payable out of such Fund, Interest, and Dividends respectively.

Persons taking false Oaths before Solicitors appointed under this and recited Acts guilty of Perjury.

XV. If any Person shall wilfully take or make any false Oath, Affirmation, or Declaration before any Solicitor authorized as in the Act of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter Seventy-eight, is mentioned, such Person shall be subject to all the Pains and Penalties of Perjury, whether the same Oath, Affirmation, or Declaration shall or shall not have been taken or made at a Place at which, under the Provisions of the said last-mentioned Act, the same Oath, Affirmation, or Declaration might lawfully be taken or made; but every Solicitor before whom any Oath, Affirmation, or Declaration shall be taken or made under the last-mentioned Act shall state truly in the Jurat or Attestation at what Place the same Oath, Affirmation, or Declaration has been taken or made.

Business which Court is empowered to dispose of in a summary Way, may be disposed of at Chambers.

XVI. 'And whereas by divers Acts of Parliament the Court of Chancery is empowered to make Orders 'in respect of the Disposition of Trust Funds, and other Matters under its Jurisdiction, upon Petition 'presented or Motion made in a summary Way, without Bill, but such Orders cannot be made in respect 'of the same Matters upon Application at Chambers:' Be it therefore enacted, That the Business to be disposed of by the Master of the Rolls and the Vice Chancellors respectively while sitting at Chambers shall comprise such of the Matters in respect of which the Court of Chancery is so as aforesaid empowered to make Orders in a summary Way as the Lord Chancellor, with the Advice and Assistance of the Master of the Rolls and the Vice Chancellors or of any Two of them, may by any General Order direct.

32 G. 3. c. 42.

'And whereas by an Act passed in the Thirty-second Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King 'George the Third (Chapter Forty-two), intituled An Act to empower the High Court of Chancery to 'lay out a further Sum of the Suitors Money upon proper Securities, and for applying the Interest 'towards discharging the Expenses of the Office of the Accountant General, and for building Offices 'for the Masters in Ordinary in Chancery, and a Publick Office for the Suitors of the said Court, and 'Offices for the Secretaries of Bankrupts and Lunaticks, and for building Repositories for securing 'the Title Deeds of the Suitors of the said Court and the Records and Proceedings of the Commis- 'sioners of Bankrupts and Lunaticks, it was enacted (amongst other things) that out of the common 'and general Cash belonging to the Suitors of the Court of Chancery which then lay or should there- 'after lie dead and unemployed in the Bank of England, a Sum not exceeding Three hundred thou- 'sand Pounds should, by virtue of any Order or Orders of the said Court to be made for that Purpose, 'be placed out in the Name of the Accountant General of the said Court on Government or Parliamentary 'Securities, and should be carried to an Account of Monies placed out for the Benefit and better Security 'of the Suitors of the High Court of Chancery; and further, that out of the Interest and Dividends of 'the Securities so to be purchased as aforesaid there should be paid (amongst other Sums) such Sum or 'Sums of Money, not exceeding the Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds, as the Lord High Chancellor of 'Great Britain or the Lord Keeper or the Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal 'of Great Britain for the Time being should by any Order or Orders of the Court of Chancery direct to 'be applied in purchasing Ground for and in building and completing the Offices and Repositories 'therein-after directed to be built and completed, and in paying the other Expenses relating to the 'Execution of the Act now in recital not otherwise provided for, and such further Sum and Sums of 'Money, either yearly or in gross, as should be necessary for (amongst other Purposes) keeping the same 'Offices and Repositories in repair and insured from Fire; and further, that under the Direction of the 'Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain or the Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners for the Custody of 'the Great Seal of Great Britain for the Time being, by any Order or Orders of the Court of Chancery 'to be made for that Purpose, proper and convenient Offices for the Masters in Ordinary in Chancery 'and their Clerks, and for the Secretaries of Bankrupts and Lunatics and their Clerks, and safe and secure 'Repositories for the Deeds, Books, Papers, and Writings of and belonging to the Suitors of the said 'Court delivered or to be delivered to the Masters, and the Records, Proceedings, Deeds, Books, Papers, 'and Writings delivered or to be delivered to or left in the Custody of the Secretaries of Bankrupts and 'Lunatics respectively, together with a Public Office for the Suitors of the said Court in the Stead or 'Place of the then present Public Office, should be built and made fit for the Reception of the said 'Masters and Secretaries, and the Transaction of their respective Business therein, and that for those 'Purposes a proper Piece of Ground should be purchased, and such Houses or Buildings as might 'be upon such Ground, and that the Ground and Houses so to be purchased should be from Time to 'Time conveyed to and the same were thereby declared to be vested in His then Majesty, His Heirs 'and Successors, for the Purposes of the same Act; and further, that it should be lawful for the Lord 'High Chancellor of Great Britain or the Lord Keeper or the Lords Commissioners for the Custody of 'the

'the Great Seal of, Great Britain for the Time being, from Time to Time by any Order of the Court of 'Chancery, to apply such Sum or Sums of Money as should be necessary in keeping the said Offices and 'Repositories so to be built and completed as aforesaid in good and sufficient Repair, and in insuring the 'same from Damage by Fire; and in the Act now in recital was contained a Proviso, and it was thereby 'further enacted and declared, that if at any Time thereafter the whole or any Part of the Money 'thereby directed or authorized to be placed out as aforesaid should be wanted to answer any of the 'Demands of the Suitors of the said Court of Chancery, then and in such Case the said Court might 'and should direct the same or any Part thereof to be called in, or the Securities in which the same 'should be placed to be disposed of, in order that the Suitors of the said Court might at all Times be 'paid their respective Demands out of the common and general Cash belonging to such Suitors: And 'whereas, under the Authority and for the Purposes of the same Act, and by means of the Monies thereby 'provided, a piece of Ground situate in Southampton Buildings, Chancery Lane, in the County of Middle- 'sex, has been purchased, and a Building has been erected on Part thereof and kept in repair and insured, 'in which are or lately were placed the Offices of the Masters and the other Offices and Repositories in 'the same Act mentioned: And whereas by the first-mentioned Act of Her present Majesty (in the 15 & 16 Vict. 'Section numbered LI.) it was enacted as follows: "Such of the Masters Offices in Southampton c. 80. s. 51. '"Buildings, Chancery Lane, as shall not be assigned by the Lord Chancellor as Chambers for the '"Master of the Rolls and Vice Chancellors respectively, or shall not be required for the Masters, shall be '"appropriated to any other Purposes connected with the Court of Chancery as the Lord Chancellor may '"from Time to Time direct, or the same may be let as Chambers and the Rent thereof paid to the '"Suitors Fund; and when all the Masters have resigned, died, or have been released under this Act, the '"Offices may be sold by Order of the Lord Chancellor, and the Proceeds of such Sale paid to the Suitors '"Fund, in such Manner and to such particular Account as the Lord Chancellor shall by any Order '"direct; and it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor by any Order to direct that the Premises so to '"be sold and the Fee Simple and Inheritance thereof shall vest in the Purchaser or Purchasers of the '"same, his or their Heirs and Assigns, or as he or they shall direct, and such Order shall have the '"Effect of vesting the same accordingly, without any Conveyance or other Assurance from Her Majesty '"in whom the same are now vested by virtue of an Act passed in the Thirty-second Year of the Reign '"of King George the Third, Chapter Forty-two:" And whereas fuller Powers than those given by the 'last-recited Enactment are requisite for enabling the Lord Chancellor to let, sell, or dispose of the 'Masters Offices therein mentioned, and it is desirable that the like Powers should extend not only over 'the said Masters Offices, but also over the whole of the Ground acquired under the said Act of His 'late Majesty King George the Third, and of the Building already erected on Part thereof, and such 'other Buildings as may be hereafter erected thereon:' Be it therefore enacted as follows:

Repeal of s. 51. of 15 & 16 Vict. c. 80.

XVII. The last-recited Enactment is hereby repealed.

The Ground and Buildings vested in the Lord Chancellor in trust.

XVIII. The said Piece of Ground situate in Southampton Buildings aforesaid, and the Building now being thereon, with their and every of their Rights, Members, and Appurtenances, are hereby conveyed to and vested in the Right Honourable Robert Monsey Baron Cranworth, the now Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, to hold the same Premises to him and his Successors in that Office for ever, in as full and ample a Manner as the same are now vested in Her Majesty the Queen by force of the said Act of His late Majesty King George the Third, in trust, nevertheless, for the Purposes of the same Act, or such of the same Purposes as are now capable of taking effect, and are not inconsistent with the Purposes of this Act, and, subject thereto, for the Uses of the Court of Chancery and the Purposes of this Act.

Power of leasing.

XIX. It shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor from Time to Time to demise or let all or any Part of the said Piece of Ground, and with or without the same all or any Part of the Buildings for the Time being erected thereon, for such Consideration, to such Person or Persons, for such Period, subject to such Rent, Covenants, and Conditions, and in such Manner and Form as the Lord Chancellor shall from Time to Time think fit.

Power of Sale.

XX. It shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor from Time to Time to sell and absolutely dispose of all or any Part of the said Piece of Ground, and with or without the same all or any Part of the Buildings for the Time being erected thereon, upon such Terms and in such Manner as he shall think fit.

Power to vest the Ground, &c. in a Purchaser.

XXI. For effectuating any such Sale as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Lord Chancellor by any Order to direct that the said Piece of Ground and the Buildings for the Time being erected thereon, or such Part thereof respectively as shall be comprised in the Sale, and the Fee Simple and Inheritance thereof, shall vest in the Purchaser or Purchasers thereof, his or their Heirs and Assigns, or as he or they shall direct; and any such Order shall have the Effect of vesting the same accordingly, without any Conveyance or other Assurance whatsoever.

Application of the Rents, Purchase Monies, &c.

XXII. The Rents, Purchase Monies, and other Monies which shall be payable upon or in respect of any such Demise, Letting, or Sale as aforesaid shall be respectively paid by such Person, and in such Manner as the Lord Chancellor shall from Time to Time direct, into the Bank of England, with the Privity of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, to such Account or Accounts already opened or to be opened as the Lord Chancellor shall from Time to Time direct; and thereupon such Rents, Purchase Monies, and other Monies respectively shall become and be dealt with as Part of the respective Funds (if any) theretofore standing to such Account or Accounts as aforesaid, or be otherwise subject to the Order of the Lord Chancellor for the Benefit of the Suitors of the said Court, according to the said Provision contained in the said Act of His late Majesty King George the Third respecting the Money thereby directed or authorized to be placed out as aforesaid.

"The Lord Chancellor."

XXIII. In this Act the Expression "the Lord Chancellor" shall be construed to mean the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the Time being, and to include or be applicable to the Lord Keeper or Lords Commissioners for the Custody of the Great Seal of the United Kingdom for the Time being.

[16th July 1855.]

17 & 18 Vict. c. 105.
1 G. 4. c. 100.

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the Laws relating to the Militia in England and Wales: 'And whereas an Act was passed in the First Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, 'intituled An Act for amending and reducing into One Act of Parliament Two several Acts passed in the 'Thirty-sixth and Thirty-ninth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for the 'better ordering and further regulating of the Militia of the City of London: And whereas by the Thirty-'fifth Section of the said last-recited Act Her Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of 'London are authorized to continue to raise and levy as heretofore in every Year a certain Tax called 'the Trophy Tax: And whereas by the said first-recited Act the Justices of the Peace, in General or 'Quarter Sessions assembled, are authorized to borrow on Mortgage of the County Rate of the several 'Counties such Sum or Sums as shall be necessary for the Expenses of purchasing, building, enlarging, 'or altering the Place for keeping the Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing, and other Stores belonging to any 'Regiment, Battalion, or Corps of Militia, together with the Sums required for the Cost of Fuel and 'other necessary Expenses incidental to the Use and Maintenance of the Premises: And whereas by the 'Tenth Section of the said first-recited Act all and every the Powers, Authorities, and Directions in and 'by the said Act given to or vested in the Lords Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, and Treasurers of 'Counties, and the Justices of the Peace in their General or Quarter Sessions assembled, are extended 'to and include the Commissioners of Lieutenancy for the City of London, and their Treasurer for the 'Time being, so far as the same may be applicable to the Militia of the said City: And whereas Doubts 'have arisen whether the said Trophy Tax so authorized to be raised by the said Commissioners of 'Lieutenancy can be deemed to be a County Rate according to the Intent and Meaning of the said first-'recited Act, on which the said Commissioners should be entitled to raise any Sum or Sums on Mortgage 'for the Purposes aforesaid, and it is expedient that the said Doubts should be removed: And whereas 'the Place provided for the Purpose of keeping therein the Arms, Accoutrements, Clothing, and other 'Stores belonging to the Royal London Militia has become insecure and insufficient, and the Public Ser'vice

'vice requires the Site of the same to be changed, and that more convenient and requisite Head Quarters 'and Storehouses should be constructed, and other proper Accommodation should be procured and pro- 'vided for the assembling, training, and mounting Guard of the said Royal London Militia, and it is 'expedient to vest in the said Commissioners further Powers for the Purchase and Use of Lands for the 'said several Purposes; but the same cannot be effected without the Authority of Parliament:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Trophy Tax to be deemed a County Rate, and Power to borrow on Mortgage of the Trophy Tax.

I. That the said Trophy Tax shall, for the Purposes of the said recited Act of the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Years of Her present Majesty, be deemed and taken to be a County Rate, and that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy that now are and shall be hereafter constituted and appointed for the City of London to borrow all or any Part of the Money necessary for the aforesaid Purposes upon Mortgage of the said Trophy Tax to be raised in and for the City of London under and by virtue of the Act passed in the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of the Reign of His Majesty King Charles the Second, intituled An Act for ordering the Forces in the several Counties of this Kingdom, and of the Act passed in the First Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, Chapter One hundred.

Powers to be exercised according to deposited Plans.

II. 'And whereas Plans showing the Lands and Buildings which will be required by the said Com- 'missioners, and also a Book of Reference containing the Names of the Owners, Lessees, and Occupiers, 'or reputed Owners, Lessees, and Occupiers, of Lands or Buildings which will be required by the said 'Commissioners as aforesaid, have been deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Mid- 'dlesex:' Be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners to enter upon, take, and use such of the said Lands and Buildings as shall be necessary for the Purposes aforesaid as are comprised in the Schedule hereto annexed.

Power for the Artillery Company to execute Leases, &c.

III. The Words "the Artillery Company," where used in this Act, shall be held to mean the Society exercising Arms in the Artillery Garden, London, commonly called or known by the Name of "the Artillery Company," and in all Contracts, Agreements, Leases, or other legal Instruments entered into or to be entered into by the said Society for the Purposes of this Act, it shall be sufficient to designate them by the Name of "the Artillery Company," and any such Contract, Agreement, Lease, or Instrument signed by the President or Vice President and Secretary for the Time being of the said Company shall be sufficient to bind the said Company.

Power to grant Leases to the Commissioners of Lieutenancy and the Artillery Company.

IV. 'And whereas the said Artillery Company are the Lessees under a Lease from the Corporation of 'London for a Term of Years, which will expire in the Year One thousand eight hundred and sixty- 'three, of a Piece of Land or Ground used by them for the Exercise of Arms, together with certain 'Buildings connected therewith, in the Parish of Saint Luke Middlesex, forming Part of the Ground 'commonly known as the Artillery Ground, under which Lease certain Rights of User of the said Piece 'of Land or Ground at stated Periods are reserved to the Royal London Militia, or the Trained Bands 'of the City of London, for the Purpose of mustering, training, and exercising the said Militia; and it 'is essential for the Public Service that the said Piece of Land or Ground should continue to be appro- 'priated to the Purposes for which the same is now and has heretofore been employed by the said 'Artillery Company and the said Royal London Militia: And whereas the said Piece of Land or Ground 'and Buildings so leased to the said Artillery Company forms Part of the Prebendal Estate of Halliwell 'and Finsbury in the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul London, whereof the Honourable and Right 'Reverend Hugh Bishop of Carlisle is the present Prebendary, and upon the Avoidance thereof by the 'said Hugh Bishop of Carlisle the said Prebendal Estate will become vested in the Ecclesiastical Com- 'missioners for England, and the same is subject to a Lease thereof granted to the Mayor, Commonalty, 'and Citizens of the City of London, which will expire in the Year One thousand eight hundred and 'sixty-seven: And whereas the said Hugh Bishop of Carlisle and the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners 'are willing to grant a new Lease for a Term of Ninety-nine Years of the said Piece of Land and 'Buildings from the Twenty-fourth of June One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in order that the 'said Piece of Land and Buildings may be occupied and used by and for the Purposes of the said Artil- 'lery Company, and of the said Royal London Militia: And whereas by certain Articles of Agreement, 'bearing Date the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and made between 'William White the Secretary of the said Artillery Company, for and on behalf of the said Company, 'and Henley Smith the Clerk and Treasurer of the said Commissioners of Lieutenancy, for and on 'behalf of the said Commissioners, it has been agreed that such new Lease as aforesaid of the said Piece 'of Land and Buildings shall be granted to the said Commissioners and their Successors, or to their 'Clerk and Treasurer for the Time being on their Behalf, and that thereupon an Under-lease of the said 'Land and Buildings, save and except a Portion of the said Piece of Land described in a Plan annexed 'to the said Agreement, shall be granted by the said Commissioners or their Successors, or by their 'Clerk and Treasurer for the Time being on their Behalf, to the said Artillery Company for the whole 'Term of the said new Lease, wanting Five Days, at the Rent and under the Conditions therein men- 'tioned, and with the Reservation in favour of the said Royal London Militia or Trained Bands of the 'City of London of the same Right of User of the said Piece of Land as they now enjoy, and such 'other Rights as are in the said Agreement specified:' Be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Hugh Bishop of Carlisle and the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, according to their respective Interests, to grant to the said Commissioners of Lieutenancy and their Successors, or to their Clerk and Treasurer for the Time being on their Behalf, a Lease of the said Piece or Parcel of Land

Land and Buildings for the Term of Ninety-nine Years, in manner herein-after provided, and the said Commissioners of Lieutenancy and their Successors, or their Clerk and Treasurer for the Time being on their Behalf, shall and they are hereby empowered to accept of such Lease, and to execute a Counterpart thereof, and shall and they are hereby empowered, at or immediately after the Execution thereof, to grant and execute to and in favour of the said Artillery Company and their Successors, or to Trustees on their Behalf, an Under-lease of the said Piece of Land and Buildings (save and except the Portion thereof excepted by the said Agreement and specified in the Plan appended thereto) for the said Term of Years, and at the Rent, and under the Conditions, and with and subject to the Reservation of Rights specified and contained in the Agreement herein-before referred to, which last-mentioned Agreement shall be held binding on the said Commissioners of Lieutenancy and on the said Artillery Company.

Confirmation of Agreement between the Commissioners of Lieutenancy and the Artillery Company.

V. That the Compensation for and in respect of the Lands and Buildings which will be required by the said Commissioners as aforesaid shall, in case the Terms of Compensation have not been already or shall not hereafter be agreed upon between the Parties, be ascertained, assessed, and paid in the Manner directed by and in accordance with "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," as regards the taking and Purchase of Lands, Premises, and other Hereditaments.

Compensation for Lands, &c. to be assessed as directed by 8 & 9 Vict. c. 18.

VI. That, except as hereby is expressly enacted, nothing in this Act shall extend to take away, diminish, alter, or prejudice all or any of the Rights, Privileges, Powers, Exemptions, or Authorities vested in the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, the Artillery Company, the Lord Bishop of Carlisle, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England respectively; but all such Rights, Privileges, Powers, Exemptions, and Authorities shall and may henceforth and at all Times be used, exercised, and enjoyed in as full, ample, and beneficial a Manner as if this Act had not been passed.

Reservation of Rights of City of London, Artillery Company, and Ecclesiastical Commissioners.

VII. That all the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of and attending the obtaining and passing this Act shall be paid by the said Commissioners of Lieutenancy out of the said Trophy Tax.

Expenses of Act.

Cap. cxlviii.

An Act for insuring the due Proof of Gun Barrels in England, and for other Purposes.

[16th July 1855.]

'WHEREAS by Royal Charter, dated the Fourteenth Day of March One thousand six hundred and thirty-seven, the Master, Wardens, and Society of the Mistery of Gunmakers of the City of London (in this Act called the Gunmakers Company) were incorporated, with perpetual Succession, and with Powers of searching for and viewing and proving and marking all manner of Hand Guns whatsoever, great and small Daggs and Pistols, and every Part thereof, whether made in London or the Suburbs, or within Ten Miles thereof, or imported from Foreign Parts or otherwise brought thither for Sale, and a Scale for such Proof was thereby established, and a Stamp was thereby authorized to be used for such marking by that Company: And whereas the Gunmakers Company, in pursuance of the Provisions of their Charter, have established a Proof House near the City of London for such proving: And whereas in or before the Year One thousand eight hundred and thirteen, Money was subscribed in Birmingham for the Erection and Establishment in that Town of a public Proof House for Fire-arms: And whereas by an Act of the Fifty-third Year of the Reign of King George the Third, Chapter One hundred and fifteen, intituled An Act to insure the proper and careful manufacturing of Fire-arms in England, and for making Provision for proving the Barrels of such Fire-arms, the Guardians, Trustees, and Wardens of the Gun Barrel Proof House of the Town of Birmingham (in this Act called the Birmingham Company) were incorporated, with perpetual Succession, for the purpose of proving and marking Barrels of Fire-arms, and were empowered to erect and establish in Birmingham a proper Proof House, and to apply for that Purpose the Money so subscribed, and Provision was thereby made for the Repayment thereof with Interest: And whereas by that Act Provision was made for the proving at the Birmingham Proof House of the Barrels of Fire-arms not proved at the Proof House of the Gunmakers Company or at some other public Proof House established by Law, and for the marking of such Barrels as proved, and a Scale for such Proof was established, and a Stamp was authorized to be used for such marking by the Birmingham Company, and Penalties were imposed in respect of the Sale of Barrels of Fire-arms not proved and marked as proved at the Proof House of the Gunmakers Company, the Birmingham Proof House, or some other public Proof House: And whereas the Birmingham Company in pursuance of that Act established a Proof House in Birmingham (in this Act called the Birmingham Proof House) for such proving: And whereas the Money so subscribed for the Purposes of the Birmingham Proof House, with the Interest thereon, was paid off: And whereas by an Act of the Fifty-fifth Year of the Reign of King George the Third, Chapter Fifty-nine, intituled An Act for amending an Act of His present Majesty, to insure the proper and careful manufacturing of Fire-arms in England, and for making Provision for proving the Barrels of such Fire-arms, further Provision was made for the proving, and marking as proved, by the Birmingham Company and the Gunmakers Company (in this Act called the Two Companies) respectively of the Barrels of Fire-arms, and further Penalties were imposed for the Purpose of securing the due proving of such Barrels, and the Constitution of the Birmingham Company was altered: And whereas the recited Acts have been put in execution by the Birmingham Company, and they are now possessed of the Birmingham Proof House situate in Banbury Street in the Borough of Birmingham, which is vested in Trustees for them and is used for the Purposes of those Acts: And whereas the recited Acts have also been put in execution by the Gunmakers Company so far as they regarded that Company, and they have ever since the granting of their Charter been and are now possessed of a proper Proof House in Church Lane, Whitechapel, near the City of London, (in this Act called the Proof House of the Gunmakers Company,) which is used for the Purposes of those Acts and of their Charter: And whereas by reason of progressive Improvements in the Manufacture of Small Arms since the passing of the secondly-recited Act, some of the Provisions of the recited Acts respectively are not applicable to every Description of Small Arm now in use, or are in other respects insufficient; and it is expedient that better Provision be made for insuring that Small Arms made in England be properly and carefully manufactured, and in order thereto that better Provision be made for the proving and marking as proved of all such Parts of Small Arms as for Charter, dated 14th March 1637.

55 G. 3. c. 59.

securing

'securing the safe User thereof ought to be proved, and that further Powers be conferred on the Two 'Companies respectively for insuring Compliance with the Requirements of this Act: And whereas it is 'expedient that the Scale of Proof required by the recited Acts be amended: And whereas it is expedient 'that all smooth bored single Barrels be proved once only, and by definitive Proof, and only when in the 'State in that Behalf by this Act provided, and that all rifled Barrels and double Barrels be proved by 'provisional and also by definitive Proof as respectively by this Act provided: And whereas it is expe-'dient that the Birmingham Proof House be vested in the Birmingham Company: And whereas, in order 'to avoid the Inconvenience of several Acts relating to the same Matter being in force at the same Time, 'it is expedient that the recited Acts be repealed, and that Parts thereof be re-enacted with Amendments: 'And whereas the Objects of this Act cannot be attained without the Authority of Parliament:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows:

Short Title.

I. This Act may be cited for any Purpose as "The Gun Barrel Proof Act, 1855."

Commencement of Act.

II. This Act shall commence and have Effect on and after the Fourth Wednesday next after the passing thereof.

Crown may establish public Proof Houses.

III. This Act shall not in any way interfere with the Power of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, from Time to Time to establish public Proof Houses in such Places and under such Regulations as to the Care and Management thereof as to Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, may seem fit.

Interpretation of Terms.

IV. In the Construction of this Act the following Words and Expressions have the following Meanings, unless there be in the Subject or Context something repugnant to or inconsistent with such Construction; to wit,

"Official Members of the Birmingham Company" means the several Persons who by virtue of their respective Offices are from Time to Time Members of the Birmingham Company:

XXIV. Every Person claiming to be a Member of the Birmingham Gun Trade shall, on or before the Twenty-ninth Day of September in every Year, deliver at the Birmingham Proof House a Claim in the Form in the Schedule (A. Part 1) to this Act annexed, together with the Sum of Twenty-one Shillings as a Registration Fee, and the Law Clerk shall, on or before the Thirty-first Day of October in every Year, make out a List of Claimants, and suspend it in the Board Room at the Birmingham Proof House, for the Inspection of all Persons interested therein; and on the First Monday in the Month of December in every Year, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, the Proof Master of the Birmingham Company, the Chairman of the last preceding yearly Meeting of the Birmingham Gun Trade, and an Assessor to be by them appointed, shall attend at the Board Room at the Birmingham Proof House to receive Objections to the Title

Title of any Claimant, and any Claimant may object to the Title of any other Claimant in the Form in the Schedule (A. Part 2) to this Act annexed; and the Proof Master, Chairman, and Assessor, or any Two of them, shall then and there decide upon the Title of all Claimants, and retain or expunge the Name of any Claimant, and shall sign the List when settled; and thereupon the Law Clerk of the Birmingham Company shall enter the Names retained into a Book to be called "The Register of the Birmingham Gun Trade," and which Register shall at all reasonable Times be open to the Inspection of every Member of the Birmingham Gun Trade, and a Copy thereof shall be made and delivered to the Chairman of the last preceding yearly Meeting of the Birmingham Gun Trade.

No Bankrupts, &c. to be Members.

XXV. An uncertificated Bankrupt or insolvent Debtor who has not obtained his Discharge or Final Order, or a Person not qualified as required by this Act, shall not be capable of being or continuing a Member of the Birmingham Company.

As to Qualification of Members of Birmingham Company or Gun Trade.

XXVI. If the Qualification of any Person as Member of the Birmingham Company or of the Birmingham Gun Trade with respect to Rating shall depend upon a Rating which shall be a joint Rating of himself and any other Person or Persons, then any such Person shall, subject to the Provisions herein contained, be eligible, provided such joint Rating, when divided by the Number of Persons rated, shall give to each a sufficient rateable yearly Value according to the Provisions herein contained.

Members not to be concerned in Contracts.

XXVII. Any Person who, being a Member of the Birmingham Company, at any Time accepts or continues to hold any Office or Place of Profit under this Act other than the Office of Proof Master or Warden, or is concerned or participates in any Manner in any Contract or in the Profit thereof, or of any Work to be done under this Act, shall thenceforth cease to be a Member of the Birmingham Company, and if he be an ordinary Member thereof his Office shall thereupon become vacant.

Shareholders in Companies not disqualified.

XXVIII. Provided always, That a Person, being a Shareholder or Member of any Joint Stock Company established by or under Act of Parliament, shall not be prevented from being or acting as a Member of the Birmingham Company by reason of any Contract entered into between the Birmingham Company and such established Company; but any such Member of the Birmingham Company, being a Member of such established Company, shall not vote on any Question relating to the Execution of this Act in which such established Company is interested.

Members not incapable of acting as Justices.

XXIX. A Person shall not be incapable of acting in any way as a Justice in the Execution of this Act by reason of his being a Member of either of the Two Companies.

Declaration to be made by Members before acting.

XXX. A Person shall not be capable of acting as a Member of the Birmingham Company, except in administering the following Declaration, until he have made and signed, before One of the Members of the Birmingham Company, a Declaration to the Effect following:

'I A.B. of [stating Residence] do solemnly declare, That I will faithfully and impartially, according to the best of my Skill and Judgment, execute all the Powers and Authorities reposed in me as a Member of the Company incorporated by the Name of "The Guardians of the Birmingham Proof House," by virtue of "The Gun Barrel Proof Act, 1855;" and also that I [here set forth a Statement of the Possession of the Qualification required by this Act in the Terms thereof].'

False Declaration a Misdemeanor.

XXXI. Any Person who falsely or corruptly makes and subscribes such Declaration, knowing the same to be untrue in any material Particular, or knowingly and wilfully acts contrary thereto, shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Declaration to be made at First Meeting.

XXXII. Every Member of the Birmingham Company shall, at the Meeting of that Company at which he first attends after the Commencement of this Act as a Member of that Company, make and subscribe such Declaration; and any Member of that Company, whether he himself have made such Declaration or not, may administer such Declaration.

Penalty on Members acting not being qualified.

XXXIII. Every Person who acts as a Member of the Birmingham Company being incapacitated or not duly qualified to act, or before he has made and subscribed such Declaration, or after having become disqualified, shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty of Fifty Pounds, to be recovered by any Person, with full Costs of Suit, in any Court of competent Jurisdiction; and in every Action for such Penalty the Person sued shall prove that at the Time of so acting he was qualified, and had made and subscribed such Declaration, or shall pay that Penalty and Costs without any other Evidence being required from the Plaintiff than that such Person acted in the Execution of this Act as a Member of the Birmingham Company.

Proceedings valid notwithstanding Disqualification.

XXXIV. Provided always, That all Acts as a Member of the Birmingham Company of any Person incapacitated or not duly qualified, or not having made or subscribed such Declaration previously to the Recovery of such Penalty, shall be as valid as if such Person had been duly qualified.

Ordinary Members failing to act to cease to be Members.

XXXV. Every ordinary Member of the Birmingham Company who for Three Months after his Election fails to make and subscribe such Declaration, or who for Six Months in succession is absent from all Meetings, or who by Notice in Writing left at the Birmingham Proof House resigns his Appointment, shall cease to be a Member of that Company.

Vacancy on ordinary Members becoming official Members.

XXXVI. When any Person, being an ordinary Member of the Birmingham Company, becomes entitled to be an official Member thereof, his Office as ordinary Member shall thereupon become vacant; and with respect to his making and subscribing the Declaration by this Act required, he shall be deemed to have newly become a Member of the Birmingham Company.

Fifteen ordinary Members.

XXXVII. There shall from Time to Time be Fifteen ordinary Members of the Birmingham Company: Provided always, that the Powers of the Birmingham Company shall not be dependent on the Number of ordinary Members thereof from Time to Time amounting to Fifteen.

Election as ordinary Members of those ceasing to be official Members.

XXXVIII. Every Person ceasing to be an official Member may, if qualified, be elected an ordinary Member of the Birmingham Company, and with respect to the Declaration to be made and subscribed by him, shall, on being so elected, be deemed to have newly become an ordinary Member of the Birmingham Company.

Election of ordinary Members to supply Vacancies.

XXXIX. If any ordinary Member of the Birmingham Company die, or resign, or be disqualified, or cease from any other Cause to be an ordinary Member, the Birmingham Company, if they think fit, may, within One Month after the happening of such Vacancy, elect another Person from the Trade List given in at the last preceding yearly Meeting to be an ordinary Member in his Place; but every ordinary Member so elected shall continue in Office only until the then next yearly Meeting of the Birmingham Company, unless he shall be re-elected according to this Act.

Votes at Election of ordinary Members.

XL. At every Election of an ordinary Member, every Member of the Birmingham Company present shall have One Vote for every Vacancy then to be filled up, and every such Election shall be decided by a simple Majority of the Votes of the Members of the Birmingham Company present and voting at the Meeting, and the Votes shall be given in Writing to the Chairman of the Meeting, who shall declare the Result.

Chairman to have Casting Vote.

XLI. Whenever there is an Equality of Votes for Two or more Persons to be elected ordinary Members of the Birmingham Company, the Chairman of the Meeting at which the Election takes place shall have a Second or Casting Vote.

Adjournment on Failure of Election.

XLII. If from any Cause an Election of an ordinary Member of the Birmingham Company fail to take place on the Day appointed for it, the Election shall stand adjourned until the same Day of the following Week, and so from Time to Time until the Election takes place.

Appointment of Auditors.

XLIII. At the first yearly Meeting of the Birmingham Company after the passing of this Act, and at every subsequent yearly Meeting, Two Auditors shall be appointed, and the Persons so appointed shall not be Members of the Birmingham Company, and one of them shall be a practising Accountant, and the other shall be a Member of the Birmingham Gun Trade, and each Auditor shall be paid such a reasonable Fee as the Birmingham Company shall think fit.

First Meeting for Birmingham Company.

XLIV. The Birmingham Company shall hold their First Meeting at their Proof House on the Sixteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, at the Hour of Eleven in the Forenoon, and shall proceed to put this Act into execution, except as regards the Proof of Barrels according to Schedule B. to this Act annexed, and Notice of such Meeting shall be inserted by their Law Clerk in Two of the Newspapers published in Birmingham One Week at least previously to the Meeting.

Election of Chairman of Birmingham Company.

XLV. At the First Meeting of the Birmingham Company they shall, by the Majority of the Votes of the Members present and voting, elect One of the ordinary Members of that Company to be the Proof Master, and Two of the ordinary Members of that Company to be Wardens, until the next yearly Meeting of that Company, when and at every subsequent yearly Meeting that Company shall in like Manner elect a Proof Master and the like Number of Wardens for the ensuing Year; and if the Proof Master or either of the Wardens die, resign, or cease to be a Member of that Company, or otherwise become disqualified to act as such, that Company, at their Meeting next after the happening of such Vacancy, shall elect some other Person to fill up such Vacancy, and the Person so elected shall continue in Office so long only as the Person to whose Place he is elected would have been entitled to continue in Office, and the Proof Master for the Time being shall be the official Chairman of that Company.

Appointment of Officers.

XLVI. At the First Meeting of the Birmingham Company, or at some Adjournment thereof, they shall, by the Majority of the Votes of the Members present and voting, appoint a Treasurer, Law Clerk, Accounting Clerk, Assistant Proof Masters, and such other principal Officers and Servants as may be in their Discretion necessary for the Management of the Birmingham Proof House until their next yearly Meeting.

As to Election of a temporary Chairman.

XLVII. If at any Meeting of the Birmingham Company their Chairman be not present, One of the Members present shall be elected Chairman of such Meeting by the Majority of the Votes of the Members present thereat: Provided always, that at every yearly Meeting of that Company the Chairman going out of Office at that Meeting shall, if present and willing to act, be the Chairman of that Meeting.

Voting at Meetings.

XLVIII. At every Meeting of the Birmingham Company every Question there considered shall be decided by a Majority of the Members present and voting; and if there be an equal Division of Votes upon any Question, the Chairman of the Meeting shall have a Second or Casting Vote: Provided always, that if at any such Meeting there be an Equality of Votes in the Election of the Chairman, it shall be decided by Lot which of the Members having an equal Number shall be the Chairman.

Quorum of Meetings.

XLIX. The Quorum for a Meeting of the Birmingham Company shall be Ten or more of the Members, and no Business shall be transacted at any Meeting unless the Quorum be present.

Yearly and other Meetings.

L. The Birmingham Company shall hold a yearly Meeting on the Sixteenth Day of March in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and on the Sixteenth Day of March in every subsequent Year, unless such Day be a Sunday or a Day appointed for a General Fast or Thanksgiving, and then on the next Day, not being One of such Days, at the Birmingham Proof House or some other convenient Place in the Borough of Birmingham, and shall also hold such other Meetings at such Places in Birmingham and at such Times as that Company from Time to Time appoint; and when any such Appointment is made the Wardens shall give or cause to be given Notice thereof.

Application of Money by Birmingham Company.

LXV. The Monies from Time to Time received under this Act by or for the Birmingham Company, as well for Proof of Barrels as for Registration Fees, shall be applied, firstly, in Payment of the Costs, Charges, and Expenses incurred by that Company in and incident to the passing and obtaining of this Act; secondly, in maintaining, repairing, and improving the Birmingham Proof House, and proving and marking as proved the Barrels there tendered for Proof, including the Salaries of the Proof Master, Wardens, Assistant Proof Masters, Officers, and Servants, the reasonable Expenses of their ordinary Members, and other the incidental Expenses of that Company in the Execution of this Act; thirdly, when and so soon as that Company shall think fit, in providing and maintaining a Rifle Shooting Ground and all necessary Erections by this Act authorized; fourthly, the Surplus shall constitute the Repair Fund, and be invested in some of the Public Funds or in Government Securities in the Name of the Guardians of the Birmingham Proof House; and whenever it shall appear at any yearly Meeting of the Birmingham Company that the Surplus so invested shall amount to such a Sum over and above Five thousand Pounds as would be equal to One Halfpenny per Barrel on the Number of Barrels annually proved, upon an Average of the Three preceding Years, then the Charges for Proof for the Time being shall be reduced proportionably by that Company, and the Deficiency (if any) in the Receipts of that Company in any One Year occasioned by such Reduction shall be made good out of the Principal Money so invested, or the Interest thereof, until such Principal Monies shall be reduced to the Sum of Three thousand Pounds, and then such Charges for Proof shall or may be raised again to the Amount by this Act authorized, and so toties quoties as often as the said Principal Sum shall amount to the Sum of Five thousand Pounds or be reduced to the Sum of Three thousand Pounds.

Power to grant Gratuities to Officers.

LXVI. The Birmingham Company from Time to Time may make and pay to such of their Servants as from Time to Time may be worn out by Length of Service, or disabled or injured in the Execution of their Duties, and to the Wardens or other Officers who sustain Injury from any Explosion at the Birmingham Proof House, such Sums by way of Superannuation, Allowance, or Gratuity as that Company think fit; provided that such Sums shall not exceed the Amount of Five hundred Pounds in the aggregate in any One Year.

Accounts to be kept of Birmingham Company.

LXVII. The Birmingham Company shall cause proper Accounts to be kept of all Receipts, Payments, and Liabilities on account of the Capital of that Company, and also of the Receipts, Income, and Profits arising therefrom, and they shall be called respectively "the Capital Account" and "the Revenue Account," and shall make up their Accounts to the Thirty-first Day of December inclusive in every Year, and submit them with all necessary Books and Papers to the Auditors during the Month of January next following; such Auditors shall examine the same, and report on the Accuracy thereof to that Company before the Thirteenth Day of February following; and a classified Statement of the Income and Expenditure during the past Year, and a Balance Sheet of the Assets and Liabilities of that Company, in a Form to be approved and signed by the Auditors, shall be printed, and a printed Copy of the same shall be sent by the Wardens of that Company through the Post Office to each Member of that Company and to each Member of the Birmingham Gun Trade.

Settlement of yearly Accounts.

LXVIII. The Accounts of the Birmingham Company so balanced and audited, with such Statement and Account, shall be presented to every yearly Meeting of that Company, and the Accounts shall be then finally examined and settled by the Meeting, and if found just and true, shall be allowed by that Company and certified accordingly under the Hand of the Chairman of the Meeting; and after such Accounts are audited, allowed, and signed as by this Act required, the same shall be final in regard to all Persons whomsoever.

Penalty on refusing Inspection of Books.

LXIX. Any Clerk or other Person who, having the Custody of any of the Books or Papers of the Birmingham Company does not on any reasonable Demand of any Member of that Company permit him to inspect any of the Books or Papers of that Company which he is by this Act authorized to inspect, or to take Copies of or Extracts from any such Books or Papers gratis, shall for every such Offence forfeit Five Pounds.

Duty and Powers of Proof Master and Wardens.

LXX. The Proof Master and Wardens of the Birmingham Company shall superintend all other the Officers and Servants of that Company in the Discharge of their Duties, and conduct the general Management of the Birmingham Proof House under the Byelaws for the Time being; and the Proof Master of that Company, with the Consent of the Wardens thereof, may from Time to Time appoint and at pleasure remove any Assistant Proof Master, inferior Officer, Workman, or Servant of that Company as he may think fit, and may determine their respective Duties and Remuneration; and at every yearly Meeting of that Company the Wardens thereof shall present a Report upon the Transactions of that Company during the last preceding Year, and shall annex to their Report a tabular classified Statement of the Barrels sent to be proved at the Birmingham Proof House, the Number of Barrels proved and marked as proved, the Number of Barrels found faulty and the Character of the Faults thereof; and every Member of the Birmingham Gun Trade shall be entitled to a printed Copy of such tabular Statement on Application for the same at the Birmingham Proof House.

Declaration by Proof Master and Assistant Proof Masters.

LXXI. A Person shall not be capable of acting as a Proof Master or an Assistant Proof Master of the Birmingham Company until he has made and signed before One of the Members of that Company a Declaration to the Effect following:

'I A.B. do solemnly declare, That I will, so long as I continue Proof Master [or Assistant Proof Master] of the Birmingham Proof House, well and faithfully behave myself in that Office, and prove all Barrels brought to me for that Purpose, according to the Regulations and with respect to and the Scale of Proof from Time to Time in force under "The Gun Barrel Proof Act, 1855;" and that I will not, during the Time that I continue such Proof Master [or Assistant Proof Master], take any Fee or Reward from any Person to prove or for having proved any Barrel otherwise than as that Act directs; and that I will execute that Office without Favour or Affection, Prejudice or Malice, and to the best of my Skill and Ability.'

Penalty on acting contrary to Declaration.

LXXII. Any Person who makes and subscribes such Declaration, and afterwards knowingly and wilfully acts contrary thereto, shall be deemed guilty of a Misdemeanor.

Birmingham Company may maintain Proof House and provide Offices.

LXXIII. 6. Every Person who forges or counterfeits or by any Means whatever produces an Imitation upon any Barrel of any Mark or of any Part of any Mark of any Stamp already or hereafter provided or used by either of the Two Companies for the marking of any Barrel:
7. Every Person who sells or parts with the Possession of any such Mark or Part of a Mark, knowing the same to be forged or counterfeit or an Imitation:
8. Every Person who transposes or removes from any Barrel to any other Barrel any Mark or any Part of any Mark of any Stamp already or hereafter provided or used by either of the Two Companies for marking any Barrel:
9. Every Person who shall have in his Possession or who shall part with the Possession of any Mark or any Part of any Mark so transposed or removed, knowing the same to be transposed or removed:
10. Every Person without lawful Excuse, the Proof whereof shall lie on him, having in his Possession any such forged or counterfeit Stamp or Part of a Stamp, or any such forged or counterfeit Mark or Imitation of a Mark, or any such transposed or removed Mark, knowing the same respectively to be forged, counterfeit, imitated, marked, transposed, or removed:
11. Every Person who cuts or severs from any Barrel any Mark or any Part of any Mark of any Stamp already or hereafter provided or used by either of the Two Companies for the stamping of any Barrel, with Intent that such Mark or such Part of a Mark be placed upon or joined or affixed to any other Barrel:
12. Every Person who places upon or joins or affixes to any Barrel any such Mark or Part of a Mark so cut or severed:
13. Every Person who, with Intent to defraud, uses any genuine Stamp already or hereafter provided or used by either of the Two Companies for the marking of any Barrel:
14. Every Person who forges or counterfeits, or by any Means produces an Imitation upon any Barrel of any Mark, or of any Part of any Mark, of any Stamp of a Foreign Country registered by the Two Companies pursuant to the Provisions of this Act.

Offences involving Penalties.

C. Every Person committing any of the following Offences shall for every such Offence be subject to a Penalty as follows, to wit:

1. Every Person selling or exchanging, or exposing or keeping for Sale, or exporting or importing, or attempting to export or import from or to England, or having in his Possession without lawful Excuse, (the Proof whereof shall lie upon him,) any Barrel having thereupon any Mark of any forged or counterfeit Stamp or Part of a Stamp already or hereafter provided or used by either of the Two Companies for marking any Barrel, or having thereupon any forged or counterfeit Mark or Imitation of a Mark of any Stamp or Part of a Stamp so provided or used, or having thereupon any Mark of any Stamp or Part of a Stamp so provided or used, such Mark having been transposed or removed thereto from any other Barrel, shall for every such Barrel so sold or exchanged, or exposed or kept for Sale, or exported or imported, or attempted to be exported or imported, or so in his Possession, forfeit not exceeding Twenty Pounds:

2. Every Person selling or exchanging or exposing or keeping for Sale, or exporting or attempting to export from England, any Small Arm, the Barrel or Barrels whereof are not under this Act duly proved and marked as proved, shall for every such Barrel forfeit not exceeding Twenty Pounds:
3. Every Person fraudulently erasing, obliterating, or defacing, or fraudulently causing to be erased, obliterated, or defaced from any Barrel, any Mark or any Part of any Mark of any Stamp already or hereafter provided or used by either of the Two Companies for the marking of Barrels, shall for every such Offence forfeit not exceeding Twenty Pounds:
4. Every Person delivering or sending or causing or procuring to be delivered or sent for Sale, or under pretence of Sale, or removing, consigning, or transmitting, or causing or procuring to be removed, consigned, or transmitted for Sale, or under pretence of Sale, any Small Arm, the Barrel or Barrels whereof are not duly proved at the Proof House of the Gunmakers Company, or the Birmingham Proof House, or some other public Proof House established by Law, and marked as proved, shall, for every Small Arm so delivered or sent, or caused or procured to be delivered or sent, or removed, consigned, or transmitted, or caused or procured to be removed, consigned, or transmitted, forfeit not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Punishments and Penalties not to be cumulative.

CI. Provided always, That the several Punishments and Penalties herein-before enacted shall not be cumulative in respect of One and the same Offence, but shall be applicable to any such Offence by way of Alternative only.

Recovery of Penalties.

CII. All Penalties recoverable under this Act shall be recovered in a summary Way upon Information or Complaint before any Two of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County, Riding, Division, City, Borough, Town, Liberty, or Place where the Offence has been committed or the Offender shall reside or be, or before any Metropolitan Police Magistrate or Stipendiary Magistrate having Jurisdiction within the same respectively; and such Proceedings shall and may be had before such Justices or Metropolitan Police Magistrate or Stipendiary Magistrate in manner and form directed by the Statute Eleven and Twelve Victoria, Chapter Forty-three, intituled An Act to facilitate the Performance of the Duties of Justices of the Peace out of Session within England and Wales with respect to summary Convictions and Orders, and the Amount of the Forfeiture or Penalty for every such Offence shall be determined by such Justices or Metropolitan Police Magistrate or Stipendiary Magistrate, not exceeding the Sums herein-before mentioned, and shall be paid to the Use of Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors.

Power of Appeal.

CIII. If any Person convicted of any Offence punishable by summary Conviction under this Act shall think himself or herself aggrieved by the Judgment of the Justices or Metropolitan Police Magistrate or Stipendiary Magistrate before whom he or she shall have been convicted, such Person shall have Liberty to appeal from every such Conviction to the next Court of General Sessions or General Quarter Sessions of the Peace which shall be held for the County, Riding, Division, City, Town, Liberty, or Place where such Conviction took place, and the Justices in or at the said next Court of General Sessions or General Quarter Sessions are hereby authorized and required to hear and determine the Matter of the said Appeal, which Decision shall be final.

Exemption from Penalty where original Offender made known to Companies.

CIV. Provided always, That if any Person having sold or exchanged, or exposed or kept for Sale, or exported or imported, or attempted to export or import, or had in his Possession, any Barrel having thereupon any Mark of any such forged or counterfeit Stamp or Part of a Stamp, or having thereupon any such forged or counterfeit Mark or Imitation of a Mark, or having thereupon any such Mark so transposed or removed thereto, shall, within Three Days after Notice thereof given by either of the Two Companies to him or left for him at his usual or then last Place of Abode or Business in England, discover and make known to such One of the Two Companies the Name and Place of Abode of the Maker of such Barrel or of the Manufacturer or Dealer from whom such Person bought, had, or received the same, then every such Person so making such Discovery shall be exempted and discharged from the Penalty incurred by him by reason of his having so sold or exchanged, or exposed or kept for Sale, or exported or imported, or attempted to export or import, or had in his Possession such Barrel; nevertheless, this Provision shall not exempt any Person from the legal Consequences of uttering or of having had in his Possession any such Barrel, knowing the same to be marked with the forged or counterfeit Stamp, or knowing the Mark thereon to be forged, counterfeit, imitated, marked, transposed, or removed, if such Knowledge be, in any Criminal Proceeding against him for any such Offence, duly proved.

Proof Masters of the Two Companies to keep a Register of Foreign Proof Marks.

CV. Each of the Proof Masters of the Two Companies shall, upon Application in Writing to be made to him by the Consul General, Consul, or Vice-Consul of any Foreign State having a Consular Agency in England, accompanied by a Specification and Drawing or Delineation of the several Marks, Signs, or Characters used or employed for denoting or evidencing the Proof of Barrels of Small Arms at any lawful Proof House in any such Foreign State, authenticated by the Official Seal of such Consular Agent, enter in a Book, to be provided by him for that Purpose, (in this Act called "the Register of Foreign Proof Marks,") a Copy of every such Specification and Drawing or Delineation, and such Register shall be open for public Inspection, without Charge, at all reasonable Times, at the Proof House of each of the Two Companies, and the Proof Masters of the Two Companies shall, by Advertisement to be inserted in the London Gazette, in One of the London Daily Morning Newspapers, and in One of the Birmingham Newspapers, from Time to Time give Notice of all Foreign Proof Marks so registered.

Barrels with Foreign Proof Marks to be exempted, ex-

CVI. Every Barrel of Foreign Manufacture, having duly and lawfully impressed thereon the due and proper Mark, Sign, or Character indicative of the due Proof thereof at any Foreign Proof House, the Marks whereof shall be entered in and shall correspond with the Register of Foreign Proof Marks, shall be be exempted from the Provisions of this Act: Provided always, that if any Barrel so exempted shall, on any Part thereof, or on any Part of any Small Arm into which it is made up, be stamped or marked with any Mark, Name, Sign, or Character indicating or purporting to indicate that such Barrel or Small Arm or any Part thereof is of English Manufacture, every such Barrel shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be deemed an unproved Barrel of English Manufacture. cept in case of being marked as of English Manufacture.

CVII. Every Barrel imported into or found in England having any Mark, Sign, or Character, being or purporting to be the Mark, Sign, or Character of any Foreign Proof House, the Marks whereof are not entered in or do not correspond with the Register of Foreign Proof Marks, shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be deemed an unproved Barrel of English Manufacture. Certain Barrels having Foreign Marks deemed unproved.

CVIII. Every Barrel of Foreign Manufacture imported into or found in England not bearing the Mark, Sign, or Character of any Foreign Proof House, shall, for the Purposes of this Act, be deemed an unproved Barrel of English Manufacture. Foreign Barrels without Mark deemed unproved.

CIX. Provided always, That in any Prosecution or Proceeding which may be instituted for Offences committed against the Provisions of this Act it shall not be necessary to prove that any Barrel is of English Manufacture, but that in every Case the Proof of Exemption from the Provisions of this Act shall lie with the Party charged with the Commission of any such Offence, and the Register of Foreign Proof Marks of either of the Two Companies shall be conclusive Evidence as to the Fact of Non-exemption, without Production of any original Document received from any Consular Agent, and without Proof of any other Fact in verification of such Register. Party charged to prove Exemption of Foreign Barrels and Foreign Mark Book to be conclusive Evidence.

CX. The Property in every forged or counterfeit Stamp, and in every Part of every forged or counterfeit Stamp, and in every Barrel having thereupon any Mark of any forged or counterfeit Stamp or Part of a Stamp, and in every Barrel having thereupon any forged or counterfeit Mark or Imitation of a Mark, and in every Mark or Part of a Mark so transposed or removed, or cut or severed, and in every Barrel from which any Mark or Part of a Mark is removed, cut, or severed, and in every Barrel to which any such Mark or Part of a Mark is removed or transposed, is by this Act vested absolutely in such One of the Two Companies as first claims the same, the Proof in case of either of the Two Companies claiming the same that the other of the Two Companies was the first Claimant thereof to lie on the Person against whom the Claim is made: Provided always, that any such vesting shall not exempt any Person from any Penalty or any legal Consequences under this Act. Property in forged Stamps, &c. vested in Company claiming the same.

CXI. Whenever either of the Two Companies hath reasonable or proper Cause to suspect that any Person hath concealed or deposited in any Manufactory, House, Shop, or Place, or hath Possession of,— Application to Justice for Warrant for Seizure of forged Stamps, &c.

First, any forged or counterfeit Stamp or Part of a Stamp; or,

Secondly, any Barrel having thereupon any Mark of any forged or counterfeit Stamp or Part of a Stamp; or,

Thirdly, any Barrel having thereupon any forged or counterfeit Mark or Imitation of a Mark; or,

Fourthly, any Mark or Part of a Mark so transposed or removed, or cut or severed; or,

Fifthly, any Barrel from which any Mark or Part of a Mark is removed, or cut, or severed; or,

Sixthly, any Barrel to which any Mark or Part of a Mark is removed or transposed; or,

Seventhly, any Barrel which, according to the Provisions of this Act, ought to be delivered at the Proof House of the Gunmakers Company, or the Birmingham Proof House, or some other public Proof House established by Law, to be proved thereat and marked as proved, but is not so delivered; or,

Eighthly, any Barrel sold or exchanged or kept for Sale, or imported or attempted to be exported, contrary to any of the Provisions in that Behalf of this Act;

The Company may apply to a Justice for a Search Warrant under this Act; and any Justice having Jurisdiction where any such Offence is suspected to be committed, upon Information or Complaint made by or on behalf of either of the Two Companies of any such reasonable or probable Cause of Suspicion, and upon the Oath of One or more credible Person or Persons (which Oath such Justice may and shall administer) that the Deponent hath such Suspicion, and of the Causes of the same, shall, if satisfied with the Causes of Suspicion alleged, grant a Warrant under his Hand, directed to any One or more of the Officers of either of the Two Companies, together with any Constable or other Peace Officer named in such Warrant, authorizing and empowering such Officer and such Constable or other Peace Officer, with necessary and proper Assistance, to enter in the Daytime any such Manufactory, House, Shop, or Place, and to search the same, and to seize and carry away every such Stamp, Part, Mark, and Barrel respectively which shall there be found; and all Constables and other Peace Officers shall be aiding and assisting in the Execution of every such Warrant, and every such Stamp, Part, Mark, and Barrel so found, seized, and carried away may and shall be dealt with as by this Act provided.

CXII. Every Stamp and Mark lawfully seized and carried away under this Act shall be detained and be broken and destroyed by the Company whose Officer seized and carried away the same, and the Materials thereof shall be sold, and the Proceeds of such Sale shall be received and retained by that Company for their own Use; and every Barrel so seized and carried away shall be proved by the Company whose Officer seized and carried away the same, and if not found of Proof shall be broken and destroyed, and if found of Proof shall be marked as proved; and the Metal so broken, or the Barrel so proved and marked as proved, shall be sold, and the Proceeds of such Sale shall be received and retained by that Company for their own Use: Provided always, that before any Stamp, Mark, or Barrel shall be dealt with as aforesaid it shall be shown to the Satisfaction of the Justice or Court before whom Proceedings shall be had in respect thereof that the same have been lawfully seized under this Act. Forged Stamps, &c. to be destroyed and sold for Benefit of Companies.

Penalties on Officers for Neglect of Duties.

CXIII. Every Officer or other Person engaged in the Management of the Proof House of the Gunmakers Company or the Birmingham Proof House, acting contrary to or neglecting his Duty in any of following Particulars, shall for every such Offence forfeit not exceeding Twenty Pounds; (to wit,)

1. Not receiving at the Proof House any Barrel duly brought or sent thereto for Proof:
2. Not duly proving at the Proof House any Barrel duly brought or sent thereto for Proof:
3. Not duly marking as proved any Barrel duly proved at the Proof House, and duly found of Proof:
4. Not duly delivering to the Person entitled thereto any Barrel duly proved at the Proof House, and duly found of Proof:
5. Delivering from the Proof House any Barrel brought or sent thereto for Proof before it is duly proved:
6. Delivering from the Proof House any Barrel brought or sent thereto for Proof, and duly proved, without the proper Mark thereon of its having been duly proved:
7. Causing or permitting any of those Offences to be committed:
8. Directly or indirectly counselling, aiding, assisting, or abetting the Commission of any of those Offences.

Penalty on Officers for Fraud.

CXIV. Every Officer or Person employed in the Proof House of the Gunmakers Company or the Birmingham Proof House marking or causing or procuring or permitting or suffering to be marked any Barrel as duly proved which has not been duly proved, or marking or causing or procuring or permitting or suffering any Barrel to be marked as duly proved with a Mark indicating any other Proof than the Proof then duly made thereof, shall for every such Offence forfeit not exceeding Fifty Pounds, and being legally convicted of any such Offence shall thenceforth be incapable of holding any Office or Employment in or under the Gunmakers Company, or the Birmingham Company, or in any public Proof House established by Law; and if in Office or Employment in any such Proof House at the Time of such Conviction shall be forthwith dismissed from his Office or Employment therein.

Saving Rights of Gunmakers Company.

CXV. Provided always, That, except as is by this Act expressly provided, this Act or anything therein shall not take away, lessen, alter, or prejudice any of the Estates, Franchises, Ordinances, Rules, Regulations, Rights, Powers, or Privileges of the Gunmakers Company, and this Act or anything therein shall not in any Manner derogate from or affect the Charter of that Company.

Act not to extend to Scotland or Ireland.

CXVI. Provided always, That, except as regards the Provisions of this Act with respect to Offences by this Act declared to be Misdemeanors, or for which Penalties are by this Act imposed, and the Punishment of such Offences and the Recovery of such Penalties, this Act or anything therein shall not extend to Scotland or Ireland.

Expenses of Act.

CXVII. All the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of and incident to the obtaining and passing of this Act or otherwise in relation thereto shall be paid by the Birmingham Company and by the Gunmakers Company out of the Monies received by each of those Companies for Proof under this Act, in the Proportions of Three Fourths by the Birmingham Company and One Fourth by the Gunmakers Company.

SCHEDULE (B.)

RULES AND REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE PROOF OF SMALL ARMS.

Classification of Small Arms.

First Class.—Comprising single-barrelled Military Arms of smooth Bore.

Second Class.—Comprising double-barrelled Military Arms of smooth Bore, and rifled Arms of every Description, whether of One or more Barrels, or constructed of plain or twisted Iron.

Third

THIRD CLASS.—Comprising every Description of single-barrelled Birding and Fowling Pieces for firing small Shot; and also those known by the Names of Danish, Dutch, Carolina, and Spanish.

FOURTH CLASS.—Comprising every Description of double-barrelled Birding and Fowling Pieces for firing small Shot.

FIFTH CLASS.—Comprising revolving and breech-loading Small Arms of every Description and System.

Rule of Proof.

The Gunpowder used for Proof shall be of equal Quality and Strength with that which is now used by the Honourable Board of Ordnance.

The Balls used for the Proof of Barrels of all Classes shall be of Lead, and spherical, and of the Size and Weight prescribed by the Scale for Proof.

Barrels for Arms of the Second Class and of the Fourth Class, and for breech-loading Arms of the Fifth Class, shall be proved provisionally and definitively, and Barrels for all other Arms shall be proved once definitively.

Conditions precedent to Proof.

Barrels for Arms of the First Class shall not be qualified for Proof until they shall be in a fit and proper State for setting up.

Barrels for Arms of the Third Class shall not be qualified for Proof until they shall be in a fit and proper State for setting up, with the proper Breeches in; and all Barrels lumped for percussioning shall be proved through the Nipple Hole, with the proper Pins or Plugs in.

Barrels for Arms of the Second and Fourth Classes:

For provisional Proof:—If of plain Metal, shall be bored and ground, having Plugs attached, with Touch-holes drilled in the Plugs, of a Diameter not exceeding One Sixteenth of an Inch. If any Touch-hole shall be enlarged, from any Cause whatever, to a Dimension exceeding in Diameter One Tenth of an Inch, the Barrel shall be disqualified for Proof. Notches in the Plugs instead of drilled Touch-holes shall disqualify for Proof. If of twisted Metal, they shall be fine-bored, and struck up, with proving Plugs attached, and Touch-holes drilled as in the Case of plain Metal Barrels.

For definitive Proof:—The Barrels, whether of plain or twisted Metal, shall be in the finished State, ready for setting up, with the Breeches in the percussioned State, Break-offs fitted and Locks jointed; the Top and Bottom Ribs shall be rough struck up, Pipes, Loops, and Stoppers on. All Rifle Barrels must be rifled; the Top and Bottom Ribs of double Barrels shall be struck up, Pipes, Loops, and Stoppers on, the proper Breeches in, and the Thread of the Screws shall be sufficiently sound and full for Proof.

Barrels for revolving Arms of the Fifth Class shall have the Cylinders with the revolving Action attached and complete.

Barrels for breech-loading Arms of the Fifth Class shall be subject to provisional Proof, according to the Class to which they belong, and to definitive Proof when the breech-loading Action is attached and complete.

Marks of Proof.

The Marks applicable to the definitive Proof shall be the Proof and View Marks now used by the Two Companies respectively.

The Marks applicable to the provisional Proof for the Gunmakers Company shall be the Letters (G.P.) interlaced in a Cypher surmounted by a Lion rampant, and for the Birmingham Company shall be the Letters (B.P.) interlaced in a Cypher surmounted by a Crown.

Mode of affixing Proof Marks.

On Arms of the First and Third Classes the definitive Proof Mark and View Mark shall be impressed at the Breech End of the Barrel, and if the Barrel be constructed with a Patent Breech the View Mark shall be also impressed upon the Breech.

On Arms of the Second, Fourth, and Fifth Classes, the provisional Proof Mark shall be impressed at the Breech End of the Barrel; the definitive Proof Mark and View Mark shall be impressed upon the Barrel above the provisional Proof Mark; and if the Barrel be constructed with a Patent Breech, or with revolving Cylinders or Chambers, the View Mark shall be also impressed upon the Breech, or upon each of the Cylinders or Chambers with which the Barrel is connected, as the Case may be.

On all Barrels the Gauge Size of the Barrel shall be struck, both at the provisional and at the definitive Proof.

SCALE FOR PROOF.

The Scale following shows the Proportions of Gunpowder applicable under the foregoing Rules and Regulations to the Proof of the various Classes of Arms as distinguished by the Trade Numbers indicating the Calibre.

Cap. clxxii.

An Act for improving the Postal and Passenger Communication between England and Ireland, and for authorizing Arrangements between certain Companies in England and Ireland in relation thereto; and for other Purposes. [23d July 1855.]

'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for making a Railway from Chester to Holyhead, under the Authority of which Act and of the other Acts relating to the Chester and Holyhead Railway the London and North-western Railway Company are Proprietors of a large Proportion of the Share Capital of the Chester and Holyhead Railway Company: And whereas by "The Chester and Holyhead Railway Act, 1848," the Chester and Holyhead Railway Company were empowered, for the Purpose of establishing an efficient Communication between Holyhead and Dublin in connexion with their Railway, to purchase, build, construct, navigate, maintain, and work, and also to charter or hire, Steam Boats, or to subscribe or contribute towards the Funds of any Company or Persons having or making or navigating Steam Boats: And whereas the City of Dublin Steam Packet Company has been for many Years established for the Purpose of carrying on Steam Communication between, amongst others, the Ports of Dublin (including Howth and Kingstown) and Holyhead: And whereas the Chester and Holyhead Railway terminates at and communicates with the Port of Holyhead, and the London and North-western Railway communicates at Chester with the Chester and Holyhead Railway: And whereas it would greatly facilitate the Postal Service, and also the convenient Transmission of Passengers between England and Ireland, if the aforesaid Companies were empowered to provide larger and more powerful Steam Vessels for such Purpose, or to secure Interest or other Remuneration to any Company or Person providing the same between Holyhead and Kingstown or Howth, and if Provision were made for the Division and Apportionment between the said Companies or some of them of the Monies to be received for or in respect of such Traffic passing as aforesaid between the Ports aforesaid, and for the Conduct and Regulation of such Traffic, and for the Transmission thereof upon and along the Railways of the said Companies, and if the Companies were empowered to enter into Arrangements or Agreements with reference to all or any of the Purposes aforesaid; but such Objects cannot be effected without the Authority of Parliament:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

7 & 8 Vict. c. lxv.

11 & 12 Vict. c. lx.

I. In citing this Act for any Purpose it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "Improved Postal and Passenger Communication between England and Ireland Act, 1855." Short Title.

II. It shall be lawful for the London and North-western and Chester and Holyhead Railway Companies and the City of Dublin Steam Packet Company, on such Terms as may from Time to Time be agreed upon, to purchase, or to hire and pay for, or to build and construct, navigate, use, and maintain, such additional Steam Boats for the Conveyance of Mails and Passengers between Holyhead and Kingstown or Howth as they shall think fit, or otherwise it shall be lawful for those Railway Companies or either of them to contract and agree with the City of Dublin Steam Packet Company to provide from Time to Time such additional Steam Boats as aforesaid, and to secure Payment of such Rent or other Consideration as may from Time to Time be mutually agreed upon. Power to provide additional Steam Boats.

Power to charge Rates for Steam Boats.

III. It shall be lawful for the before-mentioned Companies and they are hereby authorized to charge for the Conveyance of Passengers and Parcels in the Steam Boats worked or employed by them between Holyhead and Kingstown or Howth such reasonable Rates or Sums as they shall think proper, and which shall be sanctioned and approved of by the Committee of Privy Council for Trade, but not exceeding the Rates or Sums authorized to be taken by the Chester and Holyhead Railway Company for the Conveyance of Passengers upon their Railway for a Distance of Sixty Miles thereon: Provided always, that it shall be lawful for every First-class Passenger conveyed by such Boats, or partly by the Steam Boats and Railways of the Companies, to take with him, without extra Charge, his ordinary Luggage, not exceeding One hundred and twelve Pounds in Weight, and every Second-class Passenger not exceeding One hundred Pounds in Weight, and every Third-class Passenger not exceeding Sixty Pounds in Weight.

For securing Equality of Treatment.

IV. Such Steam Boat Rates or Sums shall be at all Times charged to all Persons equally and after the same Rate per Mile, in respect of all Passengers and Parcels conveyed in a like Vessel passing between Holyhead and Kingstown or Howth under the like Circumstances; and no Reduction or Advance in any such Rate shall be made in favour of or against any Person using the said Steam Boats in consequence of such Person having travelled over the whole or any Part of the Chester and Holyhead Railway, or not having travelled upon any Part thereof.

Provision of certain Acts to apply to Rates authorized to be taken under this Act.

V. All the Provisions and Regulations contained in the several Acts relating to the Chester and Holyhead Railway, or the several Acts incorporated therewith, with respect to the Collection, Receipt, and receiving of the Rates and Tolls authorized to be taken for the Conveyance of Passengers and Parcels upon the Chester and Holyhead Railway, and for the Prevention of Fraud upon the Company in respect thereof, shall, so far as the same shall be approved of by the said Committee of Privy Council for Trade, and be applicable, extend to the Passengers conveyed in or upon such Steam Boats between the Ports or Harbours of Holyhead and Kingstown or Howth.

Companies empowered to make Byelaws.

VI. It shall be lawful for the Companies and they are hereby authorized from Time to Time to make Byelaws, Orders, and Regulations in relation to Passengers and Parcels conveyed in or upon such Steam Boats between the Ports aforesaid, and as to the Embarkation and Disembarkation thereof respectively, and to enforce the Observance of the same by Penalties, in the same Manner as the Chester and Holyhead Railway Company are authorized with respect to Passengers and Parcels conveyed upon their Railway, such Byelaws, Orders, and Regulations being previously sanctioned and authenticated in the same Manner as is required by the general Law relating to Railways, and being further approved of by the said Committee of Privy Council for Trade; and such Byelaws, Orders, and Regulations, and all Penalties and Forfeitures in respect of the Breach thereof, shall be enforced and recovered in the same Manner as by Law is provided with respect to Offences committed upon the Railway; and all Offences committed on board of the said Steam Boats within Harbour shall be considered to be committed within the County of Anglesea or within the County of Dublin, according as such Harbour shall be situate in Wales or in Ireland respectively, and if committed out of Harbour shall be considered to be committed in either County, and cognizable by any Justice of either of such Counties.

Rates and Byelaws to be published.

VII. A List of the Charges from Time to Time appointed to be taken for the Conveyance of Passengers and Parcels in the Steam Boats of or employed by the Companies between Holyhead and Kingstown or Howth, and the Substance of all such Byelaws, Orders, and Regulations as shall be made by the Companies in relation to such Passengers, shall be affixed, in manner provided by the General Acts relating to Railways, in the Stations of the Chester and Holyhead Railway Company at Chester and Holyhead respectively, and also in the Cabins appropriated to Passengers in the several Steam Vessels so used and employed by the Companies aforesaid.

17 & 18 Vict. c. 31. to extend to Steam Boats under this Act.

VIII. The Provisions of the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Victoria, Chapter Thirty-one, shall, so far as the same are applicable, extend to the Steam Boats to be provided under the Provisions of this Act, and to the Passengers and Parcels carried therein.

Certain Powers to continue till 31st Dec. 1871.

IX. The Powers hereby granted to purchase, hire, use, and own Steam Boats shall continue until the Thirty-first Day of December One thousand eight hundred and seventy-one.

Power to enter into Agreements with reference to Conduct of Traffic and other Purposes.

X. It shall be lawful for all the before-mentioned Companies from Time to Time to make and carry into effect all Contracts and Agreements with reference to the Objects aforesaid, and the Division and Apportionment between and amongst the aforesaid Companies of the Tolls, Rates, or other Charges received in respect of the Through Passenger and Parcel Traffic conveyed in or by the aforesaid Steam Boats between Holyhead and Kingstown or Howth: Provided always, that, the true Intent and Object of this Act being to facilitate the Postal and Passenger Communication between England and Ireland, nothing herein contained shall be held to confer any Authority to apply the Powers granted by this Act, or the Funds to be appropriated thereunder, to any other Purposes than the Passenger, Postal, and Parcel Traffic passing between Holyhead and Kingstown or Howth, including the Transmission of Horses, Carriages, or other necessary or usual Incidents of Passenger Communication, or to empower any of the aforesaid Companies to carry Cattle, Stores, Goods, or Merchandise by any of the Steam Boats hereby authorized to be purchased, hired, used, or owned, or to enable the London and North-western and Chester and Holyhead Railway Companies, or either of them, to enter into any Arrangement or Agreement with the City of Dublin Steam Packet Company for the Conveyance of Cattle, Stores, Goods, Merchandise, or any other Effects; provided, further, that nothing herein contained shall be held to affect any existing Powers of any of the aforesaid Companies.

Appointment of Committee.

XI. For the Purpose of more effectually carrying into effect all or any of the Purposes aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the aforesaid Companies to appoint a Board of Management or a Joint Committee, as shall shall be mutually agreed upon, and to delegate to such Board of Management or Committee all such Powers, Duties, and Authorities in reference to the Objects and Purposes of this Act as the said Companies shall think fit.

As to Appointment of Umpires.

XII. For settling and determining all Disputes and Differences which may arise between them respecting the Fulfilment of any of the Objects and Purposes of any such Agreement or Arrangement, every such Dispute and Difference shall, when and as the same arises, be referred to Arbitration, in the Manner prescribed by Clauses CXXVIII. to Clause CXXXIV. of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, which shall (mutatis mutandis) for that Purpose be deemed to be Part of this Act; provided, however, that in case the Dispute shall be between the Railway Companies and the City of Dublin Company, Two Arbitrators, and not Three, shall be appointed, One being appointed by the Two Railway Companies, and the other by the City of Dublin Company.

Power to remove Members of Joint Committee.

XIII. It shall be lawful for each of the said Companies from Time to Time to remove any Person appointed on behalf of such Company to be a Member of the said Board of Management or Committee, and to appoint another in his Stead, on giving Seven Days Notice in Writing of their Intention so to do to the said Board of Management or Committee.

For filling up Places of Members dying, &c.

XIV. If any Member of the said Board of Management or Committee shall die, or resign, or become disqualified or incompetent to act as a Member of the said Board of Management or Committee, the Company by whom he was appointed may appoint another Person to supply his Place.

Committee may make Rules for their own Guidance.

XV. The said Board of Management or Committee may from Time to Time make such Rules, Bye-laws, and Regulations with reference to the Times and Places of their Meetings, and the Notices convening such Meetings, and the Appointment of their Chairman, and otherwise howsoever with reference to their Proceedings, as they shall think fit.

Committee may appoint Officers.

XVI. The Board of Management or Committee may from Time to Time nominate and appoint and remove all such Secretaries, Treasurers, Clerks, and other Officers as they may from Time to Time think necessary for carrying out the several Objects and Purposes from Time to Time intrusted to them, and may pay to the Persons so from Time to Time appointed by them such Salaries or other Emoluments as the said Board of Management or Committee shall think fit.

Power to apply Corporate Funds to Purposes of this Act.

XVII. It shall be lawful for any or either of the herein-before mentioned Companies to appropriate to or towards all or any of the Objects and Purposes of this Act any Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Four hundred thousand Pounds, which they respectively are authorized to raise by any Act or Acts, Deed or Deeds, or which shall have been raised by them under the Provisions of any Act or Acts in force with relation to such Companies respectively, and which may not be required for the Purposes to which they are by any such Act or Acts made specially applicable.

Power to make Agreements with Her Majesty's Postmaster General, &c. for Conveyance of Mails, &c.

XVIII. It shall be lawful for the aforesaid Companies from Time to Time to make and enter into and carry into effect any Agreements and Arrangements with Her Majesty's Postmaster General, or with the Lords of the Admiralty, in reference to the Conveyance in their Steam Boats of Her Majesty's Mails or Post Letter Bags between Holyhead and Kingstown or Howth: Provided always, that, until an Agreement or Arrangement for the Purposes herein-before in this Clause mentioned shall have been so made and entered into, none of the Powers by this Act granted shall be exercised by the said Companies, and that, unless such an Agreement or Arrangement shall have been made and entered into on or before the First Day of May One thousand eight hundred and sixty, it shall not be lawful for the said Companies, in pursuance of this Act, to exercise any of the Powers granted thereby, and such Powers shall thereafter cease and have no Effect.

Deposits for future Bills not to be paid out of Companies Capital.

XIX. It shall not be lawful for the before-mentioned Railway Companies respectively, out of any Money by any Act relating to them respectively authorized to be raised for the Purposes of such Act, to pay or deposit any Sum of Money which by any Standing Order of either House of Parliament, now in force or hereafter to be in force, may be required to be deposited in respect to any Application to Parliament for the Purpose of obtaining an Act authorizing them respectively to construct any other Railway or to execute any other Work or Undertaking.

Railways not exempt from Provisions of present and future General Acts.

XX. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to exempt the Undertakings of the before-mentioned Railway Companies respectively, or any of those Undertakings, from the Provisions of any General Act relating to the Acts affecting the said Railway Companies respectively, or of any General Act relating to Railways, or to the better and more impartial Audit of the Accounts of Railway Companies, now in force or which may hereafter pass during this or any future Session of Parliament, or from any future Revision and Alteration, under the Authority of Parliament, of the maximum Rates of Fares and Charges, and of the Rates for small Parcels, authorized by those Acts respectively.

Expenses of Act.

XXI. All the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of applying for, obtaining, and passing this Act, or preparatory or incident thereto, shall in the first instance be paid and discharged by the London and North-western and Chester and Holyhead Railway Companies and by the City of Dublin Steam Packet Company.

Cap. cxciii.

An Act for extending the Times granted to the Westminster Improvement Commissioners by "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1845," "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1847," "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1850," and "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1853," for the compulsory Purchase of Lands and the Completion of Works; and for altering the Corporate Name of "The Westminster Association for improving the Dwellings of the Working Classes" to "The London and Westminster Association for improving the Dwellings of the Working Classes;" and for other Purposes. [14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS the Westminster Improvement Commissioners were incorporated and continued as an Incorporation by the Local and Personal Acts Eighth and Ninth of Victoria, Chapter One hundred and seventy-eight, which Act has the Short Title "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1845," Tenth and Eleventh of Victoria, Chapter One hundred and thirty-one, which Act has the Short Title "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1847," Thirteenth and Fourteenth of Victoria, Chapter One hundred and two, which Act has the Short Title "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1850," and Sixteenth and Seventeenth Victoria, Chapter One hundred and seventy-six, which Act has the Short Title "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1853," for the Purposes of an Undertaking, the Objects of which were the Construction of a Street (now completed and opened to the Public, and called Victoria Street,) to form a Communication between the Neighbourhood of the Houses of Parliament and Buckingham

'Buckingham Palace, and of a secondary Street, to form a Communication between Dean Street and the 'Horseferry Road, or otherwise, and of the Streets and Works prescribed or authorized by "The West-'minster Improvement Act, 1853," aforesaid, and the Improvement of the District in the Neighbourhood 'of the same Streets respectively, which Undertaking is prescribed or authorized, and the Powers and 'Privileges of the said Commissioners in relation thereto created, continued, extended, or modified, and 'Funds in aid of the Undertaking provided, by the said "Westminster Improvement Act, 1845," the said '"Westminster Improvement Act, 1847," the Public General Acts Tenth and Eleventh of Victoria, 'Chapter One hundred and fifteen, Eleventh and Twelfth of Victoria, Chapter One hundred and twenty-'four, and Thirteenth and Fourteenth of Victoria, Chapter One hundred and three, which last-mentioned 'Three Acts are Acts relating principally to the London Bridge Approaches Fund, and by the said "West-'minster Improvement Act, 1850," and the said "Westminster Improvement Act, 1853:" And whereas 'by "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1853," aforesaid, after reciting, among other things, that the 'Improvements in the City of Westminster, prescribed or authorized by "The Westminster Improve-'ment Act, 1845," "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1847," and "The Westminster Improvement 'Act, 1850," had been in part carried into effect, (that is to say,) the Westminster Improvement Com-'missioners had, in such Manner as was required of them, constructed between the Broad Sanctuary, 'Westminster, and Shaftesbury Terrace, and opened to the Public, the Street called Victoria Street, but 'although the Plans for the secondary Street mentioned in "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1847," 'and "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1850," had been submitted, as in the same Acts respectively 'was required, unto Her Majesty's Commissioners of Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and 'Buildings, and unto the Churchwardens and Vestries of the united Parishes of St. Margaret and 'St. John the Evangelist, and had been approved of by the said Churchwardens and Vestries, the Certi-'ficate of Approval under the Hands of Two of Her Majesty's Commissioners, required by "The West-'minster Improvement Act, 1847," had not been given; and the Security by the said "Westminster 'Improvement Act, 1847," directed to be by the Commissioners given or provided for the Construction 'of the said secondary Street according to the Plans thereof, to be approved of as aforesaid, had not 'then been given or provided by the Commissioners; and the Formation of the said secondary Street 'could not be completed until the Commissioners had obtained Possession of the Workhouse, and had 'purchased other Land required for the said secondary Street, and noticing that the Duties and Powers 'which, under the therein-before recited Acts, if the Act therein-after mentioned had not been passed, 'would have been performed and executed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land 'Revenues, Works, and Buildings, were, under and by virtue of "The Public General Act," Fourteenth 'and Fifteenth Victoria, Chapter Forty-two, performed and exercised by the Commissioners of Her 'Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, it was by the Act now in recital, Section Thirteen, enacted, 'that the Powers of the Commissioners for the compulsory Purchase or taking of the Land authorized 'to be taken by that Act should not be exercised after the Expiration of Two Years from the passing of 'that Act; and it was by the same Act, Section Fifty-six, enacted, that, subject to such Security being 'given as therein-after provided, and save and except as to the Lands of the Governors of the Grey 'Coat Hospital, mentioned in the Schedule to "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1847," the Period 'by "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1845," granted for the compulsory Purchase and taking of 'Land comprised in the Schedule (C.) to the same Act, (which Period was extended by "The West-'minster Improvement Act, 1850,") and the Period by "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1847," 'granted for the compulsory Purchase and taking of Land comprised in the Schedule (B.) to the same 'Act should be, and the same Periods were thereby respectively extended and enlarged until the Thirty-'first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and that the Powers of the said Commis-'sioners for the compulsory Purchase or taking of such Land as aforesaid should continue in force and 'might be exercised until such last-mentioned Day and not afterwards, but subject in every Case to the 'Provisions of the said Improvement Acts and that Act; and it was by the same Act, Section Fifty-'seven, enacted, that, subject to such Security being given as therein-after mentioned, the Period by '"The Westminster Improvement Act, 1847," limited for the Completion of the herein-before mentioned 'secondary Street should be and the same thereby was revived and extended until the Thirty-first Day 'of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and that the Security to be, pursuant to the same 'Act, or "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1850," given for the Completion of the said secondary 'Street should be accordingly a Security for the Completion thereof by the said Thirty-first Day of 'July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five; and it was by the same Act, Section Fifty-eight, 'enacted, that the Security to the Extent of Five thousand Pounds to be by the Commissioners provided 'for the Completion of the said secondary Street should be a Security to be approved of, not only by the 'Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, but also by the Churchwardens and Vestries of the 'united Parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, and that such Security should be 'given within Six Months after the passing of that Act, and in default thereof the Powers of the said 'Commissioners for the compulsory Purchase or taking of Land comprised in the Schedule (B.) to "The 'Westminster Improvement Act, 1847," and in the Schedule (A.) to that Act, should cease and deter-'mine: And whereas a Plan for the said secondary Street, (which Plan agrees in all respects with the 'Plan in the said "Westminster Improvement Act, 1853," mentioned to have been approved of by the 'Churchwardens and Vestries of the united Parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, 'except that the Space between Victoria Street and the said secondary Street is increased by about 'Twelve Feet in Width,) was, prior to the Security for the Completion of the said secondary Street

'being given, as herein-after mentioned, approved of by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works 'and Public Buildings, and by the Churchwardens and Vestries of the united Parishes of Saint Margaret 'and Saint John the Evnngelist: And whereas the Commissioners, within the Period prescribed by the 'said "Westminster Improvement Act, 1853," provided, to the Satisfaction of the Lords Commissioners 'of Her Majesty's Treasury, Security to the Extent of Five thousand Pounds for the Completion of the 'said secondary Street, such Security being provided by a Bond, dated the Third Day of February One 'thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, under the Seal of the said Westminster Improvement Commis-'sioners, in the penal Sum of Ten thousand Pounds, and by a Deposit of the Sum of Five thousand 'Pounds, in the Names of the Obligees and of another Trustee, at the London and County Bank, upon 'Trusts for securing the Performance of the Condition of the said Bond; but the said Churchwardens 'and Vestries contend that the Security given as aforesaid was not a Security according to the Intent 'and Meaning of "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1853," aforesaid: And whereas the Funds by 'the said Improvement Acts, some or One of them, provided for the Construction of the said secondary 'Street, consist in part of Sums charged upon or payable out of the Rates of the said united Parishes of 'Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist, and under the Circumstances the Commissioners have 'not been able to proceed in the Construction of the said secondary Street; and it is expedient that the 'Question as to the Security given by the Commissioners as aforesaid should be determined: And 'whereas it is expedient that the Periods limited to the said Commissioners for the compulsory Pur-'chase and taking of Lands, and for Completion of the said secondary Street, should be extended: And 'whereas "The Westminster Association for improving the Dwellings of the Working Classes" was 'incorporated by "The Westminster Improvement Association Act, 1853," for providing, by the Altera-'tion of existing Buildings or the Erection of new Buildings, commodious and healthy Lodgings and 'Dwellings for the poorer Classes, and for letting out the same to them as temporary Lodgings, or other-'wise, in such Manner and under such Restrictions as should be found most conducive to the Objects of 'the Association; but the Operations of the Association are not confined to Westminster, and the Asso-'ciation is desirous that the corporate Name should be "The London and Westminster Association for 'improving the Dwellings of the Working Classes:" And whereas the Purposes aforesaid cannot be 'effected without the Authority of Parliament:' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

Short Title.

I. That in citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament, and in legal Instruments, it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1855."

Interpretation of Terms.

II. That in this Act the following Expressions shall have the several Meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction; (that is to say,)

The Word "Land" shall extend to Messuages, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments of any Tenure:

The Expression "the Commissioners" shall mean the Commissioners for the Time being acting by virtue of "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1845," "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1847," "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1850," "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1853," and this Act:

The Expression "the Improvement Acts" shall mean "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1845," "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1847," "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1850," and "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1853:"

The Word "Sheriff," in "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," shall, with respect to this Act and the said Improvement Acts, mean the High Bailiff of Westminster, in all Cases where the High Bailiff discharges the Duties and Offices usually discharged by the Sheriff.

Security given by the Commissioners declared to be according to the Intent of 16 & 17 Vict. c. clxxvi.

III. That the Security to the Extent of Five thousand Pounds, so as aforesaid provided by the Commissioners for the Completion of the said secondary Street, was and shall be taken to be a Security according to the Intent and Meaning of "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1853," and shall accordingly operate to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, in the same Way as if such Security had been approved of by the said Churchwardens and Vestries of the united Parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist.

Extension of Time for compulsory Purchases in Schedule (C.) to 8 & 9 Vict. c. clxxviii. and in Schedule (B.) to 10 & 11 Vict. c. cxxxi.

IV. The Period by "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1845," granted for the compulsory Purchase and taking of the Land comprised in the Schedule (C.) to the same Act, (which Period was extended by "The Westminster Improvement, Act, 1850," and "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1853,") and the Period by "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1847," granted for the compulsory Purchase and taking of the Land comprised in the Schedule (B.) to the same Act, (which Period was extended by "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1853,") be and the same Periods respectively hereby are extended and enlarged until the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and that the Powers of the Commissioners for the compulsory Purchase and taking of such Land as aforesaid shall continue in force and may be exercised until such last-mentioned Period, but subject in every Case to the Provisions of the said Improvement Acts.

Extension of Time for the Completion of the secondary Street.

V. That the Period by "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1847," limited for the Completion of the said secondary Street, (which Period was revived and extended by the said "Westminster Improvement Act, 1853,") shall be extended and enlarged until the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven; and that the Condition of the Bond given by the Commissioners for the Completion of the said secondary Street shall be deemed to be performed if the same Street be made and completed, in manner in the Condition of the same Bond mentioned, on or before the said Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven; and, subject to such Extension of Time, the said Bond shall remain in force, and may be enforced as fully and effectually as if the said Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven had been the Time in the Condition of the Bond named for the Completion of the said secondary Street; and the said deposited Sum of Five thousand Pounds shall remain and be a Security for the Performance of the Condition of the same Bond.

Extension of Time for the compulsory Purchases in Schedule (A.) to 16 & 17 Vict. c. clxxvi.

VI. That, except as to certain Houses in Palace Street, numbered 23 to 31, both inclusive, in the said Schedule also mentioned, the Period limited to the Commissioners by "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1853," for the compulsory Purchase and taking of the Land comprised in the Schedule (A.) to the same Act, shall be and the same hereby is extended and enlarged until the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and that the Powers of the Commissioners for the compulsory Purchase and taking of such Land shall continue in force and may be exercised until the last-mentioned Day, but subject in every Case to the Provisions of the said Improvement Acts.

Extension of Time for taking Parts of Parliament Square Gardens and Churchyard of St. Margaret.

VII. That the Period limited by "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1853," Section Thirty-two, for Her Majesty's Commissioners of Works and Public Buildings giving their Consent to the Commissioners taking Parts of Parliament Square Gardens for the intended Continuation of Victoria Street, shall be and the same hereby is extended and enlarged until the Thirty-first Day of July One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven; and the Powers of the Commissioners for taking Parts of Parliament Square Gardens, with such Consent as aforesaid, and also Part of the Churchyard or Burial Ground of the Parish of Saint Margaret, shall continue in force and may be exercised until the last-mentioned Day, but subject in every respect to the Provisions of the said Improvement Acts.

Act not to affect Security for 30,000*l.* vested in the Commissioners of Works, &c.

VIII. Provided always, That this Act or anything herein contained shall not affect or prejudice the Security given by the Commissioners, by an Indenture of Mortgage dated the Twenty-fifth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and Bond of even Date therein referred to, for the Repayment by the Commissioners, with Interest, as therein-mentioned, of a Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds advanced to them by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, pursuant to a Power contained in the Act of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth of Victoria, Chapter One hundred and three, and which, under or by virtue of "The Metropolitan Improvements (Repayment out of Consolidated Fund) Act, 1853," is now vested in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings: Provided also, that this Act or anything herein contained shall not prejudice or affect any Right of Preference or Priority in Payment which any Person holding a Bond of the Commissioners, granted before the Date of the Indenture of Mortgage and Deed of Settlement, dated respectively the Twenty-sixth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and not having assented thereto, would have been entitled to if the said Indenture of Mortgage and Deed of Settlement had not been executed, or the said Westminster Improvement Act, 1853, confirming the same, or this Act, had not been passed.

Certain Houses released from 16 & 17 Vict. c. clxxvi.

IX. That the said Houses in Palace Street numbered 23 to 31, both inclusive, are hereby released from the Powers and Provisions of "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1853," and shall be considered as expunged from the Schedule (A.) to the said Act, and from the Plan therein referred to.

Act not to affect Agreement with Justices of Middlesex.

X. That nothing herein contained shall in any Manner whatsoever prejudice or affect certain Articles of Agreement, dated the Third Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, with the Justices of Middlesex, in "The Westminster Improvement Act, 1853," mentioned or referred to, by the said last-mentioned Act ratified and confirmed.

Saving Rights of Governors of Grey Coat and St. Margaret's Hospitals and the Trustees of the Rev. J. Palmer's Charity.

XI. That neither the Extension or Enlargement herein-before granted of the Periods for the compulsory Purchase and taking of Lands, nor any other Clause, Matter, or Thing herein contained, shall in any Manner take away, alter, abridge, or interfere with the Interests, Rights, Authorities, and Powers of the Governors of the Grey Coat Hospital, the Governors of the Hospital of Saint Margaret, the Poor of Emanuel Hospital, and the Trustees of the Reverend James Palmer's Charity respectively, given to or vested in or exerciseable by them respectively, by or under the said Improvement Acts or any of them, or which they may have acquired, or which may be vested in or exerciseable by them, under or by virtue of any Contract, Agreement, or Arrangement heretofore entered into by them the said Governors, or the said Trustees, or their Treasurer, or any other Person on their Behalf, with the said Commissioners, or with the Chairman of the said Commissioners, or any other Person on their Behalf, or which has been adopted by the said Commissioners.

Commissioners not to take any Lands until certain Payments are made.

XII. That before the Commissioners shall take any Land under the extended Powers for compulsory Purchase given by this Act they shall pay to the Churchwardens, Overseers of the Poor, and Vestrymen of the Parishes of St. Margaret and St. John the Evangelist all Arrears in the Deficiency of Rates payable by the Commissioners, if any shall be then due, together with the Costs of any Suit or Proceedings for recovering the same, and the Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds on account of Costs incurred by the said Churchwardens, Overseers of the Poor, and Vestrymen, relating to this Act.

Security to be given for the Payment of Rates.

XIII. That for the Purpose of further securing to the Churchwardens, Overseers of the Poor, and Vestrymen of the Parishes of Saint Margaret and Saint John the Evangelist the Payment of the Deficiencies in Rates which may hereafter become due from the Commissioners to the said Churchwardens, Overseers, and Vestrymen under the Provisions of the Improvement Acts, some or One of them, in respect of any Land hereafter to be taken under the said Improvement Acts or this Act, the Commissioners, shall, previously to taking any such Land under the hereby extended Powers for compulsory Purchase, give or provide, to the Satisfaction of One of the Masters of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench at Westminster, Security to the Extent of Three thousand Pounds, for the Payment from Time to Time as they may become due of all such Deficiencies; and the Persons to whom such Security shall be given, the Survivors and Survivor of them, and the Executors and Administrators of such Survivor, shall and they and he are and is hereby required to enforce the Payment of the said Sum of Three thousand Pounds, or a sufficient Part thereof, from Time to Time, in any Court of Law or Equity, under the Direction of such Churchwardens, Overseers, and Vestrymen, in case such Deficiencies shall not be from Time to Time fully paid; provided, that if it shall at any Time be shown to the Satisfaction of One of the Masters of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench at Westminster that the Houses and other Buildings erected and standing on the Land taken by the Commissioners are of sufficient rateable Value, and become occupied and thereby rateable, and sufficient to provide for all Deficiencies in the said Rates payable by the said Commissioners, no such Security shall be required, and if any Security shall have been previously given the same shall be released and given up to the Commissioners.

Commissioners to purchase certain Lands in Notice, or Power to do so to cease.

XIV. That with respect to any Land of which no Part shall lie within Eighty Feet of the said intended secondary Street, and being on the South thereof, and not required for any other Improvement authorized by the said Improvement Acts, in case any Owner or Lessee thereof shall give Notice to the Commissioners, requiring them forthwith to purchase or release the same from the Powers and Provisions of the said Improvement Acts and this Act, then, unless the said Commissioners shall, within Six Months after receiving such Notice, enter into a valid Contract with such Owner or Lessee for the Purchase of his Interest in the said Land, or give to such Owner or Lessee a valid and binding Notice to treat and agree for his Interest in the said Land, the said Land, so far as respects the Interest of such Owner or Lessee, shall from and after the Expiration of the said Period of Six Months be released from the Powers and Provisions of the said Improvement Acts and this Act.

Change of the Corporate Name of the Westminster Association for improving the Dwellings of the Working Classes.

XV. 'And whereas the Improvements which have of late been made and are still making in the City 'of Westminster have caused the Removal of many Houses inhabited by the Labouring Classes: And 'whereas certain Persons connected with such Improvements and others were desirous of providing 'improved Dwellings for such Labouring Classes, and accordingly applied for and obtained "The West- 'minster Improvement Association Act, 1853:" And whereas it is desirable that the Name of the 'Association incorporated by that Act should be changed:' Be it therefore enacted, That the Association heretofore called "The Westminster Association for improving the Dwellings of the Working Classes," shall from the Date of the passing of this Act be called "The London and Westminster Association for improving the Dwellings of the Working Classes:" Provided always, that the Association shall under the Name last aforesaid continue subject in all respects to the same Liabilities, and shall possess the same Privileges and Rights, and be governed by the same Rules and Regulations as those to which it would have been subject and would have possessed and would have been governed by in case this Act had not been passed; and all Contracts and Engagements entered into and subsisting between the Association and any Bodies Politic and Corporate, and any other Person or Persons whatsoever, prior to the passing of this Act, shall and may be proceeded with and enforced in the same Manner to all Intents and Purposes as if at the Time of making such Contracts and Engagements the Association had been called "The London and Westminster Association for improving the Dwellings of the Working Classes," and the Provisions of "The Westminster Improvement Association Act, 1853," shall be applicable to the Association in the same Manner as if the Association had been thereby incorporated under the Name last aforesaid.

Expenses of Act.

XVI. That the Costs and Expenses of and attending the applying for, obtaining, and passing this Act shall be borne by the Westminster Improvement Commissioners; and that it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, out of any Monies coming to their Hands by virtue of the said Improvement Acts, or any of them, to pay the Costs and Expenses aforesaid.

Cap. cxciv.

An Act to change the corporate Name of the Derbyshire, Staffordshire, and Worcestershire Junction Railway Company, to repeal their Act and consolidate their Powers, to alter and define their Undertaking, to reduce their Capital; and for other Purposes. [14th August 1855.]

[10 & 11 Vict. c. cx. repealed, § 3. Company to continue incorporated under the Title "The Cannock Mineral Railway Company," § 4. General Saving of Rights, § 9. Capital, £160,000, § 17. Power to borrow £40,000, § 26. Provisions respecting Communications with South Staffordshire Railway, §§ 46 to 49; with Trent Valley Railway, §§ 50 and 51. Saving Rights of London and Northwestern Railway, §§ 52 and 53. Not to deviate from Plan in passing through the Marquess of Anglesey's Land in Rugeley, § 54. Provisions as to leasing or selling the Undertaking, §§ 63 to 73.]

Cap.

Cap. cxcvi.

An Act for transferring Part of the Property and Powers of the Trustees of the River Lee; and for the Amendment of the Acts of the New River Company, the East London Waterworks Company, and the said Trustees; and for other Purposes. [14th August 1855.]

'WHEREAS the following Acts have been passed; to wit, the Acts of the Thirteenth Year of 'Elizabeth, Chapter 18; of the Third Year of James the First, Chapter 18; of the Fourth Year 'of James the First, Chapter 12; of the Eleventh Year of George the Second, Chapter 14; of the 12th 'Year of George the Second, Chapter 32; of the Seventh Year of George the Third, Chapter 51; and 'of the Nineteenth Year of George the Third, Chapter 58; and the several Local or Local and Personal 'Acts of the Forty-fifth Year of George the Third, Chapter 69; of the Third Year of George the 'Fourth, Chapter 109; of the Session of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of Her present Majesty, 'Chapter 109 (in this Act called "The Trustees Act of 1850"); of the Session of the Fifteenth and 'Sixteenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter 160; and of the Session of the Seventeenth and 'Eighteenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapters 39 and 72: And whereas some of the recited Acts 'relate to the River Lee and the Navigation thereof, and to the Trustees of the River Lee (in this Act 'called the Trustees) acting in execution of such Acts: And whereas some of the recited Acts relate 'to the Governor and Company of the New River brought from Chadwell and Amwell to London (in 'this Act called the New River Company): And whereas some of the recited Acts relate both to the 'Trustees and to the New River Company: And whereas several Acts were from Time to Time passed 'relating to the Company of Proprietors of the East London Waterworks: And whereas by the Act of 'the Session of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Years of Her present Majesty, Chapter 166, shortly 'called "The East London Waterworks Act, 1853," those Acts were repealed, but some of the 'Provisions thereof were kept in force: And whereas "The East London Waterworks Act, 1853," 'relates to the Trustees and to the New River Company, as well as to the East London Waterworks 'Company, which by that Act were incorporated by way of Continuation of the Company of Pro-'prietors of the East London Waterworks, and which Company so incorporated are in this Act called 'the East London Company: And whereas the New River Company and the East London Company '(in this Act called the Two Companies) derive large Quantities of Water for the Purposes of their 'respective Waterworks from the River Lee, and are executing extensive and important Works for 'preventing the fouling of such Water, and are expending large Sums in that Behalf: And whereas 'the Trustees have, under the recited Act of the Session of the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Years of 'Her present Majesty, Chapter 109, Section 68, Power to supply Water in Bulk to Water Companies 'and others authorized to supply Water to the Metropolis: And whereas it is of great Importance to 'the Health of the Inhabitants of such Parts of the Metropolis as are supplied with Water by the Two 'Companies respectively that the Water supplied to them should be of good Quality, and by reason of 'the rapid Increase of Population and the more general Use of Water that Provision should be made 'for Supply of increased Quantities, and by "The Metropolis Water Act, 1852," Obligations involving 'a large Outlay were to that end imposed on the Two Companies respectively: And whereas the New 'River Company contend that under the recited Act of the Twelfth Year of George the Second they 'have the Right to take from the River Lee so much Water as will pass through the Gauge in that Act 'defined, which Right is denied by the Trustees, and Proceedings at Law and in Equity between that 'Company and the Trustees with respect to the Right so claimed and denied have been instituted: 'And whereas the New River Company have consented to compromise their Claim by restricting the 'Quantity which, as against the Trustees and the East London Company respectively, they shall take 'from the River Lee through that Gauge, to Two thousand five hundred Cubic Feet a Minute; and it 'is expedient that such Compromise should be established: And whereas it would conduce to the 'Advantage of the Inhabitants of the Metropolis who derive their Water Supply from the Two Companies 'respectively if the Quantity of the Water of the River Lee to which the Trustees and the Two Com-'panies respectively are to be hereafter entitled were defined, and if the whole of the Water from Time 'to Time flowing into and down the River, except such Quantities thereof as are by this Act reserved 'to the Trustees for the Purposes of the Navigation, and such of the Powers of the Trustees with respect 'to such Water as in this Act expressed, were transferred to and vested in the Two Companies respec-'tively, and if Provision were made for the Improvement of the Navigation of the River, and for the 'Repair of the River, and for husbanding the Water and preserving it from Pollution, and for enabling 'such further Improvements of the River and the Navigation to be from Time to Time made as may 'better enable the Two Companies respectively to comply with the Provisions of the "Metropolis Water 'Act, 1852:" And whereas the New River Company now pay to the Trustees for a Supply of Water the 'yearly Sum of One thousand eight hundred and fifty Pounds, and the East London Company now pay 'to the Trustees for a Supply of Water the yearly Sum of Two hundred and fifty Pounds, and the last-'named yearly Sum is liable to be increased, under the Provisions of the Trustees Act of 1850: And 'whereas the Two Companies respectively are willing, in return for such Transfer to them, to pay to the 'Trustees, as by this Act provided, in lieu of those yearly Sums of One thousand eight hundred and 'fifty Pounds and Two hundred and fifty Pounds respectively, and of any Sums by way of Increase 'thereof, the aggregate yearly Sum of Three thousand five hundred Pounds and the Principal Sum of 'Forty-two thousand Pounds, and the Trustees are willing to accept Payment thereof accordingly, and 'that such Transfer should be made accordingly; and it is expedient that the Provisions in that Behalf

'of

' of this Act be made: And whereas the Objects aforesaid cannot be attained without the Authority of ' Parliament :' May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; to wit,

Short Title.

I. This Act may be cited for any Purpose as "River Lee Water Act, 1855."

Incorporation of Lands Clauses Act.

II. "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," is incorporated with this Act: Provided always, that such Incorporation shall not authorize the purchasing or taking, under this Act, of any Lands, otherwise than by Agreement: Provided always, that this Act shall not prejudice any Power of the Trustees or of either of the Two Companies for purchasing or taking any Lands otherwise than by Agreement.

Same Meanings of Words in incorporated Act and this Act.

III. The several Words and Expressions to which by the Act incorporated with this Act Meanings are assigned have in this Act the same respective Meanings, unless there be in the Subject or Context something repugnant to or inconsistent with such Construction.

Of Liability of Companies to make Payments to Trustees.

IV. On the passing of this Act the Liability of the New River Company to pay to the Trustees the yearly Sum of One thousand eight hundred and fifty Pounds, and the Liability of the East London Company to pay to the Trustees the yearly Sum of Two hundred and fifty Pounds, and to pay to the Trustees under the recited Acts or any of them, or any Contract or otherwise, any increased or other Sums, shall absolutely cease.

Payments to Trustees.

V. The Two Companies shall pay to the Trustees, as by this Act provided, the aggregate yearly Sum of Three thousand five hundred Pounds, and the New River Company shall pay to the Trustees, as by this Act provided, the gross Sum of Forty-two thousand Pounds: Provided always, that as between the Trustees on the one hand and the Two Companies on the other hand, that aggregate yearly Sum shall be paid to the Trustees, as to the yearly Sum of One thousand five hundred Pounds, Part thereof, only by the New River Company, and as to the yearly Sum of Two thousand Pounds, Residue thereof, only by the East London Company: Provided also, that as between the Two Companies that aggregate yearly Sum shall be paid by them in such Proportions as from Time to Time they shall have mutually agreed on.

Payment of yearly Sum to Trustees.

VI. That aggregate yearly Sum of Three thousand five hundred Pounds shall be paid to the Trustees by equal quarterly Payments on the Twenty-fifth Day of March, the Twenty-fourth Day of June, the Twenty-fifth Day of September, and the Twenty-fourth Day of December in every Year; and the first of those quarterly Payments shall be deemed to have fallen due on the Twenty-fourth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

Remedies for and Liabilities of that yearly Sum.

VII. The Trustees shall have the like Remedies against the Two Companies respectively for Payment of those yearly Sums of One thousand five hundred Pounds and Two thousand Pounds as immediately before the passing of this Act the Trustees had against them respectively for the Recovery of the yearly Sums of One thousand eight hundred and fifty Pounds and Two hundred and fifty Pounds respectively then payable by them to the Trustees: Provided always, that that aggregate yearly Sum of Three thousand five hundred Pounds shall be subject and liable to the Payment of all Principal Sums and Interest secured by the Debentures of the Trustees, in like Manner as immediately before the passing of this Act those yearly Sums of One thousand eight hundred and fifty Pounds and Two hundred and fifty Pounds respectively were subject and liable, and shall accordingly be substituted for those yearly Sums.

Payment of gross Sum to Trustees.

VIII. That gross Sum of Forty-two thousand Pounds shall be paid by the New River Company to the Trustees, as to the Sum of Twelve thousand Pounds, Part thereof, within Seven Days after the passing of this Act, with Interest after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum thereon from the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and as to the Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds, Residue thereof, by Instalments, with Interest after the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum thereon from the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, every such Instalment to be paid, with the Interest thereon, within Seven Days after the granting of the Certificate in that Behalf, as by this Act provided.

Water of Lee vested in the Companies.

IX. Subject to the Provisions of this Act, all the Water from Time to Time flowing into or down the River Lee and the Navigation thereof, which the Trustees have now Power to sell under the Trustees Act of 1850, except such Quantities thereof as are by this Act reserved to the Trustees for the Purposes of the Navigation, is by this Act transferred to and shall be absolutely vested in the Two Companies for ever: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be held to give to the Two Companies or either of them any Right to such Water which does not now belong to the Trustees, or which they have not now the Power to sell.

Millowners Rights generally, and Trustees Right to Water below Old Ford Lock, reserved.

X. Provided always, That, except as regards the Interpretation of the said Act of the Twelfth Year of George the Second, Chapter 32, nothing in this Act shall take away, lessen, or prejudice any Claim for Compensation for Loss of Water or for Loss of Amount of Water Power to which the Owners and Occupiers of the Mills and Works upon the River Lee are or but for the passing of this Act would be respectively entitled, and any such Compensation in respect of Injury sustained by reason of the Acts of the Two Companies or either of them shall be made by and recovered against such Companies or Company respectively, or take away, lessen, prejudice, or alter any of the Rights, Powers, or Authorities of the Trustees with respect to the Head Levels or to any Water below the Compensation Reservoir and Old Ford Lock, whether flowing down or brought up by the Tide, and those Rights, Powers, and Authorities are by this Act reserved to the Trustees accordingly.

Reservation to Trustees of

XI. Provided always, That there are by this Act reserved to the Trustees, for the Purposes of the Navigation, to pass through the several present and future Locks on the Navigation, and at their Discretion, Discretion, and not subject to any Control by the Two Companies or either of them, either with or without Barges, any Quantities of Water not exceeding the following daily Quantities; to wit, first, they may pass through the several Locks from the highest Point at which the Two Companies or either of them may hereafter take their Supply down to and including the then First Lock above Field's Weir (and which Part of the River is in this Act called the Upper Reach) any Quantities not exceeding in the whole in any One Day of Twenty-four Hours Five hundred and seventy-six thousand Cubic Feet (in this Act called the upper daily Quantity); secondly, they may pass through the several Locks from the then First Lock above Field's Weir exclusive down to and including Waltham Town Lock (and which Part of the River is in this Act called the Middle Reach) any Quantities not exceeding in the whole in any One Day of Twenty-four Hours Seven hundred and twenty thousand Cubic Feet (in this Act called the middle daily Quantity); and, thirdly, they may pass through the several Locks from Waltham Town Lock exclusive down to and including Old Ford Lock (and which Part of the River is in this Act called the Lower Reach) any Quantities not exceeding in the whole in any One Day of Twenty-four Hours Eight hundred and sixty-four thousand Cubic Feet (in this Act called the lower daily Quantity). daily Quantities of Water.

XII. Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, the Trustees of the River Lee shall maintain throughout the whole Length of the said Navigation the same Depth of Water as at present, being in no Place less than Three Feet Nine Inches. Trustees to preserve River Lee of same Depth as at present.

XIII. Provided always, That the Trustees shall continue entitled for the Purposes of the Navigation to all such Water below Tottenham Mill as from Time to Time shall not be required by the Two Companies or either of them to be taken at their respective Pumping and Drawing Stations, and such Water is accordingly by this Act reserved to the Trustees: Provided also, that that reserved Water shall be used by the Trustees only for the fair and legitimate Purposes of the Navigation, and the other Purposes in that Behalf by this Act provided. Reservation to Trustees of Water below Tottenham Mill.

XIV. In order to prevent Differences as to those Three daily Quantities respectively, they shall from Time to Time be measured and estimated by the Locksfull of Water from Time to Time used in the Navigation: Provided always, that if the Trustees or the Two Companies or either of them at any Time desire that any other accurate Mode for the Measurement of the Water be adopted, such Mode may be adopted accordingly; provided also, that if the Trustees and the Two Companies fail to agree on the Mode to be adopted the Difference shall be settled by Arbitration. Mode of estimating Trustees Quantities of Water.

XV. For the Purpose of estimating those Three daily Quantities respectively the Cubical Contents of a Lockfull of Water shall be estimated as being so many Cubic Feet of Water as the Lock when filled contains between the Levels of the upper and lower Water on each Time of using the Lock, with the Addition thereto of the fairly estimated Quantity of Water escaping therefrom by any observed Leakage beyond Two Locksfull for each Twenty-four Hours. Estimate of a Lockfull of Water.

XVI. So long as such Mode of estimating those Three daily Quantities respectively by Locksfull is in force, the Trustees shall keep an accurate Account of the several Locksfull of Water from Day to Day passed down through the Locks on the Navigation, and such Account shall be kept in a Book at all such Locks as are necessary, which Book shall be kept by the respective Lock-keeper of such Lock at his House on the Navigation; and the Locks at which such Books shall be kept shall, if not agreed on between the Trustees and the Two Companies, be settled by Arbitration. Trustees to keep Account of Locksfull of Water used on Navigation.

XVII. If and whenever any other Mode of estimating those Quantities is in force, the Trustees shall keep accurate Accounts in proper Books accordingly; and the Plan on which such Accounts shall be kept shall, if not agreed on between the Trustees and the Two Companies, be settled by Arbitration. Trustees to keep other Accounts, if Estimate by Locksfull abandoned.

XVIII. Every such Account Book from Time to Time kept by the Trustees, as by this Act provided, shall at all Times be open to the Inspection and Transcription of the Two Companies and of the Undertakers of the Stort Navigation respectively, and their respective Agents in that Behalf. Accounts to be open to Inspection.

XIX. The Trustees from Time to Time shall allow the Two Companies and each of them every reasonable Use of the Weirs and Works of the Trustees, for the Purpose of from Time to Time observing and recording the Quantity of Water in and flowing down the River respectively. Use of Weirs, &c. for observing Quantities of Water.

XX. Notwithstanding such Transfer and Vesting, and except only as is by this Act provided with respect to the Quantity of Water to be taken by the New River Company through the Gauge, each of the Two Companies from Time to Time after the passing of this Act shall, as against the Claims to Compensation for Loss of Water or Water Power on the Part of the Owners and Occupiers of Mills and Works on the River Lee, be held to be entitled to take from the River Lee and the Navigation thereof all such Water as they are now or but for the passing of this Act would be entitled so to take, and all their respective Rights in that Behalf are accordingly by this Act reserved to them respectively. Reservation to Two Companies of existing Rights to take Water.

XXI. Provided always, That after the passing of this Act the said Act of the Twelfth Year of George the Second, Chapter 32, shall be read as authorizing the New River Company from Time to Time to take from the River Lee, through the Gauge specified in that Act, or through any other Gauge to be substituted for it, as herein-after mentioned, Two thousand five hundred Cubic Feet of Water a Minute, and no more. Limit of 2,500 Cubic Feet a Minute of Water for New River Company.

XXII. After the passing of this Act the East London Company from Time to Time may, subject to the Provisions hereof, take from the River Lee Two thousand five hundred Cubic Feet of Water per Minute at any Point or Points at which the said Company under their said Acts are now authorized to take the same, or could before the passing of this Act have purchased of the Trustees, under the Trustees Act of 1850, the Right of taking such Water. 2,500 Cubic Feet a Minute of Water for the East London Company.

XXIII. After

Additional Water for each Company.

XXIII. After the passing of this Act each of the Two Companies may, subject to the Provisions hereof, take, pari passu, any Quantity of Water beyond their respective Quantities of Two thousand five hundred Cubic Feet a Minute: Provided always, that neither of the Two Companies shall in any One Day take more than Five hundred Cubic Feet of Water a Minute beyond their respective Quantity of Two thousand five hundred Cubic Feet a Minute, without having previously given to the other Company Two Days previous Notice in Writing of their Intention to take such Excess.

Level from which New River Company may take additional Water.

XXIV. Provided always, That the New River Company shall not, except as next herein-after mentioned, without or for any longer Period than shall be expressed by the previous Consent in Writing of the East London Company, take any such Water beyond the New River Company's Two thousand five hundred Cubic Feet a Minute out of any Level of the River higher than the Level from which the East London Company are then taking their Two thousand five hundred Cubic Feet a Minute.

Permission of Board of Trade to New River Company to take additional Water from higher Level.

XXV. Provided nevertheless, That if and whenever the New River Company shall be desirous of taking any Water beyond their Two thousand five hundred Cubic Feet a Minute out of any Level of the River higher than the Level from which the East London Company are then taking their Two thousand five hundred Cubic Feet a Minute (the same being a Level out of which the New River Company under their said Acts are now authorized to take Water, or out of which the New River Company could before the passing of this Act have purchased of the Trustees under the Trustees Act, 1850, the Right of taking such Water), and the East London Company fail for Eight Days after being thereunto requested by the New River Company to consent to their taking such additional Water from any such higher Level, then and in every such Case the New River Company may, after giving not less than Eight Days previous Notice in Writing of their Intention so to do to the East London Company, apply to the Board of Trade for their Consent to such proposed taking from such higher Level by the New River Company; and if the Board of Trade, on Inquiry, and after Notice for hearing the Two Companies thereon, be satisfied that the New River Company can take such additional Water from such higher Level without Detriment either in Quantity or Quality to the Supply of Water which the East London Company are from Time to Time entitled to take, or to the Navigation, then the Board of Trade may by Writing under the Hand of the Secretary of the Board state that they are so satisfied, and permit the New River Company to take such Quantity as the Board think fit of such additional Water from such higher Level.

Renewal and Withdrawal of Permission.

XXVI. Provided also, That if the New River Company be at any Time desirous that any such Permission should be renewed, or if the East London Company be at any Time desirous that any such Permission should be withdrawn, then and in every such Case the same respective Company may, after not less than Eight Days previous Notice in Writing in that Behalf to the other Company, apply to the Board of Trade for such Renewal or Withdrawal, and the Board of Trade may accordingly, on Inquiry, and after Notice for hearing the Two Companies thereon, renew or withdraw the Permission by Writing under the Hand of the Secretary of that Board: Provided always, that no such original or renewed Permission by the Board of Trade shall, if objected to by the East London Company, be in force for more than One Year.

Companies not to draw Water below Head Level of the Navigation.

XXVII. The Two Companies or either of them shall not, without Consent of the Trustees, at any Time draw from the River so as to reduce the Water in any Pond of the Navigation below the present customary Head Level of that Pond, or, in case of any Alteration in the Navigation below such Head Level, as shall from Time to Time be declared by the Engineer of the Trustees, with the Concurrence of the Engineers of the Two Companies respectively, or, in case of Difference between them, by the Arbitrator, to be the Head Level of such Pond, and such Head Levels shall be so fixed as to allow the said Navigation the same Depth of Water as at present, and (except in case of great Draught, or in any Case in which the Owners or Occupiers of any Mill or Work on the said Navigation shall be entitled for occasional Purposes, or in which the Trustees shall find it necessary so to do, to draw down the Water below such Head Levels,) the same Water shall be maintained at the Heights of such Head Levels, and, notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, so much Water as is necessary for that Purpose shall be supplied from the said River Lee in priority over all other Rights of Water within the said River: Provided also, that in case it shall hereafter be found necessary, in order to maintain the Level of Water up to the said Head Levels, for the said Two Companies to allow more Water to pass down the said Navigation than the said Three several specified daily Quantities, a Deduction shall be made from the said annual Sums to be paid by the said Companies to the said Trustees under this Act of such an Amount as shall be equal to the Value of the extra Water so required, such Amount, in case of no special Agreement, to be estimated at the Rate of Threepence per One thousand Gallons.

Companies may take Flood Water for Storage.

XXVIII. Each of the Two Companies may from Time to Time, at their own respective Expense, and for their own respective Use, take Water from the River when in a State of Flood, for Storage thereof: Provided always, that when either of the Two Companies so take any Water for Storage they shall give Notice in Writing to the other Company, and the other Company may, pari passu, take Water for Storage.

Test of Flood Water.

XXIX. Provided always, That with respect to taking Water for Storage the River shall not be considered to be in a State of Flood when its Volume at Field's Weir in excess of the actual Draught therefrom for the Time being of the Two Companies is less than the Quantity in that Behalf agreed on between them, or, until such Agreement, as shall be settled by Arbitration: Provided always, that such Quantity in excess shall not be settled by Arbitration at less than Three thousand Cubic Feet a Minute or more than Four thousand Cubic Feet a Minute.

XXX. The Priorities of Rights to Water.

XXX. The several Rights of the Trustees and of the Two Companies respectively with respect to the Water from Time to Time flowing into or down the River Lee and the Navigation thereof shall have the following Priorities; to wit,

First, the Right of the Trustees to the upper daily Quantity, the middle daily Quantity, and the lower daily Quantity respectively within the Limits of the Upper Reach, the Middle Reach, and the Lower Reach respectively, and such further Quantity, subject as aforesaid, as shall be necessary to maintain the Water of the Navigation on a Level with the Head Levels aforesaid:

Secondly, the Right of the New River Company to take Two thousand five hundred Cubic Feet a Minute:

Thirdly, the Right of the East London Company to take Two thousand five hundred Cubic Feet a Minute:

Fourthly, the Right of each of the Two Companies to take, pari passu, Five hundred Cubic Feet each a Minute:

Fifthly, the Right of each of the Two Companies, after such Notice in that Behalf as by this Act provided, to take, pari passu, any additional Quantity of Water:

Companies may pump from Pond to Pond Water reserved to Trustees.

XXXI. The Two Companies from Time to Time, if they think fit, may, subject to the Provisions of this Act, furnish to the Trustees all or any Part of the Quantities reserved to them, by pumping Water, at the Expense of the Two Companies, from any one Pond of the Navigation to any other Pond thereof, so as they do not thereby reduce the Level of any such Pond below the customary Head Level from Time to Time thereof.

Trustees may pump from Pond to Pond Water reserved to them.

XXXII. The Trustees, from Time to Time, if they think fit, and in exercise of any of their Powers under any of the recited Acts, may make such Ponds and other Works as may in their Judgment give to them the greatest Advantage in the User for the Navigation of the Water reserved to them, and, if they think fit, may Pump back any Part of the Water so reserved from any one Pond of the Navigation to any other Pond thereof, without being liable to allow to the Two Companies or either of them in respect of the Water which may be so pumped back by them any Deduction from the said annual Sums payable by them to the Trustees.

Trustees not to draw down certain Ponds or Levels below Head Marks;

XXXIII. Except for the Purpose of using for the Purposes of the Navigation the Three daily Quantities respectively, the Trustees shall not, at any Place where the River Lee and the Navigation are on a common Level, at any Time draw down any Pond or Level below the then Headmarks of such Pond or Level, without in every Case giving Forty-eight Hours previous Notice if the Pond or Level be above the then First Lock above Field's Weir, to the Engineer of the New River Company, or if the Pond or Level be below that Lock, to the Engineer of the East London Company, or if the upper Pond at Field's Weir, then also to the Manager of the Undertakers of the River Stort.

without Consent of Engineer to be appointed to decide in case of Objection by Company.

XXXIV. If the New River Company, or, as the Case may be, the East London Company, object to any such drawing down, and give Notice in Writing thereof to the Trustees, they shall not so draw down the Pond or Level without the Approval in Writing of an Engineer appointed in that Behalf by the Parties in difference, or failing such Appointment within Seven Days after Application by the Trustees to the Company in question to concur in such Appointment, then not without the Approval in Writing of the Arbitrator.

Trustees may grant User for Steam Engines, &c. of Water reserved to them.

XXXV. The Trustees from Time to Time may grant to any Persons the Right to use, for the Purposes of Steam Engines or Manufactories on the Banks of the Navigation, any Part of the Water by this Act reserved to the Trustees: Provided always, that, except so far as the Water from Time to Time taken from the River Lee under any such Grant is, within Twenty-four Hours after the taking thereof, returned into the same Reach of the River Lee, the Quantity so from Time to Time taken shall be allowed for as Part of, as the Case may be, the daily Quantity of Five hundred and seventy-six thousand Cubic Feet, Seven hundred and twenty thousand Cubic Feet, or the daily Quantity of Eight hundred and sixty-four thousand Cubic Feet, or the further daily Quantity respectively reserved to the Trustees.

Transfer to Companies of certain Powers of Trustees.

XXXVI. All the Powers and Authorities which by the recited Acts or any of them are now vested in, or which but for this Act might be exercised by the Trustees, with respect to the Water of the River Lee by this Act vested in the Two Companies, and with respect to the appropriating, economising, and Management of such Water, and with respect to the Water Power and Compensation for the Loss of Water Power to which the Owners and Occupiers of Mills and Works upon the River Lee are entitled, are by this Act transferred to and shall be vested in and may be exercised by the Two Companies, so far as the Exercise thereof may be requisite for securing to the Two Companies or either of them the full Benefit in their respective Behalf of this Act, but nevertheless so that the Trustees may also exercise the same, so far as may be requisite, for the Purposes of the Navigation.

Provisions of Acts to apply to Companies accordingly.

XXXVII. The several Clauses and Provisions with respect to the Powers and Authorities so vested in the Two Companies respectively in favour of, relating to, or affecting the Trustees, or their Officers or Servants, or any of them, contained in the recited Acts or any of them, or any other Acts or Act, and which immediately before the passing of this Act were in force, shall apply to the Two Companies respectively, and their respective Officers and Servants, and shall continue and be in full Force accordingly; and the Two Companies respectively, and their respective Officers and Servants, may and shall accordingly, and for the Purposes of this Act, but without Prejudice to the Purposes of the Navigation, be entitled to, and have, exercise, and enjoy, and be subject and conform to, all such Rights, Interests, Powers, Authorities, Indemnities, Privileges, Duties, Penalties, and Obligations whatsoever as if this Act were not passed the Trustees, their Officers and Servants, under or by virtue of the same, might be entitled to, or might have, exercise, or enjoy, or would be subject to.

Works for economising Water.

XXXVIII. The Two Companies respectively, in exercise of any of the Powers of the recited Acts relating to them, from Time to Time may, and the Trustees in exercise of any of the Powers of the recited Acts relating to them, if and when so required by the Two Companies respectively, shall, and in every Case at the Expense of the Two Companies respectively, make, for the Purpose of husbanding, economising, or storing Water, any such Modification of any of the now existing and future Works and Ponds of the Navigation as the Two Companies respectively from Time to Time think fit: Provided always, that no such Modification shall impede the Navigation or alter the Depth thereof, or interfere with the Improvement or Efficiency of the Lockage thereof; provided also, that the Plans for every such Modification shall be first submitted to the Engineer of the Trustees for his Approval thereof; provided also, that every Difference between the Trustees and the Two Companies or either of them, on such Plans, shall be settled by Arbitration.

Penalty for wasting Water.

XXXIX. If any Person employed on or using the Navigation shall at any Time knowingly and wilfully waste or permit to be wasted any of the Water by this Act vested in the Two Companies or either of them, or reserved to the Trustees, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit not exceeding Forty Shillings; and every such Penalty shall be recovered by the Trustees or the Two Companies, or One of them, under the Provisions "with respect to the Recovery of Damages not specially provided for, and Penalties" of "The Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845."

Trustees to repair Locks, &c.

XL. The Trustees from Time to Time shall put and keep in good Repair and Condition all such Locks, Banks, and other Works and Portions of the Navigation as it may from Time to Time be necessary to put and keep in good Repair and Condition for the Purpose of securing to the Two Companies respectively the full and proper Use and Enjoyment of the Water by this Act vested in them, and their Rights with respect to such Water, and more particularly such of the same Locks, Banks, Works, and Portions as shall be immediately below or parallel with the Place or Places where the Two Companies or either of them shall from Time to Time be drawing Water, except Ware Lock, or any Lock to be substituted instead thereof, which shall be repaired as heretofore by the New River Company, and the Trustees shall not waste or permit or suffer any Waste or Leakage of any Water of the River.

If Trustees fail to repair Locks, &c. Companies may do the Work, at the Expense of Trustees.

XLI. At any Time after the Twenty-third Day of April One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, if and whenever the Trustees fail to put or keep in such Repair and Condition any of such Locks, Banks, Works, and Portions, or fail to prevent effectually, and to the Satisfaction of the Two Companies or either of them, all such Wastes and Leakage, the Two Companies or either of them, after Notice in Writing from their Clerk to the Clerk of the Trustees, left at the Office of the Trustees, and after the Expiration of Forty-eight Hours from the leaving of such Notice, may make and do all such Works and Things as shall be proper and sufficient for putting or keeping in such Repair and Condition such Locks, Banks, Works, and Portions respectively, and for effectually preventing such Waste or Leakage, and may deduct the Cost of the necessary Repairs in that Behalf from any Sums from Time to Time payable under this Act by the Two Companies or either of them to the Trustees, the Amount of such Cost to be, in case of Difference, settled by Arbitration.

Trustees, at Request and Expense of Companies, to cleanse Channels, &c.

XLII. The Trustees from Time to Time, at the Request and Expense of the Two Companies or either of them, shall exercise all or any of the Rights, Powers, or Authorities of the Trustees for the Purpose of cleansing, clearing, or repairing any of the Channels, Cuts, or Courses of the River, whether navigable or not: Provided always, that in the Cases by this Act expressly provided for of Repairs to be made by the Trustees at their own Expense, neither of the Two Companies, though requesting the Trustees to make such Repairs, shall be liable to the Expense thereof.

Specified Works to be executed by Trustees.

XLIII. Within Three Years after the passing of this Act the Trustees shall expend Thirty thousand Pounds, Part of the Forty-two thousand Pounds to be paid to them by the New River Company, so far as the same will go, in executing, so far as the same are authorized under the recited Acts relating to the Trustees, and unless and except so far as the Trustees and the Two Companies otherwise agree, in the following Order, the following Works, and in paying for the Land necessary for the same; to wit,

First, Old Ford Lock shall be replaced by a Pair of Locks with communicating Sluices, one of those Locks to be Ninety-six Feet long and Eighteen Feet Six Inches wide in clear Inside Measure, and the other of those Locks to be Ninety Feet long and Sixteen Feet wide in clear Inside Measure; the Hackney Cut between Old Ford Lock and Homerton Lock may be raised to the Level of Lee Bridge Cut; Homerton Lock may be removed, but before such Removal the Trustees shall provide a suitable Place between Homerton Lock and Lee Bridge for inserting Stop Planks, which shall be inserted there, and shall be so made and maintained by the Trustees as effectually to prevent all Escape of Water whenever they draw down the Water at or above Old Ford Lock, for its Repair or Alteration, or for any other Purpose:

Secondly, Stanstead Lock and Weir shall be removed; Field's Weir Level shall be carried back to near Amwell Marsh, where a new Lock shall be built of no greater Dimensions than Tottenham Lock; Hardmead Lock shall be rebuilt:

Thirdly, Tottenham Lock may be raised to a Fall of Nine Feet Eight Inches, and the Banks thence to Stonebridge Lock may be proportionately raised; Edmonton Lock may be removed; the Level of Stonebridge Cut may be raised; Stonebridge Cut may be continued up to Picket's Lock, where a new Lock may be built suitable to the new Fall caused by those Alterations; and no such new Lock shall be built of less Width than Thirteen Feet Eight Inches.

XLIV. Those

Certificates of Completion of those Works.

XLIV. Those several Works to be executed by the Trustees shall be executed to the Satisfaction of the Engineer of the Trustees; and whenever he shall give to the Trustees his Certificate that any Monies have been duly expended on any of those Works, or in paying for any Land necessary for the same, and until the whole of the Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds to be, as by this Act provided, paid by the New River Company to the Trustees by Instalments, is so paid, the New River Company shall, within Seven Days after the Delivery to them of every such Certificate, pay to the Trustees the Amount so therein specified, with such Interest thereon as by this Act provided.

Providing by Companies of Land for Trustees of some of those Works.

XLV. The Two Companies or either of them, and the Trustees, from Time to Time may agree for the providing by the Two Companies or either of them for the Trustees of any Lands requisite for the raising of the Banks of the Navigation on the Eastern and Western Sides of the Cut between Tottenham Lock and Stonebridge Lock, and on the Eastern Side of the Cut between Homerton Lock and Old Ford Lock, and also of the Land on which Tottenham Lock and the new Cut respectively stand, except the Eastern Bank of the new Cut above and below Tottenham Lock; and every such Agreement may be on such Terms and Conditions as the Parties thereto think fit, and may and shall be carried into execution accordingly.

Companies to manage the France Weir.

XLVI. The Two Companies shall henceforth manage and be responsible for the due Management of the France Weir, and shall be entitled to the Interest and subject to the Liabilities of the Trustees in and with respect to the adjacent Weirs and Cuts as expressed in a Deed relating thereto dated the Seventeenth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and forty.

Companies to repair Works.

XLVII. The Two Companies respectively shall put and keep in good Repair and Condition all such Works belonging to them respectively as it may from Time to Time be necessary to put and keep in good Repair and Condition for the Purpose of preventing Waste of Water.

Provision as to Section 30. of Trustees Act of 1850.

XLVIII. Section Thirty of "The Trustees Act of 1850," providing that the Trustees shall not make any Cut, Lock, Tide Gate, or other Alteration or Work of or in the Navigation of the River Lee in any Place between the Old Ford Lock and Bromley Lock until a Sewer and other Drains as therein described shall have been made for draining Property of the East London Waterworks, and of Messieurs Farnan and Sons, shall, upon the East London Company, under their Common Seal, and Messieurs Farnan and Sons, their Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, under their Hands, declaring their Consent to the Repeal of the same, become null and void.

Provision as to Section 39. of Trustees Act of 1850.

XLIX. Notwithstanding the Provisions of Section Thirty-nine of "The Trustees Act of 1850," but without Prejudice to the Provisions of Section Forty of that Act, the Conveyance by the first-mentioned Section provided for to the Trustees of the Compensation Reservoir may, if the East London Company so think fit, be subject to any Exceptions and Reservations for them and all other Persons interested in the now existing Right and Passage of Drainage into and through the Compensation Reservoir, and in order to secure the Preservation thereof, of the Mouth of the Sluices, and also of any Part of the Barrier Bank which that Company may think necessary, but subject to the Obligation of their maintaining the Part so retained by them of that Bank.

As to Sect. 41. of Trustees Act of 1850.

L. If the East London Company so require, the Trustees shall, at their Request, release them from the Obligation imposed on them by Section Forty-one of "The Trustees Act of 1850."

As to Pipes for East London Company.

LI. Subject to the Provisions of Section Forty-three of "The Trustees Act of 1850," the East London Company may lay Pipes and Services and execute Works at any Point, not being within Five Furlongs of the Junction of the Stort with the River Lee, under or over the Navigation.

Gates to be made across Copper Mill Tail.

LII. In case the Two Companies or either of them shall consider it necessary, the Trustees shall, at the Expense of the Two Companies or either of them, make and maintain such Gates, either with or against the Stream, or both, as may be required, across the Tail of the Walthamstow Copper Mill.

Water taken by Companies to be gauged.

LIII. The Quantities of Water from Time to Time taken by the Two Companies respectively from the River, and in the River at Field's Weir, shall respectively from Time to Time be taken, measured, observed, and registered by such Gauges and in such Manner as the Two Companies from Time to Time agree on, and all such Gauges shall be furnished with such Apparatus as shall be proper and sufficient for duly measuring and registering the respective Quantities of Water.

For erecting a self-acting Gauge.

LIV. And for the Purpose of limiting the Water to be taken by the New River Company to the said Quantity of Two thousand five hundred Cubic Feet per Minute, the said New River Company shall, within Twelve Months from the passing of this Act, in lieu of the Gauge and Standards now required by the said Act of the Twelfth George the Second, construct, and shall from Time to Time maintain and keep in proper Repair and Condition, a Gauge which shall limit the Water so to be taken to a Quantity not exceeding Two thousand five hundred Cubic Feet per Minute, such Gauge to be constructed under the Inspection of and to the Satisfaction of an Engineer to be appointed for that Purpose by Her Majesty's Secretary of State for the War Department; and the said Gauge shall at all Times be open to the Inspection of the Companies, of the Trustees of the River Lee, of the Owners and Occupiers of Mills, and of Her Majesty's Officers of Ordnance; and if and whenever the said Gauge shall be out of repair, inaccurate, or insufficient, Her Majesty's Secretary of State for the War Department, giving not less than Ten Days Notice of his Intention in that Behalf to the New River Company, together with a Plan and Specification of the Works required, may, in case such Want of Repair continues, do all such Works as shall be specified in such Notice, or, in case of Disputes, be settled by Arbitration as proper and sufficient for repairing the said Gauge, or making it accurate and sufficient; and the New River Company shall, on Demand, repay to the said Secretary of State the Expense of doing such Works and Things as aforesaid, and the same, if not so repaid, may be recovered from the New River Company by Information at the Suit of Her Majesty's Attorney General at the Court of Exchequer at Westminster.

New River Company to deposit Drawings of Gauge.

LV. The New River Company shall deposit with the Clerks of the Peace for the Counties of Hertford, Essex, and Middlesex accurate Drawings of the said Gauge, and such Drawings shall be sufficient Evidence in all Courts and for all Purposes of the Nature, Construction, and Operation of the said Gauge; and the said Drawings shall at all Times be open to the Inspection of the Companies, of the Trustees, of the Owners and Occupiers of Mills, and of Her Majesty's Officers of Ordnance.

Examination of Gauges.

LVI. Each of the Two Companies from Time to Time shall afford to the other all proper and sufficient Facilities for inspecting, examining, and testing the Accuracy and Sufficiency of the several Gauges from Time to Time provided or in use by them respectively for any of the Purposes of this Act, and for measuring and registering, by means of such Gauges or otherwise, the Quantities of Water which from Time to Time are or ought to be measured by such Gauges respectively.

Repair of Gauges.

LVII. If and whenever any such Gauge belonging to either of the Two Companies is ascertained by the other Company to be out of repair, inaccurate, or insufficient, that Company, giving not less than Eight Days Notice of their Intention in that Behalf to the Company to which the Gauge belongs, may, in case such Want of Repair continues, do all such Works and Things as shall be proper and sufficient for repairing such Gauge, or making it accurate or sufficient, and that Company shall, on Demand, repay to the Company doing such Works and Things the Expense thereof: Provided always, that if any Difference arise between the Two Companies as to any such Want of Repair, Inaccuracy, or Insufficiency, or as to any such Works or Things, the Difference shall be settled by Arbitration.

Differences as to Gauges to be settled by Arbitration.

LVIII. Provided always, That if any Difference arise between the Two Companies respectively as to the Propriety or Sufficiency of the Gauge specified in the recited Act of the Twelfth Year of George the Second, or of any Alteration thereof, or of any Gauge substituted or proposed to be substituted for the same, or of any other Gauge from Time to Time provided by the Two Companies or either of them, for any of the Purposes of this Act, or as to the Mode in which the Quantities of Water taken by the Two Companies respectively from the River and in the River at Field's Weir shall be taken, measured, observed, or registered, or as to the Propriety or Sufficiency of any Gauge or other Means theretofore agreed or determined on for the Purpose of taking, measuring, observing, or registering the same, every such Difference shall be settled by Arbitration.

Companies may purchase Interest of Trustees in Chingford Mill, &c.

LIX. If the Two Companies or either of them so think fit, they may, within Two Years after the passing of this Act, purchase from the Trustees, who (being willing so to do) shall within such Two Years sell to them, the Interest of the Trustees in Chingford Mill and Charlton Mill, or either of them, and the Tolls and Property of the Trustees held therewith respectively: Provided always, that, unless the Two Companies or One of them and the Trustees otherwise agree, the Sum to be paid by the Two Companies or either of them for such Purpose shall be ascertained by Valuation according to the Provisions of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845."

Intercepting Drains, &c. for Companies.

LX. Provided always, That the Rights, Interests, Powers, and Authorities of the Trustees shall be subject and without Prejudice to all such Powers and Authorities as the Two Companies or either of them from Time to Time have for the making of any intercepting Drains for excluding foul Waters from their respective Supplies of Water, and for the Discharge of such intercepting Drains into the Navigation, and for altering and removing from Time to Time their respective Supply Heads, the Mode of Entry and Mouth of such intercepting Drains being made to the Satisfaction of the Engineer for the Time being of the Trustees, or, in case of Dispute, an Umpire, as herein-after described.

Companies to indemnify Trustees from Claims for Compensation.

LXI. Except as by this Act otherwise provided, the Two Companies respectively shall indemnify the Trustees against all Claims by Millowners or others for Compensation on account of any Abstraction of Water by the Two Companies or either of them, or on account of the Exercise by the Two Companies or either of them of any of their Powers and Authorities under this Act.

Trustees not to claim Compensation from Companies for Abstraction of Water, &c.

LXII. Provided always, That the Trustees shall not be entitled to claim against the Two Companies or either of them, with respect to any Weirs, Falls, Mills, or Fisheries, or any other Rights or Privileges now belonging to or enjoyed by the Trustees, any Compensation on account of any Abstraction of Water or any other incidental Damage or Injury from Time to Time occasioned by the Exercise by the Two Companies or either of them of any of their Powers and Authorities under this Act.

Agreements between Trustees and the Two Companies as to their Powers under Act.

LXIII. The Trustees on the one hand and the Two Companies on the other hand, and the New River Company on the one hand and the East London Company on the other hand, from Time to Time may enter into such Agreements as they respectively think fit for the Purpose of executing or carrying into effect any of their respective Powers and Authorities, and for vesting in or securing to them respectively their respective Rights and Interests under this Act; and every such Agreement may be on such Terms and Conditions as the Parties thereto think fit, and may and shall be carried into effect accordingly; provided that no such Agreement so to be made by the Trustees or the Companies shall in any Manner contravene the Provisions of this Act for the Maintenance of the said Navigation.

Exercise of Powers of Act by either Company alone.

LXIV. Provided always, That in every Case in which it shall be requisite for the Purposes of the Supply of Water by either of the Two Companies, or for the Preservation of the Quantity or Quality of the Water to be supplied by that Company, or otherwise for the Protection of that Company, that any of the Powers or Authorities of this Act should be exercised by the Two Companies, and the other Company shall fail to concur in the Exercise thereof with the Company requiring the Exercise thereof, then, but subject and without Prejudice to the respective Rights of the Two Companies inter se, and notwithstanding the Pendency of any Arbitration with respect to any Difference thereon, but subject and and without Prejudice to the Result of such Arbitration (if any), the Company requiring such Exercise may exercise with respect to the Matter in question the Powers and Authorities under this Act of the Two Companies.

Differences under Act to be settled by Arbitration.

LXV. If and whenever any Difference shall arise between the Trustees and the Two Companies or either of them with respect to the Exercise of any of the Powers or Authorities of this Act, or with respect to anything to be done, authorized, or suffered for any of the Purposes of this Act, or otherwise with respect to the Execution or Operation of this Act, every such Difference shall be settled by Arbitration.

Certain Clauses of Companies Clauses Act incorporated.

LXVI. The Provisions "with respect to the Settlement of Disputes by Arbitration" of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," are incorporated with this Act, and, subject to the Provisions of this Act, shall apply to all Arbitrations under this Act.

Appointment of single Arbitrator.

LXVII. For the Purposes of Arbitration under this Act, the Trustees and the Two Companies shall, within One Month after the passing of this Act, and in the then next and every subsequent Month of December, appoint One Person, being a Civil Engineer, to be the single Arbitrator until the End of the Month of December next after the Month in which he is appointed: Provided always, that if the Trustees and the Two Companies differ with respect to the Person to be appointed the Arbitrator, then and in every such Case the Board of Trade, on the Application of the Trustees and the Two Companies or either of them, may appoint One competent and impartial Person, being a Civil Engineer, to be the single Arbitrator until the End of the Month of December next after the Month in which he is appointed.

Reference to Arbitration.

LXVIII. Every Matter which according to this Act is to be settled by Arbitration shall, and every Difference between the Trustees and the Two Companies or any Two of them which the Parties in Difference agree so to refer, may be referred to the single Arbitrator: Provided always, that if the single Arbitrator fail to make his final Award on any Matter referred to him within Three Months after it is so referred, then and in every such Case the Matter so referred, or the Part thereof on which he so fails to award, shall be determined by Arbitration, according to the Provisions "with respect to the Settlement of Disputes by Arbitration," of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845."

Arbitrators may make several Awards instead of One.

LXIX. In any Arbitration under this Act the Arbitrator or Arbitrators or Umpire from Time to Time may make several Awards, each as to Part of the Matter referred, instead of One Award as to the whole Matter; and every such Award on Part of a Matter shall, as to the Part thereof thereby duly awarded on, be a final and conclusive Award as if that Part were the whole Matter referred.

Cost of Reference.

LXX. All the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of and incident to any Reference and Arbitration under this Act shall be duly ascertained and determined by the Arbitrator or Arbitrators or Umpire, and shall be borne by the Parties in difference or any of them, and if by more than One Party, in such Proportions as the Arbitrator or Arbitrators or Umpire shall award.

Not to exempt Companies from Metropolis Water Act.

LXXI. Nothing in this Act shall exempt the Two Companies or either of them from the Provisions of "The Metropolis Water Act, 1852."

Certain Owners, &c. of Lands may take Water.

LXXII. Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall prevent any Owner or Occupier of Land through which the Water flowing into or down the River Lee passes from taking and using such Water for any agricultural, domestic, or sanitary Purposes within his own Household or Estate.

Respecting the Rights of the Mayor, &c. of Hertford.

LXXIII. Nothing in this Act contained shall prejudice, diminish, or affect any of the Rights, Powers, or Authorities vested in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Hertford, particularly the Right of Water Power by which the Pumps of the Waterworks of the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses are worked; and the Right of the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses to take Water from the River Lee by means of the present or any future Waterworks within the said Borough shall be limited not to exceed daily One hundred thousand Gallons, the estimated Quantity at present taken, and such further Quantity beyond the One hundred thousand Gallons as shall be necessary to make up a Supply of Twenty-five Gallons per Head daily upon the Population of the said Borough for the Time being supplied with Water; and the said Borough shall mean the Municipal Borough.

For Protection of the Regent's Canal Company.

LXXIV. For the Protection of the Company of Proprietors of the Regent's Canal (herein-after called the Canal Company),

1. Nothing in this Act contained shall take away, diminish, alter, prejudice, or affect any of the Rights, Privileges, Powers, or Authorities vested in the Canal Company, either under the several Acts passed for making and maintaining that Canal or the Limehouse Basin, or any other Acts relating thereto, or to which the Canal Company are entitled in respect of the Waters of the River Lee, under any Agreement between the Trustees and the Canal Company, and (except only as is by this Act provided with respect to the Quantity of Water to be taken by the New River Company through the Marble Gauge) the Waters of the River Lee, so far as they are by any such Agreement made liable to be applied for the Purposes or Benefit of the Canal Company, shall, notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, remain so liable:
2. Nothing in this Act contained shall take away, diminish, alter, prejudice, or affect any of the Rights, Privileges, Powers, or Authorities vested in Sir George Duckett or his Assigns, under the Act for making and maintaining the Hertford Union Canal, or under any other Act relating thereto.

Saving the Rights of the Board of Ordnance.

LXXV. Except so far as the same are by this Act specially altered, nothing in this Act shall prejudice or derogate from the Estates, Rights, Interests, Liberties, Privileges, or Franchises of Her Majesty's Secretary of State for the War Department, or prohibit, defeat, alter, or diminish any Power, Authority, Interest, or Jurisdiction which immediately before the passing of this Act that Secretary of State, as the Successor

Successor to the Master General and the Principal Officers of Her Majesty's Ordnance, did or might lawfully claim, use, or exercise.

Saving Rights of the Ware Local Board.

LXXVI. Except so far as the same are by this Act specially altered, this Act or anything therein shall not take away, alter, abridge, lessen, or prejudicially affect any Property, Right, Remedy, Protection, Power, Authority, Privilege, Exemption, or Benefit vested in or now enjoyed or exercised by the Ware Local Board of Health, but, except as aforesaid, all such Property, Rights, Remedies, Protections, Powers, Authorities, Privileges, Exemptions, or Benefit shall be and remain in full Force and Effect, and shall be available for the Benefit of the said Board, in the same Manner to all Intents and Purposes as if this Act were not passed.

Rights of Tottenham Local Board of Health not to be affected.

LXXVII. Except so far as the same are by this Act specially altered, this Act or anything therein shall not take away, alter, abridge, lessen, or prejudicially affect any Property, Right, Remedy, Protection, Power, Authority, Privilege, Exemption, or Benefit vested in or now enjoyed or exercised by the Tottenham Local Board of Health, but, except as aforesaid, all such Property, Rights, Remedies, Protections, Powers, Authorities, Privileges, Exemptions, or Benefit shall be and remain in full Force and Effect, and shall be available for the Benefit of the said Board, in the same Manner to all Intents and Purposes as if this Act were not passed.

Saving Rights of Undertakers of the Stort Navigation.

LXXVIII. Except so far as the same are by this Act specially altered, this Act or anything therein shall not take away, alter, abridge, lessen, or prejudicially affect any Property, Right, Remedy, Protection, Power, Authority, Privilege, Toll, Duty, Exemption, or Benefit vested in or now enjoyed or exercised by the Undertakers of the Stort Navigation, but, except as aforesaid, all such Property, Rights, Remedies, Protections, Powers, Authorities, Privileges, Tolls, Duties, Exemptions, or Benefit shall be and remain in full Force and Effect, and shall be available for the Benefit of the Undertakers of the Stort Navigation, in the same Manner to all Intents and Purposes as if this Act were not passed.

Saving Rights of the Trustees of the River Lee.

LXXIX. Except so far as the same are by this Act specially altered, this Act or anything therein shall not take away, alter, abridge, lessen, or prejudicially affect any Property, Right, Remedy, Protection, Power, Authority, Privilege, Toll, Duty, Exemption, or Benefit vested in or now enjoyed or exercised by the Trustees, but, except as aforesaid, all such Property, Rights, Remedies, Protections, Powers, Authorities, Privileges, Tolls, Duties, Exemptions, or Benefit shall be and remain in full Force and Effect, and shall be available for the Benefit of the Trustees in the same Manner to all Intents and Purposes as if this Act were not passed.

Rights of Mayor, &c. of London not to be affected, &c.

LXXX. Except as regards the Interpretation of the said Act of the Twelfth Year of King George the Second, Chapter Thirty-two, nothing in this Act shall affect the Claim for Compensation and Right secured to the City Mills by the Lee Navigation Improvement Act, 1850, or shall extend to prejudice or derogate from the Estates, Rights, Interests, Liberties, Privileges, or Franchises of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London or their Successors, or the Lord Mayor of the said City for the Time being, or to prohibit, defeat, alter, or diminish any Power, Authority, or Jurisdiction which at the Time of passing this Act the said Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, or the said Lord Mayor for the Time being, as Conservator of the said River Thames, or otherwise, did or might lawfully claim, use, or exercise.

Working Power to be secured to Charlton Mill.

LXXXI. That for the Purpose of satisfying the Rights of James Poulter Manser under a Lease granted to him by the said Trustees, the New River Company shall at all Times during the Continuance of such Lease, unless the Company and the said James Poulter Manser or his Assigns shall otherwise agree, and subject to any existing Rights of the Trustees to draw down Water, and unless prevented by Frost or inevitable Accident, whenever, after the End of Six Months from the passing of this Act, the Water flowing down to Charlton Mill, by the River Lee, and applicable to the Use of the said Mill, shall be less than Four thousand Cubic Feet per Minute, provide, either by pumping Water into the Pond at the Head of the said Mill, or by the Application of Steam Power, such further Power at the said Mill as shall, together with the Water then flowing by the said River, or if there be more then as shall alone, be equal to the Power of Four thousand Cubic Feet per Minute at such Mill, such Steam Power to be supplied to the Satisfaction of Two Engineers, to be appointed, one by the said James Poulter Manser, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, and the other by the said New River Company, and an Umpire to be appointed by them; and in case of any Default by the Company in such Supply of Water or Power the said Company shall pay a Sum of Ten Pounds to the said James Poulter Manser, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, for each and every Day during which such Default shall continue after Twenty-four Hours Notice in Writing thereof, to be recovered in any Court of competent Jurisdiction.

Saving Rights of the Two Companies.

LXXXII. Provided always, That, except as is by this Act expressly provided, this Act or anything therein contained shall not take away, lessen, or prejudicially affect any of the Rights, Remedies, Powers, Authorities, Privileges, Exemptions, and Benefits vested in or granted or reserved to or now enjoyed or exercised by the Two Companies or either of them, by or by virtue of any Royal Charter, Letters Patent, Act of Parliament, Prescription, Usage, or otherwise howsoever, but all such Rights, Remedies, Powers, Authorities, Privileges, Exemptions, and Benefits (except so far as the same are necessarily altered by this Act) shall be and remain in full Force and Effect, and shall be in addition (so far as may be) to those provided by this Act, and shall be available for the Benefit of the Two Companies respectively, in the same Manner to all Intents and Purposes as if this Act had not passed.

Saving Rights of the Admiralty.

LXXXIII. Nothing in this Act contained shall diminish, prejudice, take away, alter, suspend, or affect any Right, Power, Authority, Privilege, or Jurisdiction of the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral aforesaid.

LXXXIV. All the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of and incident to the obtaining and passing of this Act shall be paid by the Two Companies, and except so far as they otherwise agree, in equal Shares. Expenses of Act.

AN

INDEX TO THE STATUTES

OF

THE UNITED KINGDOM,

VOLUME THE TWENTY-SECOND,

Containing the Acts passed 17 & 18 Vict. and 18 & 19 Vict. (1854, 1854-5.)

☞ In this Index the Acts are arranged alphabetically according to the Subject, the Parliamentary Short Title being in most Cases adopted either as a principal Heading or as a cross Reference. Minute References are likewise made from one Head to another, in order that the Subject may be fully traced out.

The "Local and Private Acts" are inserted under that General Head, and are subdivided into Classes according to the Arrangement adopted in the Index to the Statutes compiled by Order of the Committee of the Library of the House of Lords. The Local Acts are denoted by Roman Numerals, and the Private Acts by Arabic Figures.

The Acts relating to Ireland and Scotland are placed under their respective Headings in the general Body of the Index. The Short Titles (alphabetically arranged) of those Acts will likewise be found under the Heads of "Ireland" and "Scotland" respectively.

A List (arranged according to the Subject Matter) of Statutes and Parts of Statutes Repealed during the Sessions of 17 & 18 Vict. and 18 & 19 Vict. will be found at the End of the Index; but this List does not extend to Local or Private Acts, except in Cases where such Acts are repealed by Public Acts.
